GENESIS

In
the beginning...

IN MEMORY

"Death ends a life . . . but it does not end a relationship, which struggles on in the survivor's mind . . . towards some resolution, which it never finds."

— Robert Anderson

The journalism staff dedicates the first issue of GENESIS in memory of Beth Michelle Andrews, Class of '80.

We will always remember her beautiful smile, wit and sense of humor; she never failed to bring sunshine into our lives. Her love of music, poetry, and living things, left a lasting IMPRESSION on all of us. — We miss her —

A black and white woodcut-style illustration. On the left, a vertical wooden post is part of a larger structure, possibly a fence or a building. A horizontal beam, also made of wood, extends from the post towards the right. The wood is rendered with detailed cross-hatching and vertical lines to show texture. Below the beam, a large, irregularly shaped rock or boulder sits on the ground. The rock has some texture and shading. In the foreground, there are some small, dark, indistinct shapes that could be plants or debris. The overall style is graphic and somewhat abstract, with a focus on line work and texture.

Senior Class Will

BOB BROOKS: To Lintz and Lance, My intimate ability to rebound and shoot 30' jump shots from the corner; to Brian and Morgan, my ability to play high notes on the trumpet when needed; To the next Student Council President, my uncanny ability to entertain large crowds at assemblies; to Steve and Breaser, my ability to bowl at least a 150 average all year; and to all the Juniors, I want you to have as much fun in your last year here as I have.

THOMAS BURKE: To Buzz Parks, all my ability in math class, and a calculator to count his "Do Overs"; Alan Presutti, all my jokes, so he can tell them for Kicks; and to Mrs. C., the memories of keeping her on the edge of her sleeping bag until 3:00 A.M. in the morning.

STELLA CLINE: To my cousin Darryl, the ability to stay out of trouble, and to be able to make it through his senior year; to Dave Thurston, our back seat of the bus to share with someone else next year; To Brian Chilson, the will power to put up with Art for the next three years; to Mark Bliven, the ability to keep out of trouble on Bus 24.

BLAIR EMERSON: To Mr. Palmiter, a day which I hand in my homework papers; To Mr. Mach, a day where nothing out of his shop class gets stolen; To Mr. Hoffman, a television camera to make sure nobody cheats in his History class; To Pam Swarthout, my locker; To Becky and Deidra, one wish (pertaining to our little talks) and I don't have to ask what it is; to Dennis and Donnie, a great time (Party) on Fridays, Saturdays, Sundays . . . to Lynn, somebody to copy her homework, and to my little sister, I leave much happiness in Belmont Central.

MARY JO FELDBAUER: To Mrs. C. a smile and a big "thanks", "My other world is just a half a mile away" I love you; to Coach Bliven, my brand new Adidas, my whistle and a sunny day; to Mr. Dedrick, my corvette, 50 cents and a milkshake; to Jeff McNinch, a jar of creamy peanut butter and a dish cloth, and a hug (Yuck); to Chris McNinch, my ability to drive, and a drum solo; to Mary S., No. 13 and my inside position; to Cindy, all my love and a nice riding day; to Pen, my "most talkative position"; to the rest of the Jordans, thank you for wonderful memories; to my sister Kath, Good health and a kiss; to my dad, Kathy to run to the office for last minute permission signatures; to Andy, an empty seat on the wrestling bus, a kiss for luck and a thank you for an unforgettable friendship.

JANINE HANCHETT: To Evelyn, first chair, the piccolo and much luck and happiness in your Senior year; to Alan, someone to keep him company during his study halls, the great memories of all our long talks, and a special "thank you"; to Mary and Molly, our Pizza Hut memories, our long talks, and one more luxury liner cruise; to Alison, someone to keep charts with, a big smile in return for all of those you've given me and all my love; to Danny & Betsy, the ability to keep the 'Hanchett Parties' going; to Coach Mosgrove, someone to keep score for his No 1 wrestling team; to Mrs. C. someone to type next year; to Mr. Hoffman, our beer cooler.

KELLY HASKELL: To my good friend, Bill Fish, all the happiness in the world; to my brother Chris, my ability to play sports; to my brother Mitch, the ability to stay out of trouble; and to the Junior Class a great Senior year.

DENISE HUNT: To Alison, a pair of pearl earrings, to replace the ones I lost, a bottle of Peppermint Schnapps and a 3 night rendezvous; to Mary and Kathy, memories of camp and my ability to fake my way through ICF cheers; to Dixie, dreams of being on the cover of Vogue magazine; to my loving husband J.R., my shares of Ewing Oil stock; to Eric, the remembrance of a run away horse, and my weakness to attack your candy dish; to Mr. Dedrick, a years supply of Lysol, and the ability to keep your window down, and not having it so obvious; and to my brothers, Pat, the Opel Express and its last few miles; to Daryl, a new wardrobe to replace all his clothes I stretched out; and finally to D.J., the Hunts, the ability to carry on!

TAMMY LYNN MIDDAUGH: To my "little" brother Jim, my ability to know when to keep my mouth shut and the ability to make it through school; to Pam M. my ability to handle Mr. N and all his weird assignments; to Deb Dorvit, my center position in basketball; to whoever (some deserving freshman to be) my locker No. 133; to Mr. N, all my memories and my chunk of wood; To "Wease" the strength to make it through 2 more basket ball seasons' and to all the underclassmen, a big GOOD LUCK! (you'll need it.)

TINA MIDDAGH: To Colleen, the ability to keep the boys chasing her and the letters coming in; To "Wease", to keep up the good work with her relationship with Ronnie; To Lori, to get or have the ability to keep her mouth shut when it's not needed and to keep chasing the boys; To Scott, the ability to drive and to have my ability to stay out of trouble with anything or anybody; to Verna, to keep having fun in whatever she does.

LISA MOREHOUSE: To my Sister Janette, my ability to stay out of trouble, and my Big Mouth, also the ability to have fun, be good and have a great senior year; To Marc, Matt, Bryan and Debbie, have fun and be good; To Lynn, I leave my place in the nurses office, and my place in B.O.C.E.S. and I want say "Thanks" for everything, and remember all the good times we've had. Good Luck to you; To Dixie and Meredith, I leave them my ability to stay out of the Nut house, and to sane; To Don, Leo, and Penny have fun in Art, and I leave you Mr. N; To Don, keep up your mechanical ability.

JULIE ORLANDO: To my sister, Jessica, my class flirt position and my locker number (137); To my sister Al, a room to herself, and Jessica; To my eldest son, "J.R." Ewing, all my love, my share of the South-Fork, and nothing else because he has everything and what he doesn't have his "bucks" will buy; to Danny and Betsy, all the memories of Janine's parties and the ability to "Carry On"; to alan, someone to fight over him after me and Jamine leave, and a girl that's a 9.75; to Dixie, the memories of the Prom, a Burger King Crown, and a "Thank You"; to Kari, my personal cheerleader, my turquoise collection; to Tom, thanks for making me laugh; to Mary and Molly, memories of cruising in the Luxury Liner; to Kathy and Linda, a gym class that isn't such a Joke; to Eric, an album that continuously plays "Please Come to Boston" and I will. I love you.

JANET SWARTHOUT: To my sister Pam, my locker No. 145 and my gym locker No. 333 and the ability to get through high school; to Coach Bliven, someone else to hassle you in practices and many fond memories (Thanks, I love you.); to tracie, my No. 20 and lots of luck; to Becky, the good times in volley ball, we HAD a good team; to Jason (J.R.), the fond memories of the Ewing family; to Bryan Schmidt and Mike Burke, someone else to give a big smile to and a big "Hello"; to Mrs. C., the memories and the headaches of the individual pictures; to the Juniors, one more year of school; to Bill Pettit, the ability to keep his mouth shut; to Donald Whitney, the ability to keep the tenor section going; to Steve Baiancuzzo, love and kisses!; to the people on bus No. 23, the memories of our little song "We all ride on the YELLOW buseline"; to Sue Brooks, the dream to be able to boogie with the real Steve Martin.

TERRI TAYLOR: To Mr. Hoffman, a better Economics class where everyone is there on time; to Mrs. Bliven, someone to replace me; to Darryl Cline, my ability to stay out of trouble; to Barney Fuller, my ability to stay happy; (and to anyone who takes accounting, my accounting book.)
