One-Acts Are Winter Productions

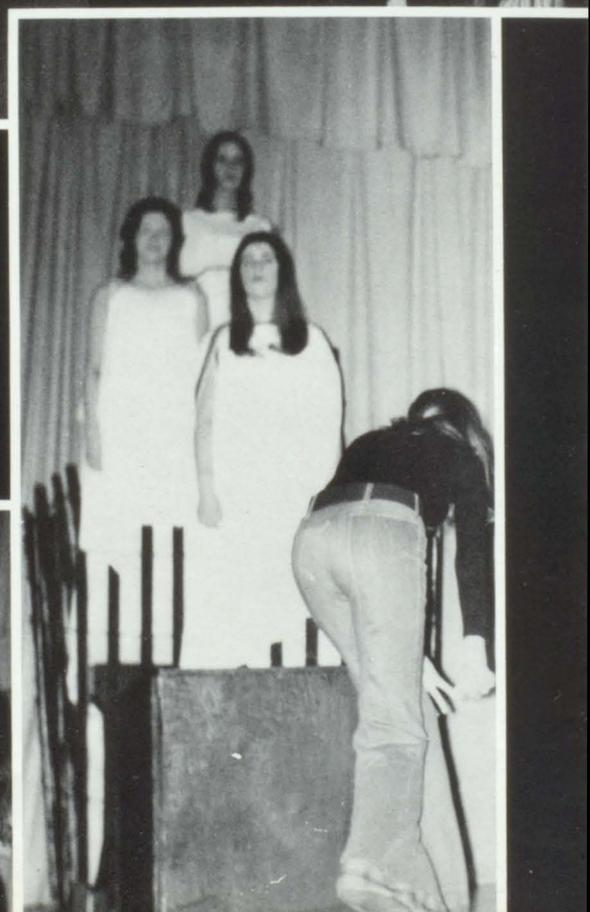

Murray Auger stabs his fear.

Family Margy Vetsch, Terry Irvine, and Darlene Haus mourn.

In sub-district competition "The Dream" placed fourth under Mike Walz's direction:

Darlene Haus played the leading lady and fights against Mark Barthel, the symbol of the unknown.

John Irvine speaks as the chorus, Shelley Nelson, Diane Sherman, and Mary Ann Johnson, wait to chant.

Kathy Kunkel, Paul Sherman, David Worley, and Patti Soderlund ask a Hanukkah blessing while Theresa Kremer reads.

Kathy Kunkel as Anne Frank.

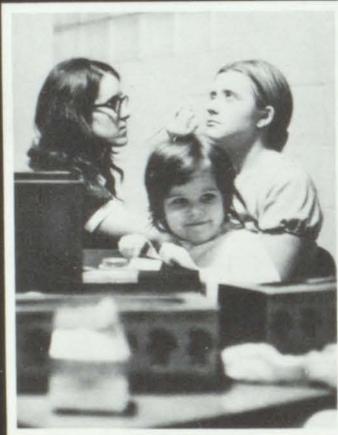

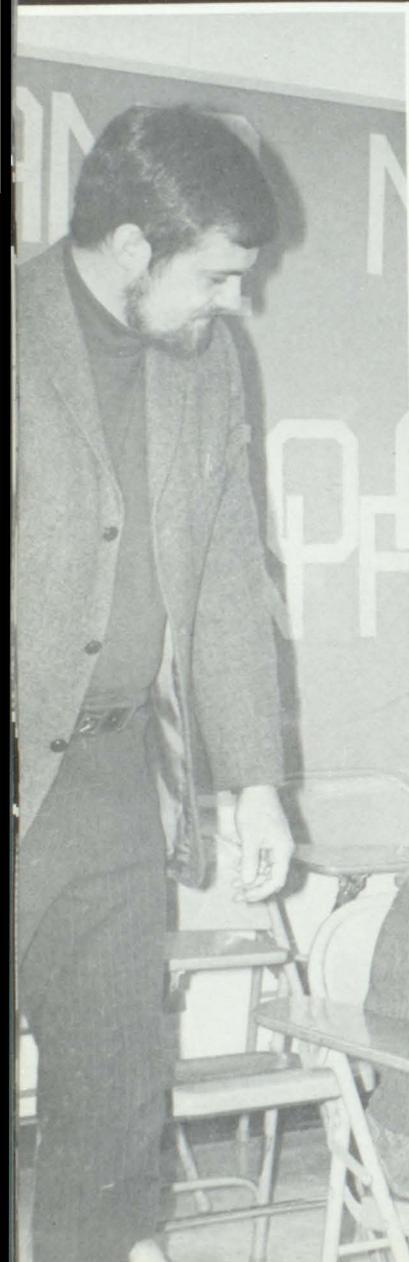

John Fredrickson directed the junior high production of "The Diary of Anne Frank." Dan Dawson and John King worked lights.

David Worley and Theresa Kremer as Mr. and Mrs. Frank.

Drama lettermen are Mike Hackenmueller, Diane Sherman, John Irvine, Louise Huber, Darlene Haus and John King. The director and assistant for "The American Dream" were Mike Walz and Diane Sherman, LEFT.

"The American Dream" Draws a Full House

Darlene Haus to John Irvine: "I'll tell you all about it. Maybe, maybe later tonight."

Louise Huber: "I don't mind if I do."

Julene Becker: "There you go, letting your true feelings come out. Old people aren't dry enough I suppose!"

Albee's play drew a capacity crowd for the STMA Masquer's fall production. Dealing with Man's inability to communicate, the play startled, amused and provoked genuine thought throughout the audience.

KNIGHT POWER

* Do you want the:
 "Grass Roots"
 playing at our school for free this May? Follow these rules, and maybe we can!

1) Collected by March 15th the outside wrappers (not individual wrappers) of one free sugarless gum and 5 x 5" pieces of paper with the words "Love Sugarless Gum" hand printed on them.

2) Keep bringing in these wrappers
 and papers, and put them in the box provided, which will be in the office.

3) Chances of winning depends upon how many schools enter. Small and large schools have equal chances.

Coaches Eichelberg and Tietgen follow the court action. Winning the Crow River Trophy was worth the hawkeyes.

Debbie Childs, pep club president, presented Dorothy Lenneman with roses on her final day of employment at STMA.

Judy Hofmeister is Mr. Tidmarsh's office secretary while Laverne Beaudry assumed the high school principal's secretarial assignments.

Skills Implemented in Halls of STMA— Clerical, Cook and Clean Work Accomplished

The Kremer Brothers, Victor and Lawrence, assumed night janitor duties this year.

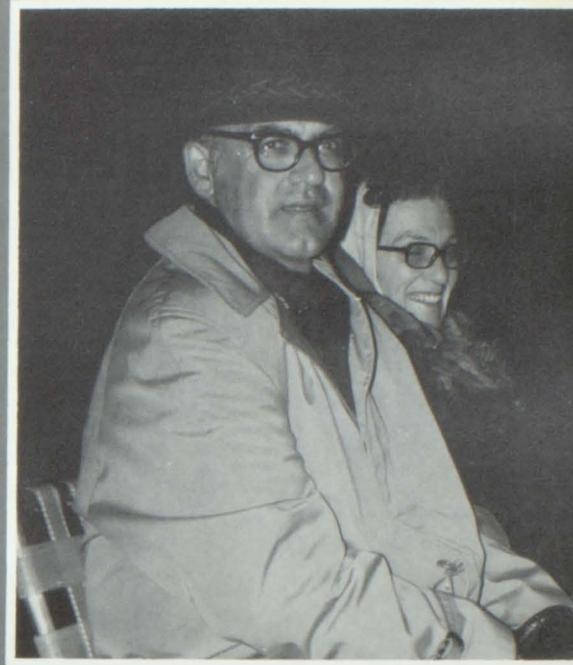

Nick and Lorena Zachman assist head custodian Merle Schumm daily.

Armella Schumacher, Maryann Helgeson, Louise Ennis, Evelyn Able, and Lorena Zachman have work reflected in stainless steel

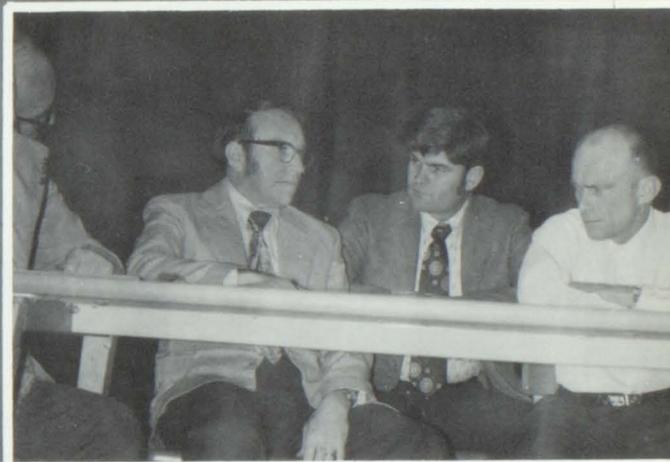

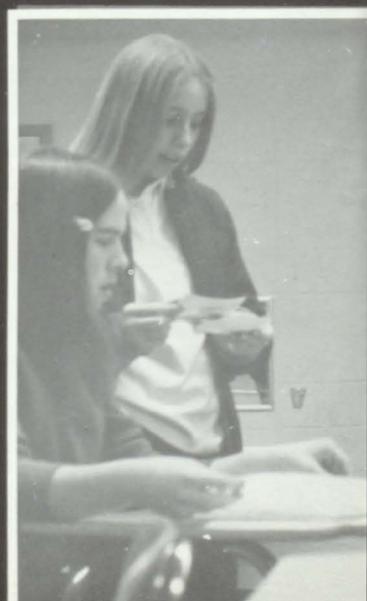

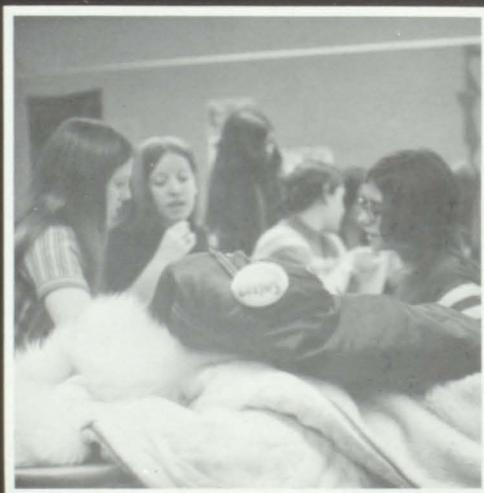

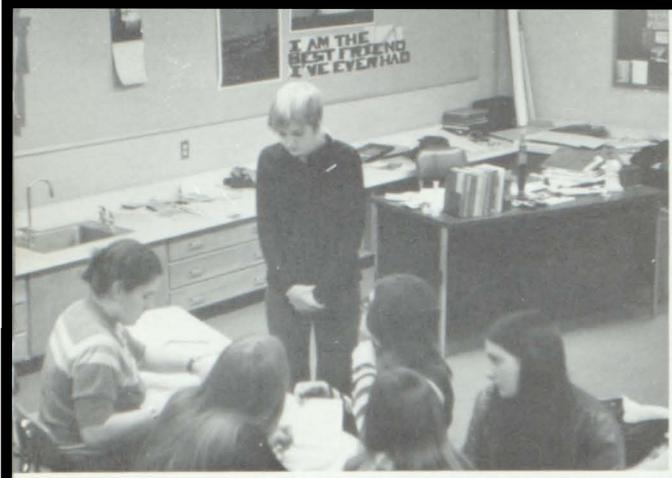

Principal Mario DeMatteis, Superintendent Bill Tidmarsh and his wife, Margaret, are common spectators

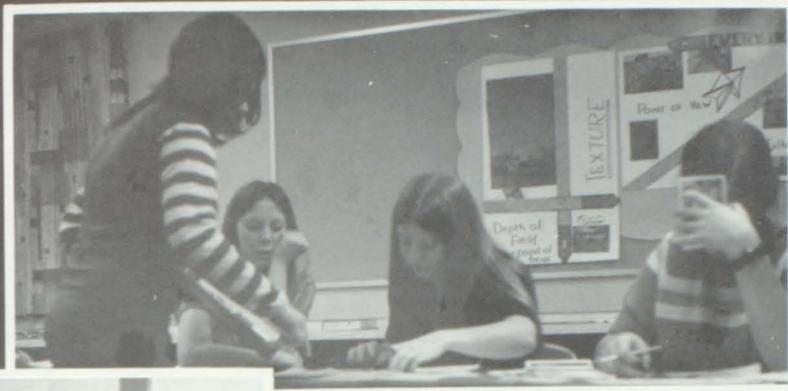

R. Marx, G. Hackenmueller, K. Tieman, Dr. Hagerty, L. Robeck, and L. Lindenfelser answered questions proposed to the board. B. McEarchern spoke as a citizen on the issue.
