Where?

where have we been?
seems through thirteen years
now we begin again.
years of failing and passing,
times of joy and sorrow;
coming in first, and ending up last,
making it through today, what about tomorrow?
signs to stop, signs to go,
winning respect for woman through respect for man,
one wrong friendship to
all the while trying to understand.

where are we now?
not far from where we were before
and wondering where we need to face the world.
knowing outside these stone walls there awaits much more seems we're filling our lives and souls with expectancies and hopes
the time has come for us to try to make it on our own.
one final time to close the locker door,
turn, and walk the corridor alone.

where shall we go?
I doubt we ever will really know.
because in some distant day,
we'll once again turn around and say,
"where have we been?"
that's when we'll start all over again

Dedication

Kurt Alan Doty

We, the Yearbook Staff, would like to dedicate the 1975 yearbook in memory of Kurt Alan Doty, class of 1970.

We will always remember the kindness he extended towards others. Never shall we forget his ready smile.

We thank God for the happy memories we have of him, and for being able to share part of his brief life.

It is with a great deal of pride and sadness that we dedicate this yearbook in memory of Kurt.

The Howard L. Howbridge Field Dedication

In 1974, two of the school's athletic fields were dedicated to two men who helped in the development of our school.

On May 3, the boys' new baseball field was dedicated in memory of Mr. F. M. Strate, a former principal of Belmont Central.

On September 27, the girls' soccer field was dedicated to Mr. Howard L. Howbridge, a former vice-principal and math teacher. Both of these men promoted athletics as an important part of the educational development of the students of Belmont Central School.

It is with honor that these fields were dedicated, and with honor the students of Belmont Central will use them.

Senior History

We, the Class of '75, would like to fulfill some of the mystic and memories of our years at B.C.S. In doing so, we shall prepare the upcoming classes for the years ahead of them.

Our most unforgettable year was that of 1962. On a September day, forty-five young children walked through the elementary doors for the first time. Little did we know what the future held in store for us! At last we were big boys and girls, and there was us! But, except for one small problem. Try to explain to forty-five children why big boys and girls have to take naps! Right, Mrs. McDonald?

Out of the original class only twenty-three managed to weather out the next twelve years together. They are: Steven Babinett, Paul Burdick, April Carlson, Ann Dickinson, Kathy Frangillo, Deb Gowdy, John Greenwood, Doug Harshett, Karen Hirschman, Sandy Mollenbacher, Michelle Orms, Dave Perotti, Anne Sottore, Mike Tompkins, Terri Tompkins, Mike Tower, John Trometti, Lisa Winkler, Brent Warner, Deb Weisman, Dave Whitney, Terri Winterhalter, Mark Woodard.

Graduating from musical instruments, tracks, and bells took us straight to "See Spot run." It was during this time that Mark Freidman joined the forces. Mrs. Mary Hammer and Mrs. Virginia Horner were the best teachers when it came to counting to TEN and reading THE KID IN THE.

Second grade, under the direction of Mrs. Virginia Francis and Mrs. Helen Stearns, was nicknamed "Noddy Corner". At this time Steve Green and Karen Wells became members of the class. This was the year certain people would be found together in the closest noddy hole.

Entering the third grade enabled us to be privileged enough to walk through the front doors. That was a real honor!

Senior History

Fourth grade brought us to the memorization of our times tables. We can remember sitting day after day saying "3 x 9 = 27", "3 x 9 = 27". Mrs. Frances Swain and Miss Ruth Rossney helped ease the pain.

Oh, fifth grade! Now we were living in high school territory. It was in this year that Bill Sheehan, Dennis Linza and Willis Stuck became members of the class. This was the year we went to Niagara Falls with Mr. Delmer Jackson and Mrs. Patricia Tompkins. Remember the chicken farm?

When sixth grade finally came, it was to be the last time we would be called "elementary". Remember graduation? We did it with style, caps and diplomas! With the help of Mrs. Judith Johnson and Mrs. Mary Jane McNeil, we passed this "elementary" stage.

Seventh grade was the year of lockers and switching from class to class. Mrs. Doris Wells and Mr. Robert Boyer skillfully handled our classes. It is not in the realm of possibility to ever forget Miss Sharon Simon's math classes!

In eighth grade Gena Fantauzzo joined us, while Mr. Ronald Gilmore and Mrs. Wells tried to prepare us as young adults ready for high school. Remember Field Day at Wilmac Park?

Leaving eighth grade behind, Mark Geffers helped us take on the responsibility of freshmen, going through the pains of initiation and Regents exams. Becoming friends with the upper classmen was a lot easier than idoloizing them.

Many will remember Mr. Boyer's tenth grade homeroom. Percillah Smalley and Leslie Connor joined us that year just in time for the great learning experiences during Biology Lab. Remember those bullfrogs? We'll never forget Deb Weinman's elation over a 92 on a sex reproduction test!

Michele Birdsall, Hal Farnsworth, Kim and Vicki Westbrook joined us in our junior year. All of the junior class spent homeroom with Mrs. Diane Comiskey (quite a change from Mr. Boyer). With the help of Mr. Wesley Cline, we had a successful class auction. "Crystal Blue Persuasion", our prom theme, saw Gena Fantauzzo and John Tronetti crown crowned queen and king. Michele Birdsall, Mike Tompkins, Deb Weinman, Mark Feldbauer, Percillah Smalley, and Brent Warner made up the royal court. This was also the last year Richard Hand and Kevin Scott were to be members of our class.

Magazine sales were our final project before the Washington trip. Then there we were, seniors! After all these years! With patience and endurance, Mr. Gary Nevinger and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Comiskey chaperoned an adventurous group of 33 seniors to Washington. Not one of us will forget the chaperones' kind hearts nor the watchdog's yellow fangs. In the middle of the year, Barb Hovey joined our class.

With everything taken into consideration, all the joys and sorrows, we believe the class of '75 will never regret one moment of the time spent as members of the B.C.S. student body.
