

CCD Stats

A compilation of facts and figures from the second half of the 2023-2024 school year. From academic, art, and athletic achievements to personal growth and development, our community had a banner year.

81

students across all three divisions performed, worked the technical side, or ran the front of house for the school's production of Seussical the Musical

67

dishes from around the world served during Multicultural Night

51

gallons of sap collected from the maple trees on our campus

$104,007

raised by 32 Upper School students for the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society

17,772

pounds of food composted by SAGE Dining Services

$6.1M

in scholarships and grants awarded to the 58 members of the Class of 2024

1,148

feet dug by Upper School students during their service trip to the Dominican Republic to build an aqueduct for water access to homes that previously did not have direct access to water

11

local and national news outlets ran a story about the school's new cell phone policy

2,306

pieces of student-created items sold by Lower School students in the Country Market during CCDX Week

162

personal notes given out by the 7th grade boys in Project LEAD to their peers, recognizing their positive qualities and leadership abilities

145

games of musical chairs played during Curriculum Night in the Lower School

25

Upper School reading buddies visited pre-primary classrooms

56

second and third graders used Tinkercad in the Makerspace to design their own 3D prints

53

Lower School students worked with Upper School students in our Students Helping Students program

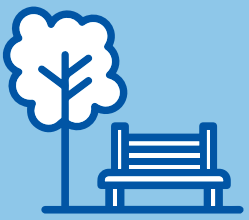

56

organizations benefitted from our students' service-learning initiatives

51

field trips taken by all 3 divisions on the Country Day yellow buses

$1,650

raised by Lower School students during CCDX Week to support our Environmental Council and campus walking trails

534

spirit wear items sold online

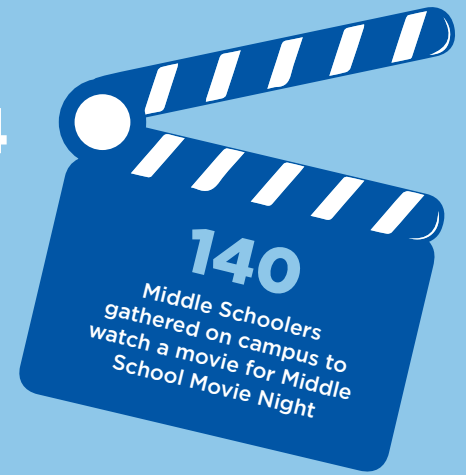

23,454

cartons of milk saved by using bulk milk in the Dining Terrace

1

patent-pending device created by the InvenTeam

1,255

voice messages of appreciation distributed to faculty and staff during Faculty & Staff Appreciation Week

28

tents pitched in Pattison Courtyard for the third graders' campout on campus

259

college acceptances to 122 different universities received by our 58 seniors

649

solar eclipse glasses returned for reuse in Latin America for an eclipse later this year

138

pre-primary students participated in Bring Your Bike to School Day

90

minutes of self-defense training for 7th-grade girls in the Ruling Our eXperiences (ROX) program, during which they learned and practiced the 4 different levels

108

vehicles dropped off electronics to recycle and papers to shred during our Earth Day event

32

students and teachers competed in a game of wheelchair basketball during the Diversity Conference

$9,980

in free books earned for our Lower School and Middle School libraries through the Scholastic Book Fair

1,918

student visits to the nurse's office (85% returned to class!)

$465

in gross revenue in one day at the Birdfeeder, the snack shop created and ran by the Upper School Investment Club

39

Country Day community members went to Music Hall together for a night with Bryce Dessner '94 and the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra for Arts Night Out

363

gifts received on Giving Day to surpass the day's $175,000 goal

13%

of previously inducted Athletic Hall of Famers attended the Hall of Fame celebration to welcome the four new inductees

