*“ . . . All knowledge is vain
save where there is work
And all work is empty save where there is love . . . ”*

Kahlil Gibran

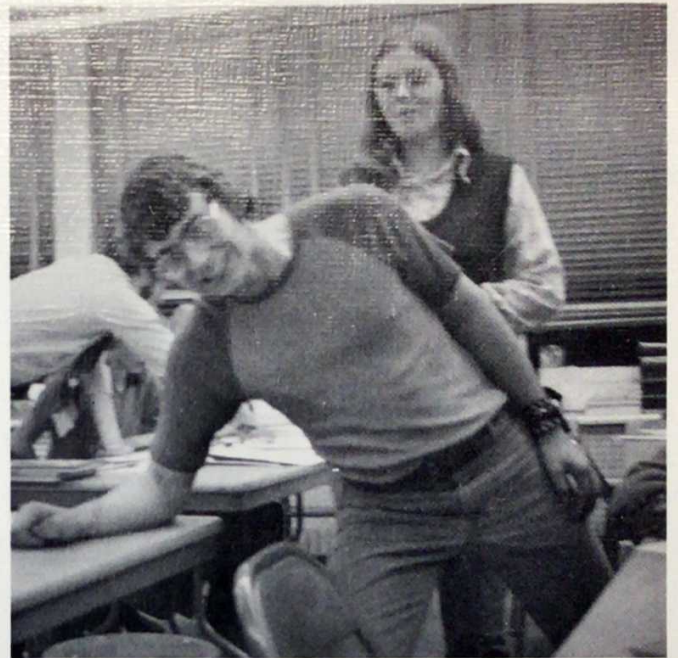

*“When you part from your friend
you grieve not;
For that which you love most in him
may be clearer in his absence.
as the mountain is clearer to the climber from the plain.”*

Gibran

“And in the sweetness of friendship let there be laughter and the sharing of pleasures."

The class of 1974 would like to dedicate this edition of the Echo to one of our most dedicated and appreciated teachers. Throughout the years she has never been too busy to help a student in trouble or to chaperone one of our many student activities. We will always remember your consistent understanding and patience. There are some people in this world who you cannot possibly thank enough for all the things that they do. We believe that you, Mrs. Swarthout are one of these people and for this reason we dedicate the 1974 edition of the Echo to you in an effort to show our sincere appreciation and gratitude.

When I was young my teachers were the old.
 I gave up fire for form till I was cold.
 I suffered like a metal being cast.
 I went to school to age to learn the past.

Now I am old my teachers are the young.
 What can't be molded must be cracked and sprung.
 I strain at lessons fit to start a suture.
 I go to school to youth to learn the future.
