1990 Homecoming Week Filled With Victory

The 1990 STMA Homecoming Week started when the design for the Homecoming button was selected. The winning design was submitted by Cory Nelson and featured a knight on horseback with the theme, "Victory and Honor". This design is featured on the cover of the yearbook, with a little change in the title.

The first event held was the crowning of Homecoming King and Queen. Prior to the actual crowning, the audience gathered was entertained by the high school choir and band, along with M.C. Gary Walter. Mr. Walter again gave us an in-depth look at the candidates by relating a little known "secret" about each one. After the stories were told, the time came to announce who was to be our King and Queen. 1990 Homecoming Queen Laura Glatzmaier crowned Shawn Kolles as King and 1990 Homecoming King Jamie Madson crowned Jenny Twito as Queen.

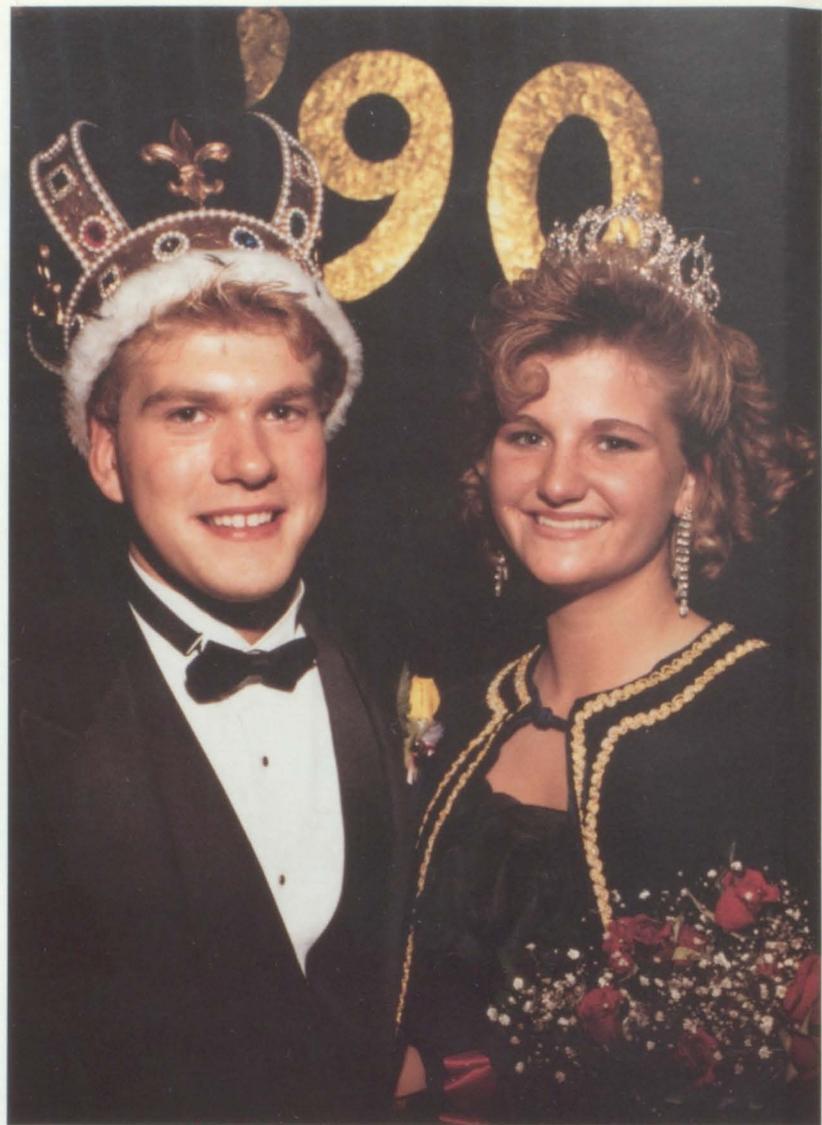

When the excitement was over and congratulations were given the festivities moved to the parking lot behind the school where burnable items had been collected for the bonfire. The fire was lit by the Royalty and football captains.

Each day of Homecoming week had its own dress-up theme. This gave all students to show off their creative talents on "school spirit" day, "pajama" day, "nerd" day and "camera/summer" day.

For a special treat on Wednesday, we ate our lunch picnic style on the school front lawn. Later that day the junior and senior boys challenged each other in a game of volleyball. Then on Thursday the junior and senior girls fought it out in powderpuff football. The seniors came out the winners in that contest.

The final day of the week brought the most excitement. In the afternoon classes were dismissed early to attend the Homecoming Parade. This year we journeyed over to Albertville to show off our school pride.

Later that night, the Knight football team defeated the Glen-coe "Eagles" in a hard fought game. Spirits were high after the victory to the dance sponsored by the National Honor Society.

EEEEK!

On Halloween, the halls of STMA High are filled with all sorts of odd beings and creatures. We were visited by Dopey, a Ninja Turtle (Teenage Mutant), a pirate, a bunny, a few things that we really couldn't put a name on and many other creatures we just didn't get on film.

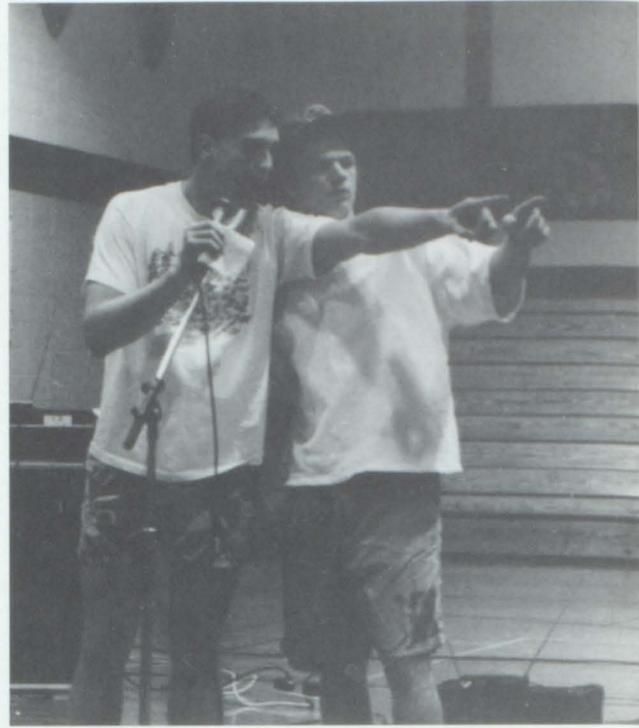

Halloween

International Day

"Moonlight Fantasy"

With standards set the last two proms, something a little unusual happened this year, prom-goers actually were allowed to provide their own transportation to and from all of the ceremonies. This re-assumed responsibility and freedom was a large factor in the huge success of the 1991 prom.

"Moonlight Fantasy" was this years theme and grand-march was again held in a wonderfully decorated gym. The party then moved to the Fox Hollow golf course. There a tasty meal of broasted chicken was waiting and KQRS sound and light show was there providing the rock'n'roll so prom-goers could dance the night away. At 12:00 am limos arrived and most everybody boarded and went cruising until 2:00 am.

Top Left: Karla Arias, an exchange student from Guatemala, and her escort, Travis Nagengast, wind their way down the garden path. Top Right: An added light-hearted touch to the prom "pond" was a pair of amphibians, also known as Fred and Fern Frog! Middle and Lower Left: Prom goes Donna Fricke and Luke Barthel (above), Dan Vetsch and Rita Roquette pause to be introduced by Master of Ceremonies, Roger Ketel. Above Right: Long-time friends Trudi Larson and Kari Milton stop for a photo before heading out to Fox Hollow for the dinner and dance.

- I, Lance Barthel, will my eating-quiche ability to Rachel Volk, and my wrestling ability to Luke Barthel.
- I, Nancy Barthel, will my singing abilities and friendliness to Sarah Barthel.
- I, Theresa Barthel, will my basketball number (23) and point guard position to Tanya Larson.
- I, Robert M. Bergstrom, will my new Mustang to Doug Watters, if (and only if) he'll be able to operate a manual transmission better than he does now.
- I, Tobey Berning, will the Chevy power to Ryan Plonske and The Mopar boys.
- I, Bridget Brust, will my ability to tell the truth to "The Chucker"!
- I, Karen Cochran, will to Tasha Olsen my perfect driving record and to Russ Johnson my car.
- I, Pennie Dahlin, will my ability to get good grades without doing homework to Bobbie Jo, and my Senior Accounting book to any one dumb enough to take it.
- I, Jennifer Dawson, will my great ability to sit on the basketball bench to Lucy Schumacher.
- I, Chad Dehmer, will my ability to get an answer out of the school counselor within 15 minutes to my sister, Nicki.
- I, Eddie Dehmer, will my 184 career wrestling wins to Billy Dehmer, and my study habits and ability to pick up women to Lance Goeb.
- I, Greg Dehmer, will my Robotics, mood swings, and high school experiences to Flipper in the freshman class.
- I, Laura Maria Dehmer, will my spot in the bridge club, coupon trading club, National Station Wagon Owners Club (NSWOC), and my hand-crocheted sweater vest to my beloved hermana, Katrina Dehmer.
- I, Cory Eicher, will my scoring, puck-handling, and hitting abilities to Eric Wenger.
- I, Nicholas Eide, will my locker to Mike B., my blistering slapshot to Jerod G., a pair of Ex-lax flavored brownies to Jesse Milless and Ryan Haney, and last, but not least, I WILL survive.
- I, Diane Florek, will my running ability to Lana Eicher.
- I, Donna Fricke, will my outstanding ability to put up with Coach Rothweiler to Kris Korteum.
- I, Carmen Garcia, will my ability to "ACE" all current events tests to Bridget Brust, Kathy Ouellette, and Sarah Blenkush.
- I, Virginia Gersting, will my artistic ability to Angie Ketterling, and my "Super Mario 3" game to Roxanne Nielsen.
- I, Mike Gindele, will my perfect welding ability to Brian Youngdahl.
- I, Paul Gindele, will my outstanding, top-notch math abilities to Kurt Becker.
- We, Brad Hackenmueller, Brian Lenneman, Victor Peterson, and Lance Barthel, will our Current Events corner in Mr. Barthel's room to any four Juniors who get there first.
- I, Wade Hastings, will Pontiac power to Ryan Plonske and The Mopar Boys.
- I, Melissa Herbert, will to Dan Roiger the ability to decide for himself without the help of his friends.
- I, Ben Hofmeister, will my true schoolboy attitude to Drew Scherber and my climbing and exploring abilities (and all the craziness that goes with them) to Abe Hofmeister.
- I, Clint Hofmeister, will keep on Rockin' in the free world.
- I, Tom Holland, will my ability to get a 97 in a 55 speeding ticket to Ryan Zachman.
- I, Russ Johnson, will my freedom to all the freshman who have a curfew, and my personality to the boring people.
- I, Brian Ketel, will the STMA Basketball scoring record to Todd Klaers.
- I, Shawn Kolles, will my drumsticks to Justin Wettstein.
- I, Robbie Kottke, will my wrestling talents, dieting, starving, and sicknesses to all the basketball players.
- I, Brian Kuchle, will my English grade to Josh Eicher, and my "looks" to Casey Borchert.
- I, Sarah Langewisch, will all my potential to Celest Thell.
- I, Trudi Larson, will my important position at Snyders to Jen Gmach.
- I, Jessica Lindenfesler, will my personality and charm to Celest Thell and my speech talents to anyone who wants them.
- I, Natalie Lint, will all my Loony Toons pencils to Andy Blenkush.
- I, Karen Manka, will my ability to play the bass clarinet and the contra-bass clarinet to Jami Martin.
- I, Michael McShane, will my end locker to Adam Barthel, the Fairmont to Tom Luoma (he'll need the parts), and some pop tarts for anyone stupid enough to want to eat them!
- I, Kari Milton, will my ability to chew Big League bubble gum to Nathan (Nort) Pelkey!
- I, Mark Mischke, will my sticking ability in football to Myles Marquette.
- I, Scott Moriarity, will my kingdom to Mike Nelson.
- I, Cory Nelson, will my hockey stick Crayola Crayon taping abilities to Jeff Lekatz and my "tan" to Luke Barthel.
- I, Rachel Orsch, will my cheerleading abilities to a helpless Shelly Gardas!
- I, Kathy Ouelette, will my extremely loud voice to all the Junior choir members.
- I, Chris Pardino, will to Cheryl Gilge my ability to work REAL hard at tolerating ignorance and to deserve an "A".
- I, Nicole Paulsen, leave my guy hunting abilities to Teresa Hennen.
- I, Victor Peterson, will my ability to outrun cops to Bob Brooke.
- I, Rita Roquette, will my softball spikes to Vicki Kottke so she can round the bases without tripping.
- I, Heidi Scheller will my ability to guess on Current Events quizzes and my Computer Science disk, for what it's worth, to my sister, Wendy.
- I, Mr. Kris Scmiege, will my long hair and attitude problem to Eric Richter (he'll need both).
- I, Bret Shoen, will the Ford power to Ryan Plonske and The Mopar Boys.
- I, Shannon Stoick, will my rook cards to Adam Barthel.
- I, Denise Anna Thole, will my excellent relationship with Mike Kral to Natasha Olson.
- I, Brian Thompson, will my book of 101 Annoying Things to Say to Teacher to my brother.
- I, Jennifer (Myrtle) Twito, will my vinyl flowered hand and my bridge spot at the Dehmer's house to my dear sister, Debbie (Ermaguard) Twito.
- I, Mike Vee (the Veester), will my ability to stay out of trouble to my sister, Stacy, and my womanizing ability to the younger wrestlers, especially Andy Blenkush and B.J. Mariotti.
- I, Lynn Vetsch, will all my commanding talents to Rachel Kolles.
- I, Jennifer Walz, will my ability to not hit Bobby Kasper to Jennifer Gmach, and my ability to "dance on the railing" to Natasha Olson.
- I, Doug Watters, will offer some good advice to underclassmen-Don't take Advanced Math.
- I, Melissa Zachman, will my ability to have fun and party to my loving sister, Colleen!
- I, Sara Zachman, will my love for SUBWAY to Heather Christianson, and my cuteness to Tanya Larson!

A Final Farewell

*A final farewell,
to friends and enemies as well.
Perhaps we are destined to meet again, if not-we have the past as friends.
Oh, say this is not goodbye forever
In our hearts we're always together.
If not in body-in mind and soul.
We have only ourselves to console.
Don't shed a tear,
our grief is not in parting.
Smile for the adventure that we are just starting.*

STMA High School Library
St. Michael, Minnesota

*The fall of 1978 was very important to us. We were five and six. Full of potential (and all the great polyester plaid outfits we had.) Remember looking at all of those bigger, older kids who were years ahead of us.
Well wake up!! Nap time's over!
We're the big kids now. No more kindergarten stuff-scary, isn't it?
When I sit and daze during one of Mr. Wilmes's exciting lectures, I watch the kindergarteners. So small, so cute, often wishing I could join. Do you?
Well, the great year is here: 1991. The year we believed we'd be turned free from rules, lockers, and running to beat those off-key bells.
I've decided maybe I'd rather stay. It's been kind of fun. Missing all of the exciting things that go on in high school.
Nah! And as Dennis Miller puts it every Saturday night:
"I'm outta' here"*

Megan Cassidy

The journey is almost done
 The hard times and good times
 Now all blended together
 In memory
 Throughout the years some friends have stayed
 Others changed or just disappeared in the past
 The world is changing
 And us with it

But it's nice to know that we will

Shawn Kolles Receives Huber Award

The 1990-1991 concert band, once again, proved itself to be an outstanding group by giving fifty-eight performances and three concerts. Under the direction of Stu Sawdey, the musicians were able to send many solos, duets, and ensembles to the state instrumental music contest held at St. Cloud State University. Many of the people who entered this contest spent their own time practicing music before and after school. All of the groups received high honors. Senior Shawn Kolles was the recipient of the Joe Huber award, which was announced at the spring concert. Shawn was voted for his leadership and enormous ability as a musician by his fellow concert band members.

A Dream Come True

For all of the band members the trip to the All-American Music Festival from April 18-24 filled with firsts. For some it was the first time in a plane and first time out of state. But for all members it was winning the first-place award as an outstanding parade band. The marching band placed first in the parade category in their class, but their score was the highest overall for all classes combined. The flag squad for the Knights also received an honor as the outstanding squad in all classes. In the concert division, the band placed seventh receiving a excellent rating.

"There's Always Spring"

This year's one-act play proved to be successful by going to the region competition for the first time in nine years. "There's Always Spring" by Arthur Lovegrove re-unites Brenda and Alan, a married ghost couple, with the well-loved London flat they rented while they were alive. When Jill and Ian, a young engaged couple, come to view the flat for possible leasing, they have no idea that Brenda and Alan, dead and invisible, are watching them. Throw in Mr. Withers, the old and burly realtor, and Miss Watson, the lady next door, and what results is a fast-paced, delightful English Comedy.

Lower Left: Miss Watson, portrayed by Sara Wolf, reminisces about the days of when Brenda and Ian were still alive. Lower Right: Ian and Brenda, portrayed by Kris Kortuem and Jessica Lindenfesler, prove to be in love even after death.

Once upon a time a young girl named Alice spies a white rabbit. She decides to follow the rabbit who leads her down a hole which is a door which leads her into a world of wondrous nonsense. Alice upon entering this world then meets up with some wild, wacky, and insane characters that take her through many adventures as she tries to find her way home.

This popular childrens' story by Lewis Carroll: "Alice In Wonderland" was presented to the public by the STMA Drama Department.

The first two performances were sold out (in fact people were turned away) which resulted in a third performance. Quoting a couple of the thespians; the large crowds and fantastic, heavy fur costumes caused "A heckuva lotta heat!"

Finally, tired from all the excitement, Alice lies down for a nap, and the story comes to a close.

This production was under the direction of Jan Thelen who proved that hard work and dedication result in success.

Nancy Barthel Wins Choral Award

Under the direction of Ron Sass, the STMA concert choir entertained audiences with their melodic voices at several events over the past year. The choirsters again performed at the homecoming coronation ceremony, plus giving four concerts. The group struggles to recruit more male voices, but have done very well with the "stout-hearted men" they do have. The popularity of the pop singers has gotten non-choir guys to try out and participate in that ensemble. Maybe if the schedule ever changes it will enable more to join. Some members of the choir work on solos and small groups for the district and state competitions. Again the singers did well. A highlight of the spring concert was the election by fellow choir members of Nancy Barthel (pictured at right) to receive the Choral award. This honor is given to the senior member who has shown outstanding leadership and talent throughout their career in the choir.

Shommy And Dedicated Members Put NHS In High Gear.

Mrs. Shomshak has taken over the National Honor Society and there is no looking back. "I want this to be one of the best darn chapters in the state.", was a frequently used quotation by her at the meetings. The chapter realized that it wouldn't happen over-night but they hope they took some giant steps in the right direction.

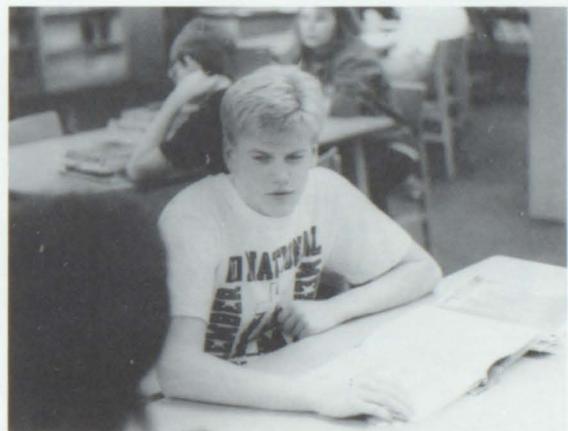

Aside from the usual dances, fundraisers, tutoring, and other special events organized by the NHS, a paper recycling drive was also implemented into the school district this year. Also new, this year was an attendance policy of the members. This policy ensured the officers Mark Mischke (Pres.), Brad Hackenmueller (Vice-Pres.), Shawn Kolles (Tres.), and Brian Ketel (Sec.) that their meetings would be generally fully attended.

Following the lead of Mrs. Shomshak, the "Knights" chapter of the NHS is charging towards it's goal of being "One of the best darn chapters in the state."

Young Team Looks To A Brighter Future

The 1990 Knight tennis season was not the success the team hoped for at the beginning of the school year, but the progress of the young team makes the future look bright.

The Knights started the year under the direction of a new head coach, Jim Riles. Coach Riles found himself in charge of coaching thirteen freshman, three juniors and a senior. Building for the future became the goal for the season. The Knights made it a fairly good season, finishing with a 6-10 record, with strong play from the four veterans, Sarah Langewisch, Cheryl Gilge, Rachel Volk and Krista Zachman. Cheryl and Krista received the Captain Award at the end, with Rachel getting the Most Valuable Player award. Out of the large group of freshman rookies, Stephanie Angus captured the Most Improved Player honor.

A Season To Remember

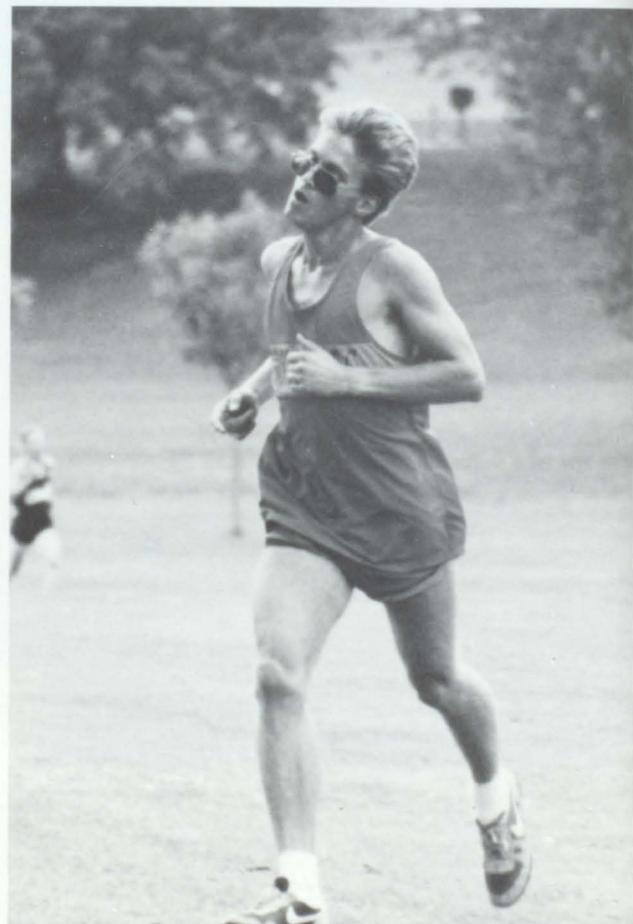

It all began in August, when the 1990 cross country team set their goals. Heading into the season, the runners knew they would have to practice hard to perform their best. They accomplished this by running an average of 3-5 miles daily, starting in the middle of August and continuing until the end of October. The goals set by the Knights were met as the cross country team finished second in the conference and then in the section. Out of ten meets, the boys team finished with first place wins at Norwood-Young America and the STMA Invitational. They also had two second and third place finishes. Charlie Robeck, Chris Gardner, J.J. Hall, and Dan Vetch made the all conference team. The boys missed participating in the state meet by one point, losing the berth to Rockford in the section 3A meet. With only one graduating member, Charlie Robeck, the guys hope to finish the season after this at a state meet.

With only two members on the girls cross country team, they were looking for individual successes. Junior Tiffany Zahler, had an excellent first season by improving her time by two minutes and 22 seconds. Freshman, Missy Lidberg rewrote the history books as she became the only STMA girl to run in a state cross country meet. Although she didn't place high at the state meet, she hopes to return next year with her winning style.

Because of their hard work and determination, the cross country teams made this a season to remember.

Knights Share Conference Crown

At the beginning of the season, the odds seemed stacked against the Knights because of their lack of experience, but with excellent coaching and outstanding leadership from the seniors, they were, once again, a force to be reckoned with in the Wright County Conference. The Knights beat those pre-season odds, and shared the conference championship.

Leading the Knights into the second round of the section playoffs were All-Conference selections Mark Mischke, Brian Ketel, Eddy Dehmer, Cory Nelson, Doug Watters, Todd Klaers and Kris Kortuem. The team defeated Norwood-Young America in the first round and then lost to a tough Brooklyn Center team.

Other honors bestowed on team members were "Academic All-State Awards" to Brian Ketel and Mark Mischke. Mark also received honorable mention in the Minneapolis "Star Tribune's" All-Metro All-State Team. Head Coach Earl Bauman was named the Wright County Conference Coach of the Year.

Knight Team Captains: Cory Nelson, Eddy Dehmer, Mark Mischke.

High Hopes For An Extended Volleyball Season Fall Short

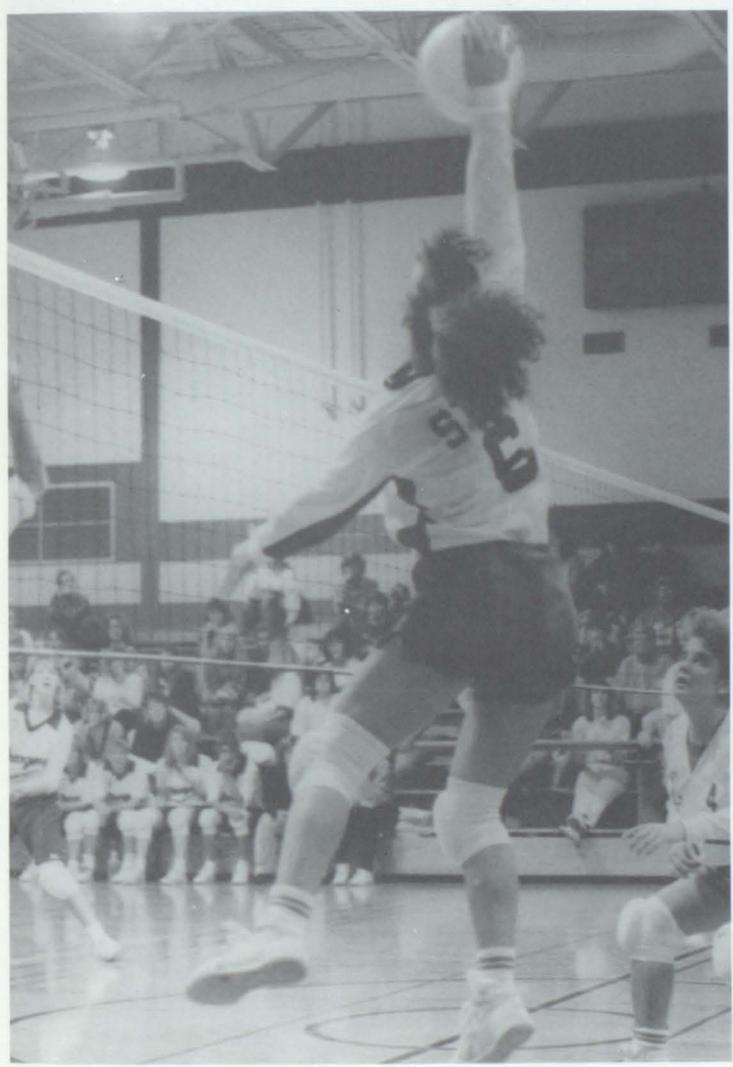

With one year of experience in coaching the STMA Knights volleyball under his belt, Head Coach Paul Moore did another outstanding job leading the girls through nearly another flawless regular season with an overall record of 26-2.

When the girls participated in three invitational tournaments and brought home two championships and one third place, many had high hopes of them returning to the state tournament. They entered Districts with big expectations as they blew away Mpls. Lutheran and Minnehaha. However, STMA's bid for the state tourney quickly came to an end as the Knights failed to pull together in a disappointing loss against Waconia during the third round of districts.

With mixed feelings, the season came to an end as the following seniors were selected into the all-conference team: Stephanie Eull, Donna Fricke, and Jenny Walz. Best server was awarded to Sara Zachman, while Jenny Walz was once again recognized as the best setter. Jenny Twito received both the Best Hitter and Best Blocker titles. The most improved honor was given to Donna Fricke. Lastly, once again, the Most Valuable Player title was awarded to the entire Knights volleyball team.

9th Grade Volleyball

New Advisor, New Duties

It was a different year for fall cheerleading this year. We cheered for all the sports, including football, tennis, volleyball, and cross country.

This year we have a new cheerleading advisor, Lisa Novak. It took some time and patience getting used to new rules, but everyone seemed to adjust.

Overall, it was a fairly good season. We had three girls who were new at cheerleading and did a really great job. They were enthusiastic and eager to learn! We also went to a cheerleading camp at the U of M. We learned how to build mounts and a new style of cheerleading.

Also, this year, the weather had brought us a few unexpected moments such as cheering in the hot blazing sun to, worst of all, the freezing cold and sleeting rain.

Even with all the new additions plus some complications, through thick and thin, we pulled together as a squad and had fun throughout the year.

On behalf of the fall cheerleaders, we would like to say good luck to the new cheerleaders in the years to come, and have fun!

It Was A Season To Gain Experience For Young Team

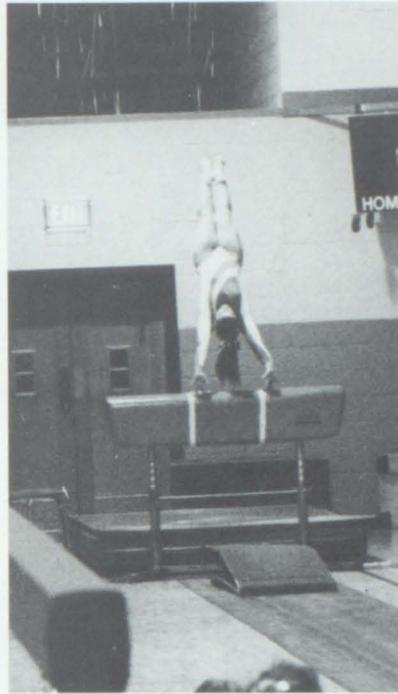

The winter of 1990-91 was a season of experience for the young gymnastic team. The squad was made up of five juniors and a large number of eighth grader girls. The Knights practiced hard all season and with much determination ended it with a record of five wins and seven losses. Special awards given to team members at the close of the season included Tanya Bourget as the Knights' most valuable player. Julie Sutherland, Krista Hofmeister, Liz Daleiden and Brandy Clayton were selected as hardest workers on the floor beam, bars and vault respectively.

A Year Of Change

The 1990-91 season was one of change for the STMA girls basketball team with a new coach, Lisa Walters, taking over the program. The girls showed much improvement throughout the year in many aspects of the game. With these improvements, the team was able to pull off some big wins, including games over Delano and Dassel/Cokato. As the season neared the end, the girls played some of the best basketball that they'd played all season.

The season ended with a close loss to Minnehaha Academy in the first round of district play. The Knights closed the season with a record of 7-15. Theresa Barthel was selected to the All-Conference team, with Jenny Twito receiving Honorable-Mention. Other awards went to Missy Zupon for the Best Hustle, Leslie Teitgen as the Most Improved Player and the Most Valuable Player award went to Theresa Barthel.

STMA Boys Basketball Buries Past And Begins New Era

Expectations for this year's Knights soared to new heights. Being labeled as a "contender" for the WCC title by everyone, including the Star Tribune, for the first time in it's history was only the beginning. The Knights found themselves in the new and unexplored territory. Now the only question was-could they handle the pressure? Well, unlike former Knight teams, they seemed to live off the pressure and cruised through a 20 win season. The 90-91 Knights broke all but 2 team records and had 11 individual season records shattered. 3 Knights were named to the all-conference team: Brian Ketel, Todd Klaers, and Tim Hochstedler. They also had two honorable mentions in Ben Hofmeister and Mark Mischke. Head coach Tim Anfenson was honored as top coach in the WCC. He acknowledges that assistant coach Gary Walter was a big part of gaining that honor. All in all, the 90-91 Knights ewere a true team in every sense of the word. They hope to have started a dominant tradition in yet another STMA sport.

Top: Mike Barthel gives it his best while doing warm-ups before the game. Bottom: Ben Hofmeister realizes he is open and looks for the pass from another teammate.

Knights Continue Winning Ways: Dehmer, Kottke Compete At State

The 1990-91 STMA wrestling did nothing to tarnish the outstanding tradition in wrestling at St. Michael-Albertville High School. The Knights won their fifth straight Wright County Conference title and fifth straight Sub-Section title enroute to a 14-4 duel meet season. They also crowned their fourth state individual champion in four years in senior Eddy Dehmer who became STMA's first two-time state champion. That brought the total of STMA state individual champions to six, all in wrestling.

STMA had two individuals qualify for the state. Besides Eddy, senior Robbie Kottke, who was also voted "Most Improved", qualified but did not place at state. Robbie had an outstanding senior year with 30 wins and 8 losses.

Earning All-Conference honors for the team were freshman, B.J. Mariotti (103); juniors J.J. Hall (130) and Kurt Becker (171); and senior Robbie Kottke (119) and Eddy Dehmer (135).

Subsection champions included Robbie Kottke (119), Dan Vetsch (125), Eddy Dehmer (130) and Luke Barthel (145).

Senior Lance Barthel qualified for state as a junior, but an early season injury caused him to miss the rest of the season.

Managers for the team were Natalie Lint, Donna Fricke, Theresa Hennen and Dennis Bourget.

Eddy Sets New School Records

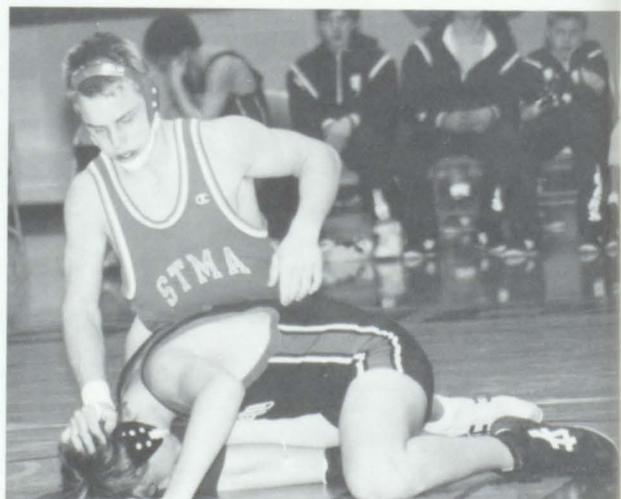

Senior Eddy Dehmer ended his wrestling at STMA high school with his second individual state championship. Eddy competed in four state tournaments in six years of varsity wrestling. Throughout the season, Eddy vied with another high school Minnesota wrestler for the most career wins. At the finish of the season, Eddy came in second with a 184-16-3 record. However, his record included the two state crowns. Other honors bestowed upon Dehmer included selection as a high school All-American by both "USA Wrestling Magazine" and "American Wrestling Hero"; All-State Academic 1st Team for two years and six times all-conference. Other awards included being voted "Hardest Worker", "Outstanding Wrestler"; and "Honorary Captain" by his teammates.

Front: Chris Thorson, Dan Duncombe, Mike Cassidy, Carl Roehl, Adam Lint, Nick Dehmer, Billy Dehmer. Back: Keith Bollbrecht, Paul Duncombe, Peter Haag, Randy Becker, Ben Keizer, Jeremy Adelman.

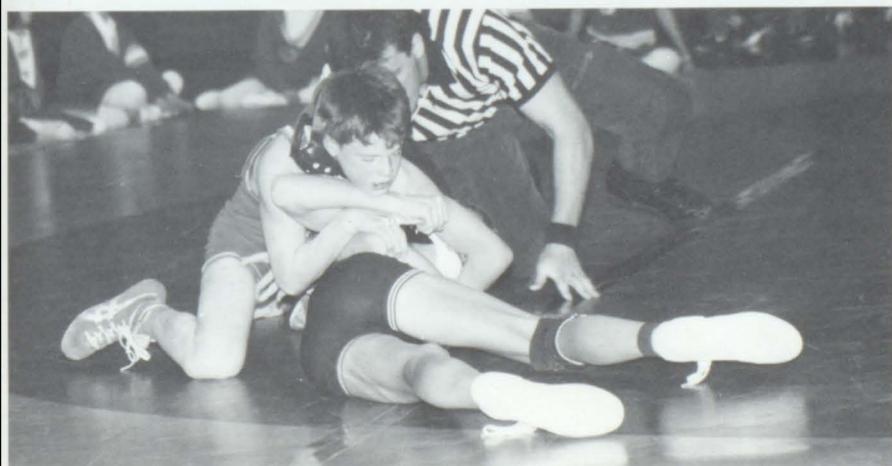

The STMA wrestling team's JV had a 10 win 4 loss record. The highlight of the season was a 36-33 win over Monticello, a team the STMA JV had not beaten in a long time.

Individual leaders on the JV were 8th grade Billy Dehmer (18-4-0); 9th grader Peter Haag (16-3-0); 7th grader Dan Duncombe (15-3-0); 8th grader Nick Dehmer (13-8-0) and sophomore Randy Becker (11-4-0).

The success of the STMA junior varsity squad proves that the future looks bright for a continued winning tradition for STMA.

Knights End Season With An Even Record; Eide MVP

Hockey is a challenge to the small town team. What they go through is not always known. Without the advantage of their very own ice, they are at the mercy of another's scheduling. Sometimes it's very early in the morning when they have to travel to the ice arena for a practice session. Sometimes it's in the evening. Games are scheduled at odd times. Being in an independent conference because there aren't enough hockey teams in your own athletic conference makes for long road trips for regular season games and for tournaments. But dedication to the sport and to the team make these players do it.

The Knights did fight their way to eleven wins and eleven losses with one tie. The Knights struggled at times, never having more than three wins in a row or two losses in a row. Leadership from the four seniors got them through.

The captains for the 1990-91 season were Nick Eide, Cory Nelson and Trenton O'Leary. Nick Eide was honored as the team's MVP. Eric Wenger and Jerod Gasper were elected captain for 1991-92.

Top Left: Senior captain Nick Eide keeps his eyes on the activity on another part of the ice. Right: Freshman goalie Mark Wolesky guards the Knight net. Mark gained a lot of experience over the season and he knows that next year will be better.

New Coach Brings New Atmosphere To STMA Baseball

After 17 years of playing John Wilkens' style, new head coach Scott Bauer gave ST.M.A baseball a refreshing face lift. The team responded well to the new aggressive style of playing and compiled a 11-9 overall record, but more importantly, they showed steady improvement as the season progressed.

As in the many previous years, the Knights' assistant coach was Roger Ketel. Coach Ketel was named the state's first assistant coach of the year after last year's campaign, and he again brought welcome knowledge to the coaching staff.

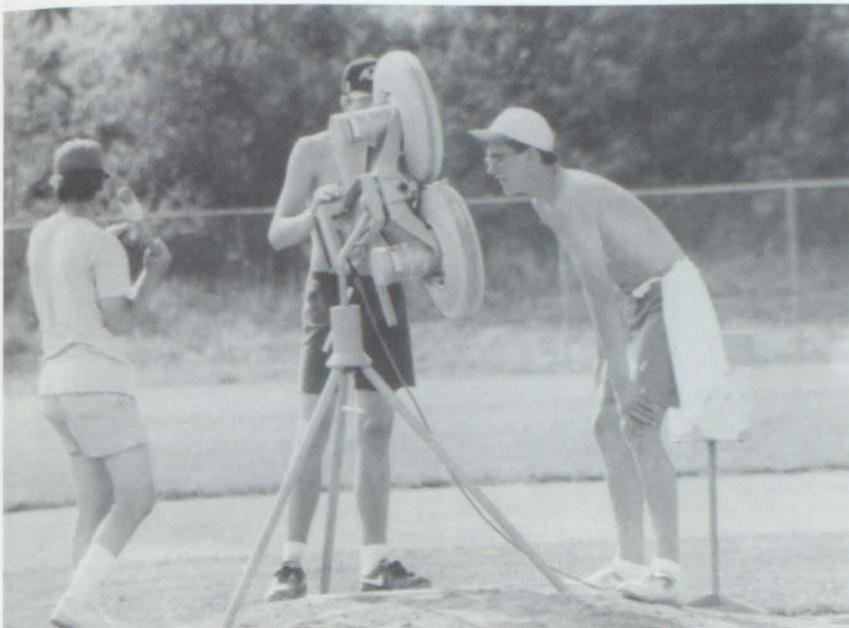

Brian "Brutus" Ketel and Trenton "Roy Hobbes" O'Leary were again named all-conference for the Knights, with Kurt Becker and Myles Marquette given honorable mention awards.

Kurt Becker emerged as a ball crushing hitter and led the team with a .389 batting average and had the team's only home run. Brian Ketel led the pitching staff with a 1.99 ERA while Trenton O'Leary and Myles Marquette led the team with 23 hits each. Mike Freske had 16 RBI's to lead the batting department. Trenton O'Leary rounded out his long high school baseball career with the team voting him Most valuable player.

The excellent tradition of baseball will be continued next year, so stay tuned for more excitement!!

Improvements Lift Knights To 4th Place In Districts

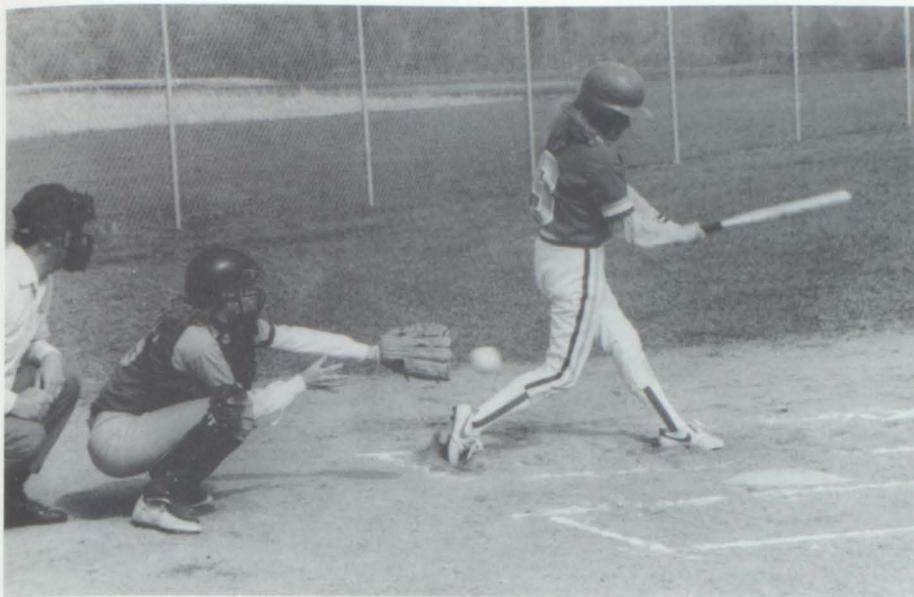

The Knights started off a dominant season by only losing one of their first six games of the season. The softball team finished 11-8 overall and 5-3 in the conference. The highlight of the season was a 5-2 win over Orano to qualify the team for the District semifinals which were played in Loretto. The Knights lost to Mound (who were 2nd in state) and Delano to finish off the season in 4th place.

Senior co-captains Rita Roquette and Sara Zachman showed strong leadership on the field combining for 52 put outs. Rita was rated MVP and was also chosen to the all conference team. Sara received the Hustle award and an all conference honorable mention. Senior Jenny Dawson played 1st base and was awarded the Gold Glove award. She had 135 put outs and only 3 errors. Sophomores Dawn Clayton and Missy Zupon again had excellent seasons on the mound. Missy received the most improved title. Junior, Nikki Kottke, all conference shortstop, had the highest batting average of .395 and for the second straight year was awarded the Gold Glove award for her defensive skills. Catcher, Heather Christianson improved her batting average to a .367 which included 2 H.R. Pam Wines had a good year at 3rd base as did Krista Hofmeister at 2nd. Heather Williams and Vicki Kottke shared outfield duties and Freshman, Tanya Larson, was a very strong defense playing four different positions this year.

"Congratulations on an excellent season and with only 3 seniors next year, the team looks for more success in the future." Coach Barthel hopes.

Individual Efforts Of Scherber And Kortuem Highlight Spring

The efforts of several track team members highlighted the season for the Knights. Junior Kris Kortuem set a new school record for the discus, throwing 145 feet and 5 inches. His teammate, junior Josh Scherber broke two previous school records in the long jump and triple jump. Josh jumped 21 feet and six inches and 42 feet and 9 3/4 inches respectively. Coming back from a pre-season injury, Mark Mischke returned to competition shortly before the conference meet, Mark won the long jump at this meet, giving him All-Conference honors. Josh Scherber won the triple jump, giving him All-Conference, too. Senior Cory Nelson became the third All-Conference with his winning the pole vault. At the end of the district meet, Kris Kortuem advanced to the Regions by winning the discus and shot events, while Scherber won the triple and long jumps. Josh also qualified for the Regions in the 400 meter. Other Region qualifiers were Charlie Robeck in the 3200 meter, Mark Mischke in the long jump, and Cory Nelson in the pole vault. Triple jumper Scherber was the only Knight to advance to state competition.

Fricke Breaks School Records

The girl's track team lacked quantity, but not quality. This year's team had an impressive '91 season by taking five 2nd places and placing 3rd in the conference meet held in Waconia. Senior Donna Fricke had an outstanding year as she broke school records in the shot put and the discus. Donna threw the shot 38 feet and one inch, and the discus 114 feet and 3 1/2 inches. Missy Lidberg also broke a school record by running a time of five minutes and 36.8 seconds in the 1600 meter. Donna and Missy were both selected for the All-Conference team. STMA's track team sent Theresa Barthel, Donna Fricke, and Kirsten Peterson to the region competition, but none qualified for the state class "A" meet.

The logo for Security Bank Northwest. The word 'Security' is written in a large, elegant, cursive script. Below it is a stylized graphic of a hand holding a pen, with the pen nib pointing towards the right. To the right of this graphic, the word 'BANK' is written in a bold, sans-serif font, and 'NORTHWEST' is written in a smaller, sans-serif font below it, separated by a horizontal line.
