

MISSION STATEMENT

The Marin County SELPA believes that all students will be contributing members of their community and will complete their educational career prepared for adult life. Through collaborative and effective leadership and support to local school districts, families, and agencies within Marin County, the Marin County SELPA will work to ensure the provision of appropriate programs and services for individuals with exceptional needs.

