HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1960

KINDERGARTEN THROUGH SIXTH GRADE

In September, 1947, thirty children, some excited, some giggling, and some sobbing made a long walk, with their mothers, down what seemed to them, an endless hall that led to a room which they found to be very strange and mysterious, until they met Miss Mary Disparti, who quickly calmed their fears. Of the original 30 only 11 are left. They are: Stephen Ambroselli, Dick Bunnell, Sally Caldwell, Marcella Campbell, Edward Canfield, Daniel Canty, Ann Fleischmann, Clifford Foote, Melissa Frick, Penny Grastorf, Edna Hand, Nancy Johannes, Judy Roeske, Carole Scott, Jean Smith, Tom Tucker, and Georgia Wilson.

At the end of their first year these timid youngsters had become confident and were anxious to enter first grade.

In the first grade we were guided by Mrs. Virginia Horner. During the many weeks spent reading Dick and Jane, many dogs in town were named Spot, and many teddy bears were named Tim.

In second grade two new chairs were added in which our newcomers, Virginia Jones and Doug MacEwan, were to sit. Mrs. Louise Patterson and Mrs. Helen Steenrod must have thought we were a group of poorly fed youngsters. (Remember the afternoon spent on the cots in the back room due to sudden stomach aches we acquired when it came time to recite our addition and subtraction cards?)

In third grade Mutt and Jeff (Sally Tower and Dianne McDonell) joined us. This year chaos was often prevalent since our teachers, Miss Mary Jane McCormick and Miss Betty Baudendistel, were just out of college.

In fourth grade, under Miss Ruth Rossney, we settled down to learning our multiplication tables.

The next year we proudly trudged up two flights of stairs to the "second floor" where we entered fifth grade. It was this grade that Glenn Emery, Gene Fanton, Kenneth Short, and Joyce Perry joined us. Mrs. Freda Tower and Miss Grace Hammond were our teachers. Remember a "certain set of lovers" who had to read their notes aloud?

In sixth grade our class increased by four as Harry and Thelma Beabout, Beverly Hawks, and Jim Prentice joined us. Perhaps sixth grade is the one we remember best of all. Remember how we did our homework in study halls to the music of Mr. Elliott's record player? It was in this grade that Mr. David Orr helped us put on "a skit" much to the dismay of Mr. Elliott and Miss Belle.

JUNIOR HIGH

In seventh grade Grace Lewis and Dena Pelton joined us. It was in this grade that we had our first taste of poetry, much to our dismay.

In eighth grade Howard Scott joined us. Eighth grade regents were taken in June, with Thelma Beabout as valedictorian and Jean Smith and Edward Canfield as salutatorians. The thing we remember most was receiving those long awaited eighth grade diplomas.

HIGH SCHOOL

In our freshman year Ronnie Bigelow and Mike Francis joined us. It was this year that the Student Council got our freshman year off to a warm start by selling us as slaves to the upperclassmen. For the first time in many years the Student Council treasury contained money instead of dust, thanks to us.

Our sophomore year was spent in diligent preparation for the regents which we faced.

At the beginning of our junior year we selected our junior rings which we received before Thanksgiving. Some of us tried our hand at becoming amateur actors and actresses as we presented our Junior play, entitled, "Its Cold in Them Thar Hills." Stephen Ambroselli and Robert Shuttleworth were chosen as representatives to Boys' State "1959." We all took great pride in preparing for our Junior Prom which took place on the night of April 24, 1959, the theme of which was "April in Paris." The gym was decorated with hundreds of carnations and roses which were painstakingly handmade for weeks in advance. The highlight of the evening came at 11 p.m., when the Queen, Dianne McDonell, and the King, Stephen Ambroselli, and attendants, Marcella Campbell, Carole Scott, Robert Shuttleworth, and Douglas MacEwan, were announced.

In our senior year Phyllis Campbell joined us. We started "with a bang" as we were busily selling magazines and "Dispatch" subscriptions to earn money for our Washington trip in October which was an experiment that proved very successful. Next, to earn more for our trip, we presented our senior play entitled, "Off the Track" which was put on two nights. Penny Grastorf was chosen for the D.A.R. Citizenship Award which is awarded to a senior girl each year.

Now as we leave our beloved Alma Mater, Belmont Central, we would like to thank all those who have made our twelve years, ones we will always cherish and remember all of our lives.

The 1959 baseball season was one of the finest enjoyed by Belmont in the past quarter century. The record speaks only of cold statistics such as wins and losses, runs and outs, and errors made by the team. It fails to give an indication of the amount of work and practice that went into the season, or of the sacrifice asked of all individuals concerned. These are the things that only the boys, the parents, and the coach know and will remember.

The highlight of the season was the Section V play-off game against Lyndonville at the University of Rochester. Even though Belmont came out on the losing end, enthusiasm and pride by both team and school overwhelmed any disappointment felt.

The team, the school, and the community are to be congratulated for the fine, all out effort shown in the season of 1959.

The Bears had a fair soccer season with their record at 2 wins, 1 tie, and 4 losses.

Seniors on the team who played their last season were: Stephen Ambroselli, Richard Bunnell, Jim Prentice, Clifford Foote, and Glenn Emery.

The Bears played an excellent season this year, and one of the best in basketball for many years. Winning from Cuba was one highlight to be remembered.

Seniors who played their last season were: Stephen Ambroselli, Daniel Canty, Douglas MacEwan, Michael Francis, and Robert Shuttleworth. However, next season looks bright with the return of Dick Keenan, Frank Clark, Bill Hand, and Dick MacEwan, and an array of talented J. V's coming up.

The Belmont Wrestling Team started the season with 20 members mostly freshmen. Returning to the squad were four County Champions making a well - balanced team.

The four returning County Champions were Tom Tucker, Don Drake, Jim Bliven, and Dick Hand.
