TRUMPET

The Trumpet
Published by the
Class of 1931
Maine Central Institute
Pittsfield, Maine.

Dedicated to

Alice Webster Sinclair

Class Adviser

Fate was kind when Mrs. Sinclair entered our midst in the fall of 1929 to assume the task of supervising the Class of '31 during their remaining years at M. C. I.

It is with the greatest of pleasure that we take this opportunity to express our appreciation for the faithful service which she has rendered the members of the Senior Class.

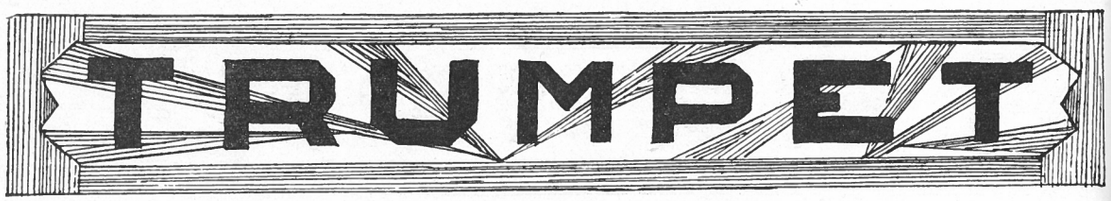

"So, when my tongue would speake her praises due,
It stopped is with thoughts astonishment;
And, when my pen would write her titles true,
It ravisht is with fancies wonderment.
Yet in my hart I then both speake and write
The wonder that my wit cannot endite."

—Spenser.

TRUMPET

ALICE WEBSTER SINCLAIR

Foreword

This volume commemorates in a fitting manner the individual accomplishments of the Class of 1931, and is an enduring record of the achievements and misfortunes, the gratifications and disappointments which characterize this past year. It is hoped that this Trumpet may serve to keep for ever alive the memory of these, our undergraduate days.

EDNA FRANCES BAILEY

Steep Falls, Me.

Trumpet Board; Girl Reserves (4).

Among the new girls to enter our class in the fall of '30 was Edna. To see her at school one would think her to be quiet and demure, but just ask one of the dorm Seniors!

CECIL M. CATES

Thorndike, Me. "Cates"

Sophomore Prize Speaking; M. C. I. Board; Manson Prize Speaking, Honorable Mention; Trumpet Board, Assistant Editor-in-chief; Manager One-Act Plays; Business Manager Senior Play; First Honor Essay; Baseball (3-4); Manager Basketball (4).

Cecil is a very popular fellow on M. C. I.'s campus. He translates many difficult passages for English students and solves problems in Math. Besides standing high in scholastic rank, he has taken part in many school activities. The class of '31 wishes you the best of success in life, Cecil.

INEZ I. CIANCHETTE

Pittsfield, Me. "Billie"

Freshman Prize Speaking; Alumni Prize Speaking; One-act play (3); M. C. I. Staff (3); Trumpet Board (4); Senior Play; Class History; Baseball (3).

"Billie" is a girl whose highest ambition is to be able to ride in her Ford, "Gilmore", with a large moon over her head. "Billie" also has other ambitions as she always has her studies perfectly. She always has a smile for everyone, even on rainy days. Here's luck to you, "Billie".

RUTH CLARK

Plymouth, Me. "Ruthie"

Girl Reserves (4); M. C. I. Staff (3); Girls' "M" Club (4); Hockey (4); Trumpet Board (4); Manson Prize Speaking Alternate.

"Ruthie" proves that the old proverb, "The best things are done up in small packages", is absolutely correct. We, as a class, wonder why "Ruthie" is always so noisy; but the class of '31 wishes you success in whatever you undertake, Ruthie.

EDWIN S. COLLAMORE

Pittsfield, Me. "Eddie"

Freshman Prize Speaking; Freshman Bible Prize; Alumni Prize Speaking; First Prize in Manson Prize Speaking; Business Manager M. C. I.; Business Manager Trumpet; Vice President (3); Class Oration (4).

We don't know what our class would have done without Edwin to manage the business affairs. "Eddie" is very industrious and is sure to succeed in a big way in some business.

CHARLES W. CLOUTIER

Lewiston, Me. "Charlie"

Football (3-4); "M" Club (4); Orchestra (3-4); Ice Hockey (4).

"Charlie" is our class entertainer. Besides being a good musician he has helped the school in athletics and many other activities. Some day we expect to hear that "Charlie" is playing for Rudy Vallee and his Connecticut Yankees.

GRACE COOKSON

Pittsfield, Me. "Gracie"

Orchestra (1-2-3-4).

Shy? Bashful? Maybe, but "Gracie" is a true friend and a faithful worker. These qualities are sure to make you successful in anything you undertake, "Gracie".

RUSSELL CURRIER

Skowhegan, Me. "Russ"

Track (4).

"Russ" is O. K. in school work and activities but some force attracts him to Skowhegan for the week-ends. The class of '31 wishes you luck, "Russ".

STANLEY P. DONALDSON

Etna, Maine "Stan"

Freshman Prize Speaking, First Prize; Alumni Prize Speaking, First Prize; Lyford Prize Speaking (3); Manager Baseball (4); Debating (3); Football (3); One-act Play (4); Class Will (4).

"Stan" is one of the few hard-working members of the Senior class. When there is work to be done, he is the first to volunteer. He is not only an industrious worker but he stands high in the esteem of fellowmen, teachers, and the fair sex. We hope that you will be as successful at Maine as you were at M. C. I., "Stan".

FLORENCE MAXINE DOW

Old Town, Me. "Mack"

Hiking (3-4); Track (3-4); Volley Ball (4); Baseball (3-4).

Here's to "Mack" our baseball pitcher, piano player, and volley ball star. She came to us in the fall of '29, quiet and demure—but lo and behold! What a change one year has made! Never mind "Mack", speech is Silva, and who wants gold, anyway!

GERALD ELLSWORTH

Auburn, Maine "Jerry"

Football (4); Basketball (4); Track (4); Boys' "M" Club (4).

"Jerry" is a small boy but has a very loud voice. He believes that small boys should not be seen, but heard. "Jerry" is a fine fellow, liked by all, especially the fair sex of the Sophomore class. May success be yours in whatever you undertake, "Jerry".

MARJORIE FARNHAM

Shirley, Maine "Marj"

Manson Prize Speaking (3); Girl Reserves (3-4); Volley Ball (4); Hiking (2-4); Hockey (3); Baseball (3-4); Tennis (3-4); Student Government Board (3).

Marjorie has been a member of the class of '31 for four years, and although she will leave us as quietly as she came, we are proud to claim her as a member.

ALFRED W. FULLER

Pittsfield, Me. "Al"

Class President (1-2); Freshman Prize Speaking; Alumni Prize Speaking; Senior Class Play; Trumpet Board; Valedictorian.

Everybody knows Alfred as a little genius who is full of fun. We know he had a hard duel of wits with Mrs. Henderson, but the class enjoyed it. Next year Alfred is going to Maine, where we are sure he will do as well as he has done at M. C. I.

CLARICE GARCELON

Troy, Me.

Manson Prize Speaking, First Prize; Girl Reserves (2-3-4); National Honor Society (3); Volley Ball (4); Hiking (2-3); Baseball (3-4); Hockey (1-4).

Clarice came to us four years ago, a very quiet and bashful young lady, but she has shown us what she can do in Prize Speaking as well as in Math.

VINCENT L. HATHORN

Pittsfield, Me. "Vinnie"

Track (1-2-3); Captain (4); Class President (3); Editor-in-chief Trumpet; M. C. I. Staff (3); One-act Play (4); Senior Play; Second Honor Essay.

"Vinnie" is one of the best all-around fellows we know. He belongs to that class who are bound to succeed in whatever they tackle. We wish you plenty of success in aeronautics, "Vin".

IRIS HUBBARD

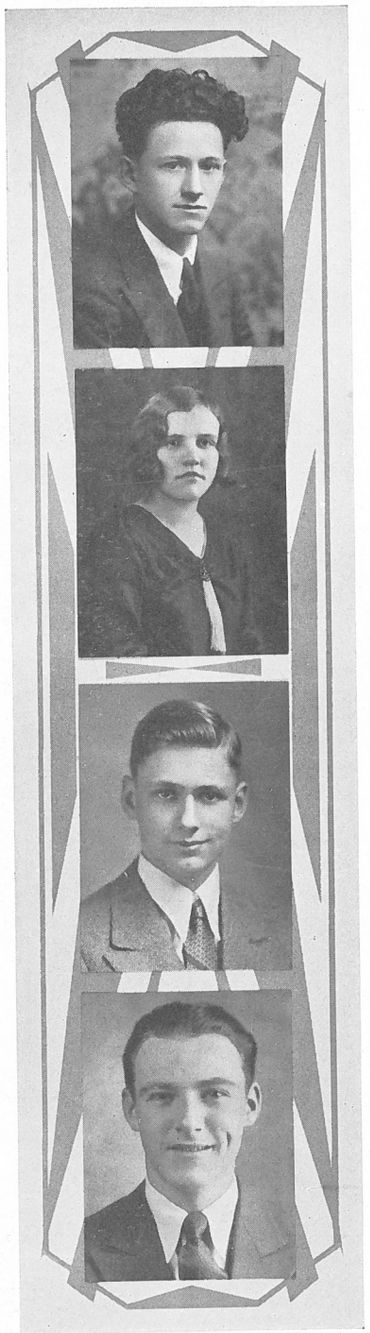

Newport, Me. "Hubbie"

Hockey (3-4); Dean's Council (3-4); Student Government Board (3); Class Marshal (3); M. C. I. Staff (3); Glee Club (3); Baseball Captain (3); Basketball (4); Senior Play; Girls' "M" Club (4).

Although "Hubbie" has been with us only two years she has become famous for originating many things, especially midnight parties at the "Dorm". "Hubbie" is going to be a nurse, and we know she will be as successful, as in everything she has tried. The class of '31 wishes you luck, "Hubbie".

TRUMPET

PHILLIP HUFF

Pittsfield, Me. "Phil"

Track (3-4); Baseball (1-2); "M" Club (3); Alumni Prize Speaking.

"Phil" is a quiet, studious (?) lad, small in stature but what a mind he has. "Phil", if you progress in college the way you have at M. C. I., we feel sure that you will get away with a lot—of what (?). The class of '31 wishes you the best of luck and may you succeed in your life work.

NINA M. HUMPHREY

Pittsfield, Me. "Blondie"

Orchestra (1-2-3-4); Sophomore Prize Speaking; M. C. I. Concerts (1-2-3-4); Basketball (4); Baseball (4); Volley Ball (4); Hockey (4).

Although Nina is very fond of taking trips to a nearby city, she is always willing to help with the music for our school activities. We don't know if Nina will become a famed violinist, but whatever you attempt, Nina, may you always have success.

WILLIAM HUNNEWELL

Madison, Me. "Bill"

Basketball Manager (4); Track (4); Boys' "M" Club (4); Trumpet Board.

If one should see a big smile around on the campus, or hear the strains from a Harmonica, he would be sure to see or hear "Bill". If you continue doing the same after leaving M. C. I. as you have been doing, "Bill", we are certain that you will soon reach the top of whatever you may attempt to do.

JAMES GERARD KING

Danvers, Mass. "Jerry"

Football (4); Track (4).

"Jerry" is known as Charlie Chaplin, Jr., or as the class comedian. That's O. K. "Jerry"; go right along as the class of '31 have certainly enjoyed your charming entertainments and wish you a bright future.

TRUMPET

DOMINIQUE LA CHANCE

Lewiston, Me. "Dom"

Football (4); "M" Club (4); One-act Play (4); Senior Play; Track (4); Ice Hockey (4); Class Committee; Trumpet Board; Class Prophecy.

Into our midst from Lewiston came this dashing and debonair young man. He certainly lived up to his reputation as a football player, giving everything he had for M. C. I. "Dom" is conscientious and means only to do his best. Dom can be found any evening at 5.30 at the girls' "Dorm"; maybe he is acquainted with a girl by the name of James.

LOUISE EUGENIA LAGORIO

Pittsfield, Me.

Hockey (1-2-3), Captain (4); Basketball (2-3), Captain (4); Girl Reserves (1-2); "M" Club (3-4); Class Marshal (2).

Louise entered M. C. I. with the class of '31. During the four years she has been a loyal member of her class and as a player on athletic teams, she has been a real inspiration. In everything Louise has undertaken she has succeeded. Best of luck from the class of '31, Louise.

BEATRICE IRENE LAWRENCE

Palmyra, Me. "Bee"

Manson Prize Speaking.

This is the genial "Bee". Quiet and studious with an aptitude for shorthand and typing and with the determination to commercialize her talents.

WINNIFRED MAE LEE

Albion, Me. "Winnie"

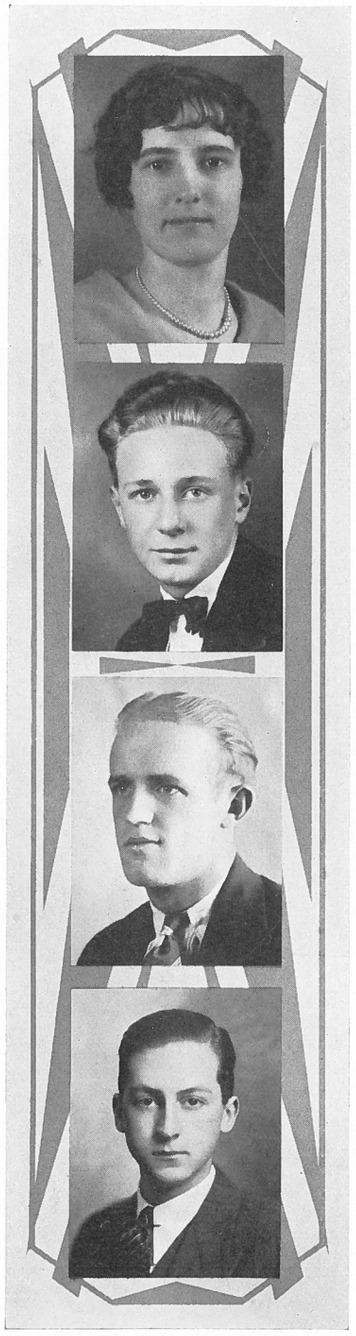

Freshman Prize Speaking; Hockey (3); Manson Prize Speaking, Honorable Mention; Basketball (3); Girls' "M" Club (3-4); Senior Play; Volley Ball (4); Third Honor Essay.

"Winnie the Winner."

Winning an honor part, also honors along dramatic and school activities makes the above a fitting sobriquet.

TRUMPET

PHYLLIS EMMA LONG

Palmyra, Me. "Phil"

Although Phyllis has been with us for four years, we have not been able to discover any of her plans for the future. But whatever they may be, "Phil", the class of '31 wishes you the best of luck.

LEWIS J. MANN

West Paris, Me. "Louie"

Among the new members to join our class in the fall of '30 was "Louie". In the short time that he has been with us, he has made himself very popular with the students by his ready humor. The class of '31 wishes you success in whatever you may attempt, "Louie".

ROY MILLIGAN

Danvers, Mass.

Football ('27-'31); Baseball ('27-'31); "M" Club ('27); President of "M" Club ('30-'31); Ice Hockey; Track; Address to Undergraduates.

Roy believes that to study is a waste of time, and he wants to know why bother to study when everyone is willing to lend their knowledge? He is a good athlete and has been a leader in all activities at M. C. I. The class of '31 wishes you the best of success and hope you will never overwork your brain, Roy.

ROBLEY W. MORRISON

Norway, Me. "Bob", "Morrie"

Senior Play; Class Marshal (4).

"Bob" is a very popular member with the fair sex. We wonder if it is his sparkling features that win their hearts. He is a talented young man in Dramatics besides being popular in school activities. Best of luck, "Bob".

TRUMPET

FRANK MORSE

Bangor, Me. "Morsie"

Orchestra (4); Track Manager (4).

Here is a quiet, calm, earnest worker. He is talented along musical lines and has been of great help at our school dances and socials.

LEONARD C. NEAL

Danvers, Mass. "Ted"

Class President (4); Football (30), Captain ('31); Baseball (3-4); "M" Club Treasurer (4); Vice-President of Glee Club (3); Ice Hockey (4).

"Ted" is our class president. He is a fine fellow and is looked up to by his schoolmates and the faculty. He stands high in scholastic rank and in athletics. As a leader he has proved his worth in the past year. The Senior Class certainly owes you much credit for the work you have done for them and all join in wishing you a bright and prosperous future.

STANLEY PARSONS

Burnham, Me. "Stan"

Stanley is one of the famous Burnhamites, who have traveled thousands of miles to obtain a high school education. He has the reputation of having spent more time with a certain person than he has spent in the classrooms, while at M. C. I.

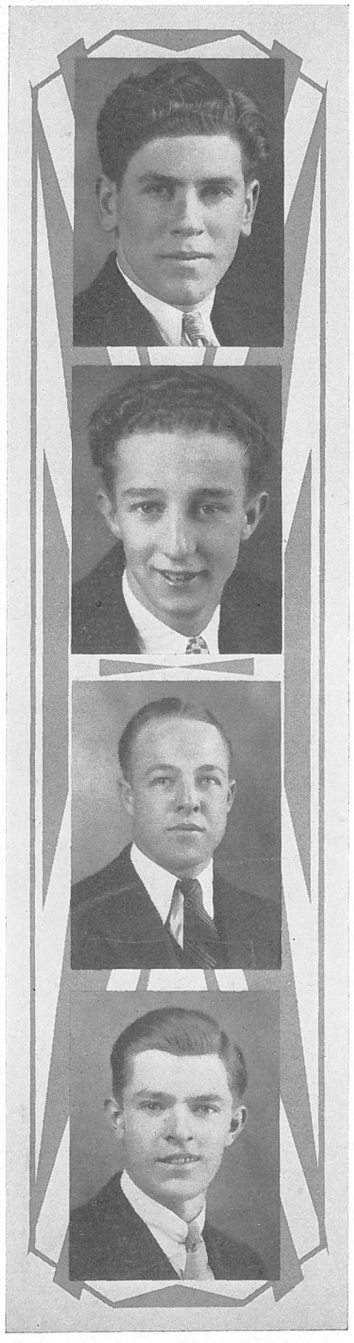

DANIEL R. PHILLIPS

Shirley, Me. "Dan"

Class Vice President (2-4); Track; National Honor Society (3).

"Dan" entered M. C. I. with the class of '31 and has been a dependable and helpful member through the four years. His promptness in ringing the bell for classes assures us Dan's future will hold every success. Best wishes, Dan, from the class of '31.

TRUMPET

FRANKLIN E. PRESCOTT

Bingham, Me. "Frankie", "Swat"

Cheer Leader (4); Orchestra (4); Track (4); Baseball (4).

If one were to start listing Frankie's talents it would certainly take an entire page. If there are any more in Bingham like you, "Frankie", we'll always welcome them to M. C. I.

KENNETH SARGENT

Bangor, Me. "Ken"

Football; Baseball; "M" Club; Track; Freshman Prize Speaking; Class Gifts; "M" Club Play.

"Ken" is a live wire when speaking of reading magazines, or short stories, and in athletics. But one puzzle to us is why he hates to overwork his brain. "Ken" intends to go to Maine, and we all join in wishing him the best of success.

HARRY S. SKILLINGS

Harrison, Me. "Skilly"

Football (4); Track (4); Baseball (3); "M" Club; Senior Play.

"Skilly" has a great many friends at M. C. I. Why? Because he is good-natured, willing to work, and he is a friend to everyone. One of the mysteries at M. C. I. is whether Harry plans to go to college or reside at the Girls' Dormitory.

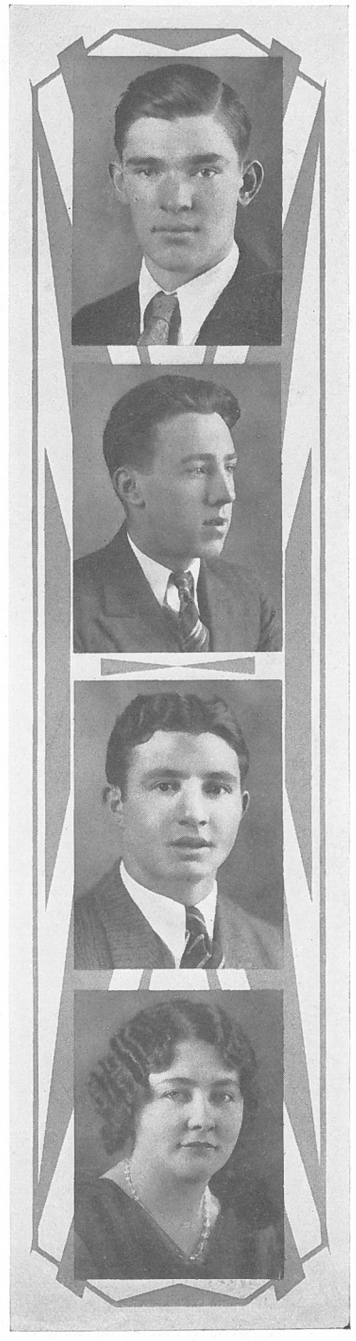

MILES SNOWMAN

Pittsfield, Maine "Mike"

Manson Prize Speaking (3); Track (4); M. C. I. Staff (3); One-act Play (3); Third Honor Essay.

"Mike" is a quiet type of fellow who usually does more thinking in the classroom than talking. Like "Pres" he has engineering ambitions, and we know he'll make good.

TRUMPET

PRESTON W. SNOWMAN

Pittsfield, Me. "Pres"

M. C. I. Staff (3); Trumpet Board; Track (4); Salutatory.

Although "Pres" would rather study out a tough problem in mathematics than eat his dinner, he has no love for studying history. His mathematical inclination ought to be a big factor in boosting him into the engineering world. The class of '31 wishes you luck, "Pres".

RALPH H. SPAULDING

Pittsfield, Maine.

Football; Baseball; "M" Club; Senior Play.

Every class has its natural-born joke manufacturer, and Ralph gets the decision for the class of '31. But don't let anyone tell you this is not a desired quality, Ralph, for it will make you popular wherever you go.

VIRGIL VALICENTI

East Weymouth, Mass. "Chick"

Football (4); One-act Play (4); "M" Club (4); Baseball (4); Track (4).

Maybe you don't know this young man, but it is none other than "Chick" Valicenti of Weymouth; also one of the most popular and well-liked fellows in the class of '31. He plays football like an "Albie" Booth, and yet in the classroom he is a very good student. "Chick" is what you might call versatile as well as amorous. Isn't that so, Gwen?

RUTH HATFIELD WILEY

Pittsfield, Me. "Ruthie"

Class Treasurer (1-2-3-4); Alumni Prize Speaking; One-act Play; Senior Play.

"Ruthie" entered the class in the fall of '27, and she has been our treasurer for four years. She has served us faithfully and done her duties very well. The class of '31 wishes you luck, Ruthie".

TRUMPET

FRANCES COLE

Pittsfield, Maine "Fran"

Orchestra (1-2-3); Sophomore Prize Speaking; Manson Prize Speaking; One-act Play (4); Senior Play.

Frances' one ambition is to be somebody's stenographer. Well, Frances, you certainly are making a good start. Keep on and you'll soon leave this small town far behind to take your place in the business world.

CHARLES E. HANSON

Presque Isle, Maine "Charlie"

Charles is the boy from the great potato country. You certainly did boost Aroostook in that debate in English, Charlie.

HELEN AVIS HUMPHREY

Pittsfield, Maine

Sophomore Prize Speaking, Honorable Mention; Class Secretary (1-2-3-4); Editor-in-chief of the M. C. I.; One-act Play (3); Class Prophecy.

Helen has been our secretary for four years. Perhaps it was her legible hand writing, or maybe it was her ability to note things quickly, that was responsible for her valuable assistance to the Senior Class. We hope that you will be as successful in your future life, Helen, as you were at M. C. I.

GUY S. SEDGWICK

Pittsfield, Maine "Duke"

Football.

We have heard rumors that Guy knows more about old Fords than any other two boys in school. We don't doubt this for he has owned more "crates" while at M. C. I. than we have the patience to recollect. '31 wishes you the best of luck, Guy.

TRUMPET

EVELYN MAE WILLETTE

Pittsfield, Me.

Her studiousness, quietness and loyalty have won her a place in the hearts of her teachers and classmates. They will also win her a place in future life. The class of '31 wishes you success in whatever you attempt, Evelyn.

KENNETH E. YOUNG

Shirley, Me. "Ken"

Alumni Prize Speaking; Manson Prize Speaking; Track; M. C. I. Staff (3); Winter Carnival Sports; Class Chaplain (4).

Here is a boy who hails from the wilds of Shirley. He is a very quiet and studious fellow. He has always done his best in making the Senior Class activities a success. "Music hath its charms, so thinketh Young, as he yodels his way across the campus." May a successful future be yours, "Ken".

DONALD GLEASON

Newport, Maine "Don"

Donald, we hear the army is your objective, but as a class we feel that you are making a mistake, for law should be your vocation. The Senior Debates surely have proved this without a question of doubt. We wonder if you get your inspiration from "The Smith Hand Book".

RUFUS HAGERTHY

Sedgwick, Maine "Rip"

Only those who are well acquainted with Rufus appreciate him fully. Rufus is one of those fellows who keep pushing along in spite of difficulties. Remember, Rufus, you have the class of '31 behind you.

GEORGIA ANN MacDONALD

Pittsfield, Maine "Georgia"

Class Marshal.

Georgia came to us from Deering and with her those winsome charms. Although she has been with us only a year she has won the respect and admiration of all her classmates. Just what are these laughable secrets you tell Ronnie in English class, Georgia?

MARION JOAN ROBINSON

Westbrook, Maine "Ronnie"

Senior Play; One-act Play; Girl Reserves; Volley Ball.

"Ronnie"—our little "Will-of-the-wisp"—but only those who know you best realize just how much of a poetic genius you really are. We are proud of you and feel sure that some day you will bring honor to the class of 1931. Don't disappoint us, Ronnie.

JOHN D. SPRINGER

Danforth, Maine "John D."

Football; Baseball; Basketball; Track; "M" Club.

Springer, a man of few friends, but Oh what a friend. For facts ask Hughie Dickenson or other intimates. But John has been an object of admiration of the fair sex, especially at those thrilling moments when he reached out a long arm and placed the ball in the basket.

The Sophomores have already made a name for themselves in the activities of the school. Great things are expected of the Sophomores and the Class of '31 feels certain that they will live up to expectations.

Class Ode

(Tune—The Bells of St. Mary's)

Our ship is at anchor—the school days are done.
We're now in the harbor nineteen thirty-one.
Rough seas have been only calm inlets and bays,
And treasures, the pleasures of happy school days.
But now on the great sea of life we are starting,
The sails are unfurling—the tide rises high.
Though happy the voyage, we're sorry we're parting
With teachers, school days, friends
And dear old M. C. I.
Now out on the great sea of life we are starting,
We see but the calm waves and the cloudless blue sky.
But now, Alma Mater, the times comes for parting
And hearts all beat as one to bid you fond good-bye.

The M. C. I. Board

The M. C. I. attempted to circulate its columns of interest to all classes of the school as well as to record the important events of the school year for its many interested readers.

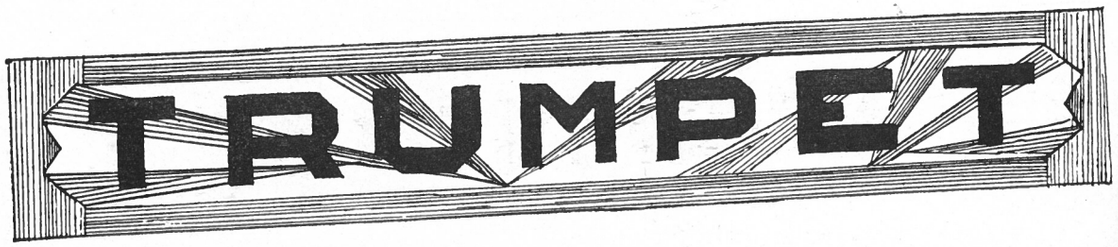

A free-for-all column has solicited the opinions of the student body and various articles have been printed.

Under the leadership of Miss Main, the Board has tried to make this year's paper more successful than ever. Their efforts have not been without results for every loyal M. C. I. student eagerly scans the paper from cover to cover in order that he may not miss an item. What more favorable comment can be made!

Chapel Programs

This year, with the introduction of added music and speakers, our chapel periods have become very popular with both the faculty and students.

Following the tradition at M. C. I., Thursday mornings have been reserved for orchestra music.

In January the school was privileged to hear Mr. Roger Nye of Fairfield, sing. Since then, Mr. Nye has been with us every Tuesday morning to conduct singing in chapel.

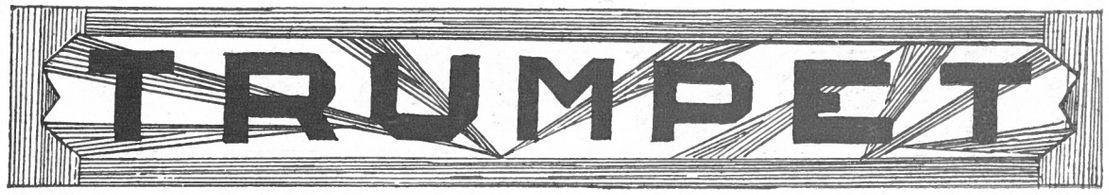

On October 16th, M. C. I. participated in the world-wide celebration of the 2000th anniversary of the birth of the poet Virgil. Dean Ernest Marriner of Colby College, as representative of the Phi Beta Kappa Honorary Society, spoke in chapel, presenting the school with an attractively bound volume of Representative Phi Beta Kappa Orations.

The annual visit of Dr. Allyn K. Foster of Chicago, student secretary of the Northern Baptist Convention, was enjoyed by both faculty and students. His talks have always been real food for thought, and this year was no exception.

President Harold S. Boardman of the University of Maine spoke on the value of a Higher Education, stressing the fact that our four Maine Colleges offer excellent opportunities for graduates of Maine schools.

President Gray of Bates told the student body that success could be obtained by the person who possessed three things: a true prospective of his job, himself, and the world in which he lived.

Other chapel speakers were: Dean Hart and Professor Evans of U. of M., George Parks of Providence, and Mr. Lyseth of the State Department of Education.

Junior-Senior Bazaar

The annual Junior-Senior Bazaar was held in Powers Hall November 22. The hall was decorated to represent several nations including Japan, Czecho-Slavakia, Holland, Chile, Germany, France and America.

In the afternoon music was furnished by Cargill's Musical Winners, consisting of Geraldine Cargill, Eloise McCully and Virginia Wright.

Many useful and beautiful things were displayed at the Japanese booth. The girls in charge wore very attractive Oriental costumes.

Embroidery and fancy work of all kinds were sold from the booth representing Czecho-Slavakia. Dainty French maidens sold candy and sweets, galore. Others sold cakes, cookies, pickles, and jams.

An M. C. I. pillow and a quilt made by the Juniors and Seniors were sold on chance numbers. These chance games are always very interesting and well patronized.

Many stopped with the lassies of the United States and enjoyed a light lunch, which was attractively served. The booth itself was very fittingly decorated with colors of red, white and blue.

In the evening at eight o'clock, dancing was enjoyed. Music was furnished by an orchestra which included Mrs. Brown, piano; Nina Humphrey, violin; Charles Cloutier, saxophone; Hartley Eaton, trumpet; and Frank Prescott, drums. Between the dances an entertainment was given. Marguerite Tozer, chairman of the committee, arranged a splendid program:

Exhibition Dance	Phyllis Wood, Katherine James
Song and Dance	Marguerite Tozer, Mabel Warren
A Drill	Kathryn Elias, Georgia MacDonald Viola Stafford, Helen Bailey Margaret Garrity, Geraldine Cargill
Acrobatic Dance	Nelda Soper

One-Act Plays

On November 22, the Juniors and Seniors presented their annual one-act plays. These plays were well supported and enjoyed by everyone.

The first play, "Not on the Program", was composed of the following characters:

Mrs. Whitney	Frances Cole
Ophelia	Ruth Staples
Erastus	Stanley Kimball
Mr. Fielding	Leamon McFarland
Mrs. Jones	Jeanette Young

The second play, "Flowers for Flossie", consisted of:

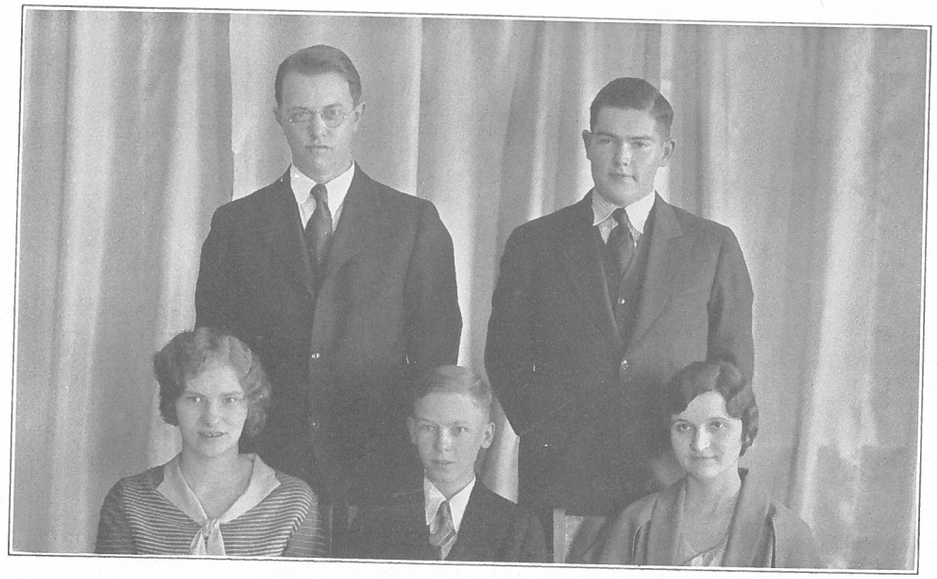

Richard Weatherby	Virgil Valicenti
Jack Tromley	Walter Casey
Mrs. O'Brien	Abbie Gallagher
Ephraim	Stanley Donaldson
Aunt Elizabeth	Catherine Stratton

The third play, "The Wedding Gift", consisted of:

Bob Gordon	Vincent Hathorn
Carrie Gordon	Marion Robinson
Jim Dixon	Alfred Fuller

Music was furnished by the M. C. I. Orchestra, under the direction of Mrs. Sanger Cook.

Debating Team

The debating teams, under the supervision of Mr. Cook, have worked hard on the question: Resolved: That Chain Stores are Detrimental to the Best Interests of the American Public. The negative team, consisting of Eunice Reed and Virginia Wright, were victorious in the preliminary debate against Hebron by a 2-1 decision; while the affirmative represented by William Coffin and Francis Lillie, also won over the Big Green. Eunice Reed and William Coffin were judged the best speakers.

In the second debate the negative side was defeated by Houlton 2-1, and the affirmative lost to Buckfield by the same score. Since none of these students are in the graduating class, M. C. I. looks forward to a successful year in 1932.

The Winter Carnival

The 1931 Winter Carnival proved to be the best yet. Saturday, January 7, was a cold, snappy day, but everyone was eager to enter some event and show what he or she could do.

Out of a cloud of snow kicked up by flying snowshoes, came Stanley Donaldson, winner of the first event. Following close upon this event came Ruthie Webber, who proved her usual skill as winner of the Girls' Cross Country Race.

The Boys' Ski contest was close, but as Ken Young hails from the Northland, of course, there was no question of anyone else's winning the race.

The other events taking place in the forenoon were as follows:

Girls' 1 Mile Snowshoe Race	Helen Bailey
Boys' Combination Relay	West Side
Girls' Combination Relay	Girls' Dormitory
Boys' 100 yd. Snowshoe Dash	Harry Skillings
Girls' 75 yd. Ski Dash	Ruth Webber
Boys' 100 yd. Ski Dash	Harry Skillings
Girls' 75 yd. Snowshoe Dash	Ruth Webber
Boys' Obstacle Race	Harry Skillings

After a hearty dinner and a short period of rest the afternoon's events opened with a 100 yd. Skate Dash, won by Charles Cloutier. The other events were as follows:

Girls' 75 yd. Skate Dash	Helen Bailey
Boys' 1 Mile Skate	Vincent Hathorn
Girls' 880 yd. Skate	Edith Hoffses

The last contest of the day was the Hockey game between the dormitory and the town boys. This is the first time that a hockey game has been played at a carnival at M. C. I. After a long and exciting battle, it was won by the dormitory boys by a score of 13-1.

In the evening to complete a perfect day, a Carnival Hop was held at Powers Hall. During the course of the evening the Carl R. Smith trophy was presented to Harry Skillings, the captain of the West side of the dormitory, which had won the most points during the events of the day. All students placing in the events were presented with ribbons. Ruth Webber, who lead the dormitory girls to victory, received four blue ribbons.

Junior-Senior Reception

Who can forget the evening of February fourteenth—the much looked-forward-to event of the year?

The receiving line formed at eight o'clock and the happy how-do-you-do's began. In the line were: Harry Rowe, president of the Board of Trustees; Mrs. Rowe; Principal Edwin Purinton; Mrs. Purinton; Assistant Principal, Sanger Cook; Mrs. Cook; Mrs. Freeman, Dean; Mr. Sinclair; Mrs. Sinclair, Senior Class Adviser; Miss de Reynolds, Junior Class Adviser; Leonard Neal, Senior Class President; and Eunice Reed, President of the Junior Class.

The welcoming address was given by Eunice Reed, President of the Junior Class. The Senior Class President, Leonard Neal, responded. Mrs. Sinclair and Miss de Reynolds, the Senior and Junior Class Advisers, were presented with flowers by the Junior Class.

The hall was beautifully decorated with red and white streamers. Everyone enjoyed the gay party, dancing in and out among the bobbing paper hearts to the music of Larry's Bears Orchestra from the University of Maine.

The special selections of the evening were much enjoyed. Hartley Eaton of the Eastman School of Music, Rochester, New York, played a trumpet solo. Natalie Anderson, a toe-dancer from Bangor, entertained in a clever costume of harmonizing red and white. Roger Nye, a well-known singer, rendered several fine concert selections.

Everyone present was in a holiday mood and this added to the attractiveness of the occasion, making the annual event one long to be remembered.

Miss de Reynolds and her Juniors have the thanks and appreciation of the Senior Class and guests.

Senior Class Play

The class play produced annually by talented members of the Senior Class, is always an affair of intense interest. This year, a very clever drama entitled, "It Happened in Hollywood", was presented. All the characters of the cast performed their roles in an exceedingly satisfactory and commendable manner. Highest praise must be given to Harry Skillings, who interpreted the part of Jarvis, the butler, so skillfully that it became a role of art. Also, much credit is due to Miss de Reynolds, the play director, who has labored faithfully and unceasingly to make it a success.

CLUBS

Girl Reserves

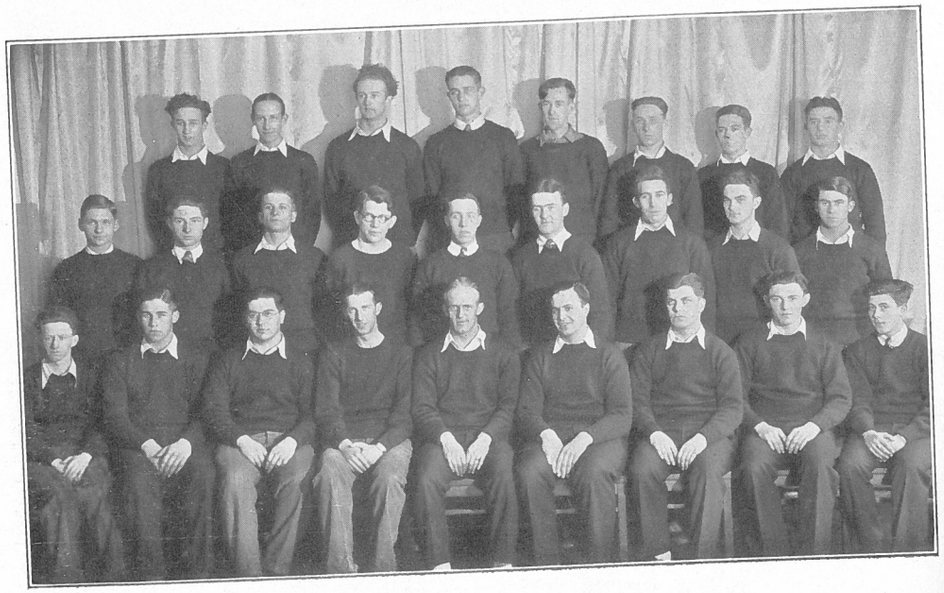

President	Eunice Reed
Vice President	Ruth Staples
Secretary	Jeanette Young
Treasurer	Marjorie Farnham
Adviser	Beulah Henderson

The Girl Reserves have had a very pleasant and successful year under the supervision of Mrs. Henderson.

The first big event of last fall was the Cabaret Dance sponsored by this organization. The dance was the first of its kind to be held at M. C. I. and many town people, as well as students, attended. A very interesting program was planned and dancing lasted throughout the evening.

At Christmas time the girls dressed dolls and distributed them, together with other toys, to some tiny tots in town.

An interesting project which was taken up this year was the making of scrapbooks. Each girl decided upon some particular hobby, such as poetry, music, entertainments, etc., and then planned her book accordingly.

Boys' "M" Club

President	Roy Milligan
Vice President	James Louder
Secretary	Daniel Phillips
Treasurer	Leonard Neal
Adviser	Roy U. Sinclair

The Boys' "M" Club is an organization made up of boys who have won their "M" in a major sport. They have established a place for themselves on the campus by sponsoring the annual Winter Carnival and other athletic events. Their dances and entertainments have added much to the social life of the students.

This year the boys purchased very attractive garnet blazers on which they wear their club insignia.

Girls' "M" Club

President	Ruth Staples
Secretary	Madge Stacy
Treasurer	Sarah Wren
Adviser	Alice Sinclair

The Girls' "M" Club is an organization consisting of those who have earned their letter in a major sport. This year the girls can be readily recognized by their new shiny gold pins in the form of an "M".

The purpose of this organization is to further the interests of the girls' athletics at M. C. I. This year, therefore, found the Club very busy sponsoring the inter-class activities which consisted of volley ball, basketball, track, baseball and tennis. Cooperating with the Boys' "M" Club, the girls also aided in the supervision of the annual Winter Carnival.

ATHLETICS

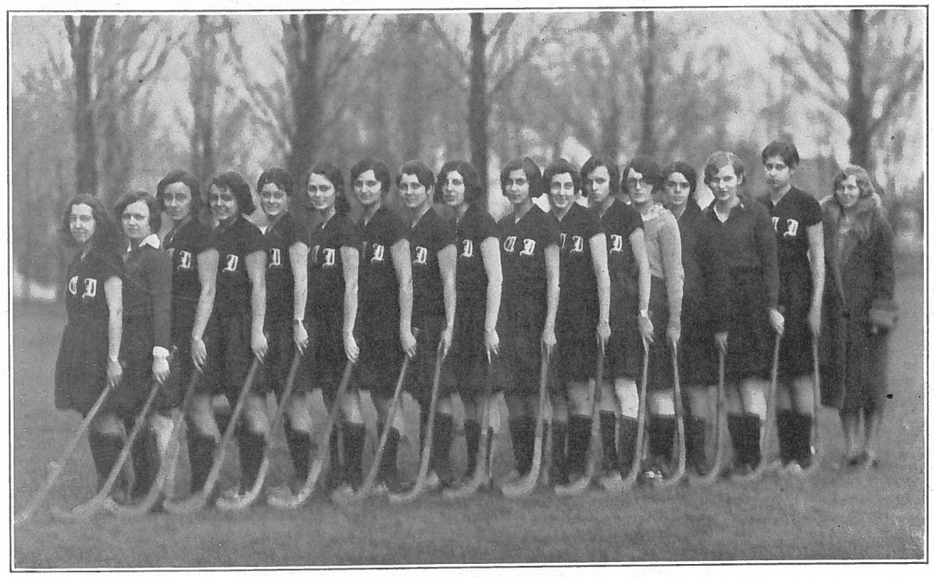

Football

Head Coach — Roy U. Sinclair
Assistant Coach — Russell A. Fitz
Captain — Leonard Neal
Manager — Arthur Roberts

M. C. I. had the most disastrous season in football that the school has had for many years. Starting the season with only one regular left from the preceding year, and with very few men of any experience, the team failed to score a single victory. However, the coaches feel that the season was not a total loss, as the experience gained by some of the men should help considerably next year.

The following men were awarded letters by the Athletic Council:
Ends: Captain Neal, Louder, Spaulding.
Tackles: Springer, Higgins, Smith.
Guards: LaChance, Reed, Cloutier, Boston.
Centers: Hackett, Burns.
Quarter Back: Sargent.
Half Backs: Kinney, Valicenti.
Full Back: Skillings.
Manager: Roberts.

Girls' Field Hockey

This year the Field Hockey Team made a fine record. With nine veterans as a nucleus, a team was organized which was able to win three of its five games, two of which the opponents scored zero.

Much credit should be given to the members of the squad for their faithfulness, and to their coach, Mrs. Sinclair, who diligently worked to make inexperienced players into an organized team. Graduation claims three girls, but the remainder look forward to even greater success next year.

For the first time in the history of M. C. I. the girls have had an athletic field of their own—one really worthy of being called a hockey field. This was made possible through the generosity of a very loyal alumnus, Mr. George Parks of Providence.

Girls' Basketball Team

The girls' team has had a very successful season in basketball, winning nine out of the twelve games played. The team was made up of Coach Sinclair's veterans of last year with some new players, and it has displayed fine work in both spirit and cooperation.

As only one player, Captain Lagorio, is a member of the graduating class, Coach Sinclair looks forward to another season of victories next year.

Boy's Basketball Team

The M. C. I. Boys' Basketball Team, contrary to expectations at the first of the year, has had a very successful season, winning nine out of thirteen games. Although they lost to Hebron and Bucksport on their home floor, all who witnessed these contests know that the teams were very evenly matched.

There were no outstanding stars on this year's club as the players all cooperated towards building up a winning team. Much credit must go to Coach Fitz for the hard work which he has put in this season.

The following men were awarded letters:

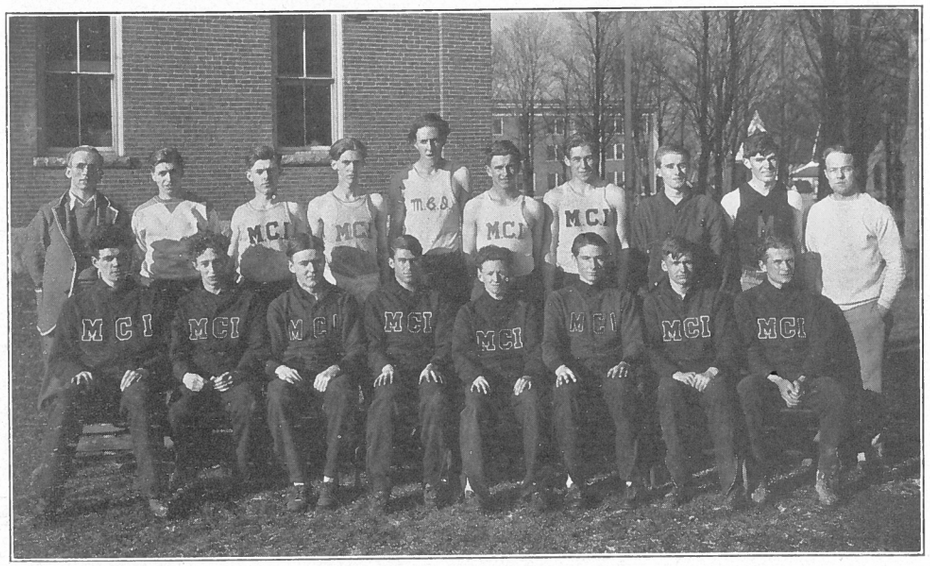

Brown, Laughton, Silva, Kimball, Springer, Burns, Kinney, Ellsworth, and Co-managers, Cates and Hunnewell.

Other players who saw service are:

Cobb, Bob Higgins and Whitehouse.

Track

Prospects for a winning track team this spring are not as bright as they have been the last few years. Last June some of the outstanding track athletes of the state graduated, leaving a nucleus of only five letter men for Coach Cook to work with this spring. However, he is working hard to develop a team that will uphold the reputation that M. C. I. has, Champions of the Preparatory School Conference.

Girls' Interclass Athletics

Last year the Girls' "M" Club, with the assistance of the women of the faculty, purchased a cup for girls' interclass sports, to be presented annually to the class winning the greatest number of points in athletics.

These sports included baseball, tennis, and track, the first place counting thirty points, second place twenty, the third, ten. The class having the greatest number of points in all the sports received the cup. Volley ball and basketball are two new sports which have been added this year.

Last year the class of '32 had the honor of heading the list on the cup. So far this year they, with two second positions, have tied with the class of '31 for the first place.

The class of '31 secured first place in Volley Ball, '32 second place, and '34 third place. In Basketball the class of '33 received first place, '32 second place, and '31 third place. There are still baseball, tennis, and track, which will determine the winner of the cup.

Adam had his troubles
No doubt in days of yore;
But no one said when he told a yarn,
I've heard that one before.

Mrs. Henderson—"They are now waging a vigorous campaign against Malaria.

Mann—"What have the Malarians done now?"

He—"I don't know the meaning of the word fear."

She—"Well, I wouldn't let a little word like that stump me, look it up in the dictionary."

Vi—"I'm sorry. No doubt you'll find some other girl who'll make you forget me."

Bill—"Oh! But I can never forget you!"

Vi—"Nonsense. You did it on my last birthday without any trouble at all."

When Lillie went to the mind readers, they only charged him half price.

Doctor—"I'm afraid I have bad news for you; you will never be able to work again."

Huff—"What do you mean, bad news?"

Frances Cole—"Is Pittsfield a good place for rheumatism?

Ruth Wiley—"Yes indeed, that's where I got mine."

Chick—"Well George, I told Gwen what I thought of her."

George—"What did she say?"

Chick—"She said she loved me, too."

George Cobb—"I got a new niblick and paid only $12.00 for it."
Ruth Webber—"Why didn't you pay a little more and buy a Buick?"

Coach: "Have you any football experience?"
Neal: "I've been hit by six trucks and a locomotive."

Joe Stevens—"Someone stole my car."
Chief Steen—"These antique sellers stop at nothing."

Lillie—"Have you heard the Tarzan song?"
Oscar—"Shoot it."
Lillie—"I'm dancing with Tarzan my eyes."

Mrs. Henderson—"My great-great grandfather was with George Washington when he took the hack at the cherry tree."

LaChance—"Huh, that's nothing. My great-great grandfather drove that hack."

Whitehouse—"Yes, I'm a big gun at school now."

Father—"Well, then, I'd like to hear some better reports from now on."

Mrs. Henderson—"How did you happen to fall down in your history test?"

Sargent—"Why, you asked me about things that happened before I was born."

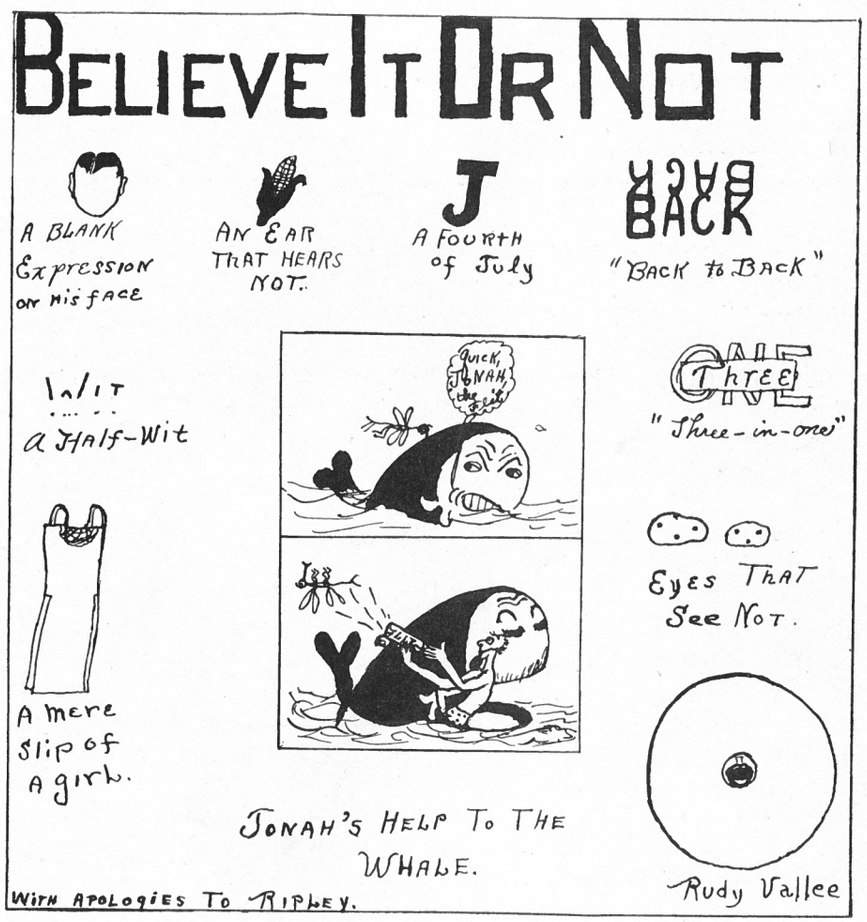

Louise Lagorio—"I was getting my dinner to-day and I burned my meat, what shall I do?"

Ruth Wiley: "Oh, I know. Mrs. Sinclair told us to put Unguentine on burns."

What every Prep school boy needs is an unbreakable father.

Morse—"What is a Bank Draft?"

King—"When the bank door is left open."

THE AMAZING INTERLUDE

One day in early spring, a party of Seniors with a borrowed car decided to go to ELLSWORTH. As they drove along Miss CIANCHETTE said: "Oh, see the ROBINS ON the lawn! SPRING ER summer's surely on the way."

"Oh, dear", said Miss LAGORIO. "I always get my COLLAMORE dirty in the summer."

Pretty soon they passed Mrs. WILEY'S door yard. "Horrors", said the proud Miss MACDONALD, "there is MORRIS' (S) ON playing with the COOK' (S) SON."

"Alas", cried HAGHERTY. "Behold what he HATH O (R) N."

"Yes", said Miss CLARK. "His father, the preacher, says: "You must wear what you have with GLEA, SON."

Miss GARCELON, in spite of her cold, shouted, "DOW, isn't that ridiculous."

"Oh", HUMPH, RE(Y)plied PRESCOTT.

"VALE CENTIS best regards to them but HAN' (S) SON lost the letters."

"I remember", said SPAULDING, "that day his bag was FULLER than usual, but no MAN (N) should PHIL (L) UP so full a bag of that size."

"Well", said the princely SPAULDING, "He but took LA CHANCE, so to speak."

"Couldn't he afford a stamp?" asked CURRIER. "LAW, RENT'S so high," Sedgwick replied, "I can't even pay for COLE."

When they had ridden but a few MILES the car hit a SNOWMAN near the road.

"You can't go LONG without an accident", was CATE'S remark.

Oh, be quiet", said Iris. "The HUB (B) 'ARDly touched it."

"I'll stop", said Miss LAGORIO, "when I have plenty of LEEway, then you boys can NEAL and fix my tire."

INEZ said: "Say, I wonder if the owner of this car will ever get a CLOU, TI (Y) ER?"

"We should worry, said FRANCES, "if we can get by the MILL, I KEN get to the PARSON'S in time to wish HUNNE WELL."

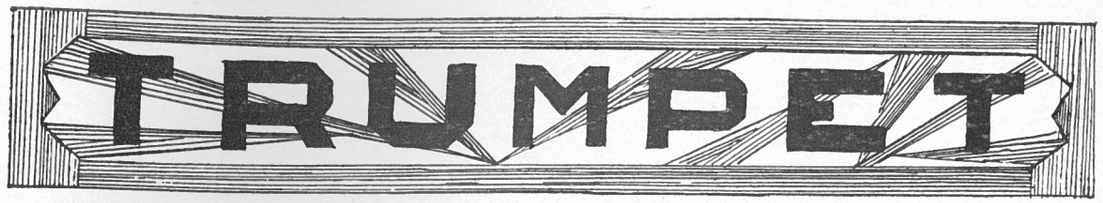

"Say", MARG asked, "Is SKILLINGS still in prison?"

"Yes", sobbed Edna, "He didn't get the BAIL 'E (Y) asked for."

"FRANKly I feel great reMORSE, for the question is, WILL-ETTE ever be settled?"
