

Pepperhill 33

1. Respond respectfully when spoken to and acknowledge school staff and visitors in passing.
2. Respect the comments, opinions, and ideas of others.
3. No hoodies allowed, period.
4. Acknowledge the idea that comes before you if you are responding to a question after a classmate or making an add on to a classmates' response.
5. Cover your mouth when you sneeze or cough and say excuse me.
6. Do not show disrespectful gestures or body language
7. Always say "thank you" and do not insult the gift/service when it is given to you. (Lunch staff, peers, interventionist, etc.)
8. Track the reading when listening to someone else read.
9. Answer all written questions with a complete sentence.
10. Do not ask for a reward and always work hard even if a reward is not offered.
11. You must complete your work to the best of your ability each day.
12. Transitions within the classroom and hallway need to be swift, quiet, and orderly.
13. Do not moan or complain when given work or homework.
14. Follow specific classroom protocols
15. Students should remain organized
16. When a substitute is present, all classroom rules still apply.
17. Keep yourself and all areas of the school clean and germ free.
18. Stand when you are asking a question or responding to a question.
19. Do not stare or laugh at a student being redirected or reprimanded.
20. Act appropriately on the bus and at field trip locations.
21. If someone drops something and you are close to it, pick it up.
22. Hold the door open for people behind you.
23. Say excuse me when you bump into someone and accept the apology if someone bumps into you.
24. Follow appropriate expectations when in assemblies and be respectful when people are presenting.
25. Keep to the right and keep your hands by your side when in the hallways.
26. Respect and track whoever is speaking (Remain at voice level 0, no laughing, no laying your head down, etc.)
27. Respectfully use your words to stand up for yourself and others.
28. Learn from your mistakes and move on.
29. Always remain honest and positive.
30. Acknowledge those who speak before you if you are offering an extension to their answer/comment or you are offering a different opinion.
31. Regardless if you win or lose, always show good sportsmanship.
32. Accept that "not right now" is not ways a no; assume positive intentions.
33. Be the best person you can be.