INTRODUCTION

The 1978 Yearbook Staff is pleased to present "Reflections"
It is our hope that this book will bring memories of past joys of this 1977-1978 school year and of our youth.

Growing Away

Pictures
Locked away in my mind.
Memories
much to clear to leave behind.
Friendships
Secrets shared with best friends.
Childhood
much too free to so soon end.

An empty room
yet so full of something real.
There's nothing there
Just some magic that I feel.

As I walk away
the doors are locked behind me.
I can't turn around.
The echo of my footsteps
Is the only sound.
Mindy Waite

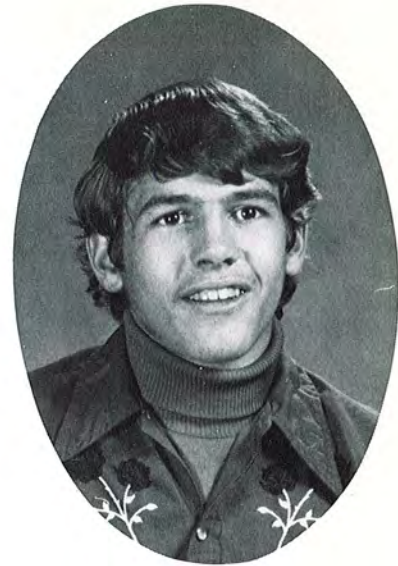

SENIORS

Jesse S. Babbitt
 "Success is getting what you want; happiness is wanting what you get."

SENIORS

David Leroy Benjamin
 "Enjoy present pleasures in such a way as not to injure future ones."

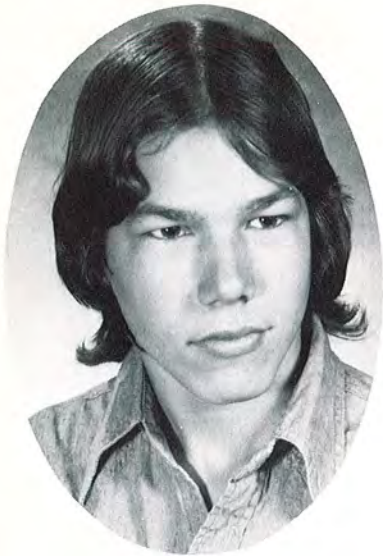

Raymund L. Brown
 "It works both ways: A quitter never wins—and a winner never quits."

Karen Marie Burdick
 "A friend is a person who walks in when all the rest of the world walks out."

William Carl Burton
 "What alarm in drinking can there be, since liquor and life so well agree."

SENIORS

Jesse Lee Case
 "Every day's experience shows how much more actively education goes on out of the classroom, than in it."

Bev J. Carlsen
 "If you do not understand my laughter, you will not understand my words."

Brenda Jean Clarke
 "Sometimes the road may be lonesome, often we may lose our way. Take courage and always remember: Love isn't just for a day."

Anne Marie Francis
 "A smile can never be kept, it can only be given away."

Timothy Bryon Geffers
 "Just about the time you think you can make both ends meet, somebody moves the middle."

SENIORS

Ellen Rowane Graham
 "If love is only a word, why does it hurt so much when you find it isn't there?"

Grant Gregory Grastorf
 "A man's own manner and character is what most becomes him."

Mary Ellen Gilluly
 "We only really learn what we teach ourselves."

Stanley Green

Laurie Ellen Hand
 "To overlook the little things in life is to miss the biggest part of life itself."

SENIORS

David Haskell
 "A round person who tries to squeeze himself into a square hole soon becomes a square himself."

Jeffery John Jordan
 "It is a far far better thing that I do than I have ever done; it is a far far better rest that I go to, than I have ever known."

Michael Allen Livergood

Michael Eugene Meyers
 "The rest of your days depend on the rest of your nights."

Susan Lynn Meyers
 "A smile is the whisper of laughter."

SENIORS

Erika Dutra Neves
 "O memento e temporario, mas a memoria e pra sempre. Eseja voce mesmo, beba quarana artar tica."

Mary Christine Orians
 "Freedom lies in being bold."

Patricia Jane Mitchell
 "A true friend walks in when the rest of the world walks out."

Kathy Jean Peterson
 "Love means never having to say you're sorry."

Timothy C. Peterson
 "In whatever state I am, in this to be content."

SENIORS

Sally Jayne Rahr
 "Not finish . . . . just begun."

Steven Jeffrey Robbins
 "May you always live as long as you want and never want as long as you live."

Mark Anthony Presutti
 "The chief danger in life is that you might take too many precautions."

Debra Lynn Scranton
 "Happiness and virtue rest upon each other; The best are not only happiest, but the happiest are usually the best."

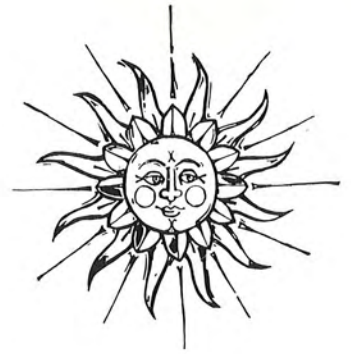

Michael Allen Swarthout
 "Middle age is when you want to see how fast your car will go instead of how long it will last."

SENIORS

Timothy Harold Tompkins
 "Time tells on a man—especially a good time!"

William Russell Tompkins
 "Why shout and be heard when you can speak softly and be listened to?"

Theodore Howard Vineyard
 "Master the subject and words will freely follow."

Melinda Rae Waite
 "Reach out for someone . . . To communicate is the beginning of understanding."

Tammie Rachelle Washburn
 "Good things come in small packages."

SENIORS

Patricia Marie Weber
 "To get the full value of a joy, you must have somebody to divide it with."

Gretchen Ann Whitney
 "Some people dream things and ask
 "why?" I dream things and ask, "why not?"

Larry A. Watson
 "America is a tune, it must be sung together."

John Robert Whitney
 "I set forth . . . joyful and free . . . by the wildest, leafiest, and least trodden way I could find."

JEFF WINTERHALTER
 "Enjoy present pleasures in such a way as not to injure future ones."

SENIORS

MICHAEL ERNEST WINTERHALTER
 "Don't part with your illusions. When they are gone you may still exist but you have ceased to live."

SENIOR HISTORY

We the class of 1978, started our illustrious career at Belmont Central with the following people: Ray Brown, Bill Burton, Anne Francis, Mary Ellen Gilluly, Ellen Graham, Grant Grastorf, Laurie Hand, Jeff Jordan, Pat Mitchell, Chris Orians, Tim Peterson, Mark Presutti, Steve Robbins, Deb Scranton, Mike Swarthout, Bill Tompkins, Tim Tompkins, Tedd Vineyard, Melinda Waite, Pat Weber, John Whitney, Jeff Winterhalter and Mike Winterhalter. Miss Mary Disparti and Mrs. Ellie McDonell greeted us for our first year at B.C.S. This year's activities included riding the fire truck and churning butter.

Our teachers for our first "real" school year were Mrs. Mary Hosmer and Mrs. Virginia Horner. Added to our ranks were: Karen Burdick, Stanley Green, Dave Haskell, Mike Livergood and Kathy Peterson. Remember the ecstasy of not having to take naps??

Moving up a grade, Tammie Washburn joined us in second. Mrs. Virjean Francis and Mrs. Helen Steenrod tried to break us of the "cubbyhole" routine. The year was not a total loss, as we learned about fish tanks and printing our first words!

SENIOR HISTORY

Third grade proved equally enjoyable as some of us learned French from Mrs. Louise Patterson, while others enjoyed Mrs. Bernice Hall. Jesse Babbit and Jesse Case joined us this year.

Miss Ruth Rossney and Mrs. Francis Swain were to enlighten us in fourth grade. This year we were able to move around a little as Mrs. Swain taught reading and Miss Rossney math. We learned how to knit this year too, thanks to the efforts of Miss Rossney!

Mr. Del Jackson and Miss Diana Horton were privileged to guide us through our fifth grade escapades. Remember hatching eggs and multiplication tables? The peak event of the year was our trip to the Niagara Falls Aquarium and Fort Erie.

Rain was to dampen our last year in Elementary School when Hurricane Agnes prevented our finishing sixth grade. Mr. Bob Jones and Mr. James Leone taught us the secrets of modern math and science. Gretchen Whitney and Tim Geffers arrived in time to learn the fascinating game of Krypto. Our horizons were widened when we visited the Shrine Circus and Buffalo Zoo.

Jubilant over our arrival into Junior High School, we were taught the mysteries of changing classes by Mr. Ronald Gilmore, Mr. James Kane, Mr. James Patterson and Mrs. Doris Wells. This was the year Tim Geffer's name would be changed to Charlie. He was bestowed the nickname through the efforts of Mr. Kane, who decided there were enough Tims and changed his name.

Freshman Initiation opened the path into High School for us. Remember thinking how big we were finally getting to go to a High School Dance?

Sue Meyers, Mike Meyers and Dave Benjamin joined the class in our Sophomore Year. We were just beginning to think about future career goals. Do you remember the trip to Roswell Park and our light bulb sales?

Our Junior year proved to be exciting. Most of us were busy with plans for the Junior Prom. After much arguing and changing of minds, we decided on the theme "The Long and Winding Road". Our foreign student, Erika Neves, arrived in time to see the crowning of king, John Whitney and queen, Gretchen Whitney. Terry Borden and Brenda Clarke and Bev Carlsen also joined the class.

Finally our Senior year arrived. We all worked very hard on magazine sales and a lot of money was raised even though we did not go on our senior trip. We would like to thank all our friends and teachers at B.C.S. for all the happy times shown to us.
