

A large, intricate, dark red decorative flourish or scrollwork design that frames the year '1982'. The flourish consists of multiple overlapping loops and curves, creating a symmetrical, ornate border around the text.

Dedication

This year we dedicate the Echo to one of the Greats among teachers. He's been teaching, helping, and contributing to our education for many years.

We love his after school specials, missing chalk-chucks, and him yelling "LATE!" - even if you slide in only half a second after the bell rings.

We know that even though he hates protractors, he has plenty of semi-circular approximating devices.

After years of being an ardent golfer he's finally hitting the ski slopes.

We have no word but Thank-you, Mr. Goodsell, for all you have done for us.

Faculty

Read, sweet, how others strove,
Till we are stouter;
What they renounced,
Till we are less afraid;
How many times they bore
The faithful witness,
Till we are helped,
As if a kingdom cared!

Read then of faith
That shone through the rainbow;
Clear strains of hymn
The river could not drown;
Brave names of men
And celestial women,
Passed out of record
Into renown!

Over, the thirteen long years! And now there rings
One voice of freedom and regret:
Farewell!
Now old remembrance sorrows, and now sings:
But song from sorrow, now, I cannot tell.

School Life Etc.

Tomorrow, and tomorrow and tomorrow,
Creeps in this petty pace from day
to day,
To the last syllable of recorded time;
And all our yesterdays have lighted
fools
The way to dusty death. Out, out brief candle!
Life's but a walking shadow, a poor player
That struts and frets his hour upon the stage
And then is heard no more; it is a tale Told by an idiot, full of sound and fury,
Signifying nothing

- Shakespeare
