HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1961

GRADE SCHOOL

On that memorable day in September, 1948, forty-two children assembled for the first time as a class under the supervision of Miss Mary Disparti. Of the original forty-two, only nineteen are seniors this year. They are: Charles Brooks, Nancy Coleman, Frank Clark, Caroline Decker, Barbara Dickens, Barbara Greene, Richard Hand, William Hand, Sharon Jordan, Richard MacEwan, Joyce Middaugh, Linda Perry, Patricia Quinn, Celia Ryan, Clyde Tucker, James Vossler, David Seifer, Lloyd Potter, and Joanne Winterhalter.

Having completed our first year of school, we anxiously and confidently marched on to first grade where Marlene Shelley joined our ranks. Mrs. June Moshano and Mrs. Virginia Horner were our teachers. We all remember how proud we were to read Dick and Jane.

In second grade we were joined by Nancy Tower. We all thought we were quite grown up when Mrs. Helen Steenrod taught us to write instead of print.

Miss Mary Jane McCormick and Miss Betty Baudendistel guided us through third grade. Remember trying our skills at matchmaking (Miss McCormick and Mr. Farwell)? Later we found our efforts were in vain.

In fourth grade Sonya Seeley and Mavis Magee arrived. This year Miss Ruth Rossney endeavored to fix in our minds the multiplication tables.

Ruth Preston joined us in fifth grade. This year was a new experience for us as we were upstairs for the first time. Miss Grace Hammond and Mrs. Freda Tower were our teachers. Surely some of us remember sitting in front of the class with gum on our noses.

In sixth grade two new chairs were added in which Donald Drake and Sharon Clark were to sit. Mr. David Orr and Mr. Bernard McClure made this grade seem like one big party.

JUNIOR HIGH

Seventh grade brought a new phase in English poetry. Remember when Dick MacEwan misread one of the lines?

In eighth grade we were joined by Vincent Evans. This year we suffered through our first regents. The highlight of the year was "Moving-Up Day."

HIGH SCHOOL

Finally our long-awaited high school days were here. In our freshman year Robert Jones joined our class. We all remember our warm welcome by Mr. Strate on initiation night.

Most of our sophomore year was spent in anticipation of our junior year.

Finally we were juniors. Thomas Grisewood joined our class in this year. We selected our class rings in November. Then came our Junior Prom. Frank Clark and Barbara Dickens were chosen for king and queen. Their attendants were: Patricia Quinn, Nancy Tower, Vincent Evans, and William Hand. The music was supplied by Yale Jacobs. The theme was "Cinderella's Ball." Our junior play, entitled "Scary Hollow," was presented in the spring. Also this year Barbara Dickens was chosen to attend Girls' State, and Frank Clark was chosen to attend Boys' State.

In our senior year we worked hard selling magazines and "Dispatch" subscriptions to earn money for our Washington trip. The trip proved to be very educational and pleasurable. On October 13 and 14 we presented our senior play, "You Can't Beat the Drums."

Now as we leave Belmont Central, we would like to thank all those who made our last twelve years memorable ones — ones we will cherish the rest of our lives.

JUNIOR CLASS

CLASS OFFICERS

Bryan Caldwell	President
Beverly Nicholson	Treasurer
Eleanor Wilson	Vice-President
Lynn Fleischman	Secretary

The Juniors are now completing their most hectic year. They have had rather tough schedules, and have managed to survive.

They selected the class rings, had the Junior Prom, and the Junior Play.

Most of the boys participated in one or more of the sports, and many of the girls have been active members of the Future Nurse's Club and the Future Homemakers.

The 1960 Baseball season was quite a successful one for Belmont as the team reached the finals. In county league the boys had 6 wins and 3 losses, taking second place to Cuba.

In the quarter-finals the Golden Bears beat York, New York. Advancing on to the semi-finals, they defeated Elba. In the finals the Bears again met Cuba, but lost the championship of Section V by a score of 5-4.

The team's future for 1961 is bright with the return of many veterans and a good nucleus.

This year's soccer team had a relatively successful season. The team started the season by beating Andover 10-0. At Alfred-Almond the team met its first defeat. Belmont put up a strong game against Fillmore, but only managed a 4-4 tie. Andover then surprised us on their field and a loss of 2-0 was suffered. The highlight of the season was beating Alfred-Almond, previously undefeated. Chances for a play-off berth were bright, but Fillmore shattered those hopes by defeating us in the last game.
