Student Council

This year the Student Council started a new practice of hanging pictures of championship teams.

The other projects carried on consisted of a Courtesy Week, Safety Week, "Hat Off" board about school activities and many others. They also assisted with the Scholarship Awards assembly and did work on the form of the Constitution.

The Student Council was under the direction of Dick Neely, President, and John Charlesworth, Sponsor.

The representatives and alternates were elected by the homerooms.

Debate

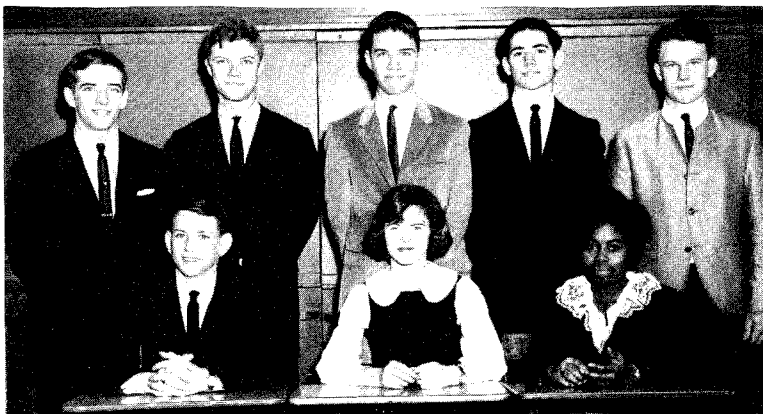

From Wichita to Topeka, from Manhattan to Pittsburg—experienced and novice debaters traveled far and wide to argue both sides of this year's debate topic: "Resolved that nuclear weapons should be controlled by international organization."

Evidences of the squads' skills showed up in their high rankings in many of the contests and in the addition of 10 trophies to those of CHS.

Junior Play

On March 20, the Junior Class of C.H.S. presented "Pillow Talk" under the direction of Kenneth Burchinal. A capacity crowd was kept in laughter throughout the show as the love-life of Brad Allen was interrupted by the stubbornness of the girl on his partyline, Jan Morrow.

First Row (L. to R.): James Wilson, Joseph Wilson, Susie Kennedy, Stephanie Beine, Carol Sue Gowen, Joan Carter, Shirley Lyberger, Jane Roberts, Teresa Morris, Ricki Thomas, Bill Read, Ed Klumpp.

"The Kavalkade Song" brought Kindley Kavalkade to a close.

Kavalkade

Jack Goode and Rex Williams entertained with their guitars.

Muscular ballerinas delighted the audience with their precision (?) routines.

Ann Winston, Sarah Bagby, Judy Evitts and Debby Kuykendall await entrance cues.

The Robed Choir provided a musical background for the parade of the models.

Kavalkade

This year's performance was a presentation of "Potpourri," meaning "variety." The acts ranged from Mounties to Models including Hello Dolly dancers, Indian skit, Latin American singing and, in conclusion, scenes chosen by the Director Kenneth Burchinal.

Senior Danny Metzger was crowned King Kay XVI during the intermission of the final performance.

The performances which were given the week of Feb. 16-19, climaxed the work of some 250 students and faculty members.

Mr. Burchinal was assisted by Lane Broadstreet and Harvey Lewis.

Times Staff

The Tornado Times, with a circulation of almost 600, was published fifteen times during the year. Under the direction of Harold Sappenfield, each member of the Staff had the experience of being an editor of one of the pages during the year.

Dorothy Herring (Reporter), Charline Clithero (Editor), Harold Sappenfield (Advisor).

(L. to R.): James Smith, Rick Unsell, Dick Crager, Greg Carter, Jim Owen, Mitchell Seals.

Twister Staff

Members of the yearbook staff were given the opportunity of handling more of the actual production aspects of the 1965 Twister. Pictures and copy were combined into page layouts designed and made ready for the plant camera by staff members.

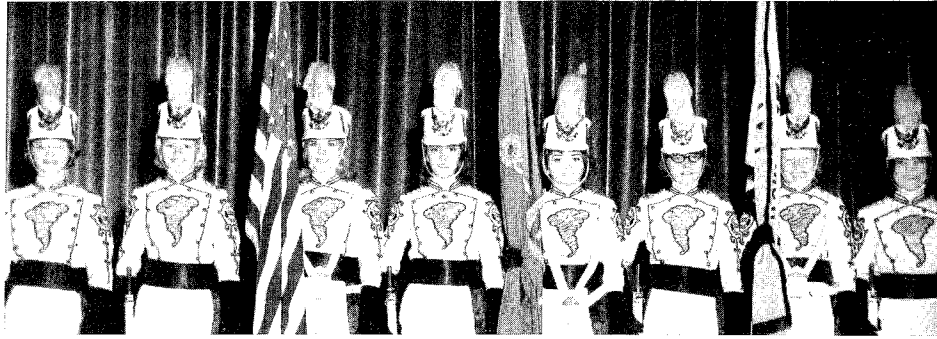

Working in accordance with student demands and administrative direction, the staff resorted to the more traditional yearbook style in the 1965 Twister.

Drum Corps

The Drum Corp girls had a busy season in the 1964-1965 school year. They participated in such activities as Billy Mills' homecoming, Neewollah at Independence, keeping time at the debators' invitational tournament, Christmas parades, and their usual performance at the Coffeyville-Independence football game.

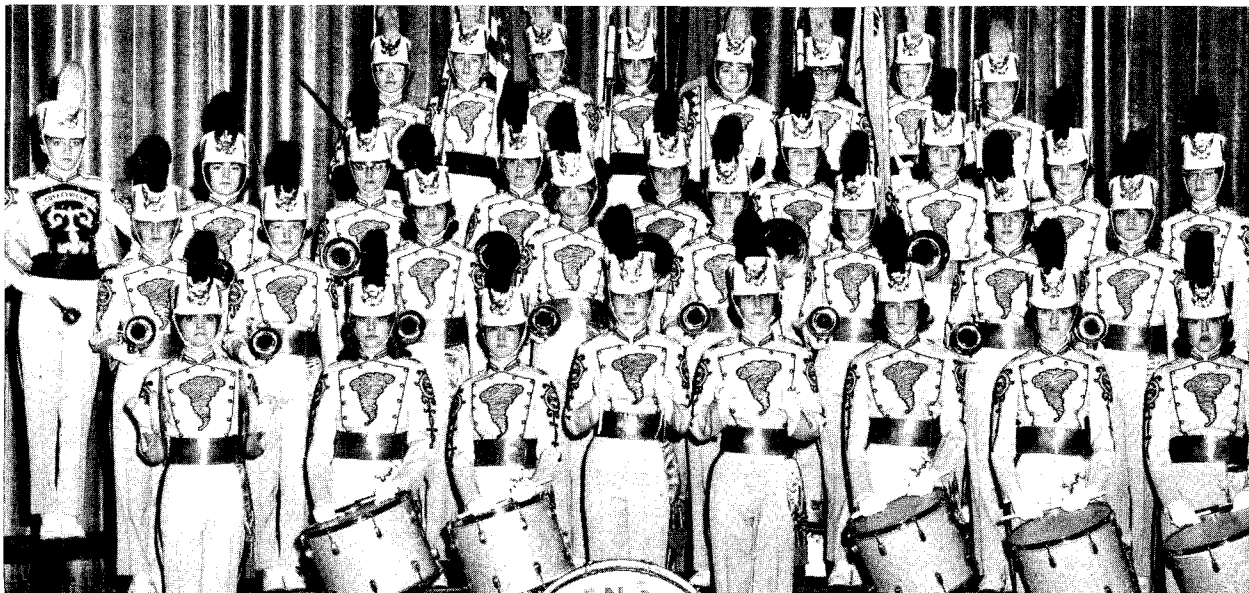

The theme for this years' Drum Corp reunion was "Memory Cruise." It was announced at this reunion that Peggy Stephens would fill the office of drum major for '65-'66.

The many trips, slumber-parties, and other activities have made this an unforgettable year for the Drum Corps.

Band

With the concert band as a parent organization, three musical groups participated in the activities of the school year.

The band concert in late spring of this year was the high point in the band's year.

Other activities in which the 55-member band participated were pep assemblies, football, basketball games and K. U. Band Day.

Orchestra

Theater goes to the many dramatic productions of Field Kindley High settled comfortably back in their seats and enjoyed the concerts provided by the theater orchestra prior to opening curtain. During Kindley Kavalkade, the orchestra provided the music for the vocal and dance numbers.

Participation in the orchestra Festival held in Fort Scott in April was the highlight of the year for these instrumentalists.

Robed Choir

Programs presented by the fifty-eight voices of the Robed Choir were enjoyed by the people of Coffeyville and the Southeast Kansas Area. The choir, directed by Lane Broadstreet, sponsored the Christmas and Easter assemblies and carried a share of the annual Kavalkade. Outside the school they appeared at the Kansas Educational Convention and participated in the regional contest held at Pittsburg.

The Madrigals, who were selected from the choir, entertained on numerous occasions.

Candy Stripers

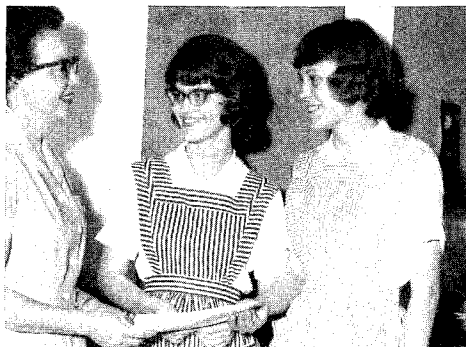

Forty-five Candy Stripers comprised this years group who served at the Coffeyville Memorial Hospital as nurses' assistants. They performed tasks such as filling water pitchers, making beds, carrying trays, and entertaining patients. The organization, sponsored by the Kayettes, gives girls who are interested in nursing a first-hand experience with the work required of nurses.

Boys' intramurals, under the leadership of Paul Crandell, and girls' intramurals, under Mrs. Delores Zeigler, offered such activities as tennis, basketball, tumbling, bowling, volleyball, softball, and other activities to skilled and fun-loving Coffeyville students who showed interest. Students met after school on week-days to compete with their physically fit friends.

The intramural program provided fun and entertainment as well as outlet for the tensions of Coffeyville High School students.

Intramural volleyball occupied the time and energies of CHS boys after school.

GAA

The Girls' Athletic Association provided the opportunity for intramural participation for CHS girls. This group, consisting of approximately 50 members, was under the leadership of Kathy Griffin, President, and Mrs. Ziegler, Sponsor.

One activity of the group was the giving of Christmas gifts for community service.

It was not "all work and no play" for they enjoyed social functions including a pizza party, Play Day at Pittsburg, and a picnic at the close of the year.

Tillies

In addition to regular cheering duties, the girls made banners and posters for all games. They sold season tickets for all athletic events. They also sold pencils and C'ville buttons.

These enthusiastic young women were sponsored by Miss Helen Glaser.

Pompoms, spirits jumping, and voices raised in triumph or suddenly quieted in despair - these were the ups and downs of 'Nado's "mass enthusiasm controllers." With a special responsibility to encourage good sportsmanship, always in uniform, Tillie members looked smart in purple skirts, white blouses, and purple weskits with large emblems.

Tornado Basketball

For the second consecutive year the Golden Tornado under Coach Harold Thomas won the SEK League Championship as they compiled a won-loss record of 13-1. The Tornado then moved to the Regional tournament at Winfield where they defeated Wichita Southeast 57-55 in overtime for the title.

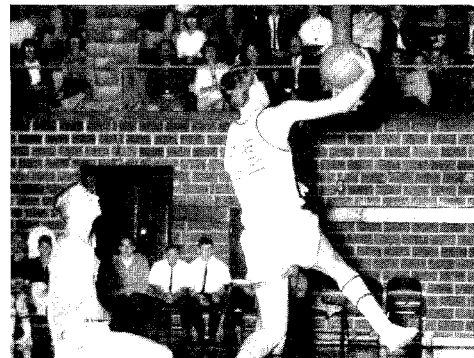

At the State tournament in Lawrence, the Tornado drew Wichita East as their opponent. The Tornado came out on the short end of the contest by being defeated 55-40.

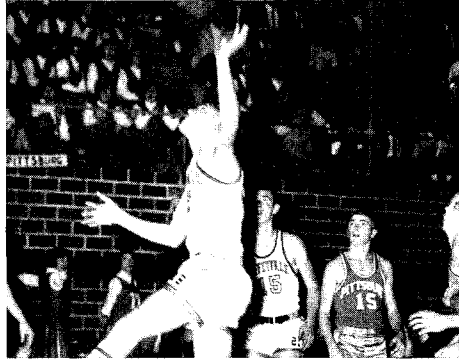

The only loss in league competition for the Tornado was a heart-breaker to Pittsburg, 72-71, but they later avenged this defeat by shel-lacking them 64-56.

Tornado Tankers

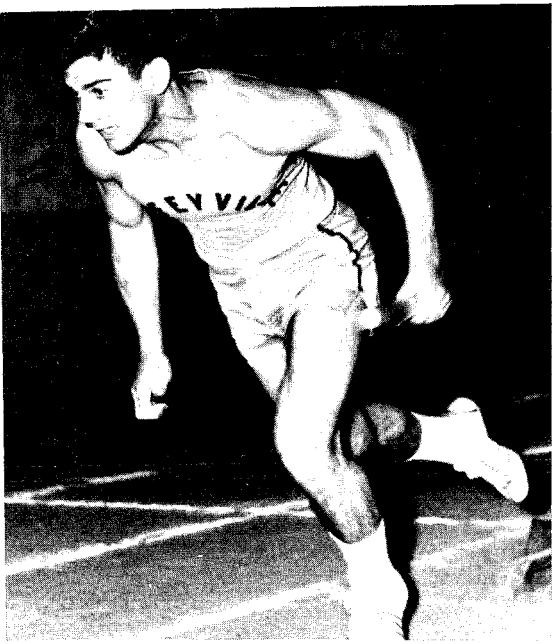

With a record of seven victories and five defeats, the Tornado Tankers finished the 64-65 season. They garnered a second-place finish in the State, trailing only Wichita East.

The squad was lead by the seniors in the sprints and in diving. With several top returning sophomores and juniors, the Tankers are looking forward to next season.

Co-Captains Robert Livingston and Jim Falkner discuss strategy with Coach Poort.

David Neale starts 440 relay at Coffeyville Relays.

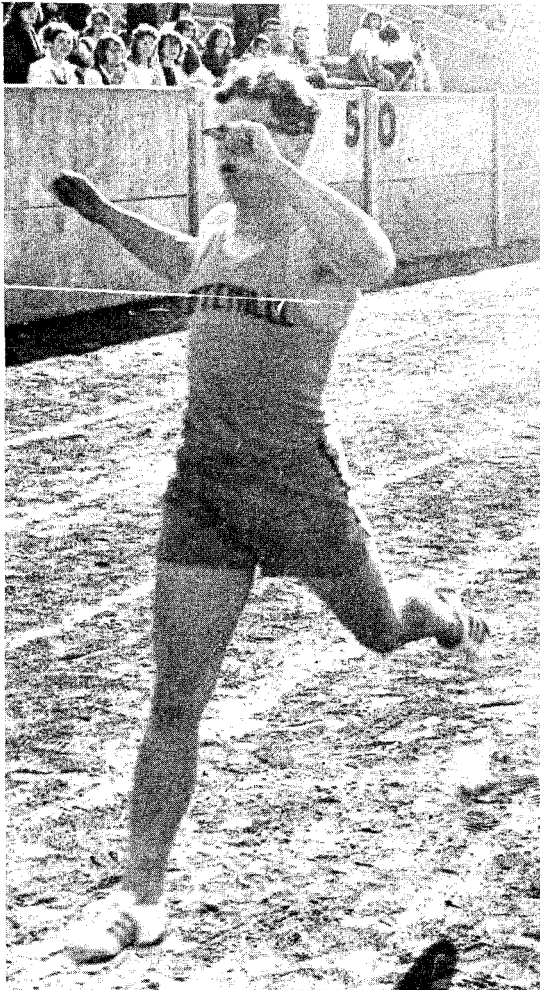

In 1965, the Tornado track team placed second in the Southeast Kansas League: the first championship ever dropped by Coach McWhirt.

From the regional meet five 'Nado runners (sprinter Carey Borum, and the mile-relay team composed of Borum, Melvin Brown, David Neale, and Rick Unsell) advanced to the state meet in Wichita. In the state Borum placed fourth in the 100-yard dash. The 880-relay team which set a school record of 1:31.4 at the regionals was forced to scratch along with the mile relay. Both had high hopes of placing.

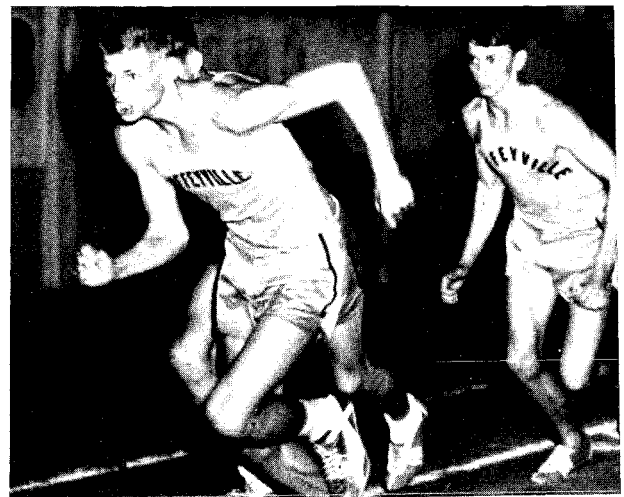

This year's team held promise of a high finish in the league. Besides Borum, Unsell, Neale and Brown, returning lettermen included sprinters Ronnie Pursley, Jack Henderson, Mike Buetow, Larry Seigel, and high jumper Jim Clark. Added to this list was a large number of returning non-lettermen and newcomers.

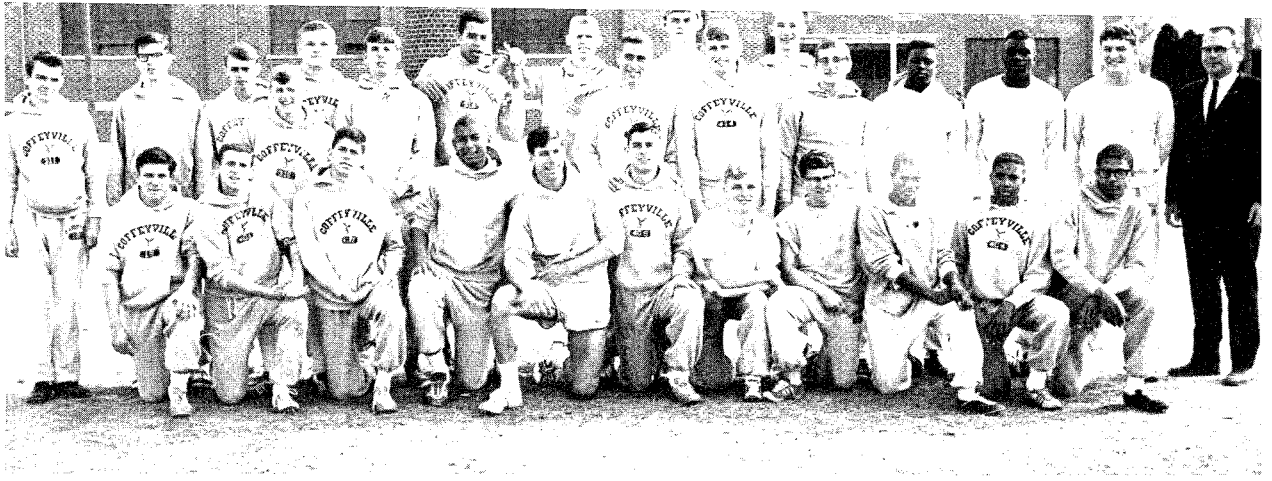

Taken as a whole, a strong nucleus for a promising 1966 squad was foreseen.

Prom

On April 24 the seniors of CHS entered the enchanted world of "La Soiree Royale" or French for "The Royal Party." The theme was carried out with glittering silver chandeliers which accented pink and red chiffon swags caught up with gold leaves. The double-tiered, red-carpeted stairway adorned with red festoons and a grandfather clock set off the theme.

The steering committee consisted of Bill Read, head chairman; Kathy Holmes, invitations; and Carolyn Cook, decorations; along with help from many others. All were under the direction of Miss Avis Johnson, Junior Class sponsor.
