
The TRUMPET

Dedication

IT IS WITH THE GREATEST APPRECIATION
THAT WE DEDICATE
THIS ISSUE OF THE "TRUMPET"
TO MRS. BEULAH T. HENDERSON,
OUR CLASS ADVISER,
WHOSE UNCEASING EFFORTS
HAVE GUIDED US
TOWARD OUR GOAL.

I hope I may make that dream of Matinicus come true - Does the same old moon shine there, and may we take a walk!

M-C-I TRUMPET 1933

Challenge

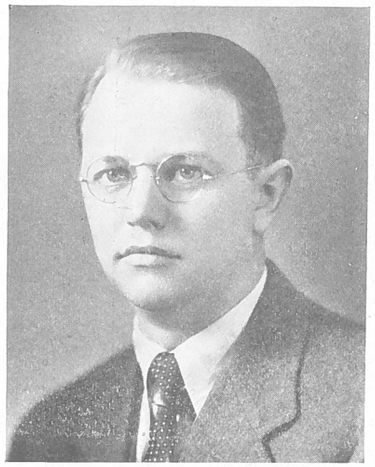

Now Matinicus should have a good "economist"!
E. M. Purinton

TO THE CLASS OF 1933:

1933 calls for courage, faith, and loyalty. Courage urges us to do the things that are right. Faith leads us to believe in the present as well as in the future. Loyalty should make us willing to support and fight for the things we hold so dear.

1933 brings a "turn in the tide of the affairs of man". May it start each of you on a fine life's voyage.

TYPISTS

Mabel Warren — Hope Reed

Marguerite Tozer

At this time we of the Trumpet Board wish to acknowledge our appreciation to Miss Hewett, who has aided us in editing our publication and worked so diligently to make it a success.

We also wish to express our gratitude to Mr. George M. Parks, who by his generous loan helped to make our year book a possibility.

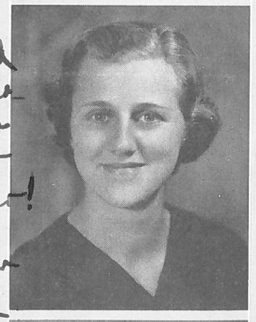

EVERETT HAMILTON

Portland, Maine "Hammy"

Football 4; M' Club 4; Senior Play; Senior President; Manson Prize Speaking.

"Hammy" has certainly done his bit during his stay here, but if you wait to hear him tell it, you will never know that he has done anything. He evidently believes that deeds should speak for themselves, and from the way "Hammy" puts things across, they proclaim themselves loudly. Best of Luck to our President.

GERALDINE CARGILL

Pittsfield, Maine "Gerry"

Manager Hockey 4; M' Club 4; Senior Play; Concerts; One Act Play; Alumni Prize Speaking; Orchestra; Freshman Prize Speaking; Girl Reserves 1-2-3-4; Sophomore President; Senior Vice President.

Gerry is a dramatist, a singer, a musican. She has unusual skill at the piano, although she frequently loses her music; this is only one of her many complicated problems.

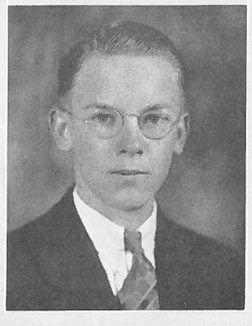

SARAH COWAN

Pittsfield, Maine "Sara John Joseph Jerrimah Cowan"

Basketball 2-3-4; Hockey 2-3-4; M'Club 2-3-4; Senior Play; Alumni Prize Speaking; Manson Prize Speaking; M. C. I. Board; Trumpet Board; Treasurer 3; Secretary 2-4; Salutatory; National Honor Society.

There are—girls and girls, but Sarah is only one of her kind. We all admire the quiet, dark eyed Sarah; what lies behind that thoughtful expression so often seen is difficult to interpret. A student, an aehlete, a comrade! What better tribute can we give!

WILLIAM COFFIN

Pittsfield, Maine "Bill"

Alumni Prize Speaking; Senior Play; Debating 2-3-4; Manager Football; M' Club 3-4; Manson Prize Speaking; National Honor Society; Treasurer 1-2-4; M. C. I. Board; Trumpet Board.

The old saying, "Good things come in small packages," certainly applies to Bill. He is an outstanding debater, a student, and a loyal comrade. He is also a welcome addition to any campus group.

EARL AASKOV

Portland, Maine "Earle"

Track 4; Trumpet Board.

Aaskov has a genius for neatness in writing
He also has an eye for the girls,
He can run and jump like lightning,
And he may be enlisted with the earls.

ADELLA AMES

Matinicus, Maine "Amy"

Girl Reserves 1-2-3-4; Trumpet Board.

Heard a little laughter?
That's Amy's
Met a pleasant smile?
That's Amy's
Made a true blue friend?
That's Amy's
Loved a wonderful pal?
That's Amy
Known a girl worth while?
That's Amy!

HELEN BAILEY

Pittsfield, Maine "Blimp"

Hockey 1-2-3-4; Basketball 1-2-3-4; M' Club 1-2-3-4; National Honor Society 3-4; M. C. I. Board; Trumpet Board; Senior Play; One Act Play; First Essay.

This little micro organism is called "Blimp" but she is really a midget dynamo compressing a lot of energy. Yes, Mr. Purinton, she's old enough to be a Senior. Her athletic ability, generosity, and wit are only a few of the qualities which speak for Helen.

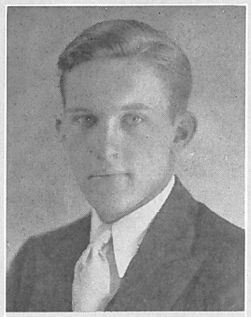

PHYLLIS BICKFORD

Pittsfield, Maine "Phil"

Manson Prize Speaking; Trumpet Board.

Who is that little girl with all the books? To an M. C. I. student there could be no question. Merrily going to and fro from one room to another she may be seen frequently getting the approval of teachers to drop a certain course, but alas, after all the confusion, she has changed her mind.

JOSEPH COFFIN

Machias, Maine "Joe"

Football 4; Basketball 4; Senior Play; M' Club; Trumpet Board; Track 4.

Another Machias boy made good! Joe's athletic prowess cannot be disputed in any respect. And he has led the rest as a caller at the co-ed domicile. He may not be among the honor students, but he certainly can write English Themes.

CLAYTON COOLEY

Pittsfield, Maine "Governor"

Manager of Track; Senior Play; Alumni Prize Speaking; Debating 2-3-4; M' Club 3-4; M. C. I. Board; Trumpet Board.

What have we here?—Nothing less than the great "Gov," a smooth versatile lad from right in our midst. Don't rush, girls; he'll give you all a break. "Gov" boasts of many social escapades in Hartland. Star of fate has shown kindly on him, but he places no trust in it, for he is a hard worker!

KATHERINE COWAN

Pittsfield, Maine "Nannie"

Senior Play; Valedictorian.

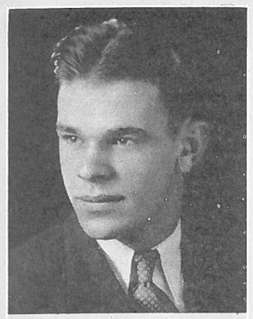

Nannie is so silent that one begins to think she never speaks, but her silent concentration certainly shows results when rank bills come out. We know we can predict without fear that her career as a nurse will be most successful.

MAURICE CROCKETT

Stoningham, Maine "Mashie"

Who's the peppiest thing around?
Why, that's Maurice Crockett.
When things seem to go aground
Call on Maurice Crockett.
Who's the boy with sparkling eyes
Always there and cracking wise?
Why, that's Maurice Crockett·

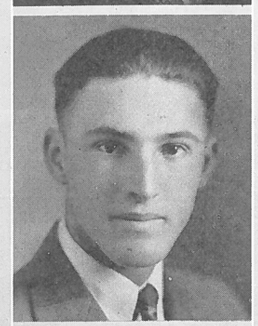

ARTHUR DANIELSON

Quincy, Mass "Art"

Football 4; Track 4; M' Club 4.

Here is the lad that brought a pistol to M. C. I. to protect himself from the ravages of the wild beasts and women that are rumored to line the campus walks. "You fellows up here don't live; you just exist. "Why in Quincy"—we give you an O. K. Art.

TRUMAN DAY

Livermore Falls, Maine

Truman goes about his work in a quiet unassuming way. He is rather a question mark to many, but if any references are wanted, seek them from his Sunday School Class at the Baptist Church. His faculty of foreseeing the needs of the coming generation has made him contemplate plans for the theological profession.

KATHRYN ELIAS

Pittsfield, Maine "Kay"

Basketball 4; M' Club 4; Senior Play.

Although Kay has been with us for these four years, she remains a mystery to many of us. However, from the daily arrival of letters, we have come to the conclusion that there are some persons whom she has taken into her confidence.

ANTHONY FREDERICK

Burnham, Maine "Tony"

A grasp of the door by old man March! And look! There stands a ruddy faced boy! What an infectious smile! Who is he? None other than Anthony Frederick. His sunny disposition will carry him far on the road of success.

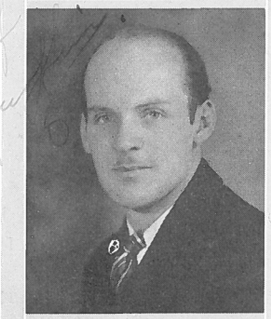

MARGARET GARRITY

Pittsfield, Maine "Peggy"

Basketball 2-3-4; Hockey 2-3; Captain 4; M' Club 2-3-4; Senior Play; Trumpet Board; National Honor Society; Junior Secretary.

When anyone first looks at Margaret he thinks what a quiet little girl she is. She may fool some, but she can't fool us all. And they say she is a good housekeeper too, can cook and sew n' everything. And that isn't all; she already has been listed in the "Who's Who" at M. C. I.

ROMEO GEOFFRION

Skowhegan, Maine "Romeo"

Orchestra; Pop Concert.

Romeo is as musical as his name implies. He plays the trumpet to perfection and entertains the boys at the dorm by his piano selections. We hope to see you playing with Guy Lombardo or Rudy Vallee before long. Best of luck!!

DONALD HEALD

Oquossoc, Maine "Don"

Track 4.

Don is a lad whom we have to look up to—he is so tall. He is hard to get acquainted with, but we won't hold that against him especially when we consider his good disposition and amiable nature. Bon Voyage!

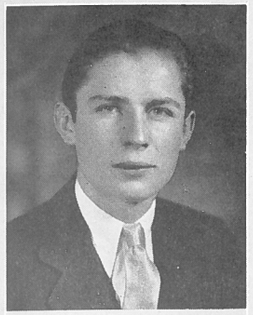

HOWARD JAMIESON

Hartland, Maine "Jamie"

Track 4.

Here we have another off-campus boy. Howard has only been with us this one year, and as he is one of the silent type, we know very little about him. However, all who know him will certainly attest to his fine personality.

BERNARD KEEF

Vanceboro, Maine "Bernie"

Sincerity is the keynote of Bernie's character. His agreeable disposition has won him many friends; and we feel that we have lost much, because he has been with us only this one year.

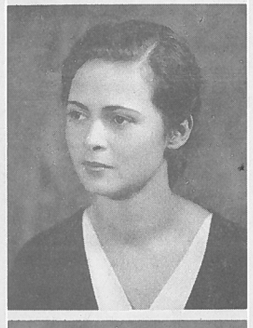

BERNARD KIDDER

Gardiner, Maine "Bernie"

Football 4; M' Club 4.

Not so tall, "Bernie," but you manage to get there just the same. Bernie is chuck full of fun; his happy disposition and his quick kindly wit has drawn him a host of friends. Bernie seems to like English; maybe it's because he has studied about the "Victorian Age."

ALICE KINNEY

Pittsfield, Maine "Al"

Hockey 2-3-4; Basketball 2-3-4; M' Club 2-3-4; National Honor Society; M. C. I. Board; Trumpet Board; Senior Class Play; Manson Prize Speaking; Third Essay.

Our Editor certainly doesn't need any introduction, for she has been one of the most popular girls at M. C. I. for four years. Her winning smile and contagious laugh have won her a fond place among her many friends. Best of luck in whatever you may undertake, "Al."

HENRY KINNEY

Pittsfield, Maine "Hank"

Football 2-3-4; Basketball 2-3-4; Baseball 2-3-4; M' Club 2-3-4; Senior Class Play; Junior President.

Curley-haired and smiling—that's Hank, a person of ability on the athletic field and in the classroom. Hank holds a high place in the opinion of everyone who has the privilege of being his friend. You leave a place that will be hard to fill, but we know what we lose, the teaching profession will gain.

Good luck to the girl from the island.
Cora.

CORA LEE

Pittsfield, Maine "Tommy"

Manson Prize Speaking.

Cora is another girl who believes that silence is golden. We wish we knew Cora better, because we are afraid we cannot do her justice in writing her life history at M. C. I. She is always smiling, and seems happy and contented with what life offers.

CARL LEWIS

Boothbay, Maine "Lewis"

Although Carl has been with us for only two years, his personality and untiring willingness to work have won him the respect of all his classmates. It is rumored that he has more than the respect of a certain Freshman.

Don't forget our good times at M. C. I.
Dot.

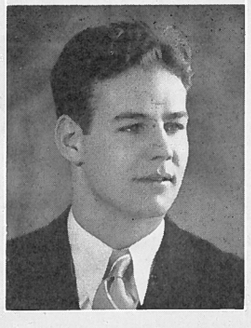

DOROTHY MAGNUS

St. Albans, Maine "Dot"

"D"ainty is this fair Miss of St. Albans,
"O"rderly, too is this conscientious lass,
"T"rue-blue has she been to her friendly class.

Class Mates note what Magnus tells:

Magnanimous, Artistic, Gracious, Neat, Unselfish, Sincere.

GERARD QUADROS

Gloucester, Mass,

Football 3-4; Basketball 3-4; Capt. 4; M' Club 3-4; One Act Plays; M. C. I. Board; Trumpet Board; National Honor Society.

"Jerry" is that cute unassuming fellow with the adorable curly hair. He is our Campus flirt and playboy. Did you see "Jerry" in, "A Young Man's Fancy?" If you did you can readily understand how hard the girls fall. I don't know whether it's because he comes from Gloucester or not, but he certainly has a line.

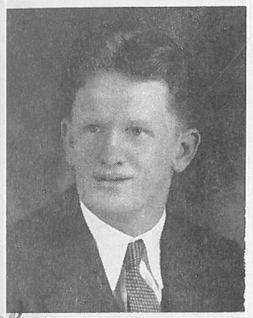

HOPE REED

Jackman, Maine "Kate"

Trumpet Board; Girl Reserve 4.

Listen! What's that commotion down the hall! Why that's Kate's wholehearted laughter proclaiming to the world that she is happy. We wish you happiness at N. B.

JACK REED

Rockport, Mass. "Jackie"

Football 3-4; Capt. 4; Basketball 3-4; Baseball 3-4; Senior Play; Trumpet Board; M' Club 3-4; Track 3-4; M. C. I. Board; National Honor Society.

The story of Jack's school life is written in the record of his school activities. He has been in almost everything that is worth while. Anything that he has turned his attention to he has excelled in. Jackie has been an intellectual leader, a capable captain, and possesses a personality of rare congenialty.

Best Wishes to the girl from Milwaukee.
Jennie Reynolds

JENNIE REYNOLDS

Pittsfield, Maine

Senior Play.

Jennie certainly gave us a surprise in the Senior Play. During her four years at M. C. I., she had impressed us as being shy and retiring, but in her portrayal of "Mammy" she showed us the recessive side of her character.

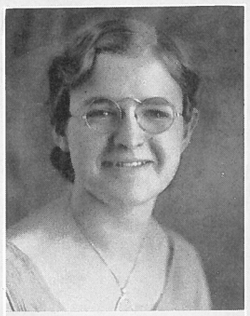

DOROTHY RUTHERFORD

Presque Isle, Maine "Dot"

Basketball 2-3-4; Hockey 2-3-4; M' Club 2-3-4; Senior Play; Girl Reserves 3-4.

When it comes to keeping a hockey ball from going through the goal or a girl from shooting a basket, "Dot" is right there. You will travel over many a winding trail, before you meet a girl like Dot.

MEDA SANBORN

Burnham, Maine "Shorty"

Senior Play; Orchestra 1-2-3; Pop Concert.

No black marks for Meda for making a disturbing noise, because like all ladies she never shouts or makes a racket. She is very modest and unassuming, but possesses that rare quality so ably portrayed by Milton in L'allegro—the happy women.

ELEANOR SIMPSON

Shirley, Maine "Simpy"

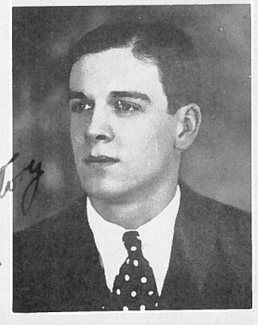

When your heart's a little heavy
When your life seems pretty blue,
When your prof is cross or stupid,
Just fold your hands in firm composure
And call and see our friend so true.

GEORGE SMITH

Dover, Maine "Georgy"

"Fate tried to conceal him by naming him Smith." George, it is true, is a most quiet young man. He has been with us only a year but we believe that behind that broad forehead, thoughts undreamed of may be slowly gathering and some day he may bring great honor to the class of '33.

RALPH SMITH

Ellsworth, Maine "Smithy"

Ralph came to us after having partaken of the rustic atmosphere of Hebron. In the feminine environment, Ralph's experiences have been varied and interesting. When you light upon those golden, paved streets Ralph, you will have our best wishes; but may the gods of wisdom be with you!

FRANK SUSI

Burnham, Maine

Trumpet Board.

Frank is that big fellow of smiling countenance who is usually hurrying somewhere. Ernest determination to succeed in whatever he undertakes has shown itself to be a dominant characteristic which well vouches for his success.

GERALDINE STOTT

Bath, Maine "Jerry"

One Act Play; Senior Play; Girl Reserves 4; Trumpet Board.

While here at M. C. I., Jerry has cultivated two thing—an unexcelled literary ability and a passion for travel. It is rumored that lately she has become especially interested in Canadian Scenery.

GUY SOUTHERLAND

Pittsfield, Maine

Manson Prize Speaking; Trumpet Board; Track 3-4.

Perhaps it wouldn't do to say that Guy should be awarded "Poet Laureate" but he sure has the gift o' gab when it comes to poetry. The cause for many a hearty laugh can be attributed to the ready wit and humor of our friend. With Guy's enthusiasm for poetry, we expect to hear more of him in the future.

MARGUERITE TOZER

Pittsfield, Maine "Freckles"

Hockey 1-2-3-4; Basketball 1-2-3-4 Capt. 3; Trumpet Board; Senior Play; Pop Concert; M' Club 1-2-3-4; Pop Concert.

She's artistic, She's capable, She's pleasant, She's cute, She's jolly, She's fair, She's clever, She's nice, She's Freckles.

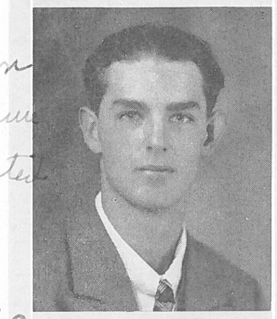

MABLE WARREN

Pittsfield, Maine "Dimples"

Basketball 1-2-3-4; Capt. 4; Hockey 1-2-3-4; M' Club 1-2-3-4; Senior Play; Pop Concert; One Act Play; Trumpet Board.

During her four years at M. C. I. we have been unable to decide whether we love Dimples best for her generosity, cheerfulness, or tact. We cannot imagine her without all three of these characteristics. At any rate this combination of charm has proved irresistible to M. C. I. at large. She is also prominent in social and athletic activities.

CLEMENT WEEKS

Pittsfield, Maine

M. C. I. Board; Second Essay.

Clement is by no means the least distinguished member of the class of "1933." His prominence has been brought to the front by his over-loaded "taxi." We predict a great future for you along this line.

CHARLES WILKINS

Auburn, Maine "Charlie"

Football 4; Basketball; Track 4; M' Club 4; Senior Play.

We don't wish Charlie any hard luck, but we warn him not to try to compete with Fitz, as the Lewiston boy can certainly slumber. When not in his bed, his time is divided equally between Dodges and Cross Street. Seriously, however, to know Charlie is to like him. Best of luck at N. H. U.

AUDREY WOODARD

Greenville, Maine "Woodie"

Debating; Alumni Prize Speaking; Manson Prize Speaking; Senior Play; One Act Play; Girl Reserve 3-4; Trumpet Board.

Audrey is the dramatist of our class. When it comes to putting a show or play across you can depend on her. She certainly proved her ability as an actress in her keen interpretation of "Fanny" in the Senior Play.

VIRGINIA WRIGHT

Pittsfield, Maine "Blondie"

Debating; Senior Play; Girl Reserves 3-4; Alumni Prize Speaking; Pop Concert; Orchestra; Freshmen Prize Speaking.

We are proud to have Virginia represent us in debating. Only the most efficient could find time to do so much. Virginia's time is not all taken with debates and studying; she can play the violin to perfection; and they say she has interests in Massachusetts.

GEORGE YOUNG

Pittsfield, Maine

Manson Prize Speaking.

George is a quiet, thinking fellow who goes about his business in his own way. He believes in that old saying, "Early to bed and early to rise" but Dame Gossip says he is interested in—let me see—is it the artists--Reynolds? Joshua--no Elizabeth.

HARLAND YOUNG

Matinicus, Maine

We have all been glad to have been a classmate of "Harland" for to know this boy from Matinicus is to know a jolly companion, and to have a worthwhile friend. Our wishes for "Good Luck" go with you.

LINWOOD BICKFORD

Pittsfield, Maine "Link"

Linwood is one of the silent town students. His four years at M. C. I. have meant work and hard work. We unite in wishing you luck, and we do not fear for your success in life.

The orchestra is one of the most active and important organizations of the school. Under the able direction of Mrs. Cook, we have had some worthwhile programs in chapel and at other school functions.

A prize of five dollars is awarded to the most conscientious member by Mr. and Mrs. Sanger Cook in memory of Mr. Cook's father, Dr. Jesse E. Cook.

Debating

In the last few years, debating has been brought more and more to the attention of the people and students. This year. in accordance with plans to bring it to the foreground in the minds of the student body, two teams have been chosen. In this way the undergraduates can learn the rules and principals of debating, so that in the future the varsity will be made up of experienced debaters.

This year the question for debate reads—"Resolved: That at least one half the state and local taxes should be derived from sources other than tangible property." This is a vital question which touches everyone either directly or indirectly; so it is reasonable to suppose that the debates will be held before large audiences.

The 1933 varsity consists of Virginia Wright and Clayton Cooley—Affirmative, and John Daily and William Coffin—Negative. They are all experienced debaters with the exceptions of Daily, and we feel sure that the school will have every reason to be proud of its team this year.

County Fair

Come all you jolly people,
And listen while I tell;
Of the good old County Fair,
That you all remember well.
The place was up in Powers Hall,
The date I cannot tell,
'Twas in the fall of '32,
I do remember well.

The Mrs. Henderson and Sherman,
Thought up, this bright idea;
And bade us all get busy,
And fill the hall with cheer.
Clement Weeks and Rutherford,
Took the money at the door.
Inside there was a midway,
Like you never saw before.

Chaffin was the crier,
Who, assisted by a band,
Drew everyone's attention,
As he hammered on a stand.
The announcer was a farmer,
With whiskers long and grey,
He helped the big policemen,
To keep things bright and gay.

The clowns were very funny,
Professionals some say,
They danced and told weird stories,
Got in everybody's way.
There were four little niggars,
From radio land I guess,
They entertained with singing,
'Twas good I must confess.

Some sold chocolates and hot dogs,
Ice cream, candy and beer.
But beano was the best of all,
With prizes costly and dear;
A cake as big as a barrel,
Like they make at Presque Isle, Maine
You guess the beans in a bottle,
And you get the cake and fame.

Hurrah! for Henderson and Sherman,
What they start is sure to win,
We hope they have a County Fair,
At M. C. I. ag'in.
May we always think with pleasure,
As the years roll swiftly by,
Of Powers Hall, the County Fair,
And our days at M. C. I.

One Act Plays

Once again the actors and actresses of M. C. I. exhibited their unexcelled powers in two short one-act plays.

First came the play, "In the Spring A Young Man's Fancy"—
The characters were:

Mrs. Jack Hillard, "Chaperone"	Audrey Woodard
Dicky Trent, "The Young Man"	Gerard Quadros
Her five J's
Jean Laurens	Geraldine Cargill
Jacqueline Vance	Helen Bailey
Jo Struthers	Mabel Warren
Jule Osborne	Eloise McCully
Janet Mason	Geraldine Stott
Marie, the maid	Ruth Trickey

Then came "Elmer" in which the Freshmen revealed marked ability. The cast was:

Elmer	John Daily
Hubert	Laurice Gould
"Russ"	Roland Reilly
Jeanie	Marie Dodge
Janie	Marjorie McCully
Susie	Lucille Cookson
Miss Phinney	Marion Burse
The Mother	Mildred McCausland
Fannie	Marion Leckemby

Much of the credit for the success of these plays is due to the tireless efforts of Miss Lucille de Reynolds, Dramatic Coach. Miss de Reynolds selected the cast discriminatingly and instructed the players thoroughly in their interpretations.

J. Reynolds, C. Cooley, E. Aaskov, C. Wilkins, A. Ames, M. Crockett
M. Garrity, M. Warren, G. Sutherland, J. Coffin, V. Wright, K. Cowan
W. Coffin, G. Stott, S. Cowan, H. Bailey, M. Tozer, J. Reed, A. Kinney
E. Hamilton, G. Cargill, M. Sanborn, K. Elias, D. Rutherford, H. Kinney
Coach Miss de Reynolds.

Senior Play

For several years it has been the custom for the members of the graduating class to present a play. This year the Seniors presented "The Thread of Destiny" by Lindsey Barbee. The play required a great deal of work. Miss Lucille de Reynolds, who directed the play, cannot be given too much credit as the play was very difficult to produce.

The play is the story of Southern Life during the Civil War. The plot centers about Virginia Montgomery (Alice Kinney) and Peyton Bailey (Everett Hamilton). Virginia, a true southern aristocrat, breaks her engagement to Peyton because he decides to fight for the Northern Cause. During the war, however, Virginia's brother, Beverly (Joe Coffin) is captured, and would have been shot as a spy if Peyton had not intervened. This act, of course, breaks down Virginia's opposition.

The play develops several plots, including the love of George Washington (Charles Wilkins) for Fanny (Audrey Woodard). They impersonate colored characters to the "N'th" degree.

Don't forget the studying we did in Home Ec. Best of luck! Vic

Girl Reserves

The Girl Reserves is one of the most important branches of our school life as it assists us in laying a firm foundation for a true and pure Christian life. Therefore, it is with much pleasure that we mark the interest a large number of our girls are taking in helping to carry on this noble work. We know that it is useless to nourish and cultivate our intellectual faculties if we neglect our moral and spiritual being, for the three are inseparable and each necessary to the other.

The work has progressed rapidly and effectively. The meetings on Tuesday evenings have been led by strong, active, energetic and live young women. The association has held several inspirational meetings on personality, character, and friendship. These were presented to us by our faculty adviser, Mrs. Henderson, who has been so faithful and loyal to the Girl Reserves.

We have had one visit from Dr. Allen K. Foster whose enthusiastic and helpful talk lingers not only in the minds of Girl Reserves members, but remains with every student and teacher present.

The society has only begun its work. With such a beginning, may it reach a higher standard and always live up to its motto: "To Find and Give the Best."

National Honor Society

This society was introduced by Mrs. Folsom, only a few years ago, and now serves, not only as an honor, but as a challenge and a guide to its members and to the school.

Each year fifteen per-cent of the Senior Class and five per-cent of the Junior Class are chosen from those who rank in the upper third. These members are also chosen on the basis of leadership, character, and service.

To belong to this society is the ambition of every student in the school and it is now one of the most important organizations at M. C. I.

Field Hockey

The M. C. I. girl's hockey team proved to be a great success this year, losing only one game to their old rival, Wilton. The hockey girls have been steadily advancing now for four years, and the students of M. C. I. appreciate the fine work accomplished by the team. The loss of seven seniors will handicap Mrs. Sinclair next year, but every one is looking forward to a successful season.

Manager	Harland Young

M. C. I., with one of the smallest squads in years, had a very successful season. With only four lettermen back, Coach Sinclair developed a team that proved to be as good a team as has ever represented the school. The boys played a hard schedule with only one defeat, and a decisive victory over Hebron. The following men were awarded letters by the Athletic Council.

Ends	Connon, Danielson, Hersey

Girls' Basketball

The girls' basketball season was very successful, when the fact is taken into consideration that on account of finances, a very limited time could be devoted to practice. However, the girls lost but three games, two to the fast Fairfield girls, and one to their old rival, Bucksport.

Starting the season with only two lettermen back, Coach Fitz had a difficult task on his hands to mold together a winning team. After getting off to a good start, the old adage "A good beginning makes a bad ending" seemed to follow the track of the team. When the season ended, five games had been won and seven lost; however many of these games were lost to our rivals by a very close margin.

Girls' "M" Club

The officers of the girls "M" Club are:

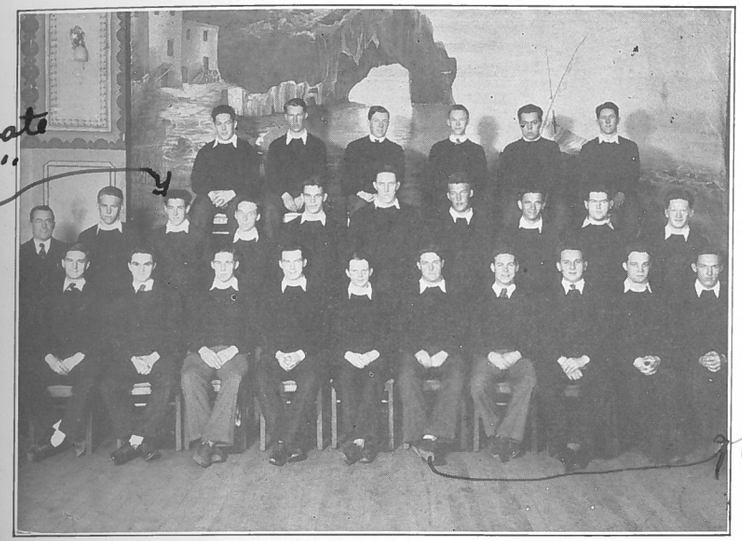

President	M. Garrity
Vice President	M. Warren
Secretary	A. Kinney
Treasurer	D. Rutherford

The girls' "M" Club is one of the most active organizations on the Campus. To become a member of this Club you must receive a letter in one of the major sports, which are basketball and hockey. No one but a member is allowed to wear the varsity sweater or pin without punishment.

Each year the girls sponsor inter-class sports; the players of the winning team receive numerals, and so many points towards the cup.

Last fall the Club bought ten pair of shoes for the hockey squad. The girls have three dances a year, one public and two private. Sometimes the two Clubs, Boys' and Girls', divide expenses and have a dance together.

Anyone that is a member of this club and is able to wear the varsity sweater should be proud of it and realize it is one of the honors offered by the school.

B. Kidder, A. Hersey, C. Cooley, W. Coffin, M. Harlow, H. Young, Coach Sinclair, J. Chesebro, A. Roberts, J. Louder, A. Danielson, C. Chaffin, L. Hersey, G. Sutherland, F. Lillie, J. Reed, C. Wilkins, H. Kinney, R. Smith, E. Hamilton, H. Dickinson, G. Calder, G. Quadros, W. Roix N. Connon, J. Coffin

Boys' "M" Club

It has been the custom each year for the boys who have won their "M" in a major sport to form what is known as the "M" Club. The constructive influence of this organization has been realized by the entire student body. Their dances and parties have added much to the social life of the school. We hope the future athletes of M. C. I. will keep up the present standards of the Club, and realize the honor of their membership.

President	Gillmore Calder
Vice President	Gerard Quadros
Secretary	Hugh Dickinson
Adviser	Roy U. Sinclair

Track

At the opening of the spring term, thirty candidates answered the call of Coach Cook for spring track.

The tragic death of Cedric W. Chaffin, Acting Captain of the squad, cast a cloud over the entire season; but just as Cedric would have wished, the squad reported for work the following week, with a spirit that has always been characteristic of M. C. I. athletic teams.

The first meet was to be held April 29th, at Waterville, with the Colby Freshmen and Coburn; but this was postponed.

At the time of this going to press, the squad is preparing for the New Hampshire Interscholastics at Durham, May 6th.

Other meets will include a dual with Higgins or Coburn, and the U. of M. Interscholastics at Orono.

Outstanding among the veterans, is Harry Gordan, who has made an enviable record throughout the state as a distance runner.

Jack Reed, Ralph Smith, and Guy Sutherland, have won their letters in track, and should improve considerably this year.

Homstead, Fernald, and Leonard, in the pole vault, had some experience last year.

Among those new to track at M. C. I., are Earl Aaskov, who, last year was an outstanding quarter-miler for Deering High School; Arthur Danielson, former Quincy, Massachusetts athlete, and Charlie Wilkins, former Edward Little High School sprinter; Donald Heald has had some experience in the weights at Gould Academy, and should prove a help before the season is over.

Among the other candidates who have reported, are William Coffin, James Chesebro, Joseph Coffin, Clarence Grover, John Furbush, David Libby, Everett Hamilton, Selwyn Chaffin, Willis Robinson, and Orthello Lancaster.

Manager Richard Towle, and Asst. Manager Ellis Whitman, have been working hard all season in the interests of the team, and deserve a great deal of credit.

Jokes

Jack: "May I come to see you to-night?"
Margaret: "Yes, but you remember, Dad turns the lights out at ten."
Jack: "O. K. I'll be there directly after ten."

Alice: "You sure think you're good-looking, don't you?"
Gerry: "No, but what is my opinion against hundreds of women."

Crockett: "Can a person be punished for something he hasn't done?"
Mrs. Sherman: "Certainly not."
Crockett: "Well, I haven't done my French."

Rev. at Baptism: "His name please?"
Mother: "Charles Oskar Franklin Wilkins Junior, the fourth."
Rev. (to assistant): "A little more water, please."

Danielson: "Do you think you could manage to live on $2.00 a week?"
Helen: "Yes, a week--but not much longer."

Date March 10, 1933
Mr. Purinton: "What is your favorite book?"
Mr. Sinclair: "It has always been my bank book--but even that is lacking in interest now."

Henry: "What kind of a car have you?"
Freckles: "A runabout now."
Henry: "A runabout?"
Freckles: "Yes, it'll run about a block and then stop."

Mrs. Cook sat up in bed, a startled look on her face. "Sanger," she whispered, "there are robbers in the house." "Impossible," murmured her husband. "In the Senate, Yes; but in the House, never!"

Crockett: "Oh, I just hurt my crazy bone."
Gerry: "You poor boy, you must be hurt all over."

Mr. Fitz: "What is the symbol for water?"
K. Elias: "HIJKLMNO"
Mr. Fitz: "Where did you get that idea?"
K. Elias: "Well yesterday, you said it was H to O (H2O)."

Mr. Cook: "When I say, "I was handsome," I am using the past or preterit tense; when I say, "I shall be handsome," I am using the future tense." "Now, Heald, tell me what tense I am using when I say, "I am handsome."
Heald: "Pretense."

Topics of the Day

SEPTEMBER

School opened in the usual manner. We noticed that Mr. Purinton had a shave and a haircut in honor of the occasion, and that Sanger Cook, who is a candidate for representative, had a new suit of clothes, and wore a smile that extended from ear to ear. Miss Main thought a change might be good for the school, so she changed her name to Mrs. Sherman which was a great improvement. All the pupils are stretching their necks to get a look at our new commercial teacher. What we think of Miss Hewett remains to be seen.

Freshie: "Oh, don't you just adore Mr. Cook?" "Yeah, we do."

Get together--and aren't we chummy, what? And Freshie wants to know when the hockey coach is coming, and who the new blond girl is who thinks she is boss.

Coach Cook called for track candidates. A large squad reported. The first night, Mr. Cook went around the track (in his automobile). The second night the squad was considerably smaller. The members left because of over work, cold weather, cramps, and colds.

Oh, Ho! Garrity takes her first violin lesson and wires Rubinoff for a position.

Wilkins and Kidder spent the morning sleeping to regain their beauty.

Mable disfigures Helen with Iodine. Danielson says it makes no difference to him.

OCTOBER

The athletic season officially opens. Girls slide through to cop honors from Bucksgort 4-0. Boys dance around our old rival Higgins.

First M. C. I. out--we learn a lot. Cross county run in a nice cool rain. Also the semi-important six weeks tests.

The Freshmen mistook Detention for the Honor Roll. Mr. Purinton officially opened this famous meeting.

The Seniors gave a Hallowe'en party. The most exciting incident was the pie eating contest. Kidder and Helen tied for first. Spooks and ghosts were everywhere. No wonder Miss Chesebro was frightened going to the Dorm. A Coffin went beside her.

NOVEMBER

Rally in chapel. Plenty of noise and Sanger stars.

Amid mud and mire the boys succeeded in winning the game with Bucksport which brought to a close a very successful season.

Monday--and the boys look so self-satisfied.

Stupendous! Phenomenal! Spectacular! What? None other than the County Fair.

Twelve Week Exams.

DECEMBER

Basketball or no basketball--that is the question.

The Question is still before the house.

Jury returns and the verdict is basketball. Coach Fitz issued a call for basketball candidates and a large group of inexperienced players reported.

Crockett practices hurdling in study hall. Mrs. Sherman prefers long distance walking--Crockett changes his plans.

Messrs. Cook and Barbour are seen together.

Hope and Fat appear together at the dance. A heavy date we'd call it.

"The Owl Club" met for the first time and first and second degrees were worked on several new members.

The Annual Pop Concert was a great success. Roix and Romeo played "Polka" not poker, as was reported by Norman Connon.

MERRY CHRISTMAS.

JANUARY

Happy New Year to you all. Another new member is added to our faculty, Mr. Barbour.

The Girls' "M" Club gave a Depression Ball in Powers Hall. Mrs. Henderson and Jack Reed willingly put on a specialty. Beats all how Jack stays in the limelight.

Head campused for invading the third floor of Girls' Dorm.

Chemistry class takes over detention.

FEBRUARY

"The Thread of Destiny" was a huge success.

A ten day amusement period has been declared.

A grand rush for Pittsfield. It is reported that perfect attendance was lacking, the excuse given--marooned on Matinicus.

MARCH

A small but enthusiastic group danced to the tune of "Underneath the Harlem Moon."

Girls' "M" Club Dance. Roix's "Ragtimers" entertained. Mr. Sinclair caught draining the punch bowl, result: scarcity of punch.

Senior dance. What a band for that opening number!

RUBINOFF was GOOD. Kate Smith a WOW!

APRIL

Day of Days! Wilkins late, was only fooling! Mr. Sinclair thought it would be a swell joke to put him on Campus. He who laughs last???

"In the spring a young man's fancy," so that is why the boys are taking days off. Kinney is goo-goo again. Girls seen on Campus at eventide. What about a young women's fancy?

"Parting is such sweet sorrow" Heaven for a week and then?? Exams, looking us in the face! And we are supposed to have a good time.

The vacation is over and we can rest. Now we appreciate these 7 o'clock hours. But we can't sleep! Why, Of course, Exams.

Sorrowful faces! Crockett writes home I'VE DID IT AGAIN? but I passed English.

MAY

Alumni Prize Speaking. Congratulations Sophomores! Tozer tried to impersonate a Sophomore and speak. She loves to talk in Public.

Junior-Senior. Soft lights, sweet music, beautiful girls??? Handsome men and Romeo.

Freshman Play Day. The future Seniors walk google-eyed, and carefree about the campus. Oh, for those careless days.

Diary of a Schoolboy

With Apologies to Pepys

Arose betimes and took myself to Stitham's and breakfasted in company with Lady Sara and Lady Alice who were taking themselves to the hair-dressers. Parted with them and exchanged greetings with Sir Kinney and Mable Warren, pert sub-deb, who was proceeding leisurely toward school. Hailed coach and six, and arrived at M. C. I. in time to salute the flag which was being reverently raised by a golden haired page. Drew a smile from a pretty Freshman jade by slipping on the ice. Noticed in particular the slim ankles of Geraldine, Duches of Stott, whose silken flounces were blown by a capricious breeze. Passed the time of day with Lady Helen—an audacious maiden. Discussed the Pittsfield Fire with Hope Reed, secretary to Grand-Duchess Louise of the Hewett line. Proceeded leisurely to Room 11 to find Chemistry class in progress; a vile smell was issuing from the lab. Was spared the necessity of getting an admit slip by the ringing of the bell, and betook myself with the crowd to History Class which was presided over by a prominent member of the New Jersey Royalty. Was taken severely to task for not selling standing room for the Senior Play, and was then sent to the office in company with one Hamilton, President of the Board of Senior Finances, to present my Wrigley's to His Majesty, King Purington, who refused the offer. Heard loud shouts from Room 3, and hurried from the office to stumble over that confounded nigger, George Washington. Disentangled myself from his feet, and continued to Room 3 to find merely that Sir Joe Coffin had become entangled with planes in geometry. The great Scotch mathematician, Professor Sinclair was slightly angry—hence the shouts. Returned to Room 7 to peruse the Constitution; but found that class had been dismissed, and had retired to the chapel. Proceeded thence, and conversed earnestly with Lord Cook on the problem of disarmaments—his lordship showed keen disappointments over the Alumni Hall Peace Conference which had adjourned after a week of revelry. Wandered downstairs to Room 1, and spent forty-five minutes, by the sun-dial, in sleep. Madame Sherman professed a profound displeasure over my unseemly attitude, but on my assurance that I was in deep meditation, tendered smiling apologies which I accepted as graciously as a lord of the peerage does. Thence to the study of the English Language which was subsequently murdered by all who spoke, despite the pleadings and threats of Her Royal Highness. A heated discussion on the relative merits of Science and the Arts arose, which was forcibly concluded by the unfortunate mischance of one layman, Kidder, who fell through Rafeal's "Sistine Madonna" while making an impassioned speech. The dismissal bell rang, and the class departed leaving the unfortunate Kidder still unextricated. Thence to lunch, and perusal of several important letters one being from his Majesty himself stating immediate dismissal from the institution if ranks not improved.
