-Alan Alda

There are stages in our lives that are defined by certain quotes, sayings, or proverbs. Some quotes remain in the hearts of the people for several generations.

"I have a dream..."

"One small step for man, one giant leap for mankind."

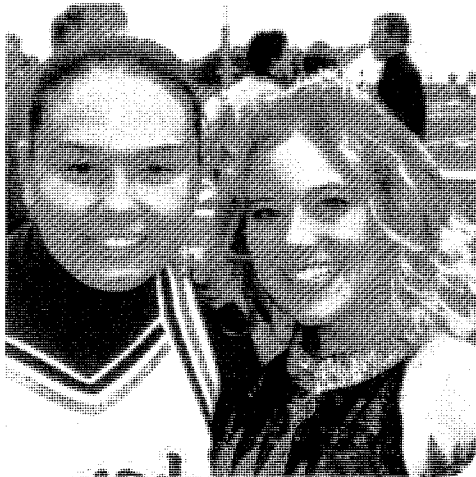

"Not all who wander are lost."

Quotes are a way we can relive history and embrace the future.

They inspire us, amuse us, and touch our hearts.

And you can quote us on that!

- Gretchen and Darci

Cheezzzz!

Taking a moment together from cheering the game on, junior Katie Clough and senior Erin Walterscheid cheese for pictures. "Homecoming was a fun experience for me. It was fun getting all dressed up! Too bad we couldn't have won the game," Walterscheid said.

Just Chillin'

The Student Life section is made up of all the activities that you could possibly think of. This section includes activities such as dances, homework, summer fun, road trips, hanging out with friends, after-school jobs and practices. These are all activities that make up a life of a student. The year was filled with laughter and excitement that they will hold with them for the rest of their lives. In and out of school, one thing is for sure, these students had tons of fun. From pep rallies to football and basketball games, their enthusiasm and attendance was overwhelming. The fun will always be remembered and be looked forward to in the future.

Summin' Up The Summer

Too cool for School

Posing in front of his mom's ride, junior Chris Nowrouzi proves that you don't have to have your own ride to be cool.

An Unforgettable Evening

Homecoming 2003-2004

All Smiles

Fighting the disappointment, candidates Andrea White and Milissa Schmidt are nothing but smiles after the ceremony. "I was kinda upset I didn't win, but I think Taylor really deserved it," Schmidt said.

It is the moment all the senior guys and girls waited for... some of them since they saw their very first Homecoming ceremony as a little kid, sitting in the stands with their parents, trying to see over the heads of the people in front of them. For others, the waiting began their freshman year when they were first able to participate in a Homecoming crowning. And for others, the waiting started the very day their name was announced for one of the ten guys or girls candidacy. No matter when their waiting started, they were all in this together. Ten senior guys and girls, standing in front of a stadium packed with friends, family members, and their peers, freezing in their sleeveless formals on a chilly October night. All waiting to feel the weight of a crown on their heads. It was a night that none of those twenty candidates will ever forget, especially the ones who were crowned as Field Kindley High School's 2003-2004 Homecoming Queen and King. This year it was Taylor Gullick, Queen, and Adam Bowles, King. "I was very excited and honored that the students voted me their Homecoming Queen," Gullick said. "I felt really proud," were the words from the newly crowned king, Adam Bowles.

In Anticipation

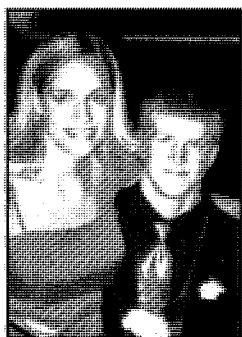

Snapping a quick picture before the ceremony, senior candidates Jessie Hobbs, Chelsey Kriebel, and Darci Eveleigh share a Kodak moment. "I was terrified I was going to trip on my dress in front of all those people," Eveleigh said.

"I really like PPCE because it gives me a chance to play with little kids in their gym classes."

- Taylor Gullick, 12th

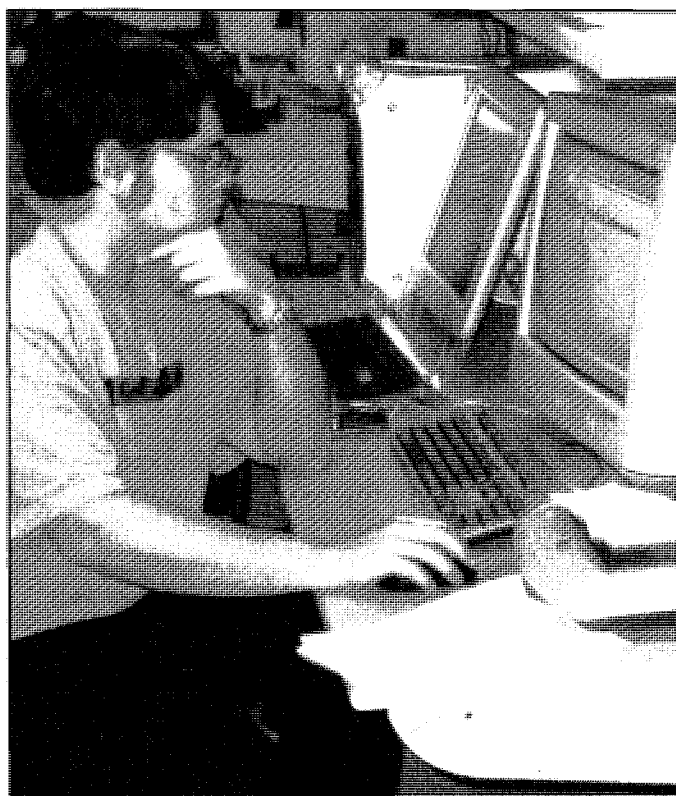

Hold the Mustard

Bringing out an order, senior Robert Strickland serves a customer. "Even though I already work at Sonic, I still like having PPCE there," Strickland said.

Holding a smile

Punch those Keys

Learning how to data process during OJT, senior Jarrod Griswold works on the computer in Larry Murdock's class.

Jump! Jump!

Jumping rope with Mrs Morgan's third grade class, senior Callie Hurlbutt has fun. "I really enjoy playing with the kids at recess," Hurlbutt said.

Bizniz Man...

Filling out a tuxedo receipt, senior Nick Bilby learns how to run a business at Gary's Sport's Awards.

Grading Away!

Showing off her teaching skills, senior Kim Wright grades papers for Mr. Eubanks at Roosevelt Middle School.

P.E.

Physical Education

What do you like best about your physical education class?

“It’s one class where you can go and just relax and work off frustration.”

- Analecia Alvidrez, 12th

“I don’t like too much about the class, because we have to do so many exercises.”

- Justin Watts, 12th

“I like gym when we get to go down and weightlift, because I like the squat the best.”

- Brittany Case, 9th

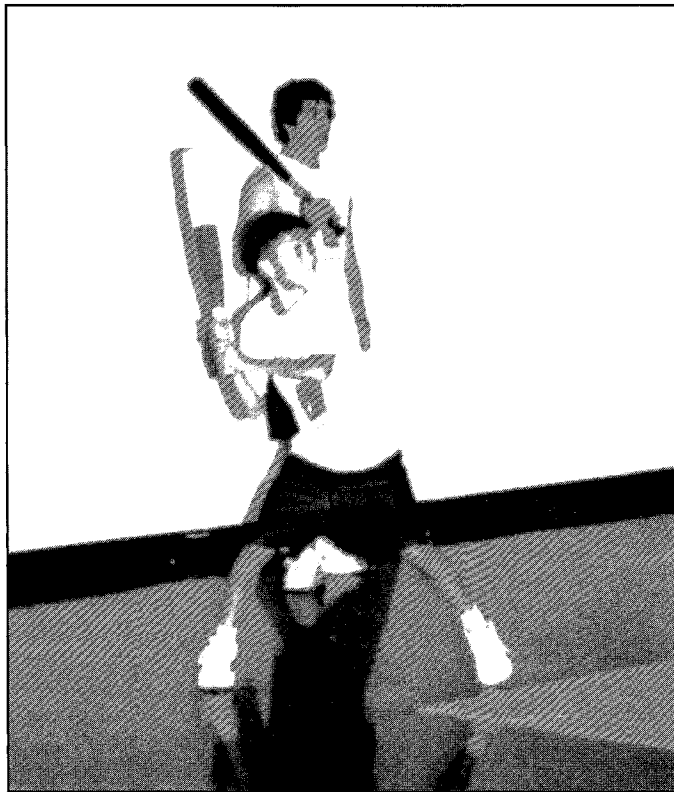

“Gym is good, because we get to play fun games in the class and Mr. Newby is a good teacher.”

- Stephanie King, 12th

Hit a homer

Getting ready to swing, freshman Laz Cardenas watches the ball as it comes toward him.

Throw those weights

Throwing up the power-clean bar, senior Callie Hurlbutt concentrates on getting the bar up.

Make it count

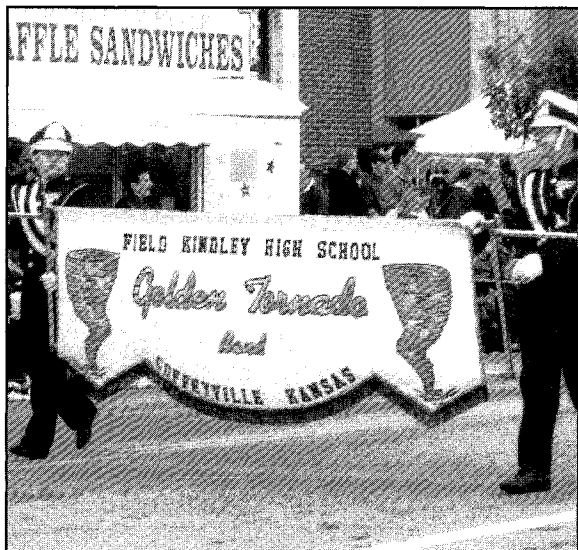

Shooting the ball, freshmen Brian Bastian plays basketball during his gym class.

Hit 'er hard

Waiting for the ball to come, senior Tim Chew watches intently so he can swing at the ball.

Band

Makin' Music

What will you remember most about band this year?

"I was real excited about going to band camp. I'd like to thank Jason for all of his help."

- Zac George, 9th

"I'll remember Stage Band because everyone is cool and we rock the house at the basketball games."

- Jon Hall, 10th

"During my solo at Neewollah and when I dropped my plume and then stepped on it so you knew it was me."

- Caymen Nolin, 11th

"I'll remember doing the chicken dance with Nick and Matt at basketball games."

- Ryan Schlotfelt, 12th

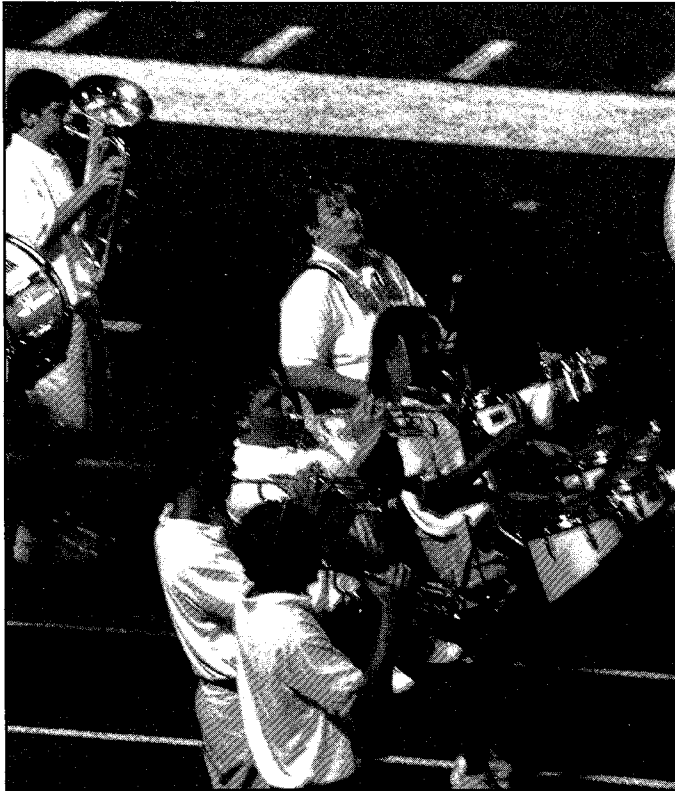

Here they come!

Leading the troops

Marching in the Coffeyville Christmas Parade, senior drum major Mark Eighthmy directs the band while Mrs. O'Shields leads.

Singin' Away

Passing the time at a home football game, senior Shannon Patterson has a performance of her own.

Stick Work

Working his sticks, junior Jason George shows off his skills while playing in the Golden Tornado Stage Band.

Singing the Night Away

Practice makes perfect

Warming up their voices before class, four tenors sing their warmups.

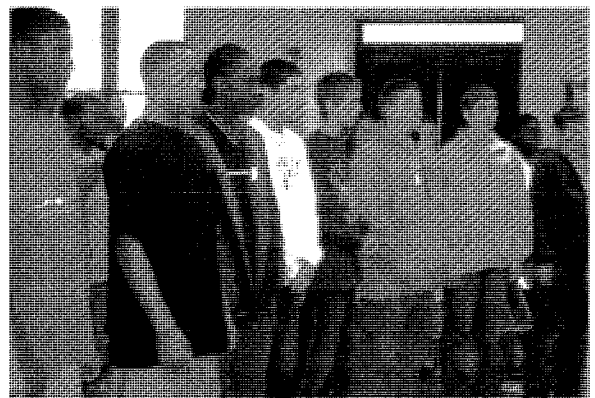

Don't be nervous

Singing in their Christmas program, Field Kindley choir sings their last song of the night. "Choir was a lot of fun, especially the programs," freshman Anna Espe said.

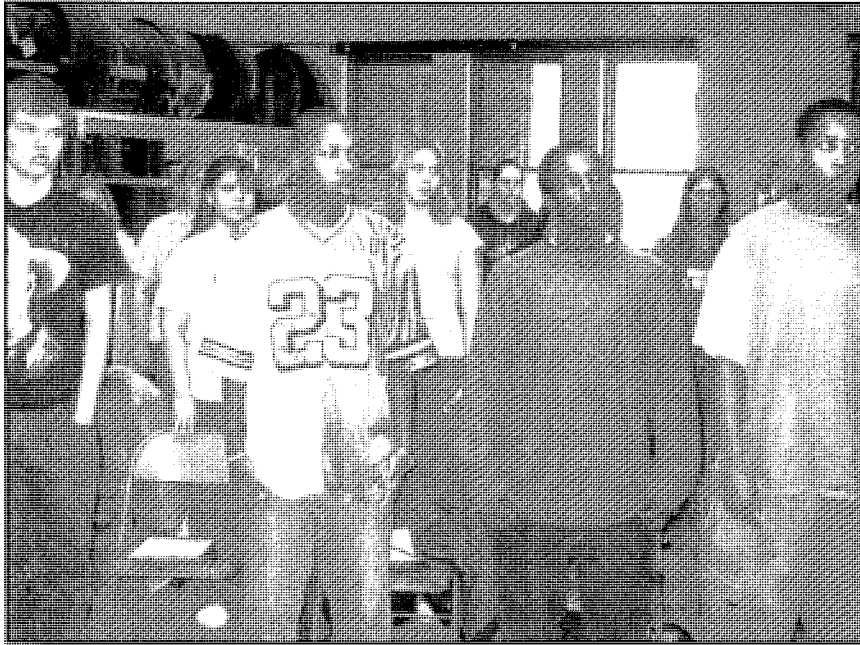

Don't forget the words

Practicing their part, freshmen Kristen Stanley and Morgan Fields and sophomore Cynthia Smith work on learning their part of a new song in Choir class.

Who says boys can't sing?

Waiting for their part, a group of male vocalists keep an eye on their instructor for their cue.

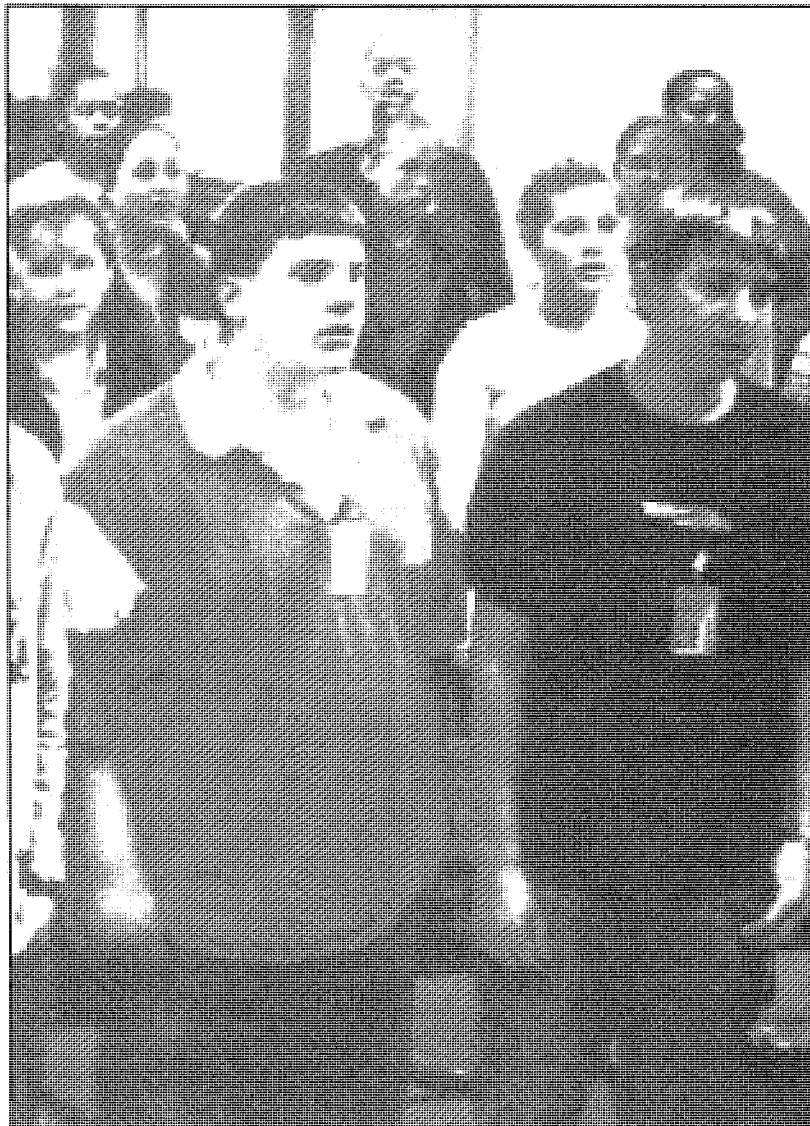

Warming up

Getting ready for a day of songs, Field Kindley choir students do their daily warmups. "Warming up is fun, but sometimes I just want to sing," junior Richard Lawrence said.

Listen up!

Paying close attention, choir members wait for instructions on what to sing next.

Instruction Time!

Making a point, choir instructor Mark Gard discusses the next song piece.

All together!

Perfecting some of their songs, choir members practice for an upcoming concert.

On a High Note...

Soundwave

What do you like about Soundwave?

"I like Soundwave, because I can express myself."

-Ernest Colbert, 12th

"Soundwave is fun for me, because I love music."

-Haylie Walter, 12th

"I like the outfits, because I get to get purty'd up."

-Nathan Morris, 11th

"Soundwave is cool, because we get to dance."

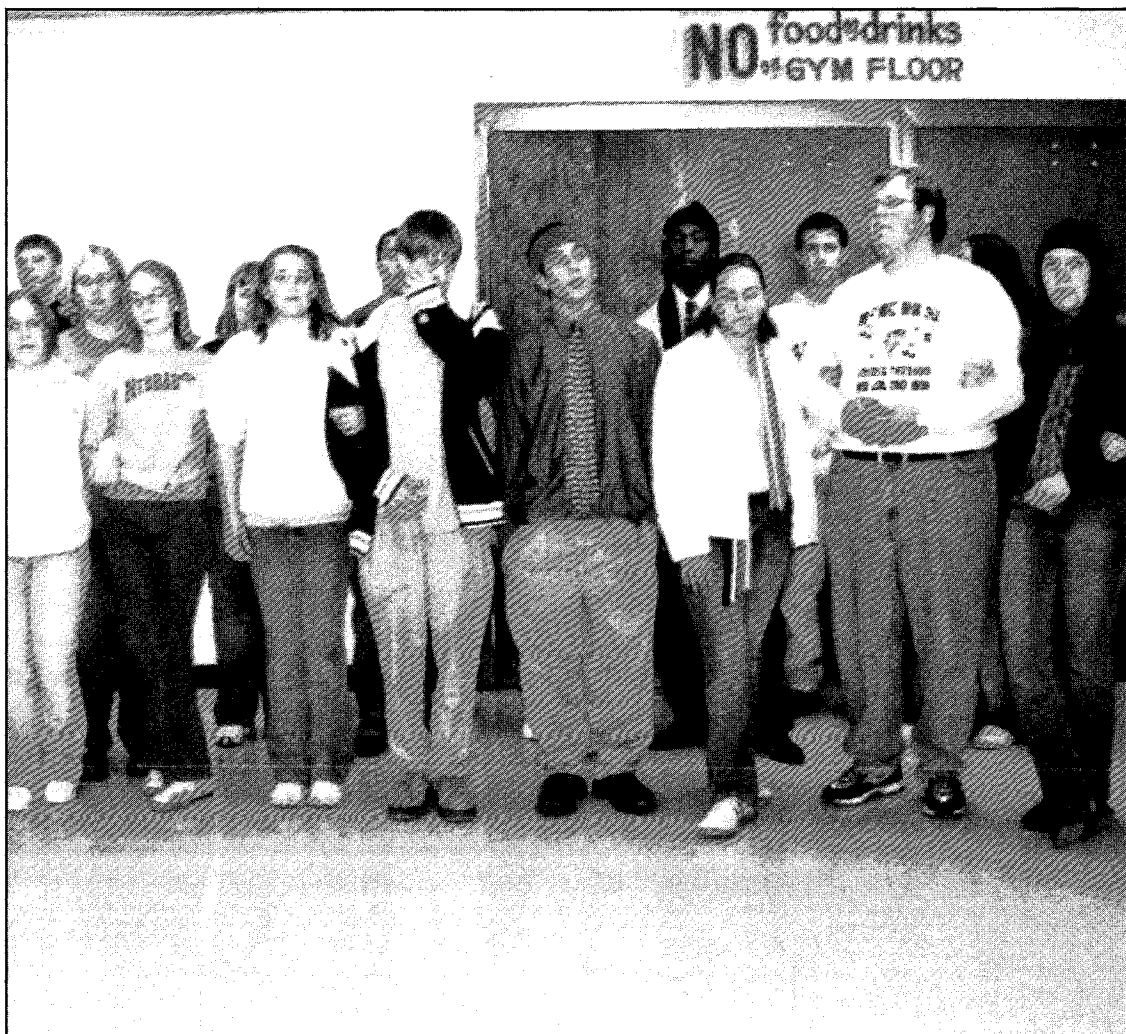

-Katie Clough, 11th

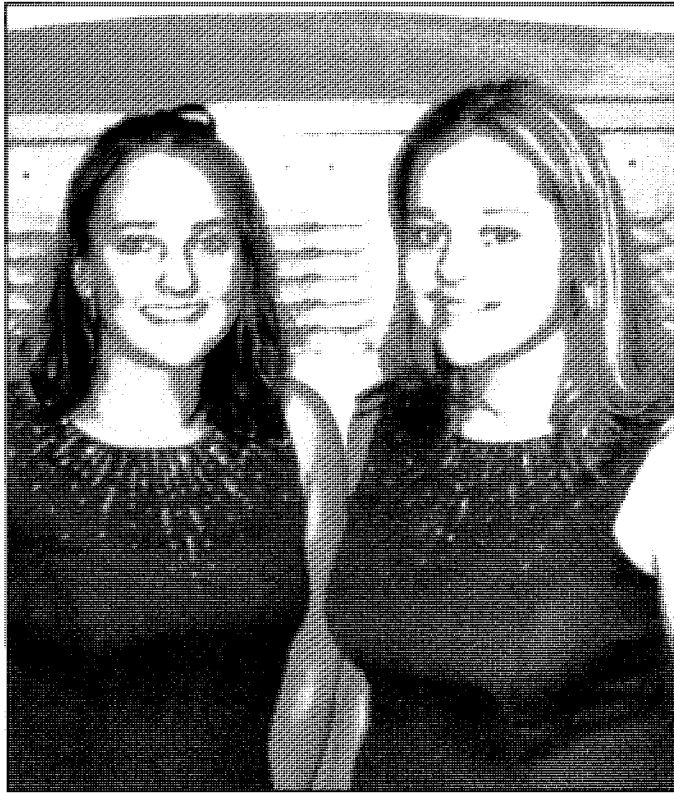

Say Cheese...

Smiling for the camera, senior Ernest Colbert and junior Chris Nowrouzi were happy with their soundwave performance.

Spreading cheer

Singing in the halls, Soundwave spends a class period caroling through the halls.

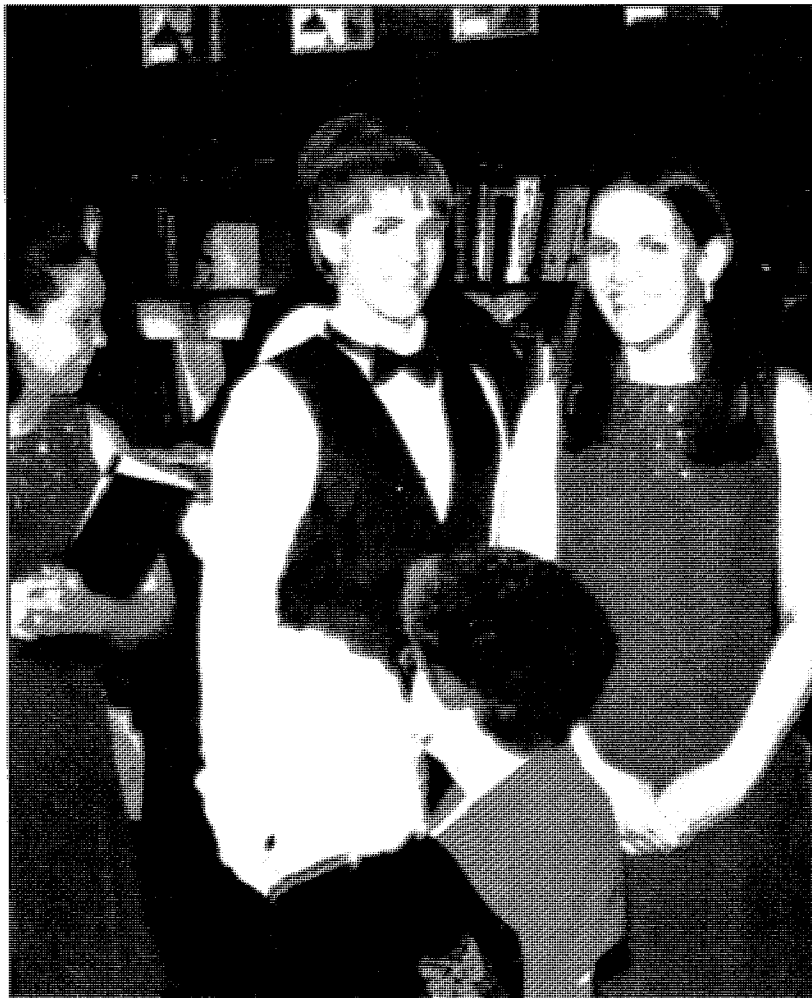

Gettin ready...

Posing for the camera, seniors Mindy White and Chelsey Kriebel get ready for their Soundwave concert.

Solo Time!

Practicing her solo, senior Haylie Walter works on a new piece for contest.

Say hello...

During their performance, Soundwave visits with their audience.

Renaissance

Getting your reward!

What did you like most about the Renaissance rally?

"I liked the crowd participation level when we did the wave, but I didn't like the stupid photo album I got."

- Adam Bowles, 12th

"I liked the ice cream!"

- Kendra Wilson, 10th

"I like being rewarded for my good grades."

- Danny Funk, 12th

"I like getting all the incentives from teachers."

-Kayela DeLaCruz, 11th

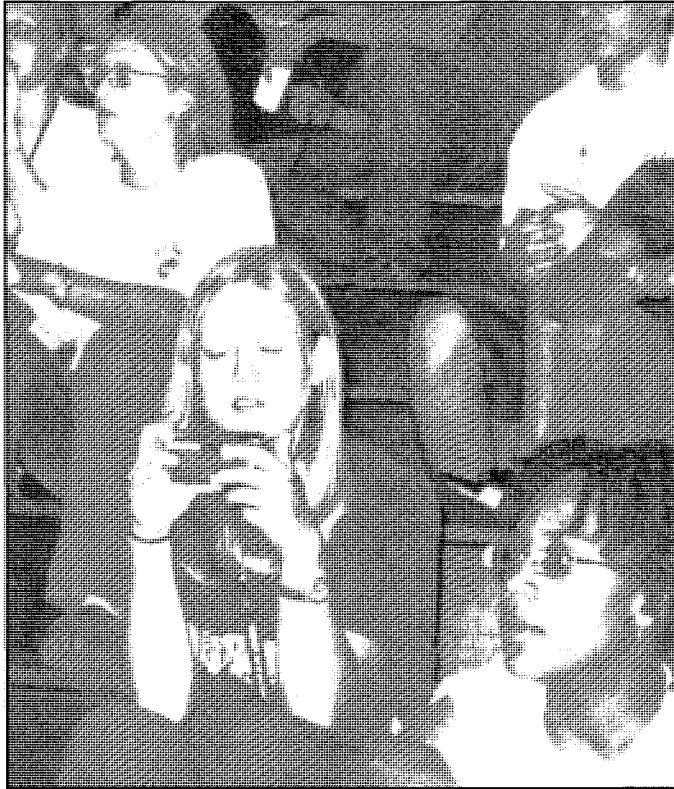

Drinkin' it Up!

Drinking his Coke, senior Ric Brown waits to see if he wins a prize. "I'm mad because I didn't get a prize," Brown said. All photos courtesy of Mindy White.

Do the Wave

Getting excited about the rally, seniors Jeff Stevenson and Preston Hills follow senior Adam Bowles' lead.

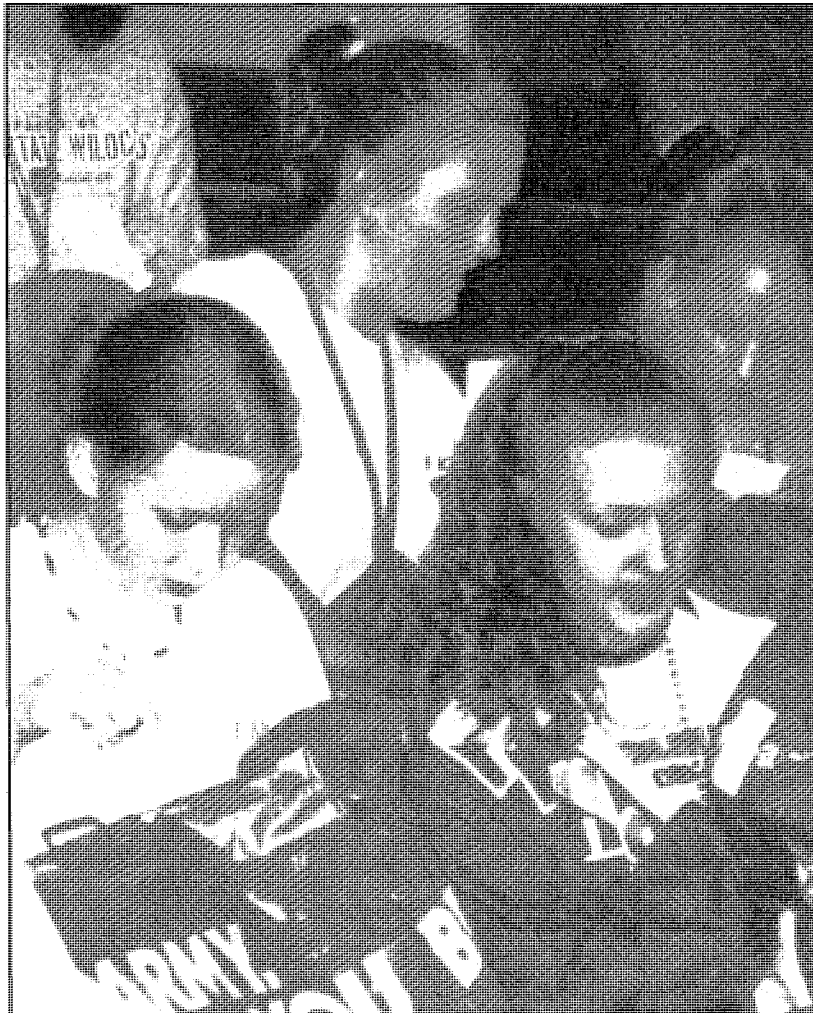

Show Me the Prizes!

Loving her camera, senior Allison Chapman examines her prize. "I was so excited to finally win something," Chapman said.

Chillin'

The Three Amigos

Enjoying the rally, seniors Jeff Stevenson, Andrea White, and Arjun Reddy wait for their names to be called.

Look what I got!

Digging through their bags, sophomores Rachel Purkey and Jessica Briggs find their rewards.

Slam that Gavel!!!

Conducting a VICA meeting, senior President Julie Jones and junior Vice President Jason George talk about the upcoming events taking place in the club. "I enjoy being President because the members are nice and there isn't much stress with the club," Jones said.

Draw my Name

Drawing out a name, freshman Michael Shelton pulls out a lucky winner's name for the half a cow drawing for Club Brit while senior Megan Hatridge holds the box.

Pretty Colors

Concentrating, senior Analecia Alvidrez works on her art folder during Art Club.

Get Close Now!

Riding together in the back seat of the big tour bus, seniors Nikki Hayes and Amber Underwood enjoy the ride to Rogers State University with the HOSA club. "The trip to RSU was pretty fun but only because we got out of school all day," Underwood said.

Gone Clubbin'

Nothing is interesting if you're not interested!!!

-Helen Macinness

At FKHS, there are many activities that a student can do such as: athletics, academics, and a number of extracurricular activities. Something some might not think about as a fun activity to do is clubs. There are a number of clubs one could join and each year more get added to the list. Some of these clubs deal with languages, religion, leadership, community service, animals, health careers, and heritage. Some clubs have certain requirements and others can just be joined whenever wanted. Clubs are an extracurricular activity that takes time out during school and after school. During school, clubs meet on Fridays. Certain ones will meet on purple days and the others will meet on gold days. As one looks around the school, they may notice the many signs hanging up asking people to join their club. So if you see a poster that interests you, then join that club.

FFA

FFA Motto-

Learning to Do, Doing to Learn
Earning to Live, Living to Serve.

The reason to be in FFA-

To practice brotherhood, honor agricultural opportunities and responsibilities, and develop those qualities which an FFA member should possess.

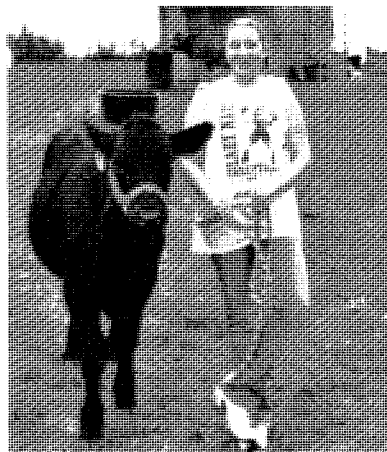

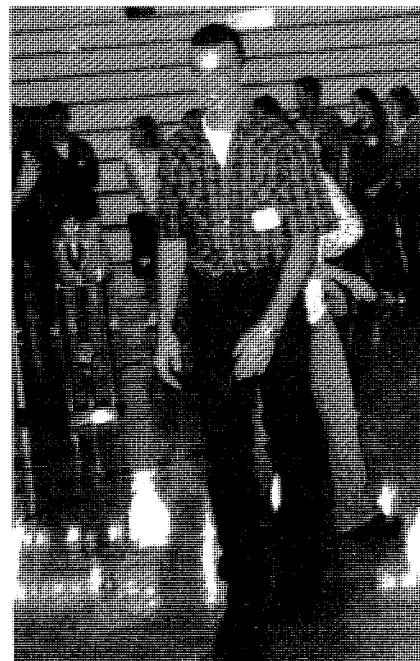

Dance the Night away

Doin' a little two-steppin', junior Kimber Unruh and senior Josh Hill enjoy the ag dance.

Welcome to Kansas City

Chillin' by a moose statue at Cabela's are five ag students who traveled to Kansas City for a showmanship contest.

FFA used to stand for Future Farmers of America but it is now just FFA. The Agriculture program is not trying to make farmers out of anyone anymore, but they are trying to give you the knowledge to pursue whatever career you want. Granted, if these classes are taken they will be more involved with agriculture and welding than anything else.

Eeeeeeww!!! The Advisors

Getting down and dirty at the Ag mud volleyball event are Ag teachers, Mess and Stine. "Mud volleyball is a way to break the ice for the new kids in Ag and I thought the mud would help my hair to grow back," Mess said.

Show that Beautiful Steer

Showing the animal health class her steer, sophomore Tiffney Yeubanks holds her, hoping to be, prize-winning calf. "Showing a steer or heifer is a good experience for anyone in my opinion. I really like it and this is the best calf I've had, out of the last two," Yeubanks said.

I'm glad that's over!!!

Attending a Greenhand conference, sophomore Zach Maritt looks relieved to walk away from that competition.

Student Council

To become a Stuco member you first have to get your name on the ballot. To get on the ballot you have to have a petition signed by 20 students, 4 teachers, the approval of your parents and either Mr. Owen or Mr. Speer.

Once you are on the ballot the students first elect the officers. The officers this year were: President, Chelsey Kriebel, Vice President, Abby Wilson and Secretary, Rebecca Lo. After the officers are elected, the student body chooses 5 people from each class. These people help to represent our school.

The Student Council stays busy as they are responsible for many activities that include the students and faculty during the year. The Student Council sponsors Fall Ball, helps American Red Cross with the blood drive every year, sponsors spirit week and donut breaks, has a teacher appreciation dinner during teacher education week, and a cook-out to celebrate earth day. Thank you, Stuco!

Spirit Week

Showing their school spirit, freshman Rob Burrows and sophomore LeNessa Rodriguez dress up for purple and gold day.

Native American Club

Pow Wows, Wild Onion Dinners and field trips. Those are a few of the activities the Native American Club does throughout the year.

To be eligible for the Native American club, it is narrowed down to just those that can prove that they are of Indian descent with signed papers or an Indian card.

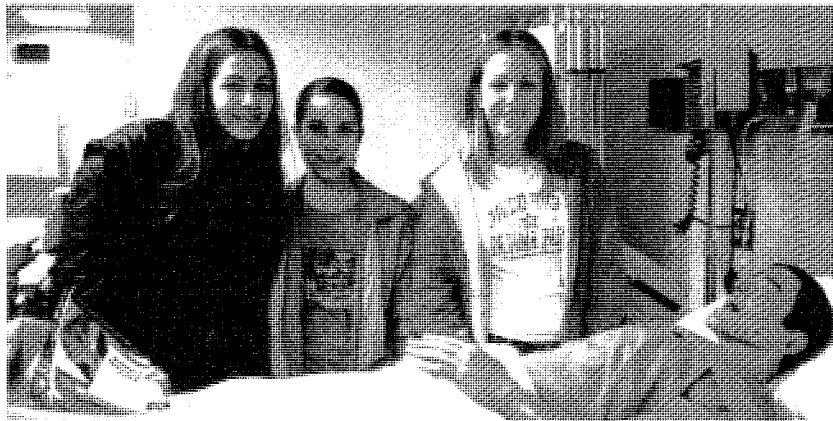

Learning about each of our heritages is fun, exciting and is a life long experience that everyone will remember. This club gets help for preparing for college and finding a job after graduating. The working world of Native Americans is growing and is needing more every day. Being in the Native American Club will help students fulfill their life long dreams.

Look out below!

Climbing out of a pueblo in Santa Fe, junior Michael Parker experiences native life.

Is he for real?

Visiting Rogers State, freshmen Samantha Harris, Kelsi Beard, and Megan Gilfillan learn about the nursing program.

He was a great man!

Taking a moment at Will Rogers Memorial, sophomore Cody Bell, freshman Bryant Haymaker, and juniors Chelsea Gilfillan, and Kerri Davis pose for a memorable picture. "Will Rogers was more than I thought he was," Haymaker said.

This was the life

Standing outside of a pueblo at Bandalie Canyon in Santa Fe, New Mexico, juniors Kim Haymaker and Jenna Powell pose for a picture. "I had a blast during my first time going to a place that had more Native American Heritage than Oklahoma. I know that I would love to go back sometime," Haymaker said.

Free Skate

Keeping their balance, students enjoy the free skating party that Key Club sponsored in February.

hosted a Halloween and Christmas party for the kids. Members of Key Club can also go any day, after school, and help with activities.

Although Key Club's main emphasis this year is the Boys and Girls Club, they are also involved in Relay for Life, community service with the Kiwanis Club, and TATU.

TATU stands for Teens Against Tobacco Usage. Key Club is highly involved in TATU by giving presentations at school and community events. TATU also received another grant this year and hopes to make a smoke-free campus policy in the near future.

Get'er done...

Enjoying his sweets, senior Kyle Thurman competes in a pie-eating contest at the Relay-For-Life.

Rock on!!

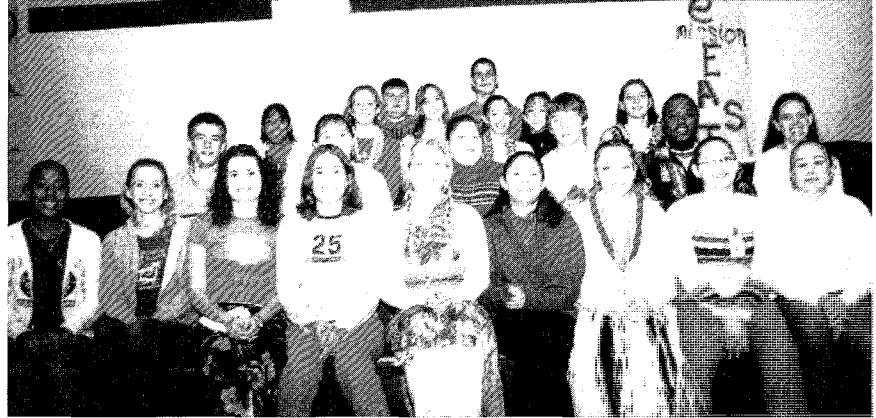

Rocking on, members of Key Club have fun at Drown Out 2003 at Topeka.

Drama Club

Being involved in clubs at Field Kindley gives students an excellent opportunity to be active in the many diverse groups the school has to offer. Drama club gives the student body a chance to express their more imaginative side. Including everything from plays to musicals to individuals who just love to act, Drama club is a great opportunity to do it all. These students are passionate about what they do and that is what counts!

“I love being involved with drama because it gives me a chance to express myself, plus I get a chance to sing,” senior Haylie Walter said.

This year the Drama club participated in many events, including the convention they attended in January, giving the club members a chance to really get out and enjoy themselves.

Walk this way

Walking along, juniors Taryn Hargis, Ann Conrad, and Crystal Steen are caught off guard.

Surprise!

Looking aggravated, junior Crystal Steen turns around for a close-up picture.

Lets Party!

Enjoying themselves, juniors Taryn Hargis, Ann Conrad, and senior Rithu Chillal, have a good time during their drama convention in January.

Have a Heart

Soaked with sweat, junior Nathan Morris plays his heart out during the game against Pittsburg. "We played our best through the fourth quarter, even though I fouled out at the start of the fourth," Morris said.

Never Stopping

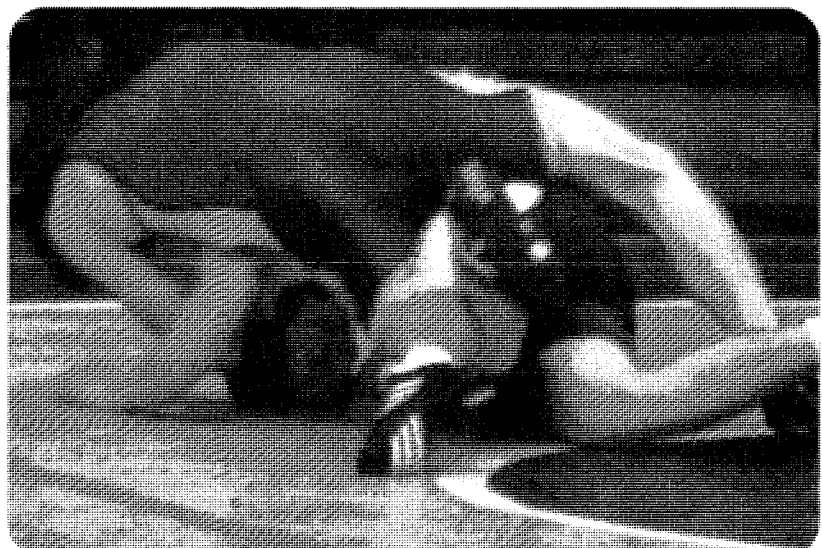

Pouring it on, sophomores Ruth York, Nicole Santorella and freshmen Kristie Stanley, Kayloni Sandon, and Kerry Lee never stop running when representing Field Kindley.

Jump King

Surrounded by players from the other team, junior Ronald Davis leaps up to make the perfect catch for the team.

The Winner Is?

Determined to get a win, senior Brandon Tracy wrestles his heart out in the match.

"Time to Represent"

"Golf requires talent and self-discipline."

-Chubbs

"Golf requires goofy pants and a fat butt."

-Happy Gilmore

There's a wide variety of sports here at Field Kindley. From swimming to football it seems like there's one for everybody. This year was good for sports at FKHS. Football made it farther than it had in years, wrestling won tournaments right and left, basketball did great, and soccer went to regionals. To top all of this off, we had a great crowd. It seemed like everywhere we went, or whoever came here, we always had more fans. Like Denzel Washington said in Remember the Titans, "We will not be defeated!"

Back in Time

Showing their spirit at dance camp, juniors Andrea Ferguson, Maria Barnes, Alex Davis, and Kathryn Lynn dress up in their best 80's outfits on spirit day. "Spirit day was something fun and different than the every other day routine at camp," Davis said.

She's got the Beat

Concentrating on the routine, freshman Darcy Hurlbutt stays on count and hits every move at the Interstate performance.

Smooth Move

Showing off her moves, junior Brittany McCullough keeps a smile the whole performance.

Dance Team

A Lasting Impression
Coming together at the end of their big performance, the girls are relieved that Interstate is finally over.

Showing her Moves
Working hard, sophomore Nicole Schneider doesn't miss a beat.

Gettin' down
Sliding across the floor, senior captain Hannah Stallsmith shows the rest of the team how it's done. "I'm really going to miss dancing next year," Stallsmith said.

Workin' it
Shaking what her momma gave her, junior Kathryn Lynn enjoys performing for the crowd.

Coming together
Taking a break at camp, the Golden Gales dance team gets together for a quick picture.

Practice Makes Perfect

Practicing their routine at cheer camp, these Varsity and JV cheerleaders are doing some perfecting. "This year was fun because we all got along, and we learned a lot of new cheers," senior Tiffany Hudnall said.

Ready okay!

Starting a cheer, senior Mindy White gets the cheerleaders started at the Labette football game. "It was cold, but I still have fun cheering at the games," White said.

Over here!

Posing for the camera, senior Mindy White and sophomore Scottie McVey enjoy some down time at cheer camp.

Cheerleading

Gettin' Involved

Helping the City Rec, senior Callie Hurlbutt taught these girls cheers for the City Rec football games. "I had fun coaching the kids," Hurlbutt said.

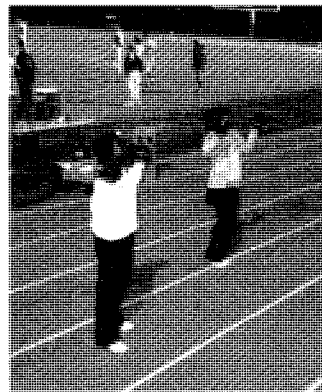

Squeeeeeeze!!!

Carrying on their tradition of squeezing into a cubby-hole, these cheerleaders enjoy some good laughs. "This is where we spent all of our spare time," junior Katie Clough said.

Lets go Nado!

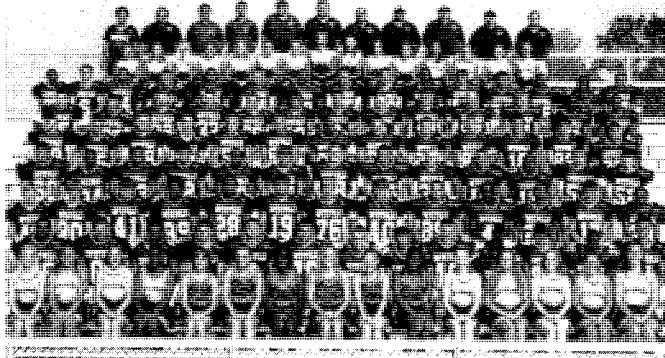

Getting hyped during a timeout, seniors Whitney Davis and Tiffany Hudnall pump up the crowd. "I really enjoyed cheering this year, and I feel as though we did a great job getting the crowd into the games," Davis said.

Sisterly Love

Showing those pearly whites are sisters, senior Erin and freshman Megan Walterscheid at cheer camp.

Ready to Rumble

Lining up, Nado offense gets ready for the snap against their rivals, the Labette County Grizzlies.

Heads or Tails

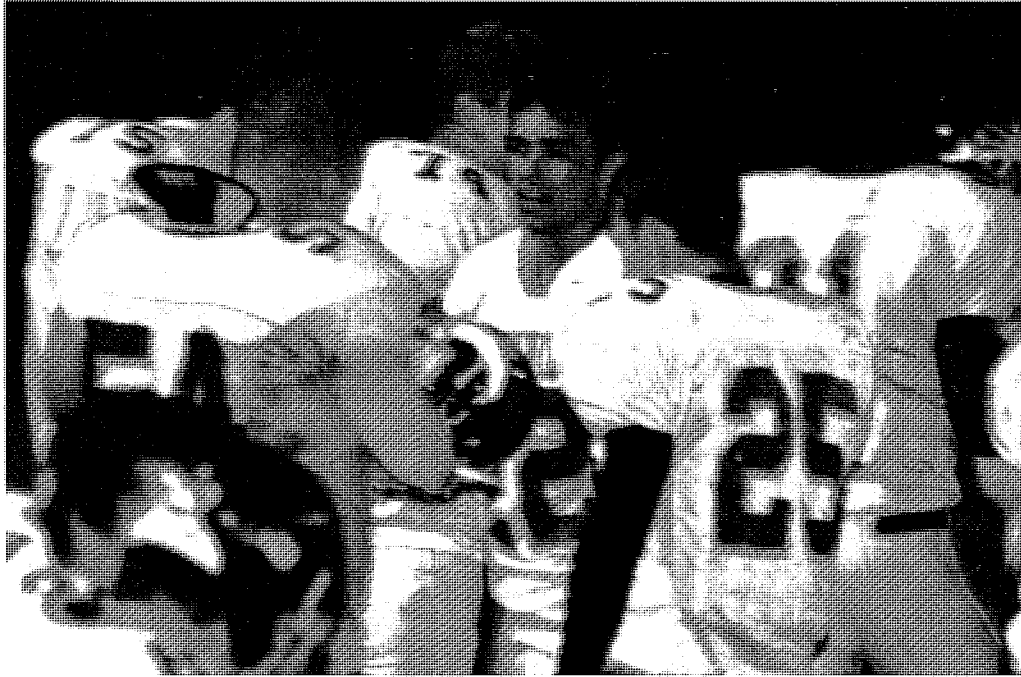

Meeting with rivals, senior Preston Hills, Tory Vester, Mark Bowman, and Robby Hull shake hands to show sportsmanship before the game. "Labette was suppose to be a tough game but we really came out and proved critics wrong," Hills said.

Hit em' hard

Stopping the ball, senior Josh Mills makes the tackle. "We prepared hard that week against L.C. to ensure a spot in Districts," Mills said.

Football

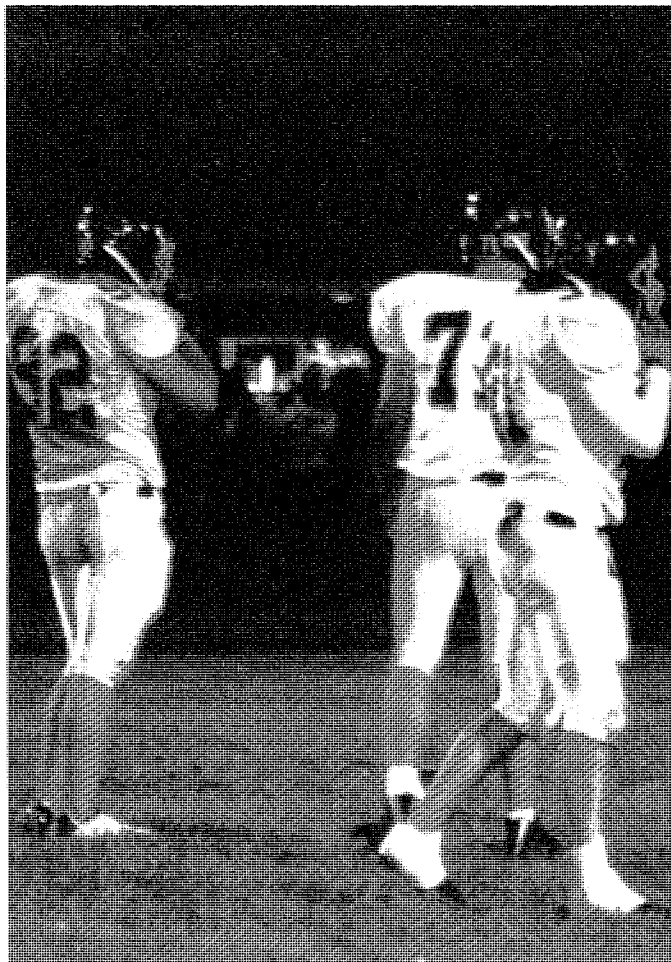

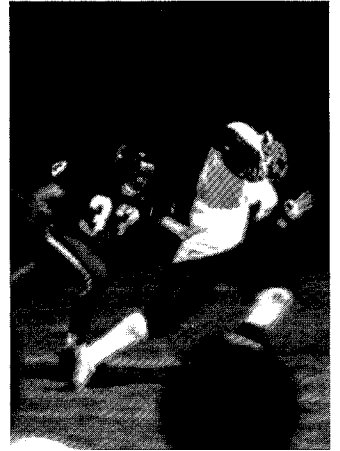

Taking a Moment

Congratulating each other after a job well done, Nado offense takes a break from the game. "Everyone worked hard and we played a great game," junior Jaryd McCullough said.

Gaining Yards

Running with the ball, senior Ernest Colbert dodges the Indy defense.

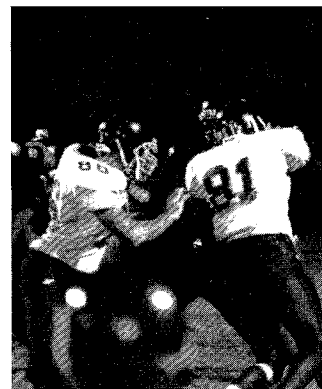

Senior Spirit

Supporting the team, "the 04 tailgaters" step away from the grill to show their pride. "The games wouldn't be the same without the tailgate parties," senior Wade Bryant said.

Making Room

Holding the defense, senior Mike Schmidt and junior Ronald Davis block for teammates. "Besides receiving, hitting is my favorite thing in football," Davis said.

Taking the Field

Preparing to play, seniors Brad Ferguson, Eric Vail, and junior Will Finley look to stop the ball.

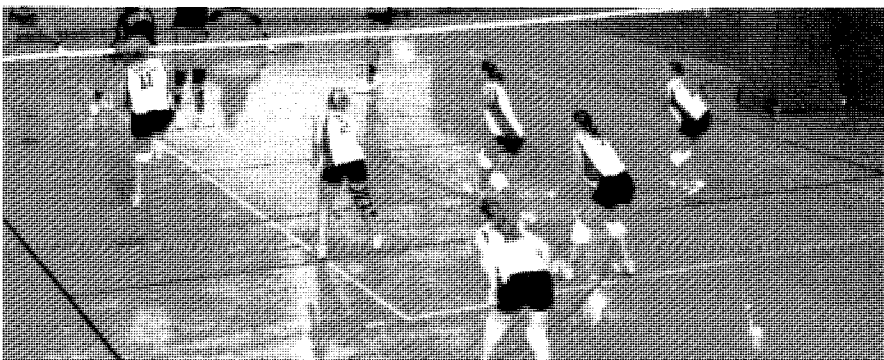

Front row: Janel Logan, Lindsay Morse, Sarah Brown, Emily Relph, Michal Coffman.

We're ready

Getting ready for the return, the varsity volleyball team gets down after junior Sarah Brown makes a kill.

Listen up!

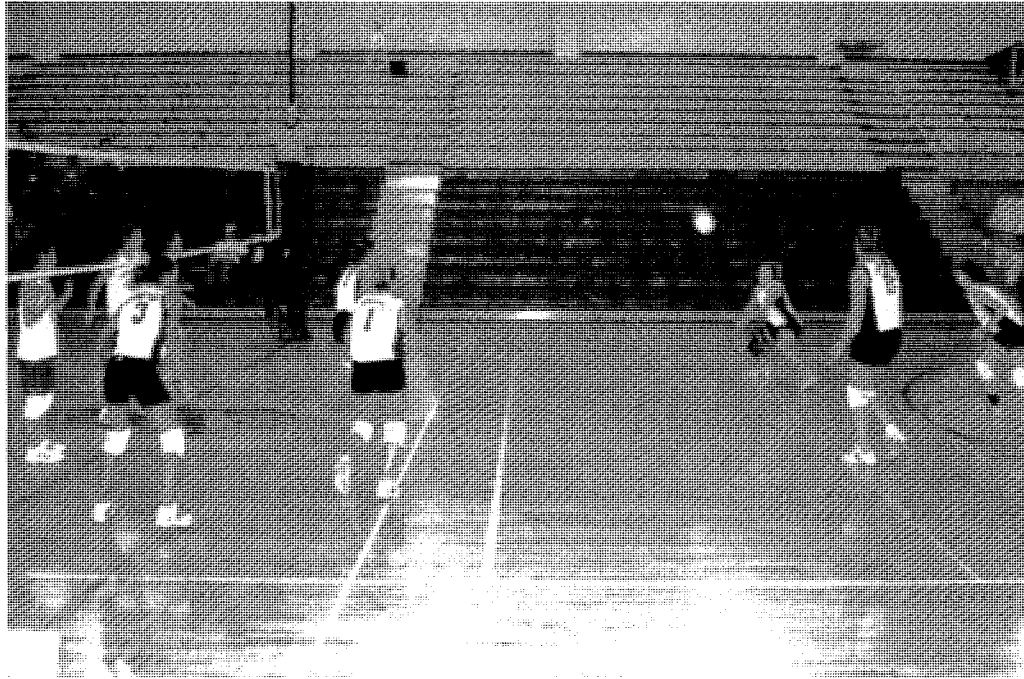

Giving advice to fellow varsity teammates, junior Sarah Brown tries to prepare the team to rally. "I think it's really important helping my teammates when I can. That's what makes us a good team," Brown said.

Get fired up!

Preparing for a match, the junior varsity team huddles. "It's very important to get fired up as a team," junior Shanna Ward said.

Volleyball

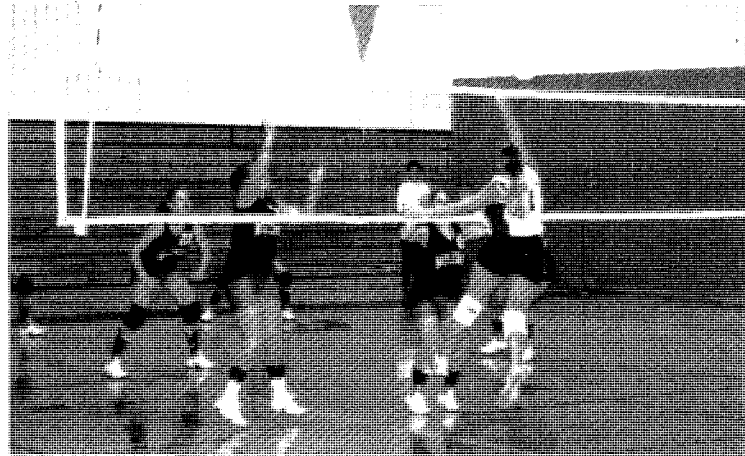

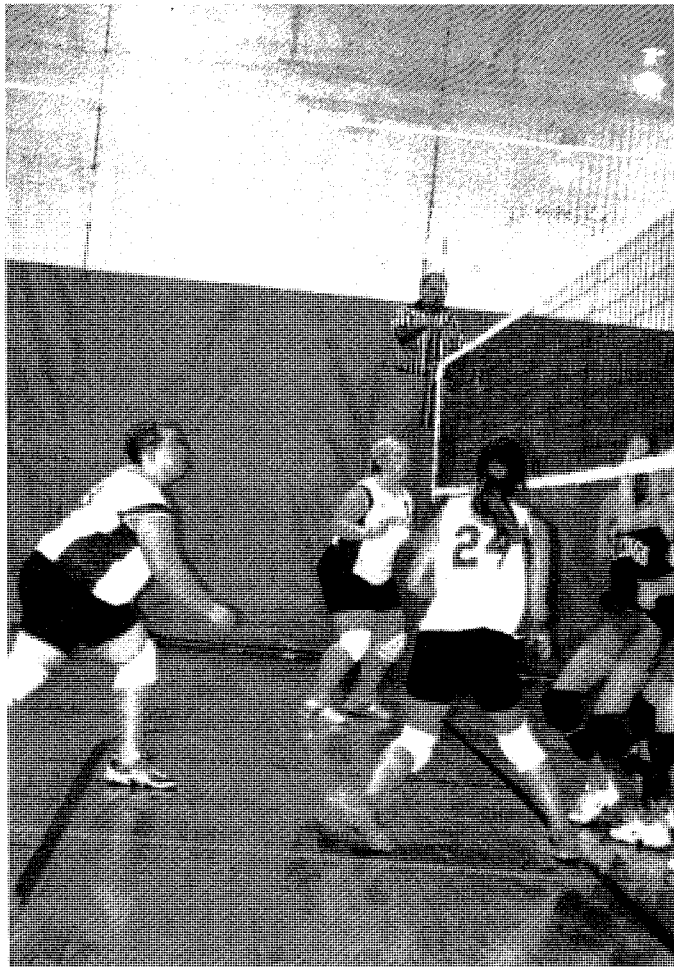

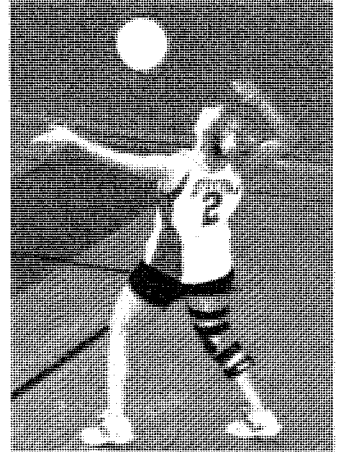

Get low

Waiting for the ball to come her way, junior Trista Espe gets ready to serve.

Don't miss!

Serving the ball, junior Trista Espe goes for the point. "I'm really focused while I'm serving," Espe said.

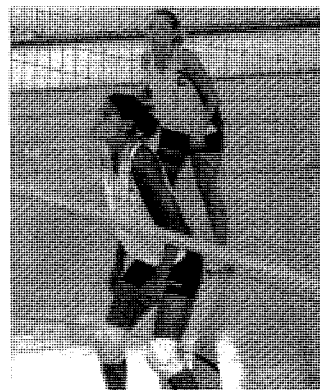

Get'er done

Proving that little people can jump, senior Michal Coffman makes the kill. "I love spiking, it's my favorite part of volleyball," Coffman said.

Game Time

Focusing on the other team, juniors Trista Espe and Emily Relph prepare themselves for the return. "It's really important to always keep your eye on the ball. You never know where it's going to fall," Relph said.

Here it comes!

Time-out

Listening to coach Scott Neighbors, senior Taylor Gullick, junior Emily Relph, and senior Callie Hurlbutt work on the teams next play. "Basketball really didn't go as I planned this year, but it was an okay way to finish my high school basketball career," Gullick said.

Total concentration....

With her eyes glued on the basket, senior Callie Hurlbutt pushes her way to the goal. "Playing down low gets hard, but I love being able to push people around," Hurlbutt said.

Straight up

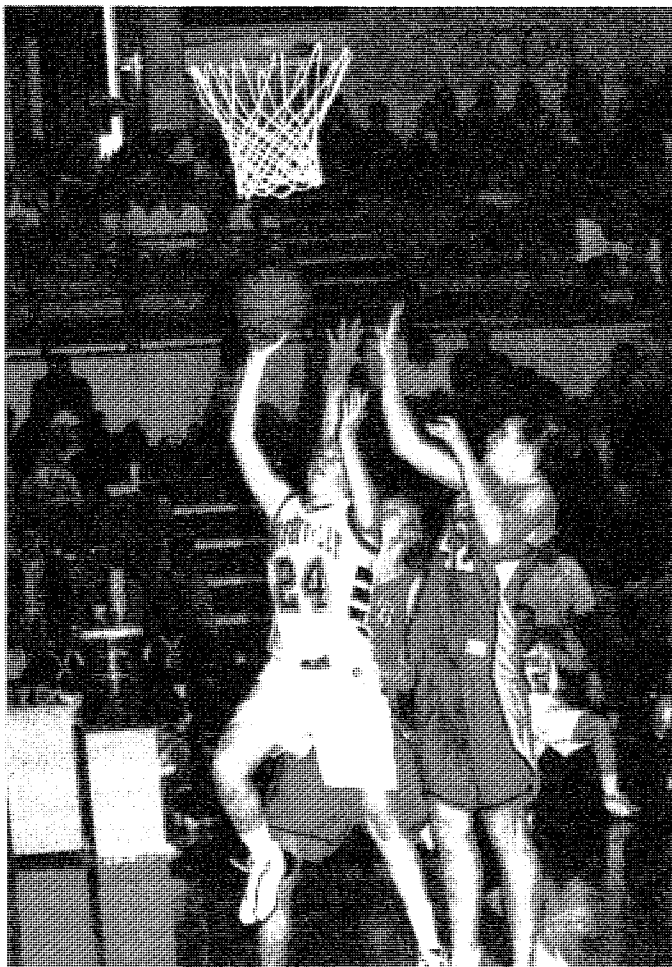

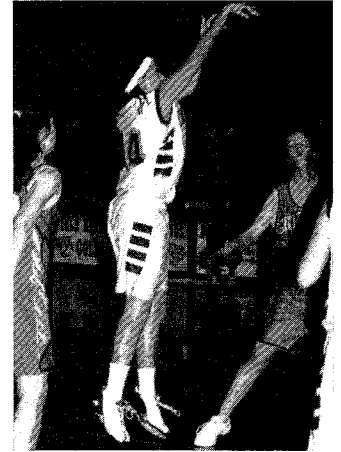

Carefully watching the offense, junior Lindsay Morse and sophomore Shanna Ward guard to block a point

Surrounded by defenders, junior Lindsay Morse looks toward the goal.

In the spotlight
Capturing the attention of the Nado crowd, senior Taylor Gullick soars up for the shot.

Stepping it up
In an effort to score, senior Michal Coffman attempts to storm through the defense. "Labette is always the most exciting team we see throughout the season, but I think we played alright," Coffman said.

Take your time...
While taking a breather, senior Andrea White shoots on the free throw line to gain a few points. "I always do pretty good on my free throws, because we take so much time at practice to perfect them," White said.

Laying it up
Skillfully shooting the ball, junior Abby Wilson is not intimidated by the Labette defense.

Touchdown!

Hanging at a football game, juniors Trista Espe, Emily Relph, and Whitney Neighbors, senior Darci Eveleigh and sophomore Shanna Ward wait for the Field Kindley Tornados to score.

"A picture is worth a thousand words."

Have you ever heard the saying "Don't judge a book by its cover"? Whatever you do, go by that saying. A person may dress in the worst clothes you have ever seen, but that does not mean that they are the person behind the clothes. People should never base others by what group they stand behind or what religion they are. You should always get to know a person. If a person looks like they would be a great person, try to get along with them.

A person's face can also discourage you from wanting to start a conversation with them. Do not let a person's frown discourage you. If a person does not like you for who you are, they do not like you at all. If they try to change you, they are not a true friend. Friends stick beside you no matter what. If a person stays with you through all of the bad times, they did not judge you by your picture. They judged you after they got to know you.

Seniors Back in the Day

Where do I look

With looks of bewilderment, these 8th graders search for a camera to pose for at the Holy Name lock-in.

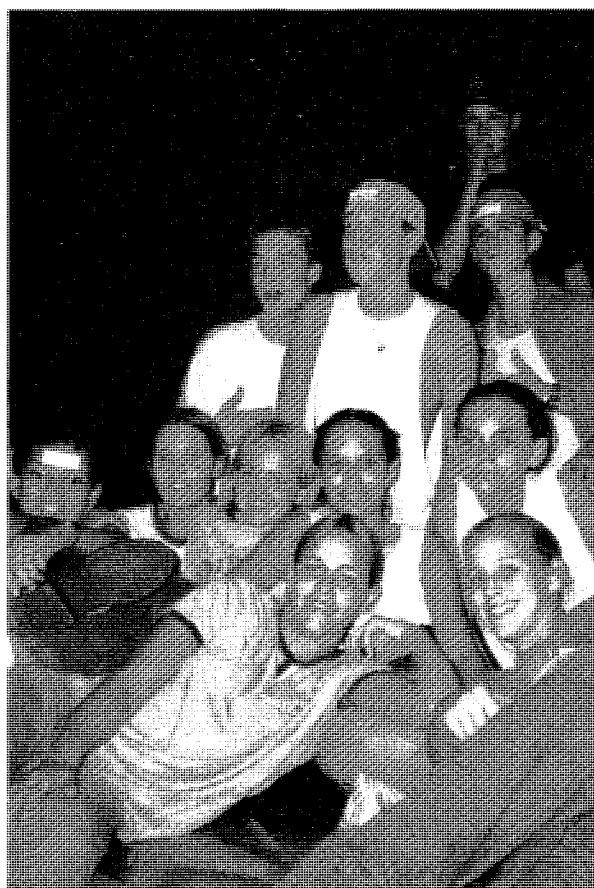

Field of dreams

Surrounded by nature, these Edgewood 4th graders enjoy a field day at the Dearing Trails.

The wonder years

Hanging out in 7th grade, Kyle Thurman, Seth Aitken, Adam Bowles, and Kurt Sjolander had us wondering and they still do.

Chillin' chillin'

While on Christmas Break, December of 99', Taylor Gullick, Ernest Colbert, and Andrew Eli enjoy some quality time.

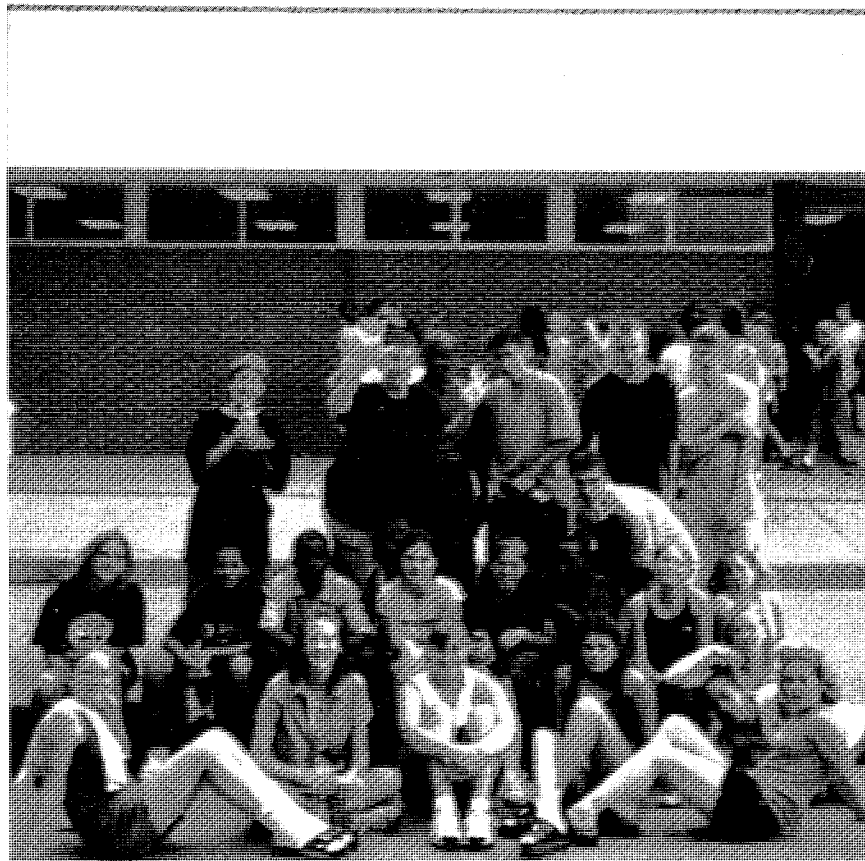

Girls just wanna have fun

In honor of Milissa Schmidt's 7th birthday, she and the girls enjoy some birthday cake.

Say cheese

While taking a breather after performing with the FKHS Dance Team, these 8th grade cheerleaders pose for the camera.

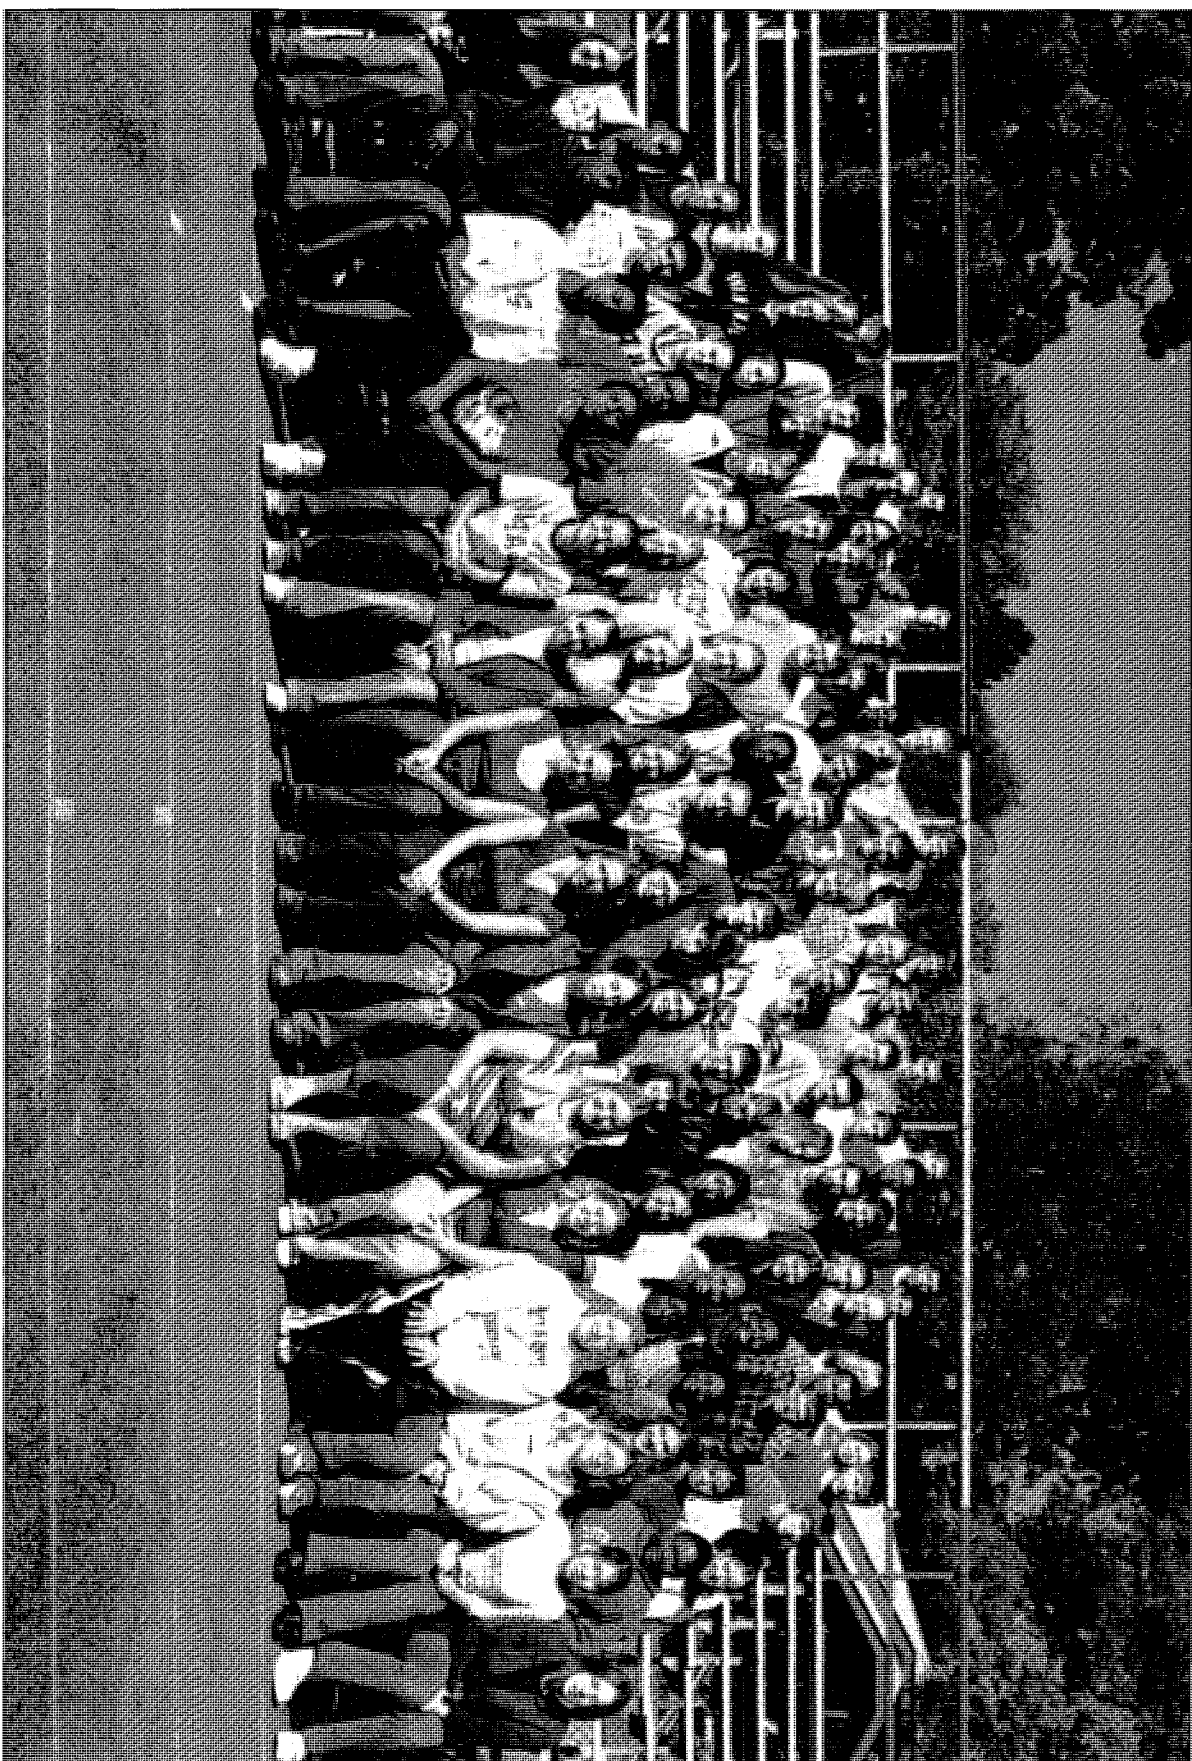

No pictures please

Hiding from the camera at the 8th grade skate party, Whitney Davis, Andrea Colbert, Gretchen Trisler, Sara Woods, and Stephanie Edwards play it cool.

Schools out for the summer

Celebrating the end of school, this group of 8th graders get together to take a picture.

Kerby and Misty

Elizabeth Bernhart

Lizzie,
We will always think of you as Psalms 127:3 says,
"Children are a gift from the Lord; they are a real blessing."
Good luck in all you do.
Love,
Dad, Mom, and Michelle

Julie Jones

Scooby,
*We are so glad God gave you to us.
We love you all the way back to New York.
We are so proud of your wise choices.*

MICHAL
We LOVE You!

*1 Corinthians 13:4-7
Love is patient and kind. Love is not jealous or boastful or proud or rude.
Love does not demand its own way.
Love is not irritable, and it keeps no record of when it has been wronged. It is never glad about injustice, but rejoices whenever the truth wins out. Loves never gives up, never loses faith, is always hopeful and endures through every circumstance.*

“We all must try to be the best person we can: by making the best choices, by making the most of the talents we’ve been given.”

Mary Lou Retton, Gymnast, Olympic Gold Medalist

We Love You,
Dad, Mother and Matt

Joshua Hill

If I could pick any boy in the whole world for my son I would still pick you. You mean the world to me.

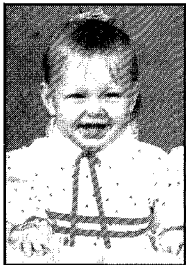

Love, Dad

Brandi Songer

Brandi,

The day you were born was one of the happiest days of my life. I had so many hopes and dreams for you. My biggest dream was your graduation day!! And you’ve made it, you will never know how proud I am of you!! You’ve went from being my baby to being a grown lady with hopes and dreams of her own. The future is all yours. And I know you, whatever you want, you will accomplish.

Love, Mom, Pa, and Family

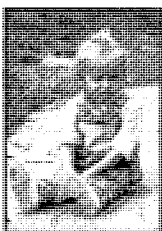

Sean Coen

Sean: You were our first child and we didn’t know a thing about being parents. BUT, you survived in spite of us! Look at you now! We couldn’t be more proud! Congratulations on your graduation.

We love you,
Mom and Dad

Cassie Gerler

“You’ve always done it your way.”

We’re proud of you.

Love,

Mom, Kenny,

Josey and Alyssa

Jennie Unruh

Jennie Elizabeth,

*We are so proud of you!!
Remember dreams can come true!!
We Love You!!

In the sparkle of your eyes is the light of life.

*May your future be filled with happiness and success.
Our congratulations to you on your graduation.*

*Love,
Your Family*

Jessica Sanders

Jessica,
We are so
proud of you!
Mom and Jarred

Ric Brown

Congratulations!

We are so very proud of
you. God blessed us all when you became a part of our lives.

We Love You,
Mom, Dad, Julie, Jennette,

"You can Quote me on That!"

Details:

The 67th volume of Field Kindley High School's Twister yearbook was printed by Walsworth Publishing Company. The theme "You can Quote me on That" was chosen by the Twister staff. The cover was designed by the Twister staff along with Walsworth representatives. Body caption and headlines varied by sections, while all captions were eight point AWPC Times and caption titles were ten point AWPC Times Bold. The 2003-2004 Twister was designed in the FKHS journalism room using Adobe Pagemaker 7.0. Photographs were taken by the Twister staff. Team photographs were taken by Elite Photo, Darla Long, and Larry Murdock. Mug shots were provided by Lifetouch. Each Twister yearbook was sold for $35. The cost of the book was paid for by book sales and advertising.
