HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1966

Once upon a time, there were 44 children, with mixed emotions, entering Belmont Central School. Today, there are only 21 of the original class left, but on the way we picked up 9 making a grand total of 30. Our class was the first to use the new kindergarten. We did a great job "breaking" it in. Of the original 44, these students are still at BCS: Dianna Baker, Diane Bunnell, Darrell Caldwell, Bill Cronk, Tom Derx, Bill Francisco, Duncan Fuller, Sue Graham, Larry Haynes, Kathleen Horton, Nancy Howbridge, Jim Kane, Martha Kenyon, Brenda Knapp, Cathy Lowe, Joyce Rahr, Pat Roeske, Martha Schleigh, Hal Williams, Elaine Wilson and Pat Winterhalter.

In first grade we were met at the door by Dick and Jane who helped us with our reading. Dave Chilson and Jim Hutchinson joined our group here.

Second grade and we learned to add two digit numbers. Mrs. Helen Steenrod and Mrs. Patricia Tompkins really had their hands full that year. Judy Coon and Barb McNinch joined our happy-go-lucky group that year.

Third and fourth grades were filled with learning to write and learning to multiply. Remember the writing exercises, consisting of up and down lines and lopsided swiggles?

Fifth grade and we finally climbed those impressive stairs. My, but we thought we were big. Remember the molasses in social studies? Brenda Austin and Tom Johnson joined us that year.

Sixth grade and the one thing that sticks in our mind is the paddle. Not one of us escaped its powerful blow. That year we took a field trip to Buffalo, visiting the Museum of Science, zoo, and the airport. Remember the escalators at the airport?

On to junior high. For the first time we had lockers! These years were filled with fun, and no one actually accomplished anything. Bessie Hannigan joined our ranks that year.

Then came the big move. We became students of Belmont Central High School. Initiation was never held that year much to the thanks of some and not so by many others.

The sophomore year was spent looking down our noses at the new freshmen. We never looked like that, or had we? Allen Kemp entered our class that year.

The junior year was a busy year for the class of '66. First there were class rings to be chosen. Of course, they were the smartest looking ones ever. Then the junior play, "Hillbilly Weddin'," starring many accomplished actors. We proved we could handle an emergency when the table top fell off on top of "Paw." The main cast included: Dianna Baker, Darrell Caldwell, Judy Coon, Bill Francisco, Sue Graham, Bessie Hannigan, Nancy Howbridge, Tom Johnson, Jim Kane, Martha Kenyon, Cathy Lowe, and Pat Winterhalter. The play proved to be a big success with full houses every night.

Next came the junior prom and after much deliberation the theme was decided on—"Apple Blossom Time." The color scheme was worked out in pastels of pink, blue, green, yellow, lilac, and white. After working until close to midnight on the night before the prom, it was complete. The following day it was said to be the prettiest ever.

The senior year and last year has come. In September, we started our magazine sales to earn our way to Washington, D.C.

On October 21, bright and early, we left for Washington to spend four fun-filled days and nights. Many lasting memories were brought back—parties, closets, house detectives, stairs, to mention just a few.

Graduation will soon be here and we will leave our Alma Mater. And so the class of 1966 says goodbye to BCS.
