THE TRUMPET

1919

GIRLS' DORMITORY

In appreciation of all her untiring efforts in our behalf, we, the class of 1919, affectionately dedicate this edition of the "Trumpet" to our class teacher,

MISS MARGUERITE LOUGEE

Altho she has been with us only one year, she has endeared herself to every member of the class.

To Grace Winship Studley who faithfully served as our class teacher during our first three years at M. C. I., we hereby express our most sincere appreciation for her earnest endeavors in our behalf.

CLARENCE MACOMBER

In Memoriam

The many friends of Clarence A. Macomber were deeply grieved by his accidental death which occurred December 20, 1918. At that time he was a lieutenant and a member of the hospital staff, Air Service Depot, Garden City, L. I., N. Y. Dr. Macomber graduated from M. C. I. in 1907 with many honors, being president of his class, president of Amicinia, captain of baseball one year, manager of baseball one year, as well as being a good student. After going to Bates two years he entered Tufts Medical School and graduated in 1915. Dr. Macomber practiced at New Sharon until he enlisted in September.

1—9—1—9 and M. C. I.

Ernest Franklin Abbott,
"Abbie."

Born at St. Paul, Minn., June 26, 1898 Entered M. C. I. fall 1917; Football (4); Baseball (4); Basketball (3) (4); Carnival (3); course, General Academic. Home address, Pittsfield, Maine.

Here we have one of the smallest and weakest boys in school. Often it is necessary to help him carry his books to school, but no help is needed when "Abbie" sits down to eat, as doughnuts seem to be "Abbie's" special delight.

As well as being a renowned eater, "Abbie" has covered himself with glory in wrestling and throwing things about (hot air, for instance, has become "Abbie's" speciaity.)

But we all have our failings and here's wishing you all there is pleasant in life, "Abbie."

Mildred Marie Bragdon, "Dot."

Born at Etna, Me., Dec. 24, 1897. Entered M. C. I. fall 1915; course, Normal. Home address, Pittsfield, Maine.

For four years this young miss has traveled the walks of M. C. I., never forgetting to have both her lessons and her smile. But of late, this young lady has taken a great fancy to dancing and one may hear her say, "I wonder when the next dance is."

In Mildred's four years with us she has made many friends and we have always found her the same. To her, we extend our very best wishes.

Robert Arthur Bray. "Bob."

Born in New York City, June 10, 1900 Entered M. C. I. fall, 1915; course, General Academic. Home address, Pittsfield, Maine.

This quiet young man has been with us our full four years. He rooms down in Libby's and is seldom seen, so nobody knows what he is up to most of the time. He is often found at the station between four and six o'clock in the afternoon. He is a great student and, really, he spends nearly an hour a week on his studies. He excuses himself for this weakness by saying that the ability to study cannot be acquired but must be born in you.

Ruby Marie Butler.

Born at Detroit, Me., Oct. 8. 1900. Entered M. C. I. fall 1915; course. Commercial. Home address, Detroit Maine.

Here, too, is one of Detroit's quiet young ladies who has been with us for four years; all the while a constant companion to Elida.

Every morning when the eight o'clock train pulls in, out step Ruby and Elida with their book-bags and dinners.

Ruby's favorite pastime seems to be staying in the girls' dressing room, which is against the rules of the school and therefore causes her not a little trouble.

Ruby and Elida think they will go into partnership in the "Butter and Egg" business after they secure that long-looked-for document with "Prexies" signature.

Eva Winona Carle, "Buster."

Born at Wellington, Me., Sept. 25, 1900. Entered M. C. I. fall 1915; course, English Scientific. Home address, Wellington, Maine.

This quiet little lass came from Wellington in the fall of 1915. We do not know very much of Eva because she is always very anxious for Friday nights to come so that she can go to Wellington.

What was the meaning of the piece we saw in the paper, lately, about Parker's buying a farm and moving some furniture in?

We wish you much happiness in the future, Eva, and may you not forget entirely your classmates of 1919.

Carroll Ellsworth Carter, "Nick."

Born at Melrose, Mass., Dec. 6, 1899. Entered M. C. I. fall 1915; course, Preparatory Scientific. Home address, Newport, Maine.

Four years ago, "Nick" entered M. C. I. with the bunch of nineteeners and for three years he applied himself vigorously to his studies. During this time, he also established a remarkable reputation as total abstainer from the gentler sex and we formed the opinion that "Nick" was lost to all social activities.

But we have either been deceived or a great change has taken place, for his care-worn and anxious look, which we thot due to overwork in his studies, is caused by his participating, at least once a week in Newport, in a form of violent exercise which he prefers to call dancing. He is also always present at Tuesday night meetings of the Newport Grange.

The havoc wrought on our classmate by loss of sleep is alarming and we can only hope that commencement will arrive before "Nick" becomes a victim of nervous prostation.

Ruth Etta Chase,.

Born at China, Me., Dec. 14, 1898. Entered M. C. I., fall 1917; course, Normal. Home address, Pittsfield, Maine.

Ruth came to us at the beginning of our year and, at once, she made a name for herself by helping all the dunces of the class in their studies. She is quiet but when she does get started no one can stop her. Thus far, however, we have never known her to get started. The majority of the A's that have been given by the teachers during the last four years, have gone to her.

To you, Ruth, we wish the best of success in your future life.

Vivienne Mildred Cookson, "Billy."

Born at Hartland, Me., Dec. 4, 1900. Entered M. C. I. fall 1918; course, English Scientific. Home address, Hartland, Maine.

Here, we have a very quiet and demure little lady whom to know is but to love. She left the noisy little town of Hartland to seek the quiet of M. C. I., and since she has been with us she has earned great fame as a writer of short stories and plays for the "M. C. I."

Since Christmas, "V" has been unusually happy; at first we wonder why, but soon it was "sparkled" into our minds.

We certainly congratulate you and wish you great success in the future. Do not forget the good times you have had at M. C. I.

Gertrude Vicerah Davis, "Billy."

Born at Palmyra, Me., Apr. 30, 1901. Entered M. C. I. fall 1918; course, English Scientific. Home address, Pittsfield, Maine, R. F. D. 2.

The 17th of September, 1918, the "Hartland Squirt Gun" pulled in at the station in Pittsfield and out stepped Gertrude, fresh from the plains of Palmyra with her riding boots and spurs.

She has been with us only one short year, and during that time she has shown us how the Palmyra folks capture the "A's."

As yet, we don't know what her future plans are, but here's to the best of luck, Gertrude.

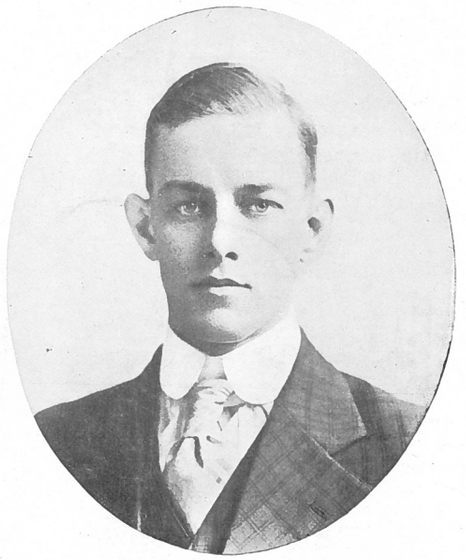

Clarence Raymond Day.

Born at Blanchard, Me., June 18, 1899 Entered M. C. I. fall 1915; Class Cheer Leader (1) (2) (3) (4); Member Y. M. C. A. Cabinet (2); Vice Pres. (3); Pres. (4); Manson Prize Speaking (3); Track (1) (2) (4); Capt. (4); Football (4); Trumpet Board (4); Asst. Leader Mandolin Club (4); Senior Play; Carnival (3) (4); Debate (4); Valedictorian; course, English Scientific. Home address, Shirley Mills, Maine.

This "Shark" came to us from the wilds of Shirley, Maine, in our Freshman year. The long lanky backwoodsman has starred in many track meets and also, this last year, on the gridiron.

His one failing is studying mathematics, and one day he astonished the rest of the class in Algebra by saying "I didn't get the last three." Something unusual for Clarence.

We are sure that the fair sex will join the boys in wishing Clarence a happy future.

Linwood Lyle Dwelley, "Zeke."

Born at Meddybemps, Me.. July 27, 1898. Entered M. C. I. fall 1916, Sec. Amicinia (3); Football (3); (4); Basketball (3); (4); Trumpet Board; course, General Academic. Home address, Meddybemps, Maine.

Out of the wild and wooly blueberry flats of Meddybemps, there came to us in the fall of 1916 one, Linwood Dwelley, commonly known as "Zeke." "Zeke" was quick to adapt himself to the new mode of living found at M. C. I. and in a short time one would never have known that he was the same boy who had came to our midst in September.

The first thing he did was to make a name for himself in football. After starring thru two successive seasons, he enlisted, in October, 1917, in the Aviation Corps and worked up to the rank of Sergeant. "Zeke" has a soft spot in his heart for all the girls he meets and has broken many hearts. but we all hope that some day he will meet some pretty maid and,—live happy ever after.

Clarence Luville Emery, "Clara."

Born, Petersburg, Va., Aug. 27, 1898. Class Pres., Class '18, (1) (2) (3) (4); Pres. Amicinia (3) (4); Entered M. C. I. fall 1914; Vice Pres. Y. M. C. A. (3); Football (1) (2) (3) (4); Captain (4); Track (1) (2) (3) (4); Capt. (3); Baseball (3) (4); Basketball (3) (4); Orchestra (3) (4); Glee Club (1); Mandolin Club (1); course, English Scientific. Home address, 91 Bradley St., Saco, Maine.

This tiny lad appeared on the campus in 1914 and then things began to move. We have always admired Clara but we are prouder still to have him come into our class of 1919. It has always been noticeable that he was very fond of the class.

Football, basketball, baseball, track and dimples are Clara's specialties.

Clara has always been the leader in all sorts of athletic sports and now we look forward to saying "That's Clarence Emery. He graduated from M. C. I. in '19" when we read any of his college accomplishments. We wish Clarence all success.

Carrie Agnes Edes, "Carrie."

Born at Passadumkeag, Me., Aug. 15, 1901. Entered M. C. I. fall 1917; Glee Club (4); Mandolin Club (4); course, Preparatory Scientific. Home address, Passadumkeag, Maine.

We take pleasure in presenting to you one of M. C. I.'s most finished products. So much might be said of this charming young lady that we hardly know where to begin, but we can safely say that she excels all in mathematics.

Doubtless the secret of her charms lies in the fact that she has not yet seen fit to part with that adornment so dear to the feminine heart, known as the hair-ribbon. Here's to your success, Carrie. May your highest goal be attained.

Edward Sam Farwell, "Sam."

Born at Unity, Me., Apr. 13, 1902. Entered M. C. I. fall 1917; Manson Prize Speaking, Winner (3); Baseball (3) (4); Basketball (4); Manager (4); Business Manager Trumpet (4); Senior Play; Medley (3); Carnival (3) (4); Member Debate Team; course, Preparatory Scientific. Home address, Bicknell Block, Rockland, Maine.

This little man of sixteen years arrived in our midst in our Junior year. Since then there has been no peace for anyone. When he first arrived in town, he roomed outside, but soon moved into the Boy's Dormitory by request, and here he has established a reputation as a rough-houser. He also has a bad reputation at the Girls' Dormitory. He has left behind a string of broken hearts that would trouble anyone's conscience but Sam's.

Besides this he is our athlete, being both a baseball and basket ball man. When he grows up he has threatened to take a course in Law School. In whatever you do, Sam, you have our best wishes for success.

Dorice G. Files, "Dot."

Born at Bangor, Me., June 16, 1900. Entered M. C. I. fall 1915; Freshman Prize Speaking (1); Alumni Prize Speaking (2); Winner Manson Prize Speaking (3); Mandolin Club (4); Glee Club (4); Medley (2); Carnival (2); course, Preparatory Classical. Home address, Pittsfield, Maine.

Here is one member of the Senior class who doesn't waste her time on the boys. She likes most of them, at a distance of one-half mile, quite well enough.

When "Dot" attempted third year French in her Senior year, it proved quite disastrous, but even then it was not French that bothered her so much.

Her greatest ambition is to live in the West and ride broncos. In this undertaking we wish her the greatest success.

Elida Virginia Field, "Nita."

Born at Woodland, Me., May 29, 1900. Entered M. C. I. fall 1915; course, Business. Home address, Detroit, Maine.

This quiet young lady came to M. C. I. as a little freshman, four years ago. She is so quiet that some people call her "Mouse," tho her most popular nickname is "Bill." She says very little about her future but since the war began, she has faithfully knitted for the Red Cross. Perhaps some day, she will hold a high office in that organization.

Last summer her favorite occupation was going up with the Ferris Wheel and riding home afterwards in an automobile; and the driver wasn't a girl either.

Being so very quiet, if she didn't make her headquarters at the dressing room at the Institute it would be hard to locate her at any time.

You have all our good wishes, Elida.

Lewis Roswell Fitts, "Fritter."

Born at Stetson, Me., Jan. 1, 1899. Entered M. C. I. fall 1916; Alumni Prize Speaking; Football (2) (4); course, English Scientific. Home address, Stetson, Maine.

"Fritter" is a demure little chap who hails from Stetson's R. F. D.

Fritter joined us in our Sophomore year. The first of his stay was uneventful but little by little he became better known until to-day he is one of our most popular seniors.

During his last year Fritter became quite famous as a rough-houser and if there was anything of that sort going on at the dorm you would be sure to find Lewis at the bottom of it.

We will have to hand it to you Lewis, you are clever.

Carlyle Ray French, "Frenchie."

Born at Palmyra, Me., Apr. 30, 1902. Entered M. C. I. fall 1915; course, Preparatory Scientific. Home address, Pittsfield, Maine, R. F. D. 2.

In the fall of 1915, the Hartland peanut roaster was burdened with another member of our Noble Class, "Frenchie."

"Frenchie" is one of those quiet little beauties you read about in a dime novel. "Frenchie" has never placed himself at the front in athletic ability but has won considerable fame in horseshoe playing, also as a walker.

Many is the night he has "hoofed it" to West Palmyra after some social, never starting for home until twelve o'clock.

Altho he is never seen with a girl we have come to the conclusion that he is not such a lady-hater as he makes out to be.

"Frenchie" will always have the best wishes of his firm friends at M. C. I.

Earle Edwin Friend, "Ikey."

Born Etna, Maine, May 3, 1901. Entered M. C. I. fall 1915; Freshman Prize Speaking; Alumni Prize Speaking; Medley (2); Carnival (2); course, English Scientific. Home address, Etna, Maine.

This wee little person came direct from Etna. When he first appeared on the scene, four years ago, we were all amazed at the enormous carrying power of his voice which was entirely out of proportion to the size of the man.

Ikey is a general favorite and can always be heard calling out "Wait for me, Helen," but whether she waits for him or not, we wish him all kinds of luck in his future occupation as a Ford Manufacturer.

Daniel Robinson Getchell, "Dan."

Born at Pittsfield, Me., May 28, 1900. Entered M. C. I. fall 1915; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet (4); Freshman Prize Speaking, Winner; Alumni Prize Speaking, Winner; Glee Club (1) Medley (1) (2) (3); Carnival (1) (2) (3); Debate team (4); course, English Scientific. Home address, Pittsfield, Maine.

Here is to Daniel, our cheer leader grand!
His voice is clear and resounds o'er the land,
He sings and he cheers and whistles right well
And he's just O. K. in giving the class yell.
He's brilliant and gifted in debate,
And all his ideas are right up to date.
He'll give you logic straight from the cuff,
Or if it's in order, put up a good bluff.
As a model of manners, he's on Easy street;
As an all round beau he can't be beat.
For raking up leaves and cleaning Dad's lawn,
He's as nice a young fellow as ever was born.
I might write on with fine erudition
And not give Dan's virtues half recognition.

Probably there is no boy in school who is so fond of good hard work as Dan. Dan spends nearly all of his time on his studies and is seldom on the streets.

Ruth Grattan, Ruthie."

Born at West Wardsboro, Vt., June 1, 1901. Entered M. C. I. fall 1917; Treas. Sorosis (4); Glee Club (4); Carnival (4); Medley (3); course, Normal. Home address, Bradford, Maine.

The fall of 1917 brot with it many changes both desirable and otherwise. Ruth was one of these. Which? Oh! I leave that for you to imagine. Quite demure and quakerish, she attracted little attention at first; but M. C. I. does work wonders for people and now you would hardly know she is the same girl. She has a great fondness for the opposite sex and her attitude towards them is fully expressed in the old saying that, "Variety is the spice of life."

The secret of Ruth's efficiency is that she does what she makes up her mind to do and does it well. French is her hobby and, as she puts it, is "The only thing I like or ever will like." It is, perhaps, needless to say that she will change her mind some day.

Ermine Caroline Gray, "Flip."

Born at Troy, Me., Apr. 16, 1904. Entered M. C. I. fall 1915; Mandolin Club (4); Carnival (1) (2); Medley (1) (2); course, English Scientific. Home address, Troy, Maine.

Ermine holds the distinction of being the class baby. Smart? Just so you would notice it! And, only fifteen, at that!

She is quiet(?) and modest away from home, but when at home, she has a fondness for hiking and distance does not bother her in the least. Why! she has even been known to walk home, a distance of only nineteen miles.

We wish you the best of luck in the years to come, and may you succeed as well as you have at M. C. I.

Helen Morrison Harris, "Helen."

Born at Stillriver, Mass., Sept. 2, 1900 Entered M. C. I. fall 1917; Pres. Y. W. C. A. (4); Trumpet Board (4); Glee Club Leader (4); Soloist in Cantata, "Joan of Arc" (3); Mandolin Club (4); Carnival (4); Class Ode; Medley (3); Senior Play; course, Normal. Home address, Pittsfield, Maine.

This demure young lady came to our midst in the beginning of our Junior year, but while she has been in our class she has been a credit to it and has worked hard for its success.

She was very shy when she first came, but we all know that she first gotten bravely over it.

When we want any music we just naturally come to Helen, our class soloist, book-worm, and shark.

If you want a thing well done, get Helen to do it.

Marion Hazel Holt, "Cupid."

Born at Twin Lakes, Me., Oct. 5, 1900. Entered M. C. I., fall 1915; course, Normal. Home address, Burnham, Maine.

This million-dollar-miss has been with us four years. She is one of those highly accomplished young ladies who seem to get along well at school with but very little effort.

The art in which Hazel excels is that of a comic actress. She is warranted to impersonate, to perfection any well-known character from Petruchio to Mrs. Snider Snipe. We advise her to join Barnum and Bailey's Circus as an acrobat, for her future vocation, as she has had previous experience in scaling hen pen wire fences, and in climbing in windows not lower than five feet from the ground.

Daisy Bell Jones, "Buttercup."

Born at Newport, Me., Dec. 26, 1900. Entered M. C. I. fall 1918; course, Commercial. Home address, Newport, Maine.

This delicate young Miss is another of our numerous eleventh-hour members, coming all the way from Newport to join our ranks in the fall of 1918. She is a friend to us all and we couldn't get along without her.

We are not prophets but according to signs and personal appearances, Daisy has a rosy future in store.

Olive Ester Jones, "Fritz."

Born, Burnham, Me., July 23, 1899. Entered M. C. I. fall 1916; course Normal. Home address, Burnham, Maine.

This very quiet young lady has been with us three years. She did intend to become a teacher, but since the armistice has been signed, we are not exactly sure what course she will follow after her career at M. C. I. is ended.

She is often late for chapel as the mail man calls at her home a little after eight o'clock each morning. She has some peculiar habits, such as sinking moxie in the pond to keep it, and is very fond of canoeing, automobiling, riding, etc.

Her presence in our class has been enjoyed and we wish her the best of fortune.

Florice Kenniston, "Flossie."

Born at Pittsfield, Me, Feb. 20, 1901. Entered M. C. I. fall 1915; course, English Scientific. Home address, Pittsfield, Maine.

In the fall of 1915 Florice made her first appearance in a small group of Freshmen just outside the Institute door. These Freshmen were discussing what they would do when they were Seniors.

Four years have passed, and we all know that Florice looks back to that time with a happy smile. She has made many friends here with us and as the time draws near for us to part we wish to say: Florice, we wish you the best of success in the years to come.

June Beulah Lanpher, "Junie."

Born at Abbott, Me., June 8, 1900. Entered M. C. I. fall 1915; Orchestra (3); course, English Scientific. Home address, Pittsfield, Maine.

This young lady has been with us all four years.

During her first and second years she was very shy and was seldom seen except at classes.

Not only, literally, does June tower above the most of us but, figuratively, she is stationed on a lofty pinnacle when it comes to French translation.

We do not expect that she will some day become a renowned French teacher for we hear that she is attracted chiefly by domestic arts, and that she will only be satisfied when she can put into practice the principles of household management learned at M. C. I.

We all unite in wishing you a happy future, June.

Roy Warren Lishness, "Roy."

Born at North New Portland, Maine, Mar. 27, 1902. Entered M. C. I. fall 1918; course, Preparatory Scientific. Home address, North New Portland, Maine.

Roy comes to us from the large city of North New Portland, where he is noted for his expert knowledge of rules. None of us understand, Roy, where you acquired the nick name of "Useless," for you certainly showed some ability when you escorted the Blueberry Sophomore home from church. "Useless" did not join us 'till this year but he has proved himself a valuable classmate.

Barbara Hey Lancey, "Barbara."

Born at Pittsfield, Me., Oct. 11, 1900. Entered M. C. I. fall 1916; Marshal Sorosis (3); Alumni Prize Speaking; Alternate Manson Prize Speaking; Trumpet Board (4); Orchestra (2) (3) (4); Glee Club (4); Carnival (2) (3) (4); Senior Play; Class Prophecy; Medley (2) (3); course, English Scientific. Home address Pittsfield, Maine.

Behold Barbara! the black-eeyed beauty! "Babs" came to us in the fall of 1916 from St. Joseph's Academy. The customs and rules of M. C. I. were so different from those of S. J. A. that it was hard for her at first, but she was not slow in making friends.

"Babs" certainly can use her hands on the piano and her feet on the dance floor. She has become a regular attendant at Perkins' Hall on Friday nights. If you wish to find Barbara at any other time than "10 o'clock" when she is in the reading room with Sam) look for Athene, for whither she goes there goes Barbara also.

Gertrude Little, "Gertrude."

Born at North Penobscot, Me., Sept. 6, 1903. Entered M. C. I. fall 1916; Alternate Alumni Prize Speaking; Basketball (3); Glee Club (4); Mandolin Club (4); Carnival (4); course, English Scientific. Home address, Pittsfield, Maine.

Gertrude came to us from the class of 1920, in her Senior year. Although Gertrude has never tried for highest honors, she has shown her ambition to push ahead by skipping two school years.

Gertrude's talents are many and will some day win distinction for her. We are still in doubt as to whether her career will be that of an artist or a grand opera singer. But she does not lack self assertion and we all are certain that she can make her own way.

Here's to Gertrude, our Baby Blue Eyes!
Here's to the girl who's always wise!
To be head of the faculty she aspires
And all of the "profs" she greatly admires.

Laura Noami Lucas, "Luke."

Born at St. Albans, Me., Mar. 3, 1901. Entered M. C. I. fall 1915; Sec. Sorosis (4); Treas. (4); Manson Prize Speaking (3); Basketball (3); Senior Play; Medley (1) (2); Carnival (1) (3); Salutatorian; course, Preparatory Classical. Home address, St. Albans, Maine.

Here is the Miss who is ready for anything in the line of fun. Whenever there is any necessity for an "eats" committee, Laura is always made chairman.

She surely has good taste in any matter of this kind and the boys know it. Her favorite pastime is singing and,—oh yes, I forgot to tell you but one quite often sees Laura dancing.

Whenever you hear a loud racket in the "dorm," you usually find Laura at the bottom of it.

Well, Laura, when we have parted, we all wish you the best of success in whatever you undertake.

Elaine Marden, "Sambo."

Born at Pittsfield, Me., Jan. 11, 1901. Entered M. C. I. fall 1916; Class Marshal (4); Sorosis (2); Manson Prize Speaking; Basketball (3); Orchestra (2) (3); Medley (2) (3); Glee Club (4); course, Preparatory Classical. Home address, Pittsfield, Maine.

Sambo arrived here at M. C. I. in the fall of 1916 from St Joseph's Convent, Deering, Maine, and we were glad to welcome her into our class.

If you should ask Elaine why she went to Orchestra rehearsals so regularly the first two years here, undoubtedly she would answer, "To see that Barbara got home safely."

Elaine has two failings,—she never recites when called upon and always answers when not called upon.

May you be as ready a volunteer in all good work in your future life as you have in the past.

Hester Irene Matthews, "Kid."

Born at Pittsfield, Me., Sept. 2, 1901. Entered M. C. I. fall 1915; Vice Pres. Class (2); Sec. Sorosis (3); Alternate Freshman Prize Speaking; Glee Club (1); Medley (2) (3); Carnival (1) (2) (3); course, English Scientific. Home address, Pittsfield, Maine

Behold, before you, one of the champion eaters of M. C. I. This young lady can devour more edibles in one hour than six ordinary men could eat in a whole day.

She specializes on candy and pickles and will challenge anyone to an eating contest at any time of day or night.

Hester is one of the most popular members of our class and we all join in wishing that she may have the best of success in life and never starve in the future.

Ellen Millett, "Ellen."

Born at Palmyra, Me., Feb. 24, 1899; Entered M. C. I. fall 1914; Basketball (2); course, Normal. Home address, Newport, Maine, R. F. D. 1.

Ellen Millett, P. O. O. L., has for a long time been seen on the M. C. I. campus, but it was only this spring that she recognized the greatest class on earth and entered it—M. C.I. 1919. Ellen has a great fondness for animals, her special pet being "Peter Rabbit."

Perhaps you have noticed that Ellen has received her degree. You may not be familiar with it, but the mystic initials, P. O. O. L., stand for Plague of Our Lives.

Ellen's favorite pastime is playing tennis with a nice-looking young man. Possibly she doesn't dare say so, but we all know that she thinks.

"Ragon, Gonya, I've been thinking
What a nice world this would be
If the rest were all transported—
Leaving only you and me."

Ruth Muriel Moore, "Shorty."

Born at Canton, Me., May 29, 1900. Entered M. C. I. fall 1915. Sec. Class (2) (3) (4); Glee Club (4); Carnival (1) (2) (3); Medley (1) (2) (3); course, Preparatory Scientific. Home address, Pittsfield, Maine.

Little,—but Oh My! And such a tease. There is no peace when Ruthie's around. Her favorite occupation is singing in the choir, and making plans. We wonder who holds the key to her heart? As far as we know it is lost, strayed or it may be only stolen. We hope it is nothing worse than that.

Here's to your health, little secretary, may you enjoy long life and, when that soldier boy in France returns may your happiness be complete.

Walter Moses, "Hook."

Born at Corinna, Me., Nov. 3, 1899. Entered M. C. I. fall 1915; Treas. Class (2) (3) (4); Class Marshal (2); Trumpet Board; Senior Play; Glee Club (1); Mandolin Club (1); course, English Scientific. Home address, Pittsfield, Maine.

In the fall of 1915, a long, lanky youth flew into Prexy's office to register. After puzzling for a long time Prexy made out "Walter Moses" scrawled on the card.

If you couldn't read a word and wanted to find out what "Hooks'" name was I am afraid your desire for knowledge would not be appeased. We wonder if S. H. E. can translate his scratching during the intervals between his visits to Waterville.

"Hook" is a faithful student but his highest aspiration is to be a great treasurer. Here's hoping you will be, "Hook."

Arthur Lunt Moulton, "Doc."

Born at Hartland, Me., Mar. 29, 1901. Class Treas. (1); Class Marshal (1) (3) (4); Sec. and Treas. Amicinia (2) (3); Pres. Amicinia (4); Y. M. C. A. Cabinet (4); Football (2) (4); Capt. (4); Baseball (3) (4); Basketball (3) (4); Capt. (4); Track (4); Trumpet Board; Senior Play; Mandolin Club (4); Carnival (3) (4); Medley (2) (3); course, Preparatory Scientific. Home address, Hartland, Maine.

A doctor is a very necessary factor in case of heart disease, so when "Doc" Moulton arrived from the big city of Hartland, we knew that our school career could go safely on. But "Doc" is not by any means immune from such troubles, being in the midst of every fracas both on diamond and gridiron. We hope, "Doc," you will be just as successful in life as you have been here at M. C. I. The best of luck to you!

Charles Alton Palmer, "Putty."

Born at Lewiston, Me., June 10, 1898. Entered M. C. I. fall 1917; Member Y. M. C. A. Cabinet (4); Football (3) (4); Baseball Manager (4); Basketball (4); Trumpet Board; Boys Glee Club Manager (4); Winner 4 minute Speech (4); Senior Play; Debate (4); Presentation of gifts; course, English Scientific. Home address, 1 F. St., Randolph, Maine.

One fine day in September, 1917, a young man stepped from an Eastbound train to the Pittsfield platform. His first question was "Where is the Boys' Dorm?" When he was told, he squared his shoulders and marched serenely towards it trying to look wise. As soon as he had registered, he was admitted into our ranks as a Junior. After examining the fair sex carefully, he selected one.

Well, Putty, we all join in wishing you and Ruth a happy future.

Marjorie Merl Patten, "Pat."

Born at Pittsfield, Me., June 12, 1898. Entered M. C. I. fall 1915; Carnival (2); Honor Part; course, English Scientific. Home address, Pittsfield, Maine.

Lo, and behold, whom do we see here but one of our honor students! Marjorie is little attracted by social functions and even her few intimate friends thought her the model of docility until it was rumored that her one failing in this respect was looking for friendly missives from Boston "Tech" and sending such missives to Boston.

A student more faithful to her studies and friends could not be found at M. C. I.

And we know that she will brighten the corner wherever she may be.

Verner Pearle Pease, "Peggie."

Born at Detroit, Me., May 13, 1900. Entered M. C. I. fall 1915; Glee Club (4); Mandolin Club (4); Medley (2); Carnival (4); course, Normal. Home address, Pittsfield, Maine.

Verner Pease entered with us our Freshman year and has stayed with us throughout our four years. She is a very quiet and unassuming young lady and has proved herself a true friend to the class. Tho she is nearly always ready with a good recitation in class it is reported that she would be a "shark" if she didn't spend so much time writing letters.

Don't worry, Verner, we won't tell too much on you and we all join in wishing you the best of luck and happiness in the future.

Cyril Fred Richards, "Dianha."

Born at Guilford, Me., Sept. 30, 1901. Entered M. C. I. fall of 1918; course, English Scientific. Home address, Hartland, Maine.

Early last fall, this young heartbreaker fled from the noise and confusion of Hartland to seek repose and knowledge (mostly the former) within the time honored halls of M. C. I. Soon he became famous for his ability as an "ivory tickler" as well as a short story writer.

He has an overwhelming weakness for girls and for tripping the light fantastic toe at Hartland Academy social dances.

Olive Ernestine Taylor, "Sister."

Born at China, Me., Jan. 30, 1901. Entered M. C. I. fall 1917; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (4); Mandolin Club (4); Class Chaplain; course, Normal. Home address, Pittsfield, Maine.

Of Olive, we know but little but that does not signify that there is little to be known.

During her two years at M. C. I. she has certainly endeared herself to everyone. Olive is very fond of apples especially the Core (Y.) My! We pretty nearly let the cat out of the bag, didn't we? I suppose it will come some time so why not now? Never put off till tomorrow what can be done today.

"Here's to Olive Taylor
Who's engaged to a sailor."

Hilda Ona Thurston, "Shorty."

Born at Pittsfield, Me., Mar. 11, 1902. Entered M. C. I. fall 1915; Freshman Prize Speaking; Alumni Prize Speaking; Basketball (1) (3); Glee Club (1); Medley (1) (2) (3); Carnival (1) (2) (3); course, Domestic Science. Home address, Pittsfield, Maine.

This pretty little maiden entered with us four years ago. Her favorite occupation is "cutting" classes. Nevertheless, Hilda has proved to be a good classmate and friend to us all. She is very fond of dancing and can usually be found at Perkins' Hall any dance night. Well, Hilda, we all join in wishing you a happy future.

Elberton J. Tiffany, "Bert."

Born at Pittsfield, Me., June 23, 1901. Entered M. C. I. fall 1915; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet (4); Trumpet Board (4); Debate (4); Carnival (4); Honor Part; course, Preparatory Classical. Home address, Pittsfield, Maine.

Some four years ago, the members of the faculty of M. C. I. were startled by the appearence of a very tall, lanky boy who, they soon found, had just blown in from the wilds of Palmyra to get an education such as M. C. I. alone can give. He demanded admission and was received and put into the Freshman class.

Since then, he has shown himself to be a shark in all his studies; especially in mathematics. We predict for him a brilliant future and he has the very best wishes of the class of 1919.

Agnes Turnbull, "Peggy."

Born at Pittsfield, Me., May 7, 1900. Entered M. C. I. fall 1915; Medley (1) (2) (3); course, General Academic. Home address, Pittsfield, Maine.

This little miss entered M. C. I. with the rest of us timid "Freshies" in the fall of 1915, but while some of us crossed the campus to our first "Chapel," timid, faint-hearted and wanting in courage, she ploughed her way thru the open-mouthed crowd until she found herself amongst the then "delightful Freshies."

Often, of late, we have heard the question "Why does 'Peggy' take so many trips to H_2O Ville?" The answer is "Because she likes to 'Marshall' Everett."

Ruth Whitten, "Rufus."

Born at Pittsfield, Me., Sept. 12, 1901. Entered M. C. I. fall 1915; Vice Pres. Class (1) (3) (4): Pres. Sorosis (4); Chaplain (3) (4); Sec. (2); Vice Pres. Y. W. C. A. (3); Cabinet (2); Freshman Prize Speaking; Manson Prize Speaking; Trumpet Board; Glee Club Manager (4); Senior Play; Carnival (1) (2) (4); Medley (1) (2) (3); Presentation of Gifts; Pres. Athletic Council (4); Sec. (3); course, English Scientific. Home address, Pittsfield, Maine.

Behold "Rufus," one of our most popular girls. She is not only popular with her own sex but she is extremely popular with the opposite sex. She is especially fond of good perfume, her favorite brand being "Palmer." During the last two years her greatest ambition has been to fill her hope chest and we congratulate the lucky fellow. All of the class hope that Ruth will not forget her classmates in the years to come when she is busily engaged in her future work. Good luck to you, "Rufus."

Helen Williamson, "Dimples."

Born at North New Portland, Me., May 22, 1901. Entered M. C. I. fall 1916; Pres. Sorosis (4); Vice Pres. Sorosis (2) (3); Vice Pres. Y. M. C. A. (4); Alumni Prize Speaking; Honor Part; Trumpet Board; Medley (2) (3); Carnival (2) (3); course, Normal. Home address, North New Portland, Maine.

This little lass drifted in on us in the fall of 1916. The first thing we determined about her was that she had a very winning smile, which was bestowed upon every one alike. She at once became a favorite, and at all social events she was "needed" in much the same way as the sunshine, as every smile gave not a small degree of pleasure to every one present.

When walking thru the halls, we often hear someone shouting "Wait for me, Helen," and we look around only to see "Ikey."

Of History she is very fond,
Especially fond of a summary.
When asked, "Who's your hero?"
She'll respond,
"My greatest hero's Emery."

Helen was often seen with some of our honored upper classmen as well as with members of our own class, but is was not until the "Spanish Influenza" vacation that we found Helen had chosen her future occupation. Then, we beheld a "sparkler" on the third finger of the left hand, placed by "Clara."

Olive Myrtle Wood, "Olive."

Born at St Albans, Me., Dec. 1, 1898. Entered M. C. I. fall 1918; course, English Scientific. Home address, Hartland, Maine.

This young lady, so quiet and modest, was one of the few who joined us in our Senior year, from the Land of Hearts (Hartland.)

None of us know her very well, she is so quiet. Ask for Olive and you will find her puzzling over mathematics or writing a letter to a friend in France. She says she intends to be a school teacher but we have our doubts.

She is now waiting patiently until the boys are discharged from the army. Never mind, Olive, we won't tell quite all.

We know there is much in store for you with your good motto: "I'll stand up for (W) right."

Class History of 1919

It was in the fall of 1915 that the present Senior Class arrived at M. C. I. as meek little Freshmen. During those days of our infancy we spent nearly all of our time striving to find our different class rooms. Often we strayed into the wrong class two minutes late, only to back out again quicker than we had entered.

Our first official act was the choosing of a class teacher, Grace W. Studley being chosen.

The biggest event of our first fall was the Hallowe'en party at Hester Mathews' which certainly showed that the Freshmen were starting in well.

Jan. 7, a reception was tendered to Miss Hilton, the new French teacher, who took Miss Cole's place.

Jan. 25, was the Japanese Festival in which several Freshmen took part.

Jan. 26, was the Athletic Carnival at which the Freshmen made their debut.

In the spring, we elected our class officers: President, Elwood Dale; Vice President, Ruth Whitten. We surely began to show our colors then, as the 1919 class went in and helped themselves to the second place in the interclass Baseball championship, (1917 winning first place.)

Altho the Freshmen are not allowed to be too forward during their first year, there was one event to which we all looked forward; that was the Freshmen social. May 12 was the gala night; we gave a Vaudeville show consisting of "The Dancing Duo," "The Magazine Girls," "A Mystery Scene" and last but not least, the play "A Precious Pickle."

April 6, a terrible catastrophe occurred when "Dusty" Wentworth fell over in his seat in English. "Great was the fall thereof," was all that "Grinnie" said.

The last of April, we were very sorry to learn one day, that Roland Brown, better known to us as "Buster," had enlisted in the Navy. Now, he has received the rank of First Pharmacists' Mate.

We all feel very proud of the few boys we have had in the service: "Buster" Brown, "Dusty" Wentworth, Ray Gourley, Winfield Brown, Donald Stuart and Ivory Higgins.

Thus sped on the remainder of our Freshmen year.

In the fall of 1916 when we entered upon our Sophomore year we were much disappointed to find that Vivian Moulton and "Speedy" Dale had left us. Again we elected new class officers: President, Francis Staples; Vice President, Hester Mathews.

Three stray wanderers came to us during the fall of this year, Barbara, Helen and Elaine. We gave them a glad welcome and they have been stars in our class these last three years.

That same fall we were all (with the exception of "Nick" Carter) terrified by the mysteries of Geometry. "Nick" could do even the hardest of the originals.

In October, I believe, we held our Sophomore hike, by the river bend, near Perry Martin's. A good example of class spirit was shown on this hike, when "Doc" went along with us on crutches having been hurt a short time before, while playing football. How Marjorie and Laura worked to get the sandwiches made in time! Miss Studley, Miss Neff and Mr. Oldham were our chaperones and how Miss Neff did show her ability in cooking and eating fried eggs. After the supper, we sat around the fires and listened to many weird stories from Mr. Oldham; whoever heard the one about the ghost and the cemetery will never forget it. A social followed at Power's Hall.

The rest of the year, until June, is rather vague in the minds of most of us. In June, a shadow was cast over M. C. I. when we learned that one of our best loved teachers, "Grinnie" Merrill, was to leave and enter the army. We all turned out at the station and gave him a good "send off." Shortly after this, "Dusty" Wentworth enlisted in the army band. He is at present near the Rhine, Germany.

Thus ends the second chapter of our trials at M. C. I.

During the summer of 1917 we received our class rings which pleased us greatly.

Again, in the fall of 1917, with the exception of a few boys who were serving as Junior Volunteers, we started on our journey, now as Juniors.

During our Junior year, as in previous ones, we had a class hike, going to the usual place near Perry Martin's. You see this spot is a favorite among our classmates. It was on that hike that Dan fell out of the canoe which he and Earl Carr were paddling up the river.

As the Sophomores were having a hike the same night, we invited them to join us in a social at Power's Hall.

Our Junior class was greatly overjoyed at the prospect of having such new members as Alton Palmer, Sam Farwell, Helen Harris, Ruth Grattan, Florian Berube, Bernard Cratty, and Pete MacSherry.

On December 20, came the next event of importance, the Junior-Senior reception. Much credit is due Barbara Lancey and her aides for the fine way in which they decorated the hall working long after the others had gone. At the reception, Miss Fisher gave a fine program of reading; (we were the first class to have a social after the reception.) Clarence Day and "Doc" Moulton deserve a gold medal for staying and washing dishes after midnight at the Dormitory.

Anything that happened during January and February, 1918, seems to be frozen out of our minds.

The first of March, the public witnessed the drama, "Not on the Program." This play was repeated a week later at the Athletic Carnival.

Not long after this Berube came up among the missing and upon investigation we found that he was at 128 Blake St., Lewiston, resting from overstudy; he returned shortly, however, and was welcomed by all.

We are always busiest in the spring and this year was no exception. There were prize speakers and the cantata, "Joan of Arc," in which Helen Harris took the part of Joan. Every one knows how hard the Juniors worked decorating for Class Day and for Commencement Day, especially.

At last we found ourselves in that much desired state, Seniorhood, and with Senior seats in Chapel. Thus endeth Chapter III of our History.

In the fall of 1918 we came back as Seniors, really-truly Seniors, ready to start on our last round.

This year we found a great change in the faculty, the Misses Studley, Moberg, Hilton and Neff had resigned and the Misses Ross, Lougee, Churchill, and Mrs. Brown took their places. Mr. Larabee, Pierce and Sidelinger were the new men teachers.

About the first thing we did this year was to choose a class teacher to take Miss Studley's place. It seemed hard to have Miss Studley leave us for she had been with us for three years. A new teacher had to be chosen, however, and Marguerite Lougee was elected. Miss Lougee has truly done all in her power for us in every way.

We all looked forward to the Senior Class ride. We had many good places in mind but finally on November 8, we went to Camp Benson. Altho the day was cold, we had a fine time. We went over in automobiles, the roads being so bad in Newport that a few cars were delayed. We staid at Camp Benson all day, then came back and had a banquet at the Girls' Dormitory. A social ended a perfect day.

This year Vivienne Cookson, Olive Wood, Gertrude Davis, Daisy Jones, and Wallace Fogg joined us.

We were greatly grieved when Howard Haskell left us. He had been with us thru our first three years at M. C. I. and was very popular.

On December 6, came the Junior-Senior reception. It was certainly one of the best ever and everyone enjoyed the presentation of "Little Lord Fauntleroy" by Miss Fisher.

Other important dates were Feb. 28, and March 1st, the dates for the Athletic Carnival, which proved the greatest success ever.

April 13, known as General Clean-Up day at M. C. I., was a success in every way. The underclassmen worked very well and credit is due the few Seniors who came out and worked. For aught we know the little Freshies saved dear old M. C. I. when they extinguished the mighty conflagration, started by the Seniors on the Baseball diamond, which spread rapidly across the campus owing to a strong wind.

Thus endeth Chapter IV of the history of the great and illustrious class of 1919. Yet, this is only the beginning. Later, we expect individually, if not collectively, to win greater fame for our Alma Mater than has ever been achieved by any graduates of our dear old school.

Senior Class Ride, 1919

After much discussion as to where we shou'd go and a few other delays the c'ass of 1919 started on a class ride never to be forgotten by any of us. Our destination was Camp Benson and chaperoned by our class teacher, Miss Lougee and Mr. Pierce, we left the campus about nine o'clock. Everything was in our favor. No flat tires or accidents except Basil Hunt's car getting stuck in the mud. The weather was fine.

We arrived at our destination about ten o'clock and as we found the pavilion locked we climbed in the windows and immediately made use of the piano and floor. We played such games as "Hello and Goodby" and "The Hidden Key." Four of our number went back to M. C. I. for a basket ball and we had a great deal of fun with this.

A picnic lunch was served at noon and then the afternoon was spent in playing more games and boating. About five o'clock we started for Pittsfield, our cars loaded with Moxie, arriving there about five-thirty

When we arrived at the dormitory Mrs. Healey had an excellent banquet prepared for us. After this we had some speeches with "Doc." Moulton as toast-master. Our banquet was followed by a social at Powers Hall to which we invited the rest of the school. There was some excitement during the evening, the social being considered too rough by some of the lady and gentleman members of the faculty.

Altogether the Seniors and Underclassmen enjoyed themselves very much. In spite of the disturbance they realized quite a little amusement from the affair. The social closed by the giving of class yells and singing school songs.

Our Junior Class Hike

The class of 1919 went on their annual class hike about the last of October. We went down to our old camp grounds back of Perry Martin's.

As soon as we arrived the boys began building several fires and soon were frying bacon and eggs. These, with sandwiches, turnovers, coffee and a marshmallow toast, were the items of our bill of fare.

After the hike we had a social in Powers Hall at the close of which Miss Studley played songs and we gave our class yell.

Spring Hike 1918.

We went on another hike in June down to Hobo's Inn and it was voted by all present the best hike of them all. We tried to make it such as it was the last hike that we as a class would ever have.

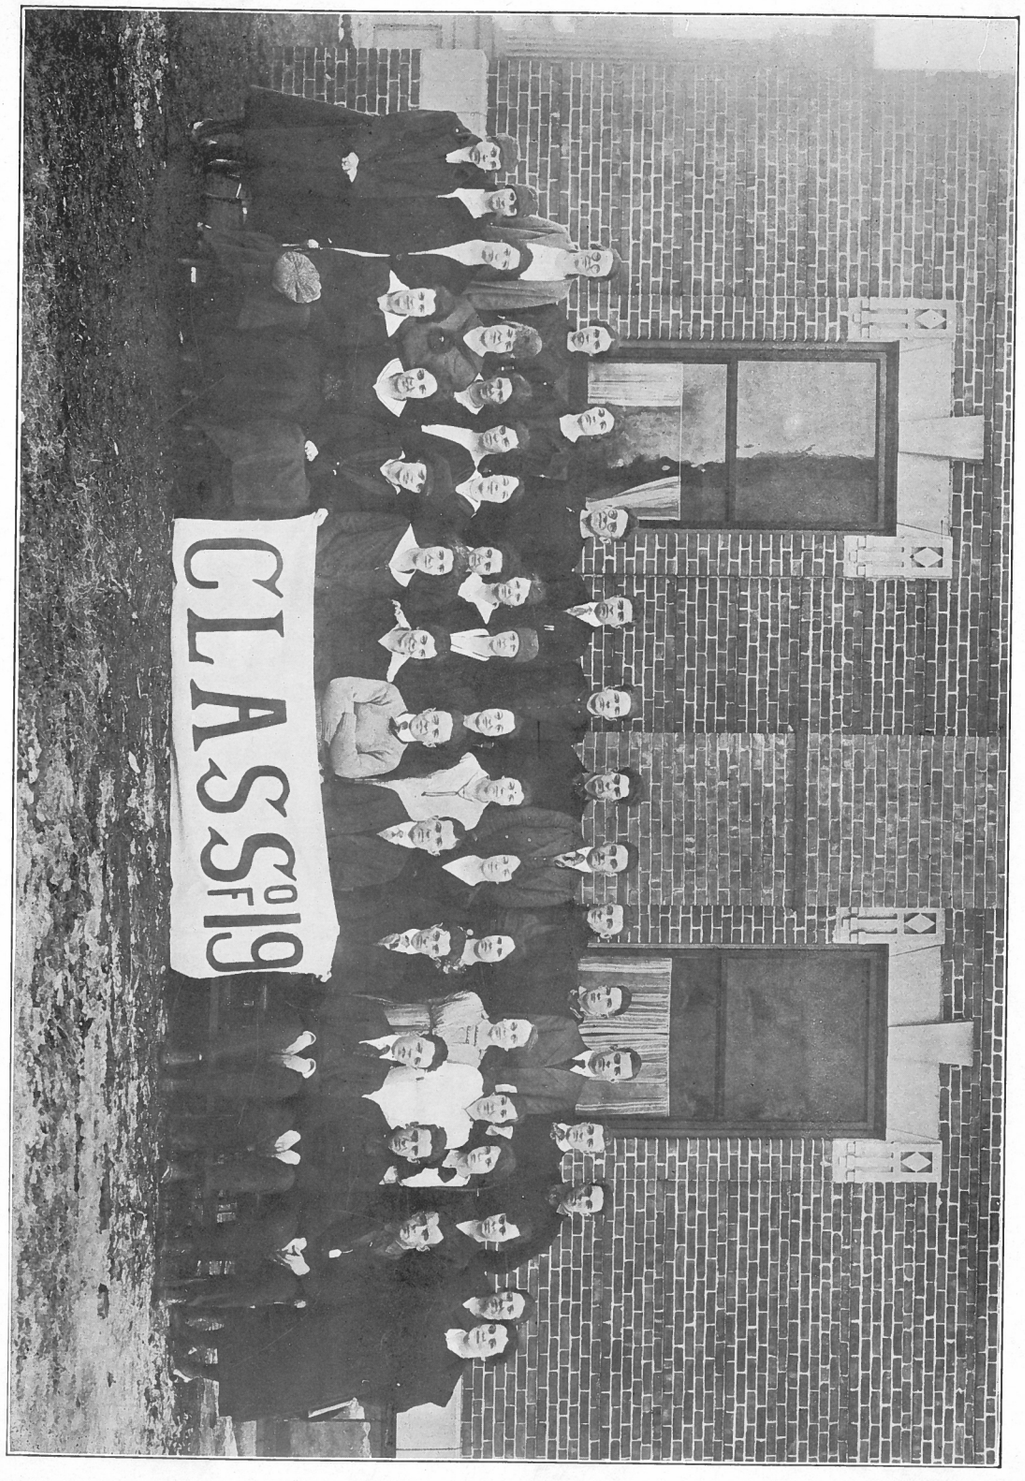

And those eats! Weren't they good! Bacon and eggs (the eggs were in danger all the way to the grounds because Berube carried them) sandwiches, peach turnovers, bananas, coffee and ice cream. We left the Inn about seven o'clock and ended our hike by going to the movies.

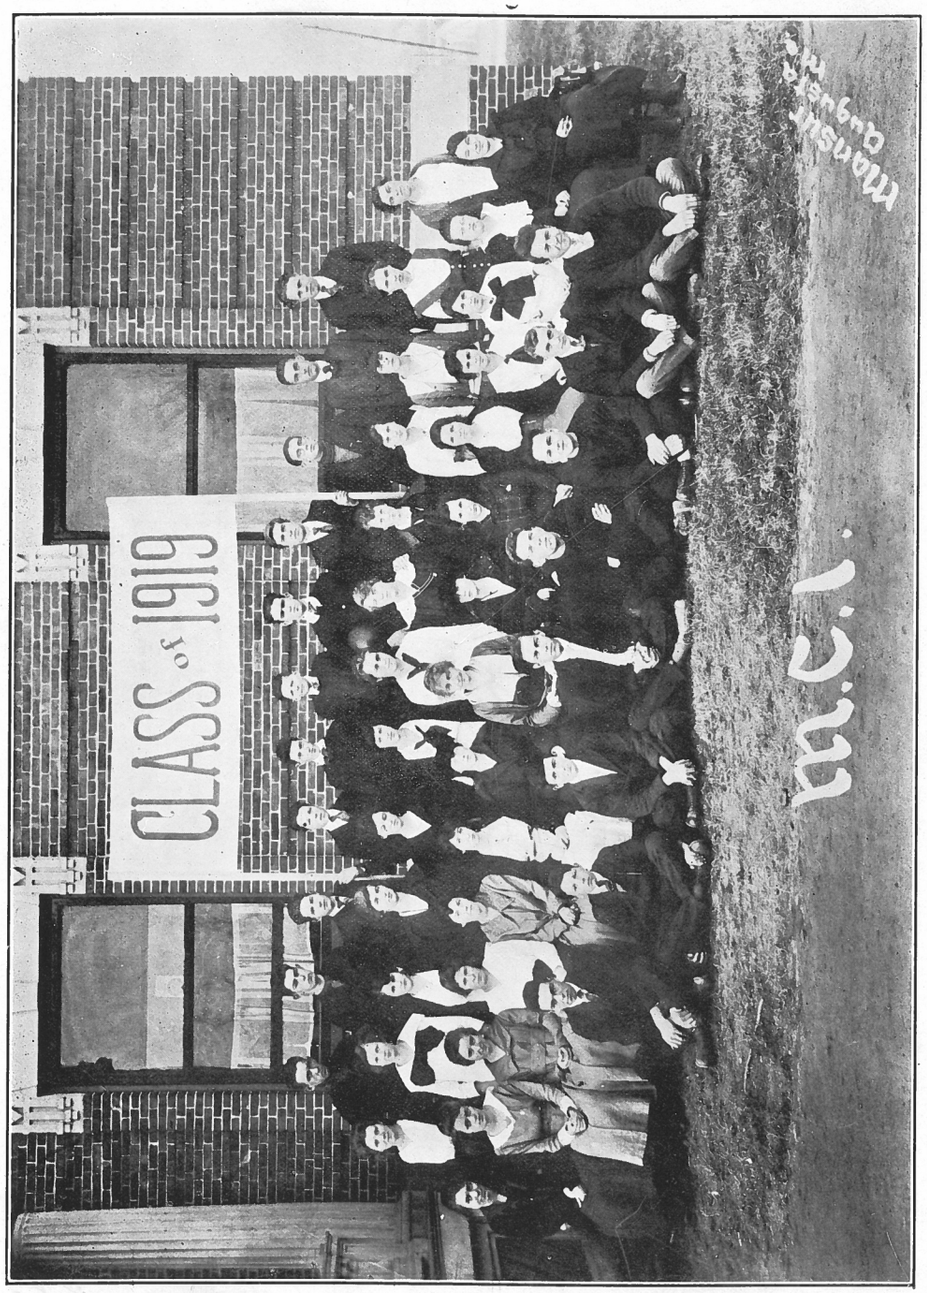

Our Sophomore Class Hike

We, the class of 1919, went on our class hike on a bright October day in 1916. It was nearly dusk when we arrived at our destination back of Perry Martin's. Nearly all of the class were present.

After a supper of bacon and eggs, sandwiches, doughnuts and coffee we had a marshmallow toast. During the evening two of the faculty, namely, Miss Studley and Miss Neff, went for a canoe ride with Dan Getchell and Earle Carr.

After they returned, the entire party started for the Institute, some by one route, some by another. When we reached the campus, "the powers that be" granted us a social which we enjoyed until it was time to return home.

M. C. I. Debate, 1919

The tryouts for Varsity Debate Team were held in February and the following were chosen members of the teams: Alton Palmer, Daniel Getchell, Clarence Day, Sam Farwell, Dorice Files, and Elmer Chambers with Elberton Tiffany and Francis Staples as alternates.

Much time was spent to make the debates as good as possible. Many practice debates were held in Senior debate class and one was held in chapel the morning before the debate with Bangor.

The first varsity debate was held in Bangor, March 21, M. C. I.'s negative team with Palmer, Day and Getchell lost at the High School to a team composed of three girls.

That evening (Mar. 21,) the debate between M. C. I.'s affirmative Farwell, Miss Files and Chambers and the negative team of Hebron was held in Powers Hall. The decision was given to Hebron.

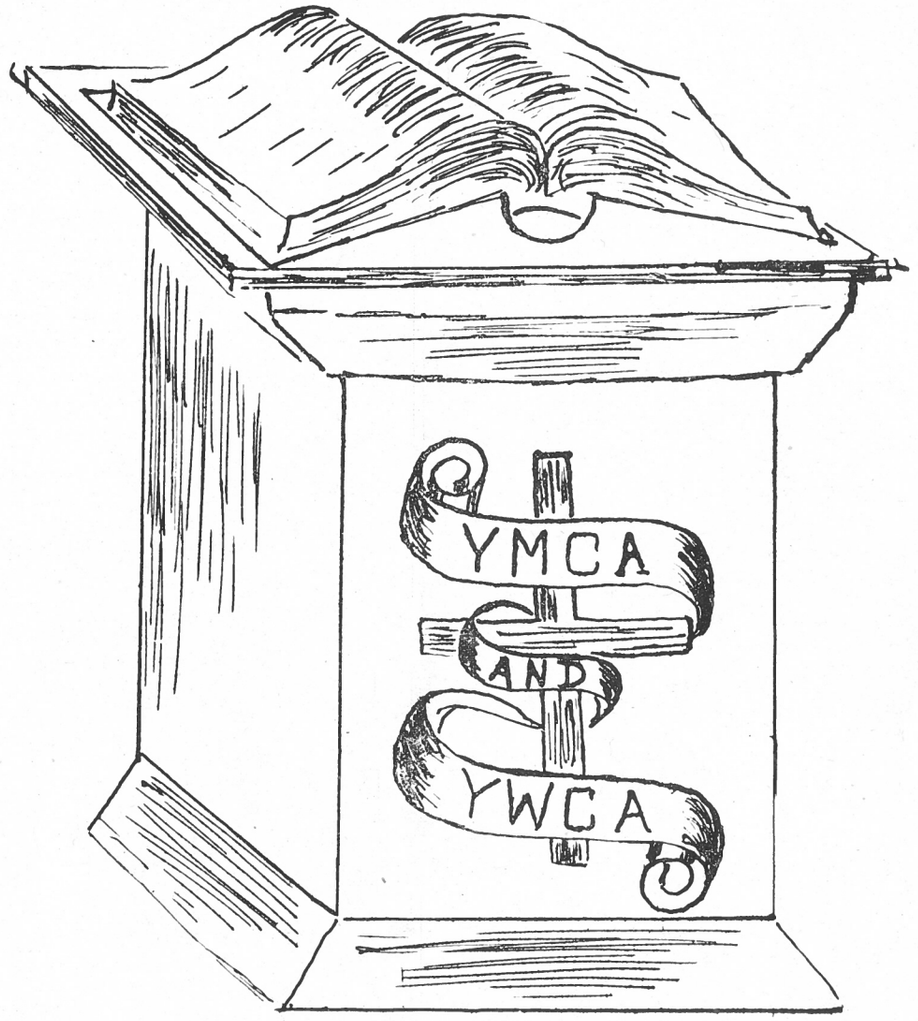

Amendment Introduced by Class of 1919.

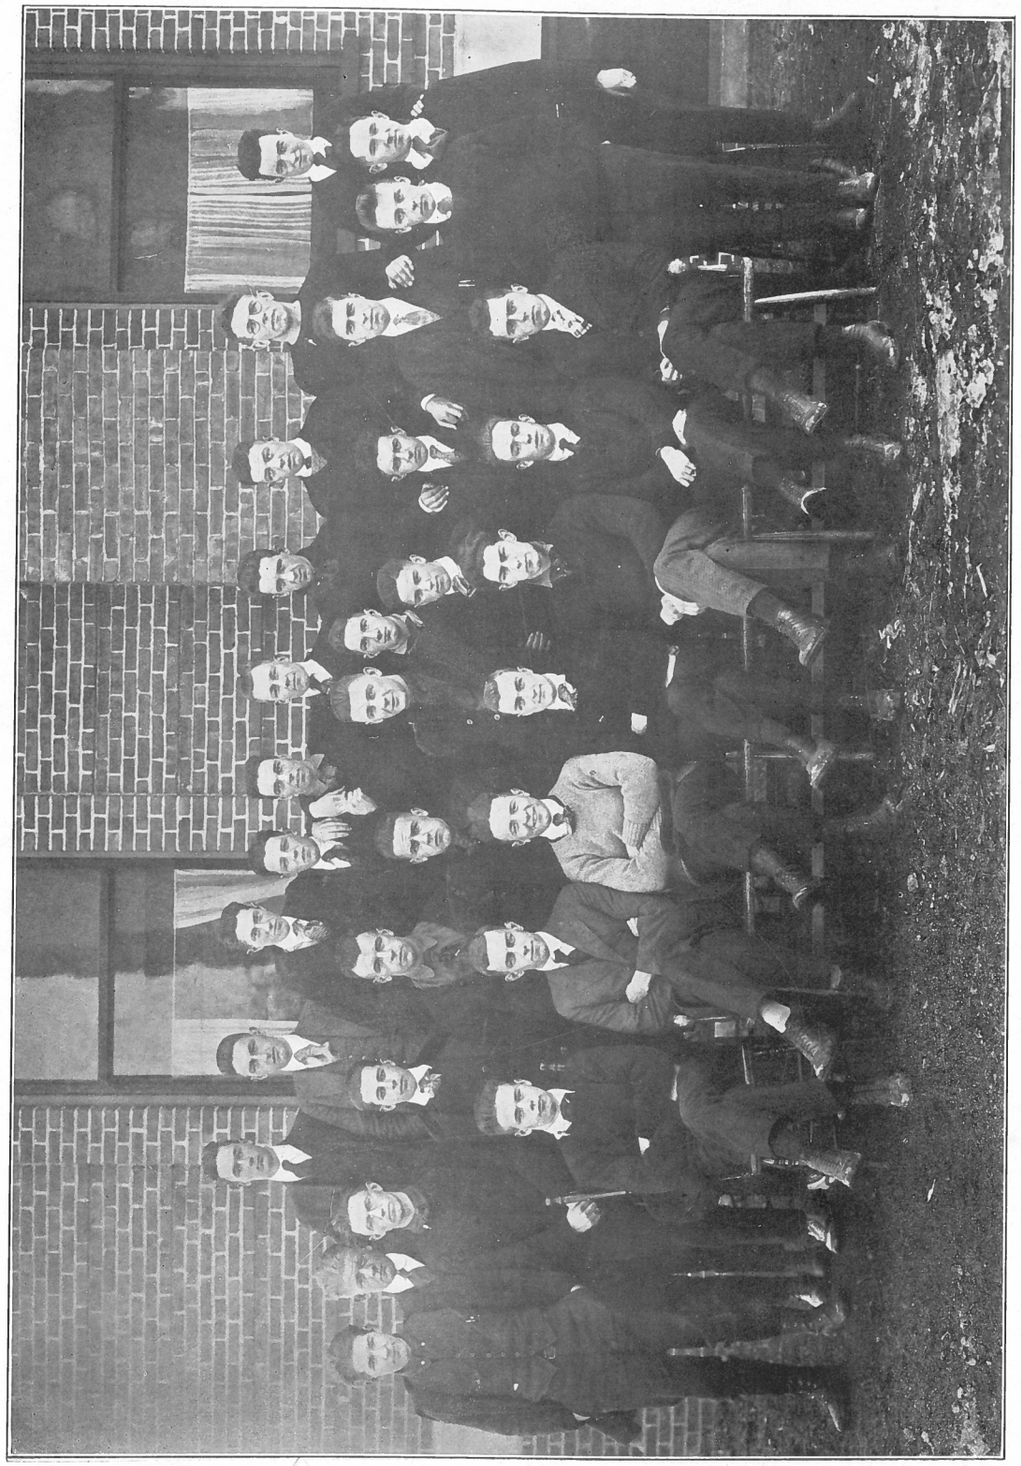

The Constitution of the Athletic Association has been amended so that any varsity debater who has participated in a Varsity debate shall be awarded a letter of the school. This is to be of a special design, designated by the Athletic Council.

Maine Central Institute is the first preparatory school in the state to award a debate letter.

The debating team placed a petition before the Athletic Association and received a unanimous vote in their favor.

Those who will receive the debate letters this year are: Sam Farwell, Unity; Alton Palmer, Gardiner; Daniel Getchell, Pittsfield; Clarence Day, Shirley; Dorice Files, Pittsfield; Elmer Chambers, Pittsfield.

The Y. M. C. A. got rather a poor start this year mainly because of the fact that so many of its members had either joined the army or navy or had not returned to school because they expected to do so.

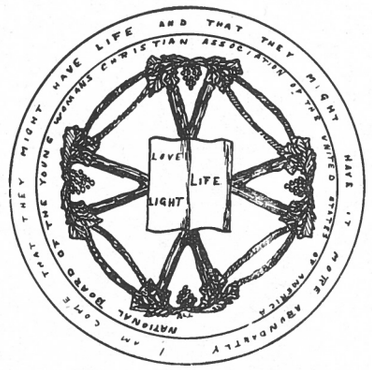

They have had a few meetings however and have aided the local committee in the "State-Wide Y. M. C. A. Campaign" getting about $100 in pledges from the school.

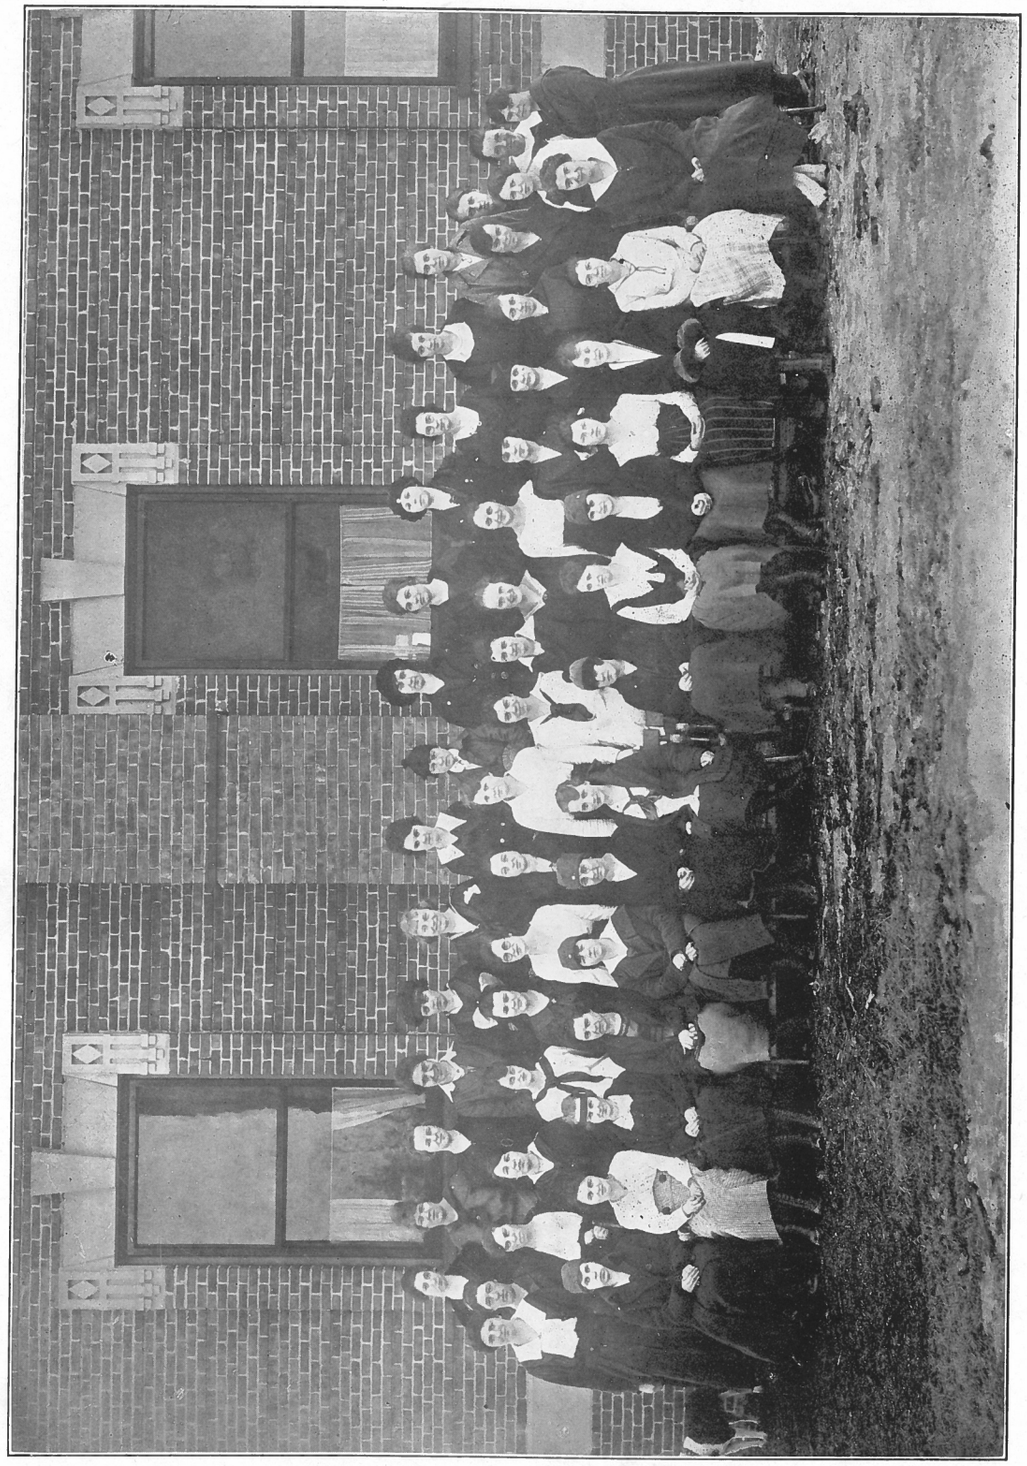

As the winter conference, held at Brunswick this year, came at the same time as our athletic Carnival they were unable to send any delegates to that.

It is hoped that next year the "Y" can get a better start at M. C. I. and can be made more of a success than during the past year.

When a new girl comes to M. C. I. in the fall, the first welcome she receives is extended by a member of the Y. W. C. A. who shows her about the school and helps her to get acquainted. A reception is given the first week of school to the new teachers and students by the Christian associations, and later a hare and hound chase is enjoyed by all the girls.

But the greatest purpose of the Y. W. C. A. is not merely to welcome and cheer newcomers, but to strengthen the girls in Christian ideals and leadership, teaching them what is worth while in life and helping them to make their own lives really worth while.

This year practical topics, topics that would interest the girls and make them think, have been chosen for each week's meeting. Every meeting is intended to be a decision meeting in which each girl shall decide to right some wrong. Some of the meetings are led by the student members of the association; others by the teachers, while, occasionally, Christian workers from outside give the girls interesting and helpful talks.

During this, our senior year, ten of our number, juniors and seniors, were privileged to attend the Y. W. C. A. convention in Lewiston. The sight of between six and seven hundred earnest young faces, the spirited singing, the stirring addresses, all contributed to make the conference one not easily forgotten. The girls returned to M. C. I. brimful of enthusiasm for more consecrated work. At the Y. W. C. A. banquet, which was held Tuesday evening, April 22, each of the girls who had attended the conference responded to a toast which showed plainly enough that she had brought back with her real inspiration from the meetings in Lewiston.

M. C. I. was gratified to find that, in the toasts at the conference banquet in Lewiston, she was the only preparatory school represented. Helen Harris, president of our Y. W. C. A., was called upon to respond to a toast and she did it in a manner highly creditable to M. C. I.

SOCIETIES

Sorosis

Sorosis is the girls' society of Maine Central Institute. This organization is to give the girls a better insight into good literature, arts and music. The meetings are usually held each week when the girls show their school spirit by attending regularly and all working for the interest of the society. New officers are elected each term.

Adelphia

Some years ago, the boys' literary society became overcrowded, so the boys of the 1917 class decided to withdraw and form a new society under the name of Adelphia. As long as those boys stayed in school, the society flourished.

But after they had graduated there was no one to carry it on and it was about to die forever in M. C. I. when Miss Lougee suggested forming a literary society of the Sophomore and Freshman classes, taking the name and using part of the constitution of the old Adelphia society.

The purpose of Adelphia is to give the underclassmen practice in holding offices in societies and a chance to make speeches before a not too critical audience and, last but not least, to afford some good wholesome fun.

The first meeting was held in the middle of the fall term. At this meeting it was decided to have the meetings every other Monday at 6:45.

The first set of officers was elected, together with a program committee, who have provided an interesting entertainment for each succeeding meeting.

Among the most interesting was an illustrated lecture given by Dr. Blanchard, on his travels in Mexico; also, on another evening, Miss Lougee told of a trip down to Coney Island, N. Y., showing many pictures of the sights of New York City.

It was voted that after the fourth meeting no students who had not already given their names could become members of the society without first being initiated. Since then, two candidates, Bernard Knowles and Warren Ronco have been taken in, the ceremony of initiation providing a great deal of amusement for the members.

The officers for the Spring term are:

President	Stanley Fuller
Vice President	Edna Childs
Secretary	Edna Lenfest
Treasurer	John Laughton
Executive Committee	Virginia Higgins
	Susie Harding
	Ruth Getchell
	Halvah Williamson

Amicinia

Amicinia is one of the boys' societies that promotes literary life, here at Maine Central Institute.

The object of this society is to create among the boys an appreciation of good reading and to arouse a strong feeling of brotherhood.

Meetings are held every Monday night, when convenient, but on account of schools being closed during a part of the fall term the meetings have been somewhat irregular.

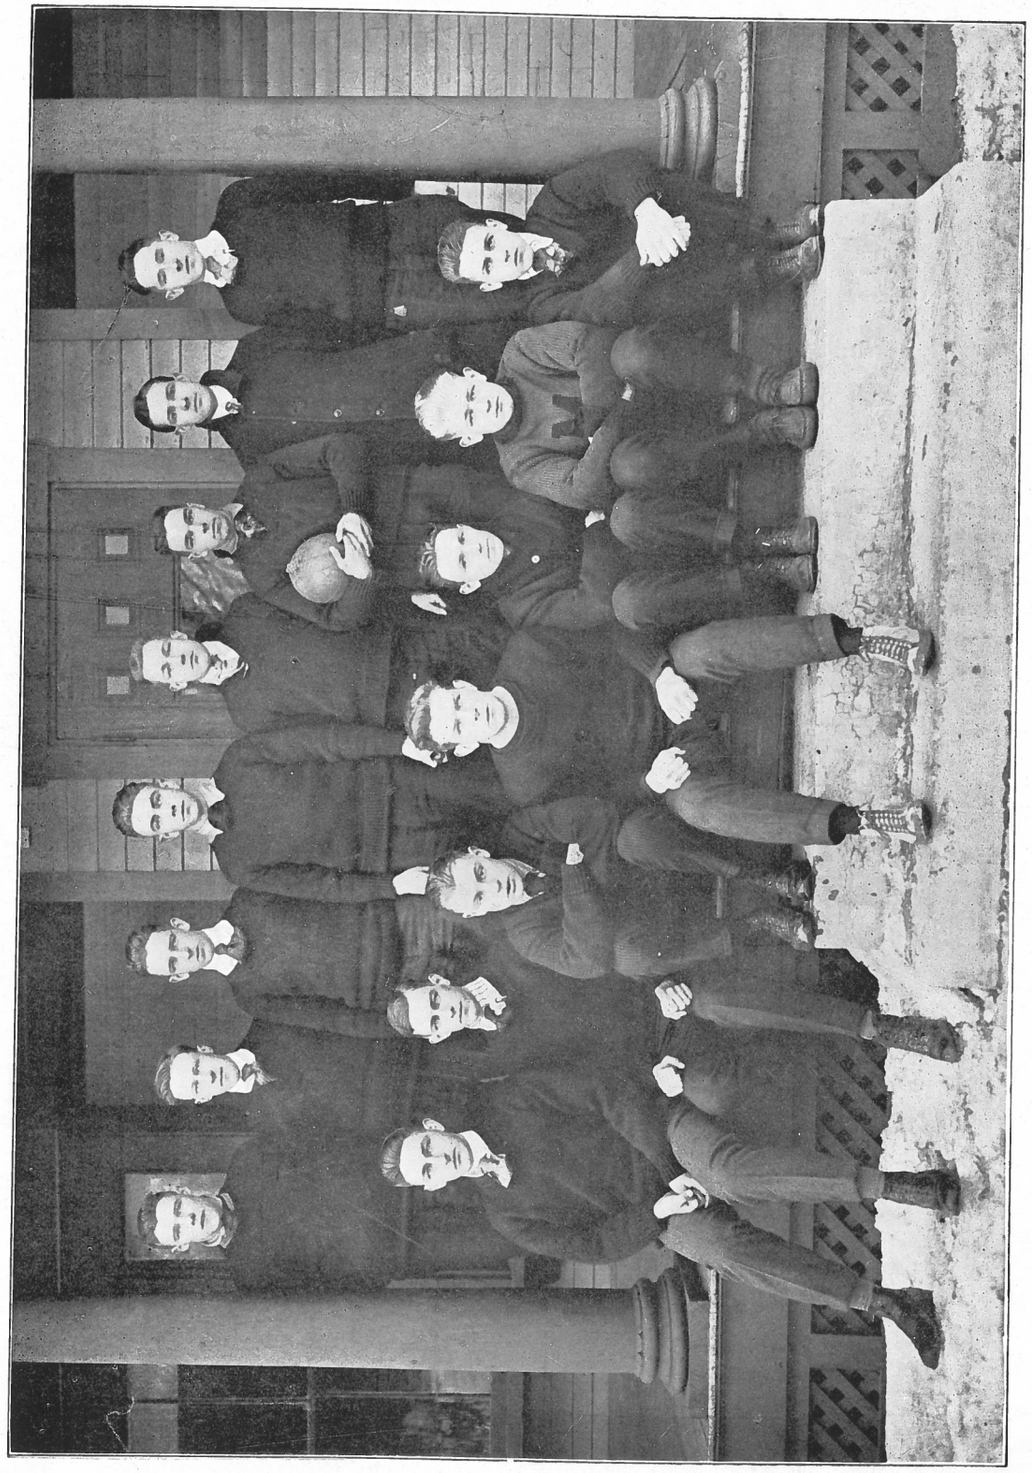

This society boasts of having among its members some of the best students, and athletes, and some of the most popular men in school.

FOOTBALL

Football.

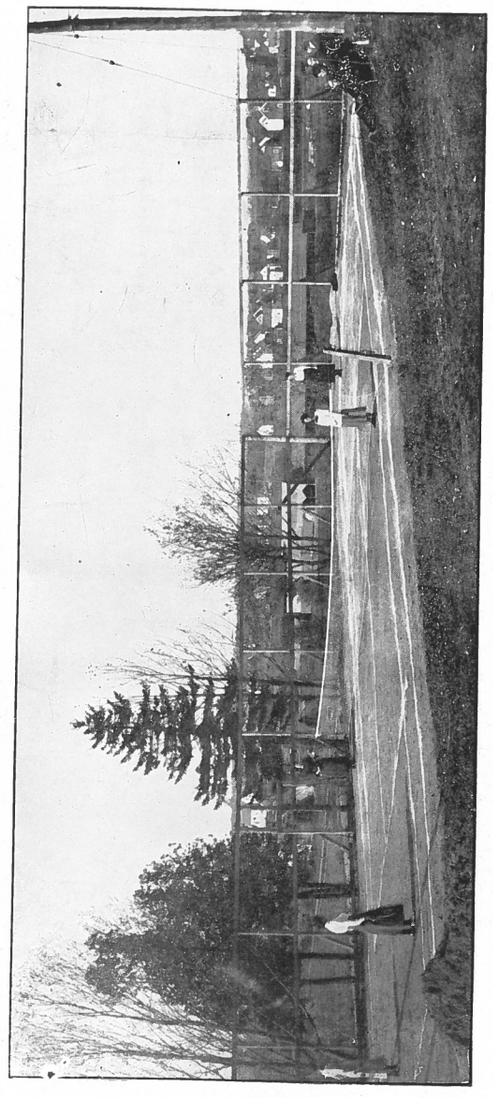

The football season this year was sadly broken up by the influenza vacation and the loss of our best veteran, Leroy Luce. This loss left a bad place in our line but it was filled quite creditably by Abbott. Pete McSherry, elected captain the year before, failed to return and Arthur Moulton, manager, was finally elected captain by the whole squad. The first of the year, Soldier Adam drilled the recruits in the mysteries of tackling and covering the ball. After his return to college, Mr. Oldham assumed the duties of coach and gave the team many new plays.

Basketball

The basketball team had a very successful season, playing a long schedule of games, which included some of the best "prep" school teams in the state.

There were but one or two old players, and the team had to be made up of practically new men. Coach Shepard was with the team only at the beginning of the season, but after giving them a good start turned the team over to John Lanpher, who soon developed a fast team.

Those who made their letters were:

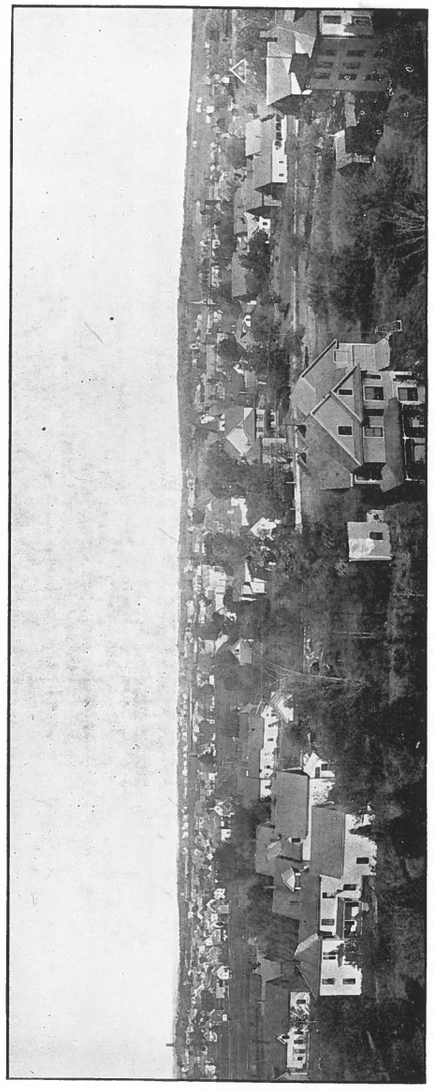

Capt. Moulton, Farwell, Gonya, McLaggan, Emery, Tarbell, C. Emery, Dwelley, Jacobs, Staples, Hunt, Palmer, Abbott.

The spring of 1918 was a very successful baseball season for M. C. I. The team was coached by Ray Shepard.

This year only three of last years men were left. However we had several good men from other high schools to help strengthen the team and when the Trumpet went to press we had won two games and lost two.

Track

M. C. I. track has been without a coach during the year of 1918-19, and to say that we miss "Shep" is putting it mildly.

A team was sent to B. I. I.M. meet, and, altho the relay team lost to Hebron, Emery got points enough to get second place in the meet.

With two weeks' practice under the coaching of Emery, M. C. I. sent a team of fourteen men, with Day as captain, to the U. of M. outdoor meet, May 24, '19, and won with forty-six and one-half points to their credit, Emery taking thirty of these points, breaking two records, and equaling one. Points were also won by Day, Fitts, Clyde Emery, and Tiffany.

M. C I. sent a team of three men—Emery, Day, and Fitts—to the New Hampshire State Meet, held on May 31, at Gorham, N. H., where they won second place. On May 30, Emery and Day also won third place at Brown University Track Meet.

Girls' Glee Club

For the first time in the history of M. C. I. the girls have had a Glee Club. The success of this organization was due largely to the efforts of our teacher, Mr. Pierce, who has done a great deal for the school in the line of music.

After rehearsing faithfully two mornings a week for a term and a half, the girls made their first public appearance at the Athletic Carnival where they were received with much enthusiasm. After the first few meetings they elected Helen Harris as leader, Ruth Whitten as manager, and Barbara Lancey pianist.

The Mandolin Club

The Mandolin club was organized by our Senior class teacher, Miss Marguerite Lougee, in the fall term of 1918. As soon as we could get mandolins we began to have rehearsals every Wednesday and Friday. We elected Francis Staples as leader, and Clarence Day as sub-leader. Carrie Edes and Ethel Harris were elected for "tuners."

The following are the names of those who belong to the club:

Olive Taylor
Helen Harris
Ermine Gray
Ethel Harris
Edna Childs
Marjorie Moore
Marguerite O'Roak
Carrie Edes
Gertrude Little
Clarence Day
Francis Staples

The Athletic Carnival

"The best yet" is the general verdict in regard to the fifth M. C. I. Athletic Carnival held in Union Hall, Friday, February 28, and Saturday, March 1. To begin the carnival Friday night, Miss Edna Fisher, head of the Department of Public Speaking, presented the complete drama of "Little Lord Fauntleroy." Miss Fisher's impersonation of the large number of different characters was really remarkable and her reading was felt by all to be one of the best presentations of a whole play that has been given in Pittsfield by any reader.

Kent's Hill was scheduled to play basketball as the second part of the program, but cancelled on short notice and Newport High School was secured to fill their place. Altho a light team they played good basketball. The final score was 47 to 10 in favor of M. C. I.

The program for Saturday afternoon opened with the following numbers:

Overture—"The Cavalier" ..... Orchestra
Solo and Chorus—"You Can't Live Without a Girl," Soloist, Francis Staples
Chorus, Martha Mitchell, Margaret Tucker, Ethel Reed, Vera Thomas, Dora Sands, Athene Sayward
Selection—"The Land of Joy" ..... Orchestra
Play—"Pa's New Housekeeper"

Cast

Pa Jackson, a widower ..... Clarence Day
Jimmie Jackson, his son ..... Arthur Moulton
Jack Brown, Jimmie's chum ..... Sam Farwell
Mollie Holbrook, her friend ..... Arlene Bussell
Mattie Jackson, Jimmie's sister ..... Helen Harris
March—"Queen of the Fleet" ..... Orchestra

In the play, Sam Farwell in a female role as the new housekeeper, took down the house by his clever acting. The other members of the cast also played their parts in finished style.

The rest of the afternoon program was taken up with the preliminaries for the interclass meet and a few extras. Arthur Levensailor, '21, outpointed Ernest Abbott, '19, in a boxing bout in which the whole audience showed lively interest. Daniel Getchell, '19, and Halvah Williamson, '21, kings of the mat, gave a good exhibition of wrestling.

Howard Pierce, music director, had a large union orchestra which added a great deal to the afternoon and evening performances. The first part of the evening program was as follows:

Estudiantina — Lacome
Girls Glee Club

Vocal solo with violin obligato
Happy Days — Sterlezki
Miss Ruth Whitten, soloist
Miss Marion Johnson, violinist

Reading — Selected
Miss Arlene Bussell

Violin Solo — Selected

Sing me to Sleep
Miss Ruth Whitten, soprano
Miss Vera Thomas, alto
Miss Marion Johnson, violinist

Carmena — Wilson
Girls Glee Club

The Girls' Glee Club made a big hit and did great credit to Mr. Pierce, who has had charge of their training.

The athletic finals seemed to be all Clarence Emery and all 1919. The Seniors won the meet with 65 points and their nearest competitors were the Juniors with 10½. The results follow:

Potato Race—Staples, '19, first; Moulton, '19, second; Day, '19, third.

Hurdles—Emery, '19, first; Moulton, '19, second; Getchell, '19, third.

Dash—Emery, '19, first; Moran, '20, second; Moulton, '19, third.

Standing Broad Jump—Emery, '19, first; Day, '19, second; Nason, '20, third. Distance 8 ft., 8in.

Running Broad—Emery, first; Nason, second; Day, third. Distance, 27 ft., 2 in.

Standing High Jump—Emery, first; Moulton, second; Day and Nason, third. Height, 4 ft., 2 in.

Running High Jump—Emery, Day and Moulton, tied. Height, 4 ft., 9 in.

Tug of War—Seniors won from Juniors; Freshmen won from Sophomores; Freshmen won from Seniors (there was a reason.)

Relay Races—Juniors won from Freshmen; Seniors won from the Sophomores; Seniors won from Juniors and Sophomores from Freshmen.

The Pittsfield Grammar school ran a special race against the Freshmen and won from them.

An interesting boxing bout was staged between Elmer Chambers, '20, and Roy Lishness, '19. Abbott, '19, obtained the decision over Luce, '18, in a very good wrestling bout.

Patrick Tierney, of Bates College, was starter; Patrick McSherry of Lewiston was timer; LeRoy Luce of Bates College was scorer; Lynwood Dwelley, Meddybemps, was announcer. The judges were William McGilvery, E. P. Bottomley and Aaron Johnson.

The Minstrel Show

An appreciative audience gathered April 21, to attend the minstrel performance given under the auspices of the Senior and Junior Classes which was put on in a most creditable manner under the direction of Howard T. Pierce, teacher of music here at M. C. I. Miss Barbara Lancey and Mr. Pierce were the pianists accompanying the Orchestra and soloist for the evening.

The circle was composed of Alton Palmer, interlocutor; Donald O'Brien, Arthur Moulton, Margaret Tucker, and Sam Farwell ends; Ethel Reed, Francis Staples, Arthur Sayward, Ruth Whitten, Dora Sands, Martha Mitchell, Daniel Getchell, Harry Belyea, and Vera Thomas.

The soloists were Daniel Getchell who rendered "Your Boy is on the Coal Pile Now." Harry Belyea "There's a Lump of Sugar Down in Dixie" and "I found the End of a Rainbow." "Cotton Pickin' Time in Tennessee" was rendered by Francis Staples; "When Aunt Dina's Daughter Hannah Bangs on that Piana," Arthur Moulton; "They'll be Mighty Proud in Dixie," Alton Palmer; Medley Chorus. "I'm too Tired to Make Love," Mr. Cavanough; "Dear Old Pal of Mine," Harry Belyea. Miss Ruth Whitten was warmly received in her solo, "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows;" "If You Ever Get Lonely," vocal duet, by Messrs. Belyea and Cavanough.

The dance specialties included the Sailors' Hornpipe by Miss Vera Thomas and Ethel Reed and a specialty song and dance by the Misses Barbara Lancey, Ethel Reed and Vera Thomas were among the features of the evening's program. The Sailors' Hornpipe was also rendered by Margaret Tucker and Sam Farwell in true southern style. Harry Belyea entertained the audience with a dance specialty that was appreciated by all. A social followed and refreshments were on sale.

Tragic Event at M. C. I.

Sam Farwell Devours "Doc" Moulton's Pie.

An unusual occurence took place Nov. 13. when Sam Farwell of Unity, a Senior at M. C. I., greedily ate not only his own but also "Doc" Moulton's pie.

For a few minutes it looked as if Farwell's good looks were in danger of being marred, but Mrs. Healey, with her usual tact, intervened, and peace was restored when she, knowing "Doc's" fondness for peaches, (of all kinds) promised him a double portion for supper.

Thru the good work of Mrs. Healey, the faculty now feels quite sure that nothing of the kind will ever be attempted here again.

Mr. Pierce (In Algebra) : I won't give you very hard work this week; no home work.

Laura Lucas: Pass the good news around to the rest of the teachers.

Vivienne Rogers: Do whisper it to Miss Churchill and Mr. Sidelinger.

Walter Moses: You'd have to holler to make them hear it.

Miss Lougee (In Class Meeting) : Mr. Emery, we want your statistics for the "Trumpet."

Mr. Emery: I've passed them in twice.

Miss Lougee: Then they must have gone down with the rest of the jokes.

"We know what we are, but not what we may be."

(Seniors.)

How green and yet how fresh in this old world.

(Freshmen)

Love is to the moral nature what the sun is to the earth.

(Whitten and Palmer)

Like the ivy on the tree,
Cling to me and I'll cling to thee.

(Williamson and Emery)

Variety alone gives joy; the sweetest meats the soonest cloy.

(J. Staples.)

And still they gazed and still the wonder grew,
That one small head could carry all she knew.

Ermine Gray.

Athene's highest ambition is to be as "meek as Moses."

There are metres in verse
And metres in stone;
But the best of all metres
Is to meet Her alone.

Francis Staples.

Eva Carle: "Can a person be punished for something they haven't done?"

Miss Churchill: "Certainly not."

Eva: "Well, I haven't done my French."

We're not the waiters,
Nor the old waiters' sons,
But we'll sling the hash,
Till the old waiters come.

L. Dwelley.

Freshman: "I want to do my own work."

Sophomore: "I wonder if I've got that right."

Junior: "Say what's your answer?"

Senior: "Hey, let's copy that, will you?"

"Young in limbs; in judgment old."

Olive Taylor

Talk to him about Jacob's ladder and he would ask the number of steps.

Abbey Abbott

Abbey Abbott, "who thinks too little and talks too much."

Cyril Richards

Through life's dark road, her sordid way she wends, an incarnation of fat dividends.

Gertrude Davis.

"Too fair to worship,
Too divine to love."

Helen Harris.

Wit is the flower of imagination.

H. Matthews.

"There is a boy that's tall and slim,
Large of feet and long of limb."

"Nick" Carter

"Some day I expect to be a lawyer."

S. Lang.

A silent tongue shows a wise head.

E. Tiffany.

I love its giddy gurgle,
I love its fluent flow.
I love to wind my tongue up,
And I love to hear it go.

D. Getchell.

"Speech is silver, silence is gold."

Ruth Chase.

"Great oaks from little acorns grow."

Peter Simmons.

I am resolved to grow fat and look young 'till forty.

D. Jones

Self-praise is no recommendation.

C. Day.

Could I love less I should be happier.

V. Cookson.

Never idle a moment, but thrifty and thotful of others.

H. Harris

See how sickly looking, deathly pale and thin,
Overwork and study are surely killing him.

Doc. Moulton.

Silently, one by one, in the notebooks of the teachers,
Blossom the lovely zeros, the forget-me-notes of the Seniors.

Apologies to Longfellow.

They think too little who talk too much.

D. Getchell.

Common sense is the knack of seeing things as they are, and doing things as they ought to be done.

E. Tiffany.

Full well they laughed with most unseemly glee
At all his jokes, for many a joke had he.

I. Friend.

A little learning is a dangerous thing.

E. Field

C. French—"Say, Dan, I wish I had your tongue."

Getchell, (indifferently)—"It wouldn't do you any good unless I gave you my brains."

"Hook" Moses had a chew of gum,
He chewed it long and slow;
And everywhere that "Hook" went
The gum was sure to go.
It followed him to school one day,
Which was against the rule.
Miss Churchill took it away from him,
And chewed it after school.

A boy stood on the burning deck,
His brain was in a whirl,
His eyes and mouth were full of hair,
His arms were full of girl.

Sam Farwell.

"Ikey" had a little Ford,
Its praises he would prattle,
And everywhere that "Ikey" went
The Ford was sure to rattle.

Hm! That's no joke.

D. Sands: I got a note from Sam saying he would be over tonight as he was let off probation for saving Murray's bed.

D. Moulton: Gee! I wish I was lucky enough to find some one's bed afire!

Wallace Fogg (brutally): Women have no sense of humor anyhow.

H. Matthews: Oh, yes we have. The reason why we do not laugh at things we see is because we don't want to hurt their feelings.

Little daubs of powder
Little daubs of paint
Make Daisy's complexion
Look like what it ain't.

In Book-keeping. Mr. Sidelinger: "Mr. Fogg, which side of the board is your example on?"

Mr. Fogg (In deep thot): "On the debit side."

In Senior English, Miss Lougee: "Mr. Fitts, give a sentence containing a word incorrectly used."

Mr. Fitts: "I will see you in church."

Miss Lougee: "What does that mean, Mr. Fitts?"

Mr. Fitts: "That I will not see you for a long time."

In Review Math., Mr. Pierce: "Could anything ever cost minus three dollars?"

Lishness: "Sure, if I bought it wouldn't I be out three dollars?"

V. Rogers: Isn't it foggy out this morning?"
H. Matthews: Yes, but I like the fog (Fogg.)

Cyril to Carrie: May I see you home?
Carrie: Sure, I'll send you a picture of it.

We fear that Mr. Oldham is teaching his students bad customs. He recently told his Senior Debate Class to make all "dates as definite as possible."

The following notice was recently posted on the bulletin board:
"Deceased—Mr. Sidelinger. Funeral held in Reading Room, Monday." As it proved a false alarm, and Mr. Sidelinger himself appeared on the scene, this postscript was added: "Beloved, he has come to life again! Funeral postponed till later."

Barbara—"Speak not. The dead are buried here."
Sam—"Yes, love, but dead men tell no tales."

Mr. Sidelinger to students in arithmetic:
"Your work is absolutely wrong."
Student: "It is absolutely right."
Mr. S.: "My error."

Things We Would Like to See

The faculty in our places.
Meals come nearer together.
The chapel heated.
Friday night five times a week.
Less noise in the reading-room.
More explanation in the class room.
The letter "A" take the place of "D."
Mr. Shepard and Miss Hilton back.
Girls' Dressing room swept.
Some really good entertainments given by M. C. I.
The janitor ring the bell on time.
More members added to the M. C. I. orchestra.
The M. C. I. come out on time.
Livelier arguments in debate.
Longer vacations.
Class-rooms heated.
Final examinations abolished.

A is for Abbey so jolly and gay,
On any occasion he knows what to say.

B is for Bussell, the lass of renown,
And people all say she's the cutest in town.

C is for Chase, the silent and mute,
And as for the boys, she don't give a hoot.

D is for Daisy so slim and so spry,
She has her eye on a swell-lookin' guy.

E is for Effie, of stature so small,
But Jim maintains she's a dear little doll.

F is for Faculty, ferocious and fierce,
But the cream of the bluffers is the staid Howard Pierce.

G is for Getchell, "my son Dan,"
Some day we hope he'll be quite a man.

H is for Harris, the singer sublime;
From low G to high E with ease she will climb.

I is for Ikey, the tin Lizzie driver;
When his engine gets thirsty he tries to revive her.

J is for Jim, the young dandy so pert;
In all the town there's not such a flirt.

K is for Katherine, so slim and so tall;
From her great height she might take a fall.

L is for Little, the faculty rusher;
Over some of the teachers she's a regular gusher.

M is for Moore, which all of them want;
The reading room at ten is her regular haunt.

N is for "nothing" which all of us know,
But for all that we are not quite so slow.

O is for Olive, the Peltoma Taylor;
Some fine day she'll tie up with a sailor.

P is for Palmer, Ruth's favorite young charmer;
Twenty years hence he'll be a great farmer.

Q is for "Questions" which everyone asks;
To answer them all would be quite a task.

R is for Roya', the janitor spry.
To see him maneuver would sure make you sigh.

S is for Sidelinger, also for Sam;
But for them both we could give quite a slam.

T is for Tiffany, the "shark" of the class;
But with all his brains he has little brass.

U is for "Useless," Roy's football name;
It has often been cheered at many a game.

V is for Verna which comes next to Pease;
Of good things to eat her favorite is cheese.

W is for Wallace, who is seen thru a fog;
These cold mornings he croaks like a frog.

X is for X-cellent, an unknown word
At M. C. I. so seldom 'tis heard.

Y stands for "you," the reader you see,
Don't you care what a fool "I be."

Z stands for zero which shows up our fame,
The harder we try; it's always the same.

V. R., '19.
