KNIGHT

A photograph of a dam with a banner that reads "BERNING MILI PURINA CHOV". The banner has a checkered border. The dam is made of concrete and has a small waterfall on the right side. The water is dark and still, reflecting the surrounding trees and the banner. The background shows a wooded area with bare trees and a building partially visible.

Fresh ideas promoted new actions. Monday night's coronation brought out a junior king, who turned into a peeping-tom. Later, he proved a little bit shyer while refusing to leave the stage. Following coronation was an unsuccessful bonfire due to the unusual amount of rain dousing the wood. Many spectators were also turned away by the excruciatingly cold temperatures. All hope of burning the class mascots was not lost, as the bonfire was rescheduled for Thursday night.

Intent on listening to last minute details from Mr. Ketel and Mr. Sawdey, Chad DeMatteis controls his rising tension of representing the class of '86 as a king candidate.

FUN

The joke is on Jeff Gustafson when not a cheerleader, but his mother gives him a kiss.

Surprised at receiving the honor of being the 1985 Homecoming Queen, Kris Melanson expresses her disbelief.

Creativity presents "pin the tail on the tiger," a more challenging game than expected.

Aye-aye-aye. Mantamos los tigres. (Let's beat the tigers!)

Bringing about a few changes, Homecoming evoked excitement in traditional events. Buttons and tickets were sold as a package deal to gain entrance into all events. These tickets were placed in a drawing for a Walkman radio at the dance.

After school spirit balloons were lifted in hopes of victory and ballots were collected to tally the winner of the float contest, the Knights proceeded to be defeated by Rockford in a close game.

As players grabbed a quick shower, musicians (as well as colorguard) changed from an exhausting half-time performance and fans straggled in from the game, the "Goat Ropers" were just warming up for a night of entertainment and hop-stepping in the gym.

Portraying Mr. Skogen, Greg LaVallee (among many others) looked like a staff member — providing many interesting facsimilies.

What do freshmen think about besides clothes?"

More clothes, of course! To jump in feet first, some common footwear include Nikes, Treborns, Bass, and Reeboks.

Popular fashion designers like Esprit, Forenza and others, are creating cardigans, over-sized shirts and shakerknit sweaters. However, guys prefer the more traditional styles such as: concert T-shirts, plaid flannels and sweatshirts.

On the bottom, but not last, are Levis and Guess jeans. Among the latest craze are flowered pants and stirrups.

To top it off, the newest trend-setting accessories are hair-ties, fedoras, swatches and awatches. Classy jewelry includes bead necklaces, brooches, and colorful earrings.

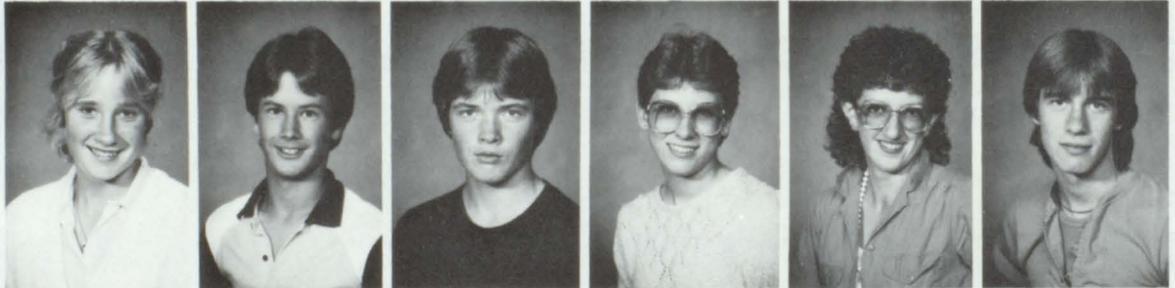

The fashions of this year come in a variety of patterns: plaids, paisleys, flowered prints and springy pastels are favorite schemes.

Freshmen choose their clothes not only for fashion, but comfort as well. Learning to be a chic dresser, though, is a difficult task for some people.

It was a speech to remember, by Mark Sharenbroich, as he talked to the seniors on attitudes, first dates and looking forward to the future. Everyone was totally captivated by both his seriousness and humor. The top ten scholastic students in each of the four classes were presented by Dr. Toskas and Mr. Stoick and other students were recognized for achievements in athletics, art, typing, science, attendance, scholarship, yearbook and speech. Honors Day is special for everyone, as it ends one year and gives the underclassmen some goals to work toward in the upcoming year.

We live to serve, lead and enrich our school, our staff

One of our newest additions - Donut days!

"Congratulations to everyone."

NHS Officers: Secretary Tammy Florek, President Kris Melanson, Vice-President/Treasurer Colleen Zachman. ♦

The NHS provided lots of fun again this year. The group of 12 seemed to be constantly busy with something. Winterfest, dances, the school store, and the new addition of donut days.

This Spring 13 new members were added to the family. They were broken into the stream of things quickly with the Staff Appreciation Day breakfast. Everyone there remembers the beverage cart, don't they?

A car wash took place to raise funds for two scholarships which were given out graduation night.

"May I present to you, Grant Ketel . . ."

"I hope this wax doesn't drip on my dress."

"Well, I made it."

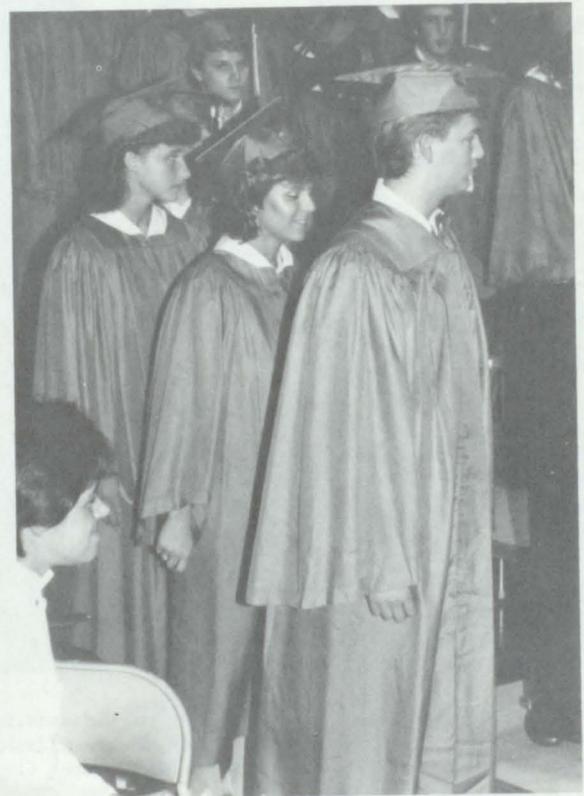

What's everyone looking at?

"Today we follow;

Chairman of the Board, Dr. Hagerty hands Todd his "freedom paper."

"I can't believe we're really here."

The choir holds back their tears as they pour their hearts into song.

Francis receives a scholarship.

*Tomorrow

Dr. Toskas addresses the graduates' parents and relatives.

Denise and Tammy reminisce over old schooldays.

Eating again. Kerry and Jeff?

"My horse is going to win!"

Doug climbs Jacob's ladder to success.

Fun, action packed party concludes graduates' night. After being issued cowboy hats and bandanas, the bus trip to Brooklyn Civic Center began. Upon arrival, ravaged seniors took advantage of the chicken dinner prepared in their honor. An added attraction was our own "Fantom Knight" band. The night concluded (for those who were still awake) with the auctioning of a bike, a jogging trampoline, and a microwave oven. Grand prize winners were Dore Kasper and Masaru Togashi (color TVs) and Sheri Hackenmueller ($400). Other cash prizes were also awarded.

A moment of concentration.

Placing 4th in the District meet, the track team had an outstanding season. Cathy Pipenhagen placed 1st in discus and 2nd in shot put. Colleen O'Donnell was 2nd in the 300 m. hurdles and long jump and 3rd in the high jump. As a result of the District meet, Cathy and Colleen went on to the Region. In shot put, Cathy placed 4th and 5th in the discus. Colleen placed 4th, 5th and 6th in the 300 M. hurdles, long jump and high jump respectively.

With a large number of girl tracksters, only two were seniors. While Mary and Colleen will certainly be missed, the young talent coming up shows great promise. Brenda (200 m.dash), Meeghan (half mile), Kristi (100, 400 m.) and Yvette (sprinter) did well in their areas and with several years ahead of them will have the opportunity to fully develop their talents.

"Watch out, here I come!"

Enjoying a little relaxation.

"Hurry. Stephanie, she's right behind you!"

(10:31.0). Other qualifiers were Todd Alden, John Aydt, Kerry Barthel and Pat (medley relay), Roland Robeck (1600m.), Jeff Wood (300 i.m. hurdles) and Bill Dwinnell (triple jump). New indoor school records were set by the sprint medley team (Kerry, John, Bill, Pat) (3:57.3), Jeff Wood (55 m. high hurdles-8.2) and Pat in the 800 m. (2:04.3) who was also the season point leader.

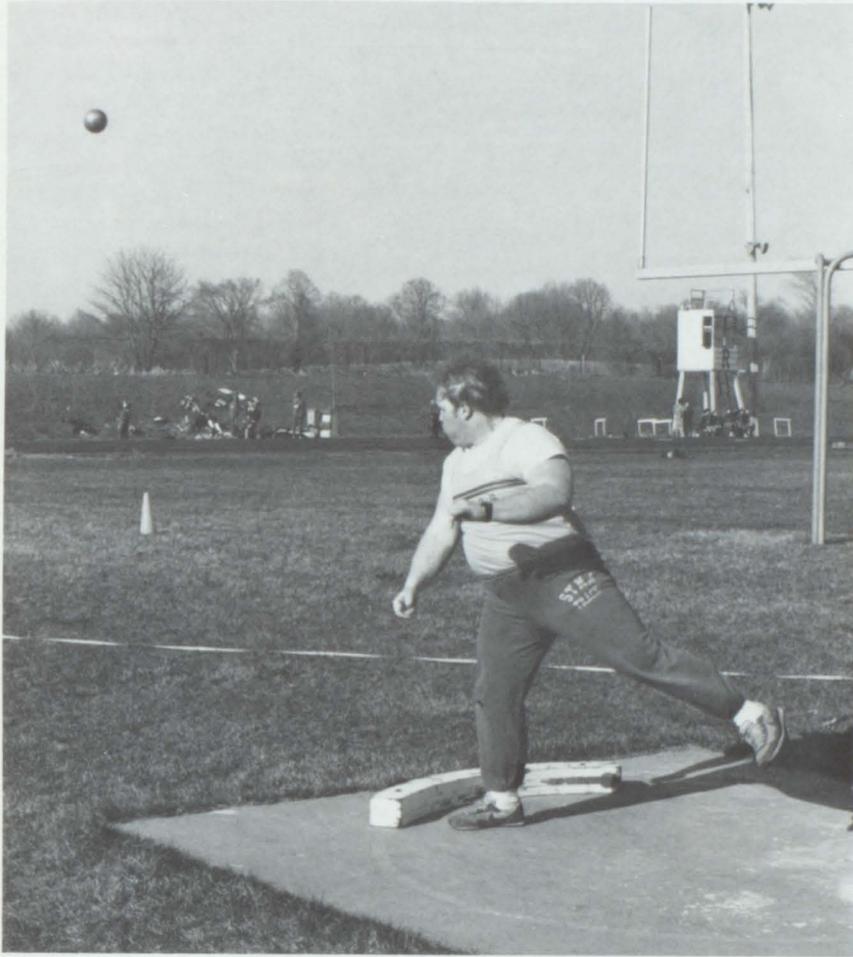

"C'mon Tad, go for it!"

With an overall 8-7 record, and 5-2 in the conference, a young team placed 3rd in the WCC. While in the process of rebuilding, the team will lose only one senior, Colleen Dehmer, and will return with 11 letter winners for next season. Selected to the All-Conference team this year were Missy Anderson and Tammy Hamann with honorable mention going to Julie Zachman and Carolyn Vetsch, who was also voted MVP. With the talents of these girls and the young players coming up, the future looks bright for the softball players.

The JV team opened this season with very little experience, but thanks to hard work they showed continuous improvement through the season. The leading hitter was Scott McCann (.400), Dan Paulsen led in runs scored, and Craig Williams in walks. Paul Schumacher, Doug Blake, and Charli Scholl also came through with crucial bats during the season.

Craig displays his winning style.

"Come on, pitch me a good one."

Here it comes!

The players, doing what they do best.

It was another great season for the varsity baseball team, as proven by their 16-3 record. One outstanding characteristic of the team was their ability to score runs. They had 8 games with 10 + runs and a 20-8 win against Becker. Other big assets were the pitching ability of Grant Ketel and the fielding ability of Barry Ihrke.

Senior mark Anderson was awarded all-conference recognition and Dan Paulson all-conference honorable mention. The rest of the team, although younger, also had excellent seasons. Rich Kottke received all-conference honorable mention, Barry went all-conference and all-district, as did Grant Ketel, who was also voted MVP. With most of the team returning, we can expect more of the same great performances for next year.

Dear Abby,

I have a major problem when it comes to driving. I do such things as, after backing out of my garage, I forget to put the car in drive before pushing the accelerator. If I make it out of the driveway into the main road, I face various other difficulties, such as, forgetting where the brake is or driving the wrong way down a one way street. This has been the cause for many narrow escapes with my life. Running into things seems to be another habit which I have picked up over the years. Sometimes, I forget to open the garage door before backing out, or I collide with a mailbox, car, dog, or occasionally a slow moving pedestrian on my way into town. On one of my particularly good days, I was driving a friend's car and while trying to find a place to park, I hooked bumpers with a car that, luckily, was empty at the time. After getting unhooked, I went to find another parking place. I found one and easily parked. My problem came later, while trying to get out! I hit the car next to me when I opened the door, and the man inside became quite upset. All of a sudden, he started banging his car door against my friend's car leaving dents all over the place. These incidents are nothing compared to the time I actually drove over a curb and a man's foot while taking my drivers test (needless to say, I had to take the test again). I'm going broke paying for all of these little accidents, HELP

"Bonnie, move this picture over there."

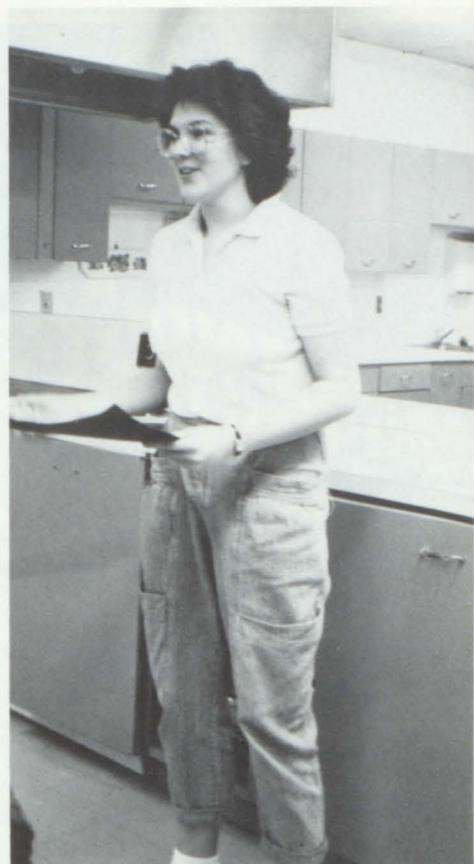

"Don't move now!"

With a young staff this year, a good deal of time was spent on learning the basics, from selling ads to last minute changes and revisions. It was a time of both frustration and accomplishment. In spite of the seriousness of completing pages and not excluding anything or anyone, the staff still had a little time to eat, laugh and create its own memories. Remember poor Martha, her abuse and sailing across the room? How about doing cartwheels while "I'm thinking," consistently coming to work a half an hour late and bribing everyone for forgiveness with M&M's, and "I can't think today," then we found out that there were 46 pages due in 2 weeks! And let's not forget our editor learning how to take pictures and working with a broken ruler because of Martha! But the best memory of all is the final product!!

"Watch it, Buddy!"

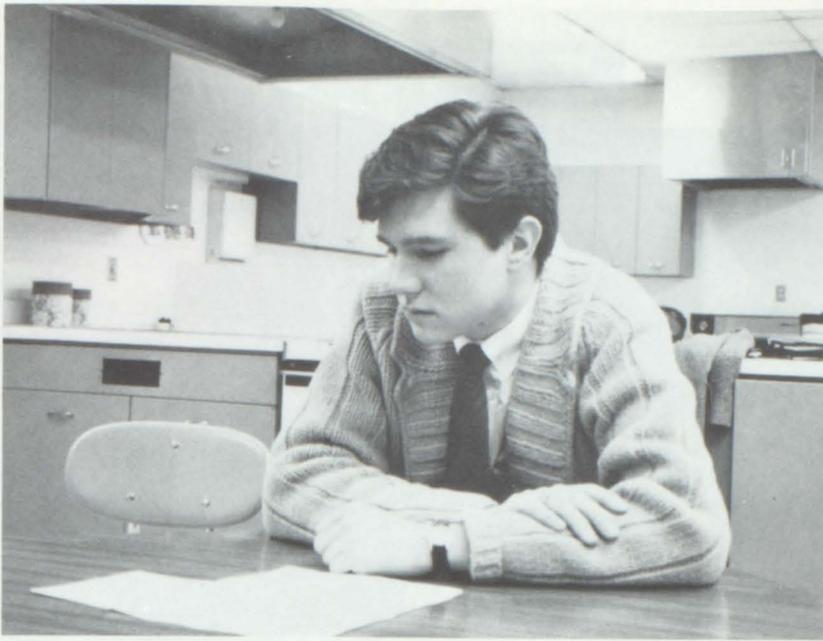

"O.K., I'm ready."

Peter receives first place at St. Cloud.

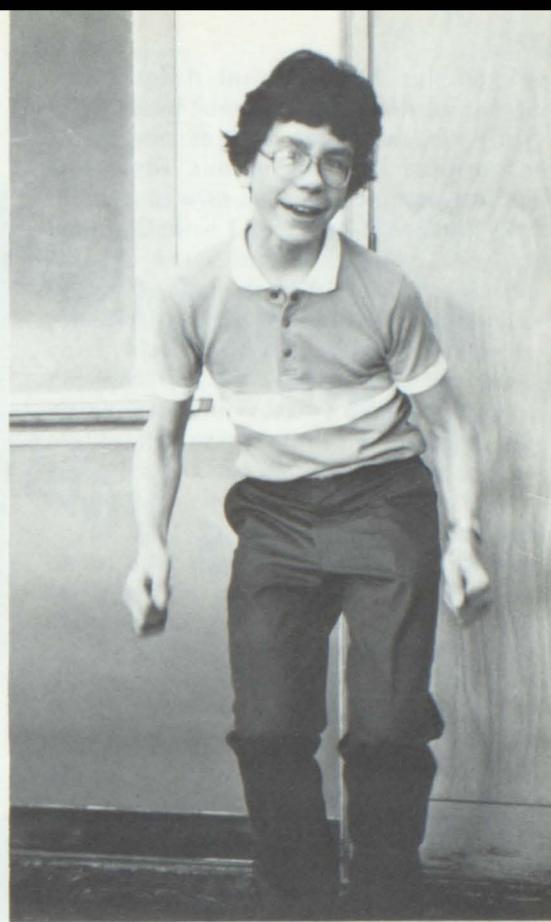

"I can smile now. I'm finished!"

Peter stares intently at his speech.

we speech good!

Under the direction of Mrs. Swanson and manager, Sheri Straub, the speech team was well represented in many categories this year. Peter led the team in discussion, taking first place at St. Cloud State, St. Cloud Apollo and Dassel-Cokato. He also earned a fourth place at the Region 5A Meet. Amy Luther showed exceptional talent in the area of creative expression taking third at the WCC Meet and second at the District 17A Meet. Overall, the team worked very hard and represented STMA well.

"In my opinion ..."

The fire chief holds their undivided attention, while telling one of his captivating stories.

"What time do you get off work?"

"Were you the one ringing our doorbell?"

English insanity does rule in The Bald Soprano. This hilarious one-act play is thirty-four minutes of useless barbs and nonsensical stories. The play opens with a discussion between Mrs. Smith (Denise Lehn) and Mr. Smith (Tad Meyer). Later in the evening, they are joined by their good friends, the Martins (Shelly Kimmerle, Karl Becker) and the fire chief (Matt Westerlund). Then the fun begins! Mary (Missy Mischke), the maid, also joins in the crossfire of mumbo-jumbo and foolish prattle until the guests depart again leaving the Smiths alone in conversation.

The Bald Soprano was performed four times, after two months of rehearsal, and competed in the District 17A One-Act Competition.

"We all had a lot of fun this year!" Mr. Gifford, the play director, said of the Drama Club. "I'm glad to have been able to work with such a fun group of kids. A special thanks can be given to Jeff Wood, Kirsten Cochran and Paul Vorderbruggen for their excellent behind-the-scenes work."

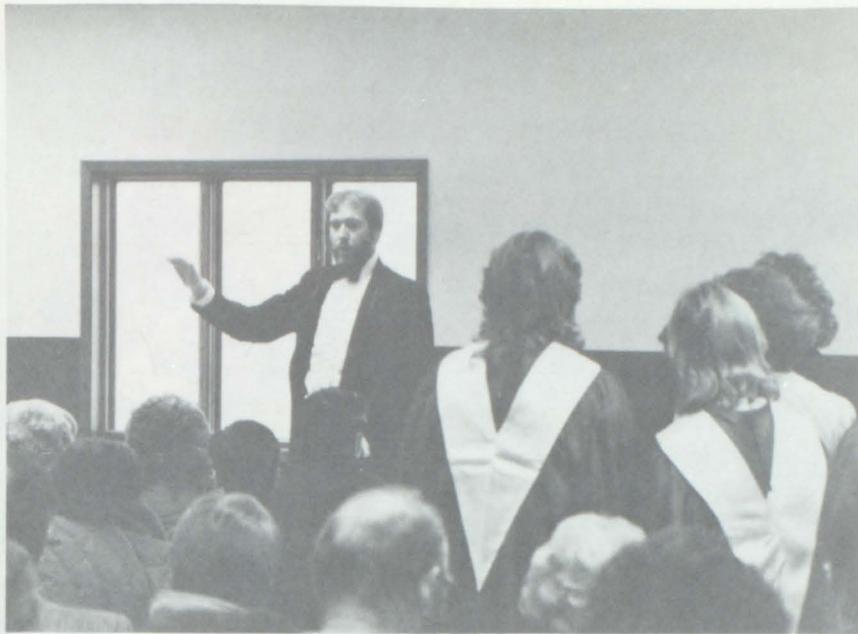

Mr. Martin gazes inquiringly at his newly discovered wife.

"Hey, I didn't do it!"

Mr. Bauernfeind-the fearless conductor.

There seemed to be only one question on the minds of the 9th grade choir members on the first day of school ... "Is this EVERYBODY?" They wondered if they would be able to have a choir at all ... but have a choir they did.

Their only performance of the year was the Christmas concert in which they performed three songs: Christmas Hymn, Christmas Each Day and Jingle Bell Rock. "It was a lot of fun and it made us all become friends, having such a small group," commented one member. The small number made their fine sound come through all the more, and we can surely look forward to many fine performances from them in future years.

The Mixed Choir performed as a group three times during the year, one concert in the Fall, another in the Winter and then the Seniors at Graduation. The late Fall concert took place in the St. Albert's Parish Center and contained many seasonal works. The hall was filled to capacity to hear the 9th Grade Choir and Pop Group as well as the Mixed Choir. It was enjoyed by all. The special graduation performance included the songs, We've Only Just Begun and Our Last Song Together.

For the State competition in the Spring, Cindy Illies and Karl Becker sang a duet and there were solos by Sandi Kasper, Kirsten Cochran and Karl Becker, who received a star rating for his performance.

When asked about the Choir this year, one member commented, "Some of the people put in a good deal of effort and had some pleasant results."

The Pop Group, this year, showed both originality and style in its performances.

Sara and Clarice wait for the signal to begin.

“The Stage Band gets the school going in the morning,” comments director, Mr. Sawdey. Early, 7:30 A.M. practices find them looking tired and asleep, but by 8:10, they leave energetic and ready for a normal school day. The hard work paid off when they received superior ratings in both the District and Region-State competitions. A new addition this year was the bass guitar played by Mike Burke. Upon asking Carrie Hofmeister how she liked being the only girl, she replied, “It was fun and I really enjoyed it, but I really didn’t notice I was the only girl until we took pictures.”

The Junior Class of '87 numbers 106 students.

During the year they are required to take American Government, Economics and a full year of English. Their remaining hours are filled with electives such as Algebra II, chemistry, art and home economics classes. Also, many attend the vocational school.

Out side of school, juniors seek work to compensate for the problem of where to get money for the necessities of life: records, gasoline, munchies, movies, shopping, etc.

It is the time to start thinking about what they will do after high school. PSAT tests are taken as well as a survey of interests to aid in that area.

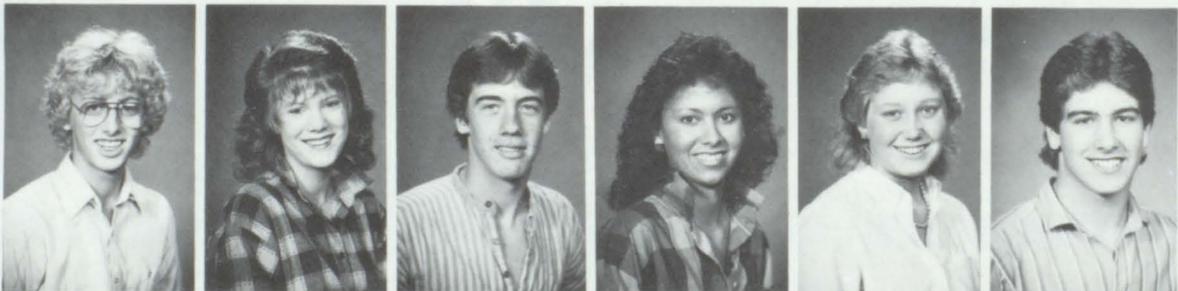

Constantly lurking at the back of their minds is the goal of being a senior and ultimately graduating.

Some work hard to keep their grades up high enough to remain in the NHS. Others merely wish to be part of the group. Spring brings girls' and boys' state and county. Also, the chance to go to Prom is on many people's minds, especially after planning it for so many months in advance. They finally get the chance to see what's become of all their hard work.

Good serving and defense have always been top priorities in the STMA volleyball program. This year's 9th graders were no exception. Going undefeated and losing only 7 out of 60 total games played is a good indication of very positive things to come. The Kimball Tournament, early in the season proved to be an exciting victory for the young Knights, as the championship match against Annandale was close and abilities were put to the test. Behind setters, Jolie Tatro, Kristi Walter and Theresa Wines, the rest of the girls had good opportunities to work on their bumping and spiking. The Team finished the season by winning the Wright County Conference Tournament. Shelly Zupon was selected as most valuable player for the season.

Teamwork led the B-Squad volleyball players to a smashingly successful season. They relied on their serving and defense to win the games. Brenda Vetsch was the top server with a percentage of 92.7. Amy Luther and Kari Kasper served the most aces with 72 each. The team serving percentage for the season was 86.1.

Because of their outstanding playing ability, they won the Buffalo Tourney. The fact that they were the only team of all sophomores competing against J.V. teams from other schools elevates their prestigious playing. The Kimball Tourney win was obtained through long hard matches. With an undefeated season, they have much to look forward to in the upcoming years.

It is especially exciting to be #1 when the competition is tough and you don't expect it. Winning the Region 5A tournament this year gave the team a great sense of accomplishment and some goals to set for next year.

The Knights were one of eight Class A teams to participate in the State Tournament. While luck was not on their side, they were still only the 2nd volleyball team from STMA to ever attain this honor.

Throughout the season, the Knights displayed powerful serving, accurate setting and consistent spiking. Carolyn Vetsch led the team and the conference with 97.27% in serving, and averaged 3.19 spiking aces per game. Mary Ripplinger and Carrie Foertsch followed in serving with percentages in the 95% range. Other special awards were given to Mary (best setter, MVP), Shelly Hackenmueller (best blocker), and Cindy Luther (most improved). All-Conference honors went to Mary and Carolyn.

The graduating seniors can boast a career record of 87 wins and 14 losses. Mighty impressive!

fall athletes capture state berths

With a commanding lead, Francis sets his mind on the finish line. ♣

Colleen pops one up to Sandy.

The ultimate goal of every high school athlete is to qualify for the state competition in his or her sport. There are 387 Class A schools in Minnesota. When an individual or team qualifies, you know they are among the best. This Fall, STMA had qualifiers in 2 out of 4 sports.

In his 6-year x-country career, Francis Robeck represented Region 5A, District 17A and his school, in 3 state meets (1982, 1983, 1985). Francis was one of 40 to qualify out of 115 schools competing in the sport. Other credits for his long career include selections for All-Region (1984, 1985), All-District (1983, 1984, 1985), and All-Conference (1983, 1984, 1985).

Out of 387 Class A volleyball teams in the state, only 8 earn the opportunity to compete at the State Tournament. This was STMA's second trip to the Met in the last 3 years. It was an exciting finish for a good season. While they did not have a repeat of the 1983 win, we must remember what an honor it is to have been there. State tournaments have a very positive effect on the whole community as everyone gathers to support the team which is representing their town. The fans from STMA are the best!

Karl continues although everyone is far behind.

senior strength takes boy's c-c'ers to regions

The Boy's Cross-Country team relied heavily on seniors, Francis Robeck, Pat Chervenak, Karl Becker, Bob Lefebvre, and Greg LaVallee, and their long hard practices before and after school. Receiving All-Conference honors for their outstanding performances were Francis, Greg, Pat and junior, Roland Robeck. MVP was awarded to Francis.

At the STMA Invit., out of 7 teams, the Knights took the first 4 places with Francis, Roland, Pat and Greg respectively. These same individuals also placed within the top 10 at the WCC and District 17A meets.

For as long as Mr. Beck can remember, this is the first time that a seventh grader, Charlie Robeck, was a member of the varsity team. While losing several seniors, Mr. Beck looks forward to the talents of the younger members who will be returning.

Girl C-C'ers show their better side.

"And they're off!"

Pride comes through personal achievements and team placings, as the C-C'ers know from ranking 5th in District 17A and 3rd in the Wright County Conference, which hasn't been done since 1979.

Just as important though, are the commendable personal scores, such as, Jean Vansteenburg's 4th and Cindy Weber's 7th places in the STMA Triangular Meet. They maintained these high scores in the STMA Invitational with 7th and 9th places respectively.

A certain young hopeful for the team is 8th grader Jean Vansteenburg. Jean strives to go beyond the goals pre-set by her older sister Margaret, a senior.

The girls also can be praised for their competitive spirit and devotion throughout the long practices and difficult season.

Following STMA's final match, a 0-5 loss to state bound Litchfield, and after winning 3-2 to Regina in regional play, Coach Oliphant was asked to reflect upon what he called one of his most satisfying seasons in coaching. The young, talented, sophomore team surprised him in many respects. "We had a lot of good things happen to us including some close and exciting matches. We defeated some quality teams, including Regina in Regions, a strong St. Francis team and of course we lost to Litchfield, who went to state. We had a lot of excellent individual efforts from Kerry Stanton, Rochelle Oliphant, Meeghan O'Donnell, and Amy Roden. One of the most pleasing aspects of the team was its supportive nature. Whether they won or lost, they showed concern for their teammates."

So this is what the team does with their spare time!

Knights serve up another great season

Quarterback, Kevin Jocelyn, led a remarkable line-up of players that worked extremely well together as a team. Dan Paulsen and Scott McCann qualified as spectacular running backs, while the outstanding linemen for the team were Brian Zachman and Randy Long. Playing against Delano led to a memorable game, including an interception returned for 80 yards, which resulted in an STMA touchdown, and they didn't quit there. A fumble recovery produced an 85 yard touchdown. Coach Anfenson credited the successful season to team balance and many equal ability players. This accounts for the superb team work.

passing tops Metro area

"Ugh!"

Opening the season with a 90 yd. kick-off return by Paul O'Donnell, which resulted in a touchdown, was an appropriate beginning for an exciting and successful season. Coach Bauman recalls that the Delano, Monticello, and Watertown games were the 3 best-played, most energetic games of the season.

The most outstanding accomplishments were in passing, led by Joe Dick, which broke conference records and brought us to the first place in the Metro-area passing statistics. Other strengths were shown through blocking and line play.

Special awards were presented at the banquet to Dan Paulson (MVP), Tad Meyer (Most Improved), Paul O'Donnell (Hardest Hitter), and Eric Dehmer (Hardest Worker). All-Conference honors went to Dan and Tad.

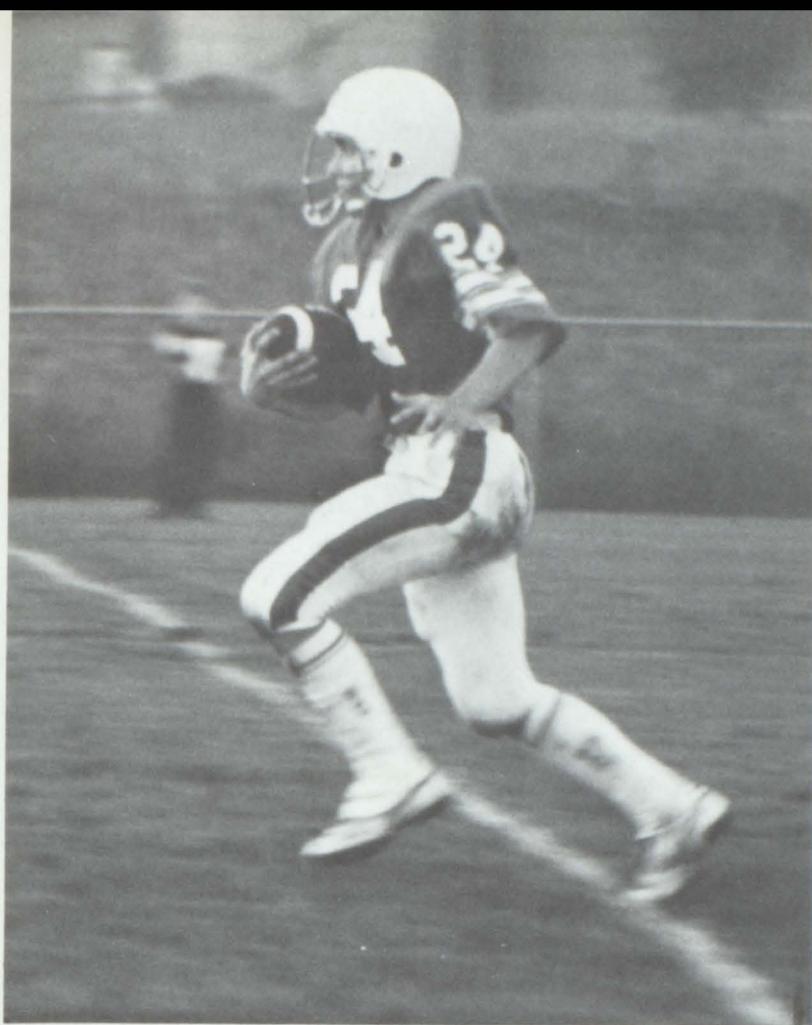

When asked how he would summarize the season, Coach Bauman replied, "We had one of the most enjoyable seasons of my coaching career. We'll miss the seniors next year; although, we are also looking ahead to the future!"

Players spend time on the playing field and in the corn field.

"Way to rock it, Kris!"

Not only the unusually competitive winners, but also the innovative "days" provided a memorable Winterfest. Monday brought on hat, tie and shades day with hats ranging from simple baseball caps to felt fedoras and others that were netted, flowered and/or feathered. Monday also brought us our chess champ, junior, Dan Burke. Tuesday initiated neon oranges being worn with crimson reds as the halls were filled on Mismatch Day. After school, sophomores, Paul Vorderbruggen, Matt Wersterlund, Roland Robeck and John Ouellette showed off their trivia knowledge by winning at Trivial Pursuit. Wednesday took us into a tropical frame of mind as flowers, shorts, leis and sarongs floated down the halls. Senior, Dave Orsch won the Ping-pong championship as the activity for the day. Thursday brought about Easter Costume Day. Down the halls hopped bunnies, chickens and even a bag of jelly beans. Later, a freshman, Tami Johnson, won the Twister competition . . .

our last will and testament

- I, TODD ALDEN, will my track ability to John Aydt.
We, MARCIA and LISA BARTHEL, will our artistic abilities to Scott Berning and Corey Bakken.
I, GUY BERGLUND, will my locker to someone dumb; it is in good shape because I haven't used it all year.
I, KIM DEHMER, will my seat in choir, all the awful music and my verbal outbursts to Kerry Stanton.
I, TOM DURANT, will my singing ability to Randy Shutt, who probably needs it.
I, PAUL FEASTER, will my locker to Barry Ihrke and my broken drumsticks to Jim Pichler.
I, TAMMY FLOREK, will my good grades and study habits to Paul Carlson, who could use all the help he can get!
I, TOM FRITZ, will my clod hoppers to John Aydt.
I, JEFF GUSTAFSON, will my tripping abilities to Rich Kottke.
I, CINDY ILLIES, will my 3 days of suspension to Todd Kohler because "it's for his own good!!"
I, TOM IRVINE, have nothing to will, but I do have a set of master keys for the school that I will sell for a small fee.
I, CHERI KASPER, will my calculator and new batteries to anyone who takes advanced math.
I, CINDY KASPER, will the use of the fishhouse to Julie Fehn and the "feet" she can take there. And I will a trip to Hawaii to Mr. Ketel compliments of McDonalds.
I, DORE KASPER, will my job at Hackenmueller's to anyone who wants it!
I, VALERIE KILIAN, will my advanced math book to any future senior who is brave enough to take it and I will my infamous tennis career to Becky Kilian.
I, ALFRED LANGE, will Tim Holland the chance to finally have the fastest car in the school.
I, BOB LEFEBVRE, will half of my outstanding wrestling ability to Tom Ripplinger and the other half to Brian Becker.
I, PAUL LINDENFELSER, will all my hangovers to Chuck Dwinell and all my nicknames to Russ Tiernan.
I, RANDY LINDENFELSER, will my ability with the girls to the 11th graders to divide up evenly.
I, COLLEEN MAHONEY, will my history grade to Missy Dale and my locker to anyone who wants it.
I, MARILYN McCANN, will my ability to rag to Kari Jocelyn and Pam Schumm and my ability to party to Becky Kilian.
I, TAD MEYER, will my waistline and athletic ability to Mr. Skogen, and to Mr. Teigen I will my charm and class.
I, COLLEEN O'DONNELL, will the hockey stats book to Kris Daleiden.
I, KIM OLSON, will my bumblebee sweater to Mr. Abrahamson.
I, DAVID ORSCH, will my first chair in band to Carrie Hofmeister, who will undoubtedly fulfill the position.
I, SHELLEY PATNODE, will my locker (posters included) to Tanya Jungclaus and all my modern world conflict notes to Jeff Lehn.
I, DAN PAULSON, senior, will my athletic ability to Dan Paulsen (freshman) to keep it in the family.
We, THE SENIOR VOLLEYBALL MEMBERS, will the volleyball circuit to the 1986 volleyball team.
I, MARY RIPPLINGER, will everything about gymnastics to Tammy Hamann and to my "little" brother I will the Mazda.
I, RORY ROWLAND, will leave Steve Matthews the right to bother Mr. Skogen.
I, PETER SAARI, will my Patek Philippe to Mr. Ketel and to Mr. Fredrickson my Rolex.
I, KEVIN SCHOEN, will my good looks to the junior class, which I will be in next year.
I, DAWN STUBBS, will all my ceramic projects to anyone who cares to possess the ugly things.
I, PERRY TATRO, will to one of next year's freshman my skill to ----- within an hour with an -----
I, SARA THOMPSON, will my yearbook responsibilities and duties to anyone worthy of handling them and to Colleen Kedrowski my knowledge of the Spanish language.
I, MARK VORDERBRUGGEN, will seven inches from each of my legs to some of those midget freshmen I've seen.
I, RUSS WEBER, will my shot put to Scott Kasper.
I, ADAM WEBSKOWSKI, will a few years of my life to Joshua Webskowski.
I, ANGELA WHITE, will my "good" health and my attendance record to anyone who wants them.

Masaru Togashi visits us from Tokyo, Japan. He comes from a lifestyle of swimming with his friends in the sea. In America, he enjoys the American spirit of trying anything, doing anything and being himself. An appreciation of the rural America was another thing Masaru commented on. He even went so far as to say that he would miss the cows. Good Luck Masaru and have a safe trip home!

Teresita Cambuston from Mexico City, Mexico joined our school this year. She participated in two levels of Spanish classes offering a helpful insight to Mexican culture as well as correcting Spanish language errors.

Concentration now in session, ready begin . . .

And win they did by placing first at the Subregion and STMA Invitational. In a close match, STMA lost to Rockford at the Subregion Dual.

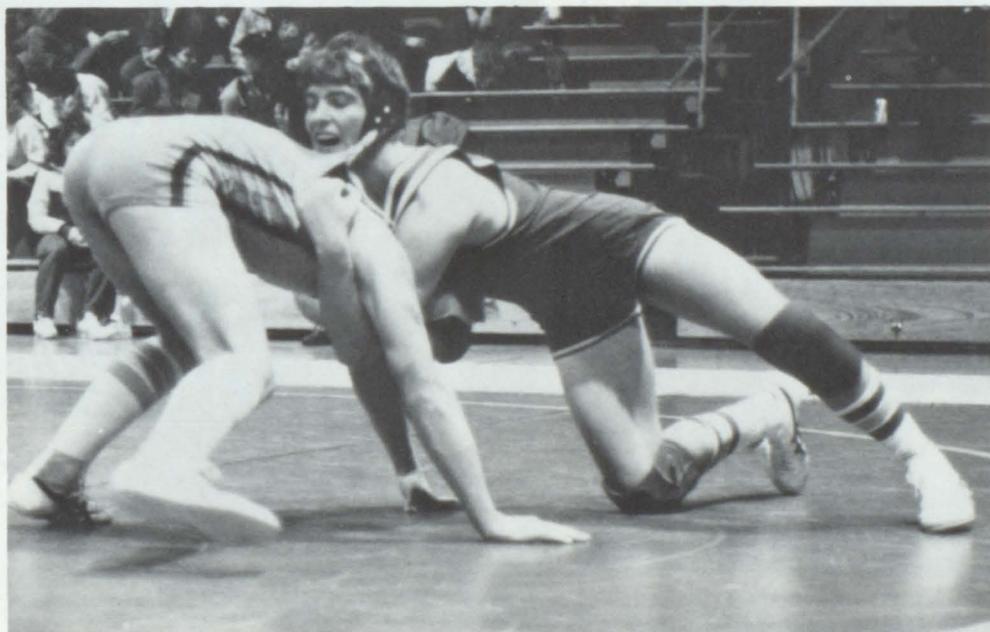

The youngest varsity wrestler, Eddy Dehmer, a seventh grader, was the leader in reversals (17) and longest unbeaten string (19). Brian Becker led in takedowns (72) and 2 point near falls (23). Three point near falls (28) and pins (16) were led by Gary Schoen.

The top two individual honors of the season went to Brian Becker, with 35 wins, 3 losses and no ties and Gary Schoen, with 26 wins, 2 losses and no ties. Coming in as a close third was Bob Lefebvre, with 26 wins, 4 losses and 1 tie.

Individual awards were given to Eric Dehmer for Hardest Worker and Brian Becker for Outstanding Wrestler. Bob Lefebvre earned Most Improved and Honorary Captain.

Even though the team is losing two of its top wrestlers, seniors Scott Dehmer and Bob Lefebvre, they don't have to worry because there is plenty of young talent to take our team to victory for years to come.

Fritz looks like he has the situation in hand.

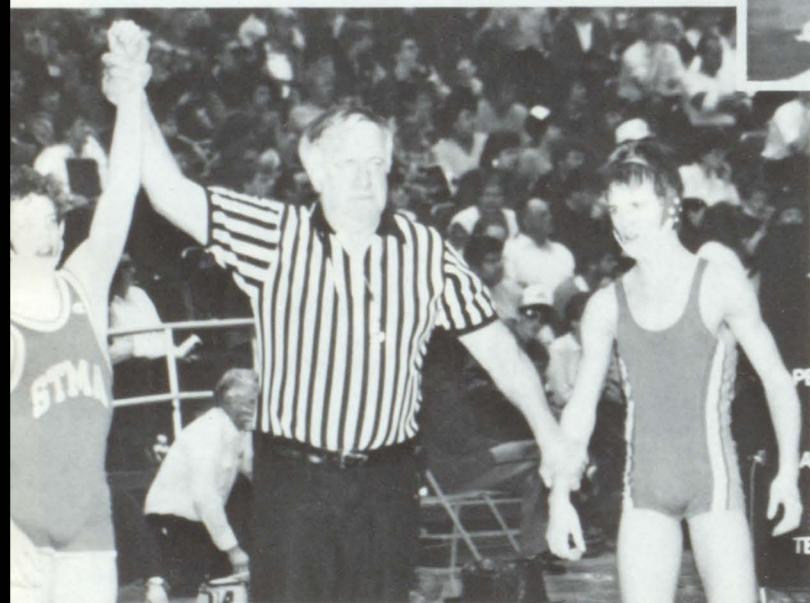

"Oh no, did I do that?"

With a final season record of 26-4-1, Bob Lefebvre finished his high school wrestling career as a competitor in the State competition at 119 lbs., which was quite an accomplishment since he wrestled on the varsity team only two years. Awarded Most Improved and Honorary Captain for the 1985-86 season, he also earned four tournament championships (STMA Invitational, WCC, District 17A, Sub-Region). Bob was among the top leaders in several of the individual statistics for this year: 3rd-Season Record, 4th-Dual Meet Record (13-2-1), Near Falls-3 (13), Team Points (117), 5th-Unbeaten String (13), Take-downs (50), Reversals (7) and 6th-Match Points (197). Congratulations to Bob on a great season and a career to be proud of.

*two wrestlers

While his opponent grasps, Bob seems to have the upper hand.

Brian defeats his opponent for a State 3rd place.

Be sure to watch for Brian Becker in the years to come. As a ninth grader, he already has two years of varsity experience. His career record is 44-12-0 and he was 3rd in the State this year at 105 lb. Brian was selected as the Outstanding Wrestler of this season and held the number one position for Season Records (35-3-0). He is definitely looking ahead to a most interesting career. Good luck to you, Brian!

Curt hangs on while his opponent tries to escape.

The young matmen lived up to their forerunners and finished a winning season with a 10-5-0 record, and were second only to Apple Valley in the STMA Invitational Tourney. Season record leaders were Dan Paulsen (14-3-0), Craig Williams (12-3-0) and Keith Dehmer (12-4-2). Dan also led in takedowns (26), reversals (11), near falls-3 (8) and total match points (122). Troy Hudson had 11 near falls-2, Craig Williams led with 7 pins and top honors for team points went to Keith Dehmer. The STMA wrestling teams have always been very respectable and this year was no different. We can all look forward to some exciting future teams with these upcoming wrestlers.

STMA's hockey team seems to get better every year, and the team shows definite promise for the years to come! Under the coaching ability of Mr. Gordon, the team played an exciting season and many players shined through. Dan Paulson led the team in scoring with 9 goals while sophomore Ben Eide followed closely with 7. These two also received special honors for Co-MVP and captains. Kevin Theis and Russ Tiernan's abilities to keep a busy puck out of our goal gave extra confidence to the rest of the team and helped to carry out a successful season.

Despite many illnesses and injuries, this year's gymnasts increased their scores and improved their skills. The team was led by Seniors Peggy Schumm and Mary Ripplinger. Mary produced high scores throughout the season, setting a new all-around record with 32.0 pts.. Peggy competed in three events, but excelled in the uneven bars. Mary was voted most valuable gymnast and received All-Conference recognition with 427.7 pts. for the season. Peggy and Tammy Hamann received All-Conference honorable mention and finished with over 250 pts. each.

Juniors, Tammy, Sandy Dehmer and Dana Pederson also improved during the year, with Tammy competing all-around, Sandy, having an excellent season on vault, beam and floor ex., and Dana turning in steady performances on the beam and floor ex. Some new faces on the varsity team this year included freshmen Karen Haydter (beam, floor ex., vault), Kristi Walter, (vault, Bars) Rocky Chenvert (Floor ex.), Angie Milless (bars), and Karen Bistodeau (bars). Great job girls!

We're jumping up and down and looking all around.

We put our heads together and this is what we found,
The basketball is round!

"I ain't too mean, but I control the team."

This was a season of comraderie and plenty of high scoring games. While their record, 6-13, is not an indication, the Knights played well offensively and defensively. Their shooting was especially impressive. Senior, Jody Safar, scored a total of 197 pts. (10.4 avg. per game), led in free throws (37-54 for 69%), and in rebounds (163 or 8.6 per game). Carolyn Vetsch snatched the honors in assists (42) and steals (47). Shelly Hackenmueller averaged 9.0 pts. per game with a season total of 162 and along with Cathy Pipenhagen was voted most improved. Shelly and Jody were selected to the All Conference Team and Jody was voted MVP.

As a team, the most points scored in a single game (58) was against Annandale while the fewest pts. allowed (16) was against Big Lake. The season free throw percentage was 51% while the highest in a single game was 86% against Monticello.

The friendship between the girls on the team created a hard working, fun-loving ball club. Their creativity produced the "Basketball Shuffle."

With five juniors and three sophomores returning, next season should produce more excitement and high scores.

"My name is Hack, I'm the leader of the pack."

Jolie looks nervous. Is the pressure on?

young boy and girl shows talent and promise

The girls, this year, finished the season with a 3-15 record, providing some close games with exciting action. Centers, Bonnie Kolles and Shelly Zupon, worked on rebounding and shooting. Jolie Tatro and Tami Johnson seemed to have a special knack for long shots, while Jeanette Blake, Janice Kremer and Katie Hackenmueller dribbled in and out of opponents to bring the ball down the court. Some of the girls had a few opportunities to see a little varsity action. Coach Newman said she felt that, "The girls made many improvements through the season and provided some exciting games for the STMA basketball fans."

"Hey, Brian, where's the rest of your team?"

The young freshmen and sophomore cagers worked hard and played well, providing some exciting games, but could not boost their win/loss record any higher than 3-14. The center position saw plenty of action from Dave Kortuem and Paul Schumacher, while forwards, Brian Volk and Steve Vandeberg helped with shooting and rebounding. Guards, Grant Ketel and Tim Barthel did well bringing the ball down the court to set up plays. Coach Newell felt, "Our defensive play was the strong part of our team." Having good height and a year or two of experience should result in some interesting future varsity games.

basketball

"Hey! Where are you?"

C'mon Rich, you're taller.

It's up ... and in!!

The closing of a 5-16 season brought reflections of the numerous close losses throughout the season. The highlights included breaking a four year losing streak to Big Lake and another of over ten years to Delano.

Barry Ihrke was the leading scorer, while Randy Kolles and Rich Kottke led in shooting and rebounding percentages respectively. Pat Chervenak and Kerry Barthel provided strong senior leadership to the group. All varsity players made a special contribution by practicing hard every day.

According to Coach Anfenson, it was "a very enjoyable season in many respects. A great group of students as well as athletes. The wins and losses were not a true indicator of how much success we achieved this past winter."

the dilemma

To laugh is to risk appearing a fool.
To weep is to risk appearing sentimental.

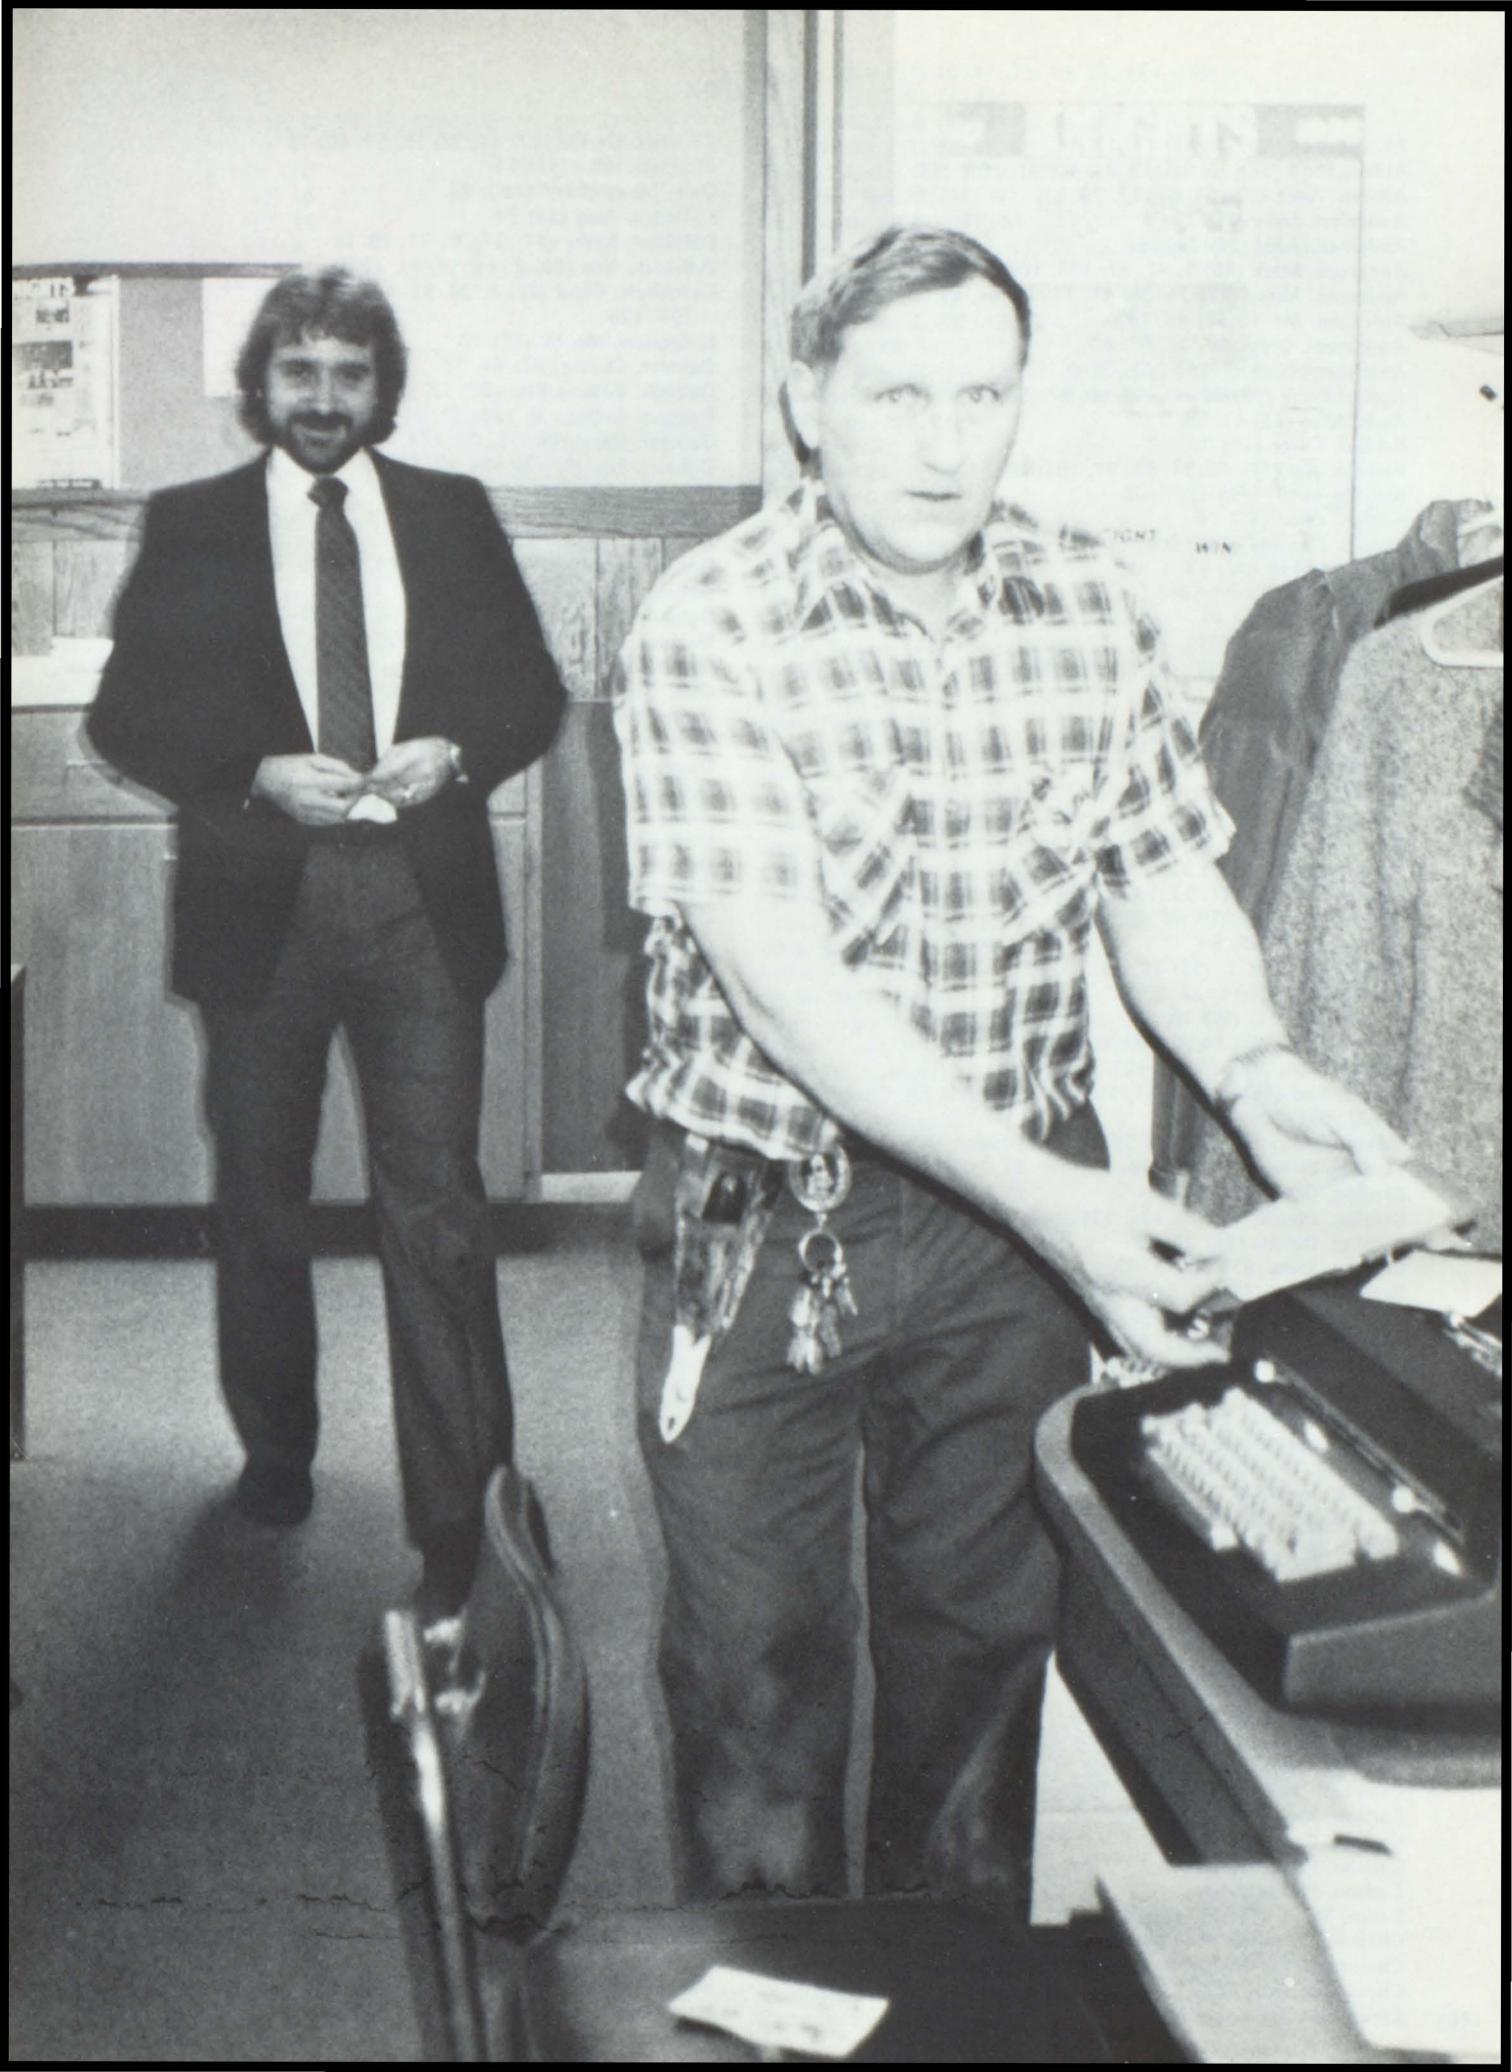

To reach out for another is to risk involvement.

To expose feelings is to risk rejection.
To place your dreams before the crowd is to risk ridicule.

To love is to risk not being loved in return.

To go forward in the face of overwhelming odds is to risk failure.

But risks must be taken because the greatest hazard in life is to risk nothing. The person who risks nothing does nothing, has nothing, is nothing. He may avoid suffering and sorrow, but he cannot learn, feel, change, grow, or love. Chained by his certitudes, he is a slave. He has forfeited his freedom. Only a person who takes risks is free.

*Time passes,
Seasons part,
But friends stay
Close at heart.*
