Class of '50

The mid-century class entered Field Kindley High School 249 strong. The officers for the sophomore year were Tommy Thompson, Larry Bowser, and Joe Moya. Determined to be the best class CHS ever had, we out sold the upper classmen and placed Mary Scarbrough and Joe Moya on the carnival throne.

Our list of royalty grew as Kathryn Hayden was elected basketball queen. Those who served as queen's attendants were Valeta Brown, football and basketball, Phyllis Striegel and Betty Hayden, track.

The highlights of the year were the class play, "The Night of January 16" and the junior-senior reception and prom amid a setting featuring bells and cockleshells.

At last we reached the height of seniorhood. We elected Joe Moya, president; Larry Bowser, vice-president; and Joan Dorsey, secretary-treasurer.

Phil Piatt, Bob Kloehr, Maxine Bushnell, Bradley Jesson, Kathryn Hayden, Betty Hayden, Lucille Defenbaugh and Chad Brown faithfully reported on the Student Council meetings. Bill Zimmerman served as president of the governing body and Ardis Ewing was secretary.

Those holding presidencies were: Betty Hayden, Tillies; Kathryn Hayden, Drum Corps; Barbara Brees, orchestra; Joan Caresio, Kayettes; Kenneth Winston and George McMillion, Junior Classical League; Bradley Jesson, Hi-Y and Thespians; Clarke Bumgarner, band; Eddie Gillette, F. F. A.; and Cynthia Carey, G. A. A.; Larry Bowser, Jr. Red Cross.

Ten seniors were eligible for Sigma Pi the first semester. Phil Piatt was secretary and Norma Ashbacher and Bradley Jesson were executive committee members.

Seniors who were drum majors were Dorothy Bruce, Tornado Drum Corps; Jack Owen, band; and Pat Caliman, Cleveland Drum Corps.

Cheerleaders who contributed to the promotion of pep and enthusiasm were Valeta Brown and Carroll Soles (three years); Chad Brown (two years); Eddie Gillette (one year); and Pat Simmons (alternate).

Reigning as basketball queen was Ardis Ewing.

Our nominee for King Kay was Bob Peterson.

Betty Hayden was chosen Miss Tornado of 1950. She was also named as the D. A. R. Pilgrim.

The senior production of "Meet Me in St. Louis" played to a full house both nights. Joan Todd and Pat McReynolds were the student directors.

Dick Andrews and Harold Thomas, co-captains of the basketball squad, were chosen to be on the S. E. K. team. Seniors making the S. E. K. in football were Dick Andrews, Charles Landon, and Bob Nieman. Andrews, who was also track captain, and Nieman were the football captains.

The baccalaureate speaker was Dr. Lesile Miller and Dr. Rees H. Hughes gave the commencement address. On May 26, 193 seniors received their diplomas and high school days became only cherished memories.

Class of '51

Ann Ball, who served as attendant for both football and basketball queens, was chosen Miss Tornado.

Class officers for the junior year were Connie Gangwer, president; R. E. Layton, vice-president; and Joan Jarvis, secretary-treasurer.

"What A Life" with Jimmy Pfeifer cast as Henry Aldrich was the first major success.

Seven juniors, including the junior executive members, Connie Gangwer and Carol Baden, were eligible for Sigma Pi. Thirty-four made the semester honor roll.

Clyde Martin, a member of the debate team, won the oration contest. Shirley Gooding took first in the "I Speak for Democracy" contest.

Gloria Boyd was Cleveland queen.

Jerry Long, who moved away, was succeeded by Roger McCoy as vice-president of the student council.

The climax of the year was when the juniors invited the seniors to board the "Good Ship Field Kindley", which was decorated in blue and white, for the annual reception and dance.

Class of 1952

Upon their arrival from junior high the class of '52 promptly got under way by electing Bill Shores, president; Bill Bromley, vice-president; and Mavis Starnes, secretary-treasurer.

The capable representatives to the student council were Rose Kelly, Jack Bartle, Loretta Clemons, Charles McReynolds, Mavis Starnes, Peggy Stuart, McKee Lynn, and Johnny Joe Jenkins.

The sophomores were very proud to have 50 on the semester honor roll with 19 of that number qualified for Sigma Pi, the high honor society.

The class was very active in school organizations. Sandra Ewing served as president of the Waitress Club, honor organization of sophomore girls. Others holding offices were Sue Brown and Peggy McReynolds, Kayette committee chairmen; and Marianne Belt, G.A.A. scrapbook keeper. Sue Brown attended the Kayette conference at Osawatomie.

The sophomore assembly was given early in May.

Also represented in debate, music, and athletics, the sophomores have a promising outlook for remaining two years in high school.

TORNADO DOES IT AGAIN

The Golden Tornado, upsetting the so-called experts who rated them as a third place club, swept through the S.E.K. League with true tornado velocity to their third championship in six years.

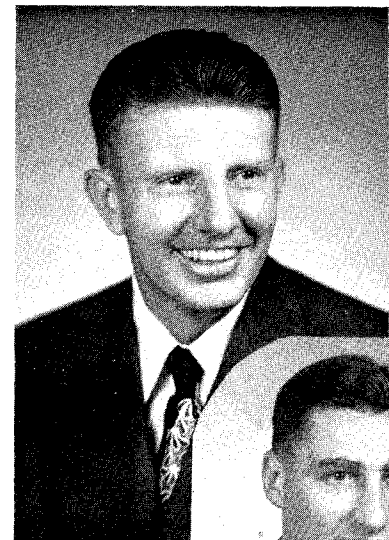

The gridsters got off to a slow start as they dropped the opening encounter to a strong Ark City team, 24-0. Even though the Javatowners penetrated deep into Columbus territory, the old jinx held and the next game ended in a scoreless draw. They then forced the Parsons Vikings down with a 19-0 defeat. The following week the Coffeyville team journeyed to far-off Ft. Scott to come from behind and win 18-7.

The Bartlesville Wildcats and Chanute Comets became victims of the Tornado onslaught in games in which the scores stood 27-7 and 18-7, respectively.

A decisive 26-7 victory over the favored Pittsburg Dragons put Coffeyville on top. The club then drubbed the Iola Mustangs, 39-0, and were ready for the championship battle with their ancient rivals, Independence. The bang-up ball game, which was the best the Bulldogs had played all year, terminated in a 14-14 tie. However, this was all that was necessary for the Kindley crew to claim the S.E.K. League championship.

GOLDEN TORNADO

Basketball

The Coffeyville Golden Tornado, working under difficulties, fought through the 1949-'50 basketball season in a commendable fashion. Coach Stoner's hoopsters started off on the right foot by downing Bartlesville, one of Oklahoma's top teams, in their initial contest 35-31. Next they rolled over the defending champions, the Iola Mustangs, 49-22.

The team fought hard in the two following encounters but were nosed out in the final seconds by Independence and Bartlesville.

Breaking even in the next few contests, the Stonerites went on to trounce the mighty Parsons Vikings who were considered one of the best teams in the state. The 55-44 victory came after the boys began to play as one solid unit in the last quarter.

The newly inspired Tornado, winning a majority of their games, rose from fifth place they occupied prior to the Parsons contest to a final place in the third berth after pressing Parsons and Pittsburg all the way for the title. In the district tourney at Neodesha the basketekers dropped a heartbreaking one point decision to the Independence Bulldogs.

All in all they completed a very successful season by wining 12 of their 18 games.

Basketball letters for the year went to Andrews, Thomas, Moya, Buckner, Hafford, Neale, Tipton and Crandall.

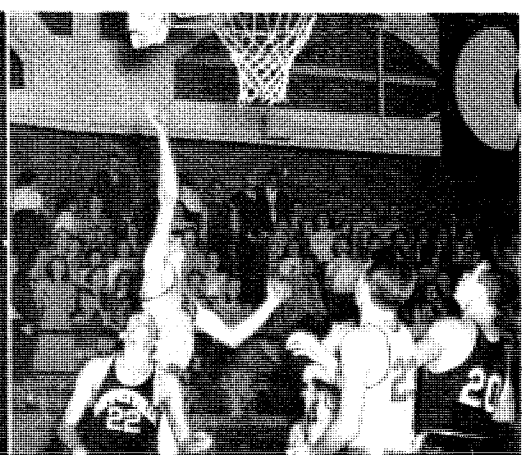

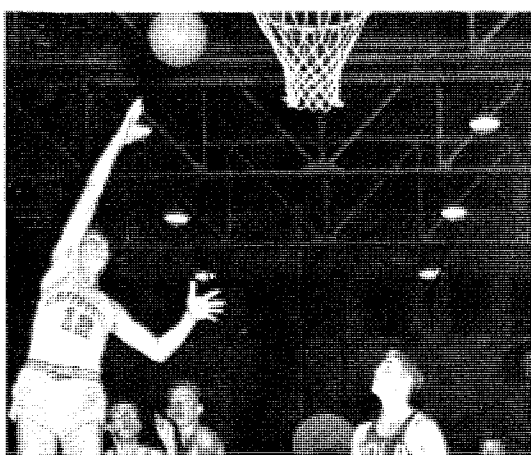

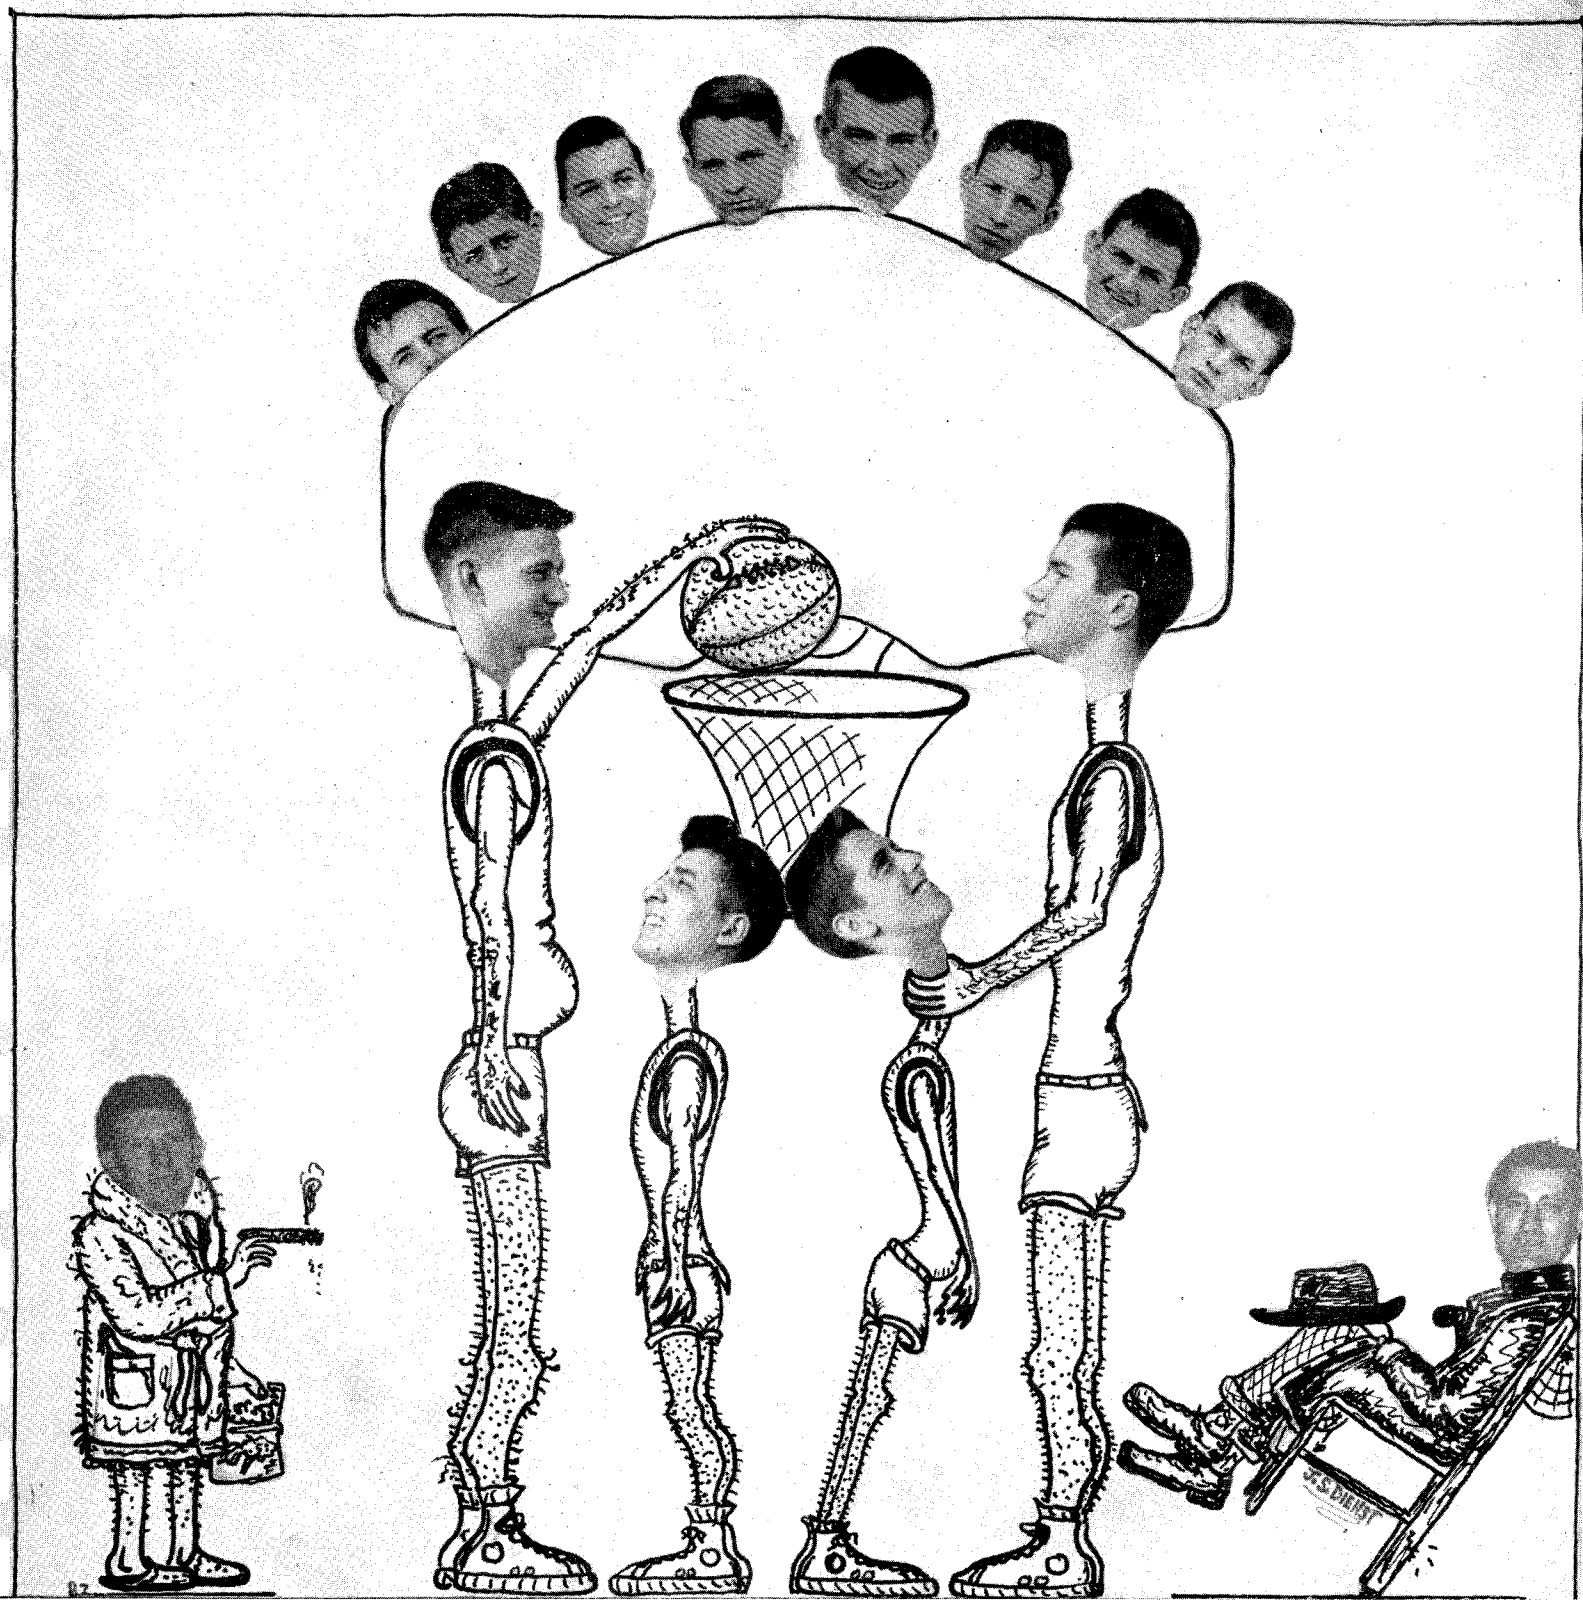

GOLDEN BREEZE

Bollen brought the 57:4 free style record held by Frank of East down to 57:03. McMillion, Seaton, and Ervin took the 180 medley relay in 1:47.3 breaking Kansas City's 1:50 time. The 160 yard sprint relay team (Zimmerman, Dienst, Walthall, and Burns) downed East's 1:22.3 record in 1:21.4.

The team has emerged victorious in 30 consecutive wins including three state meets.

Track

Under the superior coaching of Oren Stoner and Andy McClure, the selected 40-man team started the season with flying colors by winning the dual meet with Fredonia. The walk-away score was 160-49.

Coffeyville journeyed to the Pittsburg Relays to bring home the first place trophy of the Class AA schools. The local squad came out on top by placing first in seven events.

On April 18, Coffeyville again broke the tape against Independence in a dual meet with a score of 91-41. The CHS cindermen came out in front by taking 12 firsts.

The host team was defending the title at the Coffeyville Relays. Despite the cold weather, the local thinclads broke ahead with a five point margin. The score being 81, with Springfield closing in with 76.

On May 6th the locals traveled to Pittsburg to the annual SEK track meet. Coffeyville won first place again, making it the third consecutive winning in the past three years. The score was $76\frac{1}{2}$ for the Tornado and Pittsburg was second with 46 $\frac{7}{10}$.

At the time this copy went to press the Tornado trackmen were preparing to attend the regional and the state meets. By the recent showings it can be judged that Coffeyville will make a good record.

The Student Council, acting as the student governing body of the school, carried on its business and activities in an outstanding manner.

The major project was the launching of the first annual Kindley Kavalcade. The realization of many months' work was a production comparable to professional entertainment.

Attending the Student Council Convention at Chanute were McKee Lynn, Ardis Ewing, Loretta Clemons, Joan Jarvis, Bill Zimmerman, Kenny Richardson, and Betty Hayden, accompanied by Miss Beverly Bohan.

Along with the Kavalcade the council sponsored the lyceum programs, collected and re-finished all of the trophies, conducted all the homecoming activities, repaired a piano, contributed to many community organizations, and gave over one hundred fifty dollars to the various school organizations.

This has been a record year for the council, with the officers and committee chairman cooperating with Miss Hoover and the faculty to make our school better in every way.

Robed Choir

The 1949-50 robed choir had a very successful year with a series of outstanding events. It consisted of 64 members directed by C. A. Byers.

First on the calendar was the SEK Festival at Chanute where Mr. Warner Imig directed the combined choirs for a concert.

Preparation of the first act of "Kindly Kavalcade," an all-student production, was the main event of the year for the choir. Numerous members displayed outstanding talent.

This group was one of the many musical organizations to attend the stage production of "Oklahoma" at Kansas City. Earlier that same day each group performed for the music major students and teachers at K. U. at Lawrence for constructive criticisms. In order to make the trip a mile of pennies was collected by all students going.

Also, the choir assisted in giving the Christmas and Easter assemblies plus a variety show. Special appearances were made for the teachers' convention, Kiwanis Club, Seven Last Words, and the baccalaureate services.

Kayettes

Under the enthusiastic guidance of their head sponsor, Miss Cabbell, the Kayettes of 1949-'50 can very well acclaim a most successful year.

Among the many projects completed were: 400 menu covers for Veterans' Hospitals, contribution of 52 wash cloths to Red Cross, $15 Christmas food box to a needy family, $10 CARE package to Italy, selling of concessions at football and basketball games, assisting in two tag days for Navy Mothers and War Dads.

The Easter and Thanksgiving chapels were prepared by the Hi-Y and Kayettes.

Social activities included: a Halloween party, the annual Christmas party for children, Heart-sister week, Dad-Daughter Chili Supper, Mother-Daughter Tea, afternoon programs and board meetings in private homes.

Delegates to Kayette Conference at Osawatomie were: Ethel Chaney, Juanita George, Barbara Becker, Connie Gangwer, Sue Brown, Barbara Heusted and 2 sponsors, Misses Ethel Cabbell and Laverne Carroll.

The last event of the year was the Senior Farewell.

Tornado Tillies

"Fifteen Rahs" for the Tornado Tillies of 1949-'50. This has been a glorious, busy year for Field Kindley's Pep and Service Club.

The Tillies planned all pep assemblies and queen coronations and attended all the football and basketball games played here with trips to out-of-town games at Parsons, Independence, and Neodesha. Another important feature of this organization is selling football and basketball season tickets and schedule pencils and Christmas cards.

As a service club, the Tillies have collected for the March of Dimes fund. They have sent telegrams to the team at out-of-town games, printed pep tags for students to wear, printed names of players for the basketball scoreboard, always kept informing posters up, timed debates in the Coffeyville tournament, ushered at Kindley Kavalcade, Little Theatre play, and junior and senior plays, marched in Shriner's and Armistice Day parades, took part in the half-time at the Armistice Day football game, and participated in a flag raising at an Independence football game there.

The Twenty-First Annual Birthday Reunion of Tornado Tillies was held in the Sunflower Room of the Hotel Dale in November with a Hawaiian theme maintained throughout the evening.

The evening of the Chanute-Coffeyville basketball game here the Tillies were hostess to the Chanute pep club, the Comet Cadets, at a chili supper and program before the game.

The highlight of this year was the trip to Wichita to the State swimming meet.

Congratulations go to the president, Betty Hayden, for being chosen DAR of the year and Miss Tornado of 1950 to Valeta Brown, cheerleader for three years, who was crowned football queen; to Mary Ann Beeman, who was chosen basketball queen attendant, and to Maxine Bushnell for winning two 4-H scholarships. But most of all, congratulations go to their sponsor, Miss Helen Glaser, for being a swell leader, the backbone of their success.

Thus is ended the twenty-first year of Tornado Tillies, and here's to many more happy decades of this noble organization.

Drum Major

Drum Corps

"Attention! Dress Right! Front! At Ease!" These are familiar sounds to the ears of the Tornado Drum Corps members as they have heard them "whispered" by the drum major, Dorothy Bruce, for the past year.

A trip to Vinita for the rodeo parade was the beginning of a very eventful season which included more parades (Neewalloh, Armistice Day, etc.), football and basketball drills, coronation ceremonies, tag days and performance for the music faculty of K. U. while en route to Kansas City to see "Oklahoma."

The theme for the Annual Drum Corps Reunion held December 28 in the Sunflower Room of the Dale Hotel was "Sweet Sixteen." A sextette composed of Ardis Ewing, Marlene Starts, Pat Scott, Margie Kirkman, Sue Kloehr, and Phyllis Allen provided music. The exciting moment of the evening came when the announcement was made that Donna Johnston was to be 1950-51 drum major.

Orchids go to Dorothy Bruce, track queen attendant, who was also selected "Beauty Favorite of the Month" by a national magazine, "The School Musician"; Ardis Ewing, basketball queen; and her attendant, Ann Ball.

With plumes bobbing to the tune of "Hop Scotch Polka", the corps traveled to Tulsa for the half-time performance of a T. U. basketball game. Their rendition of "Oklahoma" was well received.

The highlight of the year was the trip to Joplin as a non-competitive group to attend the Joplin American Legion "On Parade" contest. The organization, rated very highly by the judges, again took top honors.

The Girls' Athletic Association started the year with the initiation of new members. They played football and had a conga line for the football boys.

Two basketball teams, captained by Mitzi Fenn and Sandra Ewing, and a volleyball team were entered in the City Recreational League.

The only out of town trip was when 44 girls went to Pittsburg to attend the Play Day there.

The local group made plans for a Play Day with both junior and senior high schools entering. The activities included basketball, volleyball, softball, badminton, ping pong and swimming.

The officers were: president, Cynthia Carey; vice-president, Charlotte Lindsay; secretary-treasurer, Connie Gangwer; point system manager, Valeta Brown; social chairman, Verna McColl and historian, Marianne Belt. The sponsor was Mrs. Lucille Spoon.

The first event was the initiation of the Greenhands and Chapter Farmers. The boys' parents were guests and after the initiation and program they toured the shop and inspected the boys' work.

At the District Leadership School at Independence the Coffeyville officers won first in the ritual and second in the information test. Edward Gillette and Don Wisely made the All Star Ritual Team.

The local chapter took second in the Crop Judging Contest at Chanute. They also entered the Poultry Judging Contest at Ottawa. The Coffeyville boys placed fourth among twenty-two teams.

The Future Farmers were hosts to the Southeast Poultry Judging Contest on Mar 11. Chanute won first, Ottawa, second and Coffeyville, third.

The chapter's first parent and son banquet was March 28.

The F.F.A. entered a basketball team in the church league. They won second in league play, and fourth in the tournament. Members of the team were Kenneth Royse, Richard Gartner, Joe Reardon, Harold Rogers, Jackie Smith, Eddie Gillette, Robert Merchant, Carl Hosenev, Bob Jarrett and Allen Heath.

The 1950 State Farmer is Richard Gartner.

On May 1 and 2 the delegates and judging teams attended the State Contest and F.F.A. Convention at Manhattan. Other contests which the group participated in were the Livestock Judging at Chanute, Crop Judging at Cherryvale and The S.E.K. Dairy Judging at Parsons.

Hi-Y

The Field Kindley Hi-Y, working hard to carry out the aim of every Hi-Y organization—"To create and maintain throughout the school and community a high standard of Christian character," had much variety in their program for the year 1949-50.

The local club was host to a district meeting here early in the fall. District officers were elected and business was transacted. The highlight of the conference was a banquet in the Christian Church basement featuring an interesting address by the Reverend Jack Oliver.

Due to the Kindley Kavalcade, the Hi-Y was unable to send its usual delegation to the Kansas Youth and Government Program in Topeka. They did, however, assist in the annual Thanksgiving Christmas and Easter assemblies.

During the spring the club had several weiner roasts and swimming parties. The year closed with the election of new officers.

The success of the organization this year is due to the very capable leadership of F. A. Thorne, head sponsor, and the Hi-Y cabinet.

Waitress Club

The Waitress Club is an organization consisting of forty-five sophomore girls who have attained the necessary scholastic requirements and continue to maintain them throughout the year. This select group was organized in 1941 to fulfill the need for a serving unit. However, it serves not only the school but the community. In the field of service, the girls have assisted in poppy sales, football and basketball concessions, the teachers' luncheon and have served several banquets throughout the year.

The main event was the annual formal dance given in honor of the previous Waitress Club members and their escorts. The theme was "Rudolph, the Red-Nosed Reindeer."

Three new members admitted for the second semester were: Patsy Sprague, Phyllis Tesh and Anna Byrne.

Mrs. Kenneth Cape, home economics instructor, is the sponsor. Miss Thelma McDonald and Mrs. Cleo Rush are assistant sponsors.

During the 1949-50 season the Field Kindley Debate team came forth as one of the debating "powers" of the state. The whole squad, including first year students, boasts a record of 78 wins and 60 losses after competing against the top notch teams of Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri. The best record was set by Betty Hayden and Bradley Jesson who won 21 debates while dropping only 7. A team composed of Clyde Martin and Bob Kloehr won the Pittsburg tournament. Hayden, Jesson, Martin and Kloehr completed the season by tying for the SEK championship with Pittsburg. This makes the third straight year the local word-wanglers have either won or tied for the honor.

Brad Jesson, a third year student of coach Womble, ranked as one of the top speakers in the state with a speaker's average of 1.2 out of a possible 1. Coach Womble is to be congratulated on the outcome of his team as well as for the manner in which he ran the Coffeyville Tournament which was the largest debate meet in the state.

The National Thespians Society is an educational organization of teachers and students established for the advancement of dramatic arts in the secondary schools. It is an "honor" or "recognition" society in the sense that students are granted membership for having performed meritorious work in dramatic arts. New members are voted in and initiated by the old members.

Thespians work in advisory and technical capacities for all school dramatic productions. This year's efforts included: "Kindly Kavalcade," an all school production; junior play, "What A Life"; senior play, "Meet Me In St. Louis"; and two one-act plays, "Don't Feed the Animals" and "The Ins and Outs."

Leo Cheeseman was announced Thespians of the year with a total of 63 points. The honor is bestowed upon the Thespians who has acquired the best record of participations in speech and dramatic productions.

Class Will

We, the members of the Field Kindley Senior Class of the year one thousand, nine hundred and fifty, being of high scholastic and athletic achievements and also being of unsound mind, afflicted by shattered nerves, haunted by horrible visions called teachers, and pursued by little creatures called juniors, and having only a few more hours to dwell within the walls of this institution, at this, the time of our departure for foreign shores, do announce, proclaim, publicize, and declare this our last will and testament.

CLAUSE 1—Be it known by all those in the congregation here assembled that we, the following members of the graduating class bequeath to those who are to follow in our auspicious footsteps the following legacies:

- I, Dan Lucas, do leave to Jack Hall my height and attractiveness to the opposite sex.
- I, Bob Bollen, do leave to Raymond Walthall my ability as one of Johnny's little "iron men."
- I, Gene Runyon, do leave to Bill Tipton my ability as a basketball player.
- I, Clarke Bumgarner, do leave to all the junior and sophomore boys my parking place at the air base— between the hours of 8 and 10 a. m. (??)
- I, Dorothy Bruce, do leave to Donna Johnston my Drum Corps uniform.
- I, Gene Jarrett, do leave to Clyde Martin my ability to disgust girls.
- We, the Dora's of the Tornado Times staff, do leave to next year's Dora's all our dirt!
- I, Leo Cheeseman, do leave to John Hedley my ability to keep trying.
- I, Phyllis Allen, do leave to Marlene Starts my dead mice collection.
- I, Bradley Jesson, do leave to Gene Brown my ability as a debator.
- We, the senior members of the dramatic class, give it back to Mr. Womble.
- I, Mary Harmon, leave to Marilyn Gatewood my big, booming voice.
- I, Forrest Jameson, do leave to Cole Hendrix my mouselike timidity.
- I, John Dienst, do leave to Bill Currier my horseless hairdo.

- We, Blue, Berry, and Burns, - - - - - leave!!!!
- I, Retta Young, do leave to Pat Scott my fondness for meditation.
- I, Betty Hayden, do leave my powerful spotlights to all other girls who don't like to be jeeped either.
- I, Phil Piatt, do leave to all intelligent juniors my extreme disgust for all girls.
- We, Emmet Terril and Kenneth Winston, do leave to Ace Newlon and Don Lee our superb physical conditions.
- We, the members of the English literature class, do leave to Miss Hoover our joint collection of "Wild and Wooly" western magazines.

CLAUSE 2—Finally, with deepest sincerity we leave to our alma mater our everlasting and heartfelt gratitude and the hope that they have gained as much enjoyment from the last three years as we have. This school has seen us through many trying years and her excellent faculty has taught us also how to live better lives and benefit society as well as ourselves.

In witness of the foregoing document, we have affixed, planted, glued and nailed our foot prints, in which the future classes are to follow, our signatures, which we have learned to make by copying signatures on grade cards and dollar bills, and our pen names, which, upon leaving this pen, we will no longer need.

Senior Prophecy

Well, here I am back in Mars after a delightful visit to my native land. I had such a wonderful time that I want to tell you all about it. How little I thought when I graduated from Field Kindley High School 20 years ago that I would someday be the World's first ambassador to the planet Mars. It was in that same school 20 years ago last month that my good friend, Dorothy Bruce, promised me that someday after she had married a millionaire she would have all the class of 1950 out to her ranch for a month's visit. Well, for 10 years she went ahead teaching school in Tyro and it looked as though she would never find the right man. Then her old flame Ed Gillette, the famous bubble-gum magnate came to town and three weeks later they were married. So, true to her promise, she sent out invitations to all the old class of '50 to spend a month with her on their enormous ranch which included most of Montgomery County. You can imagine my delight at the invitation. I immediately hopped the first rocket ship for home.—(the line is owned by Dan Lucas and his business-minded wife, the former Phyllis Striegel. They got their start with a bus line in Coffeyville.)

Three days later as I stepped out of the rocket ship, I was greeted by Leo Cheeseman, the great playwright, and Bernard Dolenz, the world renowned scientist. They were accompanied by their wives, the former Joan Caresio and Ethel Chaney. As I got into their car, I noticed that it was a "Thompson Two," which had been manufactured by my old friend Merwin Eugene Thompson.

As we arrived at the beautiful Gillette Ranch, which now stands where the old Pfister Park swimming pool once was, I noticed that the honorable Robert Nieman, mayor of Coffeyville, was giving the welcome. His address was answered by Harold Thomas, president of the Coursey Rendering Works. After the ceremonies were over, I started to mill among my old classmates. In one corner, surrounded by reporters was the glamorous movie star Mary Scarbrough, while in another room Bill Zimmerman, the famous lion hunter, was giving a demonstration of his method of catching lions to the governor of Kansas, Kenneth Winston, while their charming wives, the former Ardis Ewing and Joan Todd, looked on with amazement. A little further on I noticed "Curly" Neale, manager of the Chicago Cubs, talking to the Coffeyville Journal's ace sports reporter, John Dienst. Neale's team has finished in the cellar for the past five seasons, but with the help of "Home run" Startz he hopes to finish in seventh place this year. Walking across the terrace I spied the so-called wolves of Wall Street discussing the financial outlook of the universe. Included among them were R. C. Kloehr of Smorgersborough Inc., Roger Balsters of "Old Dr. Jorgensens Inc.," and Bud Blagg of "Blagg Alligator Farms Unlimited."

I was just starting to speak to Mrs. Don Crowl, the former Patsy McReynolds, who had just been selected as the model dairy farmer's wife of the universe, when I heard a terrific argument going on in the library. As I rushed in I was shocked to see the two rival candidates for the presidency of the United States about to come to blows. Phil Piatt, the present president, was about to be attacked by his opponent in the race, Betty Hayden. Phil is the men's candidate while Betty is running on the United Women's ticket. Since Phil appointed me ambassador to Mars, I felt that I should support him. However, Hayden is backed by such powerful organizations as: "The Anti-Men's League" headed by Charlene Hopkins and "East Side Literary Society" headed by Kathryn Hayden. Since the argument was really getting hot, I decided to step out on the veranda for a breath of fresh air. There on the veranda I noticed Phyllis Allen, who had just been acquitted of murdering her sixth husband, and now was looking for her seventh. Incidentally she was acting quite friendly to George Coyle, the famous polo player.

A few minutes later the dinner gong sounded and we hurried into the large dining hall for a delicious meal prepared by the Gillette's noted chef Dolores Gabel. I found my seat between John Rogers, the pickle king, and Carroll Soles, a talent scout for the Follies Bergere. At the present he is scouring the planet Mars for new talent. The meal was very tasty but perhaps the best dish was some pork-chops from Moya's Meat Inc., Joe has done wonders in this business and has earned the title of "The Prince of Pigs."

The rest of the month flew by with occasional parties at the new and better Pig Stand, which is now owned and operated by Cynthia Carey and Jerry Walterscheid. Another feature was the evening concerts by the Vesuvian Quintet, conducted by Jack Owen and featuring such outstanding musicians as Jack Smith, First Flugal Horn, Dan Rush, solo Zither, Bob Bollen, Mouth Harp, Valeta Brown Andrews, Wash-tub, and Marge Madden, toothless comb. Perhaps the most enjoyable experience was the wrestling match between Rock-head Dorsey, the famous lady wrestler, and Bo-Bo, a polar bear owned by Larry Bowser. the bear didn't stand a chance. In my spare time I talked to Brickwall Bumgarner, the head football coach at Tyro Tech, and his capable assistant Run-away Runyon, along with Digger Jennings, the Unhappy Mortician, and his professional pallbearer, Cry-Baby Crane.

When the month was over we departed rather sorrowfully but all pledged to get together in 1980 for another reunion to be held on the moon, which is almost entirely owned by Virgil Tabor and his wife, the former Jeanne Wilson. I haven't had time to tell you all the things the seniors of '50 have done and are doing but they are for the most part very successful and happily married. That is all except Bradley Buckner, who is now an Arabian Prince and has 26 wives. See you again in 1980 !!!!!
