EHS April 2024 Senior Spotlight: Meet Collin Elam

It has been quite a year so far! You are fresh off the mat from competing in Atlantic City at the NJSIAA State Wrestling Championships. As you reflect back, what did you take away from your last wrestling match under the big lights? It was an experience of a lifetime and something that I will remember forever.

Baseball season is here! So, baseball is your ‘real’ sport...congratulations on your commitment to New Jersey City University next year as a pitcher. What are you looking forward to this baseball season? Do you have any goals for this season? Besides being a pitcher for the Blue Devils baseball team, do play any other positions? Good luck! I am looking forward to a winning season. My main goal this season is to help my team win States this year. I also play infield.

As Fisher Middle School 8th graders are looking ahead to high school, you are truly a role model of a successful high school student. What words of advice do you have for the incoming freshman class to be successful at EHS? Put the work in now and the results will show in time.
