The 1989 Boy's Varsity Soccer Team finished the season with an overall record of 17-5. The team won the North Division Championship of the Allegany County Class D League and won their second consecutive Section V Class D Championship. Leading scorers for the team were Larry White (Allegany County Class D MVP), Doug Herdman and Bryan Spath. Don Ward was the goal keeper and earned the MVP award in the Section V Tournament. Seniors on this years squad were Doug Herdman, Eric Lorow, Jay Smith, Bryan Spath and Don Ward.

SOCCER

The girl's Varsity Soccer team finished the 1989 season at 5-12 and a Section V semifinalist in the Class D Sectionals. Juniors Sonya Bailor and Lisa Wray (first team All Star) led the way with 9 and 6 goals respectively. While Jewel Richie and Kandi Mitchell headed up the assist category. Jody Hecker made 205 saves in goal and seniors Val Case and Kandi Mitchell were named the team's Defensive and Offensive stars. The team will greatly miss 5 graduating seniors but look forward to next season with 6 starters and 5 letter winners returning.

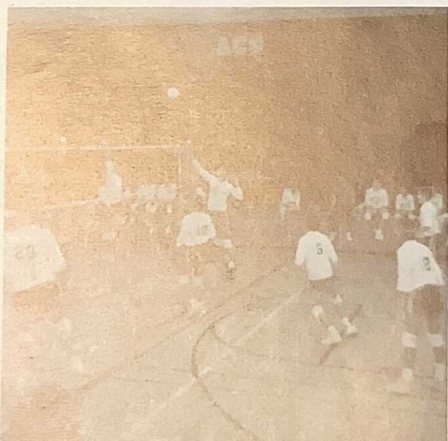

Row 1: C. Day, V. Case, H. Stark, T. George, L. Wray, M. Gallman, N. Grusendorf, T. Hecker (mgr), C. Graham (mgr.), Row 2: R. Cocco, C. Gordon, A. Grastorf, K. Mitchell, S. Bailor, J. Hecker, T. Burrows, E. Stark (stats), B. Makeley, J. Richie, Miss Potter (coach).

VOLLEYBALL

Row 1: C. Ford, E. Scholes, C. Gosper, K. Hooker, J. Sylor, Row 2: L. Mitchell, E. Castle, B. Castle F. Foster, P. Mellick, M. Jones, N. Pownall, J. Stachowski, H. White, J. Christian(coach).

The Boy's Volleyball Program has made great strides in just their second year as a varsity sport. In early February the teams only losses have come from defending County Champs Wellsville and a tough Cuba team who finished second in 1988-1989. This has allowed the team to get off to a strong 7-3 start and should continue allowing momentum to be on their side in the upcoming county playoffs. Senior Co-Captains Keith Hooker and Chet Gosper are irreplaceable, but an undefeated Junior Varsity Team(3-0) should provide some talent to help fill some holes.

BASKETBALL

The boys' J.V. Basketball 89-90 team was a young squad, consisting of five freshman and four sophomores. At the time of this writing, the team has won four games to twelve losses. We have been in many close games however, and with a few breaks, could have been a .500% or better club. All players have made great progress in fundamentals, aggressive defense and consistent offensive play. We are looking forward to a successful campaign in 1990-91.

ROW 1: R. Lowe(mgr), M. Green, D. Smith, J. Smith, M. Fleming.
ROW 2: D. Herdman, B. Spath, D. Ward, B. Short. ABSENT: E. Lorow, S. Timothy, J. Claypool, L. White.

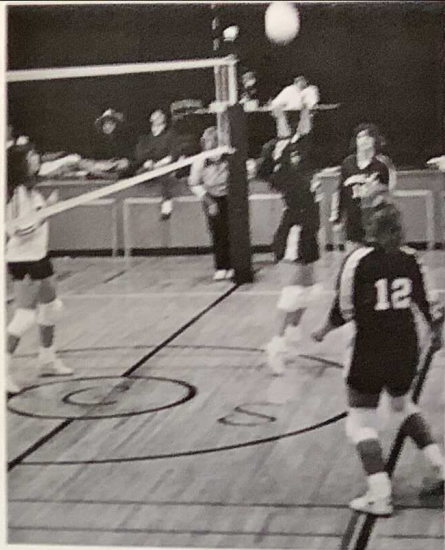

Row 1: R. Lowe(man.), M. Robbins, C. Koontz, R. McKnight, M. Flemming Row 2: H. Lyons, R. Raylea, K. Wheaton, A. Pond, J. Raylea, S. Grusendorf

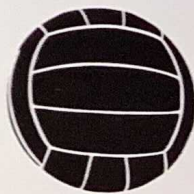

The 1989-90 Varsity boys' Basketball Team has had an up and down year. The home court has been friendly to the Red Raiders as they have won 5 of 8 at ACS. The road has not been as nice, as the Red Raiders have won just 2 of 9 away from home. The team did finish second in the Alfred Lion's Christman Tournament, with Eric Lorow making the All-Tourney team. At the time of this writing, the Red Raiders are looking ahead to the Sectionals. The Raiders should be seeded somewhere in the middle of the pack and hope to have a strong showing in the 1990 Section Five Tourney.

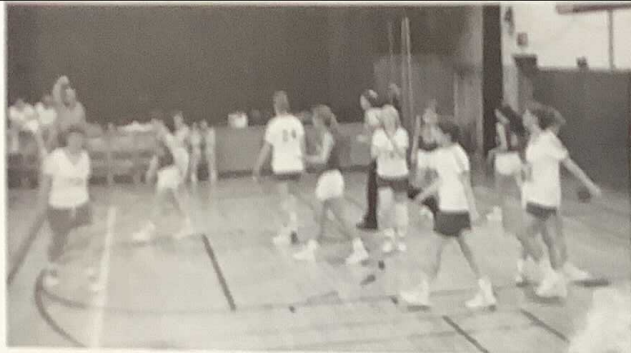

The Girl's Volleyball Team made dramatic improvements in 1989. They improved their record to 3-11 and entered their first Section V Tournament as the 12th seed. In addition to beating Scio, Andover and Belmont, the girls also pushed teams such as Belfast and Rushford to the limit before suffering tough losses. The team also can be proud of a courageous come back; down 2-14 in the third game at Houghton, rallying to beat the 1989 Section Five Champion Panthers, 16-14; junior captain, Lu-Ann Sortore led the team in assists while fellow junior teammate Stacy Swarthout led the team in kills. Both were named to Post Season All-Star Teams. The team will miss seniors Nicole DeMarte, Jackie Tyler, Darcy Swick, Michelle Short, and Co-Capt. Robin Dorsey, but looks to a strong Junior Varsity Squad for replacements.

Row 1: R. Green(mgr.), M. Butler, R. Dorsey, L. Sortore, D. Swick, C. Gosper, S. Dorsey.
Row 2: S. Cobin, K. Aylor, A. Chan, N. DeMarte, S. Young, S. Swarthout, M. Short, J. Tyler, Mr. Christian(coach)

The Angelica Girls' Varsity Basketball team had a disappointing season, but improved greatly throughout the course of the year. The basketball team will greatly miss two Seniors: Carly Day and Tracy George. We hope to have a better season next year.

Cheerleaders

Row 1: M. Gallman, J. Herdman, J. Horton (coach), A. Chan, J. Hecker, N. DeMarte, K. Mitchell, V. Case, H. Stark, N. LaDue, Row 2: J. Tyler, N. Grusendorf, S. Bailor, M. Starck, E. Foster.

Champions

The cheerleaders have had a very successful season this year. They have brought home 2 trophies. They won second place at the Scio Pom-Pon competition in Alfred where they performed to "Baby I'm a Star." The cheerleaders also brought home a first place trophy after becoming the Section V Class D cheerleading champions. The squad will miss 8 seniors next year: Kandi Mitchell, Valerie Case, Heather Stark, Margaret Starck, Nicole DeMarte, Nikki LaDue, Jackie Tyler and Joy Herdman.
