

Journalism

OVERVIEW

The Journalism program is designed to give students a basic understanding of journalism, writing, photography, and podcast techniques in various mediums while working as a part of a professional team.

FACTS/FUN

1. All Northview Journalism programs are international award winners.
2. We regularly produce print, online, and digital publications.
3. We follow a student-led model with the ability to hold leadership positions.
4. We are Columbia, National, and Georgia Scholastic Press Association members.

THINGS YOU CAN LEARN

1. Journalistic writing, including AP Style/grammar
2. Graphic/page design, photography, website design/management, podcast production
3. Business management and leadership
4. Journalistic ethics, media law, and reporting
5. Interview, research, and publishing skills

CONTACTS & INFORMATION

Broadcast & Newspaper Adviser: Meredith Evans
evansmm@fultonschools.org | nhsmessenger.org

Literary Magazine Adviser: Jesse Hancock
hancockj2@fultonschools.org | nhsmuse.org

Yearbook Adviser: Brian Rawlin
rawlin@fultonschools.org

