REFLECTOR 1972

Belmont Central School

Belmont, New York

MISS MARY DISPARTI

In recognition of her 29 years of devoted service as kindergarten teacher at Belmont Central, we dedicate the 1972 REFLECTOR to Miss Mary Disparti.

All who have started school at Belmont during these years have been introduced to school by "Miss Sparti." The kindergarten has been moved many times, to and from the main building, the firehall, the new wing, and now the annex, but the teacher has always been the same Miss Disparti, always smiling, laughing, singing, playing the piano, and solving our little problems with patience and a wonderful sense of humor. In kindergarten, happiness is Miss Disparti.

DEDICATION

MRS. DOROTHY SORTORE

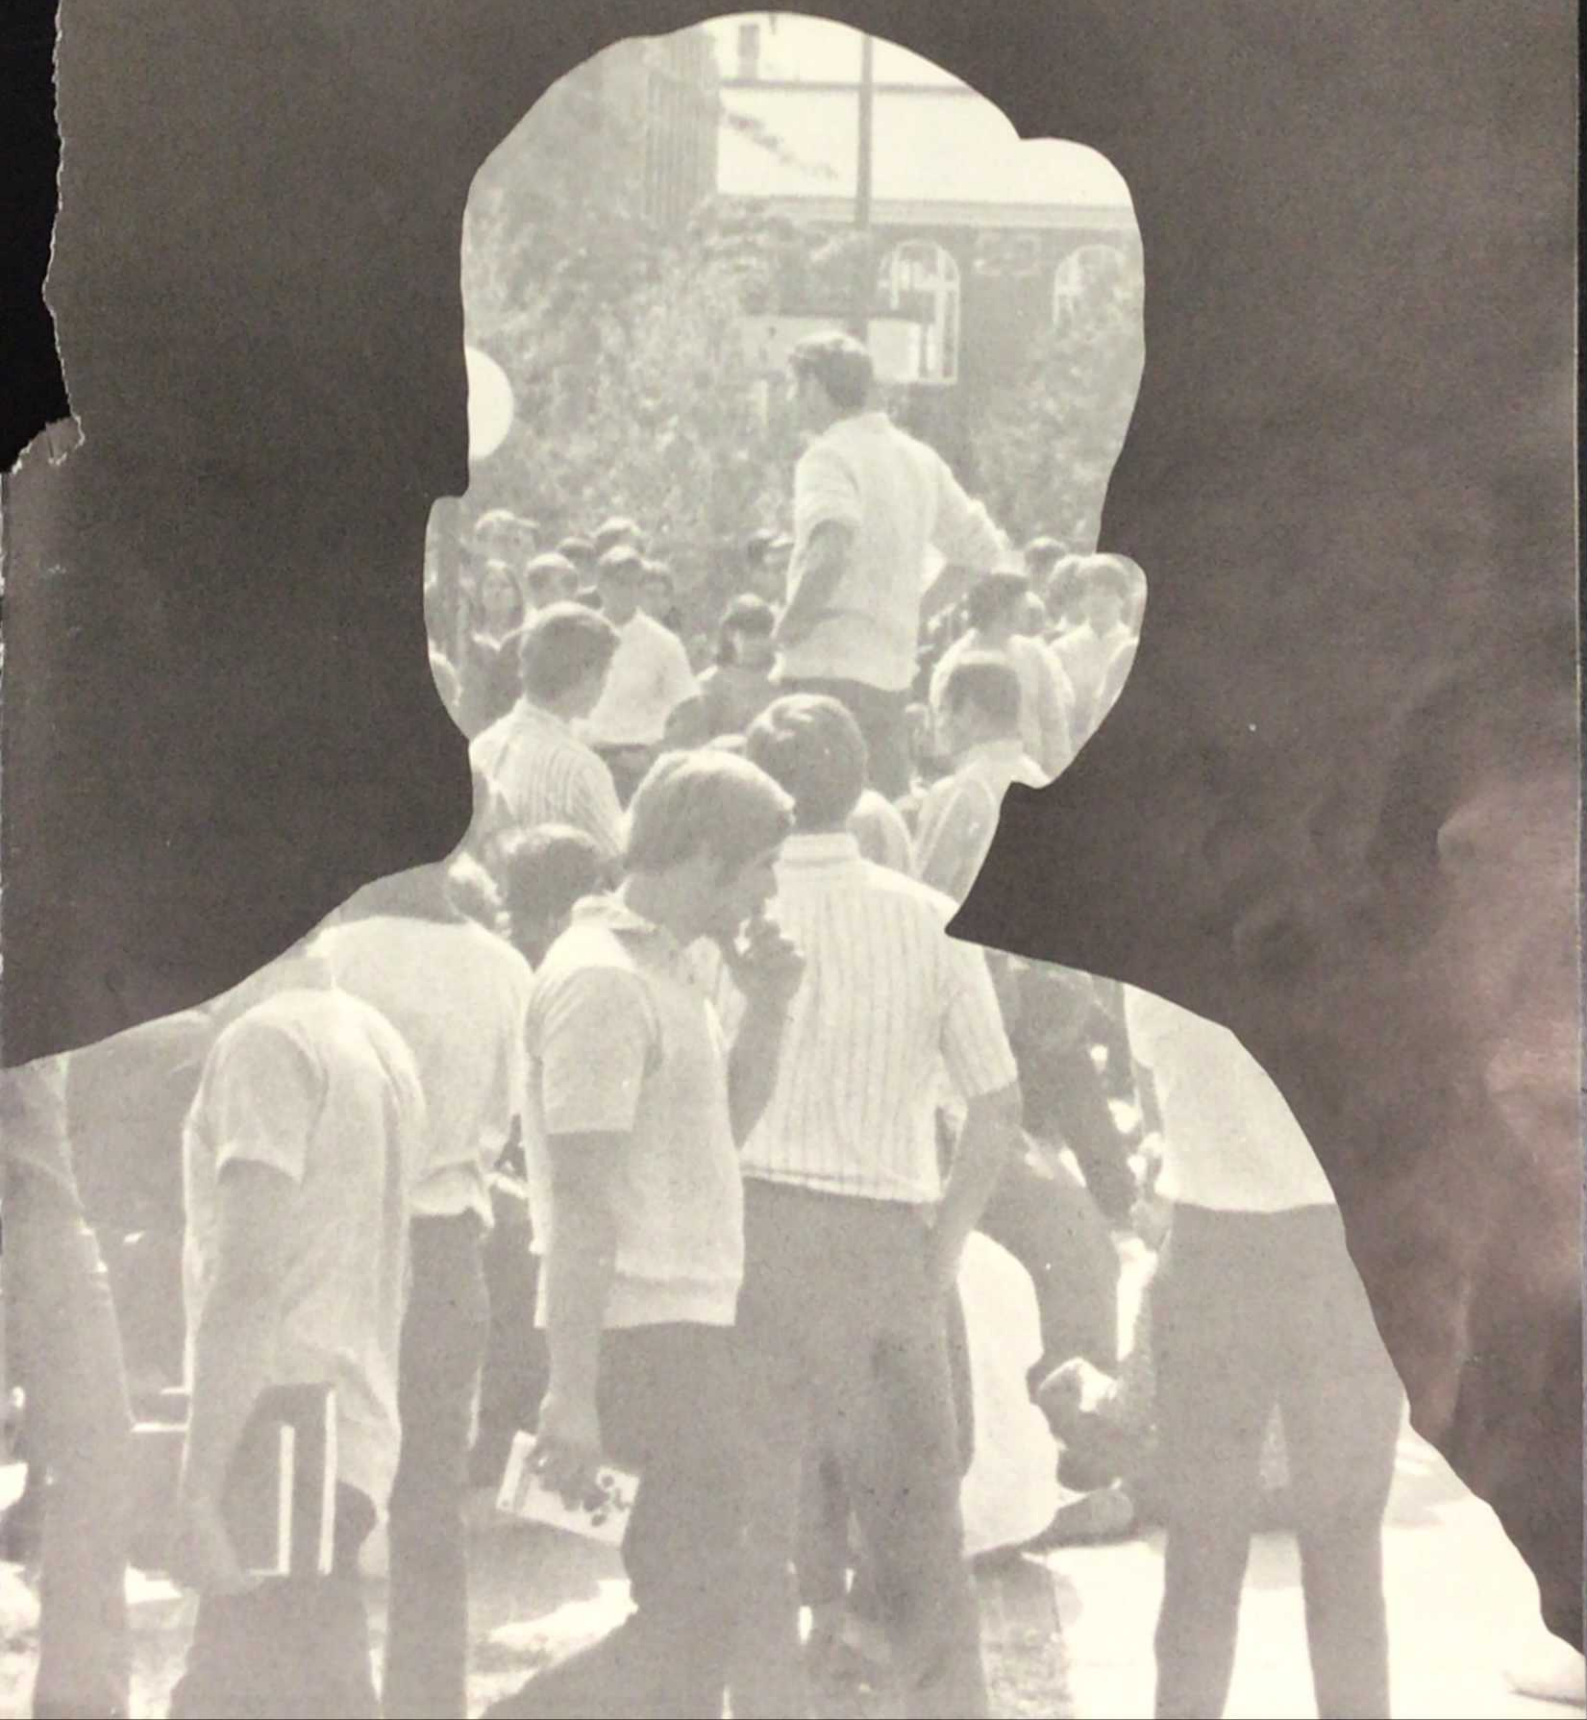

In recognition of her 16 years of service as both English teacher and librarian at Belmont Central, we also dedicate this 1972 REFLECTOR to Mrs. Dorothy Sortore.

In addition to her regular duties, first as teacher and then as librarian, she has been a director of plays, a class advisor, and this year assistant advisor to the yearbook.

In whatever capacity she has served, she has done so conscientiously and competently always. Thank you, Mrs. Sortore.

ARSENIC AND OLD LACE

JUNE 3 AND 4, 1971

"Patent Medicine . . . He used to try 'em out on dead people!"

"Teddy's got to go to Happydale now, tonight!"

"That face was my pride and joy!"

"Teddy, Teddy, tell them who I am . . . CHARGE!"

"You KINDA think he's wanted somewhere!"
