

Gus Nicoll
Class of 1984

Cross Country, Track and Field

In his senior year at Seneca Valley High School, Gus won two individual state championships in cross country and track (3200m). He was twice selected as a High School All-American for being ranked in the top 50 athletes nationwide. Additionally, Gus captained the 1983 undefeated, state champion, All-American cross country team. Following graduation in 1984, Gus attended Yale University in New Haven, CT. He continued to compete successfully in both Cross Country and Track, becoming the Harvard/Yale/Princeton champion at 3000m in 1986. After graduating from Yale in 1988, Gus earned a very competitive Naval Aviator training position, and attended the Aviation Officer Candidate School in Pensacola, Florida.
