“We all are so much richer in so many ways from simply knowing you!”

Russ Papenhausen

Dear Grandma,

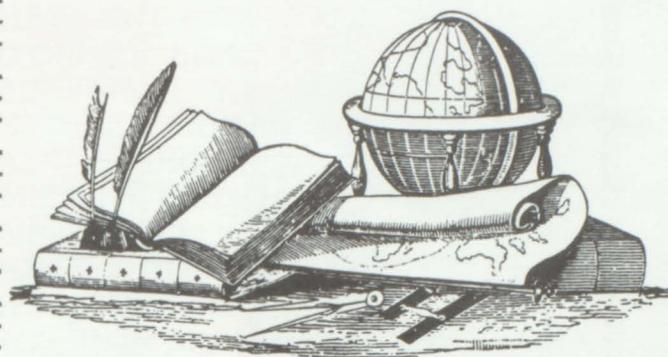

We heard that you were leaving, and we will be sorry to see you go. You were (and still are) the most caring person we have had the pleasure to know. Thru our years at this school, we have come to rely on your quick smile and kind words to brighten our days. We could never find anyone to replace you or anyone who is so attentive to our needs. We will always remember the unselfish things you have done for us, like lending money to us poor souls, buying extra milk for the athletic teams during their seasons, or attending our school functions to cheer us on. Even though you will no longer be with us in person, you will always be with us in spirit. Good luck on the golf course, and be happy in whatever you do!

Love always,
Your friends at STMA

The Junior Class was surveyed concerning their activities on those "rare" occasions when they find themselves without a date on a Friday night. The following results included a wide range of alternatives. Some students took a very conscientious approach and said that they would spend time at home with their parents so that they would feel less guilty about going out on other nights. Another popular pastime was catching up on things which were messed up during the hectic week. Cleaning rooms, pampering themselves in a luxurious bath and just plain relaxing topped the list. Others wanted to just get out of the house. They said that they would call up a bunch of friends and go cruise around. Almost all of them would love to go to a party or anything else that would seem vaguely interesting. Still another group decided to wallow in self pity. They would go to the store and buy all of the junk food that they could find, then go home and "pig-out." The only problem with this solution, is that the next day they would feel terrible for eating so much. Above all, though, the most most popular response was finding a KOOL-AID PARTY!

When asked to reveal some of their most commonly used excuses, the Sophomores replied:

We were tardy because: We overslept (most common); Someone changed the alarm clock; We were coming to school minding our own business, when all of a sudden a strange thing happened . . . ; We had an accident; The car went too slow; We got stuck behind a Freshman; The bus was late; My locker got stuck; The dog ran away with my shoes; Someone was in my way and I couldn't get through the door on time.

We get out of class to: Go to the bathroom (most common); Be sick; Find my contact lens; Get lunch tickets; Get the books which I forgot in my locker; Get a drink in order to stop coughing (actually I'm meeting a friend).

I don't have my homework because: I forgot it in my locker; The teacher didn't tell us it was due; I have a lack of ambition; I was talking on the phone; The dog ate it; I spilled something on it; I left it in a relative's car (they happen to be on their way to New York).

I am not going to school today because: I'm sick (most common); I need a break; I have to catch up on my soaps; My cat died and I'm really upset; I thought it was Saturday; Today's going to be easy anyway, so why bother?

I am not going to work today because: I'm sick (most common); A relative died (lots of them); Isn't today some kind of holiday?; My boss said I was doing such a good job that I didn't have to go today.

Every year incoming freshmen have terrifying dilemmas to face. A most common fear of any student in a new school is the feeling of being lost or forgetting their locker combination. For some, getting to class on time without getting detention is a big accomplishment.

Another terror freshmen must overcome is the fear of grades slipping so low that they will have to take the same class over next year. A trip to Dr. Toskas' office is always dreaded by many.

One person's enjoyment is another's fear, such as Mr. Abrahamson's leaf collection and the two-mile run, which to some seems like two hundred miles. The first pep fest is always a riot for everyone except the freshmen, who become embarrassed before it is over.

Most freshmen, especially new students, dread being mistreated by other students or not being accepted. But, I think, the biggest fright of all is the fear of seniors. Big seniors, small seniors, tall seniors, mean seniors, crabby seniors, nice seniors and most of all, seniors that lock freshmen in lockers. After a couple of weeks, these fears disappear and things are going great. When they look back at old fears, new ones appear. Freshmen fears are a never ending cycle.

This year our school has had the chance, once again, to have a foreign exchange student come to visit. She is from Sweden, and her name is Charlotte Celsing, known to her friends as Lotta. She is staying with the Meyers as did her cousin Robert, two years ago. At home, she has a twin sister and two brothers. Since she has been here, she has travelled to New York, which she said was very exciting and she is planning a trip to Florida in March. Although she misses her family and friends, she is enjoying the United States and St. Michael very much. She said the people are very friendly. She thinks her classes are easier, but the school is stricter. Her favorite classes are American History and Spanish. She will be competing in the Minnesota State Spanish competition in April.

Although No Snow Christmas Was Still In High Spirits.

Christmas was a big success. Because all halls were so creatively decorated, instead of one winner, there were two: the Jrs. ('88) and the Sophs. ('89). On Thurs., we received some entertainment from the U. of M., Morris Jazz Band, which included former grad., Karl Becker. Also during the week we were welcomed to school by the band and serenaded by the choir.

"Hey Kerry, where's Rudolph?"

HOMECOMING SETS THE STAGE FOR FALL ACHIEVEMENTS

Colorguard struts their way down the parade route.

The festivities of Homecoming started with Monday's celebration of Grub Day. Our Junior Royalty stars were just a little on the shy side, but not to worry. Once they got up on the stage nothing could make them leave. Another source of enjoyment was Mr. Ketel as he brought up such things as teddy-bears, Wheaties, maps and tractors. Then came the moment we all had been waiting for - the crowning of King Rich Kottke and Queen Sandy Dehmer. Following the coronation was the bonfire.

Tuesday came with everyone looking their best for Formal Day. Wednesday we brought back the spirit of the fifties.

On Thursday, the students and teachers looked rather comfortable in their sweats, tees and but-tons.

Last, but definitely not least, came Friday and the students and staff showed their school spirit wearing their blue and gold attire. At about 1:30 P.M. we had a short pep fest to boost the spirits of our team. From there we went to the parade, and a good time was had by all. Although, let's not forget the victory car that had to be pushed off of the road because it was blocking traffic. After a short rest we watched the Powderpuff Game and, as tradition would have it, the seniors won. We then had the chance to relax before the big game, that night, against Howard Lake-Waverly which we won 33-6. At 9:30 P.M. We celebrated the eventful and victorious week with the help of Anthem.

Ann Hagerty, a member of the rifle drill squad, concentrates on her next move.

The freshmen float reveals their motto.

School spirit abounds during Homecoming Week.

Halloween produced quite a splash this year as the volleyball and football teams bobbed for apples at the pep fest. With a little help from Sylvester, the football team managed to defeat the volleyball team. Along with Sylvester and Tweetie, there were many witches, ghosts and goblins who roamed the halls of STMA. The best costume awards went to Nurse Josh Hall, Grim Reaper Mike Johnson, Old Man Jeff Vetsch, Vampire Ann Hagerty, and Umpire Mr. Skogen.

Dan Leuer needs some help keeping his hands behind his back while bobbing for apples.

Jim Nelson is ready for a hot night out on the town.

LEADERS OF TOMORROW

The Committee of Ten

Karla Kilian, Stephanie Jacubiak, Paula Kilian, Carrie Hofmeister, Jodie Leppa, Tony Dehmer, Brian Zachman, Kevin Hofmeister, Duane Bourget.

The Committee of Ten, which has only been around for two years, is made up of representatives from each class. The president of each grade chooses someone they know will work hard to help them. There are also two representatives from the National Honor Society. They meet about once or twice a month to carry out their main duty - planning school activities. In preparing for school dances, they poll the students to find out what kind of music they want and what decorations will be used. They also help with assemblies, Winterfest and any problems which might come up. This group ensures that every student is represented equally in school activities.

LEARN SKILL TODAY

The National Honor Society Officers

The National Honor Society was established in 1921 to recognize the excellence in education outside of athletics. It is a national organization which acknowledges and fosters academic achievements, while developing other characteristics essential to citizens in a democracy.

High schools wanting a charter in the NHS must apply to be accepted. Schools in the NHS have a responsibility to uphold national requirements as well as establishing their own by-laws, including criteria for evaluation and acceptance. Membership is open to sophomores, juniors and seniors and candidates are selected by a faculty council.

Here at STMA, the NHS plans and carries out a number of school and community activities. Meeting on a regular basis, they also discuss any problems which may arise with student activities, and act as a student government.

The NHS is a concrete way to promote high academic standards, is a means of ensuring the continuation of democracy in our country and is an instrument for the betterment of the individual and the school.

Carrie Hofmeister, secretary; Duane Bourget, president; Anita Zachman, treasurer.

SENIOR LEADERSHIP HELPS TEAM TO BEST SEASON EVER

"Dan! Dan! Are you OK in there?"

Total points in a season ... Number of games won ... Career Rushing, Passing, Pass Receiving, and Punting ... What do these all have in common? They are all records broken during the 1986 STMA Football season.

Because of the outstanding season, the team received close to the highest number ever of Wright County Conference awards. Paul O'Donnell, Dan Leuer, Barry Ihrke and Scott Berning were selected All-Conference, while Eric Dehmer, Rich Kottke, LeRoy Lindenfelser and Joe Dick received Honorable Mention.

At the banquet the team awards were given out. Eric Dehmer was voted Hardest Worker, Paul O'Donnell was selected Most Valuable Player and Back, and there was a tie for Most Valuable Line-man between Scott Berning and Dan Leuer.

This year's varsity football cheerleading squad had quite a job to do when they first began practice in August; breaking in six new members was not easy. They worked remarkably fast, however, and their squad was soon ready for the many new activities they would face during the year. These eight girls not only cheered the team on to its best season ever, but they also treated the players to popcorn, cupcakes and cookies as well as participating in the traditional Parents' Night activities. Due to the success of the volleyball team, cheering at the state tournament was a unique opportunity for them as well. "One of the finest groups of girls I've ever worked with," commented their advisor, Mrs. Sonju, and we're sure you agree.

HARD WORK PAYS OFF FOR 9TH GRADE FOOTBALL TEAM

Chad makes a solid tackle.

Keith gets ready to tackle.

This year the ninth grade football team ended the season with a 3-4 record. They lost two very close games which could have gone either way. The other two losses were to very good teams, Monticello and Watertown-Mayer.

While all of the members played some hard-nosed football very well, Keith Lekatz, Chuck Daleiden, Dan Eichelberg, Paul Schumm and Chad Sutherland had some excellent performances.

Having done a super job this year, and with one season under their belt, these young players should be looking forward to getting back out on the grid field next Fall.

The long and tiring summer practices paid off for the boys' cross country team when they began their season by placing eighth out of sixteen teams at the Milaca Invitational. In the varsity race, Roland Robeck placed seventh and then continued to help the team by placing first at the Rockford Invitational and also first at the STMA Invitational, helping the team to a fourth place. At the Wright County Conference Meet, the boys placed fourth with Roland in fifth place and newcomers Brian Becker, Curt Hennen and Jeff Vetsch placing nineteenth, twenty-fifth and twenty-seventh respectively. The team finished fifth in the District Meet. Most Valuable was awarded to Roland Robeck.

DOES EXCEPTIONALLY

WELL FOR

ITS SIZE

This year the girls cross country team strove to improve individually as well as a team. Because the team was so small, most of their scores were incomplete. They relied a great deal on sophomore Cindy Weber who was voted "Most Valuable Runner." In the District 17A Meet, freshman Meeghan O'Donnell ran in order for the team to receive a complete score and a fifth place finish. The entire team lettered this year and, as there are no seniors, Mr. Beck is looking for the same excellent results in the coming years.

▲ Sandy sets up for a Cindy Luther spike.

The volleyball team earned the privilege of returning to the State Tournament by beating St. Cloud Cathedral in five games at the Region 5A Tournament. This followed a fine season with many new records. In serving, Carolyn Vetsch set a new high career percentage record (96.57%) and most career serves (775). She also set a new record in most career ace spikes (394). Shelly Hackenmueller made her mark in most sets per match (103). Blocking was Missy Anderson's specialty this season as she broke records in both most ace blocks per season (79) and most career blocks (106). Selected to the All-Conference Team were Missy, Cindy Luther and Carrie Foertsch, with honorable mention going to Carolyn, Shelly and Sandy Dehmer. Team awards included Carolyn Vetsch (Best Server), Sandy Dehmer (Best Setter), Missy Anderson (Best Hitter, Blocker, and Most Improved), and Cindy Luther (MVP). With her outstanding career records, Carolyn Vetsch had the honor of being selected to the All-State Team.

Carolyn jumps high for a good spike.

It was another frustrating year at the State Tournament for the Volleyball Knights. In spite of their experience, the wins were just not meant to be. Both matches against Cosmos and Kenyon went three games, with close scores and one overtime. With six experienced seniors, they played well, but just couldn't seem to tip the scales. Overall, it was still an honor to be one of the eight schools participating in the Class A tournament.

Winning the Buffalo Tournament, highlighted the B-Squaders season, Having no game losses, they finished with a perfect 18-0 record. With depth being their greatest strength they were able to interchange players. Strong serving and good control of passing, for setting up their offense, intimidated opponents early in the games. Consistent serving from Shelly Zupon (93.4%) and Angie Milless (93.2%) helped the team to serve a total percentage of 89%, with 31% being aces. Six other players served 90% or better. Great team work produced more than forty bump, set, spike combinations. With the great success that the team had this year, they certainly have some exciting years to look forward to.

Members of the STMA Freshmen Volleyball squad showed what can happen with the combination of hard-work and dedication. In Regions, Kerry was ranked third and Rochelle was ranked sixth for singles. The team won the first round against Waconia and then lost to Breck. This year they were joined by some young players including: Yvette Klemmek, Cheryl Gilge, Rachel Volk and Karen Cochran. Wendy Ostendorf and Stephanie were selected as Most Improved. The winter cheerleaders, both varsity and junior varsity, do a lot more for the teams and the school than they are often given credit for. Besides the normal activities such as making banners, locker signs, and Parents' Night goodies, they also made locker signs for girls' basketball. To make some extra money, the girls sold candy throughout the season and had a special week where they sold lollypops for Valentine's Day. With some new additions, this year's squads were some of the best ever. They showed both more difficulty and originality in their routines, and although many of the members are seniors, there are enough underclassmen to make sure that this trend can continue for years to come.

KNIGHT GYMNASTS END SEASON

Front: Laura Dehmer, Kristie Olson, Sandy Dehmer, Coral Schulte, Julie Sutherland, Laura Glatzmaier, Karen Bistodeau, Krista Hofmeister, Christine Guzzo, Nicole Paulsen, Jenny Walz. Middle: Susie Saari, Michelle Barthel, Karen Haydter, Meeghan O'Donnell, Angie Millless, Tammy Hamann, Sarah Blenkush, Rocky Chenvert, Kristi Walter. Back: Coaches, Dawn Anderson, Vicki Bidwell, Mona Becker, Mgr. Jean Staples.

This year's gymnastics team consistently improved throughout the season to make it one of the best. With only two seniors, this young team has the potential to be an up-coming top contender. When Coach Anderson was asked for her philosophy of coaching, she replied, "I just try to make practices as fun as possible with lots of hard work too. I encourage the girls to set their goals high and strive to achieve them". Special awards this year were given to Krista Hofmeister (Rookie of the Year), Christine Guzzo (Most Improved), Laura Glatzmaier (Best All-Around), and Tammy Hamann (MVP). New this year were the Hardest Worker Awards on each event, presented to Tammy (Vault), Meeghan O'Donnell (Bars), Susie Saari (Floor Ex.), and Michelle Barthel (Beam). Karen Haydter and Rocky Chenvert were voted '87-88 captains.

'BEAMING'

Tammy blocks hard in a 1/2-1/2 Vault.

Susie shows grace and style as she moves confidently through her routine.

The driving force: Mona, Dawn and Vicki.

Gymnastic people are one of a kind;
 They act as if they're out of their mind.
 They have some feelings which must be told;
 Of their outrageous guts and hearts of gold.
 Gymnasts get a high no one else can understand;
 By doing a double back somi or piroquette
 handstand.
 So when you've done your routines and now
 you're all through;
 And the last five sets you've stuck like glue.
 That's when you know what happiness is;
 To conquer all skills and never to miss.

"And to the victors go the spoils."

The girls bent over backwards to please their coaches.

Can you think of a better way to end your first season in a sport than by going to state? That's exactly what freshman gymnast Laura Glatzmaier did. After competing for a private club for the past four years, Laura quit over the summer and joined the STMA Gymnastics Team. There she became STMA's only All-Around performer, and scored consistently high on each event.

After breaking the A-A record in the last regular-season meet of the year with a score of 32.55, she and the team moved on to the regions. She proceeded not only to break the same record again (33.05) and set a new balance beam record (8.60), but her 8.25 score on the uneven bars placed her third in the event and sent her on to the State Meet. There she hit a solid routine for a record-high score of 8.45 which placed her 15th out of 38 participants. If this year is any indication, you can certainly look out for this tiny blonde in the coming years.

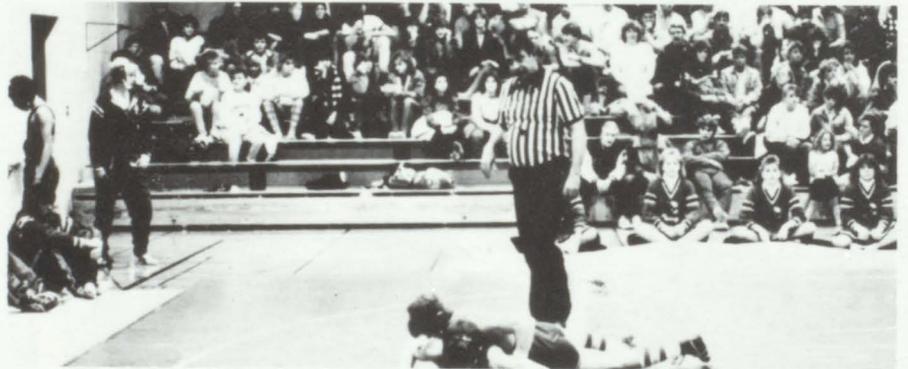

Laura jumps into her routine at state.

Eddy Dehmer, who was the first eighth grader from STMA to represent our school at the State Wrestling Competition, was also the youngest competitor there. Quite an accomplishment!

Brian Becker, just recovering from a broken arm, regained his winning form just in time to qualify for state competition. This was the second consecutive year for him!

Our team's three lowest weight classes represented STMA at the State Wrestling Competition. Although this was the first year in the past 10 that our school did not place in the final round, we were more than adequately represented.

Gary Schoen had an overall outstanding season and qualified at the Region 5A Tournament in first place, but was defeated by the next state champion in the state competition.

The B-Squad wrestling team ended a successful season with 11 wins, 3 close losses and 1 tie. The 11 wins included 2 shutouts. Incredible! Individual outstanding achievements for season records were Lance Barthel (20-3-1), Dave Winkler (18-4-0), Scott Kasper (16-7-0) and Dean Dehmer (16-8-0). Lance also held the title for pins and technical fouls with 13 and team pts. with 101. The leaders in match pts. were Travis Hall (155), Dave Winkler (137) and Lance Barthel (135). This is definitely a promising team for years to come. Keep up the good work!

"The dictionary is the only place where success comes before work. Hard work is the price you pay for success." Vince Lombardi was quoted as saying this and the STMA wrestlers seem to believe in it. After a great amount of hard work, the team finished still another successful season, 16-2-0, including 2 shut outs. In addition, 4 tournament titles were brought home and a 2nd place at the Region 5A Dual Tournament.

Individually, Gary Schoen led in almost every category statistically including: season record (29-2-0), pins & technical falls (18), match points (294), and team points (146). Tom Ripplinger topped the charts in career record (96-10-2), unbeaten string (22), and take-downs (104). Gary and Eddy Dehmer tied with 5 tournament titles each. Season records were held by Gary Schoen (29-2-0), Eddy Dehmer (29-3-0), Tom Ripplinger (25-2-0), Dan Leuer (23-8-0), Eric Dehmer (21-8-2) and Dan Paulsen (20-8-1). Individual honors were given out to Tom (Hardest Worker and Outstanding Wrestler), Paul O'Donnell (Most Improved) and Eric (Honorary Captain).

ON THE MAT

In spite of being a young team, the girl tracksters did well in both the conference and district meets. In the conference meet, Cathy P. placed 2nd in shot put and 4th in discus. Donna F. placed 4th in shot put. At the district meet, Cathy again placed 3rd in shot and 2nd in discus. Meeghan O. placed 3rd in the 800 meter run, and Donna placed 4th in shot and 3rd in discus. The 4x100 m. relay team (Kristi W., Brenda V., Meeghan O., and Debbie H.) placed 3rd. Region qualifiers were Donna, Cathy, and Meeghan.

Losing many of their good runners last season didn't seem to daunt the boy's track team as they completed their season with fine overall scores. In the District 17A meet the sprint medley relay team (Kevin Theis, Lance Beall, John Aydt and Tim Barthel) received 2nd place. Roland also did well in the 1,600 and 3,200 meter runs by placing 4th in both. Jim Eicher placed 3rd in the pole vault and Ben Eide placed 2nd in the shot put and 5th in the discus. The boys also showed good form at the Wright County Conference meet. Kevin Theis placed 3rd in the 110 high hurdles and 300 intermediate hurdles. Roland placed 3rd in the 1,600 meter run and 2nd in the 3,200 meter run. The only group to place in regions was the sprint medley relay team which received 5th place.

The varsity softball team had a tough season this year. They lost 8 games out of 14 but only by 1 or 2 points apiece. In districts they beat Regina and Rockford but lost to Delano. Tammy Hamann, who had the highest batting average of .520, was voted MVP of the year. All-Conference recognition went to Carolyn Vetsch, who also had a high batting average of .412. Missy Anderson, Julie Zachman, and Tammy Hamann received honorable mention. The 1987-88 varsity captains are Kari Kasper and Amy Roden. This year's Varsity Baseball Team once again had a successful season, winning 13 games out of 20. Having played some close and exciting games, the District Playoffs proved no different. Winning the first game 4-3 in the 10th inning was a real heart-stopper. The Knights then went on to shut out Watertown. They finally met their match against Delano in the finals losing 3-6. Barry Ihrke was the receiver of All-Conference and All-District recognition, as was Scott Lekatz. Barry also made the All-State Lions Outstate Team, and shared the MVP trophy with Grant Ketel. Coach Wilkins and Coach Ketel said that they enjoyed working with all the team members, and are looking forward to working with the 1988 team.

FIRST STMA ACADEMIC DECATHLON TEAM TO QUALIFY FOR STATE.

Front:Kirsten Cochran, Dan Burke, Josh Webskowski, Dave Bartel. Back: Amy Luther, Travis Hall, Jeff Kelly.

The Academic Decathlon team consists of six 11th and 12th graders. There are three sections in the Decathlon based on ability: varsity, scholastics, and honors. In the competition, they take six different tests on such things as English, math, economics, science, music, social studies and a "super-quiz" on various topics like the Constitution. In the State competition, a speech, essay and an interview were added. The top two regional team winners go on to the state meet.

At the Region 5A Meet, Kirstin Cochran (Honors) received four 1st places and one 2nd, and Dan Burke (Scholastics) placed 1st in five categories and 3rd in one. The team did well enough to qualify for the state competition at which Amy Luther (Scholastics) placed 1st in the speech category. As this was a new and challenging experience for STMA, it was a great accomplishment to have done so well.

Amy Luther placed 1st in speech (Scholastics).

Back: Rick Holt, Dave Bartel, Todd Kohler, Tony Dehmer, Josh Webskowski, Randy Shutt, John Thompson, Nick Anselment, Director, Ms. Koschak.

The crowd listened in awe as the choirs sang.

The choir concerts this year were something to behold. As the students raised their voices in song, you could almost hear a pin drop. The Christmas concert brought everyone into the spirit of the season while the March concert, "A Tribute to America", celebrated patriotism, from "America Depends on You and Me" to "The Battle Hymn of the Republic".

The yearbook staff apologizes for the lack of pictures of the concert choir. Our finished pages and pictures somehow walked away before we could get them to the publisher. We are very sorry.

TRIBUTE TO AMERICA

With enthusiasm and class, the freshmen choir sang their way to a superior rating at the state competition. Individuals earning superiors included: Linda Dehmer, Maria Chervenak, Stephanie Jakubiec, Kirsten Cochran, and duet, Maria Chervenak, and Molly Kilian. It will be exciting to see what this fine group does over the next few years.

Stage Band performed magnificently at the Winter Concert.

"This year's stage band started out fairly weak but as the year progressed and they worked more and more together, they molded into one of the better organizations we've had."

Stage Band, Clarinet Choir, Flute Choir, and Brass Choir all performed well at the Winter Concert with Stage Band performing also in the Spring Concert. Stage Band, Clarinet Choir, and Flute Choir also starred at the region and state contests. These groups practiced before school, during lunch, and after school to improve their performances. With all this individual effort, they had a year of outstanding performances.

WIND ENSEMBLE RECEIVES TRIPLE SUPERIOR

Section Leaders: Duane Bourget, Carrie Hofmeister, Ann Hagerty

"We're really jamming now!"

Ann and Shelly put their hearts into their playing.

The wind ensemble had an outstanding year. Students starring at the State Solo Contest included Ann Hagerty, Cindy Luther, Jane Welter and Patty Hennen. This talented band played a great variety of music at their three concerts and received standing ovations. Congratulations, also, to Cindy Luther, who received the Huber Award.

For the first time in years, the Freshmen Concert Band competed at the Class 2 level in the Regional/State Large Group Contest. They received 1 superior and missed a double superior rating by 1 pt. For only having 29 members, they performed excellently in 3 concerts. Next year, the Wind Ensemble will be joined by these talented freshmen.

ONE-ACT PLAY TIES FOR 5TH AT DISTRICTS

Marc seems to be enjoying his role.

As the play opens, Shelly nonchalantly reads her book.

Sound effects are provided by Kirsten, the student manager.

Helping behind the scenes were Anne, Brian, and Adam Pugh.

This year's one-act play was a comedy entitled, Two Fools Who Gained A Measure Of Wisdom. It was about a newlywed couple (Marc Maurer, Missy Mischke) who went to visit his aunt (Sara Irvine), and her maid (Shelly Kimmerle). At the District 17A competition, they tied for 5th place and Shelly received a Star Performance. All of this wouldn't have been possible without Director Mrs. Starkey, Student Director Kirsten Cochran, and the dedicated cast and crew.

Sara is willing to share her cigar.

"You have some nerve!"

Front: Amy Marquette, Dawn Kohler, Brian Gardner, Ruth Harper, Jenny Winkleman, Anne Borreson. Back: Student Director Kirsten Cochran, Marc Maurer, Missy Mischke, Sara Irvine, Shelly Kimmerle, Advisor Mrs. Starkey.

The speech team did an outstanding job this year considering that it only consisted of two members, Kirsten Cochran and Marc Maurer. For Marc's second year in speech, he competed in Humorous Interpretation. While he didn't place, his hard work and experience should help him next year. For Kirsten's last year, she competed in Discussion, in which the topic for this year was adolescents in the '80s. She placed 1st at regions and went on to tie for 6th place at the state meet. Kirsten and Marc would like to give a special thanks to all of the teachers and staff members who helped them out this year.

Marc and Kirsten dig for information.

"Now let me see . . ."

*All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women merely players:
They have their exits and their entrances;
And one man in his time plays many parts . . .*

Had he been living during our time, Shakespeare could easily have written this about the 1986-87 yearbook staff. It sometimes seemed as though we were working on the production of a play rather than on the yearbook. Our meetings reminded me of a backstage during a rehearsal. There were always people hurrying around talking, laughing, or even singing!

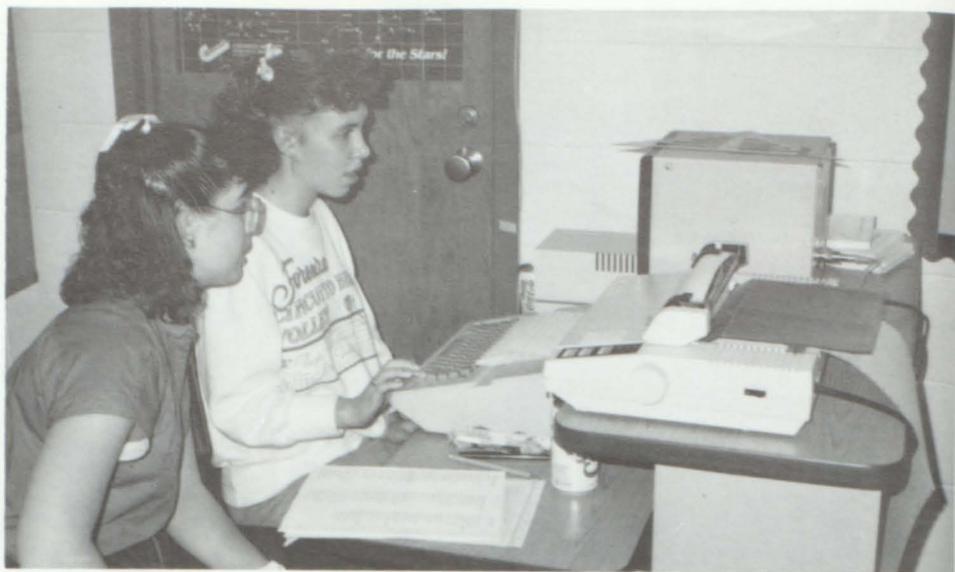

This quote proved to be especially true for me because as editor I had assumed a new role. No longer was I the learner struggling at my tasks, but an instructor guiding the new staff members through the development of the book.

As everyone has an entrance so must they too have an exit. As the staff regretablely learned near the end of the school year, our advisor of three years, Ms. Peterson, would be leaving after the completion of this book. The staff and I would like to take this opportunity to say "thank you" for the dedication and patience you've shown throughout the year towards the yearbook and us.

YEARBOOK IS FOOD, FUN, AND FRIENDS

The computer proved to be a timesaver, when it was working!

Working on the yearbook is a real picnic!

Top to bottom: Jeannie Zachman, Bonnie Lindenfelser, Karen Haydter, Lorrie Dahlin, Ruth Harper, Anne Borreson, and Amy Marquette (not pictured, Jenny Winkelman).

"Who did this page!"

The new recruits are hard at work!?!

"Would you just take the picture! I want to get back to work."

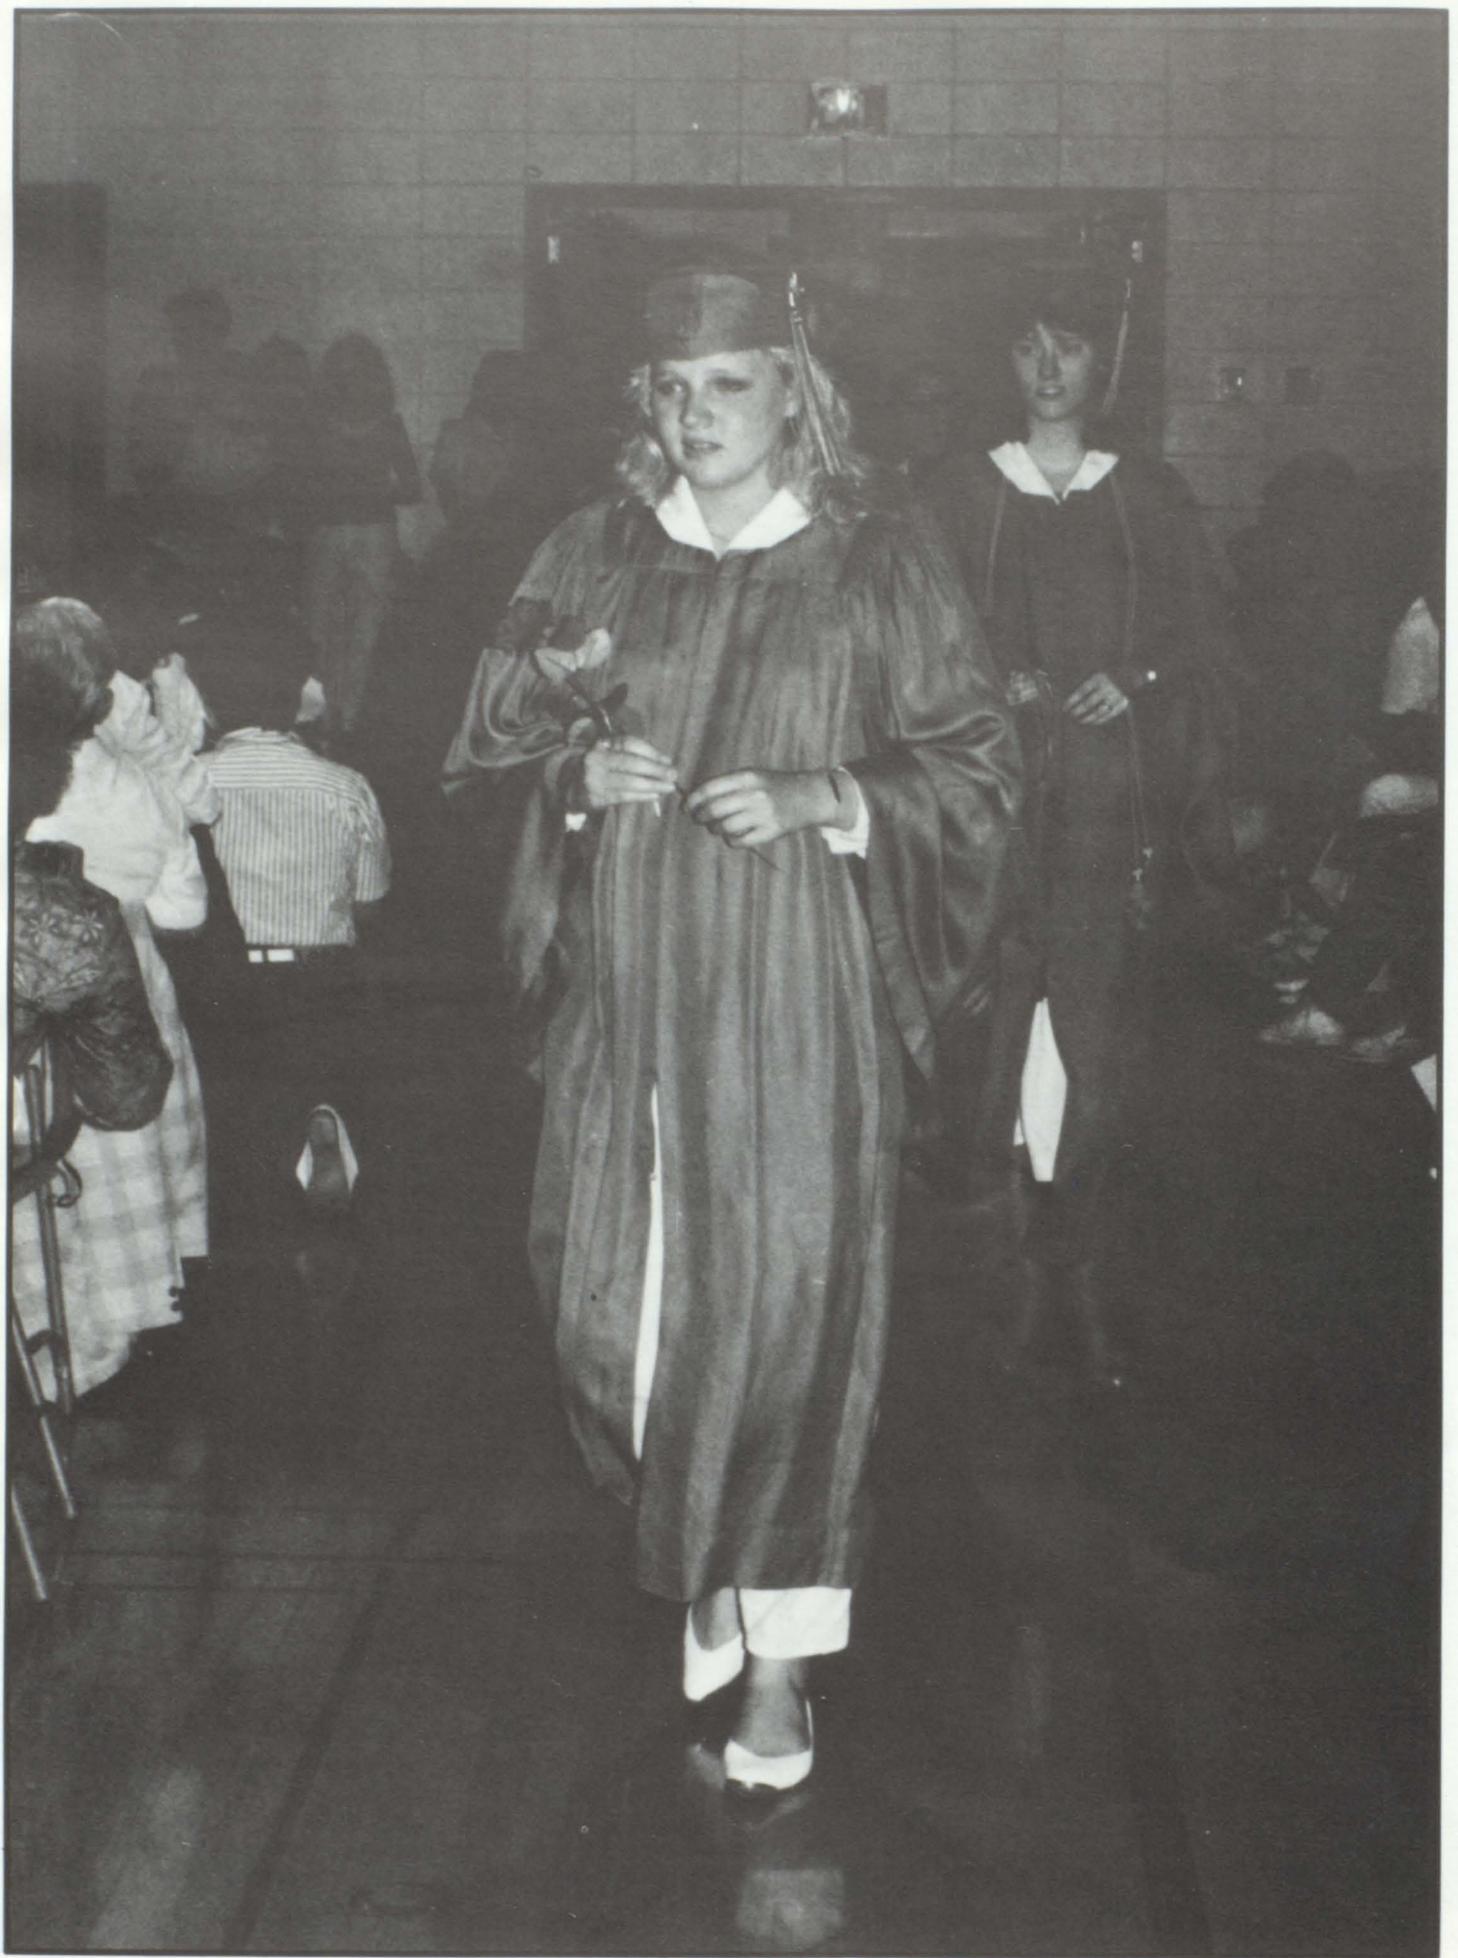

Karen researches an article for her pages.

Remember (When) ...
 ... Ruth couldn't find any St. Michael news in the Mpls. Star and Tribune.
 ... a caramel Twix, a green Starburst and 2 Sugar Daddies.
 ... Nobody wanted to do the girl's basketball pages (because no one knew anything about it).
 ... Karen's pizzas and cookies and pop and chips and ...
 ... we slimed Amy's hair.
 ... Ruth broke the cropper (and couldn't get it back together).
 ... the computer broke down before 2 of 4 deadlines.
 ... we went to the cafe when it was 30 below.
 ... Jeannie didn't want to take pictures at gymnastics (because she was scared of the coach).
 ... Anne and Ruth shredded a roll of film at a basketball game.
 ... we couldn't decide on radio stations.
 ... Amy got her head caught in a cropper.
 ... Karen wrote 4 times as much gymnastics copy as she needed (and wanted to take out a picture to fit it in).
 ... Karen, Bonnie and Ms. Peterson had breakfast at 1:00 A.M.

Even though this year's year-book staff was larger than last year's, it was still unusually small. There were only three returning members so they had a lot of things to learn before their first deadline and not much time to learn it in. But with plenty of dedicated work, and a lot of trips to the cafe, the pages were finished with plenty of time to spare. In spite of all the little problems we experienced, like losing pictures, copy and the use of the computer, we all had a wonderful year.

WINTERFEST '87: LACK OF SNOW DOESN'T DULL OUR SHOW

Rick shows his ping pong ability.

The Freshman Tug-O-War Team shows promise for future years.

Todd and "White Summer" win again for "best talent".

"You got to fight for your right TO PARTY."

Sophomores beat freshmen, but lose to seniors.

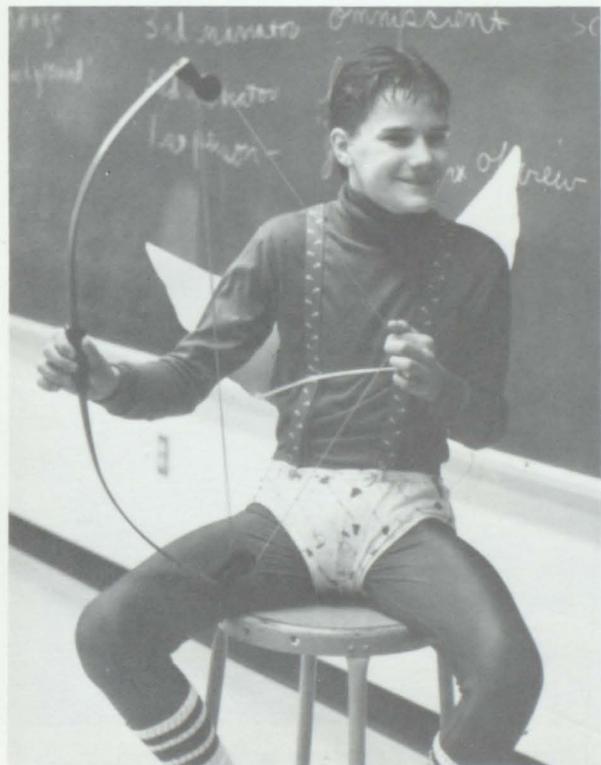

Winterfest '87 was a huge success. The days of the week were Ribbon Day, Hippy or Flowerchild Day, and the customary Red Day. The afterschool activities included Trivial Pursuit (winners; Kirsten Cochran, Marc Mauer, Dan Burke, and Carrie Foertsch) and Ping Pong (winner: Jason Tidblom).

The most exciting parts of Winterfest were the talent show and lip sinc contests. Winner of the talent show was the nostalgic band, "White Summer"

(Todd Kohler, Dan Burke, Mike Burke, Ken Zahler), Scott Lekatz, Jeff Vetsch, Charli Scholl, Kevin Hofmeister and Paul Godlewski were the winners of the lip sinc contest. Thanks to all the participants who made this Winterfest memorable.

"Nice return, Shannon."

Josh, or should we say "Cupid," captured everyone's heart on Red Day.

"Oh, I know the answer, but I can't think of it!"

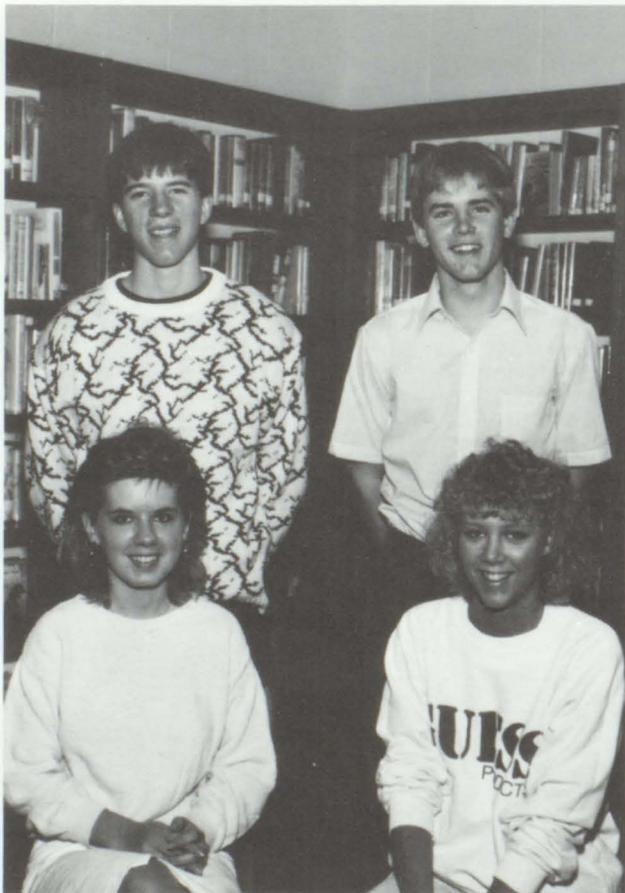

TODAY THE SCHOOL, TOMORROW...

THE WHITE HOUSE

SERVICE AND FUN ROUND OFF NHS' YEAR

With great pride, LeRoy accepts his NHS pin from Sandi and Lisa.

Julie lights the candle of service.

It was a busy year for the National Honor Society as they carried out many community and school projects. The senior citizens enjoyed their regular visits as well as the Thanksgiving dinner and Christmas caroling. School projects included a fund raising car wash, planning Winter Week, Staff Appreciation Breakfast, "Donut" days, tutoring, and a great deal of time helping to make school events go smoothly. While it may seem that their work went unnoticed - it didn't! Thank you for all that you did!

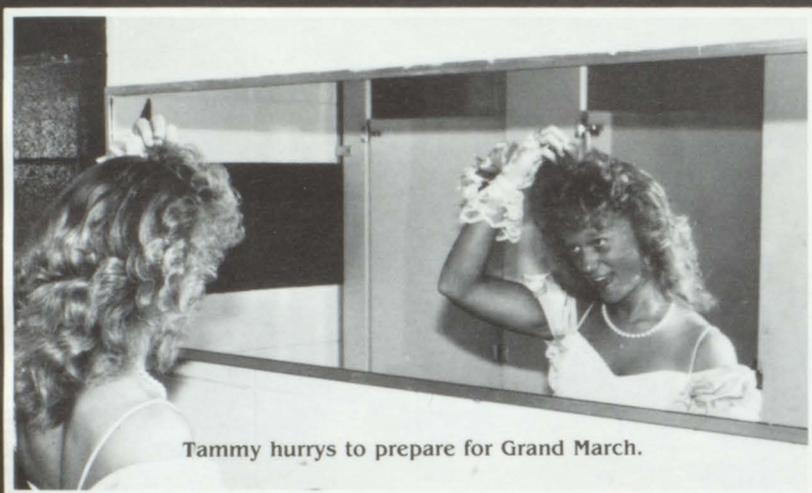

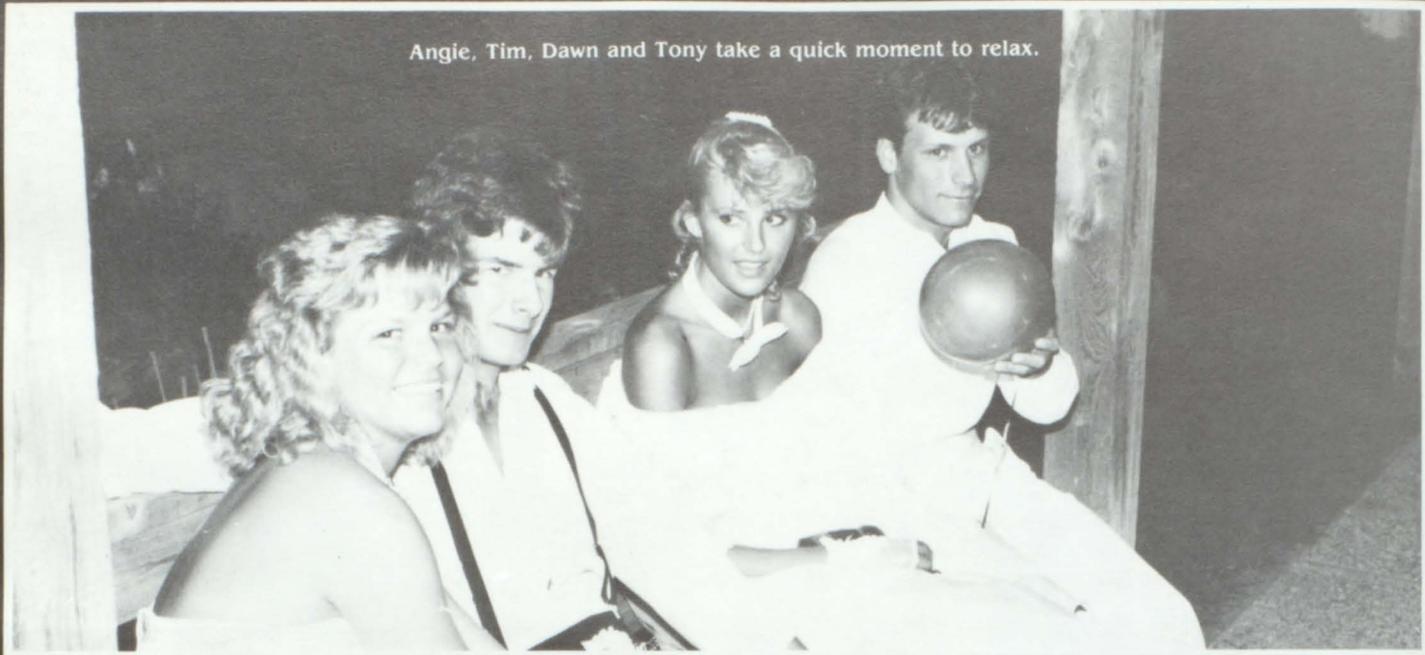

Front: Paula Kilian, Lisa Eull, Carrie Hofmeister, Buffie Waltz, Juliann Zachman, Cindy Luther, Carolyn Vetsch. Middle: Theresa Wines, Sandi Kasper, Michelle Lippert, Anita Zachman, LeRoy Lindenfelser, Eric Dehmer, Dan Burke, Duane Bourget, Shelly Hackenmueller, Trina Greenberg, Karla Kilian, Kari Kasper. Back: Marlee Greenberg, Carrie Melanson, Janice Kremer, Kristi Erickson, Shelly Dehmer, Marc Maurer, Joe Barbeln, Doug Blake, Grant Ketel, Tim Barthel, Brian Zachman, Kevin Dehmer, Amy Luther, Shannon O'Leary.

"Get your donuts here!"

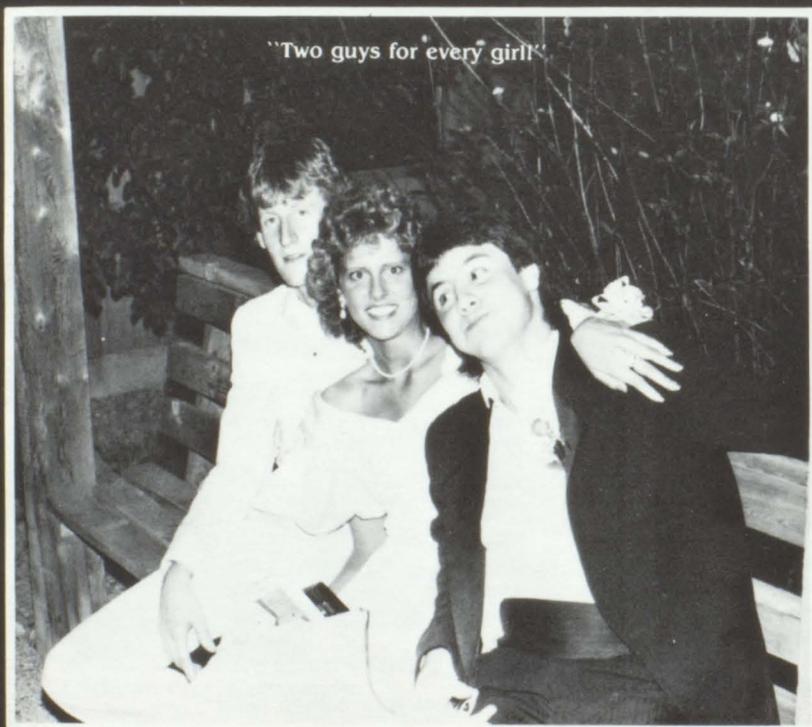

Angie, Tim, Dawn and Tony take a quick moment to relax.

Tammy hurrys to prepare for Grand March.

Even teachers can have fun at Prom.

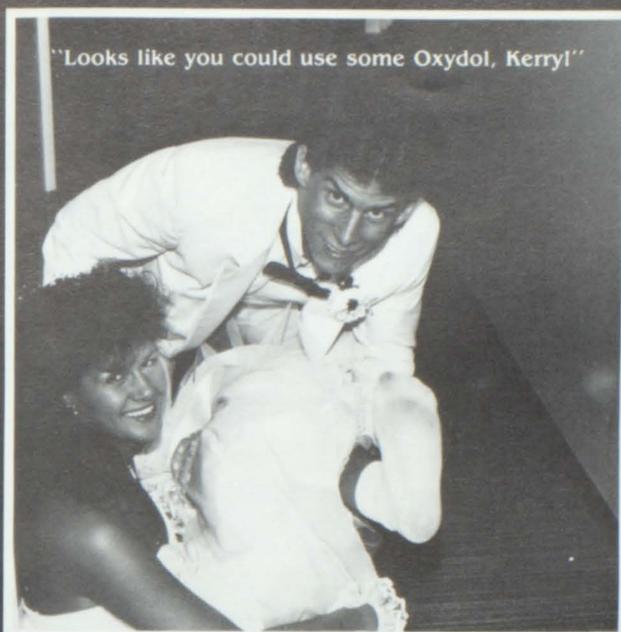

"Two guys for every girl!"

"I'm gone for one year and everybody has to copy me!"

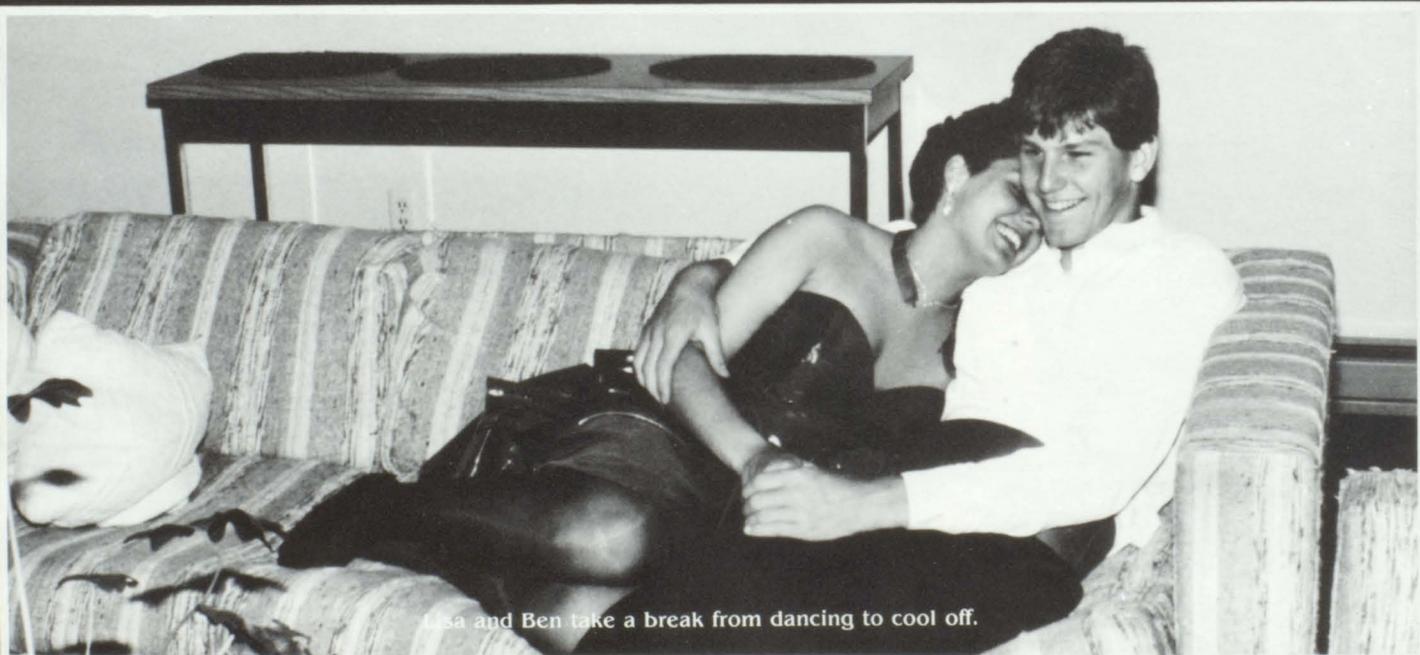

Shannon and Rhonda pose with Otto.

"Wait! Let me fix my hair first!"

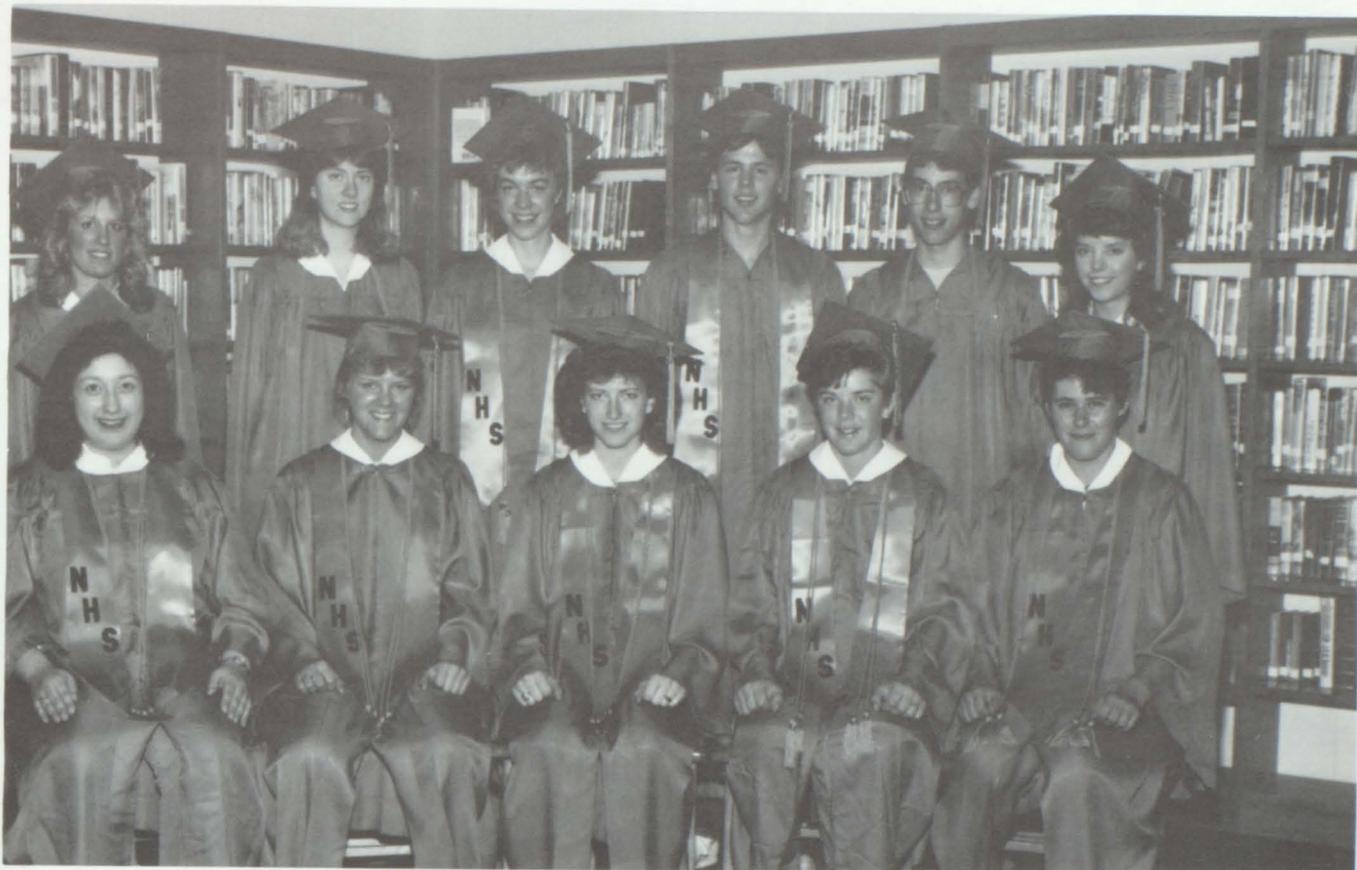

"Tonight's a night we'll never forget!"

Sa and Ben take a break from dancing to cool off.

"I can't believe we're finally here!"

Matt Westerlund delivered a dramatic speech to the parents and graduates.

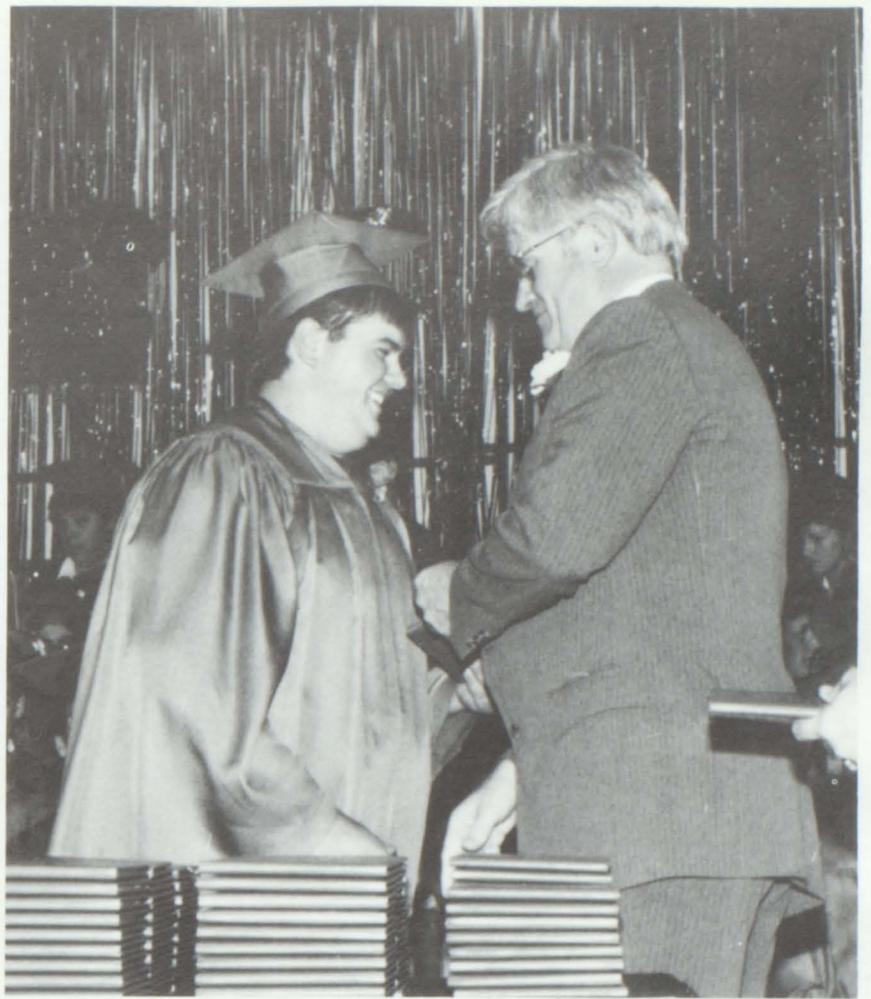

"Help! I'm nervous!"

The senior members of the choir sing their last song together.

Cindy needed the support only Opus could provide.

Scott was all smiles when he received his diploma.

The senior class of 1987 marched proudly down the aisle to their future. As the old saying goes, "It was the best of times, it was the worst of times." As the band played in the background, the graduates smiled as they had never smiled before — as if they were saying "Thanks! For making this fun and memorable." The senior choir cried their way through "This Will Be Our Last Song Together" and Dr. Toskas opened the proceedings with a speech. Good-bye, Seniors, you will be missed by all of us.

"It's hard to believe it's over!"

Carrie and Carolyn take a walk down memory lane.

REMEMBER . . .

"These guys are such hams

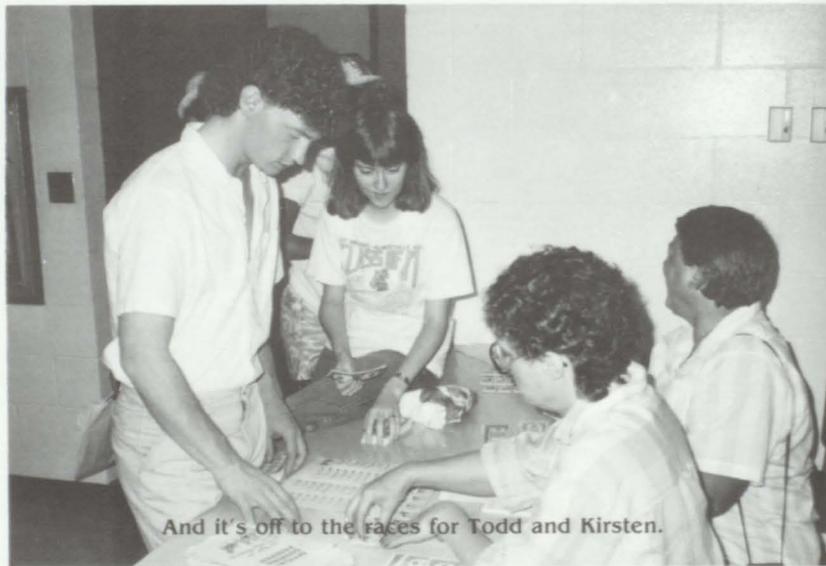

... they had trouble being serious."

"It looks like it's party time, Janel!"

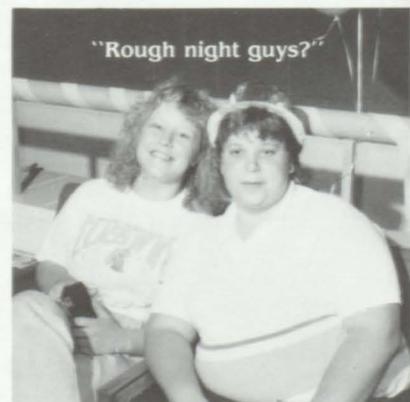

Dana seems to be enjoying herself anyway.

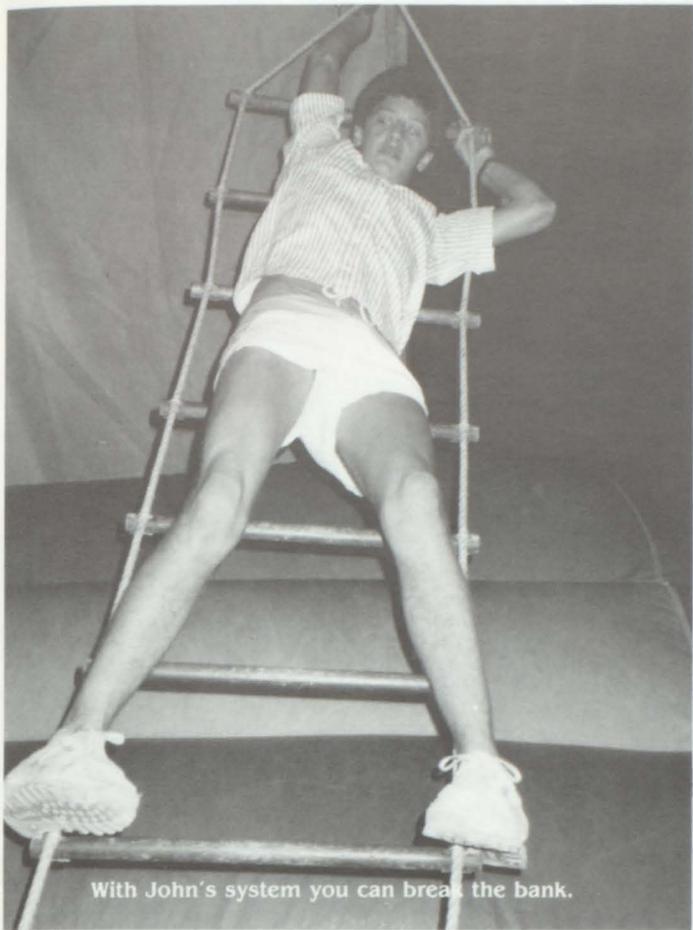

And it's off to the races for Todd and Kirsten.

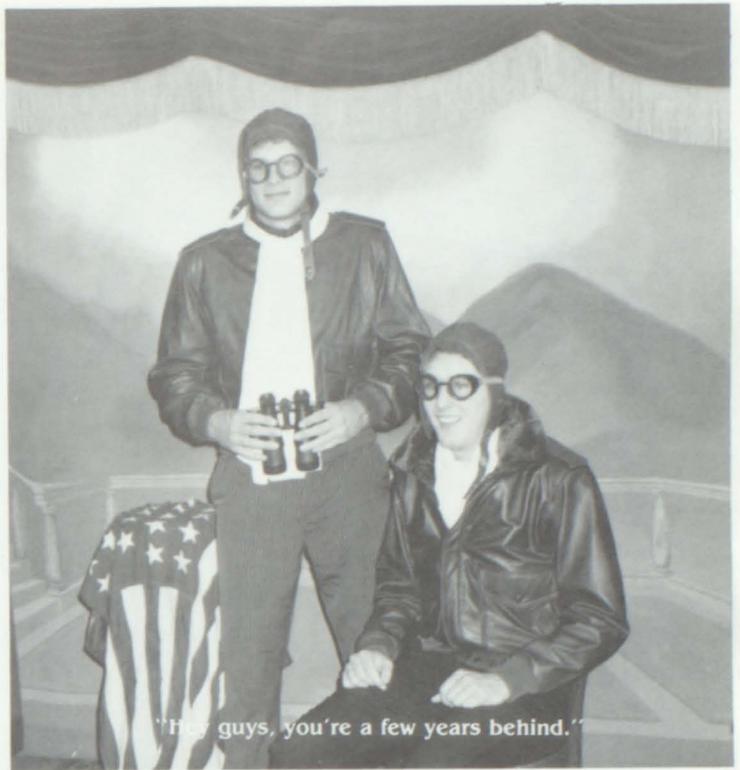

From the looks of these pictures, can you think of a more appropriate theme than "Circus of the Stars"? This bunch would fit right in to a clown act. At the auction, Troy Hudson won a waterbed, Heidi Zachman a VCR, and Steve Smith and Julie Zachman each bought a TV. Congratulations!

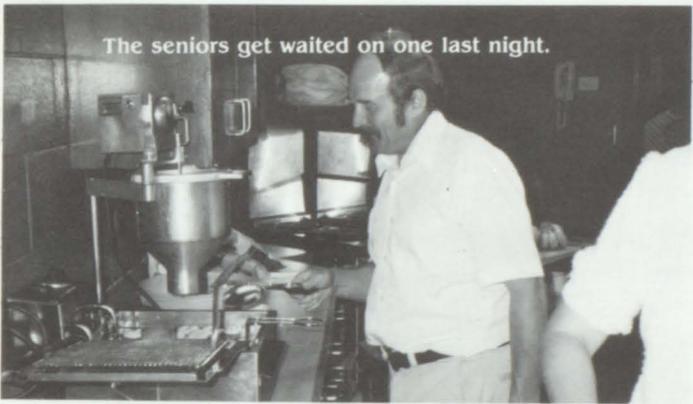

"Rough night guys?"

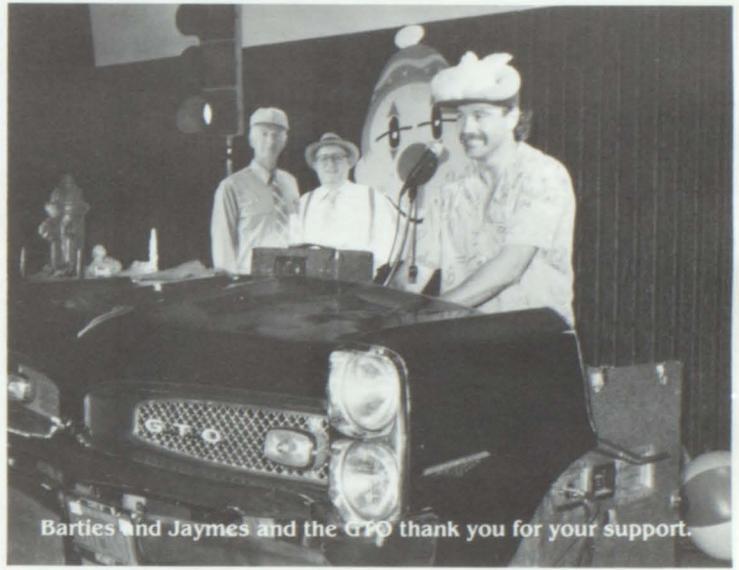

With John's system you can break the bank.

"Hey guys, you're a few years behind."

The seniors get waited on one last night.

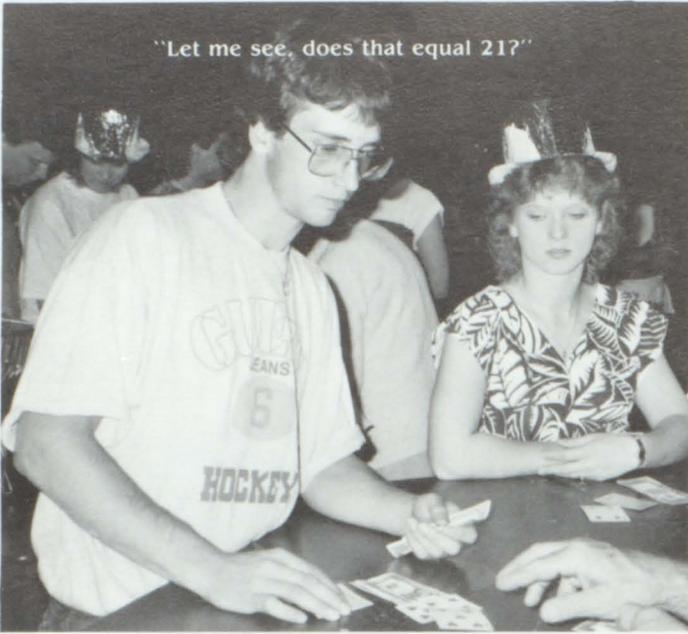

Bartles and Jaymes and the GTO thank you for your support.

"Well hey dudes, LET'S PARTY!!!"

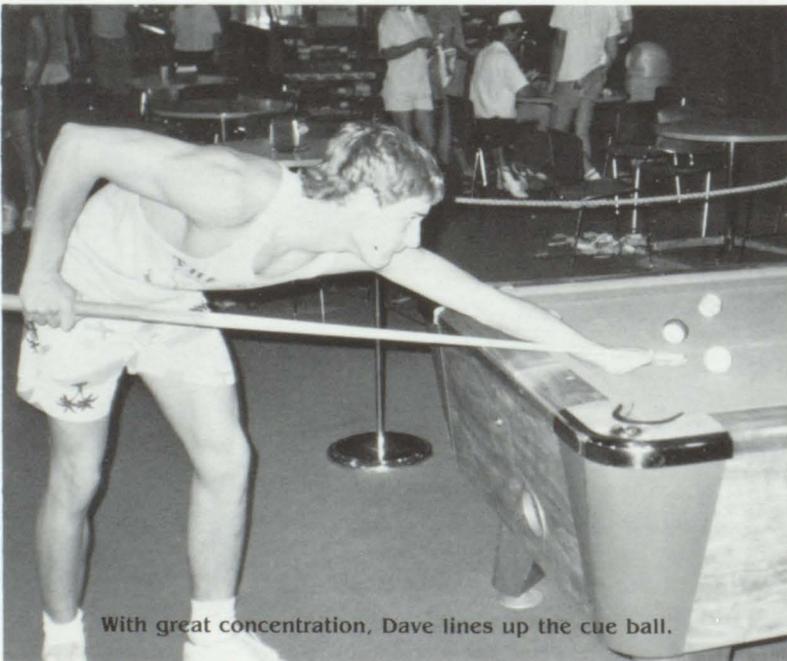

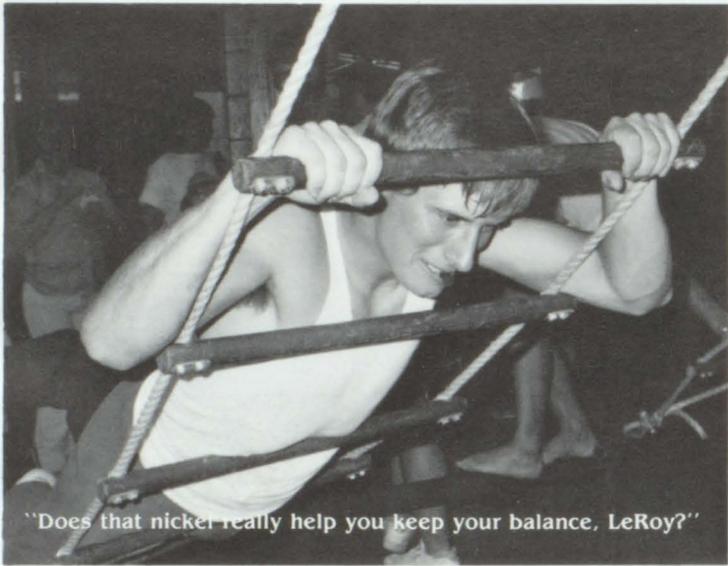

"Let me see, does that equal 21?"

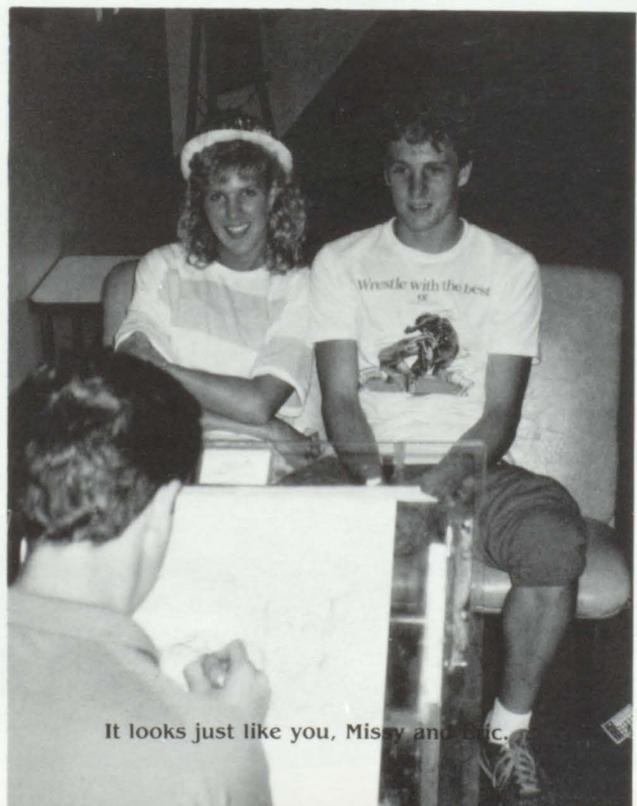

Jeff tries his luck at Tag Team Wrestling.

"Does that nickel really help you keep your balance, LeRoy?"

With great concentration, Dave lines up the cue ball.

It looks just like you, Missey and Eric.

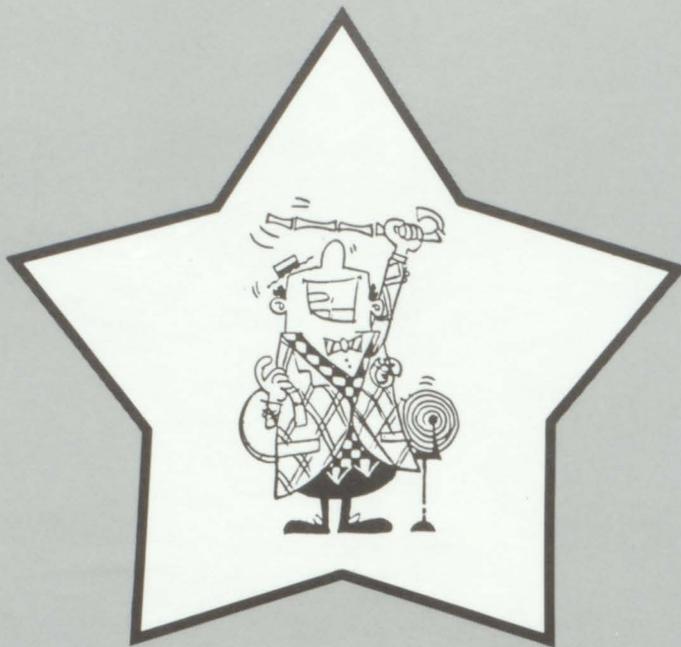

A CREED

By Edwin Markham

*There is a destiny that makes us brothers;
None goes his way alone:
All that we send into the lives of others
Comes back into our own.*

*I care not what his temples or his creeds,
One thing holds firm and fast-
That into his fateful heap of days and deeds
The soul of a man is cast.*
