Drifting to a new King and Queen

On the Monday night of Homecoming week, the auditorium was filled with a large crowd wondering who would be the next king and queen. As the Homecoming candidates walked nervously down to the stage listening to the wind ensemble play themes from "Goldengirls", tensions mounted. Once the candidates were seated, the choir sang an enchanting version of "Can You Feel the Love Tonight."

Next, the candidates were embarrassed by pictures, provided by parents, accompanied by a story from their younger years. The excitement came with the opening of the envelope. The crown was then swiftly passed over their heads. Knowing only one of them could be chosen, the audience stirred with anxiety. The lucky ones were Billy Dehmer and Liz Daleiden, the new Homecoming King and Queen for 1994.

Who's that funny looking kid?

When Liz was young, she liked to change her clothes so much that her mom decided to pin her pajamas on her when she went to bed each night, which would prevent her from changing her clothes during the night.

Once, when Bill was on a vacation with the rest of his family, he was sitting in the back seat with his brothers. His mother noticed small red marks appearing on his face. His mom became worried and checked up on Bill. She found out the cause of the marks was Bill's younger brother mistaking Bill for a teething ring.

Top: Brenda Husom and Maria Barthel carefully announce the Homecoming candidates as they walk down to the stage.

Middle Right: Jamie Scherber and Tanya Larson open up the envelopes, which held the names of the new King and Queen.

Bottom: Grant Helgeson and Marsha Vollbrecht show off their spiffy attire before they begin walking down to the stage.

HOMECOMING

Festivities for Everyone

Homecoming 1994 had its ups and downs. Its downs included a postponed bonfire, a bitter 1 point loss to Dassel - Cokato in the football game, and it rained on our parade. However, its ups included throwing pies at Mr. Minkler, eating doughnuts, dressing funny, watching the football players being kissed by their mothers, and dancing the night away.

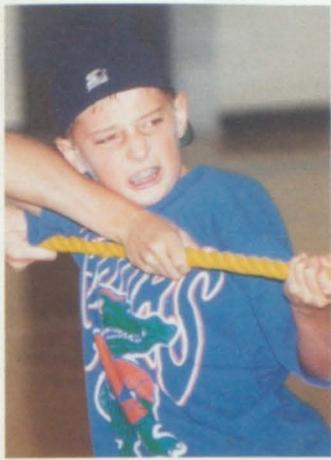

Right: At the annual pep fest, the seniors showed that they really know the cheer.

Above: The football captains participated in a kissing contest at the pep fest. Boy were they in for a surprise!

Trick or Treat?

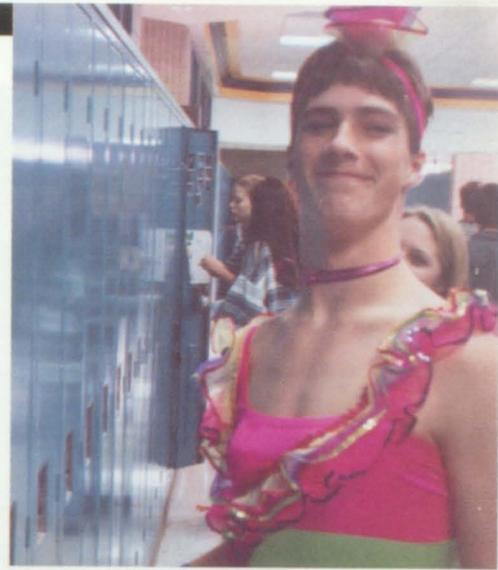

Student Dress for Success on Halloween

Right: Sophomore Dwain Pearson was quite a distractoin as he danced through the halls on Halloween.

Hoop Dreams is a documentary about two young Chicago athletes who dream of playing in the NBA. Arthur Agee and William Gates soon realize the dream will have to come at the expense of everything else. Hoop Dreams offers as much drama, excitement, and emotional ups and downs as anything to come out of Hollywood.

After their Woodstock '94 performance scores them mass adulation and an onstage mudfight, punk-pop trio Green Day wins the title for this year's best new band. Their album Dookie, featuring "Basket Case," goes triple platinum.

LPs make a comeback when major recording labels give in to pressure from artists and fans. New titles are released on vinyl, as well as CDs and tapes. Pronounced dead in the '80s, the revived 12-inch long-plays come complete with the art-covered sleeves and lyric-sheet inserts that make them collector's items.

Liz Phair follows up Exile in Guyville with Whip-smart and songs like "Super Nova" and "Jealousy." Her music is said to be about self-parody, defensiveness, beautiful flaws, and cluelessness.

Futuristic noise mavens Nine Inch Nails and singer Trent Reznor drive home a point with their "Closer" single and hit video, from their album The Downward Spiral.

Mosh pit heroes Bad Religion get plenty of play with "21st Century Boy" and their album Stranger Than Fiction.

Beastie Boys release their fourth hip-hop album Ill Communication on the heels of their highly popular Check Your Head.

Superunknown, a 70-minute, 15-song opus, debuts at No. 1 on the Billboard charts. Fans and critics say it's the best record of metal band Soundgarden's career.

Splashing into High School

We asked the ninth grade class what they thought being in high school meant. There were quite a few creative answers. But a lot of students said that it meant more freedom, later curfews, and dating, that is if parents agree. Many also stressed the importance of making the most of their high school years. The majority are all trying for a balance between maintaining good grades, hanging out with friends, and being involved with after school activities.

Hands on Learning

A new way of learning

Much of the attention at St. Michael-Albertville High School is focused on athletics, fine arts, and after school activities. However, most of our schoolwork is just as important, if not more important than these activities.

Due to this, the yearbook must dedicate some time to academics. "Hands on learning" has become a very important part of our school day. It has helped students to participate in discovery learning and learn some valuable lessons that are useful beyond the classroom.

When looking around the school examples of "hands on learning" are seen in every academic area.

National Honor Society

Making Waves for the Future

The National Honor Society has once again out did itself again this year. Members continued to sell doughnuts on Tuesday mornings, organize Battle of the Classes, and prepare a Thanksgiving feast. But NHS is not always fun and games. During reading period, members take time and help other students with thier home work and studies. The St. Judes Triva Contest is held to raise money for children with cancer. A new project which began this year was Adopt-A-River. The NHS chose the section of the Crow River from Bernings Mill to Interstate 94. Another great way to help the community and have fun in the process.

Students Helping Others

A new group this year, Peer Mediators, joined forces to work along side the Peer Helpers. The two groups combined dedicate their efforts to students and community. Through two workshops, they were taught how to help and work with at-risk students.

They also organized a variety of school activities ranging from the clothing drive to the fun day. This year they used student input to create a fun day that included skiing, sliding, movie-going, bowling, basketball, volleyball, and ping-pong.

Mock Trial

The Trial Year

Mock Trial is a new activity at our school this year. The team consisted of eight members. It is a chance to discover first hand what it is like to handle court cases and participate in them. Students act out the parts of lawyers, witness and bailiffs. After many practices and hard work they compete against other schools.

The case this year is a sexual harassment claim between a teacher and student. The team enjoyed working on this case and is glad for the opportunity to participate.

Academic Decathlon A Storm of Knowledge

Some say taking tests is hard enough, but in Academic Decathlon students voluntarily test their knowledge against students from other schools.

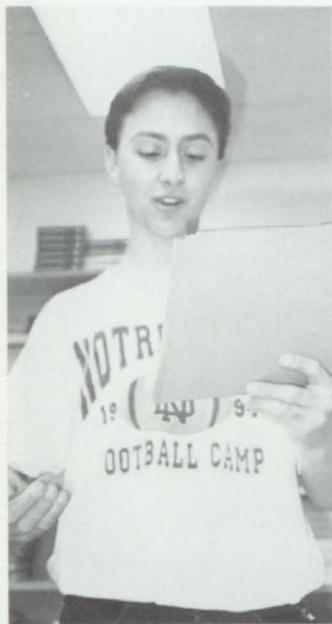

After months of studying, reading, and reviewing worksheets, the team is ready to battle seven tests in one day. Tests include math, science, art, English, economics, social, and speech. But after the day is over, all members are ready to unwind and have fun with students from other schools. To say the least, Academic Decathlon helps every one learn more about themselves and have fun in the process.

Speech

Sailing Though Rough Water

Evening practices, memorization of lines, and lots of fun summarize the Speech Team of 1995. The team began after the first of the year and finished with the state meet in early April.

Speech is a unique activity which allows each student to compete in any of several categories of their own preference. Once the category is chosen, the team ready to tackle students from other schools. It is not uncommon to see students contorting their faces, talking to themselves, or rehearsing hand motions before meets. Hallways are lined with kids talking. However, their not talking to each other.

Adrift In a Sea of Choices

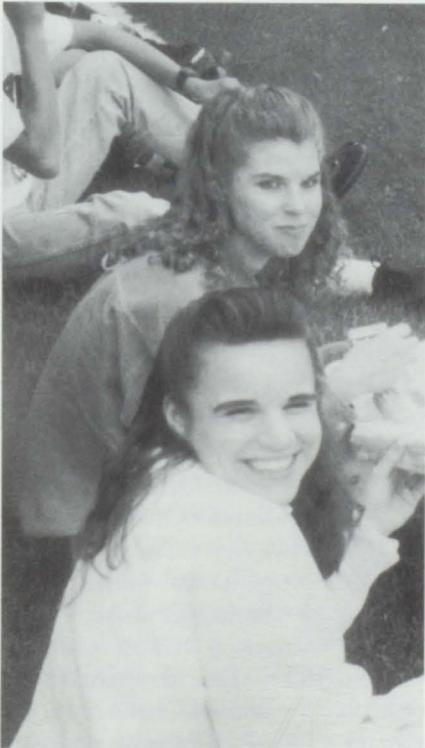

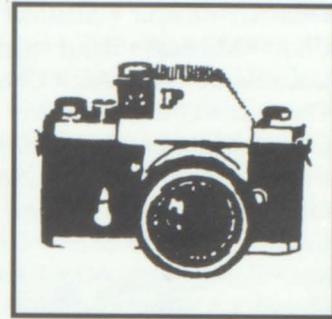

The first of many designs didn't come easily. The editors and new advisor, Mrs. Radzwill, spent a few days kicking around the idea of a spring delivery book. Finally, they took the leap. The new mission: to find a theme and some cool staff members. Plenty of enthusiastic people signed up and more decisions arose. Members had to decide which part of the book to work on, how they wanted the pages to look and when to meet. The theme then fell into their laps - Adrift in a Sea of Choices. The theme unified the book and summed the staff's feelings.

Bye, Bye, Birdie

After hours of rehearsal, Bye Bye Birdie became another smashing hit from the STMA Theater Team. Nearly 70 students, including the Pit Orchestra, the lighting crew, the set designers and the back stage crew, all made this famous musical come to life. Rehearsals, set building, and the memorization of lines began in early October and ended with the shows on November 18, 19, and 20. Each night the auditorium was nearly filled with faculty, students, and friends and family. Mrs. Lefebvre, Mr. Sass, Mr. Anderson, Ms. Catlin, Ms. Hedlund, Mr. Dan Dehmer, and Mr. Bauman, along with his industrial arts students, all helped and worked together to make this memory, a memory for all students. For several students this was their first show, but for other Seniors, it was their last.

The Empty Chair

by Tim Kelly

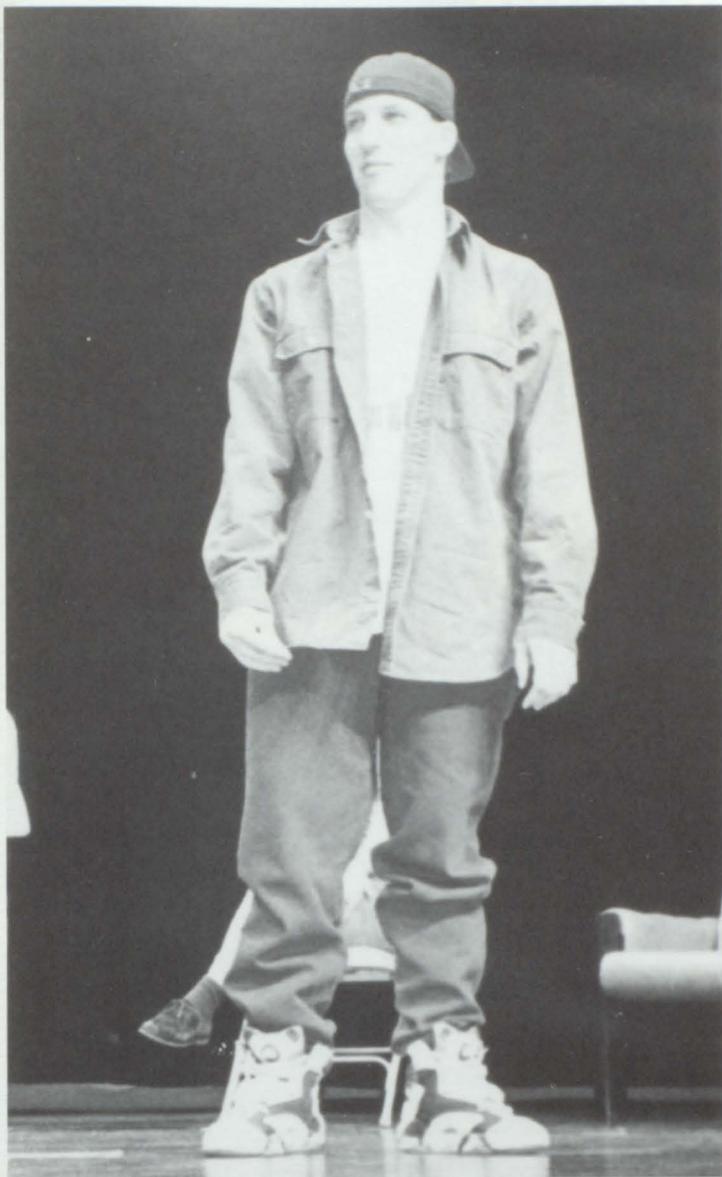

With the help of director Melissa Feickert and student director Ambre Middleton, the one act cast and crew placed 3rd at the sub-section contest held in Delano. The competition has strict guide lines concerning time, costumes and scenery. The participants are evaluated individually on articulation, characterization, and movement.

This years performance, The Empty Chair, focused on the growing problem of drug and substance abuse among teens.

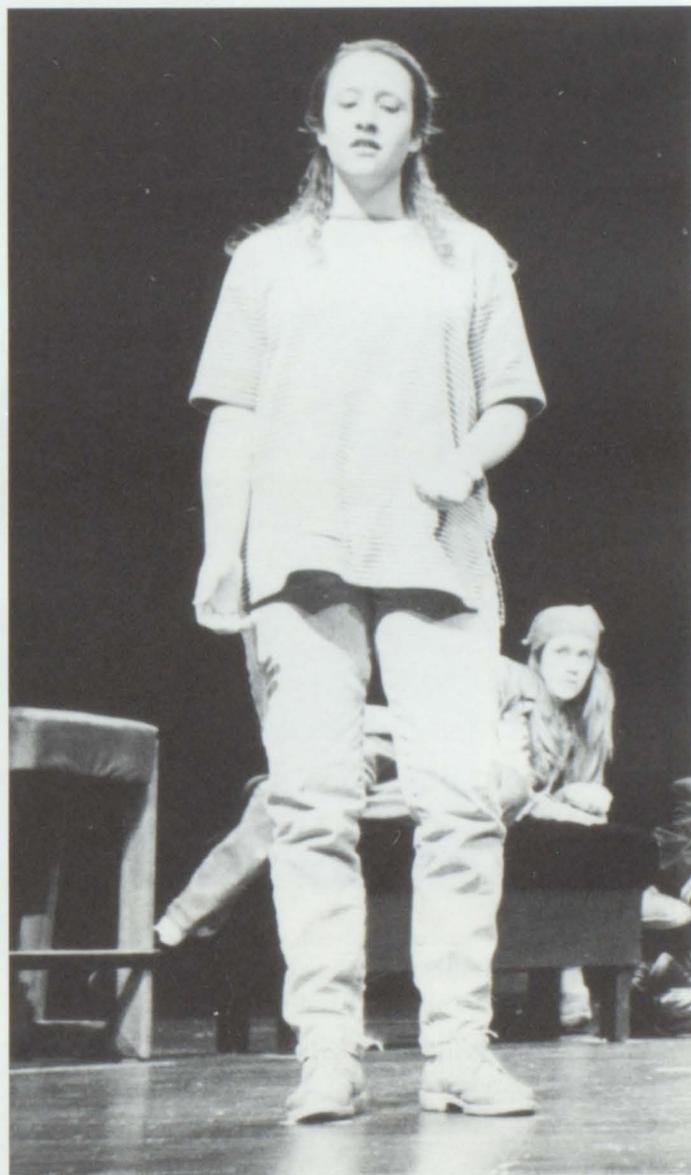

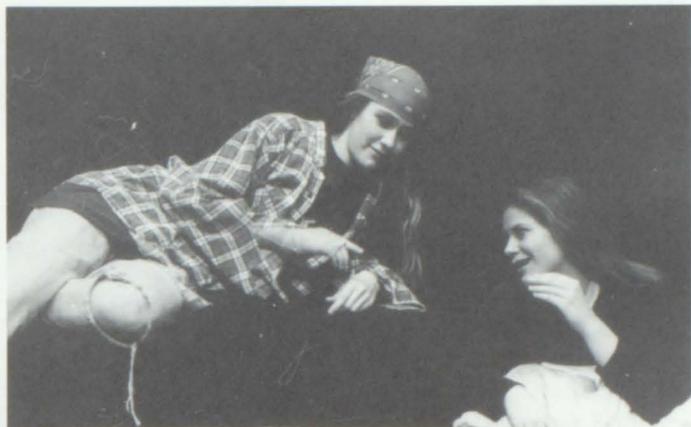

The plot unfolds in a group therapy session with a leader guiding members through their own problems as well as their new problem, The Empty Chair. Through monologs characters express reactions to the loss of their friend, Robert.

Concert Choir

An Unending Activity

The Concert Choir has increased its numbers greatly this year to nearly 50 students. The choir began its year by adding class to the Coronation ceremony held in the auditorium. The group held three fantastic concerts through out the year. Some members also participate in the group Pop Singers, who sing, dance, and compete simultaneously. Finally senior members of the concert choir sing for graduation ceremonies held in May.

Wind Ensemble

The band is continuously bringing spirit and zest to the STMA school district. They begin the year by marching and performing for Homecoming festivities. Later in the season the group plays pep songs for athletic games to add excitement and energy to the contest. Many members of the band performed for the musical Bye, Bye, Birdie. Also the group performs three concerts throughout the year for parents, friends, and community members. Finally the group of nearly seventy students play the ever popular song "Pomp and Circumstance" for the commencement exercises held in late May.

Waves of Talent

The Knight's Danceline had another short yet rewarding year. Their performances were few, but the time and energy involved was intense. Early mornings and late nights, full of sweat and sore muscles paid off at their first competition at the St. Paul Civic Center. They placed unusually high for first time competitors. The squad took a well deserved brake through the winter months.

Knights Cheerleaders support many of the athletic teams this year by cheering at their home games and traveling with the team to away games. They get the crowd involved by performing innovative cheers that entice the crowd to participate.

The Cheerleaders spend many hours coming up with new cheers and practicing old ones. They spend numerous evenings working on locker signs and the hallway banners which brighten up our corridors.

STMA Cheerleaders convey the school spirit by getting the students involved. This fall they put on the "Pie in the Face" contest, along with the many other fun fund-raisers. They also try to get the many students involved through the pepfests they organize. The pepfests are a great way for students to convey their school spirit.

Watertown	14	6	Waconia	34	12
Annandale	32	0	Glencoe	17	16
Rockford	17	0	Delano	21	9
Delano	21	9

The Knights football team experienced a big change this year when they were forced to move up to the class A division. They met the challenge by having another successful season. Their regular season record was 6-2 which earned the right to second place in the conference. This record put them in the playoffs once again with a number 4 seed. In the first round of the playoffs, the Delano Tigers proved to be a tough competitor, and ended the Knights season unexpectedly.

The Knights were led by senior co-captains Billy Dehmer, Jesse Haus, Eric Vollbrecht, and Ryan Wenger along with a strong cast of returning lettermen. Ryan Wenger dominated the field with 13 touchdowns and an impressive rushing record for the year. Eric Vollbrecht had great success on defense once again by intercepting another 9 passes, making a career total of 38, which puts him in a tie for 10th in the national record books. He was also named to the Star Tribune All-Metro football team.

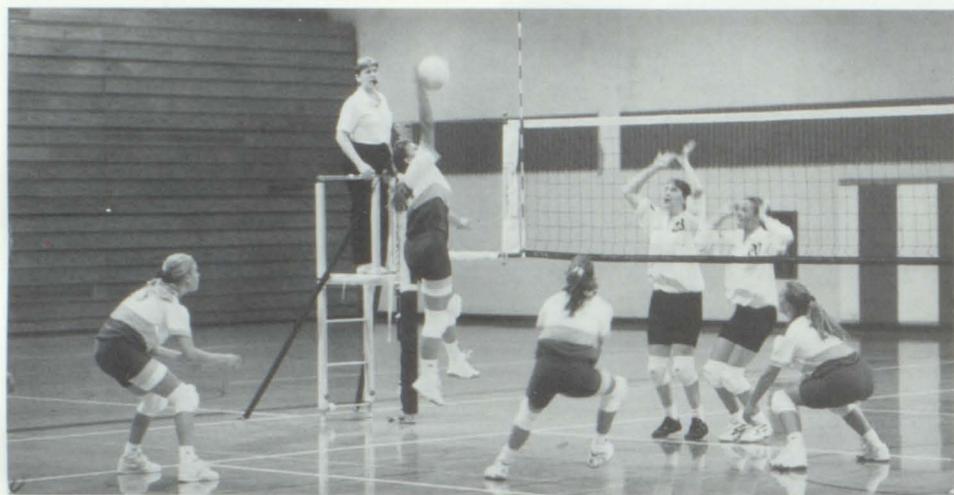

Individual team awards went to Hardest Worker- Jesse Haus, Hardest Hit- Ryan Wenger, Most Valuable Lineman- Billy Dehmer, Most Valuable Back- Ryan Wenger, and Most Valuable Player- Eric Vollbrecht. Receiving All-Conference honors were seniors Eric Vollbrecht, Kelly Hulting, Ryan Wenger, Jesse Haus, and Billy Dehmer. All-Conference Honorable Mention went to seniors Daryl Becker and Brad Mason. In addition to being named All-Conference Ryan Wenger was named the Most Valuable Lineman in the Wright County Conference.

				St. Cloud Cath.	3	0
				Sauk Centre	0	3

With a winning tradition from STMA's volleyball teams, there are always high expectations for the incoming team. This year's team was no exception.

The season began with a tough loss to Monticello, but they pulled together and improved throughout the entire season. This was hard to accomplish due to the incredibly tough schedule the Knights had, which included many top rated teams in both A and AA.

However, even with a tough schedule, the Knights still managed to win the Crow River Invitational, and receive 4th place at both the St. Anthony and Apple Valley Tournaments, where they defeated, returning state champions, United South Central. The Knights ended the season as conference and subsection champions, with a record of 21-08. Their final loss came in the section semifinal match against Sauk Centre.

After last year's successful season and participation in the State Meet, the Cross Country team decided to turn it up a notch in intensity and dedication. They had several long distance runs including a 10 mile run. Mondays and Saturdays were the traditional speed repeat workouts in which miles, halves, and quarters were endured.

The boy's team was lead by five returning senior co-captains: Jesse Marzean, Brooks Grossinger, Mark Stoick, Michael Stoick, and Carl Roehl. Sophomores Dave Beck and newcomer Derek Wood strengthened the committed team. Also Jim Burke made a few varsity appearances and alternate Tony Renken rounded off the State team (both are seniors).

The rebuilding of the girls team included experienced Sara Eicher and Meagan Kittridge. Letitia and Angie Zahler joined to provide senior leadership. Sophomore Rosemarie Lindsey also joined and helped the team out immensely.

The All-Conference individuals were Mike, Mark, Brooks, Jesse, and Rosemarie.

The most impressive feat the boys team obtained was placing three runners in the top five at Section. Mike, Mark, and Brooks placed 1, 3, and 5 respectively, demonstrating the caliber of the team. Those individuals along with the team went to the state meet at St. Olaf College in Northfield. Highlights included Mike placing fourth at state with Mike, Mark, and Brooks earning All-State status. The team placed a hard earned 5th.

Individual awards went to Most Valuable Runners - Mike Stoick and Sara Eicher, Most Improved - Mark Stoick and Rosemarie Lindsey, and Hardest Workers - Brooks Grossinger, Jim Burke, and Meagan Kittridge.

The 1994-95 season was a successful one for the STMA Girls Tennis Team. Co-Captains Nancy Angus and Kristy Sellers led their team to their best season so far with an overall record of 6-9. The team had first time wins over Osakis and Minnehaha Academy. They also took 2nd at the Chisago Lakes and the Mora tournament. Nancy Angus captured the #1 singles title at Mora and Shannon Wilkens captured the #4 singles title at Mora and Chisago Lakes. And they won their first section 5A match. Kim Walsh was named MVP for the season.

The tennis team has been greatly expanding over the last few years. When Coach Riles took over, 5 years ago, there were only 12 girls grades 7-12 out for tennis. This year there were 52, a great boost to the program.

The girls had fun and they have high hopes for the coming season. The team should be back almost in full force. They have to say good-bye to their only senior Ambre Middleton. But they will be returning along with 6 new seniors. The team is looking forward to it.

The Knights Girls Basketball team had a tough season in the win-loss column with a 5-16 record. Although the record does not show it, they had many close games which resulted in losses. The year was somewhat a rebuilding one for the Knights because they had only one returning starter.

This year the team had four seniors and captains in Carrie Ketel, Letitia Zahler, Angie Zahler, and Karee Vossen. The Juniors for the team were Katie Lenz, Maria Barthel, Andrea Scherber, Renee Schmidt, Beth Lindenfelser, and Sarah Becker.

Receiving individual statistic awards were Carrie Ketel: leading scorer and most rebounds, Andrea Schereber: best 3 point percentage, most steals, and best freethrow percentage, Karee Vossen: best shooting percentage, and Maria Barthel: most assists. Maria had 72 assists which put her at second in the conference and she also has STMA's record for most assists in a season. Carrie Ketel received All-Conference Honors.

"Down to the wire" is the phrase that sums up the 1994-95 season for the St. Michael-Albertville boys basketball team. Many games were decided in the last few seconds. In fact, there were six games decided by three points or less. They had a chance to win all of those games, but five of them became heartbreaking defeats. One of those defeats was to the conference champs, Glencoe-Silver Lake. They beat the Knights 60-58 on a last second three-pointer.

After losing a close game to Milaca, the Knight's season gained momentum. They went on to win four of their next five games, including three victories in the Princeton Holiday Tournament. Midway through the season they lost their first six conference games. They ended the season on a good note by winning three of their last four conference games. The regular season ended with a 4-10 conference record. In the first round of the subsection tourney the team defeated Foley, then lost a hard fought game to Sartell. They finished with a record of 11-13.

Competitive, hard working and concentration best describes STMA's 94-95 gymnastics team. With a team of only eight, this years girls had a great season. They had a small team, but worked extremely well together. With an outstanding team effort, the gymnasts took second place at regional competition.

Senior Tanya Bourgeois had another successful season for the Knights. Bourgeois participated in state competition for the second year in a row in the all-around category.

The STMA gymnastics team was a good example of small and young gymnasts compensating for an injury-plagued team. The young members stepped in with strong performances.

The Knights gymnasts plan to work on their skills this summer and look forward to an experienced and competitive team next year.

The locker room door opened and they progressed quietly down the hallway. The scoreboard was set and ready to go. Home: 0, Visitors: 0, period 1, time: 15:00. The fans wrapped in blankets filled the stands while the parents assumed their usual positions along the boards. They had anticipated this moment for a long time now. Winter weather had set in, and hockey was in the air.

The Knights season began on Dec. 3 with a win over Columbia Heights. This along with other season highlights made the season memorable including a 6-2 win over St. Cloud Cathedral and a first time win over Cambridge.

The Knights were led by senior captains: center Jared Braun, wing Ryan Wenger, and defense Kelly Hulting.

Awards recieved by the team include All-Conference: Ryan Wenger and Jared Braun. All Conference Honorable Mention: Kelly Hulting and Brent Carron. Individual Awards were Most Improved: Scott Christianson, Most Dedicated: Kelly Hulting and Jarrod Sokolowski, and Most Valuable Player: Ryan Wenger.

The 1994-95 wrestling season was filled with excitement, success, and, yes, even some doubt. After a tremendous start to the season, the team found itself in a slump as it lost three duals in a matter of one week. But Mr. Greeno and his men took it in stride knowing that the hard work would eventually pay off. And it did in a big way. In the final four Section Tournament, the Knights defeated Paynesville and then avenged an earlier loss to Litchfield by beating them 30-22.

The team's Section Championship made it three years in a row in which they have qualified for the State Tournament. In the first round they were tested by Frazee but came through by beating them 22-21. In the semi-final match against nationally-ranked Canby, the Knights were beaten in an exciting battle. The guys bounced back tough and beat Zumbrota-Mazeppa in a convincing manner, giving them the third-place medal.

Individually, STMA qualified four individuals: Dave Vetsch, Dan Duncombe, Nick Dehmer, and Billy Dehmer. Three of them placed and all of them won at least two matches in the tough competition.

THANKS!

While working on the yearbook, the staff members need a ~~little~~ lot of assistance. The editors would like to thank the following people for their help in making the 1994-1995 book successful.

- Mr. Hoistad - You set up our file in the new server, trusted us to use and shut down the computer room, and ignored the pizza boxes and pop cans.
- Ms. Hedlund - You took and developed pictures we decided, on a moment's notice, we needed last week. Your advice is still one of our greatest tools.
- David Brant, Adrian Kolles, Merrel Schumm, Dan Dehmer, and Pat Russel - Thanks to you our doors are always open!
- Dominos and the snack and pop machines - You guys prevented our starvation during long work sessions. Full stomachs made working on Saturdays enjoyable.
- Coaches and Managers - The stats and pictures you supplied made the book complete. Thanks for sharing.
- Zahler Photography Studios - Thank you so much for your valuable time.
- Jim Cashman, Jostens, Macintosh Computers, the Aldus PageMaker program and Elvis - WOW!
- Advertisers - These pages are here because of you.
- The Class of '95 - We received all your pictures in time for our early deadline!
- Mrs. Razwill and the staff - As Mrs. Radzwill said, "There are just some things I don't want to know". We rock the house! No computer problem can stop us. Maybe the computer room got tense before deadlines and maybe we didn't always make it, but now the book is finally in our hands! Words can't express ...
