WE'LL MISS YOU MRS. SCHULZ

Mere words cannot express our appreciation for the past four years of Mrs. Schulz' devoted service to our school curriculum and activities. Therefore, we would like to dedicate this yearbook to our yearbook advisor, Mrs. Schulz, to say thanks for everything she offered to our school functions. We really appreciated her time and effort that she has put forth, and we're really going to miss her.

"Where Have All The Lightning Bugs Gone Gone

Front. Cast: Janet Schumacher, Tom Sundquist. Back.
Crew: Anna Jirsa, Mr. Fredrickson, Donna Ebner.

The one-act play "Where Have All The Lightning Bugs Gone?" takes place in a park and has a boy and a girl meet each other for the first time. As they talk and fantasize about childhood, adulthood, and what is wrong with the world, they each play a variety of characters. The fantasies bring them closer together and they fall in love. But the plot holds true to the theme of the play, "only the beautiful" die, and as the boy goes off to war, the couple parts forever.

Tom was selected "best actor" in the one-act play competition.

ERNEST IN LOVE

DIRECTOR'S NOTES

Oscar Wilde wrote The Importance of Being Earnest in the late 1800's. Like its author, the play contains the style and charm of the period but with an added degree of nonsense to make the lines rich with satiric wit.

Ernest in Love retains all these original elements plus two more important elements. First, Ernest In Love contains a satire on the clash between the members of the aristocracy, who were proud that they didn't work for a living, and the rising tradesmen, who were proud that they did. Second, it contains many delightful musical numbers that will not only reinforce the humor and intent of the plot, but also add to your overall enjoyment.

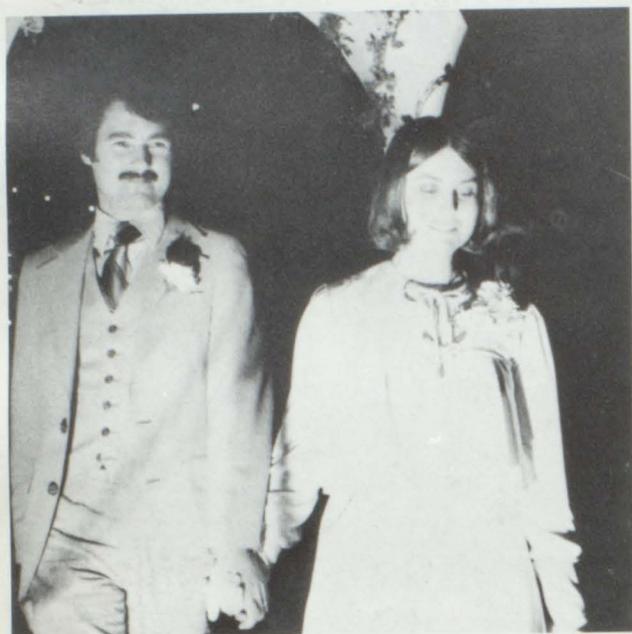

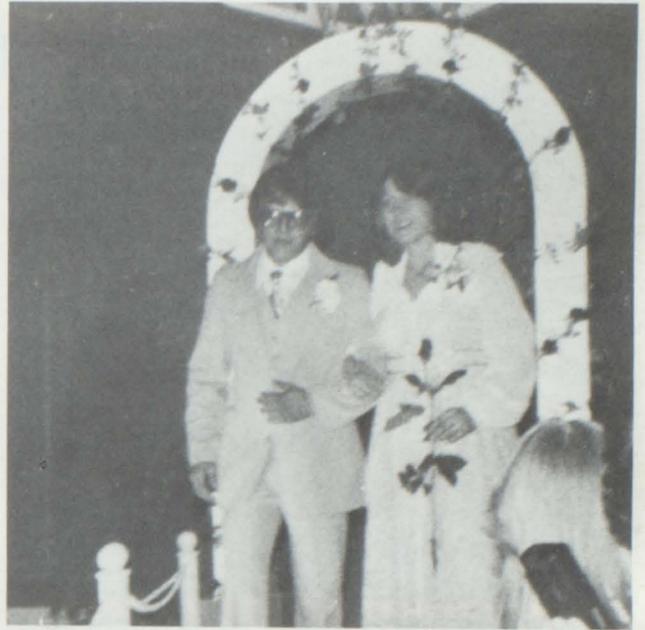

LIGHTS AND EFFECTS: Shawn Hertzog, Rick Zachman, Ken Tracy. PROPERTIES AND SET CHANGES: Mary Haggerty, Dennis Yurecko, Brad Martin, Randy Vetsch, Jon Dobosenski. MAKE-UP: Donna Ebner, Joan Zachman, Sue Lindenfesler, Karmen Mosher, Carmen Lindenfesler. PUBLICITY: Donna Ebner, Joan Zachman, Karmen Mosher, Sue Lindenfesler, Anna Jirsa, Kathy Zachman. SCENERY AND SET CREW: (Leaders) Rob Buttweiler, Jane Daleiden, Linda Raab, Dennis Yurecko, Anna Jirsa, Tom Sundquist, Susan Schany, Rosemary Stahlmann, Holly Bergland, Judy Aydt, Michele LaVallee.

JUNIORS

As the fall takes its course and school is back in session, Juniors take an active part in various activities. They started with the magazine drive to raise money to fund up-coming events. The Juniors did a great job of decorating the gym for the annual homecoming dance. With their artistic abilities they constructed a well planned float that took 1st place. As the year moved along, a time of seriousness overshadowed them as they carefully selected their personal class rings. The spring was a busy time of the year for them. They gathered many creative ideas for prom and took great pride in their effort to make prom special and a time to be cherished by many.
