SENIOR CLASS WILL

June 19, 1959

Being of sound mind and body, we the class of 1959, of Angelica Central School, do hereby state that this is our final will:

We will and bequeath Gary's braces to Terry Fleming.

To Roger Graham, we will all of Bill's girl friends.

Wrexie leaves her chatter-ability to Marjorie Hall.

We bestow, upon Don Case, Marian's black tights, to be used especially for basketball.

Brenda leaves three dozen bobby-pins to Karen Corsaw.

We will Sandy's ability to flirt to Ellen Derx.

To Lee Emery, Don leaves his beautiful wig from the Senior play.

Ray bestows upon the Jennings' family his little brothers.

To Archie McRae, Bruce leaves his neat brushcut.

Ronnie leaves the rest of the girls in Belmont to Eugene Mott.

We will and bequeath Dick's wisecracks to David Sabey.

To Ralph Gonzales, Bonnie leaves her quiet disposition.

Kay bequeaths her clarinet to Donna Speers.

Kathy Norton wills all her boy friends in Hornell, Wellsville, Arkport, Buffalo, Arcade, and points beyond to Jean Almeter.

We will Gen's freckles to Mr. Foreman.

Geneva leaves her ponytail to Carol Benjamin.

To Judy Farnsworth, we bequeath Pollyanna's knowledge of farming.

Tom leaves four dozen autographs to all his future fans.

Phil wills and bequeaths his favorite expression "hold it!" to anyone who wants it.

To the traunt officer Barbara Sabey leaves her absence record.

Janet leaves her cheerleading uniform to Victor Stephens.

Bev bestows, upon Mr. Dewey, quieter gym classes in the future.

To Tom Swarthout, Gary leaves his spot on Varsity.

We will and bequeath a slightly mangled pop-corn machine to the Juniors.

To our advisers, we leave the memory of five days in Washington with us.

We declare this to be our last will and testament, signed by the witnesses thereof:

"Eat, Drink and be Merry"

Ray's first and last blond.

Helpful, Don Case
