FOREWORD

In the compiling of the 1944 Wilsonian, it has been the aim of the staff to give the student body and friends of Wilsonian High School, a complete record of the school year; so that, in years to come, the book will be the means of preserving the aspirations and ideals of Our Alma Mater.

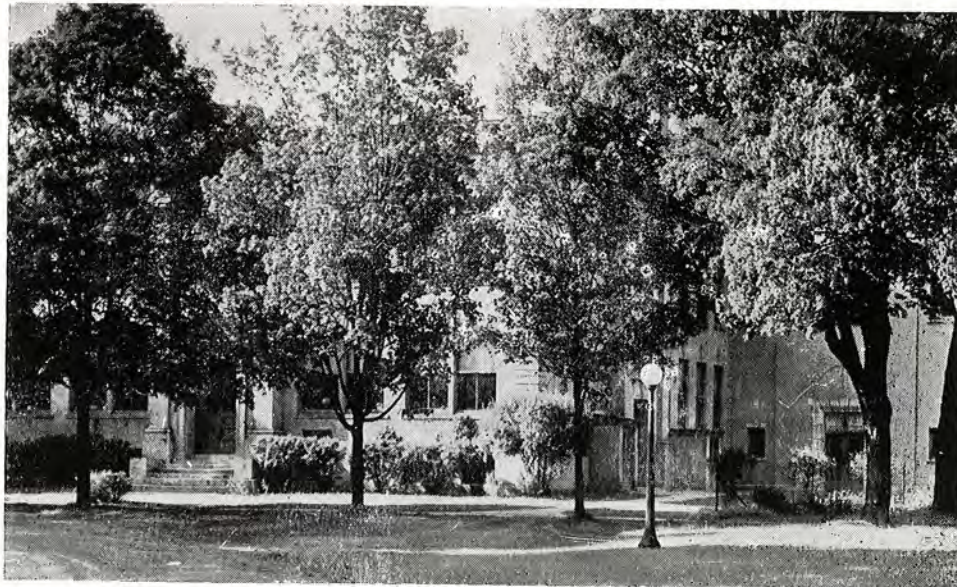

DEDICATION

To William F. Farnsworth, principal, whose loyalty and devotion have contributed greatly toward the improvement of our school, we, the seniors of '44 and the members of the journalism class, respectfully dedicate this fourth yearbook of Wilsonian High School.

ALMA MATER

All hail to thee, Wilsonian,
This school we love so dear,
Thy loyal sons and daughters true,
Throughout the passing years,
Will always fondly think of thee
And gladly sing thy praise.
All hail to thee, Wilsonian,
And Alma Mater days.

CLASS WILL

We, the class of 1944, of the Wilsonian High School, having come to our last hours, do hereby give, bequeath and devise all our worldly goods and possessions to the following beneficiaries, to-wit:

To Harry Feldbauer, we leave Jim Parson's place on the basketball team.

We think Janet Barker could use all of Ethel Prentice's quietness of manner to good advantage.

Mary and Bruce leave all their unfinished quarrels to Bud Dodge and Leta Graham.

To Beulah Clark, Jeannette Mott leaves her make-up and her late hours.

John Newman's book on Etiquette is to go to Lyle Grusendorf.

Betty Tucker wills and bequeaths her tap-dancing suit to Rita Duffy.

Phyllis Thomas wishes Mavis Crandall to use her hours for sending the boys home.

Bob Britton may have all of Bert Crawford's height. He'll need it when he gets to be captain of the basketball team.

Ann Remsen bestows on Arthur Carson all her musical ability.

Ernest Cole leaves Jack Evans all his bashfulness.

We bequeath Marcia Morton's gracious manner to Frances Peckham.

We declare this to be our last will and testament.

Witness whereof we affix our signatures.

CLASS PROPHECY

Hobunkum, Nowhere

June 20, 1956

Dear Bess,

Did I know the class of 1944? Well, I should say I did. A wonderful class they were too, according to their own way of thinking. Of course, they were good enough but good land! They weren't any better or any worse than lots of other classes I have known.

Was I a member of the class? Goodness, No! I never belonged to any class but I was a friend to them all.

What do you think? When they had their class reunion the first of this month, they invited me to attend. Each one gave me his picture and told he his life's history.

Some of them have climbed high on the ladder of fame, as they call it, while others of them haven't climbed so high, but then, maybe they will in time.

Some are rich, others aren't, but that doesn't make much difference. It seems to me whether one is rich or poor one can be just as good one way as the other. Fortune is a fickle dame anyway. Sometimes she smiles on those who least expect her favors. You are, however, waiting to hear their story. Here it is just as it was related to me.

Bruce Spangler has become a famous actor. You remember how he staged several good shows when he was attending high school. His leading lady is none other than Mary Persutti—And what a star she is bedecked in jewels and lovely gowns!

I am sure you can never guess what Jim Parson is doing. I won't keep you in suspense. Jim is a teacher in stenography and typewriting. He has opened a business college. He asks no entrance fee. The only requirement is that his pupils be able to dance the rhumba.

Then, there's Bob Dorsey. You remember he joined the Navy just before commencement. Well, Bob has gone places since then. He is an Admiral now in the service of Uncle Sam—and since Admiral George Dewey's time—there's never been a better one.

The F.B.I. snatched Betty Tucker as soon as she graduated. She has become a second Sherlock Holmes. She is called on all different cases.

After taking a business course, Ethel Prentice settled down to keeping books for Bob Carson and Company.

Almost every class turns out at least one politician. The class of 1944 was no exception. John Newman is now a United States Senator and is introducing a bill that will reduce our income tax nearly one hundred per cent.

We always considered Jeannette Mott a glamour girl—you recall that don't you? What do you think she turned out to be? A Home Economic teacher! Can you feature Jeannette being so domesticated?

Cornell called Bert Crawford and after a four years' course in veterinary work, he was given charge of the race horses from the Whitney Stables.

Soon after her graduation, Marcia joined the Nurse Cadets, she became a famous surgical nurse. She is the possessor of many medals bestowed upon her for bravery and excellent work on the battle fields.

"Jiggs" Ernest Cole loved nature too much to ever leave the soil. Ernest has a well stocked farm of purebred Holsteins which he exhibits every year at the county fair.

The mail route became too arduous for the old mail carrier so Ann Remsen took over the route. She can be seen daily plying her way between the village post office and Belfast. That takes her through Transit you know.

You never can guess what Phyllis Thomas is doing! No, she didn't go to the White House as private secretary to the President—she is now Mrs. Joseph Herdman and has a beautiful home in the country. She devotes much of her time to the Red Cross and to social work.

I think that takes in the whole class now. I know you are just as glad as I am that the class of 1944 turned out such illustrious people.

They were a rather lively class as you remember and often had us wondering what would become of them. But it seems they've done pretty well for themselves after all, doesn't it?

Your friend,

Nellie

There are 21 members in our class but 3 are absent from our picture. They are Dorothy Hubner, Richard Warner, and Lyle Grusendorf.

Our activities included the Prom in January and the skating rink in May. Our rings arrived finally and we were very glad to get them.

Originally our class consisted of twenty-four members, but owing to the fact that several have either quit school or moved to other residences, there are eighteen left. Since we have been rather busy this year, we haven't had any social gatherings. This summer each member of the class will probably do some type of work to help the war effort. Our officers are as follows:

President—Frances Sullivan
Vice President—Shirley Wilson
Secretary and Treasurer—Gertrude Platt
Our faithful class advisor—Mrs. Palmer

Sophomore Class

Third Row—Hartley Maxson, William Remsen, Arthur Carson, Harry Feldbauer, Jack Evans, Everett Hoffman.

During the year, their work consisted of a column in the "Angelica Advocate" called the "Wilsonian Whispers." They also published a "Keyhole" in April and assisted in publishing the yearbook.

The senior class of 1944 presented the play, "Lay Down, You're Dead," May 5. Miss Daley, the class advisor, directed the play.

"Lay Down, You're Dead" concerned the coming election in which Dan Evardo, a racketeer, tries to force Mr. Burrows, the editor of "The Daily Standard," to throw his support to his stooge who is running for mayor. Kenny, the little brat, saves the day by tricking Evardo. The characters were:

Albert Burrows	age 17	James Parson
Julia	his kid sister	Betty Tucker
Ollie	the Swedish maid	Ann Remsen
Frances Gaylord	the girl who lives next door	Mary Persutti
Mrs. Burrows	the mother	Jeannette Mott
Mr. Burrows	Editor of "The Daily Standard"	Bert Crawford
Dannie Evardo	a small-time racketeer	Bruce Spangler
Nora Lansdowne	Mrs. Burrow's cousin	Phyllis Thomas

Band

This year, the Wilsonian High School Band is made up of twenty-three members, five being new in the organization.

During the year, they have participated in a few high school assemblies and also the pep meetings.

Several weeks were spent in marching in preparation for the Memorial Day Parade in which the band took part.

The band will conclude its work by playing at the graduation exercises in June.

The Wilsonian High School Baseball team started off the season with a victory over Richburg, 10-5.

Few veterans of the Red Raiders were back to play this year. The outfield and infield consisted of all new players.

The Red Raiders lost to Cuba 2-1 in the play-off at Rushford.

Ross, Feldbauer and Spangler were picked as all-star players to play the eastern section.

Outstanding events of the season were Feldbauer's and Dodge's home runs, Spangler's no-hit, no run, game against Alfred-Almond, champs of the eastern section.

Spangler and Cole will be the only ones to leave the team this year.

Baseball Team

Second Row—Kenneth Scholla, "Bill" Thomas, Jack Evans, Coach Farnsworth, Donald Ross, Lytle Grusendorf, Everett Hoffman.

First Row—"Eddie" Robinson, Bert Crawford, Bruce Spangler, "Bud" Dodge, James Parson, "Skip" Feldbauer

The basketball team of the Wilsonian High came through with a very successful season by going to Rochester. During the season, the Red Raiders won 15 games and lost 4; two of which were to Class B schools. The fighting spirit of the boys gave them a close victory over Andover by a score of 23 to 22. With the score 21 to 22 in Andover's favor, they managed to sink a basket with one minute to go to win the game.

The Red Raiders played their poorest game of the season when Manchester defeated them 25 to 14 at Rochester.

Angelica placed two men in scoring honors for the season. At Alfred, Burch of Cuba was first with 168, Harry Feldbauer next with 167, and Bruce Spangler third with 145. The Red Raiders also had three men chosen for the All-Stars with Harry Feldbauer as center, Bruce Spangler as forward, and Bud Dodge as guard.

Spangler, Crawford, and Parson will be lost to next year's team.
