ECHO

DEDICATION

The 1987 ECHO yearbook is dedicated to a teacher who has given up a lot of her time to help us, her students,become better individuals. She has pushed us to do our best and has always been willing to lend a hand if we fail. She has never hesitated to help us when we needed it, whether it be in filling out an application, writing or giving a speech, or just being a friend to talk to.

A day rarely goes by that we do not hear a cheerful "Hello" in the halls or see her friendly smile. We can only hope that we have brightened her days as much as she has brightened ours.

For many years now she has added to her busy class schedule much work and assistance for extra activities like the newsletter and those wonderful ASCOT plays, not to mention those terrible ASCOT play practices. And how many of us could ever forget those dreaded journals, grammar and literature books, vocabulary tests, and book reports?

We, the students of A.C.S., can not think of a better way to show our appreciation for all your teaching, caring, and your guidance than by dedicating this 1987 ECHO to you, Mrs. Mary Beth Thompsett.

SENIOR TRIP TO FLORIDA!!

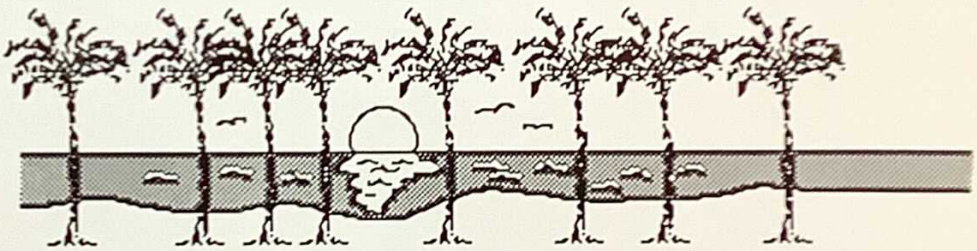

On Saturday Nov. 7, 1986 the seniors took off from Rochester Airport to Orlando, Florida.

The seniors arrived at their Orlando destination at 10:00 p.m. where the temperature was 88°. They swam in the outdoor pool and later, went out for pizza.

Bright and early Sunday morning the seniors set out for Walt Disney World. They saw the attractions, the famous Land of Imagination, and a rock concert. They returned at 7:30 that evening and went to various restaurants for supper.

On Monday morning they took off to Epcot Center. That day was full of excitement visiting all of the various mini-countries. There they experienced tastes of different cultures and foods. After returning to the motel that evening, the seniors were treated to a pizza party by the school board. Later that night they went shopping for T-shirts and souvenirs.

Tuesday morning at 9:00a.m. a plane took off from Orlando Airport carrying 26 extremely depressed and fatigued seniors and 3 tanned and well-rested chaperones.

Senior Wills

Lisa Aylor : I leave Brett a new negligee; going to AMES to Patti; and I leave my ability to drive home as fast as I can from Wellsville to Kira.

Harold Budinger III : I'm not leaving anything, I'm taking it all with me.

David Burr : I leave my patience to Mr. O'brien, he needs all he can get in this school.

Kira Burt : I leave floor space to Paul Foster; eyeliner and W.T.F.C.N.S. to Jennifer Hecker; hot potato chips to Lisa Aylor; a squished piece of pizza to Brett Ellsessor; and gym clothes and Reese's Peanutbutter Cups to Barbie Robbins. To the up-coming Seniors, I will my academic and athletic abilities.

Brett Ellsessor : I leave my cycle to anyone who thinks he can handle it the way I can.

Rita Drake : I will my red hair to Mrs. Martin. I will my quietness to Madeya!

April Cole : I leave Brett and Butch room 332 so they won't have to interrupt " you know who" ! I leave my ability to smile to future cheerleading squads and my special way of sliding down the rope to any girl who leaves her T-shirt untucked!

Anthony DeMarte : I leave my unchallenged skiing ability to everyone who needs it.

Paul Foster : I will a downy soft pillow to Brett for his own purposes. I will the coldness that Dean needs to sleep when he is in Florida. I will my math abilities to the up-coming Seniors. I will the pictures I should have taken in room 330 to Kerri.

Harold Fuller : I leave a dust buster to Doug Graham; my shoulder to anyone who's stupid enough to want it; a lifetime subscription to "Seventeen" to Jennifer Hecker; an orange to Sue Jung; and a great thanks to my mother for being there.

Rolinda Gilbert : I leave my optimism to Kerri Mitchell in hopes that she can look on the good side of things. I also leave my "wild 'n crazy" partying days to Tiff (I hope she has as much fun as I did).

Deborah Graham : I leave my singing all the time and in every class to Julie Hopkins. I leave my being friendly with all the teachers to Jimmy Claypool.

Michelle Gugino : I leave my vegetables behind to the cafeteria ladies; and I leave my spare change to Brett Ellsessor.

Madeya Harrington : I will Tony a dish for his dog food, and Brian a pillow for his hard times. I leave my ability to talk to Bryan Spath. I leave the famous words "surf's up" to Rita, and to Marika the GREAT ability to bounce (and remember Marika "A turtle never gets anywhere unless she sticks her neck out.").

Jennifer Hecker : I will Howdy partner to Susan; sugar daddies, W.T.F.C.N.S. to Kira; dry sweat pants to Sue; Snoopy bedsheets to Kerri; my seniority to Jody; room 338-more beds-less air conditioner; Scott H. realizing who skis better; Daren realizing I have the force; and putting a rug on Wilsons floor.Class of '87-I'll Miss You! Thanks Mom & Dad-I love you!

Susan Heiss : I will Jennifer the quote "When in doubt..."; to Duke, a pair of handcuffs; to Tracy, my deepest,darkest secrets about ? ; to Kira, a lifetime supply of pillows; to Brett, my best judgement; to Harold, a bigger car & a new pair of sunglasses; to April, the flight attendent; and Jackie, my authority

James Heitman: I leave my barn boots to Mr. Johnson; and I leave my truck mirrors to Butch, for his father.

Scott Hutchison: I leave my Bon Jovi and Bruce Springstein tapes to my brother Ned & Shawn Wray, so he can learn the words! I leave my driveway to James Heitman, so when he throws parties, people can get to them.

Susan Jung: I will to each of the senior boys an equal portion of my nose; to Nicki, the ability to find the "stomach"; to Marika and April ,$1,000,000 in AT&T gift certificates; and to the rest of the class-a new psychiatrist.

Marika Kaake: I leave to Sue a scarf of her own and a box; to April, a coat hanger for her keys locked in her car; to Jenny, a better view of the northern lights; and to Madeya, some tactfulness!

Richard Lorow: I'm taking everything with me to wherever I go.

Mike Makeley: I leave all my books to next year's seniors and I hope they treat them with the respect that I did (which wasn't much).

Dean McKnight: I leave my means of transportation to Jack Cairns.

Kerri Mitchell: I will a sheet and a deck of cards to Scott, Brett, and Jamie.

Patricia Robbins: I leave my ability to say what's on my mind or anybody else under any circumstances to Jennifer Hecker. I leave my 3 best magizines to Mrs. Fuller , who would get more out of them than I could ever think of getting. I leave a clean toilet seat to the occupants and all those other people in room 338. And lastly, I leave my ability to brown-nose the teachers to the under classman who spends the most time in In-House (Hope you get out of there).

Patricia Smith: I leave a box of Kleenex to Jenny, Sue, and Kira for English Class; and a bag of cough drops to Debbie and Lisa for our next trip.

Melissa Stephens: I will my ability to have respect , to "Hutch"; and my ability to learn, to those who need it.

Daren Wagner: I will the correct reasonings to Mr. Liberto, my Math abilities to Sue Jung, and Tony the ability to win a game of chess.
