In Appreciation

We would like to dedicate this "77" edition of the Echo to you, Mrs. Granger. Through-out the years of your dedicated service at Angelica Central, you've had patience with all of us. We know we can depend on you to help us whenever we come to you. You've spurred us into action when we needed it most, though we often didn't realize it at the time. As a class advisor you have dedicated endless hours of chaperoning, responsibility and patience, especially with seniors.

Who can forget the hours of memorization of the keyboard, and Law Problems. We can't leave out your list of homework excuses, you even numbered them to save time.

During all this, you've still got time for anyone of us. This is why we wish to express our respect and gratitude to you.

Do It Now

I expect to pass through this world
but once.
Any good thing, therefore,
that I can do or any kindness
I can show
to any fellow human being
let me do it now.
Let me not defer
nor neglect it;
for I shall not pass
this way again.

Stephen Grellet

Ascot Players

K. Ostrander, C. Lawrence, K. Spangler, J. Beckwith, J. Scholla, A. Jones, B. Granger, C. Worden.

The Ascot players have been together for two years. This energetic group is led by Mr. Arthur. They work hard to put on their performances each year, and are greatly anticipated by their fellow students and other members of the community. The time and efforts of this group have brought pride and joy to many.

The 1976 ASCOT production was "The Bride and the Bachelor." The cast included:

Kate Ostrander as Blodwen Morgan-Jones
Cindy Lawrence as Miss Bowden
Corky Spangler as Sir Wm. Benedict Barlow
Jeni Beckwith as Isabel Kilpatrick
Jim Scholla as Jason Kilpatrick
Anita Jones as Serena Kilpatrick
Bill Granger as Joe Tilney
Cheri Worden as Barbara Kilpatrick.
Mr. James Arthur directed the play.
The stage crew consisted of:
Ken Ralyea-lighting	Mary Kay Hosmer
Mary Palmer	Chris Scholla
Terri Ross

To the Seniors of 1977

This is the begining of a "New Day".
God has given you this day to use as you will.
You can waste it, or grow in its light,
But what you do with this day is important.
When tomorrow comes, today will be gone forever.
Make the most of today and the most of all your tomorrows!

Walk hand in hand
Stand side by side
For the short time we're together
By this rule we must abide.

No longer hand in hand
No longer side by side
But separated by new horizons.
