Angelica Central School

Angelica, New York

Dedication

*Nelson
Spencer*

*Social Studies
Teacher*

It has been said that pictures are worth more than a thousand words. The thousands of words these pictures say could never sum up our deepest appreciation for the attention and consideration you have bestowed upon us throughout our high school years. We will never forget the teacher who is always ready to help.

A few other highlights we well remember are ninth grade social studies, with a sideline course in fly-swatting; World History, with waste paper basket twirling; and American History, complete with lessons in intricate tap dance.

The Economics students will never forget the great debates conducted in their class.

For all of these things, from all of us - Thank you, Mr. Spencer.

Chorus

The Choraliers, directed by Miss Murray, is a new organization which performed publicly for the first time last summer. After a successful engagement at the Allegany County Fair, they were asked to present their talent before several local organizations. They hope to continue to work together for the coming seasons.
