Thank You

Mrs. Renwand

To someone who is kind, understanding and espeically patient. Not everyone has the ability to work with midgets and talk to people who come to her knees. A teacher who has taught the class of 56 to the class of 91.

Who could forget our Peter and Polly pockets, ABC's, and paper mache animals. And who could forget the teacher who made all these things possible. Who helped us all through the trying times of age five. In appreciation for her hard work to give us all a good start in life, we dedicate the 1979 Yearbook, to Mrs. Renwand for 35 years of dedication to us; her students.

Directed by: Mr. Arthur

The 1978 ASCOT production was Up the Down Staircase based on the book by Bel Kaufman. It was the story of a young, inexperienced teacher trying to reach her studnets. On her first day very little goes right. She is bewildered by her students, she is bombarded by notices she does not understand, and she is already trying to help Joe Ferone, a troublesome student, to stay in school.

It was the story of how Sylvia overcomes these obstacles. By the end of her first year she and her students are communicating to each other, Joe Ferone is still in school and she has managed to form an alliance with the school principal, J. J. McHabe. The last achievement was difficult as Sylvia had to prove herself capable of teaching before McHabe would except her.

Lite Show "79"

Lite Show '79 was very successful. The opening show at Angelica was a big smash. Performances were also done in Whitesville and at the Concord Hotel for the NYS School Board Conference. Much hard work and time went into the show but it was considered to be a very rewarding experience by everyone who participated. A mini show is planned for the spring.

For yesterday
is but a dream
and tomorrow
is only a vision
but today
well lived makes yesterday
a dream of happiness
and every tomorrow
a vision of hope.
