Over The Years

We've been friends almost forever,
 We joined this family when we were 5 years old.
 We watched each other grow up and change.
 Remember boy and girl germs? Now we're going steady.
 Remember watching cartoons before school?
 Now we try and sleep as long as possible.
 Remember your first kiss? Middle School dances?
 Having crushes on Seniors when we were Freshmen?
 Thinking Senior year would never come?
 Now it's here and it's going by too fast.
 Remember bashing freshman floats? Our Junior prom?
 Rolling down the hill at football games?
 Welcoming the Parish School kids in 7th grade?
 Letting friends cry on your shoulder?
 We've been through good times and bad.
 We've been there for each other through tragedy and pain.
 Our Senior year has brought us so much closer together.
 We're the class that changed Homecoming and made it the best.
 We were the class who had one of the nicest proms,
 After no one thought we could pull it off.
 Thinking back, our problems were nothing at all —
 Compared to what we face in the future.
 For most of us, it's off to college.
 Some will pursue a career without a degree.
 It's scary to think of life after this, not seeing each other as often as we'd like.
 Our security blanket is ending shortly, it's our last year together.
 We must travel on and meet new friends, but they won't be as special to us.
 We'll always remember each other, and the fun times we shared.

— Peggy Weber

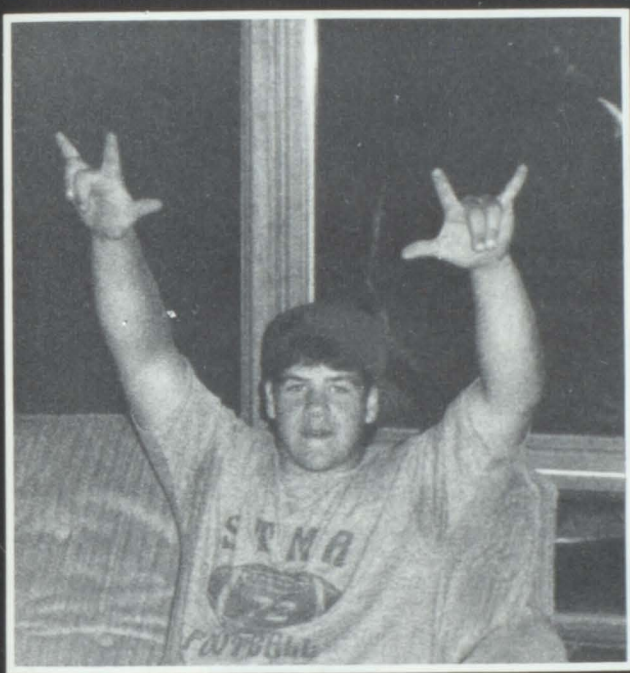

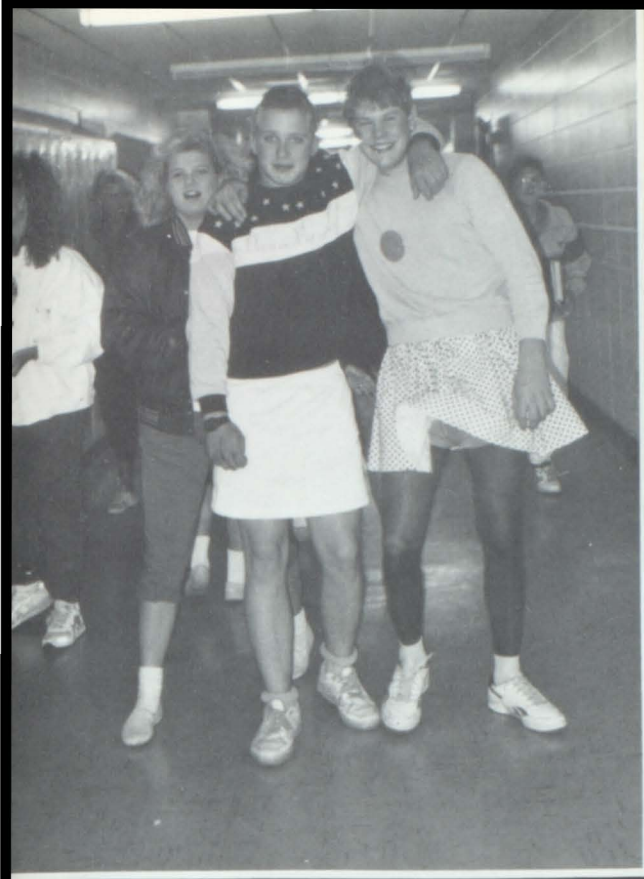

Senior Class Wills

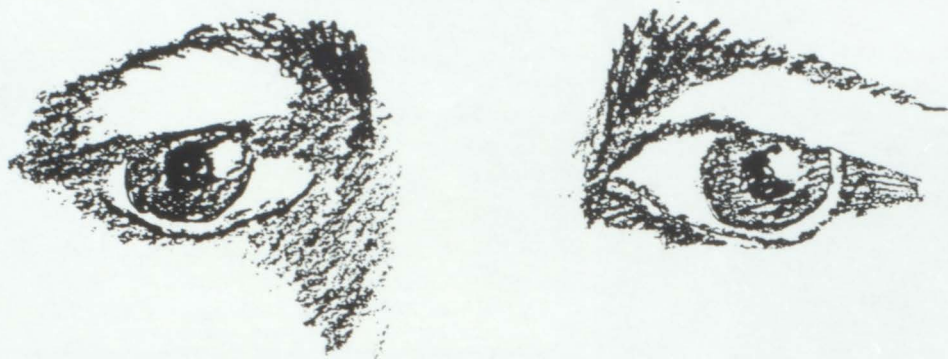

I, Gina R. Yahnke, will all of my smart remarks to the Borresons, Dawn Kohler and Jessica Lindenfelser.
I, Brett Hutter, will "never give in to society!"
I, Jean Staples, will my ability to brown-nose to anyone who can't.
I, Randy Shutt, will my nickname (Butt) to David Anselment.
I, Rhonda Voss, will my studious habits and my divine ability to learn the student handbook to Andi Nelson.
I, Kevin Jocelyn, will the B.S. I got from all the teachers to Cletis Chenvert.
I, Kristi Walter, will my ability to write passes to Susie Saari.
I, Karen Haydter, will all my hours at Russell's (on and off the job) to Jenny Winkelman, my Bargain Hunter game (and all my G-F.F.) to Jennifer Wolesky, and my ability to throw parties to all the juniors who trashed my house!
I, Sue Berning, will a lip-reduction kit to Shannon "BLB" Schulke, and to Keith Dehmer I will a toilet.
I, Tracy Martin, will my good grades to my brother.
I, David Mathieu, will my full head of hair to the balding Mark Welter and my ability to get along with the hockey coaches to Cletis Chenvert.
I, Dawn Kowalczyk, will my ability to get along with authorities to my sister, Malisa.
I, Jolie Tatro, will all my practical jokes (cards, bras) that we played on Mr. Gordon to Angie Stanton.
I, Karen Bistodeau, will my algebra grade to anyone who wants it.
I, Katie Hackenmueller, will my ability to swing at change-ups to Angie Stanton.
I, Michelle Hochstedler, will my passing gas ability to Trudi Larson.
I, Tina Kottke, will my "friendliness" to Dr. Denny Toskas.
I, Shaleen Barthel, will my ability to drive to Angela Winkelman.
I, Wes Pundt, will my ability to throw a party without my house getting trashed to Karen Haydter.
I, Angie Milless, will my prize attendance record and friendship with the principal to Michelle Lindenfelser, and to Paul Schumm's girlfriend I will a nail file.
We, Dan Paulsen, Scott Kasper, and Brian Becker, will our wrestling ability to next years wrestling team.
I, Leo Dehmer, will CHUBBY to Stephanie.
I, Theresa Wines, will my natural blonde hair to all those artificials, and my hands to next years catcher Jenny Walz.
I, Steve Matthews, will my car and rollerskates to Sean Boll.
I, Dan Paulsen, will my wrestling banquet mask to Paul Schumm.
I, Craig Williams, will my punctuality to Larry Twito, my 20-20 vision to Kevin McGinnis, and right field to Jamie Madson — who will never play 2nd base.
I, Cindy Weber, will all of my unused band lessons to Kristy Olson.
I, John Thompson, will my ability to put up with the B-ball coaches to Todd Klaers.
I, Teri Schall, will my daydreaming abilities to Mike Vee.
I, Jodie Leppa, will my compact car to Bobby Kasper, captain of the black barge, and to Dez Marquette I will my seat on the baseball bleachers.
I, Brenda Roden, will my great percussion ability to Shawn Kolles.
I, Margaret Robeck, will absolutely nothing to the class of 1990.
I, Jennifer McEachern, will my side-door parking spot to Sandy Barthel (if she ever gets a car!).
I, Brian Heuring, will my five-headed toxic eggplant to Jason Kilian.
I, Jeremy Aydt, will my jumping and balancing ability to Dan Eichelberg.
I, Heidi Haag, will my seat in Mr. Erickson's math class to Vicki Winsperger.
I, Marlee Greenberg, will my awesome sportscar, "The Gremlin X" to Jim Eicher (if he can handle the power!).
I, Jerome Jochim, will my incredibly long hair to Adam Barthel.
I, Jeanette Blake, will my "awesome" pool playing to Brian Ketel, and to Christine Guzzo I will my ability to listen to and enjoy Prince.
I, Dan Kolles, will my ability to take a lot of to Brian Schumm.
I, Christy Smith, will my good grades and ability to smart off to Lori Sanoski.
I, Lisa Glatzmaier, will my wonderful, spectacular grades in Spanish to Sheila Rowland.
I, Jeannie Zachman, will Kevin McGinnis my ability to get to school on time.
I, Dennis Berning, will our STMA high school to all the saps who want it.
I, Jason Holt, will my sister, Tonya, to Dan Kolles.
I, Shelly Zupon, will my nickname "Zups" to baby Zup.
I, Brian Zachman, will some arms to Jesse Milless, a calculator to Keith Lekatz (so he can figure out how quick he'd be), my single-leg takedown to Paul Schumm, my ability to be on time to Eddy Dehmer, and Matt Barthel gets two things: a 5:10 a.m. wake-up call and 87 stinky, uncooperative cows. Enjoy!
We, The Class of 1989, will our rowdiness, reputation, ability to party — and to Brian Heuring we each will 1/16 of a credit, so he can graduate with us.

1988-89 Foreign Friends

At STMA this year we met some great new friends. Thanks for the memories Mariana, Sara, and Berto. We'll miss you guys!!

Hola! Remember me? I'm Mariana. I just wanna say that I will never forget these six months here. I had so much fun and I met a lot of nice people ... One semester was enough to make me love it here. Thaks to all the people that helped me ...

I WILL MISS YOU STMA!!!!

HELLO EVERYBODY!!!!

I been here for 8 months, and I really love St. Michael. I hope someday come back again.

I learn enough and I knew a lot of people, and I really have alot of fun, you guys are cool. I love this country so bad, but I have to leave, o.k. Bye and take it easy, guys.

Decisions, decisions!!! We juniors have decisions all the time. First we have to decide what classes to take — chemistry, environmental science, physics, or biology. But, what if you don't like science?

And then is the decision regarding mathematics — will it be plain geometry or will we venture into Algebra II? Or maybe math isn't our thing, so what'll it be — shop, art, or home ec? Then again we could have a secret desire to sing or to play in the band. We also could choose from typing, computer science, record keeping, accounting, or study hall as electives. Don't forget required classes such as American government, economics, popular literature, and American literature.

The junior year can be a hard year or an easy year depending on what classes are taken, and how hard they are studied. No matter what the junior year is like, it is one of the best years of high school.

We're just beginning to get used to being sophomores and off we're pushed to become juniors. This year and in the years past, we've been reflecting a lot. Constantly changing we never stay the same. We shed our old interests and find new ones. New friends are found and old friends are kept. Welcoming the new people into our school and wishing luck to the ones leaving us, our class is like a big family. Then we look into the future. Remember the day we all climbed into Bus 21 and went over to the vocational school for our tour? The ride back was an exciting deal by itself. Good luck to all of us in the next two years.

What is a freshman? Just a 9th grader you say? Maybe. Someone's first year in high school? It's possible. A freshman is more than just that, at least this year's class. Freshmen are important too. Can you imagine going through high school without freshmen? Who would you pick on and shove around? What would it be like without them getting lost and not knowing what they're doing all the time. We, the little people, bring you into your dreary afternoons. We let you pick on us and shove us around, not just because you're older and wiser, it's because you're bigger. But remember, freshmen are people too. We compete in sports, play in the band, sing in the choir, participate in drama, give speeches, help design yearbook pages, lead cheers, just like you do now and when you were a freshman. So, admit it upper-classmen, freshmen are important people too!

Winterfest Week festivities began with the traditional theme days: Summer, Formal, Sports, Grub, and Blue & Gold Days. Activities continued with a ping-pong tournament won by Jesse Milless, a Twister tournament with Keith Lekatz the overall champ, and the basketball tourney won by the seniors. On a more intellectual level, the Trivial Pursuit contest was won by the juniors' team: Larry Barthel, Connie Beall, Jenny Winkelman, and Jenny Wolesky. The juniors were also victorious in Pictionary.

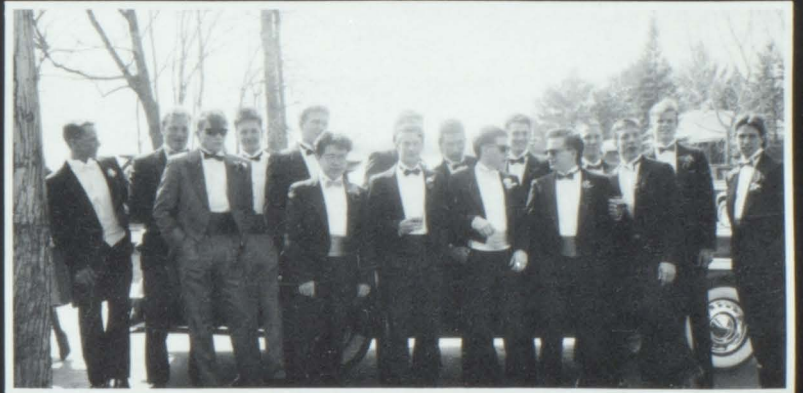

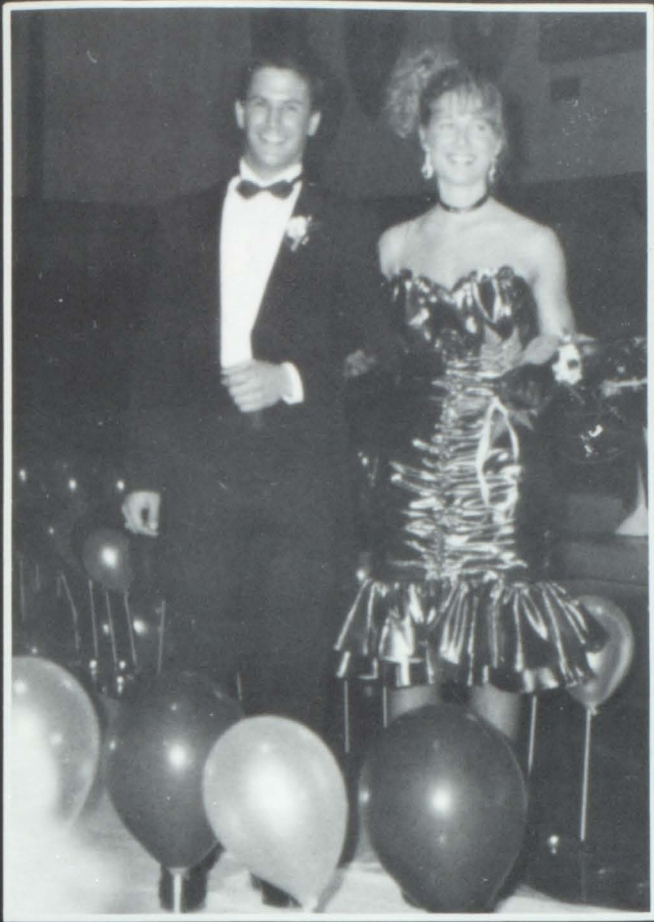

The talent show was somewhat of a dissappointment. It was scheduled for a different day and time than usual, so the number of entries was limited. But those who did perform put on a great show. The overall winners of the talent show was a group of vocalists and instrumentalists consisting of Stephanie Jakubiec, Christine Guzzo, Dan Kolles, Shawn Kolles, Mike Burke, and Ken Zahler. Keith Lekatz, Scott McCann, Ben Hofmeister, and Clint Hofmeister took second place honors with their lip-sync, and Dan Eichelberg took third with his stand-up routine.

MOMENTS

If there ever were moments more
 Precious,
 If there ever were moments more
 True,
 If there ever were moments more
 Wonderful,
 They're the moments I spend with
 You.
 Though deeply embedded, you revealed
 A strength that was always present
 Within me.
 Now I know I can turn around and
 Find that you'll be there.
 All the places I've been in search
 Of things
 That never could really be seen,
 When all I had to do was look in
 Your eyes
 You've shown me what love can Mean.

FALL CHEERLEADERS

This year's football cheerleaders and their new advisor, Ginny Verbrugge, were kept busy throughout the fall season. Along with cheering for football team, the cheerleaders cheered for the volleyball team and attended the St. Michael Cross Country Invitational. Because of these extra activities, the squad has now become known as "Fall Cheerleaders". The group was also kept busy making locker and lunchroom posters. This year the cheerleaders put on what was probably one of the best Homecoming pepfests the school had seen in quite some time. The highlight of the season had to be the trip to 99 1/2 WLOL with David Christen where they DJ'd the Top-Nine-at-Nine. They enjoyed every moment of it. Later on that night they came home and listened to themselves and laughed their hearts out.

When asked what Ginny thought of her first season as cheerleading advisor, she replied, "It was very enjoyable."

STMA

Football

Young Team Ends Season With 3 Wins

The STMA 1988 football season, under Head Coach Earl Bauman, started out slow for the Knights losing their first five games. They ended the regular season in the win column by winning their last three games, but were defeated in the first round in sectional playoffs against Becker.

Seniors Scott McCann and Scott Kasper were selected to the All-Conference Team with McCann placing second in the all-purpose running back division. McCann entered the STMA single season record list in pass receiving and most yards gained.

Trenton O'Leary was a tough defensive point earner for the Knights, followed by Kasper and McCann. Dan Eichelberg and McCann were the leading scorers for the team with five and four touchdowns respectively. Quarterback Mark Mischke also made the single season records list in most yards passing, passing attempts, and completions.

There were six Knights receiving Honorable Mention for All-Conference, and they were Chad Sutherland, Cletis Chenvert, Kevin Jocelyn, Dan Eichelberg, Larry Twito, and Chuck Daleiden.

Top Right: Knights not only practice plays and positions, but they also practice ferocious intimidation.

Volleyball

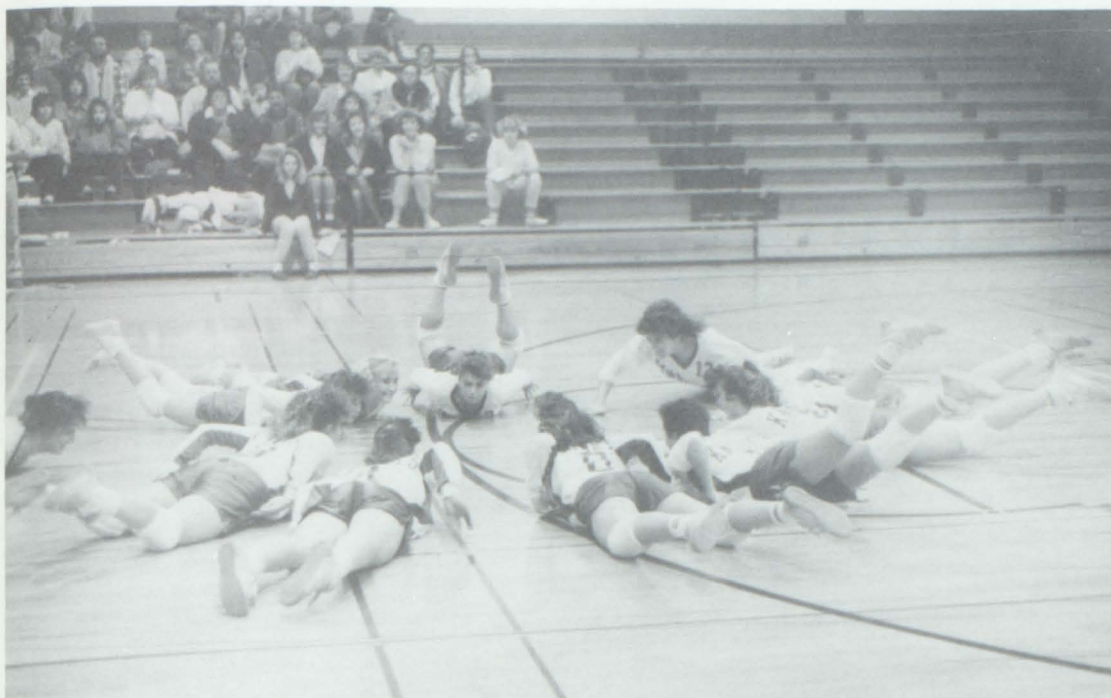

Knights Bump Their Way To 2nd Place.

During the regular season, the STMA volleyball team participated in three invitational tournaments. The Knights brought home a first place trophy at the Crow River Tournament, a consolation championship from the Apple Valley Tournament, and the third place award at the Monticello Invitational Tournament. At the end of the regular season, the Knights stood in second place in the Wright County Conference. At the District 17a Tournament they ended the season capturing third place in the district.

Shelly Zupon and Jeannette Blake were selected to the All-Conference team. Shelly was recognized as Best Server, Best Blocker, and Most Valuable Player. Stacy Kremer was awarded Best Setter, while Jenny Kortuem and Jenny Walz were awarded Most Improved.

Cross Country Captures District Title

Success! This word sums up the 1988 Cross-Country season.

The boys team consisted of fifteen runners, and the girls team had one participant — Missy Lidberg.

The Knights captured the Wright County Conference championships when J.J. Hall took first place, Charlie Robeck took fourth, and Josh Hall took seventh in the boys meet. Missy Lidberg placed fourth in the girls division. J.J.'s first place finish gave him the individual championship. The cross-country team also won the District 17a title.

The season ended with a total of eighty-eight wins and thirty-one losses. We are looking forward to another great season next fall!

Tennis

*Starting At Bottom Of The Racket
They All Came Out On Top . . .*

Starting the new season was quite a slow process due to injuries, but the Knights tennis team improved and gained greater skill as the season progressed. Their determination was top notch as each girl performed well with improvements made each day. Contributing to this, they all turned out with big wins.

One seasonal highlight was the match against Breck, wheare, after a grueling three hour match, doubles players Steph and Meeghan lost to their arch-rivals by a tie-breaker. The entire team will be back next year to try again.

Sarah Langewisch was selected as the Most Improved Player, while MVP honors were shared by Stephanie Jakubiec and Meeghan O'Donnell. Stephanie Angus was voted as the team's Rookie of the Year.

Gymnastics

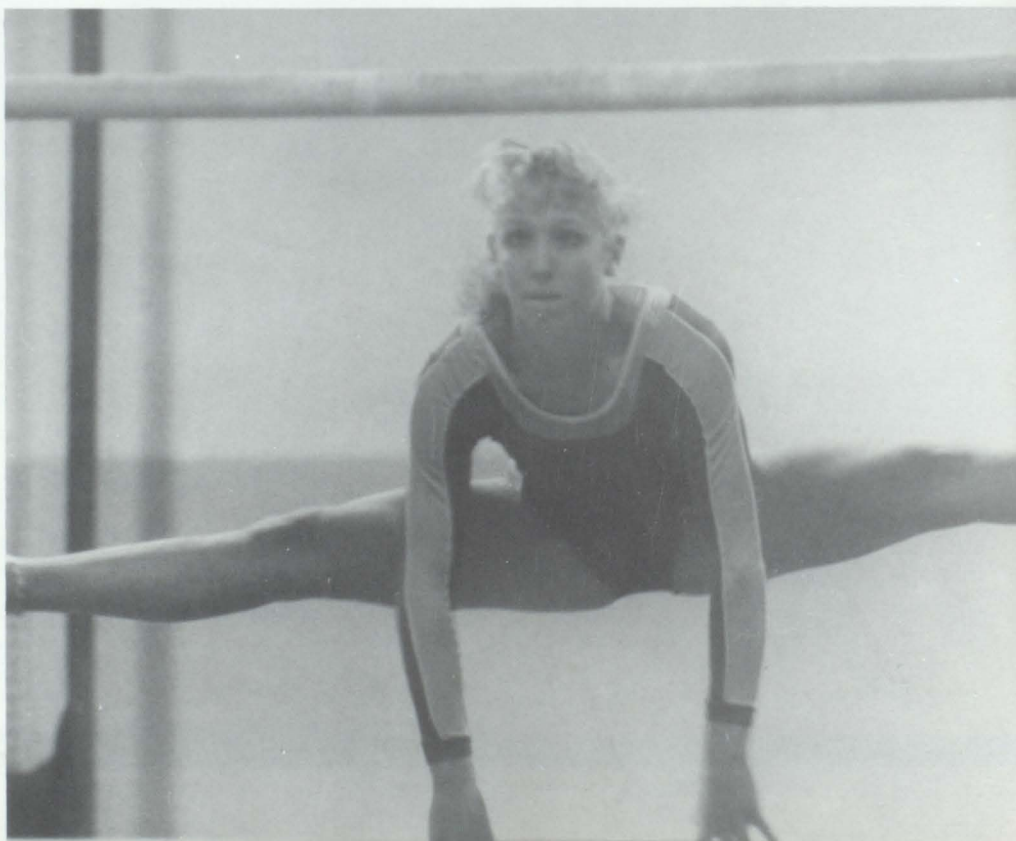

Gymnasts Show Steady Improvement

The winning record, 8-5, of this year's varsity gymnastics team, proves that this team is steadily moving up in the conference standings. Competing all-around this year were team leader Laura Glatzmaier, Karen Haydter, Meeghan O'Donnell, and Sarah Blenkush. "Everyone worked really hard this year, they all knew what they wanted to accomplish," Coach Van Hulzen was quoted as saying. "No matter what happened, they tried to stay psyched for every meet and do their best." At the banquet, team awards were given out. MVP went to Laura, as did "Best All-Around." On the individual events, "Hardest Worker" went to Michelle Barthel (beam), Christine Guzzo (floor), Kristi Walter (bars) and Meeghan O'Donnell (vault). And Laura and Michelle were voted as next years captains. Although the seniors will be missed, we expect great things from this young team in the years to come.

HOCKEY

Hockey Team Discovers New Meaning For "Small"

The Knights, losing six seniors from last year, started their 1988 season with fourteen members and many problems. But, with hard work and determination the team became the Independent champions with a record of 14-3.

Some of the problems included: actually getting to the game and the right arena without forgetting someone. Getting home also became a problem when the bus broke down in LeSeuer. The games themselves were never really a problem, as the Knights went on an eleven game winning streak. During this time the team defeated some of their biggest rivals, including Delano and Princeton.

Several records were broken this year by individuals on the team. Kevin Jocelyn scored a record 29 goals and 46 points while Chad Sutherland broke the record for number of assists and was voted the team's MVP.

The team will lose two outstanding seniors - Dave Mathieu and Kevin Jocelyn. The team voted Chad as their captain once again and elected Brian Jenkins and Cletis Chenvert assistant captains. To sum up the season, some would have said that what started out to be the worst, turned out to be the best season ever!

Girls Basketball

Team Shows Marked Improvements In 1988-89

The 1988-89 girls basketball team improved their record to 7-15 and were 4-10 overall in the Wright County Conference. The Lady Knights also retained the Crow River Championship by beating Rockford 33-23 in a low scoring affair. The team showed seasonal improvements in defensive points, free throws, and less turnovers. The Lady Knights received their first district win in two years by beating Breck 41-26.

Individually, Jenny Blake was named to the Wright County All-Conference Team. Shelly Zupon was an Honorable Mention Selection while Jenny Kortuem was chosen as an All Tournament player at the Brooklyn Center Christmas Tournament. Jenny Blake led the team in free throws, assists, and was second in points (151) and scoring average (7.2). Senior Shelly Zupon was second on the team in rebounds, third in free throw percentages, and fourth in scoring. Jenny Kortuem was first in field goal percentages, points, scoring average, and total rebounds.

Jenny Blake and Stacy Kremer entered the All-Time Free Throw list for one season with Blake third for all time, and Kremer fifth. Shelly Zupon ranked second on assists in a single game. Jenny Kortuem was tenth on scoring average for a single season, fourth in single game high points, and 14th in field goal percentages for a season.

Contributions by seniors Jenny Blake and Shelly Zupon were tremendous both on and off the court. Unfortunately, sophomores Stacy Kremer and Angie Stanton will not be with the club next season. The loss of these four regulars will greatly affect future performances of the Lady Knights. The coaching staff would like to thank Jenny, Shelly, Stacy, and Angie for their effort. Next season will be full of challenges and exciting basketball.

Boys' Basketball

Knights Show Promise, Look Forward To Future.

Despite ending the season with a losing record of 3-18, the boys' basketball team can look forward to the coming seasons. The Knights, a young team, can expect great things from their starters. Sophomore Brian Ketel was voted MVP and was selected for All-Conference for his efforts. He also holds the record for free-throw percentage (75%) and a phenomenal record of sixty-seven three point field goals made in sixty-eight attempts, missing only one. Lance Beall led the team in assists with 82 and Ben Hofmeister led the rebounding with 143.

Several team members hold places in the Top Ten stats of the last five seasons. Dan Eichelberg, Todd Klaers, Brian Ketel, and Ben Hofmeister are on the Top Ten list for total points, and Ben, Todd, and Larry Twito are among the Top Ten for rebounds.

All of these team members will return next season, so the Knights are looking forward to a more successful season.

Wrestling

Knight Wrestlers Continue Winning Tradition

The STMA Knights continued their winning tradition with another outstanding season. Brian Zachman was this year's Honorary Captain. The wrestlers ended their season with a record of 20 wins, no losses, and 1 tie. The tie ended up to be the team's biggest disappointment as it resulted in the loss of the regional championship title to Paynesville. The two teams finished the meet in a tie, but due to more individual wins by Paynesville, the opponents were awarded the championship and the right to the state finals.

During the regular season the Knights captured first place at every individual tournament they participated in and beat all the opponents in their dual matches. The Wright County Conference Championship was decided at the last dual match where the Knights met Rockford, who were also undefeated. The Knights won 35-25.

The Knights entered the subregion playoffs against Delano, who they soundly defeated. Within four days after their last meeting, the Knights were victorious again over Rockford, proving they were the better team.

At the subregion individual tournament, the Knights proved again they were superior by capturing eight individual championships, advancing these wrestlers to the region tournaments. Four Knight wrestlers advanced to the state tournaments when they won in their respective weight classes. They were seniors Brian Becker, Scott Kasper, Dan Paulson, and sophomore Eddy Dehmer.

Brian Becker and Eddy Dehmer had career records of over one hundred wins. Eddy Dehmer was the first non-senior to accomplish this feat. For the second year in a row and the fourth time in Knight history, a Knight wrestler was a state champion. This honor was captured by Brian Becker. During the season he was honored "Metro Athlete of the Week" by both the Star and Tribune and KARE 11, as well as being named to the Tribune's "All Metro Team."

Gregg Greeno, the team's head coach, was awarded "Region Coach of the year" by his fellow coaches.

The team awards went to Tom Hennen for the "Most Improved," to Scott Kasper, Eddy Dehmer, and Brian Zachman for "Hardest Workers," and to Brian Becker for "Outstanding Wrestler."

All of the 1989 seniors had winning records that will be hard to replace. Congratulations to Brian Becker, Scott Kasper, Dan Paulson, Craig Williams, and Brian Zachman.

"It was really a dream season in many ways ... team effort, attitude. It didn't quite work out well enough to be advanced to state with the team, but it was an enjoyable, fun, and successful season," said Coach Greeno.

Middle Right: We really do know what we are doing!

The 1988-89 varsity and B-squad cheerleaders led countless activities to root not only the winter sports teams to victory, but also the many other extra-curricular activities that competed during the school year. Dozens of locker signs, cookies, and safety pins were shared with the sports teams while pep fests were held to honor the many non-athletic activities and teams also.

Cheerleading requires much time, effort, and certainly a lot of enthusiasm. Half the time these groups of girls end up with the short end of the net, hoop, or mat, but the yearbook staff would like to say, "Thanks!"

Individual Efforts Highlight '89 Season

The 1989 boys track season concluded to be one of the best in the last few years at STMA. Many individual and team accomplishments highlighted the season.

Wright County Conference indoor champions included Jim Eicher-pole vault, Lance Beall-400 and 200 meters, long jump, Jeremy Aydt-triple jump and J.J. Hall-3200 meters. Outdoor champs were Tony Christensen-pole vault, J.J. Hall-3200 meters and Josh Scherber-long jump. Jeremy Aydt was also the district champion at the triple jump. He also captured the MVP award for the team.

Jim Eicher advanced to the state finals in the pole vault as the Region 5a champion. Jim also broke the school record for the indoor and outdoor pole vault while Lance Beall broke the 200 meter record.

The team captured five first place awards at various track meets and took second in four meets. Their dedication and hard work really paid off for them this season.

Girls Track

Girls In Motion

Hard work, enthusiasm and coaching from Mr. Hertwig and Mr. Rothweiler produced team and individual records for the 1989 girls track team.

School record breakers this year were Donna Fricke-indoor and outdoor shot put, Theresa Barthel-indoor 200 meter and 400 meter, Missy Lidberg-indoor 1600 m, Angela Johnson, Sarah Maurer, Missy Lidberg and Diane Florek-outdoor 3200 meter relay. Theresa Barthel was honored with the team's MVP award.

There were no conference or district champions this year, but many placed second at the respective meets.

Knights End Season District Runners-Up

The 1989 Knights baseball team finished their season with a record of fourteen wins and six losses. The highlight of the season was the trip to the Metrodome to play Staples-Motley. Both the junior varsity and varsity teams were victorious. Another highlight of the season was the grand slam homer by Dan Paulson in the district play-off game against Blake.

Bill Illies, Larry Twito, Brian Ketel and Ben Hofmeister led the Knight's pitching staff. In the hitting department the Knights were led by Trenton O'Leary, Paul Schumm, Keith Lekatz, Scott McCann, Chad Sutherland, Craig Williams and Dan Paulson.

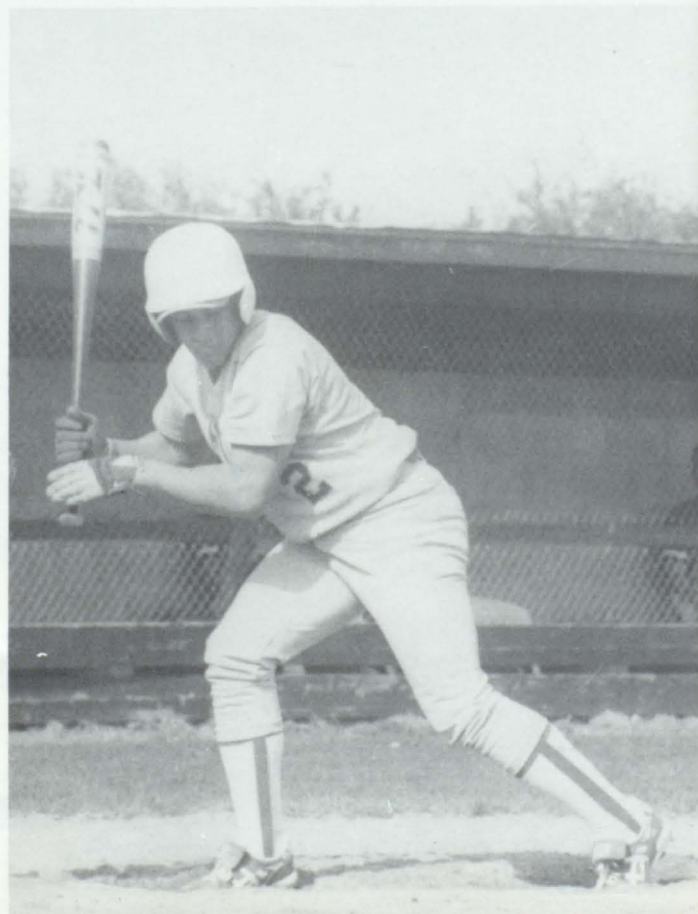

All-Conference honors went to Trenton O'Leary. Trenton and Paul Schumm received All-District honors.

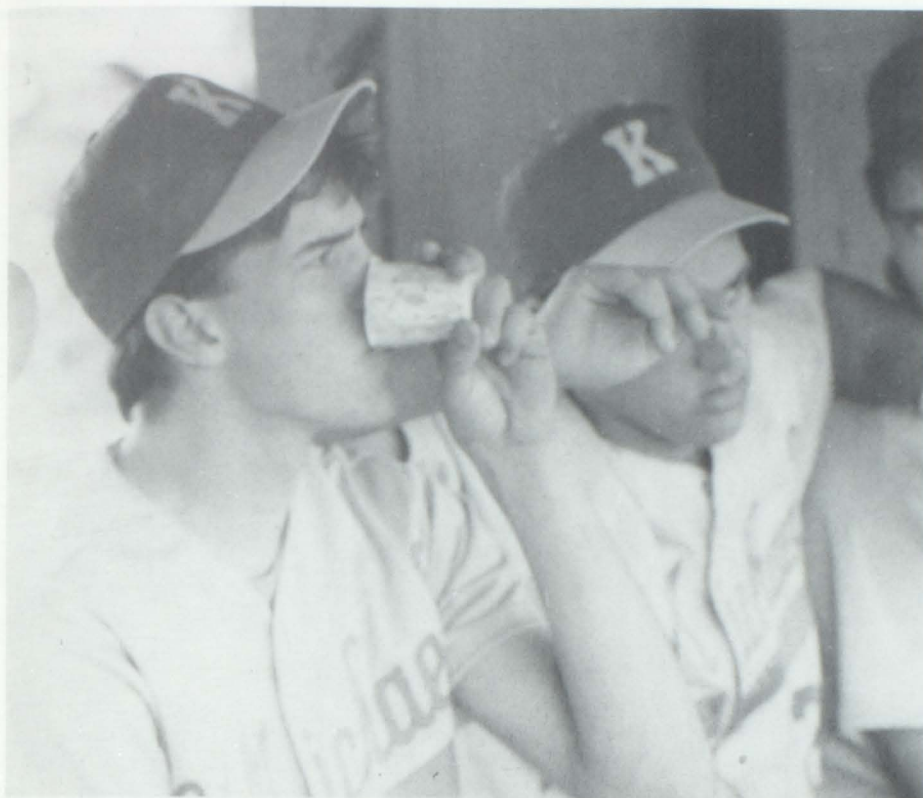

The Knights finished the season with a loss to Delano in the district finals.

Softball

Softball Takes 3rd In District Tourney

Although the season started out bumpy with two losses, the Knights didn't let that affect them for long. They went on a seven game winning streak which included the St. Cloud Tournament where the team outscored their opponents, Mayer Lutheran, MPLS Southwest and MPLS Henry, 60-18. They ran into a bit of bad luck after these seven games and lost two. This included a loss to archrival Rockford by one run in nine innings. The two losses to Rockford resulted in second place in the conference standings.

The team went on to win the final two games of the season before entering the district playoffs. In the first game, the Knights defeated Minnehaha Academy. Then, they lost to Waconia in the semi-finals. This pitted them against Delano for third place in the districts. The Knights were victorious.

Angie Stanton was voted MVP for the team and along with Jeanette Blake and Katie Hackenmueller, was voted to the all-conference team. Jolie Tatro and Theresa Wines received honorable mentions in the all-conference selections. Under the guidance of Coach Kevin Gordon and 1989-90 Captains Jenny Lenneman and Jenny Walz, the Knights look forward to another successful season.

STMA On Top

As in the years past, this year we had a multitude of participants in state competitions. Included in this group were Brian Becker (first place), Jim Eicher (4th place), the Academic Decathlon team (7th place), and Laura Glatzmaier (9th place). The musical participants all received high honors with 98% of all entries receiving superior ratings.

We should notify all state competition officials to reserve dozens of spots for STMA next year.

National Honor Society

This year's National Honor Society consisted of many, hard working students who, when they worked together, proved they could be quite a success.

Throughout the year they accomplished many school and community projects.

School projects included selling donuts every Wednesday morning, tutoring during reading period, hosting the morning announcements, holding 3 very successful dances, and other various events.

The community service projects involved playing Bingo at the retirement center, selling daffodils for the Cancer Society, and donating $100 to the American Cancer Society.

Concerts, caroling, and competition marked the highlights for the 1988-1989 choir season. The thirty-two voice choir, made up of all girls, was under the direction of Mr. Ron Sass.

The choir gave three concerts for the public and also a special performance for the elementary school. During the Christmas season, the choir was also heard caroling down the halls of STMA.

The culmination of their hard work throughout the year came at the state contest. All but one entry received a superior rating.

Senior Lori Barthel received the American Choral Award for her outstanding contributions to the choir. She was voted on by her fellow vocalists.

BAND

Instrumental music at STMA changed a little this year and for the better. The ninth grade members were included in the Wind Ensemble instead of having their own band. The new group proved successful when they were awarded superior rating at competition, the is the highest rating possible. The band also showed their talent at concerts, athletic events, the homecoming parade and halftime, graduation, and pepfests.

The stage band, clarinet choir, brass quartet, and individual soloists were all winners at district and state competitions with superior ratings, proving that "successful parts make a successful whole".

Senior Jeremy Aydt was awarded the Huber Award for his outstanding leadership and musical talent.

The summer of '89 also marked the return of the STMA summer marching band. They participated in 8 competitive parades through out the month of June, taking first place in the Elk River parade, among other honors.

Right: The clarinets listen with enthusiasm.

Middle Left: Shawn pounds away proudly.
Middle Right: Jeremy Adyt — The Huber Award recipient.

Drama

This year's One-Act Play, "The Kid Nobody Could Handle", was a great success. Performances were given for the public before the competition at the District 17a contest. The cast placed fifth out of numerous schools that competed.

The cast consisted of Brian Gardner, Mike Burke, Larry Barthel, Sean Boll, Jessica Lindenfesler, Marc Maurer, Connie Beall, and Chad Dehmer. Supporting crew members were Dawn Kohler, Anne Borreson, Meaghann Tully, and Carol Borreson. Mrs. Starkey directed the play.

"Rope", an Alfred Hitchcock script, was given to enthusiastic audiences by the STMA High School students. Some new faces were cast in various roles and although they were new to the stage, the performances from the "Rookies" as well as the "Pros" were successful. It was the most popular performance given in two years.

ACADEMIC DECATHLON

Tests, tests, and more tests — you would think that with the number of tests given in school, no one would want to take them as an extra-curricular activity. Yet, these nine brave souls chose to do the unthinkable — they joined the Academic Decathlon.

Academic Decathlon consists of a battery of nine tests in various subjects including science, math, literature, and the U.S. presidency. The team competes at 3 levels depending on their grade point average — "A" average (honors), "B" average (scholars), and "C" average (varsity). After the tests are taken, they are scored and points are awarded. This year the team earned enough points to go to state.

State competition was held at St. Peter, where essay, speech, and interview categories were added. The tests were gruelling, and scores ranged from 12 correct out of 50 to 45 correct. For his efforts and personality, Craig Williams received a medal for the interview category.

Next year the team loses eight out of its nine present members — Larry Barthel is the remaining member and is looking for "a few good people".

SPEECH

The speech team (pictured right) consisted of Larry Barthel, Roxanne Daluge, Joann Adyt, Jessica Lindenfesler, Ann Borreson, Carol Borreson, Lori Bruzek, Pennie Dahlin, Karen Borreson, Chad Dehmer, and Coach Vensland. The team enjoyed an exciting and successful season. With many practices and hard work the team improved from meet to meet. Carol and Larry advanced to the region competition while Jessica was selected as an alternate. Out of twelve different categories, Poetry, Drama, Creative Expression, Great Speeches, Prose, and Humorous were the categories in which the team competed. The returning speech makers look forward to another successful year as all but one member will be returning. Right: Lori and Jessica critique Larry's speech.

Yearbook

"Twas The Night Before Deadline"

"Twas the night before deadline, when all through the school,
Not a teacher was around — they were no fools.
The layout was set on the table with care
In hopes that Miss Hedlund soon would be there.
The photographers were worried, the darkroom they dread,
While visions of photoflo danced in their heads.
With Larry on the computer, and Amy on the floor
They listened for Miss Hedlund outside of the door.
When out in the hallway there rose such a clatter,
They ran out in the hall to see what was the matter.
Out into the hall they flew like a flash
(Thank goodness in the rooms there was not a class).
The moon through the windows there was not a shadow cast,
To the scene that befell them, they let out a gasp,
When what to their wandering eyes should appear
But a frazzled looking teacher with a lopsided lear —
A very tired advisor, gaunt and quite sad —
The whole staff knew that she had been had.
More rapid than eagles her mind became lame —
Then she yelled and shouted and called them by name:
"Now Amy, now Larry! Now Gina and Anne!"
On Megan, Jenny, Carol, Karen, and Roxanne!"
There was one more to say, as everyone knew,
So Hedlund bellowed, "On Lucy, too!"
"to the top of the page, to the last headline,
Work away, work away, work all the time!"
As we tried to trip her and throw her to the ground,
Up off the floor she came with a bound
Dressed in her jeans and leather shoes so fine,
Her clothes were all covered with clay and grime;
A stack of pictures she had torn up and ripped,
(Upon now which she stumbled and slipped).
Her hair (as it froze!), her eyes (how they flashed!),
Her brain (how it worked!), her tongue (how it lashed!).
The blackboard eraser she held in her teeth,
and the dust encircled her head like a wreath.
She was hopelessly nuts, completely insane,
And we were startled when we saw her, as if in violent pain.
The blink of her eye, a twist of her head
Soon gave us knowledge that we had a lot to dread.
She spoke quite a few words — few made any sense —
And into the tabletop she made quite a few dents.
Then laying her finger on the finished page,
We wondered if she just might need a very strong cage.
She ran to her car, gave the engine a turn,
And out of the lot her Goodyears did burn —
But we heard her scream as she drove into the night,
"THE PAGES ARE DONE — GET OUT OF MY SIGHT!"
