Valor 2007 Edition 10

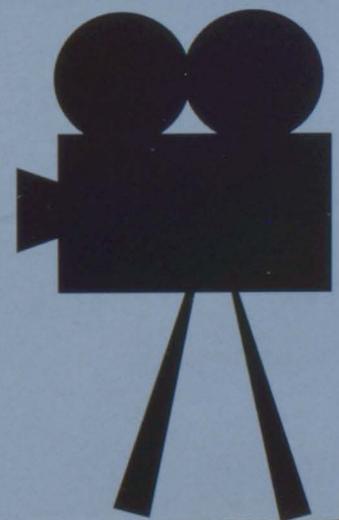

High School is like one big movie. Drama, drama, drama. Everywhere you look something is going on; but that's what keeps it all interesting. You have the jocks, nerds, cheerleaders, drama geeks, the shy ones, and everything inbetween. The best part is YOU get to choose what role you play. Whether you produce a comedy, romance, sci-fi, action, or drama, is completely up to you. In the end of our four years, it's all about the experiences we had and the friendships and memories we made that make this short film personal to us. We now rewind you through the '06- '07 take, shot on location, in pictures. Ready? Here we go...

People

Ida Bendiksen Aanes

Life's too short. Laugh often. Love deeply. Forgive quickly. Kiss slowly. And never regret anything that once made you smile...

Adam Michael Aaserud

If you don't go after what you want, you'll never have it. If you don't ask, the answer is always no. If you don't step forward, you're always in the same place.

Amber Lee Aeshliman

Joshua James Adams

Danielle Rae Adamski

Andrea Paola Altamirano

If you survive this, you can survive everything!

Alison Rae Anderson

We all die. The goal isn't to live forever. The goal is to create something that will. -Chuck Palahniuk

Kate Margaret Anderson

Always keep your dreams big and your worries small.

Kyle Philip Anderson

To learn to succeed, you must first learn to fail. -Michael Jordan

Michael Scott Arlt

Wannisa Aurareevorakul

Do not let what you cannot do interfere with what you can do.

Brittney Kayla Barr

When one door of happiness closes, another opens, but often we look so long at the closed door that we do not see the one that has been opened for us. -Helen Keller

Kristin Karri Barthel

Keep your eyes on the stars, keep your feet on the ground. -Theodore Roosevelt

Christian David Bartholomew

All the crayons that exist in the box, exist in the box.

What did the tree say to the sock? "God, you're big."

Matthew Ryan
Coles

When we started this band all we needed was a laugh, years gone by I'd say we've kicked some _____. -Motley Crue

Logan Charles Conwell

If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away.
-Henry David Thoreau

Rachel Annastasia
Coulter

I got a brand new pair of roller skates, you got a brand new key. I think that we should get together and try them on, let's see...

Katie Lea Daleiden

And in the end it's not the years in your life that count but the life in your years. -Abe Lincoln

Sara Marie De Lozier

To laugh often and love much, to appreciate beauty, to find the best in others and give one's self...this is to have succeeded. -Ralph Waldo Emerson

Jason Daniel Dearing

The only dependable thing about the future is uncertainty.

Rachel Lynn Dehmer

If you meet me and forget me, you have lost nothing. If you meet Jesus and forget him, you have lost everything.

Natalie Mae Dick

Life brings tears, smiles and memories. The tears dry, the smiles fade, but the memories last forever.

Vanessa Marie Dick

Megan Kathleen Dingley

You're never fully dressed without a smile.

Philip Marcus Dingmann

We do not have to visit a madhouse to find disordered minds; our planet is the mental institution of the universe.

Daniel Thomas Hackbarth

Brianna Marie Hanke

Anthony James Hare

Keep everything close because before you know, it is all gone.

Jessica Kathryn Harren

If people were meant to pop out of bed in the morning, we'd all sleep in toasters.

Kirsten Regina Harrington

To accomplish great things, we must not only act, but also dream; not only plan, but also believe. -Anatole France

Thomas Donald Haskvitz

I know it seems hard sometimes, but uh...remember one thing. Through every dark night there's a bright day after that. So no matter how hard it gets, stick ya chest out, keep ya head up, and handle it.

Anthony Jay Hasler

Laziness is nothing more than the habit of resting before you get tired.

Morgan Leslie Hayek

Christian Alexander Head

Julie Renee Hedlund

Anna Marie Heuring

Jesus said to his disciples, if anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for me will find it. -Matthew 16:24-25

Sometimes we search too hard for answers that are right in front of us.

Michelle Marie Katchmark
You never see the hard days in a photo album but those are the ones that get you from one happy snapshot to the next.

Cory John Kessler
I think Bigfoot is blurry, that's the problem. It's not the photographer's fault Bigfoot is blurry, and that's extra scary to me 'cause there's a large out-of-focus monster roaming the country side. Run, he's fuzzy, get outta here. -Mitch Hedberg

Riley Martin Kessler
Winning isn't everything. It's the only thing.

Carol Sayloungh Khatthavong
Life's a voyage...not a destination...

Alex Joseph Kilian
What the ears hear and the eyes see the mind believes.

Thomas Valentine Kilian

Alex Michael Kirchberg
Impossible is just a word people use to feel better about themselves when they give up.

Ashley Kaydean Klatke
Never apologize for showing feeling. When you do so, you apologize for the truth. -Benjamin Disraeli

Britney Marie Kotilinek

Love the heart that hurts you, but never hurt the heart that loves you.

Bridget Jeanne Kottke

You gain strength, courage, and confidence by every experience in which you really stop to look fear in the face. You must do the thing you think you cannot do. -Eleanor Roosevelt

Krystal Marie Kreger

How bad you think you have it, someone has it worse than you.

Kristin Ann Krone

James Michael Krutzig

Instruct a wise man and he will be wiser still; teach a righteous man and he will add to his learning. -Proverbs 9:9

Brandon Michael Kuhn

Noodles?

Jeremy Allen Kuhn
To give anything less than your best is to sacrifice the gift.

William Jefferey Laney
There are no great men. Just great challenges which ordinary men, out of necessity, are forced by circumstances to meet.
-Admiral William F. "Bull" Halsey

Jonathan Charles Larson
What's money? A man is a success if he gets up in the morning and goes to bed at night and in between does what he wants to do.
-Bob Dylan

Sarah Jane Larson
You wasted life. Why wouldn't you waste the afterlife.
-Modest Mouse

Cole John Laudenschlager
Great moments are brought by great opportunity.
-Herb Brooks

Jonathan Harold Laudner
Birdie, birdie, in the sky, why'd you do that in my eye? Looks like sugar, tastes like sap. OMG! IT'S BIRDIE CRAP!

Matthew David Le Claire
It's not who we are underneath; it's what we do that defines us.

Ross Daniel Lefebvre
Take off the blinders. You have to see opportunity before you can seize it.

Eric Michael Lenneman
The ultimate measure of a man is not where he stands in moments of comfort and convenience, but where he stands in times of challenge and controversy.
-Martin Luther King, Jr.

Kelsie Rose Lewis
To dream of the person you would like to be is to waste the person you are.

Lucas John Lian
Once you start down the dark path, forever will it dominate your destiny, consume you it will.
-Yoda

Troy William Lindenfesler
The Lord gave us two ends...one to sit on and the other to think with. Success depends on which one we use the most.

God gives us memories so that we may have roses in December.

Daniel James Merges

...If you can't find something to live for, you best find something to die for... -Tupac Shakur

Rebecca Lynn Michaelson

Life may not be the party we hoped for, but while we're here we should dance.

Brian Thomas Michaud

The difference between school and life? In school you're taught a lesson and given a test. In life, you are given a test that teaches you a lesson.

Kayla Patricia Miedema

Only as high as I reach can I grow, only as far as I seek can I go, only as deep as I look can I see, only as much as I dream can I be.

Stephanie Marie Miller

When everything is coming your way, you're in the wrong lane.

Kelsey Amber Mogren

Life is short. Don't regret anything you do.

Dustin Marc Morcomb

Follow the dream doesn't mean leave the love. Roam if you must, but come home when you've seen enough...

Elizabeth Paisley Nardini

Fantasy is a necessary ingredient in living. It's a way of looking at life through the wrong end of a telescope...and that enables you to laugh at all life's realities. -Dr. Seuss

Jenna Kay Nelson

Truly great friends are hard to find, difficult to leave, and impossible to forget.

Geoff Allen
Neumann

Live life on the edge,
otherwise you are taking up too much space.

I can do all things
through Christ who
strengthens me.
-Philippians 4:13

Emily Kay Olson

Those who hear not the music, think the dancer
mad.

Andrew James Osborn

Life moves pretty fast. If you don't stop and look around once in a while,
you could miss it.

Bruce Lee Oudavanh

What lies behind us and what lies before us is tiny matters compared to what lies within us.
-Ralph Waldo Emerson

Shane William Pantila

Seize the day and make your life extraordinary.

Matthew Steven

J. Alexandra Marie Rammer-Bitton

Everyone is unique in their own way.

Whitney Ann Rathbun

If I ever stop laughing, I'm dead.

Krissa Rose Reemts

High school is a lot like toilet paper. You only miss it when it's gone.

Benjamin Matthew Rego

I'm goin' to Amsterdam!

Carissa Lianne Reilly

Don't worry about what you can't do. If you must worry, worry about why you won't do what you should do.

Laura Ashley Reimann

You have to be yourself. Be very honest about who and what you are. And if people still like you, that's fine. If they don't, that's their problem. -Sting

Megan Mae Rich

No Ammad, the sky isn't blue. There's just white light. White light has all the colors of the rainbow in it and when scattered through all the molecules in the sky, the short wave colors - blue, violet - they are the ones you see...it just looks blue. -White Teeth Zandi Smith

Marissa Kaitlyn Rines

Nobody cares if you can't dance well. Just get up and dance. Great dancers are not great because of their technique, they are great because of their passion. -Martha Graham

Christine Lea
Roberts

You can only be young once. But you can always be immature.

Laura Elizabeth
Robertus

You can't fool all of the people all of the time, but that doesn't matter if you can fool the right people at the right time.

Andrew Thomas
Roden

I'm a mini-van man. Soccer moms welcome.

Kirstin Karlene
Roden

Robert William
Roden

Student Life

i KNOW WHAT YOU DiD LAST SUMMER...

Above: Anna Schutt, Paige Lundeen, Ashley Girard, Alexx Rammer, Annie Haefner and Abby Robeck hang out on the geo-dome at the Albertville Lions Park. Over the summer, the girls went to the park for fun.

Above: Spanish II and III students enjoy a trip to Costa Rica. Some of the activities they participated in included a canopy tour, seeing the ocean and touring a volcano.

This summer, a select group of French students got to travel to France for a week. While there they toured Paris, Versailles, several castles, a winery and Normandy. Pictured here are students Cain Lewis, Megan Brown, Rebecca Michaelson, Razia Mobin and Laura Robertus.

Above: Summer dance...karaoke....pajama party. Doesn't matter which, it looks like these girls are having some fun.

Right: Reid Nelles shows us just how cool he is. This summer he and Evan Zachman spent a lot of time at the lake perfecting their water skiing stunts.

March of The Knights

The marching band's brass section shows great concentration during a summer parade. Their slogan this year was "Blow it Out Your Brass". The marching band performed the Spanish song "Estancia" and they marched in a total of eight parades this summer.

Alex Johnson, Steve Minkler and Mr. Bergstrom are penalized with push-ups for being late for an afternoon marching band meeting.

Above: Colorguard members pose at the final parade in Delano on the fourth of July. This was the first year that STMA had males participate in colorguard.

Above: One time at band camp...Zac Shorter and Mr. Bergstrom performed in a dance-off. The results were too close to call, and voters couldn't decide - it was a tie!

Left: Assistant captain, Katy Kolstad, marches at attention during the cadence. This was Katy's third year in color guard.

Above: The honor guard and drum line start the awards ceremony at the Albertville Parade. There were a total of five bands there.

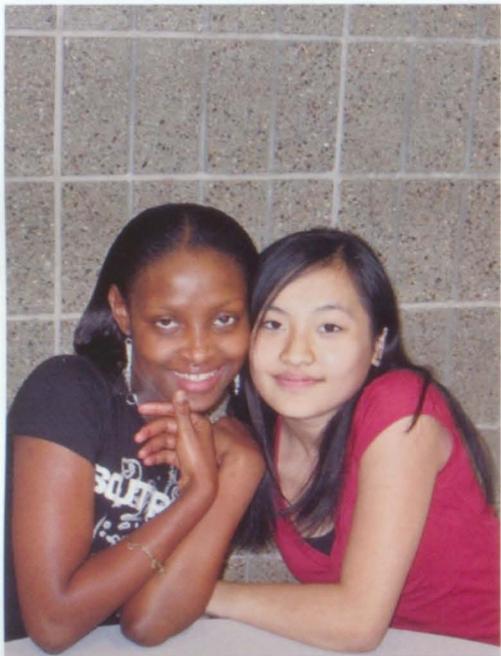

Above: Our amazing drum major, Nikki Zeleny, leads the marching band down Main Street.

FIRST DAY OF

Right: Laura, Lauren, Rebecca, Jessica and Krissa meet in the senior hallway before heading to SNAP. This summer they enjoyed hanging out at Lauren's house.

Below: Good friends relax at the lunch table on the first day of school. As always, friends were excited to find out that they had lunch together first quarter.

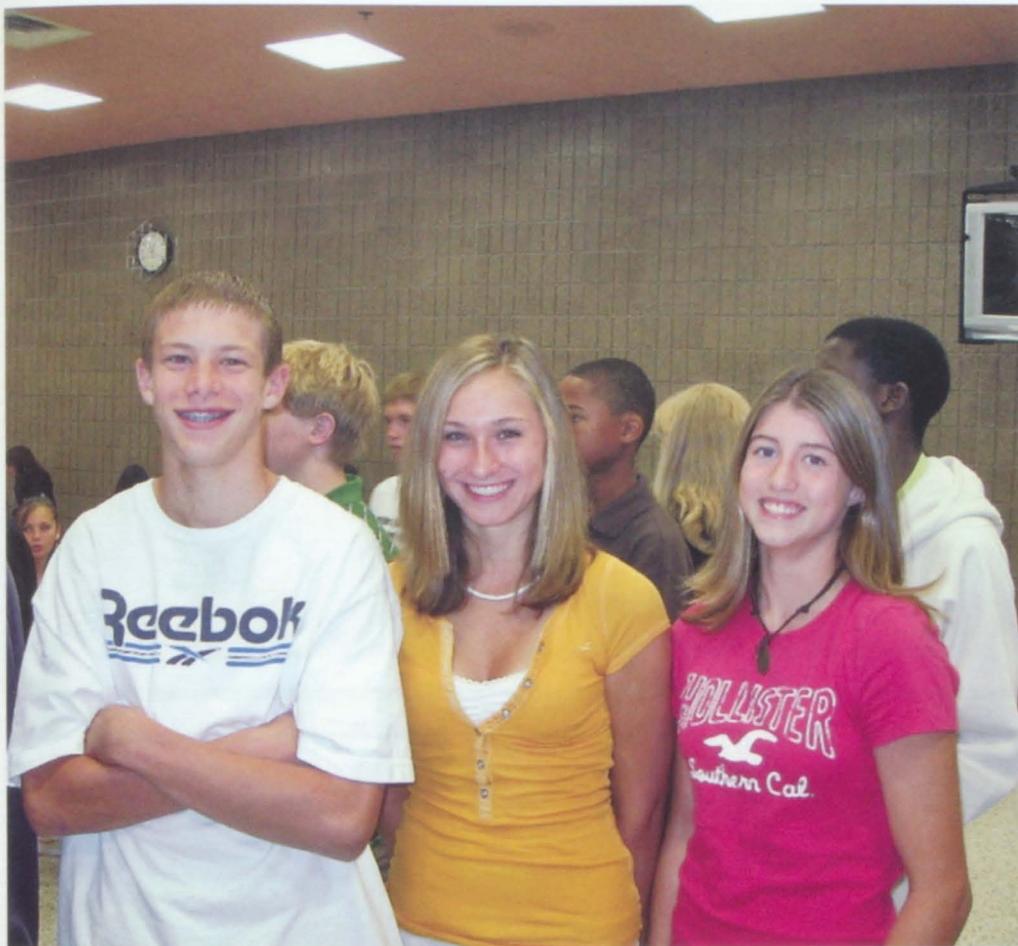

Above: The cheerleaders do a dance to liven up the crowd. Student Council put together several activities in which the grades competed head-to-head at the annual first day of school pep fest.

Right: Dalton Forness and Patrick Malone enjoy lunch on the first day. Dalton says he brings a bag lunch to school every day.

Far Right: "All is well, all is well. The first day of school is always a party." Most students would agree that the best part of the first day is coming back and seeing all their friends.

SCHOOL 2006

Left: Students wait patiently in the lunch line on the first day. The cafeteria "spiced" things up a bit this year by expanding the options students have to eat each day, including up to three different choices for a main dish.

Below: The sophomores rock the house (or rather the gymnasium) with their dance skills. Sebastian Briggs wowed everyone when he stepped it up and helped his grade take second place.

Above: Seniors show off their dance moves at the first day pep rally. They danced to the song "Tanto Jump On."

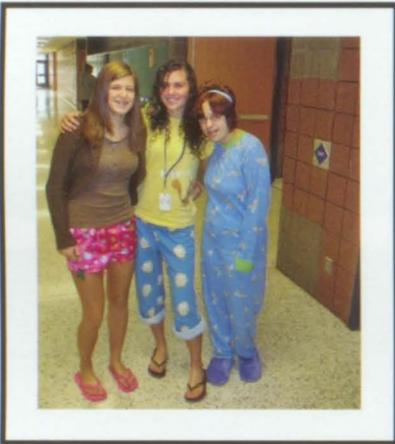

Far Left: Alyssa Gallagher stops at her locker to put her things away. As a junior, Alyssa was excited to come back and see all of her friends and participate in some fun electives.

Left: Michael, Cameron, and Marshall wait in line for lunch. All three thought it was cool that they could see their friends every day now that school had started.

HOME COMING

Right: This group came to school decked out in their blue and gold shirts. Some of them decided to decorate their shirts with a can of Raid demonstrating that the Knights were going to "kill the Hornets."

Below: Kate Mabusth performs as part of Colorguard during the half-time performance.

Above: Don't these girls look comfy? As is tradition, Monday was once again PJ day during Homecoming week.

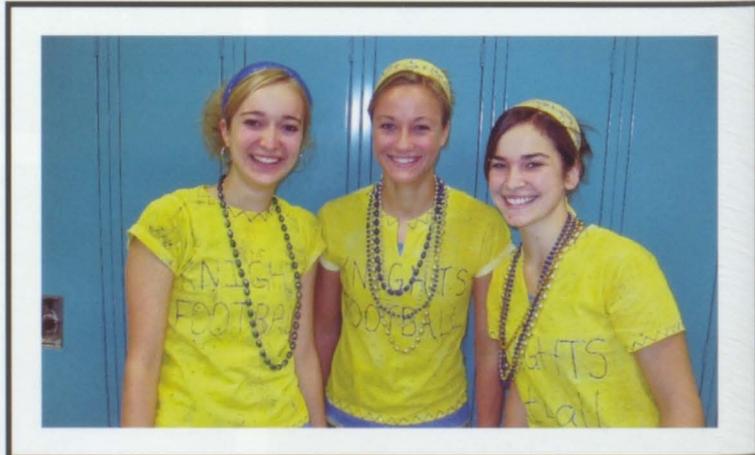

Above: What? I don't see anything. This year NHS designated one of our homecoming dress up days as camo wear.

Above: A group of Freshmen boys stop goofing for a moment to take a photo. They showed a lot of school spirit by displaying their blue and gold colors.

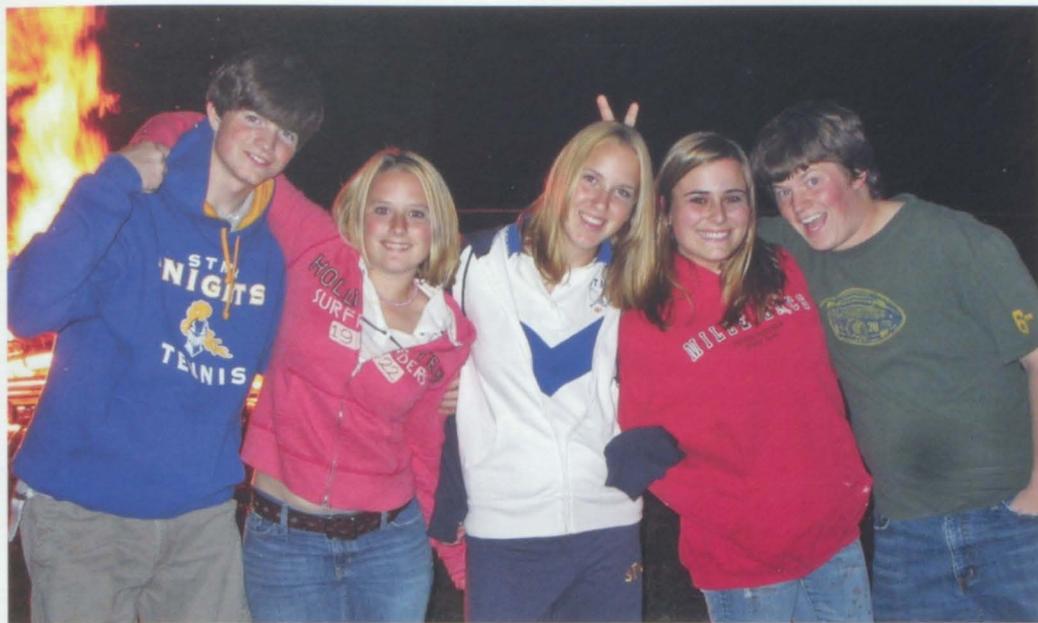

Above: The fast food crew: Christie and Marina Roberts and Shelby Wenz. Marina doesn't actually work at Subway, she just borrowed the outfit from Shelby. She actually works at Culvers.

Above: Sophomores Alanna Schoenborn, Jaclyn Silbernagel and Chelsea Watters show off their school spirit. They all got together to decorate their shirts at Jaclyn's house.

WEEK

Left: These students enjoy themselves at the pre-game bonfire. Every year after the volleyball game, students gather behind the parking lot for music, dancing, smores, warmth and tons of fun!

Above: Fans show their support for the senior players out on the field. This year there was a faithful group of fans who made an appearance at every game.

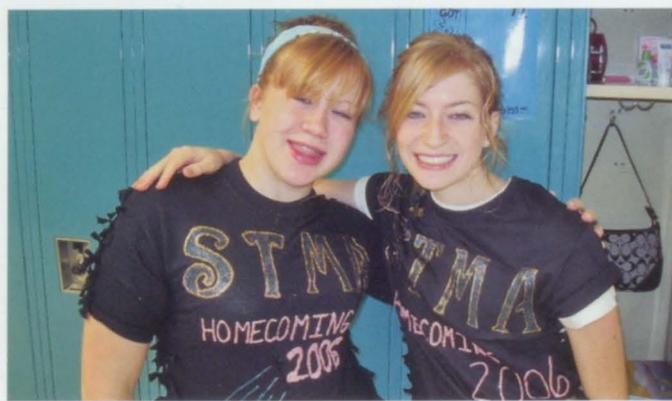

Above: Mr. Abrahamson shows off his homecoming pin collection. He has one pin for every homecoming from the past 20 years!

Above: Five fabulous looking girls on homecoming morning. Later that day was the pepfest which was attended by most of the student body.

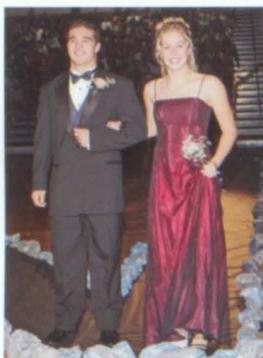

Above: Seniors Kelsie, Robyn, Sarah and Laura arrive to the game early to make sure they get good seats. After the game they all went to the second annual Homecoming Dance and danced the night away.

Above: Kaylee Johnson and Ashley Harrington made matching shirts to wear for Friday. Neither could wait for that night when they could go to the game and do some dancing.

Homecoming Royalty 2006

Whitney Ann Rathbun escorted by Lowell Vincent Zachman

Above: The Queen hopefuls give a smile before heading in to find out who won. All the girls had fun getting prettied-up that morning for the crowning.

Naomi Gladice Nordin escorted by Robert Jang-Ho Swansen

Above: Sharp looking King candidates show off their style before the ceremony. The day before some were slightly nervous and even told other students not to vote for them.

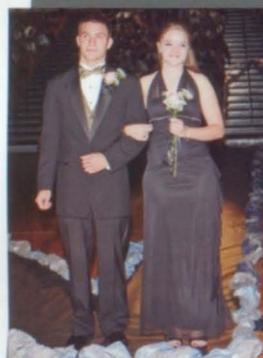

Right: A jazz ensemble led by Mr. Bergstrom provided music before the ceremony. Some of the songs they did were "Charlie Jams Again" and "Tadpole Blues."

Sara Marie Delozier escorted by Riley Martin Kessler

Rebekka Marian Jossart escorted by Nathan Allen Koep

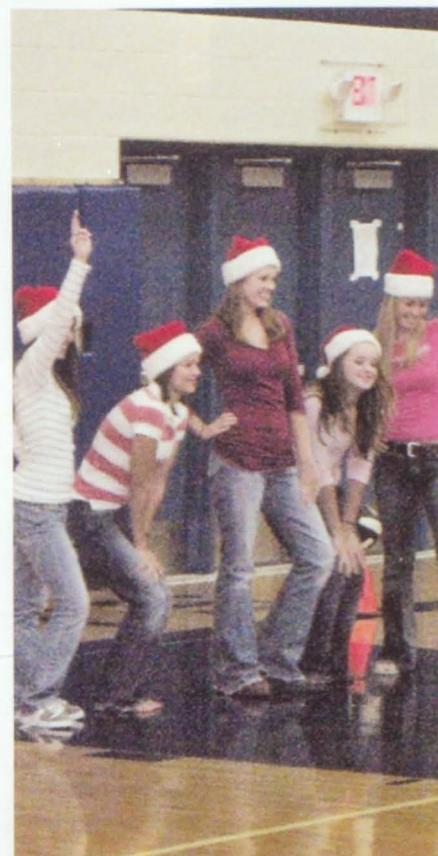

Katie Elizabeth Zachman escorted by Brian Joseph Zachman

Above: After the ceremony all of the candidates got together for one last group photo. Everyone thought the ceremony went well and were happy to have shared the experience with their family and friends.

Left: The nominees are still in a slight daze. Student council members gave them a bright and early wake-up call at 5:30 a.m. to let them know that they were the official 2006 Homecoming candidates.

Right: The girls perform their own little rendition of "Jingle Bell Rock" to add some humor to their skit. They got the idea from the movie "Mean Girls."

Right: "Lifeguard" Robert carefully watches Brian as he attempts to swim in the pool. The boys performed "Lifeguard on Duty", a skit that they found on-line. Bottom line is, it was some pretty funny stuff!

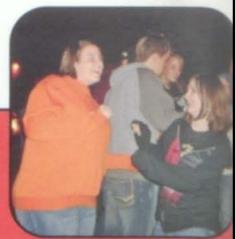

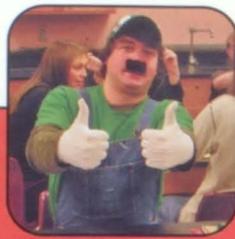

Right: Queen Sara DeLozier and King Robert Swansen walk onto the football field at the Homecoming game against the Big Lake Hornets.

Right: The girls attend a "slumber party." They had fun laughing at their escorts, saying they had long arms, were show-offs, or mumbled too much.

Right: Junior Royalty Josie Bovee is escorted by Nathan Nygaard down the walkway. They had a lot of fun, but were a bit nervous to walk out in front of all the "big kids."

Above: Lisa Servaty and Gayle Steffens team up as Presidential secret service personnel for Halloween.

FALL DAYS

Above: Senior Amanda Zimmer strikes a "witchy" pose for the camera. This year STMA hosted its first annual costume contest in which students competed in different categories such as scariest and most original.

Above: A group of friends show how to really get into the Halloween spirit. Each one of them sported a very unique costume that suited their personalities...or maybe they were just having some fun!

Above: Sophomore cross country runners Leah Royseth and Hali Scott warm up by the fire. They both enjoyed the music from the DJ and a cup of free hot chocolate.

Right: Grant McEachern is our "Knight in Shining Armor". On second thought, it's probably better if he left that to Prince Charming.

WINTER WEEK

Above: The Freshmen theme for Deck the Halls was "Nightmare Before Christmas." They fell a little short this year, losing to the Junior's Rock n' Roll Holidays featuring "The Naughty List."

Above: Reid Nelles works with friends to make scarves for the Mitten Tree. The Mitten Tree is an annual event for STMA students and the winter wear collected is donated to those in need.

Above: Jeremy Kuhn, Cory Kessler, Robert Swansen and Isaac Saville are all "Momma's Boys".

Above: Seniors Darrick, Ashley, Kate and Robyn are auctioned off at STMA's annual Elf Auction. This year the auction raised over $3,000 for the American Cancer Society.

Left: Jason Dearing is excited to be an elf his Senior year.

Below: Gymnastic co-captains Katie Killian and Alicia Traut give a re-cap of their season. They were joined by all of the winter sports and club captains.

Below: Freshmen Jazmine Fisher and Janelle Holloway give us some "gangsta" poses on ensemble day.

Below: Jeremy Kuhn and his senior friends dressed as Jesus and the 12 Disciples for Ensemble Day.

Left: The cheerleaders pep up the crowd. This year the winter cheerleaders, led by a new coach, learned to perform stunts.

Left: Samantha Thomas sets up decorations for the annual Blizzard Bash. The Bash is a fun-filled night which includes a movie, games and a dance to wrap up the week's activities.

Above: Seniors get ready to face off in volleyball. All week the NHS was hard at work coordinating the different activities around school including the pep fest and its performances. Season updates and games concluded winter week.

Above: Allison Levey shows off her outfit for Striped/Polka-Dot Tuesday.

Left: Kate Mabust and Krysta Willis make a pit-stop at their locker on Spirit Day. Krysta wears this year's Knights shirt with the sweet saying on the back: "There are three certainties in life... death, taxes and getting beat by

Are There Ways STMA is Different Than Your Old School?

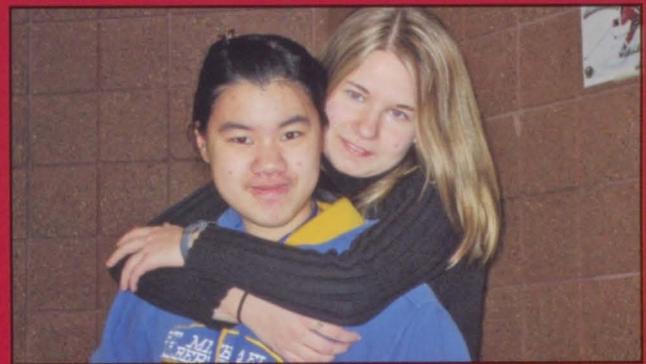

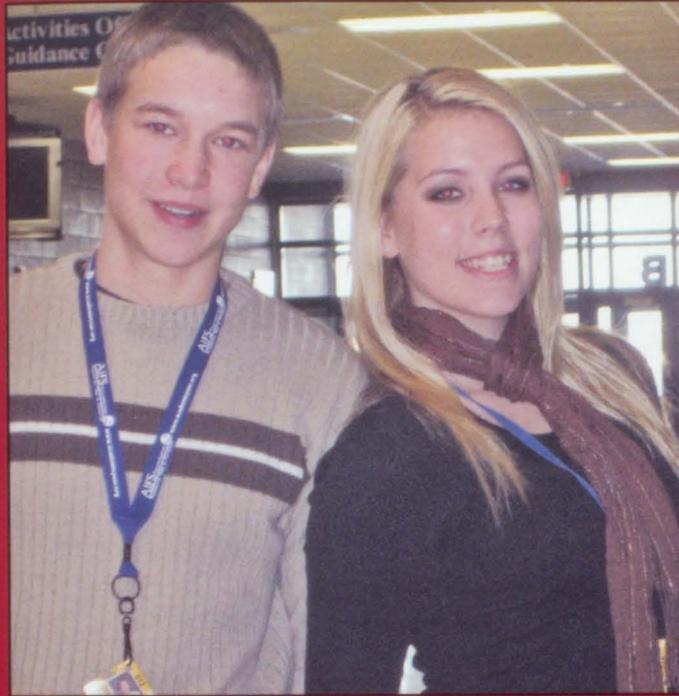

- Only one level
- I.D. tags
- Lunches
- SNAP
- No break in between classes
- Most students drive
- Fun electives
- Many lockers
- Many extracirricular activites
- Many more students and teachers
- Basically Everything is Different!

Activities Involved In:

- Musical
- Choir
- Cross Country
- Math League
- Speech
- Rugby
- Student Congress

It's the Trees That Listen
I want to be remembered as being me.
I don't want others to say I was like this,
He was like that, he never did this,
He was always like that,
he was always late,
He was never fair,
He never took me,
He was, he was,
Just Another
Memory...

Sonnet for America

During the pledge I don't understand why:
Do they think they are rebellious not to stand?
The flag stands for freedom; a lot have died.
Some came from foreign places to this land.

So I am here letting all of you know:
This land gave you the freedom you deserve,
and if you don't like it you should all go.
Good men, proud men, brave men have gone and served.
Many days we are proud for what's given.
It's a hurt that's deep inside my heart.
Be proud to be in this land and livin';
The pledge of our nation is just one part.
So if you live in the red white and blue,
Just stand, because it's not that hard to do.

POETRY

Academics

Upper Right: Students work on the early stages of the mural they created this year. The murals were done by the Studio Art and the Drawing and Painting II and III classes.

Lower Left: Ashley Bratager and Amber Euteneuer with pencil drawings they made in Drawing and Painting I

ART

Upper Right: Senior Mike Artt shows us a drawing he made in Drawing and Painting.

Lower Left: Alexandra Guardado displays one of the bowls that she made in ceramics. This year Mr. Thorpe and Mrs. Halker taught the Ceramics I, II and III classes.

Lower Left: Students work on the mural project. This year the art class took inspirational quotes from the Public Speaking class and turned them into paintings for the school hallways.

Lower Left: A group of juniors and seniors work on a project in Drawing and Painting I.

Upper Left: The Entrepreneurship class enjoy a field trip to the Melting Pot. The trip was to show students how a real business operates (or maybe it was just to get some good food!)

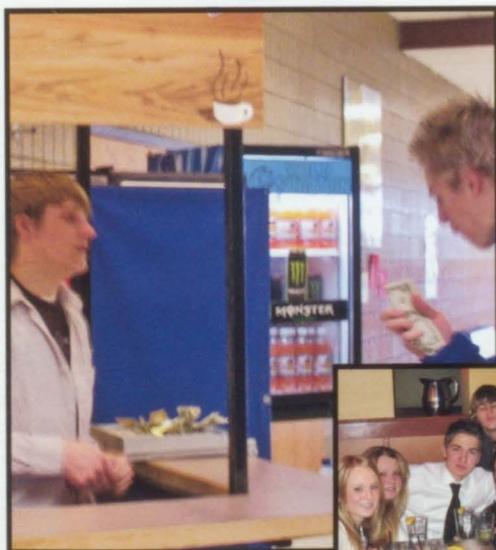

Upper Left: Sophomores use the computers to work on an assignment for Mrs. Carlson.

Lower Right: Students work on an assignment. STMA offers a wide variety of business classes including: Keyboarding, Accounting and Business Presentations.

Lower Right: Laura Potter and Julie Hedlund work on an assignment for Personal Business and Finance class.

BUSINESS

Upper Left: Brian Michaud hard at work at the Java Joint. This year the Java Joint expanded their menu and sold a wide variety of smoothies and breakfast foods.

Upper Left: Seniors Nicol Schmitz and Natalie Dick enjoy their three course meal as part of the field trip with Entrepreneurship II.

Lower Right: A group of juniors work at the Java Joint in the morning. This year the Java Joint proudly introduced meal deals for the different days of the week.

Upper Right: Dakota Adamson performs a pantomime of riding on a roller coaster. This assignment is one of many the Public Speaking students perform and the purpose is to show how loud body movements speak.

Lower Left: Karissa Michaud gives a persuasive speech for English 10.

ENGLISH

Lower Left: Senior Robert Swansen performs his pantomime during Public Speaking class. He was pretending to make a fire.

Upper Right: Rebecca, Lauren and Christie with the AP English classes at the Guthrie Theatre in March.

Lower Right: Christine Becker mixes ingredients for her French Silk pie, one of the many different treats made in the Baking and Pastries class.

FACS

Upper Left: Freshmen Janell Chrobak and Dani Pounds work on a dream house in Living Skills.

Lower Right: Taryn Courier makes a fruit pie in Nutrition and Foods I.

Upper Left: Ashley Harwood and Cecelia Shettel display the pants they made in Living Skills for one of their final projects.

Below: Megan Rich and Kaylee Johnson make a blueberry pie. This was the first year that the Baking and Pastries class was offered.

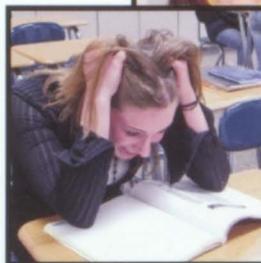

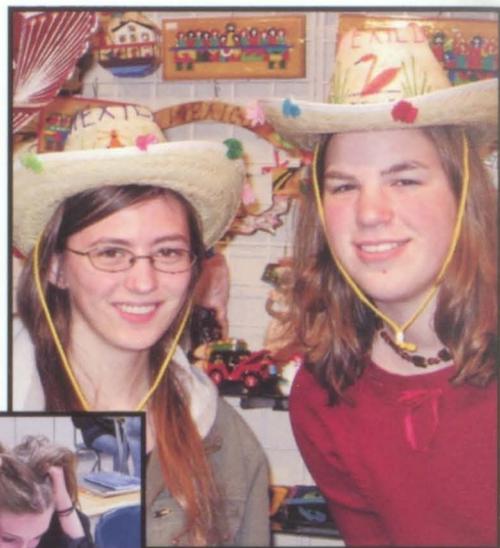

Upper Left: Tate Fernholz in Living Skills class. All of the FACS classes offered at STMA are taught by Mrs. Read and Mrs. Larson.

Lower Right: Heidi Winkler stirs up something delicious. STMA offers Nutrition and Foods 1 & 2 as well as the Baking and Pastries Class for students who just plain enjoy cooking or want to further develop their cooking skills.

Upper Right: During the summer of 2006 a few Spanish students went to Costa Rica accompanied by Señora Stange.

Lower Left: A group of girls chat before French class. Spanish and French were the language options offered by our school this year.

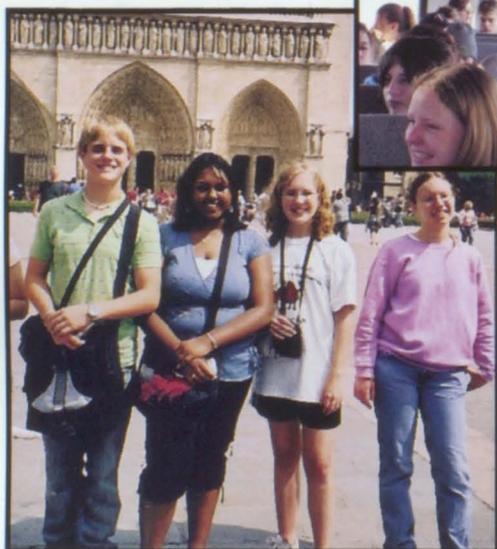

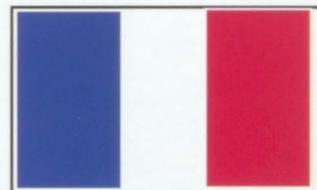

Upper Right: Seniors Kayleen E and Laura R try on sombreros. The AP Spanish class went on a field trip to see some Spanish Dancers and visit the Global Market.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

Upper Right: This Spanish 2 class on the bus to the MN Zoo. Every year the Spanish 1-AP classes get to go to the zoo to either watch or put on presentations about all the different animals at the zoo.

Lower Left: A group of French students standing in front of the famous Notre Dame Cathedral on this past summer's trip to France.

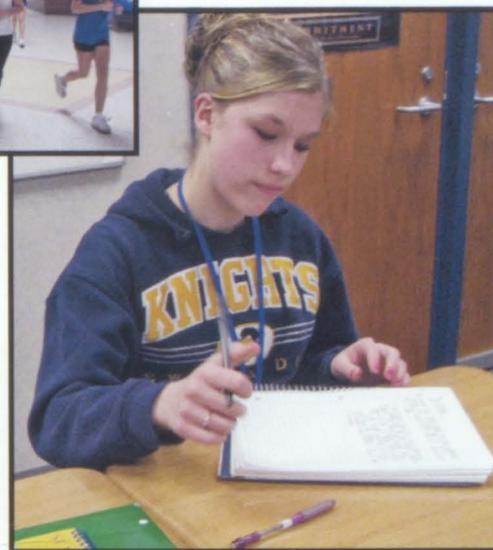

Upper Right: A group of Spanish 3 students at the zoo present their exhibit on El Tigre, a favorite of zoo goers that day.

Lower Left: A student stands up to go to the whiteboard during French II. French classes are taught by Mr. Mullerlilie and this year he had three of them.

Upper Left: Students run on "Fitness Friday." Students in class compete to have the most laps done by the end of the quarter.

HEALTH/PHY. ED

Lower Right: Sophomores doing one of the most vital things that can be done before any gym class, stretch out.

Far Right: David Prather designs a very creative table in Woods II. His unique table is shaped like a guitar body and has guitar necks for legs.

INDUSTRIAL TECH

How much do you know about Mr. Bauman? Did you know he has been teacher at STMA for nearly 27 years? He teaches Woods I and II, Advanced Woods and Architectural Drafting. His first teaching job was in Montana where he taught a jewelry making class. Throughout his years at STMA he has overseen projects such as cedar chests, desks, shelves and table sets. During his teaching career, the biggest challenge he has taken on was working with his students to create the football complex that STMA has today which includes the press box, ticket booth and concessions stands. This project was completed in 1995 and was done largely by his design and architectural classes. As well as being an Industrial Tech teacher, Mr. Bauman has been STMA's head football coach since 1980.

MATH

Lower Right: Messages get passed back and forth with the aid of calculators.

Upper Right: Courtney Gamrath looks at fruit flies bred in College Human Biology. This is the first year that this class has studied fruit flies.

Upper Right: Students spend the day picking up litter around the St. Michael-Albertville area for Environmental Science class.

Lower Left: Shane G. and Annie H. are very excited about the dissection process in Anatomy class taught by Mrs. Nowell.

SCIENCE

Upper Right: A student inspects a part of a crayfish under the microscope for Biology. They also dissect a part in this class.

Lower Left: Mr. Abrahamson's class sings "We Wish You a Happy Halogen." It's become tradition that his chemistry class sings carols every year.

Upper Right: Ms. Capecchi teaches students about crayfish. This is Ms. Capecchi's first year teaching at STMA.

Lower Right: Mr. Zahler, a new addition to the STMA Social Studies department this year, helps Evan Zachmann with his assignment during class.

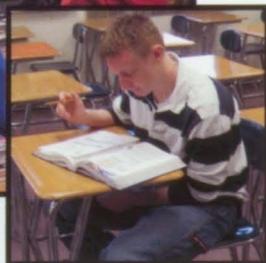

Upper Left: Mr. Barthel takes it easy while the students explain their vocabulary terms to the class.

Lower Right: A junior listens to the guest speaker during Psychology.

SOCIAL STUDIES

Upper Left: The class listens intently to what guest speaker and former STMA student Matt Spaeth has to say about motivation in Psychology . This class is offered to juniors and seniors only.

Lower Right: Tyler Franzen wisely uses his SNAP to study for his US History exam with Mr. Barthel.

Upper Left: Shane Pantila and Naomi Campbell use the computer to work on their psychology homework. Psychology is taught by Mr. Barthel and is also offered as an advanced placement course.

Above: Mr. Zahler scans the room for anyone who needs help in his SNAP. Mr. Zahler has written a book on the history of St. Michael which will be published this year.

Performing Arts

This year's cast, pit orchestra, and crew worked immeasurable hours on STMA's most difficult musical yet- Les Miserables.

The opera tells the story of Valjean, a young man sent to jail for stealing bread. After several years working in the quarry he's able to escape, conceal his identity and become mayor. One of his factory workers after being fired, falls sick, and leaves charge of her daughter Cosette to Valjean. He tries to raise the child in the midst of being pursued by Javert and the Thenardiers, her falling in love and on top of it all, the French Revolution.

Above: Valjean gains his yellow ticket of leave from jail. As a sophomore Sebastian B., was thrilled to receive the lead for the show.

Right: Robert S reading the part of Javert. Practices started in September and ran up until the shows in November.

Top Right: An innocent man gets run over. The cart in this scene took the stage crew three weeks to make.

Les Mis

Above: The entire cast of Les Miserables singing the last piece "One Day More." The set crew spent many hard weeks building the extensive set, but their hard work payed off. Each show ended with a standing ovation from the completely sold-out house, following the bows.

Above: Fantine (Camille W) on her death bed being watched over by the nuns. Her final wish was for someone to take care of her daughter, Cosette. Valjean agreed to step up to the challenge.

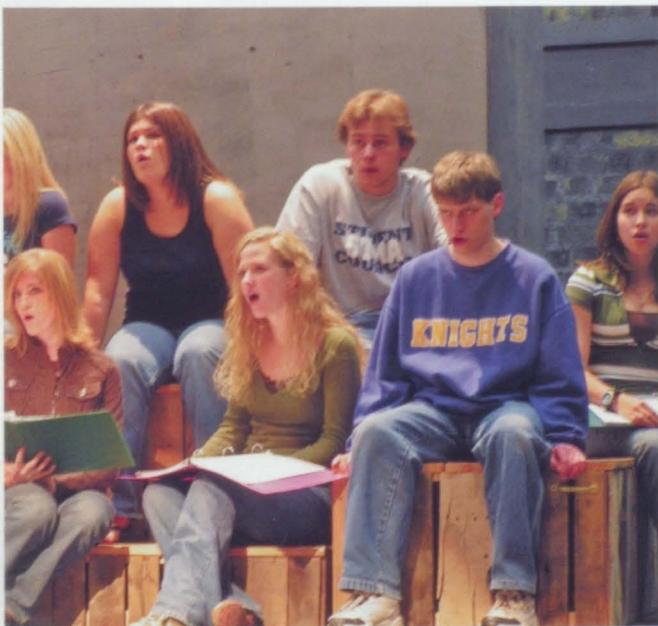

Above: Gavroche (Kelsey G) discovers the identity of Inspector Javert (Robert S). He was giving them false messages about the enemy's movements.

Above: The women of Paris mourn the loss of the school boys who didn't make it through the night at the barricade. This was the first year STMA put on an opera, which meant that the pit orchestra played the whole time, and the actors sang every line.

Left: The Thenardiers, (Chris M and Stephanie O) former guardians of Cosette, crash her and Marius' wedding party.

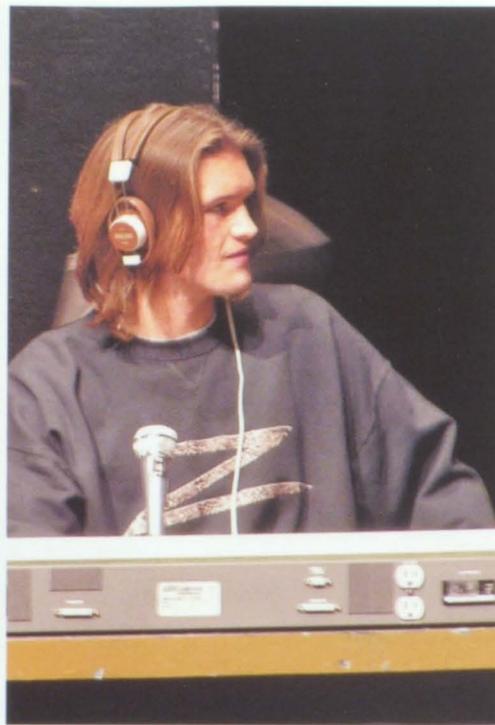

Above: A group of singers from the chorus belts out the song "At the End of the Day." The song told how bad life was going for the people of Paris.

Below: Marius (Isaac S) gazes at Cosette through her garden gates, while the jealous Eponine (Naomi N) sadly watches.

This year the STMA One Act made some big changes. For starters, Kristin Gordon took over as director for this year's production, "My Friend Chris". The story told was different than ones in the past simply because it portrayed the true life story of Bryce Crouser and his stint in rehab whereupon he met Chris Farley who told Bryce his own story. The team took third at subsections with Andrew Evans, Colin Johnson and Isaac Saville receiving All Conference and Stephanie Ohnemus and Robert Swanson getting honorable mentions.

Top: Tom (Brent) on air at KDWB. He and Keith were DJ's together.

Bottom Right: Terri (Jaclyn) and Stretch (Aaron) discuss events while DJ-ing at KDWB.

Above: The doctor (Eric) and nurse (Ashley) talk to ill Bryce's (Colin) grandparents (Jacob and Camille). Bryce is in a coma after overdosing on drugs.

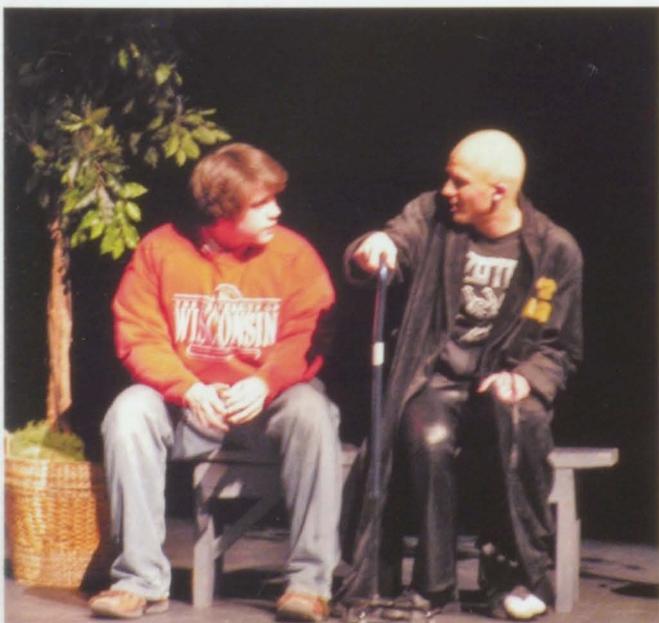

Above: Robert goofs off during down time at practice. He was dressed as David Spade and gave a rousing singing performance for the rest of the cast and crew.

The Speech Team had another great year. With plenty of newcomers and some practiced veterans they brought home numerous awards from the various competitions: Invitationals, Student Congress, NFL Qualifiers and Sections. Seven individuals walked away as conference champs at the Cambridge/Isanti meet. Leading the team with many top honors were senior Nina Zeleny and junior Michelle Haller.

Above: Nina Zeleny performs in front of a large crowd during finals. This year she competed in the Humorous category and won many top awards with her piece "How to Heal the Hurt by Hating"

Left: Emily Olson and Chelsey Ferbuyt prepare for the next round. Both competed in the Serious Prose category.

Above: Chris Bartholomew, Samantha Stepp and Teresa Dubel anxiously await for finals to be posted.

Below: STMA and other schools pack the bleachers for an awards ceremony. At the STMA meet they were overwhelmed with over 500 participants from over 20 schools, the biggest ever held here.

Right: The Knights face off against New Prague during the first home game of the season. Unfortunately, STMA lost this game, 18-40.

Below: Senior Lowell Zachman runs onto the field before a game. Zachman scored a total of 110 defensive points this season.

REMEMBER THE KNIGHTS

The STMA football team finished their season with a record of three wins and six losses, not doing as well as they had anticipated. As Coach Bauman explained, "The difference between winning and losing in football is a couple of plays or players". Their record this year was 3-6. The Knights had victories over Princeton, Monticello and Buffalo, but played very well against New Prague and Becker. Junior John Arns led the team in offensive yards and scoring this year. Out-sized but not out-played, the 2006 Knights needed just a couple more larger football players to compete in the Mississippi 8 Conference.

Right: Coach Berning urges the Knights on as they attempt a touchdown. Berning has been coaching at STMA for 13 years.

Middle: Senior captains Matt LeClaire and Jake Kolling shake hands with a captain from Big Lake. Kolling led the team in defensive points this season, scoring a total of 321.

Far right: Senior Austin Kolles gets ready for the game against Cambridge-Isanti. Kolles earned 50 defensive points this season.

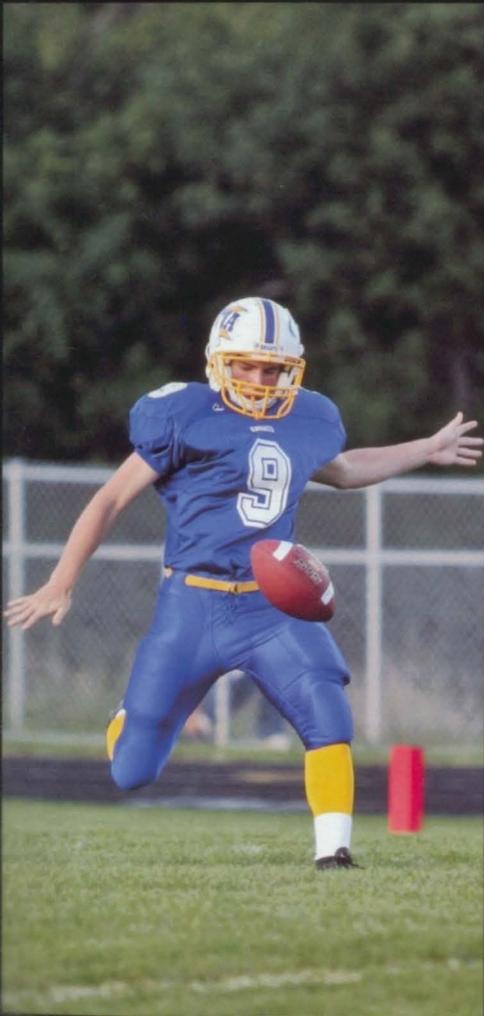

Left: Junior Kyle Schumm gains on a member of the New Prague team. Schumm scored 244 defensive points this season, 19 of them during the game against New Prague.

Below: Sophomore Jordan Scherber is tackled as he attempts to make a play. Scherber earned a total of 132 defensive points this season.

FOOTBALL

Above: The team stands at attention on the sidelines while the National Anthem is played.

Far left: Sophomore Jason Dehmer punts the ball. Dehmer punted 1109 total yards this season, and averaged 32.5 yards per punt.

Left: Seniors Adam Aaserud (36), Shane Pantila (53), and Jon Marcks (57) watch the game against Monticello in anticipation. The Knights won the game 33-20.

Right: Mackenzie Kessler and Marie O'Neil double team to throw off their opponents. Mackenzie started playing Volleyball in the 5th grade. She plays both right side and middle hitter.

SPIKE IT LIKE IT'S HOT

The STMA girls volleyball team had an excellent 2006 season. They ended the season with a 7-0 record in conference play, and took the Mississippi 8 conference champs title. They were runner-up for the 5AAA championship but lost to Wayzata in the finals. Varsity had seven seniors that led them to victory. Those seniors were Rachel Knutsen, Amanda Engelhart, Kayla Miedema, Regan Englund, Whitney Rathbun, Natalie Dick and Krissa Reemts.

Right: Ready for a bump, Ali Knutsen has her eye on the ball. Right behind her, Brittani Wiese readies herself to assist.

Middle: Senior Kayla Miedema shows perfect form as she awaits the arrival of the ball to her hands.

Far Right: Senior Whitney Rathbun aims for a high ball. Whitney has played volleyball since the 4th grade and plays defense.

VOLLEYBALL

Below: Maria Berning and Rachel Knutson get into position to hit the ball.

Above: Brittani Wiese aims for the ball with Rachel Knutson and Maria Berning ready to assist.

Far Left: Whitney Rathbun locates the ball to hit a perfect serve. Whitney's favorite part of playing volleyball is to serve because of the control she has over the ball.

Right: Captain Sara De Lozier leads the team in their favorite cheer at the Big Lake Relay Invite where the team took second place.

BREAKING THE WAVES

The STMA girls swim and dive team has come a long way since it began just five years ago. This season, the team had an overall record of 8-3. They defeated St. Cloud Cathedral and Big Lake, two of their top competitors, and lost to Monticello, Buffalo and Cambridge-Isanti. The divers also experienced a great season during which they saw their records greatly improved. Carissa Reilly swam her way to state for the second year in a row, and many of her teammates made the trip to the University of Minnesota Aquatic Center to cheer her on. Carissa swam the 200 IM and placed 13th in state. The girls will miss the seniors from this year but look forward to another great season next year.

Right: Senior divers Jenna Nelson, Alicia Traut, and Laura Potter pose just before their dives. The three of them are also involved in gymnastics.

Middle: Amber Thompson prepares for her dive. This was her first year as a diver and her favorite dive is the inward one and a half. She is also swims the 50 free.

Far right: Distance swimmers Vanessa Gindele and Megan Watters share strategies for swimming the LONG 500! Gindele's best time for the season was a 6:26 and Watter's was 6:28.

SWIMMING & DIVING

Left: 2006 Knights girls swim team captains Sara De Lozier, Carissa Reilly, and Brittney Barr.

Below: Arianna Nielsen swims the freestyle. Ari spent much of the season battling a knee and hip injury. Her best 50 freestyle swim was 30:56.

Far Left: Junior Kim Franklin prepares for a dive. This was Kim's third year diving and her favorite dive is the reverse one and a half.

Left: Maggie Reilly comes up for a breath while swimming the butterfly. Maggie, who is a freshman this year, swims in the 200 IM, 100 fly and relays.

Right: Katie Daleiden goes one-on-one with one of Buffalo's midfielders. She had a knee injury last year and was unable to play, but this year she came back to win the Unsung Hero award from her teammates. This was Katie's last year with STMA.

Below: Hayley Setzer winds up to take a free kick for the Junior Varsity game against Big Lake. This was their last game of the season and they won 9-0. Hayley was the J.V. team's leading scorer with 12 goals this season.

BEND IT LIKE BECKHAM

This year the girls soccer team really stepped it up. They won their first section game in STMA history. Unfortunately, in the second round of sections they lost to Delano 2-1, but it was a very close and exciting game. They had a great season with an overall record of 13-7-0 and a conference record of 9-5-0. STMA scored a grand total of 65 goals this year. Senior Captains Caitlin Ferry and Kate Bienias were great leaders and did whatever they could to make sure this would be an unforgettable season for all the players. Seniors Caitlin Ferry, Kate Bienias, and Katie Daleiden will be greatly missed next year.

Right: Caitlin Ferry passes the ball up to teammate Mandy McLain. Caitlin was co-captain this year with senior Kate Bienias. She had a great soccer career at STMA and earned much respect from her team members.

Middle: Emmy Johnson makes a pass up the line. Emmy led the team in goals this year with 14. She also received the Hardest Worker award from her teammates.

Left: Anna Valerius and Katie Daleiden team up to take on the Buffalo offense. Anna and Katie have played school soccer together for three years. Anna scored two goals and had one assist this season.

Below: Senior co-Captain Kate Bienias kicks the ball up to her teammates. She was an inspiration to all the girls on the team. Her position on the field was mid-fielder. She scored one goal and had one assist this year.

GIRLS SOCCER

Above: Allesia Rausch makes a move past a Buffalo defender. Allesia's all time favorite soccer move is the "rainbow" though she admits she hasn't had the opportunity to use it in a game yet.

Far Left: Natalie Einerson takes the ball up the field. Natalie plays defense which is making sure the opposing team doesn't score. She had two assists this season.

Left: Courtney Gamrath dribbles through Big Lake's defenders to score a goal. In this game, Courtney scored three goals, otherwise known as a hat-trick. She scored a total of 11 goals this season and got 20 assists, the most in the conference.

Right: Cole Laudenbach, #16, successfully maneuvers the ball from the other team. Cole played the position of midfielder and scored two goals and had two assists this season.

Below: Tim Goth takes the ball down the field while searching for a teammate to pass off to. Besides being an STMA soccer player, Tim also plays on the Knights hockey team in the winter.

THE WORLD AT THEIR FEET

The Knights boy's soccer began the season with a loss, rallied with three consecutive wins, and ended the season with an overall record of 6-13-0. Skill and ability were abundant on the team this year, despite the less than desirable season record. The team was led by captains Mitch Bebus, Tim Goth, Colin Fecho and Martin Hernandez who did a superb job leading and encouraging their teammates.

Left: Coach Dewey observes the game from the sidelines. When asked what one word he would chose to describe the season, he replied "unlucky."

Middle: 2006 senior captains Mitch Bebus and Tim Goth.

Far Right: Junior Henry Gaypia takes the ball and scores a penalty shot. Henry had 18 goals and 2 assists this season.

BOYS SOCCER

Left: Senior Wesley Reutov shows off his soccer moves. Wesley led the conference in goals with a total of 26 goals and 5 assists.

Below: Martin Hernandez dribbles the ball. Martin led the team in assists this year with a total of 13.

Above: Wes Kotilla passes the ball to a team member before the opposing team gets a chance to steal it away. Wes played defense for the Knights and got two assists this year.

Left: Henry Gaypia blocks a defender from the ball. Henry hopes to attend St. Cloud State University and play soccer for them.

Right : The girls gather for a team picture after running in the state meet. The STMA girls made it to state for the first time since 1999 and placed 15th overall.

Below: Lexi Thompson sprints to the finish at the conference meet in Big Lake. Lexi took 2nd place with a personal record of 15:36.

THE 2.5 MILE

Due to a tremendous amount of hard work over the summer and fall, the 2006 Knight's girls cross country team experienced one of their best seasons ever. The girls run various courses throughout the season that are all 2.5 miles long. They placed 2nd in both the conference and in sections which qualified them for the state meet. Lexi Thompson also qualified individually for state, placing 10th at the sections meet. Senior runner Sarah Gindele ended her STMA career running a fantastic 16:03 at the state meet. Robyn Van Drasek and Bridget Kottke, also seniors this year, brought a lot of fun to the team. The 2006 girls cross country season is one that will be remembered for a long time.

Right: Megan Beaudry runs at the Swain Invitational in Duluth. Megan set a personal record of 16:11 when she ran at the section meet in Cloquet.

Middle: Hali Scott runs hard at the state meet. Hali's personal record is a time of 16:46 which she ran at the Buffalo meet.

Far Right: Abbie Ahner and Niki Coté work together at the meet in Apple Valley where the Knights placed 14th out of 21 teams. The team celebrated afterwards with dinner at OCB.

GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY

Left: The STMA girls cross country team gather for a picture at the Sections meet in Cloquet. The team took 2nd place with a total score of 114 which qualified them for state.

Below: Sarah Gindele sprints toward the finish at the State meet. This was Sarah's last year of cross country and she ran her personal best at her last race with a time of 16:03.

Above: The girls team had a lot of fun this year spending a weekend in Duluth, going to the state meet for the first time, and playing ultimate football after practice.

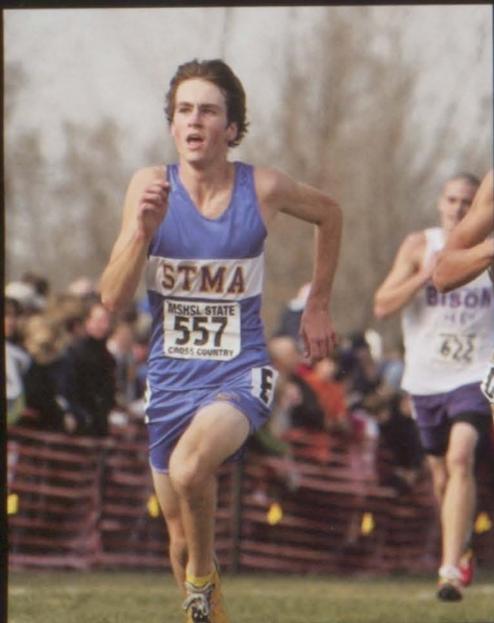

Far Left: Emily Nygaard sprints toward the finish at the state meet where she set her personal record time of 16:13.

Left: Three seniors Robyn, Sarah and Bridget smile at their last high school meet. All three girls have been important members of the team since their sophomore year.

Right: The boys varsity team took 1st place at the Norwood Young America meet. The team score was 51 and 3 of the 7 varsity boys ran their personal records at this meet. The team celebrated afterwards at the Pizza Ranch.

Below: Nick Nygaard sprints hard toward the finish at the state cross country meet. Nick was the boy's number one runner for most of this season. His personal record was at the state meet with a time of 16:46.

RUN, KNIGHTS, RUN

The 2006 Knights boys cross country team had a very successful season. They ended their season by placing second at the conference meet, third at sections, and had two runners compete at state. In his last year with STMA, senior Jeremy Kuhn had another great run and appeared for the second time in the state meet. The boys team will miss Jeremy, but look forward to another successful year led by Nick Nygaard, Sam Greeno and Shane Goblirsch.

Right: Shane Goblirsch runs at the NYA meet where he finished with a personal best time of 18:09.

Middle: David Christenson runs hard at the Apple Valley meet. David's best time this year was 18:18 at the STMA invitational meet.

Far Right: Carl Salonek gives all he has at the Apple Valley meet. Carl ran his personal record this year with a time of 17:38 at the Sections meet in Cloquet.

Left: Nick Nygaard and Jeremy Kuhn lead the Knights at the NYA meet. Following close behind is Sam Greeno. The boys finished first out of 19 teams.

Below: Jeremy Kuhn runs for the second year in a row at the state cross country meet. Jeremy's personal record this year was a time of 16:45 at the NYA meet.

Above: The boys take time for a team picture at the Apple Valley meet. The STMA runners placed 6th out of 19 teams at this meet.

Far Left: Sam Greeno has an awesome finish in Apple Valley. Sam's best race time this year was 17:12 at the NYA meet.

Left: Nick Nygaard and Jeremy Kuhn are all smiles after running at the state meet. 160 runners participated in the boys AA race where Nick placed 65th with a time of 16:46 and Jeremy placed 107th with a time of 17:18.

Right: The team took first place at the Mora Invitational. This was the girls' first match of the season. They beat Mora 7-0, Eveleth-Gilbert 6-1, and Duluth-Marshall 5-2.

Below: Jackie Urai serves to her opponent at the conference tournament. She went 15-8 in her final season with the Knights.

ACES OF THE GAME

The Knights girls tennis team had an outstanding 2006 season. This year the team had only three returning varsity players but still managed to pull off an excellent record of 18-4, and won the Mississippi 8 Conference for the second year in a row. The girls also placed 1st in the Mora and Hutch Tournaments. The Knights made it to sub-sections but lost in a close match to Buffalo. Maren Holstad and Stacy Hegland played as the #1 doubles at the individuals in St. Cloud. They had good matches and placed 3rd, just missing the opportunity to go to state. Four girls were named all conference: Kaitlyn Baldrige, Stacy Hegland, Maren Holstad and Jennifer Miller, and had two girls given honorable mention: Kayla Buckley and Cassie Swenson. The team experienced a great season and celebrated with an eventful trip to the Mall of America.

Far Right: Meggan Shustarich smiles for the camera after busting some ghosts. She played 3rd doubles for the tennis team and was undefeated in conference play.

Middle: Freshman Kayla Buckley serves the ball to her Rogers opponent. Kayla was 19-5 for the season.

Right: Jen Miller went 20-7 overall playing #1 doubles most of the year. Here she is awaiting her car ride at the MOA for the end of the season celebration.

Left: Brittany Berning and Emily Moritz played #2 doubles together, placing 2nd at the STMA Tournament and 3rd in the Conference Tournament.

Below: Maren Holstad and Stacy Hegland played together in the section tournament where they went 2-1 to place 3rd in sections.

GIRLS TENNIS

Above: The girls take a quick picture at the STMA Invitational. They went on to take 2nd place as a team.

Far Left: Kaitlyn Baldrige waits for the ball. She played #2 singles and finished 18-7 for this season.

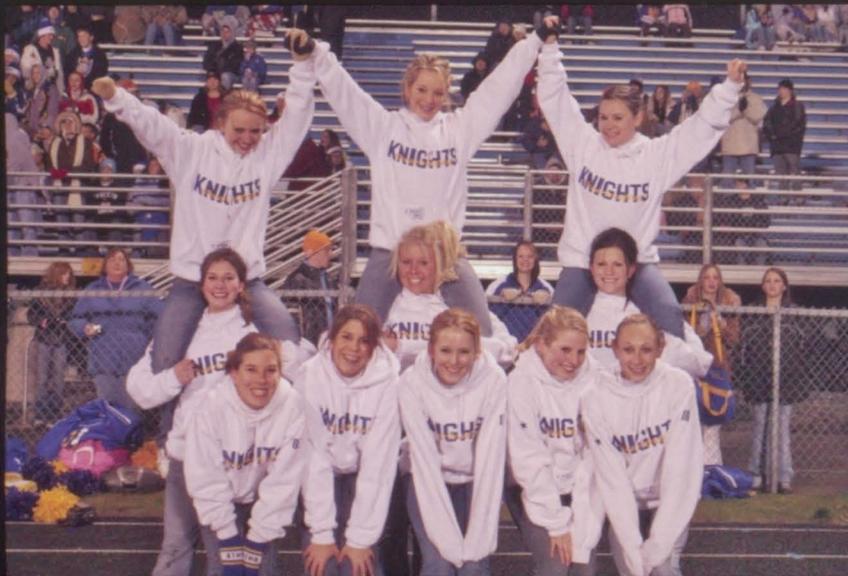

Left: Katherine Foster hits a forehand at the Monticello match. She played #4 doubles for the team and was 5-9 for the season.

Right: This group of football "super fans" get ready to cheer hard at the 2006 Homecoming game. Their favorite cheer is Alligator and they like to join in and sing the school song.

Below: Steph Halper, Stephanie Swenson and Kaycee Davis in their final pose. The cheerleaders entertain the fans at every home game during half time by providing them with a new dance.

BRING IT ON

"Cheer, cheer for STMA. Shake down the echoes distant and high. Send a rousing cheer on high, shake down the thunder from the sky. Let all the odds be great or small, STMA will win over all. While her loyal sons are shouting, shouting for victory...STMA!"

The school song was definitely a fan favorite at all of the games and meets this year. At every game you were sure to find the hardworking cheerleaders and loyal fans ready to cheer on and pump-up all of the athletes. The cheerleaders welcomed four newcomers to their squad this year. Under the captainship of Robin Tellefson, Stephanie Swenson, Alexis O'Conner and Britney Kotlinek, the girls learned over 20 cheers and four new dances which they used to liven up the crowd and spread Knight's spirit.

Right: Shelby shows off her sweet moves during half-time for all the fans to see. In order to perfect their dances the cheerleaders must attend summer cheer camp and many exhausting practices.

Middle: Bekki, Sara and Britney take time away from the game to smile for the camera. These girls cheer on our boys every Friday night.

Far Right: Co-Captains Stephanie and Robin show their enthusiasm before they leave for the traveling pep fest on Friday of Homecoming week. What you may not know is that the whole squad spent much time doing each others hair for the big game.

CHEERLEADERS & FANS

GOING TO THE MAT

2007 Minnesota State AA Wrestling Champions

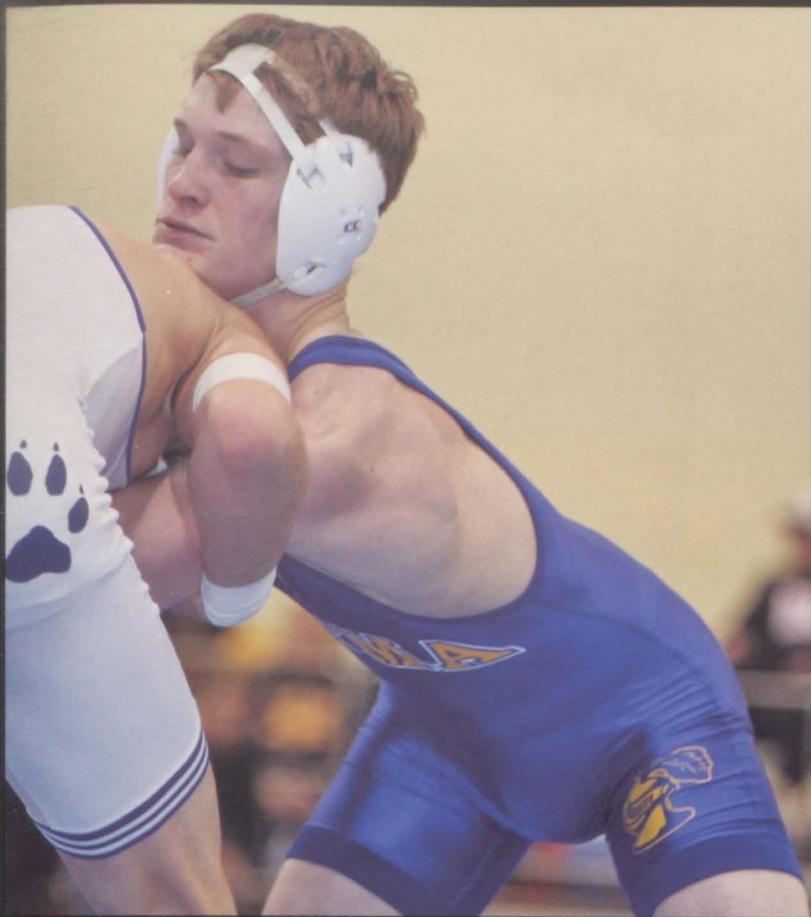

In the four years that the nine graduating seniors of the class of 2007 were part of the STMA wrestling team, the Knights were Minnesota Class AA State Champions every one of those years. The Knights wrestlers ended their season with a 22-5 record and completed their drive for four when they won the state title for the fourth year in a row. Coach Lefebvre said "it was a privilege and a pleasure to coach this team...they knew when it was time to get serious and work hard and their hard work paid off." Coach Greeno said the seniors "displayed great leadership and it was a pleasure to come to practice every day and to coach them." Way to go Knights wrestlers!

Right: Sophomore Jake Horn wrestles at The Clash. This season Jake received "All-Conference Honorable Mention".

Middle: David Thorn, two time state champion, wins a match. Thorn, a sophomore, has two more seasons to add on to his current 118-14 career record. He received an "Outstanding Wrestler" award and also reached the 100 wins milestone this season.

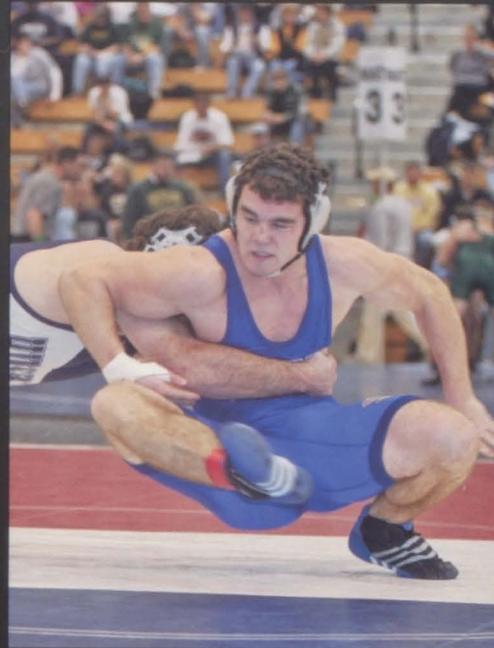

Far Right: Senior Alex Becker earned his 100th career win and ends his senior year with a 126-30 career record.

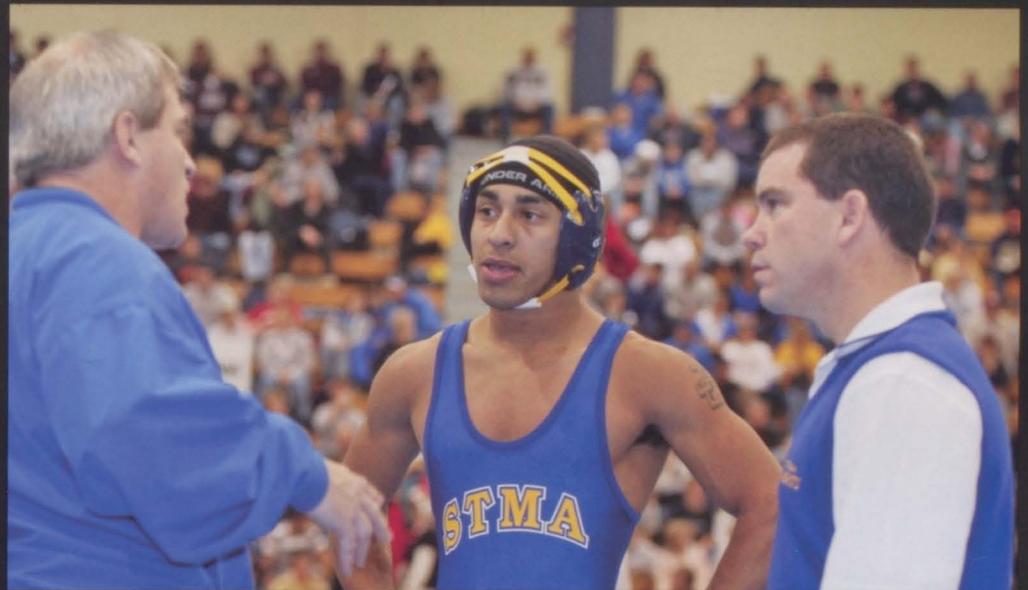

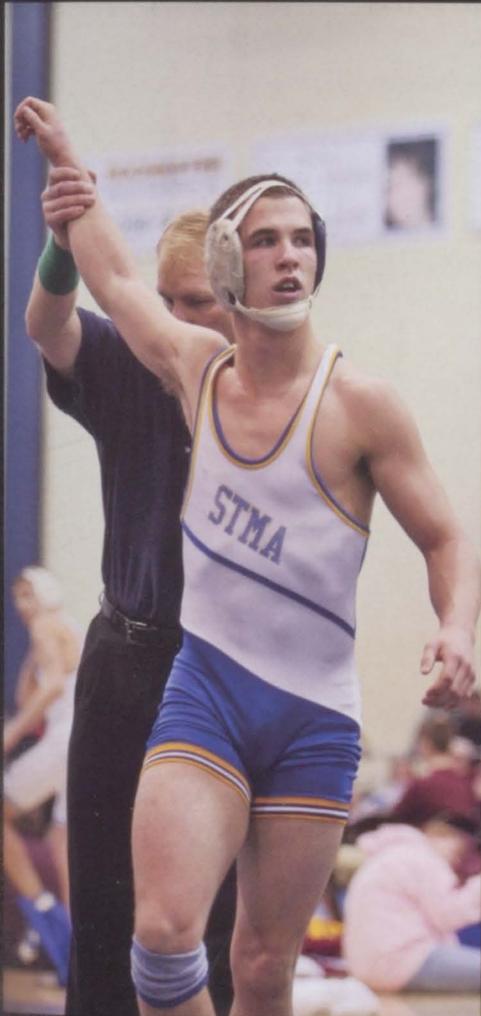

Left: Senior Joe Grygelko reached the 200 win milestone mark as he finished his career as STMA's "All-time winningest wrestler", ending his high school wrestling career with a 218-30 record.

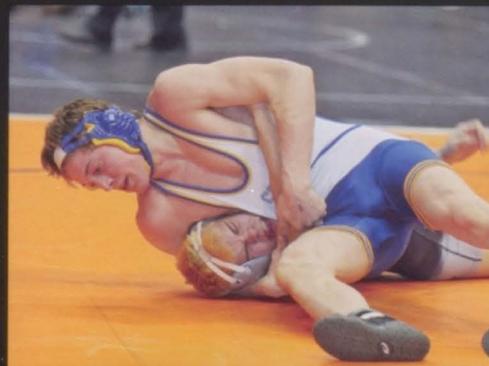

Below: Senior Lowell Zachman displays his wrestling prowess.

WRESTLING

Above: Jordan Campa takes a moment to get some advice from the coaches. Jordan, new to the team this year, earned "All-Conference" and wrestled at 152 lbs.

Left: Senior Austin Kolles received the "Most Improved" varsity wrestler award as well as "Rookie of the Year".

Far Left: Senior Ross Lefebvre shared the "Rookie of the Year" award with Austin Kolles for placing in state as rookies on the varsity team.

Right: The team watches from the sidelines at the January 11, 2007 game against Monticello. STMA won this game with a final score of 69 to 42.

Below: Angy Gavere maneuvers around a Monticello player. Angy scored a total of 123 points for the team this season and she is valued as one of STMA's leading blockers.

HOOP DREAMS

The STMA girls basketball team had a great season this year with 15 wins and 12 losses overall, and 9 wins and 5 losses for a conference record. Their biggest rivals this year were the Becker Bulldogs and Rogers Royals. This year the girls were ranked the third seed for sections. In sections they won their first game against Monticello 46-43, but lost to Sartell-St. Stephen with a score of 40-58 in the second game.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

Left: The team takes time for a group huddle before their game. The entire team did many bonding activities this season, including a scavenger hunt at the Mall of America.

Below: Regan Englund gets support from her teammates as she comes off the court. Regan scored 130 points this season and averaged 5.2 points per game.

Above: Jane Simon searches for someone to pass the ball to. This season she ranked third for rebounds with 63 offensive and 59 defensive.

Left: The seniors get together for a picture at Northwest Airlines. Regan Englund, Natalie Dick and Nicol Schmitz were great role models for the whole team this year.

Far left: Senior Natalie Dick works the ball with finesse to score a basket before the other team steals it. Natalie is a guard on the varsity team and she has the second highest total of team assists with 71.

Right: Theo Rothstein goes for a breakaway. Theo led the team in rebounds with an astounding 233 for the season.

Below: Coach Anfenson lays out a play for the team. This was his 22nd year coaching basketball.

AIR KNIGHTS

The St. Michael-Albertville boys basketball team had an impressive season for the '06-'07 year. They went 24 and 4 in the regular season; taking second place in the Mississippi 8 Conference and beating Big Lake 60-57 to qualify for the state tournament and earning the Section Champ Title. Unfortunately, the state semi-final game didn't go as planned and the season was stopped short. The top scorers this year were Riley Kessler and Theo Rothstein. Kessler scored 625 points for the Knights and Rothstein scored 394. The seven seniors will be missed but with the remaining players the team has high hopes for next season.

Right: Senior Guard Danny Hill fights for the ball in a game against Big Lake. The Knights faced Big Lake three times this season and defeated them each time.

Middle: John Arns goes for a lay up. This year he totaled 54 assists and 33 steals.

Far Right: Senior Tony Hare scored 50 points and had 45 rebounds this season. He plays pointguard.

BOYS BASKETBALL

Left: The team gathers for a timeout during the State Semifinals at the Target Center. The boys worked hard but were bested by Rocorri in a tough but well played game.

Below: Theo Rothstein dunks the ball in an early season game. He was one of the team's leading scorers this year with an average of 17.9 points per game.

Above: Matt LeClaire shoots a free throw. Matt plays center for the Knights and he scored 140 points and 123 rebounds this season.

Left: The team gathers for a picture after winning against Big Lake. This victory advanced them to the state semifinals at the Target Center.

Far Left: Riley Kessler jumps at the tip-off to start the game. He is the fifth person in STMA history to score 1000 career points for the boy's basketball team. He also beat a school record for the most points scored in a season.

Right: The team incorporates some fun into their workout by dressing in crazy clothes on "Wacky Wednesdays."

Below: Senior Laura Potter swings into a "Kip" on the bars. This was Potter's third year competing varsity.

STICKIT

After losing five valuable seniors last year, the Knights Gymnastics team had their work cut out for the 2006-2007 season. The gymnasts fought through many injuries, but never allowed pain to get in the way of success. The girls worked hard to improve their Varsity team score by over ten points from the first meet to the last, scoring their highest at the Section 5A meet. The team had a very fun season and saw improvements from every gymnast. The girls are looking forward to next year with captains Katie Kilian and Amy VanHeel leading the way. The Knights will greatly miss their four seniors next year!

Right: Sophomore Katie Kilian demonstrates a wolf jump on the beam.

Middle: The returning varsity gymnasts strike a pose during practice. The girls practiced daily from 3:45 to 6:30 p.m.

Far right: Senior Alicia Traut works towards a new release move on the bars.

GYMNASTICS

 (Front L-R) Katie K., Jenna G., Sonya B., Amy V.
 (Back L-R) Jessica B., Jenna N., Alicia T. and
 Below: The girls "chalk up" before doing the bars. Chalk helps the gymnasts grip the bar and prevent "rips."

Above: The Varsity girls are exhausted after 2-1/2 hours of tough practice!

Left: Seniors Jenna, Alicia, Laura and Jessica try to get rid of their nerves before the final meet of the season.

Right: Senior Captain Megan Dingley, Drea Thurmes and Shelby Stanger. As a line they went a record eight straight games without giving up a goal.

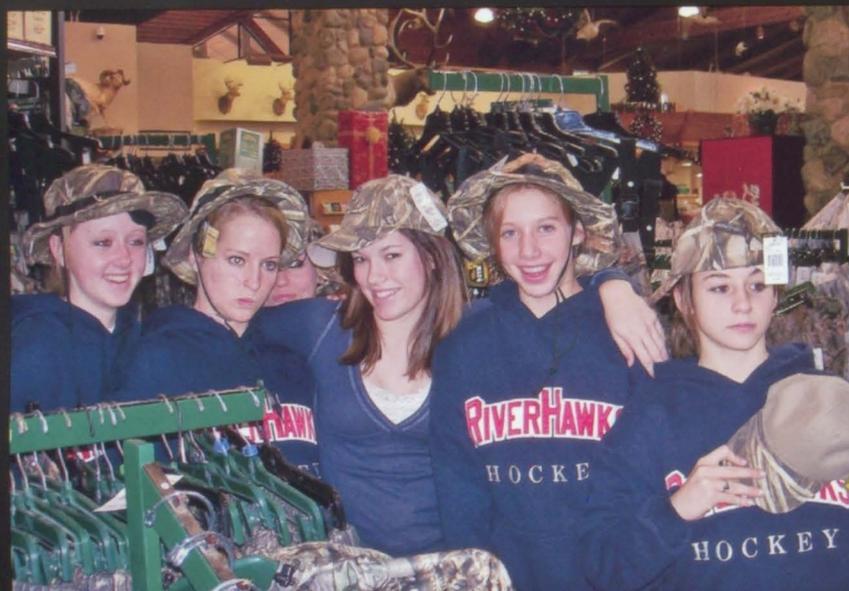

Below: Sophomore forward Emmy Johnson had a great season with a total of 11 points.

QUEENS OF HOCKEY

The Riverhawks improved their record this season to 15-8-2 with help from coaches Hanson, Yunker, Hancock and Savaloja. The team was led by seniors Emily Bourgeois, Megan Dingley and Katherine Foster. They were awarded with Academic All Conference as well as placing first in the Christmas tournament in Owattona. The Riverhawks are made up of players from STMA as well as Monticello. As most of the team this year was comprised of underclassmen there are high hopes for next season.

Near Right: Junior Goaltender Kim Franklin prepares for a face off during a JV game, but she also had the opportunity to play in net for a few Varsity games.

Middle: Sophomore Amy Bruner shows off her secret talent (touching her tongue to her nose) during dryland.

Far Right: Kerry Blomberg and Megan Dingley line up for the National Anthem. On senior night Megan attempted to sing the song herself.

GIRLS HOCKEY

Left: Senior Goaltender Katherine Foster gets in position to make a save. Katherine was the starting goaltender for the Riverhawks this season.

Below: Freshman Defender Kara Foster skates toward the puck. Kara had a great season this year and scored her first Varsity goal.

Left: Four STMA girls play an intense game of bubble hockey to prepare for a big game the next day.

Right: The Knights line up to sing the National Anthem before the opening faceoff.

Below: Junior defensemen Ryan McCoy catches a pass in the start of the second period. Ryan had 16 assists and 73 shots on net.

THE MIGHTY KNIGHTS

The Knights Hockey team had a disappointing 2006-07 season, but nevertheless it was still enjoyable for all of the players and fans. One of their biggest wins was over Becker/Big Lake where they won 13-2. Their final record was 10 wins and 16 losses. They will lose 12 seniors next year which means the underclassmen will have to really step up and take charge.

Right: Junior Danny Heskin slides across the crease to make a save. This season he had 447 saves which was a respectful 87%.

Middle: Senior Captain Jon Larson scores on the breakaway. Jon played center and had a total of 2 hat tricks, 15 assists and 106 shots on the net.

Far Right: Senior captain Nate Koep makes a pass to teammate Jon Larson. Nate scored 12 goals this season.

BOYS HOCKEY

Left: The Knights gather around the net before the first drop of the puck.

Below: Senior Jake Isaacson comes around the net and fires a pass to a teammate.

Clubs & Organizations

National Honor Society

Each year the NHS puts together countless programs, activities and fundraisers for the school and community. This year they put on two blood drives, scarf-making, the mitten tree, clothing, food and toy drive, and sponsored fundraising events for St. Judes, the Cleft Lip Foundation, Minnesota Nice Program and others. NHS also sponsored fun things like Homecoming Week and dance, the Blizzard Bash, car washes, new member induction and the yearly camping trip.

Right: Members with the bags of trash that they collected during the annual Clean the River outing on the Crow River.

student council

The Student Council is made up of 28 members and includes seven students elected from each of the four grades. They sponsor many of the activities that go on around the school, including planning coronation as well as the elf auction, prom, graduation activities and many other events. They also sponsor many different fundraiser events like the dating surveys and penny wars.

Above: Senior members win the gingerbread house contest at the Christmas party.

Far Left: Camille Welter and Caitlin Ferry attend an early morning meeting to discuss plans for coronation.

Mock Trial

The Mock trial team this year consisted of twelve students, eleven of which were first timers. Led by Ms. Fisher and assisted by local attorney Pat Michenfelder, the team competed in several invitationals. Keith Bistodue got best attorney award at Farmington. This year was a pretty young team with nine Freshman, one Junior and two Seniors. Overall they had a decent season and had fun making new friends.

Above: The witnesses listen intently as the lawyers lay out the case for the judge.

Right: Attorneys Cody Dorumsgaard and Justin Quade prepare to go over their case.

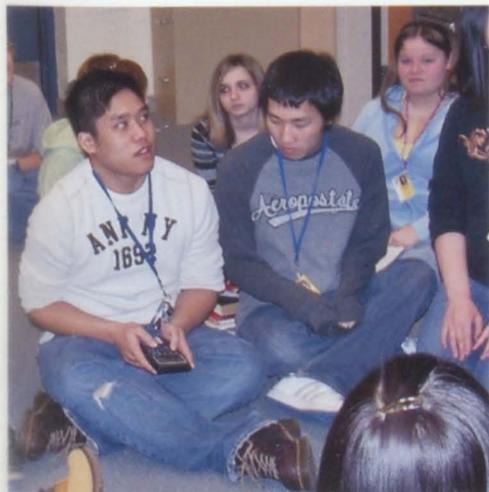

Far Right: Melissa Yanish flashes a smile for the camera. This was Melissa's first year on Mock Trial and she enjoyed it very much.

Diversity Club

The Diversity club is enjoying its second year at STMA and continues to rapidly expand. The group consists of students and staff who are dedicated to building unity throughout our community. This year the group attended the Race Exhibit at the Science Museum as well as sponsoring a movie night and hosting their first awareness week which included meals of different ethnicity, displays around the school, and a talent show.

Above: The club gathers in the choir room for a meeting. The Diversity Club is headed by seven student leaders.

Left: Club members work together for their first ever fashion show which was held during Diversity Week.

Business Professionals of America

The B.P.A. had another successful year in competitions. Over 20 individuals and groups made it to state with some STMA participants qualifying for nationals. At the end of March they went on their annual learning experience to New York City where they had the opportunity to visit the stock exchange and appear on "The Morning Show".

Above: Reid Nelles, Colin Fecho, Whitney Rathbun and Nicol Schmitz finish their meal downtown.

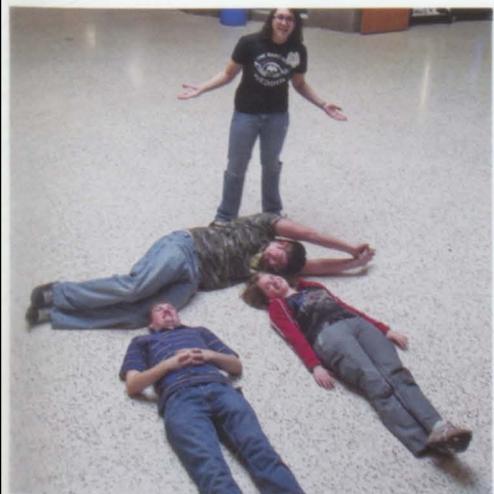

Right: Julia Phaipanya at the state competition. This was Julia's first year in B.P.A. and she competed individually in Digital Media. Her presentation took second and qualified her for nationals.

Far Right: Alicia Traut proudly shows Mrs. Carlson the 3rd place plaque she received for her presentation on Administrative Support.

Math League

Since Math League is a fairly new club to STMA there aren't a lot of members, but they did get a whole bus to themselves! Overall, the team placed 7th and Jack Mason received an individual award for his high score. The team agreed that the best part about math league was definitely the food; they were provided with complimentary donuts at every meet and pizza at the final meet.

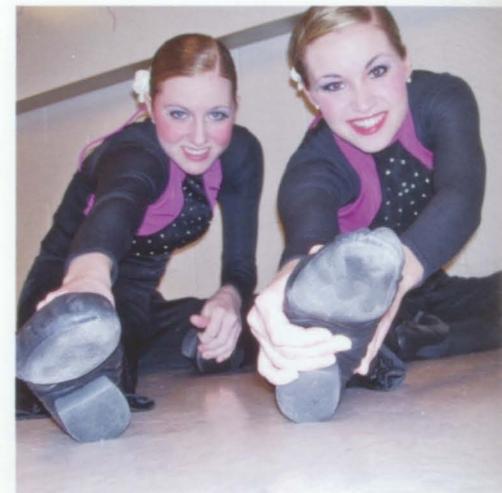

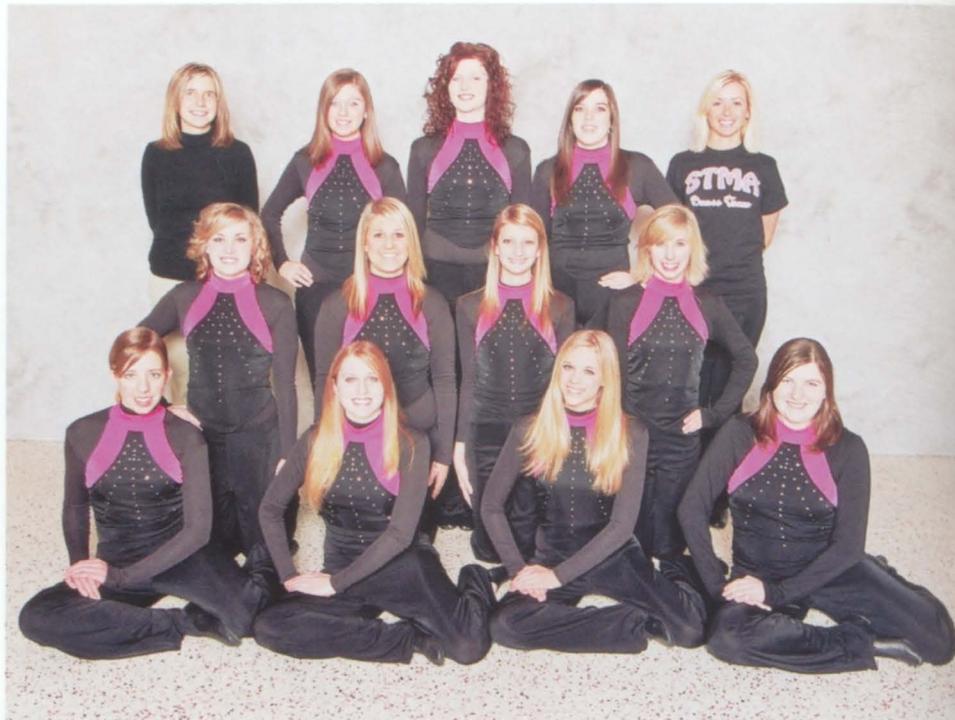

Above: Apparently not much gets accomplished in the team competition; much of the time it's a lot of arguing and very little math.

Left: The team pulls together and works to get their problems done before time runs out.

Far Left: Pi anyone? Seniors Keith Bistodeau, Jeremy Kopp and Cosima Kafka attempt to make the Pi symbol with their bodies.

Dance Team

This year STMA got a new edition to the athletic line-up when it started its first dance team. There were a total of 11 girls this year. They performed at many different school events throughout the winter season and competed at several places throughout the conference.

Above: The dance team performs for the school at the pep rally during Winter Week.

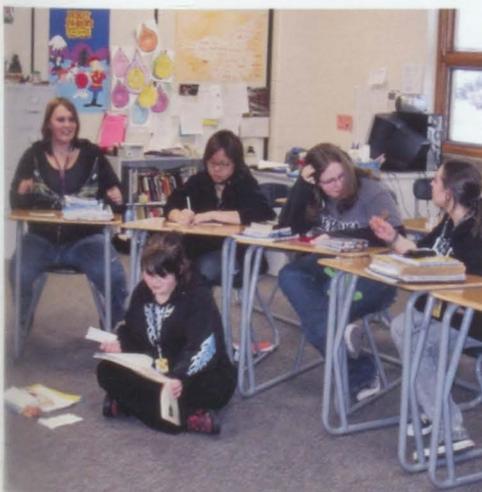

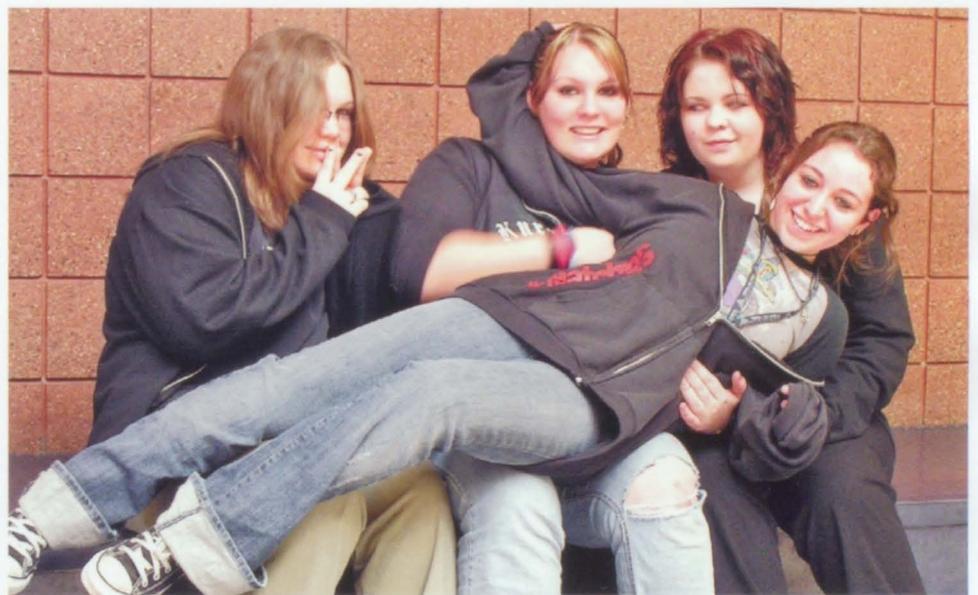

Right: Some of the team warms up before section competition. All of the members said they loved the "adrenaline rush" of performing on stage.

Poetry Club

Also this year, compliments of Mrs. Larson, STMA introduced the Poetry Club. They meet once every other week. The meetings give students a chance to read, listen to, and write their own poems. It allows students the opportunity to gain an understanding for poetry as well as to be able to express themselves.

Above: Juniors Sarah K, Courtney P, Abby S, and Danielle R show their creative side during SNAP. They are some of the most dedicated members to the club.

Left: Mrs. Larson starts off the meeting by introducing the ideas for the poems which are about to be read by the members.

Far Left: Club members work on posters to display their poems. Some of these poems were put on display around the school.

Yearbook

Right: The Valor staff of the 2007 yearbook. The yearbook staff included about 30 dedicated members this year.

Below: Katherine Foster and Emmy Johnson work as a team on the girls hockey page.

Above: Senior Editors Laura Reimann and Darrick Williams pull out their hair when they realize how much work is left with only one week remaining before the final deadline.

Right: Caitlin Abrams and Brittany Berning laugh at some of the Ads for Grads pages during a meeting.

Far Right: Yearbook Adviser Lisa Collier and staffer Rebecca Michaelson work hard to get pages done for the next deadline.

"All I have left is just a little swig of magic." You are magic, Miss Emily.

Love you,
Mom

Kayla Miedma

Kayla (Doodle), you have worked so hard and you make us so proud. Always believe in yourself and your path to the future will hold happiness, love and success. We will always be there for you.

We love you, Dad, Mom,
Carla and Lance

Natalie Dick

Congratulations Boo Bear! You are a special person. We are very proud of you and wish you the best. Follow your dreams!

We love you.
Dad, Mom, Alyssa, Brianna,
Samantha and Gavin

Brian Wurdeman

Brian, you are an awesome kid and we know you will be an amazing adult. Good luck at the U of M and with whatever else your dreams hold.

Love ya always,
Mom, Dad and Mandy
Work hard, have fun, and stay safe!

Rebecca Michaelson

Congratulations Rebecca! You have been and always will be our "little" precious princess. We are very proud of you and your accomplishments. Believe in yourself, stay strong, work hard, have fun and you will achieve your dreams.

Our love always, Dad, Mom,
Daniel and Aaron

Kayleen Eggert

Kayleen, your strength is that you are yourself. You have never followed the crowd. We are proud of you and we love you.

Mom, Dad and family

Kelsey Long

The older they get, the more you hold on, but before you know it, the day is gone. Cherish each smile, each laugh and each tear. You blink your eyes and a day becomes a year.

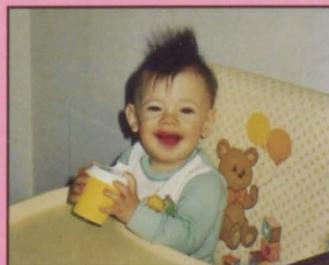

Kelsey, keep a song, a prayer and a smile in your heart always.
Love you, Dad and Mom

Kim Kolstad

God smiled the day you were born and every day since. I am so proud of you and I know you will be a success no matter where life takes you! Remember, we're always here for you and love you very much!

Mom, Katy and Bonkler

Jeremy Kuhn

Germ-weed: "The road of life twists and turns and no two directions are ever the same. Yet our lessons come from the journey, not the destination." As one journey ends and another begins for you always keep your great sense of humor and zest for life. Please don't forget to come home. We're proud of you.

Love, Dad, Mom and Preston

Kate Bienias

Kate Ann, you stole our hearts the day you were born. We are very proud of you. It's time to share your winning smile and caring personality with the rest of the world.
Love, Mom and Dad

Rob Roden

From little on you've been blessed with a love of music. We've nurtured it and have watched it grow. Now may you cultivate it and share it with others. God bless and let Him be your constant Guide in your future.

Morgan Hayek

Morgan, you are the most wonderful "surprise" we could have ever imagined.
Love forever and always,
Mom and Dad

Sara DeLozier

"May your heart always be joyful, may your song always be sung, and may you stay forever young."
-Bob Dylan
Love, Mom and Dad

Whitney Rathbun

Whitney, it has been an adventure watching you grow up - we hope that your energy, attitude and enthusiasm stay with you in whatever your life may bring.
Love, Mom, Dad and Ashley

Shane A. Weber

Remember when you used to come and snuggle up to have me read you a story everyday? I enjoyed it as much as you. You have grown into a fine young man. Make wise decisions and be good to others. Enjoy life and follow your dreams.
I am proud of you! Skate on.
Love, Mom

Colin Johnson

I am very proud of you, Colin, and I thank God for the times we've had and the times yet to come.
Love, Mom

Isaac Saville

Isaac - you are the light of my life.
I love you.
Mom

Brian Michaud

Brian, Wow! You are such a remarkable young man. We are proud of who you are, what you have accomplished and what you will achieve. Live life to the fullest and enjoy.

We love you, Grandpa and Grandma

Michelle Katchmark

You are so cute and sweet! We know you will succeed in whatever you do. Remember we are always here for you.
Mom and Dad

Tony Sorowka

During the last months you showed a lot of strength and proved to have great powers of endurance. With the unselfish help of your friends, you shouldered every problem. The difficult and the happy moments let you become more mature and rich with experiences. We are proud of you!
Love from your family

Rachel Knutsen

Rachel, we are so proud of you. We wish you happiness and success in all you do. May all your dreams come true!

Sarah Gindele

Our wish for you is that this life becomes all that you want it to, your dreams stay big, your worries stay small. Find God's grace in every mistake, always give more than you take.

Love, Mom, Dad, Lydia, Luke, Vanessa and Eli

Aaron Frank

Aaron - Once again, it is time for you to fly! You are a wonderful son and brother. We love you more than all the stars in the sky.

Mom, Dad and Maria

Andrew Evans

George Bernard Shaw once said, "Some men see things as they are and say why - I dream things that never were and say why not." You have always said, "Why not?" We are so proud of the dreams that you have dreamt and fulfilled, and of the young man that you have become.

Love, Mom and Dad

Steph Swenson

Steph has always been "Miss Independent". Taking control of the wheel at this young age and making her own individual path towards her goals in life. You have made us very proud and we love you very much.

Mom, Dad and Big Sis

Alex Rammer-Bitton

Mish-A-boo, you amaze me, from the day you were born (all 3 lbs. of you) and each and every day thereafter.

You have such compassion, enthusiasm and strong will. Believe in yourself and all of your dreams. It is within you to accomplish all that you want out of life.

I love you to the moon and back!
Mom (me more)

Andrew Osborn

Congratulations Andrew! We are so very proud of you. Follow your dreams and remember we are always here for you. We love you!!
Mom, Dad and Megan

Sarah, we are very proud of you and excited to see where your path leads from here. You are a very special person with many special talents.

Love, Mom, Dad and Ryne

Ali Anderson

Ali Rae: Words cannot describe how happy we are for all that you have achieved. Embrace each day with optimism and allow God's love to guide you.
Love ya, Mom and Dad

Andrew Wagner

You brightened our lives the day you came into the world. Wherever you go and whatever you do with your life, we'll always be proud of you for being the best you can be. We love you "as much as the sky is".

Mom, Dad, Megan and the pups

Amanda Engelhart

My blond hair, blue eyed, angel-face baby girl, words alone cannot express how proud of you I am. You are such a wonderful young woman. Your life is just beginning, embrace it with wisdom and a smile.

All my love,
Mom

Al and Tom Kilian and Kelsey Long

Cousin to cousin we'll always be,
Special friends from the same family tree.
Congratulation to our 2007
Graduates!

Austin Kolles

Austin, we are so proud of who you have become. The journey ahead will bring you many challenges; but the drive and determination you have will help you come out on top. We wish you success and happiness in whatever you do.

Love, Mom, Dad, Amanda, Jaxon,
Mitchell and Jamey

Ashley Fernholz

Ashley (Melon Pudding Pie) Mel, you are the sunshine in my heart, my joy and blessing. We are so proud of you in all you have accomplished and the lady you have become. Ashley, follow your dreams and your heart for the next stage. Remember I will always be here for you. Love always,
Mommy and Grams

Ashley Girard

Ashley, you've brought so much joy to our lives and to so many others as well. We are truly proud of the person you've become and look forward to the future that lies ahead of you. You're on the right track - keep it up "Cow Pie"!

We love you, Mom, Dad and Michelle

Beau Toutloff

What a face...what a kid! You are special and the world is a better place cuz you're in it! Hold on to the truth of who God created you to be. It's powerful and can take you places you never dreamed possible. I believe in you!

WGGKL
Mom

Bekki Jossart

To our beautiful baby with big blue eyes, bright smile, and gentle hug. Thank you for blessing and enriching our lives.

We are so very proud of you.
All our love,
Mom, Dad, Rachel, Erika, and Tom

Billy Laney

You've never met a challenge you couldn't conquer. From the bitter struggle to "get up on one" to pounding The Dragon (and someday, The Wall) into submission, you've always won through your incredible perseverance. With your perfect combination of wit, charm and brains, you never cease to amaze us. Now go amaze the world!

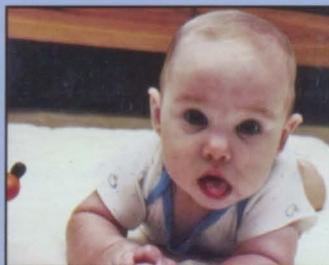

Love, Mom, Dad and Em

Brian Zachman

Brian, we are so proud of you! Keep smiling, working hard, and loving life! May God guide you in all of your decisions and bless you always!

Mom and Dad

Nina Zeleny

Congratulations Nina! You'll always be our Baby Birdie, forever and ever.

We're so proud of you.
Love,
Mom and Dad

Pete Lindquist

For times when words cannot express a feeling, like our immense pride in a wonderful son, God gave us Bob Dylan: May God bless and keep you always, may your wishes all come true. May you always know the truth and see the light surrounding you. May you build a ladder to the stars, and climb on every rung. And may you stay forever young.

Sláinte! Mom and Dad

Breanna Kolles

Congratulations, you've done an awesome job. Go out and spread your wings.

Brent Guimont

Brent, we love you! Thank you for being an awesome, ambitious, smart and fun son. "Soar" to new heights in all you do with your future. May God bless you each day.

Love,
Dad and Mom
