

Title I

Title I

Purpose: To help low-achieving students meet the state's challenging academic content and performance standards. The Title I program offers a variety of services which may include: additional teachers and support staff, extra time for instruction, a variety of teaching methods/materials, smaller classes and additional training for staff.

Qualifications: Schools qualify for funds based on economic need. Lee County Schools follow the School-wide Title I program design.

School and Home Communication

Lee County High School 9th Grade Campus is committed to providing regular two-way communication with families about student learning through the following methods. • Parent Portal • School website • progress reports • Monthly newsletter • Telephone messages • Parent-teacher conferences • Text message/email system

Parents have the right:

- to know the professional qualifications of their child's teacher(s) including the degrees and certifications held, and whether the teacher is certified in their respective area of instruction.
- to know the school improvement status of the school.
- to know the level of achievement of their child in each area of the state assessment.
- to know if their child has been assigned, or has been taught for at least four consecutive weeks, by a teacher who does not meet the highly qualified definition.

As part of its assurances within the consolidated grant application and pursuant to Section 1116(d) of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), a school system accepting federal funds also agrees to adopt local written procedures for the receipt and resolution of complaints alleging violations of law in the administration of covered programs.

Title I School-Parent Compact

2024-2025

Dr. Kathleen Truitt
Superintendent

Dr. Brooke Stembridge
Director of Federal Programs

Revised: July 24, 2024

School-Parent Compact

Parent's Pledge:

- Check electronic platform (Parent Portal, Remind, Google Classroom, GaFutures.org) regularly for reminders and resources
- Set aside a time and place for my student to complete assignments and review notes without disruption. Assist in my child's learning at home to reach learning goals
- Try to attend at least one math review night and Saturday School scheduled by the school
- Monitor my student's progress and let the teacher know if I notice any problems

Teacher's Pledge:

- Keep families informed of their student's progress and needs through electronic platform and periodic progress reports
- Provide learning materials and web based resources that can be accessed from home to reach achievement goals
- Host annual parent night to explain my approach to teaching, expectations and grading to students and their families
- Make myself available after school to assist students in need of support

Student's Pledge:

- Ask for help from my teacher and family if I am having trouble doing my work
- Work on my math skills at home, using the materials and computer resources provided by my teacher
- Write down assignments, complete homework, and turn it in when it is due
- Take advantage of tutoring sessions and/or Saturday School offered by my teacher
- Utilize Gcic.peachnet.edu to access college and career information

LCSS GOAL 1: LCSS will increase the percentage of students who are reading on/above grade level at 3rd, 5th, 8th, and 11th grades by 3% as measured by the Georgia Milestones Assessment. GOAL 2: LCSS will increase the number of student subgroups that are meeting or making progress towards the 3% improvement target in all subject areas as measured by the CCRPI Closing the Gaps component.

Lee County High School Goals for Student Achievement:
3% more students will exceed the standard in math by 2025.

Lee County Schools, students participating in the Title I, Part A program, and their families, agree that this compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement as well as describes how school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help students achieve the State's high standards

Please sign and date below to acknowledge that you have read, received, and agree to this School-Parent Compact. Once signed, please tear off and return this form to the teacher and keep the School-Parent Compact as a reminder of your commitment. The School-Parent Compact will be discussed throughout the year at different school-family events as we work together to help your student succeed in school. We look forward to our school-parent partnership!
