

C.J. Brown

Class of 2009

Football, Basketball

Equally talented in football and basketball, C.J. was the leader for two successful Raider teams during high school and earned a total of seven varsity letters in those sports. C.J. Brown is the youngest athlete to ever be inducted into the S. V. Sports Hall of Fame. C.J. played quarterback and was a threat for opponents with his prowess in both passing and rushing. He rewrote the Raider football record book with his achievements, including setting the mark for Most Passing Yards in a Game with 305, Most Passing Yards in a Season with 2,154, and Most Passing Yards in a Career with 3,847. Brown also achieved the records of Most Touchdown Passes in a Single Game and Most Touchdown Passes in a Career. C.J. Brown was a compelling presence on the basketball court at Seneca Valley as a guard/forward and was part of three playoff teams including the section winning team that made the 2009 W.P.I.A.L. semifinals and qualified for the state playoffs, a first in school history. Brown's success resulted in him scoring over 900 points in varsity basketball games and adding more than 600 career rebounds for the Raiders. Upon graduation, C.J. accepted a football scholarship and played at the University of Maryland.
