JUNIORS

CLASS OFFICERS

Allen Kemp, vice president; Cathy Lowe, president; Brenda Knapp, secretary; Jim Kane, treasurer.

The Junior Class has had a very busy and profitable year.

Play practice started early in October for the annual Junior Play. It was entitled "Hillbilly Wedding". It proved to be very successful, and even though there were a few mishaps, they had a lot of fun.

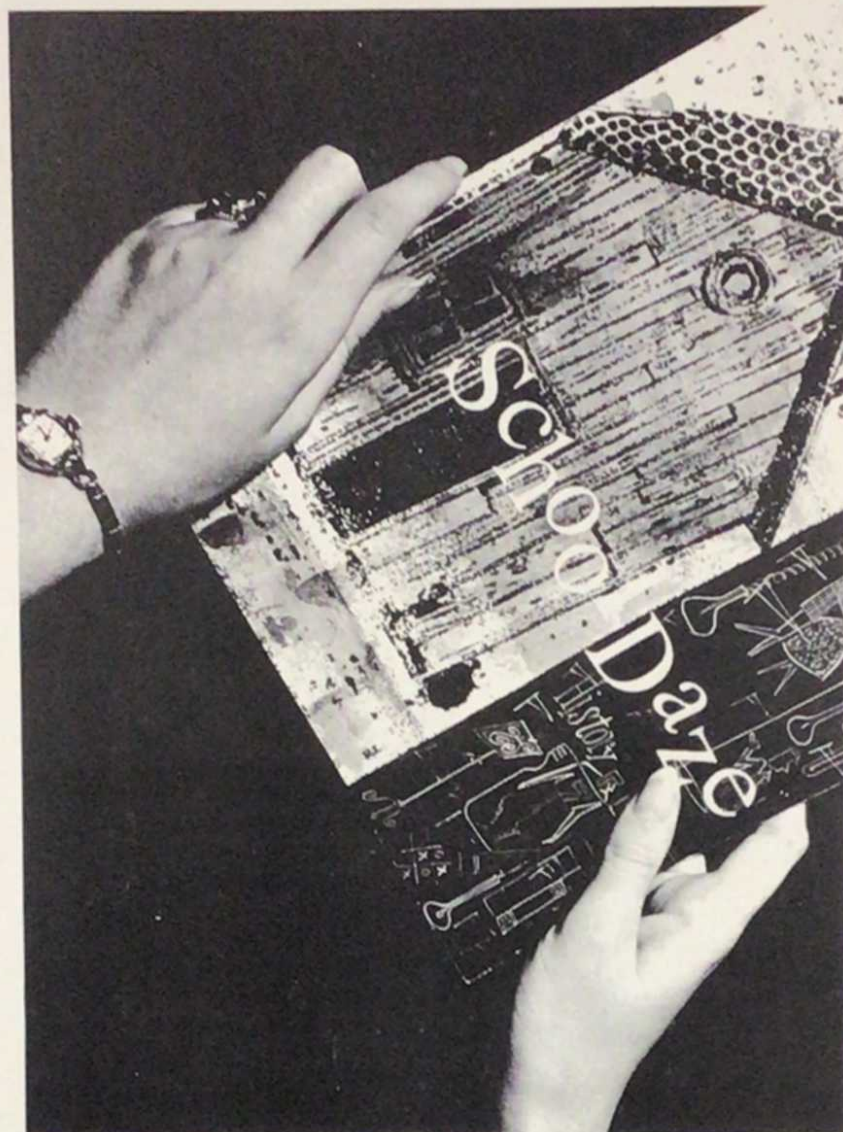

In early spring came one of the most anticipated events of the junior year, the Junior Prom. The class worked very hard making decorations and decorating the gym, but when it was done they felt proud to call themselves members of the class of 1966.

Looking back over the junior year it is realized what a wonderful year it was.

It was on an unforgettable September morning that the Class of 1965 met for the first time under the supervision of Miss Mary Disparti and Mrs. Zana Dickens. Of the 45 original excited, giggling, and sobbing five-year olds only 24 remain. They are: Joyce Ambroselli, Judy Ambroselli, Janelle Barnes, Evelyn Bunnell, Mike Burke, Jeff Crowther, Bob Davison, Lorie Davis, Jim Fleischman, Daryl Fuller, Linda Geffers, Sandy Graham, Dennis Grastorf, Don Miller, Jean Nicholson, Cid Potter, Geri Quinn, Pauline Rice, Mike Schleigh, Tim Schmelzer, Bill Shuttleworth, Jim Sortore, Dick Watkins, Sam Williams.

After that first year of school, we anxiously and eagerly made our step into first grade where Leona Hawks and Roger Blackman met us for the first time. This year our class made its debut in acting under the direction of Mrs. Virginia Horner and Mrs. Helen Clark, our teachers.

To second grade we then ventured. Here Donna Allen, Linda Davis, and Janet Green joined us under the guidance of Mrs. Helen Steenrod and Mrs. Patricia Tompkins.

In third grade Wanda Funk, and Karl and Bill Hodge, became members of the Class of 1965. They were "happy to learn how to write with the rest of us. Mrs. Helen Kane and Mrs. Bernice Hall had the misfortune of having to teach us this skill.

Steve Evans and Charlie Francis joined our ranks at exactly the right time, for it was in fourth grade that each of us was presented with a birthday present from Miss Ruth Rossney and Mrs. Gertrude Cline.

How smart we thought we were upon climbing the stairs to the fifth grade rooms! We were all set for lots of fun, but Miss Grace Hammond and Mrs. Freda Tower had different plans. Ricky Cline and Jane Green helped us find that out.

In sixth grade we learned how to do Swedish weaving—How we enjoyed that! But the true enjoyment of this year was our trip to Buffalo for a tour of the zoo and the museum, under the direction of Mrs. Vivian Keller and Mr. Bernard McClure.

In Junior High School we were the worry of Mr. Richard Rose, Mr. Robert McMahon, Miss Alice Birkholz, and Mr. Bernard McClure (He really loved our class!) They tried so hard to teach us that it wasn't all fun, but we showed no signs of cooperation. How happy they must have been when we became Freshmen!

Well, we were in high school now, nothing could stop us—except initiation, which gave some of us a much needed lesson in humility; for others, initiation was a means of getting back at student council members.

As Sophomores, we impatiently awaited the opportunity of being upperclassmen; but we also took a very active part in extra-curricular events, while we diligently prepared for our first Regents.

At the beginning of our Junior year we selected our class rings. Of course, they were the "smartest" rings yet.

Proud of our dramatic ability, we tried our hand at putting on our Junior Play, "Finders Creepers." The cast consisted of Sam Williams, Dick Watkins, Wanda Funk, Judy Ambroselli, Lorie Davis, Joyce Ambroselli, Dennis Grastorf, Geri Quinn, Jim Sortore, Charles Francis, Janelle Barnes, Cid Potter, Bill Shuttleworth, and Pam Quinn. The play personnel consisted of: Daryl Fuller, Don Miller, Tim Schmelzer, Leona Hawks, Karl Hodge, Jean Nicholson, and Pauline Rice.

We all took great pride in preparing for our Junior Prom which took place May 1, 1964. After a month of preparation, the theme "Moon River" was beautifully portrayed in lavender and white. On that long-to-be-remembered night Geri Quinn and Tim Schmelzer were crowned reigning queen and king of the Class of 1965. Their court consisted of Don Miller, Dennis Grastorf, Bill Shuttleworth, Joyce Ambroselli, Jean Nicholson, and Judy Ambroselli.

Our scholastic ability was evidenced when 11 members of the class were inducted into the National Honor Society. (They are Jean Nicholson, Charles Francis, Bill Hodge, Tim Schmelzer, Mike Schleigh, Bill Shuttleworth, Sam Williams, Don Miller, Jeff Crowther, Jim Sortore, and Dennis Grastorf.)

Then, we were Seniors and we made our trip to Washington after trying our hand at selling magazine subscriptions. Our chaperones, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boyer, shared the sights, laughs, and pleasures of that memorable trip.

The final production of the Class of 1965 was the Senior Ball, Christmas Holiday, held December 23 in our gymnasium. The Galen Stout Quartet played the music.

Now, it is 1965, and 36 young adults must go their separate ways, leaving Belmont Central School and all its pleasant memories behind. Wherever our lives take us from here, we shall remember our Alma Mater and our wonderful high school days, our basketball games, our initiation, our Sophomore Hop, our parties, our dances, our Junior Play, our Junior Prom, our Senior trip, our Senior Ball, our yearbooks, our victorious Field Days, and our wonderful teachers that have guided us through 13 years of preparation for our futures, for on June 28 we will be closing the door on a past, a past that will not be forgotten.
