MOMENTS

2017 for hoco homecoming

Serena Lange

PINK LADIES. Alexis Silvernale ('18), Kylie Peterson ('17), and Alyssa Ulrick ('17) go all out decked in boas to support breast cancer awareness on Thursday of spirit week. Peterson said, "My favorite part about homecoming week is going to the football game on Friday night."

Anne Snyder

CHEER. Tina Nyguen ('17) displaying her Knight pride by cheering loudly at her senior pep-fest. Nyguen said, "Performing in the pep fest is very fun! It's cool getting a one-on-one experience with the students. It's also exciting to show our peers some of the cool stunts that we do in cheerleading. The cheer team enjoys performing a lot for the student section."

Serena Lange

TACKY TOURIST DAY. Zach Hanson ('17) and Isaiah Harken ('17) pose on their favorite day of spirit week. Hanson said, "The best part about homecoming is dressing in Hawaiian outfits for tacky tourist day and playing in the football game on Friday night."

BLACK OUT. At their last homecoming pep fest, the senior class shows their school spirit. Lindsay Finnerly ('17) said, "My favorite part of the pep fest was for sure the drum line when Ethan goes ham. I was kind of sad it was my last one with my class, but i also had fun."

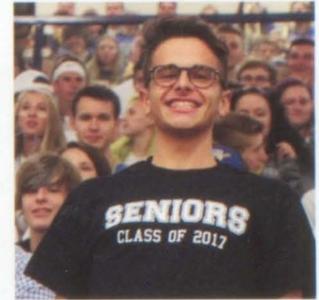

Anne Snyder

KNIGHTS PRIDE. Austin McClintic ('18) gets the student section pumped up while interacting with the crowd. McClintic said, "Being the mascot was probably my biggest achievement in school so far. It was a lot of fun being a part of the pep fest... I really felt like the heart of the school. My favorite part of being the mascot was definitely dancing."

Anne Snyder

FROM ITALY TO STMA. Riccardo Piacentini ('17) stands up to represent as a foreign exchange student from Italy. Piacentini said, "The pep fest was totally new and very big. Nothing like in Italy. [My] favorite part of homecoming was dress up days because we don't have the opportunity like that in Italy." He recorded many of his homecoming experiences for his Youtube blog.

Anne Snyder

MAD BEATS. Ethan Cornell ('17) and Devin Kessler ('18) get serious while they and the drum line come out. Kessler said, "Being in front of the huge crowd gives me a lot of adrenaline and nerves. We have a lot of pressure to make it better every year, and i think we accomplished that."

Anne Snyder

Anne Snyder

STALLION PRIDE. After recapping the Stallion's season, Austin Primm ('17) and Brandon Heaton ('17) pump up the crowd. "I was honored to represent the Stallions at such an amazing pep fest. The fact I can fill people with joy, makes me fill with joy too," said Primm. Heaton added, "I felt very proud to be a Stallion at the pep fest. I loved it when the students cheered for us. It was awesome!"

POWDER PUFF. STMA powderpuff fans create our first ever powderpuff over the student section. Pictured in the middle is Riley Carlson ('18) preparing Amber Heiber ('18) for the big game. Carlson said, "It's such a fun experience to get a feel of what our football boys do every week." The blue team were the champions! Callie Hardesty ('17) said, "Taking the W as a senior was something I'll never forget."

WHITE OUT.

Before the homecoming game, juniors Molly Young, Courtney Jenniges, Hannah Houle, Alli Hinz, Zara Meyer, Brooke Johnson, Maddie Brunner, Emily Hlavka get together and enjoy eating pizza while tailgating. "This homecoming tailgate was a great turn out, everyone was having a lot of fun," said Jenniges.

Lexie Nelson

ALL SMILES. Mr. Massman and Mr. Johnson enjoy the weather as they hand out water bottles to students and parents.

Lexie Nelson

COMING TOGETHER.

As the homecoming tailgate begins, Miah Graczy ('18), Keenan Young ('18), Kennedy Hayden ('19), Abby Gustafson ('19), Isabel Brown ('19), and Amelia Boldehow ('19) are ready for the game against Cambridge-Isanti.

all DAY all KNIGHT

Lexie Nelson

Lindsay Finnerly ('17), Julie Opatz ('17), and Ellie Hassinger ('18) pose for a photo the homecoming tailgate.

Cody Klein

The Knights dominated the homecoming game with a final score of 45-7 over Cambridge-Isanti.

Zach Resech ('17), Ben Woodis ('17), Carol Bania ('18), Jessica Olejar ('17), and Mackenzie Johnson ('17).

TEAM BUILDING. After playing The Big Kahuna with a group of FieldStone Elementary students, Griffen Marquette, Max Helgestad, and Jared Smelter bring the students in for a group cheer. Marquette said, "It was cool because the kids look up to you and it's important to be a good role model to them."

AUTOGRAPH. Carter Reese ('17) signs on a paper for a student. The football team visited FieldStone Elementary to spend some time with the students. "They're always really excited and look at the high school football players as super heroes," Reese said.

THE ROYALTY HAS ARRIVED. Praise Donbraye ('17) poses with two students from FieldStone Elementary.

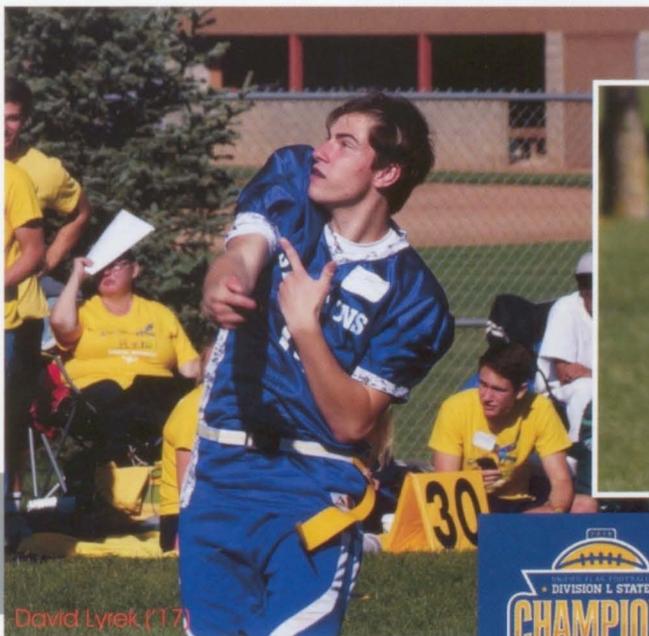

CONTINUING TRADITIONS. "I remember the high school football players reading to me when I was in elementary school, and it's awesome to see it continue 10 years later," said Braden Levandowski ('18).

YOU READ TO ME. Mathew Feldick ('18) and Connor Fitzgerald ('18) dress up and read You Read to me, I'll Read to You to students at Fieldstone Elementary. "Reading to the kids really gave me a good perspective of how much younger kids look up to high schoolers. It was fun to see all the smiles on their faces," Feldick said.

ROLE MODELS in the Community

David Lyrek ('17)

Regional Tournament: 2-0
State Tournament: 3-0

Kory Lundgren ('19)

Stallion State Champions: Brandon Heaton, Kory Lundgren, David Lyrek and Derek Vetsch. "This group came together and worked so incredibly well! They were all connected so much so that over the course of the entire weekend, they did everything as a team - even outside of being on-site for tournament games. You don't often see much of that, so we know our Stallions group has really found something special this year!" said coach Aimee Libby.

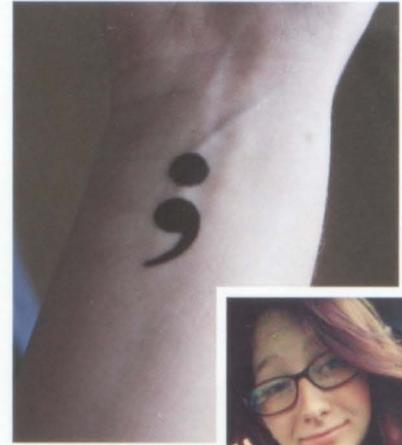

Reanna Marschel ('18)

"I got my tattoo to represent twenty one pilots and their music, because it means a lot to me. The top two symbols and the last two symbols represent my favorite songs of theirs, and the middle one is the band's symbol."

"I got it for Mental Health Awareness, and it means a lot to me and it has been my strength. It's saying my story isn't over yet and I'm still here. It's a huge meaning in such a small tattoo."

Cheyenne Brunk ('17)

Through Meaningful INK connected

Patrick Mckee ('18)

"The one on my wrist is in honor of my dad. It is the day he died, which is a very meaningful day in my life."

"My chest says my name and has an arrow to represent my Native American heritage. Me and my brother share this tattoo, both having it on our left peck meaning to keep family close to your heart."

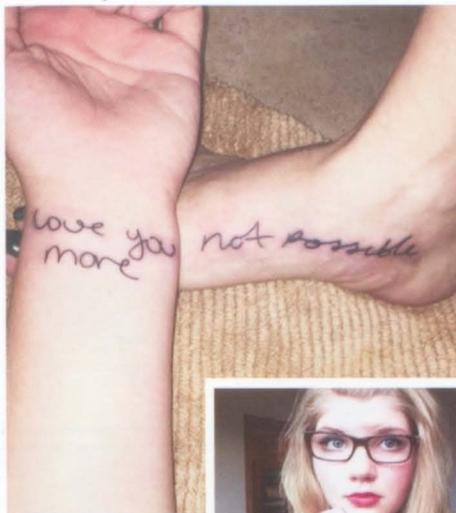

Jordan Ertl ('17)

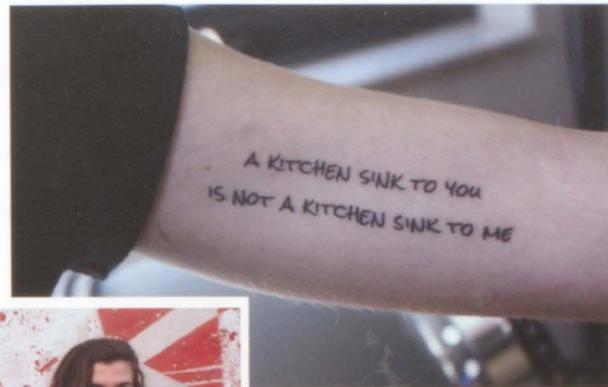

"I got this tattoo in Colorado when I was 17 with my aunt and mom who also got tattoos. This tattoo symbolizes nature and adventure to me. I love to be outside and travel to new places and I think of that every time I see this tattoo."

Kyla Schnell ('18)

"My mom and I got these tattoos together. We always say to each other before bed, "I love you," "Love you more," "Not possible. It is written in each other's handwriting."

Grace Kaip ('18)

"It's a song from twenty one pilots called Kitchen Sink that talks about creating something with your own hands and giving yourself purpose in life and to keep going in your darkest hour."

KARE 11

STMA welcomed the gift of a baby grand piano this school year. Dom Clemens and Johnny Thunder perform in the atrium for students as they arrive to the school. Clemens and Thunder were interviewed and featured on Minnesota's Kare 11 news channel in October. Clemens shared, "It was a really nice surprise and it was a cool experience." Thunder added, "It was nice to be a part of [this experience]."

"I really like it (STMA) because everyone is kind and willing to help."

HANDS UP. Kylie Kiecker ('19), Brook Hunsley ('20,) and Katelyn Hawkinson ('18) get in their beginning poses to perform at the homecoming football game. Hawkinson said, "My motivation for every time I perform is to impress the school and also do better than the last time I performed."

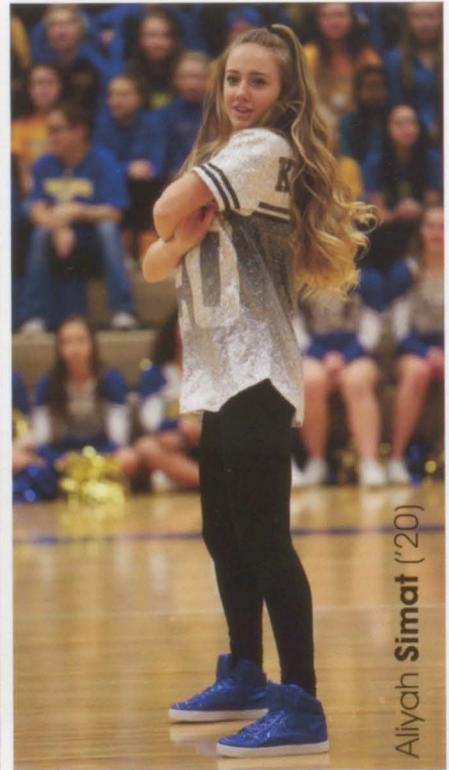

BODY LANGUAGE

Maddie Egbert ('18)

Katelyn Hawkinson ('18)

Aliyah Simat ('20)

"My favorite thing about football games was the excitement and energy from the crowd."

-Emma Prityl ('18)

HIGH KICKS. Kylie Kiecker ('19) shows off her flexibility while trying to pump up the crowd during a football game. Kiecker said, "Before the music starts, I think about the moment when the crowd gets hyped, when you can see and hear how excited everyone is. I look forward to that every time."

WRAPPED UP

in winter week

YEAH BOI. Katie Bierstedt ('17), Dom Clemens ('17), and Earlynn Follah ('18) challenge each other to see who can hold the longest Yeah Boi. Earlynn Follah beat her competition. Follah said, "I'm glad they chose me for the game, it was a fun experience, Yeah Boiiiiiiiiiii."

GOOD AIM. Belle Nyhus ('17) and Allie Mccarthy ('17) make a good team while competing against their peers. Teachers had shaving cream sprayed on top of their heads and the goal of the game was to get as many cheese balls to stick to them as possible.

MAKING A BANG. Kyle Swenson ('20) performs for the first time during winter week in front of the high school student body.

FUN AND GAMES. Greta Anderson ('18) participates in the cheese ball game before she has to change into her dress and heels. Anderson was nominated for junior duchess.

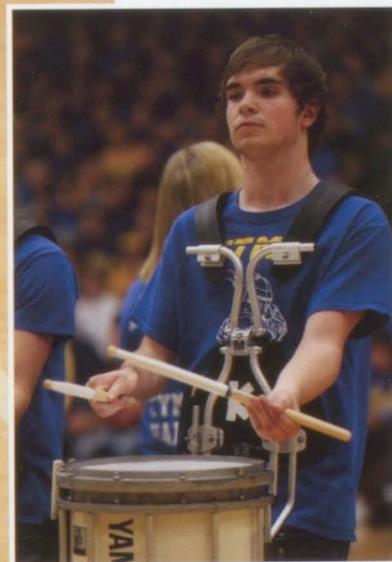

BRRRR. Katelyn Knaus ('18) gets ready to put on a frozen shirt for a game representing the juniors.

WINNER. Cody Mattson ('18) represents the juniors in one of the fun games. Mattson said, "I've been preparing for that moment my whole life, so performing in front of a crowd like that was no big deal."

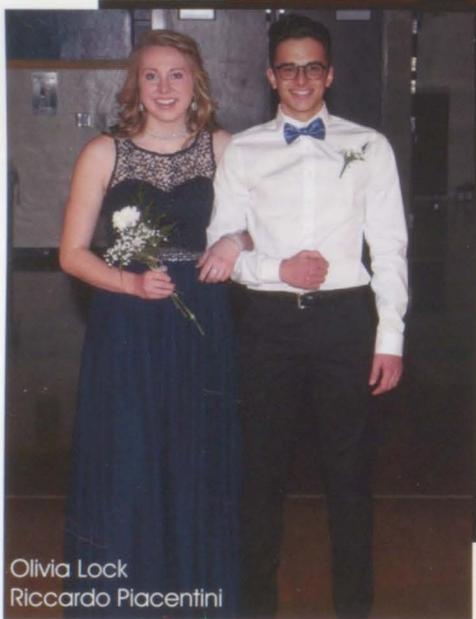

DRUM LINE. Devin Kessler ('18) keeps his focus as he performs the drum line routine in front of the school.

ROYALTY & KINGS Queens

WINTER WEEK

PICTURE PERFECT. Winners, Marcus Greenwaldt, Rosanna Chanthamontry, Riccardo Piacentini, Olivia Lock, T.J. Durre, and Isabelle Dick (Left to right) were crowned on February 7th as 2017 Winter Week royalty. Lock commented, "It was really cool that my class thought that highly of me to nominate me. All of the candidates were really great."

Behind the Scenes

the Backroom

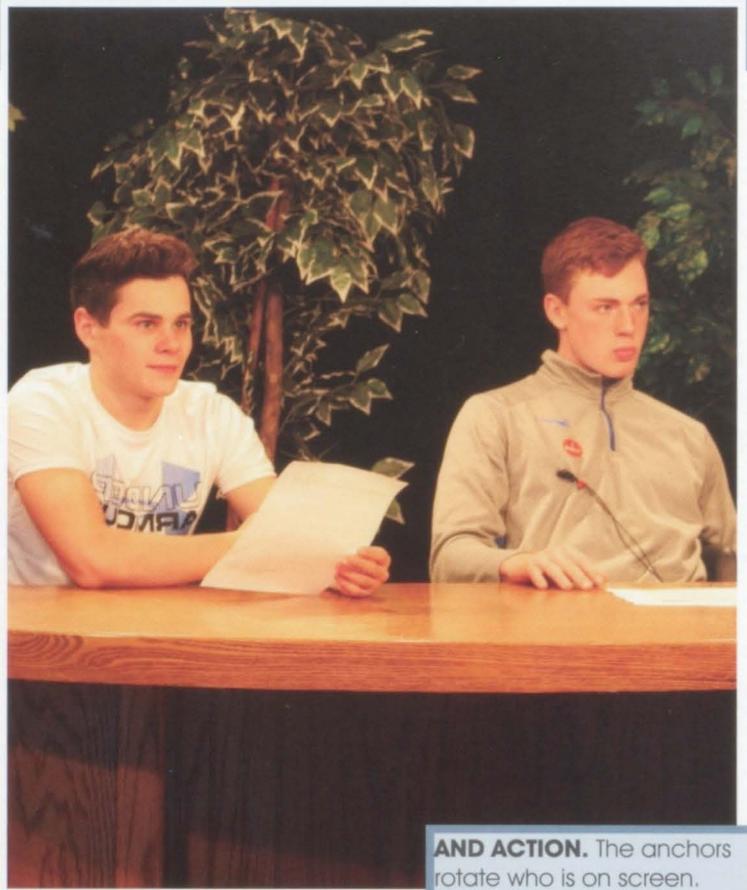

CONTROL ROOM.

For every KBNG production, there are students who are hidden behind the curtain. They control the volume and they make sure the broadcast runs smoothly.

1, 2, CHECK, 1,2 ... Madison Woodhams ('18) Checks the sound for the upcoming broadcast. She looks back to the crew behind the curtain to instruct how the volume should change.

the Anchors

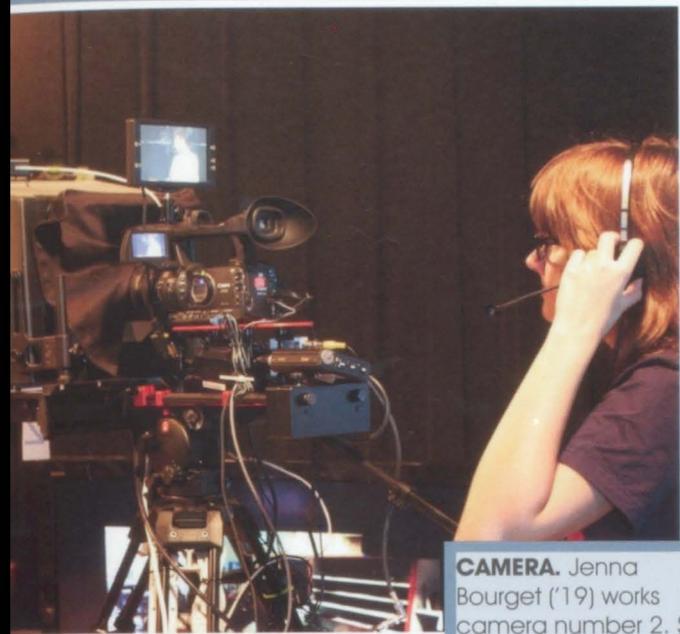

AND ACTION. The anchors rotate who is on screen. During the class they practice their script and get ready for the broadcast. In this broadcast Ryan Copeland ('17) and Jake Benson ('18) are the anchors. Benson commented, "[I] learned fantastic skills on a thriving subject in today's world."

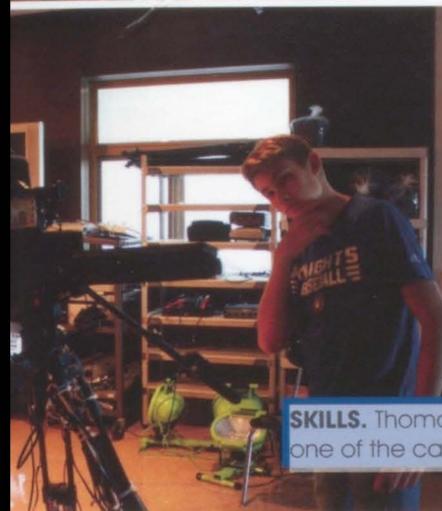

ATTENTION. Dominic Clemons ('17) has been involved with KBNG for two years and said, "I love that I get to have fun while working and it never really feels like work." He also commented that he really likes working with Mr. Metcalf and all the people in the class.

the Camera

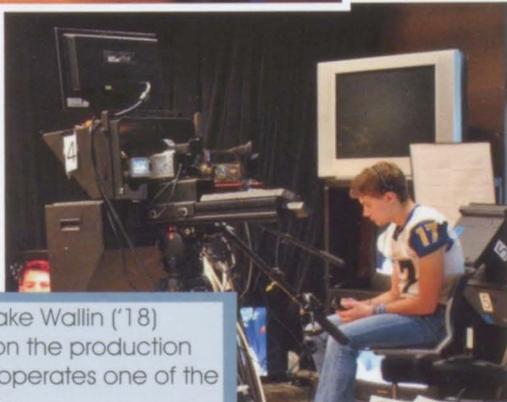

the Video Production

CAMERA. Jenna Bourget ('19) works camera number 2. She recalls learning how to use the cameras: "It was not that complicated to learn and being in KBNG is a lot of work but seeing your videos in the shows is worth it." She also said that most of the camera work is making sure nothing goes wrong during production.

SKILLS. Thomas Ruhland ('19) operates one of the cameras for the broadcast.

CREW. Jake Wallin ('18) focuses on the production while he operates one of the cameras.

HARD WORK. Many people make videos for the productions, some get aired for us to see. The students use class time to work on videos. Isabella Nardini ('19) and Sydney Albrecht ('19) work together on an assignment.

VIDEOS. Samantha Larson ('18) and Isabel Sundeen ('19) work on a video assignment that may be shown on KBNG. Throughout the class most of the students work on the computers to make and edit videos.

"Have a good day STMA!"

GOOD FRIENDS, GOOD FOOD, GOOD TIMES. Wyatt Munson ('18) carries ingredients back to his lab station to make puppy chow. "I really like this class, it's pretty neat," Munson said.

WHAT'S COOKING? Kasey Jorgenson ('18) and Payton Scherber ('19) work together to get their lab work done. "This class is really fun, I'm so glad I took it," said Payton.

QUEEN OF THE KITCHEN. Mrs. Read shares a laugh with students Abbey Keister ('17) and Alexa Richardson ('19). "My key goal this year is to teach students skills they'll use all their life."

A SLICE OF LIFE A SLICE

CUT THE CAKE. Taylor Sandhoefner ('17) serves up some coffee cake for her class. While Colton Harrington ('18) fills out the lab sheet.

STAR STUDENTS. Amelia Boldenow ('19), Syra Tanchin ('19), and Abigail Radtke ('19) carefully cut open one of the limbs of a starfish to see what it has inside.

HAMMING IT UP. Desean Phillips ('19) gets his hands dirty while dissecting a pig in biology.

WINGING IT. Ms. Nowell teaches students Armina Setter ('19) and Anneliese Her ('19) how to properly pin back their bird's wings.

A NEW YORK EXPERIENCE

OFF TO NATIONALS! BPA had 45 state qualifiers and 21 national qualifiers. Many students also placed 1st in their event. Zach Cierzan ('17) said, "BPA is very rewarding. It's great to be recognized for all of my hard work." Ellie Hassinger ('18) advices: "[To be] genuinely interested and enjoy what you are preparing."

OFFICERS. Bella Kitzberger, Jack Mazurek, Carlyne Folkestad, Erin Buckmeier, Benton Welle, and Hanna Abel pose after the conclusion of presentations at the Fall Leadership Conference.

TOURING CAMPUS. Meghan Breen ('17) visits NYU's college campus along with fellow BPA members. Breen said, "NYU's campus was beautiful. I especially liked the variety of colors on each of the buildings surrounding the college."

GOOD MORNING AMERICA. Maddie Egbert ('18) and Benton Welle ('18) are ready for their close ups as they prepare to be on a live episode of GMA in New York City.

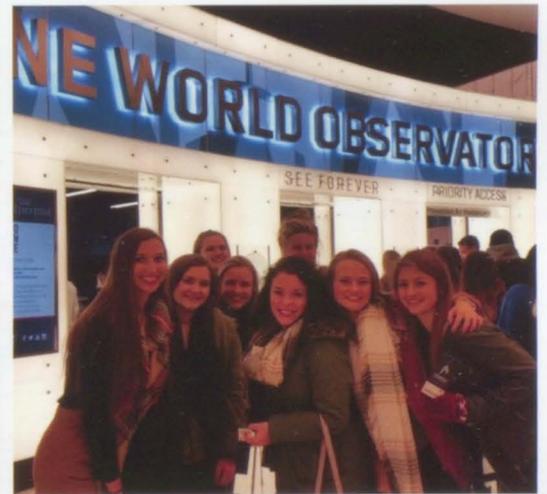

MAKING MEMORIES. These five senior girls walk the streets of NYC making unforgettable memories. Carlynn Folkestad ('17) said, "The BPA trip to NYC was amazing. My favorite part was going to the NY Stock Exchange. It was a great opportunity to learn how our economy and stock exchange works." Sophia Madore (17) said, "My favorite part of the trip was going to the New York Stock Exchange. The man who gave us a tour was so passionate about his job which is inspiring. I hope to have the same love for my future job."

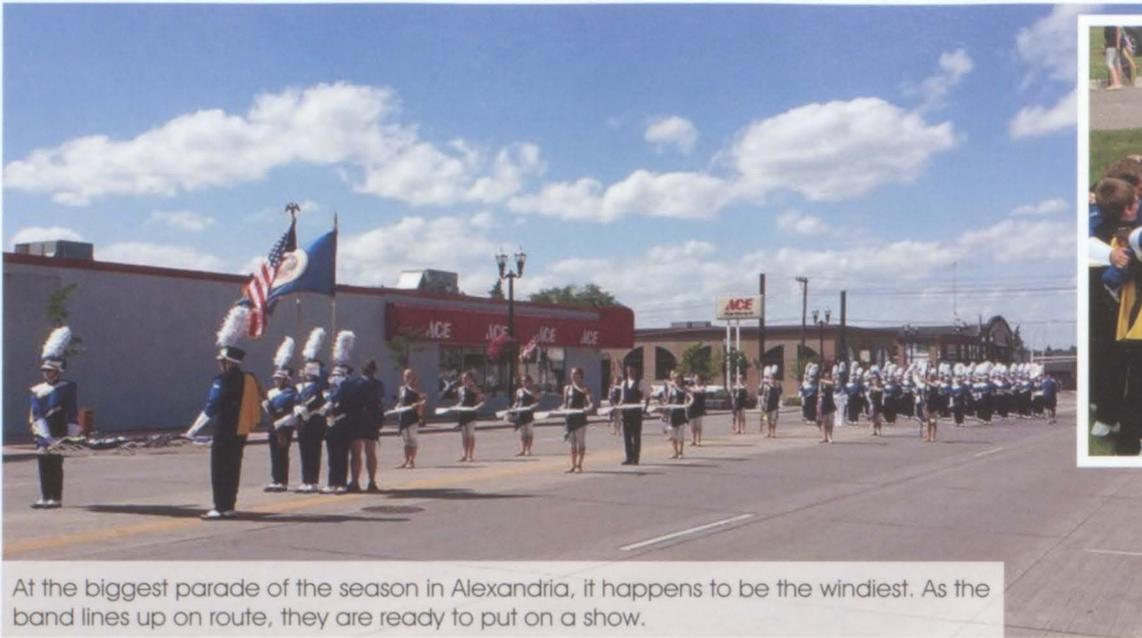

DREAM COME TRUE. Jack Mazurek ('18) finally got to meet his idol, Robin Roberts. "My favorite memory of NYC was meeting and hugging Robin on the GMA set. I couldn't contain my excitement."

MAKE A WISH. Serena Lange ('18) pins her piece of confetti with a wish written on it that was later dropped into Times Square on New Years Eve. Lange said, "It was very special to be able to make a wish for the new Amy's Breads. It was inspiring to see all of the other wishes/hopes people had for the new year."

TOURING NYC. Miah Graczyk ('18), (center) enjoys visiting the One World Observatory. Graczyk would advise underclassmen thinking of joining BPA: "Definitely do it. It is a big learning experience." The BPA students had the opportunity attend seminars at: Ernst and Young, Morgan Stanley, NYSE, Infor, and

At the biggest parade of the season in Alexandria, it happens to be the windiest. As the band lines up on route, they are ready to put on a show.

HYDRATE OR DIE-DRATE

Before the practices started out in the parking lot, the drum majors could not express enough on how much you need water through out the hot summer season. "As rehearsals are over five hours long outside in the sun for the entire time. Marching Band, just like any other sport or physical activity, is hard work and it is important to stay hydrated," said Abbie Keister ('17). No one wants to see someone faint from being dehydrated, especially at band camp. As a super senior in the trombone section, Merissa Stifer, coined the season's motto "hydrate or die-drate". No matter if it was before step off, during reviews, or announcements you could guarantee someone would say it. If the band's way of helping each other not die in the very hot season.

Drum major Abbie Keister ('17) directs the band as they march along judging. "I love directing the band. During the routine, I am focused on keeping the band together, but after the routine, when I am saluting the judges, I think about what we just did and I couldn't be any more proud of the band," said Keister ('17).

Leading the band in St. Cloud is honor guards section leader Michael Krause ('17). Krause said, "Being in the front, I could turn around to observe and watch our whole show. Most of the time it was beautiful."

During the song She is Always a Woman, the guard got the to switched equipment with one another. "The most fun times at color guard are playing with the equipment. Putting it in the show makes it ten times better," said Isabella Carpenter ('19).

MARK TIME MARK

The band participated in eleven parades in total from the Albertville Days and Knights parade to St. Michael City Days parade. The band had their ups and downs from the beginning to the end. From getting disqualified at Buffalo, to changes in the show, and performing at our best ability. Overall, some of the best memories happen during marching band, including fooling around and accomplishing being placed at awards.

Practices started in May, and each band member got a chance to start memorizing the music to the seasons theme of Mr. Bill. The theme included the four songs: Moving out, My Life, She's Always a Woman, and Piano Man all by the artist Billy Joel.

Performing in Alexandria, Drum line finishes up Mr. Bill. "Drum line is really fun, in marching band in general is a great experience. Being able to be with friends over the summer is great and fun doing marching band," said Benjamin Kremer ('19).

As the wind blows at 20 MPH, the honor guard struggles to hold up the flags, but luckily the color guard has their back.

YOUR SOUND

"It is a lot of fun and nice to sit back and not worry about homework and tests for the class."

-Carter Knaus ('19)

"Playing the clarinet is like learning a new language, it's difficult at times but really fun to learn. The best part about being in band is you feel like your part of a family, and every part matters," said Dakota Roeun ('18).

"Playing the tuba makes me feel like in the core of the band because there is not many tubas in any band. Also It's a great way to meet upper class-men."

-Lance Adyt ('20)

"The best thing about being in band is the family like atmosphere. We're all usually super close and most of us consider the music department to be one large family," said Stoppelman ('19).

GILBERT & SULLIVAN'S THE PIRATES OF PENZANCE

Set Sail with this classic comedy that boasts one of the most famous patter songs in musical theatre history. Gilbert and Sullivan's hilarious, hopeful farce follows young Fredric, an orphan who has mistakenly been apprenticed to an ineffectual but raucous band of pirates. He disavows the pirates' way of life and falls for the beautiful Mabel. Fredric's melodious tones win over the heart of Major General Stanley's songbird daughter, Mabel, but when the Pirate King discovers General Stanley has lied about being an orphan to keep the pirates from stealing all of his belongings and carrying off his bevy of beautiful daughters, an "ingenious paradox" may prevent the budding romance and lead to the death of "The very model of a modern Major-General."

THE ORPHAN BOY. Dylan Brown ('17) and Josh Kainz ('20) photographed in awe while listening to the Major General sing. Brown spoke about his senior year experience stating, "I just really enjoy helping students who may not have a niche in other activities and sports and accepting them into the theater family that will welcome anyone."

DECEIVE ME. Dominic Clemons ('17) and Kari Lenneman ('17) in the midst of a serious moment. Clemons commented, "I'll remember mostly all the small laughs (as well as the big ones) that made this my favorite musical experience. I will keep this memory forever and encourage anyone and everyone to do musical."

OH DASHED ALL. (Above) The pirates gather around as Josh Kainz ('20) grabs the different treasures from his bag. Lucas Greenwaldt ('18), one of the pirates, claimed, "The best part of musical is making friendships with people you might not normally talk to."

TARANTARA. (Left) Jonathan Haller ('19) shaking as he and the rest of the police hear the pirates coming. Haller states "My favorite part about musical was working with all the police and learning all our songs and choreography and bonding as a group. I'll remember our Saturday show the most because everything went wrong, but the show still went on."

MODERN MAJOR GENERAL. Ethan Bell ('17) performing the fastest song of the show Modern Major General. Bell commented on the cast in this year's musical stating, "I loved seeing many energetic people this year. Everyone worked very hard at making their role the best it could be."

CLOSE CALL. Maddie Peterson ('17) and Dominic Clemons ('17) pictured in an endearing moment. "It was a lot of practice outside of school and responsibility, but it paid off in the end," Peterson stated when asked about being a lead, "I'll remember most hard everyone worked to make the show happen."

BINGO. Allison Hunsley ('17) dishes out food at Dinner and Bingo night. Students who volunteered at this event got to play bingo at St. Michael City Hall. Hunsley commented, "We got to meet so many amazing people and share laughs with them while playing bingo. On top of having fun, I felt like I made a big difference in the community and it was extremely rewarding."

MISS SOCCER MINNESOTA

Makenzie Langdok ('17) of the varsity girls soccer team was awarded Miss Soccer Minnesota this year and is the first in the school to win this award. Langdok started playing soccer when she was four years old, she said, "The reason I started was because my parents put me in it, just because," but she stayed because the sport was fun and because of the friendships she had made. She started playing for varsity in seventh grade and loved to play the positions forward and outside middle. Langdok told us, "It's been a lot of work, ever since I can remember. The hardest part is finding ways to keep improving and staying motivated to be the best you can." She is very passionate about soccer, "I just love the game," she said, "and the people I played with helped make it so much more fun and just so rewarding. You're with a team and you guys do well and you put in all that work at it pays off in the end." It's easy to see how Langdok really did deserve to win this amazing award. She later commented, "It was kind of a surprise to me. I wasn't necessarily expecting it. It was awesome because my teammates helped to get me where I was; where I am today. It was just so awesome to see all the hard work pay off."

BREAKING RECORDS

Senior RaeAnnah Johnson has had a historic basketball career as a Knight. When Johnson was a 7th grader, she was moved up to high school basketball. A year later, she was pulled up to Varsity. Not only did the girls team go to State, but Johnson played for her first time at the Target Center. This became a recurring event, as she has gone to State every year since then.

"Experiencing the state tournament as an 8th grader has to be the highlight of my basketball career. Running out onto the court with the bright lighting, the noise of the crowd in the background, it's a feeling I'll never forget." In Johnson's junior year, she reached her 1,000th point. During her senior season, she broke the school's scoring record of 1,622 points. She also tied the school's 3-point record by scoring eight in a single game. Johnson is proud to announce she will be attending Iowa State University to play D1 basketball. She was also a Miss Minnesota candidate for the 2016-17 season.

NEXT LEVEL

POST UP. Vanessa Alexander ('20) posts up her opponent hoping to get an inside look. Alexander is a returning varsity player as she was playing up as an 8th grader.

NEW BEGINNINGS. Being a transfer from Becker, Mackenzie Kramer ('20) has had a huge impact on the varsity team. "The girls on the team have been so welcoming. GBB is such an honor to be a part of." Kramer has had major contributions to the girls' success including being a starter.

HARD IN THE PAINT. Riley Carlson ('18) shoots a jumper in the lane. Carlson has stepped up a lot this season since senior Lizzy Heil has been injured including starting majority of the games.

DRIVE. Jadyn Hanson ('19) drives past her defender for an easy lay up.

DETERMINATION. Addie Johnson ('17) looks for an open pass in her senior night game against Princeton.

MAJOR COMEBACK. Lizzy Heil ('17) played her first game back since her back injury. She was a major contributor in the girls winning over Maple Grove.

AND ONE. Whitney Dold ('18) goes up strong for a lay up in the semi-final section game against the Spuds of Moorhead. Not only did she make the lay up, but she got fouled and made her free throw as well. "We had great fan support throughout the season, but this game in particular there was a large turnout of students cheering us on."

NEW HEIGHTS. Anna Tschida ('19) pushes her limits during her beam routine. Tschida's favorite event is vault: "It is my best event and I get a lot of energy and feel powerful when I'm doing it." Tschida is best known as "Ginge" by her teammates.

I GOT THIS. Sophi Gagnon ('17), stands ready to perform her floor routine with her teams support right beside her. "I'm so grateful to have been apart of this team for the last 4 years. I'm so proud of how far we've come," stated Gagnon.

ONE GOAL. Max Helgestad ('17) considers this year's Varsity team to be: "The most talented team STMA has seen...due to the hard work and dedication put into practice every day."

SHARP SKATING. Jake Benson ('18) demonstrates his agility while trying to play offense against North Branch. Benson said, "To get pumped up before games he relied on his teammates and music."

HUGE WIN. Kyle Hayden ('17) throws his hands into the air to celebrate a huge come back against St. Cloud Tech. Hayden commented, "It was amazing to win at home in front of all of the dedicated fans that have showed major support for us throughout the year."

FOCUS. Taylor Connolly ('18) focuses on the puck and anticipates the shooter. Connolly played a major role in helping the team win 10 games this season.

CAPTAIN. Riverhawks captain, Paige Jensen ('17), plays solid defense. Jensen received an All Conference award this season.

SHARP SHOOTER. Mackenzie Bourgerie ('20) breaks free from the Chisago Lakes defense and scores helping the Knights beat Chisago Lake 4-1.

SPEED SKATER. Molly Young ('18) shows off her skating agility in the game against Chisago Lakes. Young said, "My favorite thing about this season was being around my teammates each day and I looked forward going to practice. We also got closer this year. My teammates motivate me to play my best every game."

SWIMMING TO WIN. (Pictured left to right) Max Lezer, Will Gallagher, and Cole Meyer hold the Knight's helmet, in representation of the new captains for this season. The STMA boy's placed 10th as a team in state, representing STMA by holding the Knight's helmet.

RACING TO VICTORY. (Far right) Gabe Dalluge placed 5th, breaking a new school record, with the team of Will Gallagher, Ryan Everly, and Max Lezer in the 200 freestyle relay.

TESTING THE WATERS. Will Gallagher ('17) finished his 100 freestyle in 17th place and his 50 freestyle in 16th in state sections.

SHOWING YOUR WINGS.

Michael Benusa ('19) swam the 100 butterfly this season. "Butterfly is my favorite because it is the muscle of the swim world."

LIFETIME BEST. Drew Roberts ('17) ended his high school swimming career with a time of 1.01.18 in the 100 breaststroke in state sections.

MEDALED TOP 8. Max Lezer ('17) took 8th in his 200 and 500 freestyle in state sections. Lezer stated, "I'm thankful for the opportunity to have been on and lead the team as a captain and experience all the ups and downs with the people who're essentially a second family. It's been amazing and I wouldn't change anything about it."

LIFE IN THE FAST LANE

TOP CONTENDER. Kam Loven ('18) took first in the 100 breaststroke in the last conference meet of the season.

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT. Jackson Leigh ('17) started his first year on the diving team, and placed 16th in his section. Leigh stated, "I had a ton of fun with all my new swimming and diving buddies."

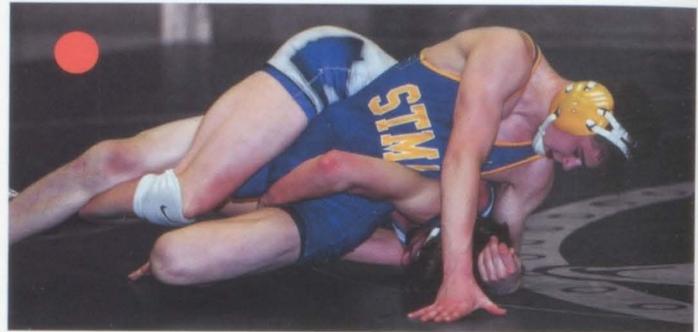

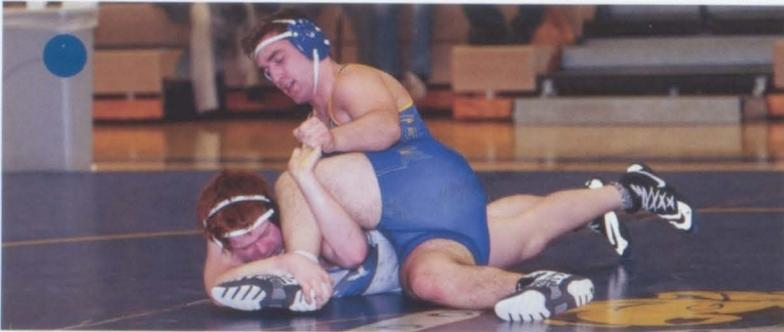

JUST KEEP SWIMMING. Cole Herman ('18) swims the 100 breast stroke. He placed 9th at conference. Herman has vertigo and meets that challenge with: "A lot of support from the team. I know I just need to gut through it. I rely on my teammates encouragement."

HUSTLE & TUSTLE. Evan Foster ('17) is a three time state place winner and takes third place this year for his last year wrestling as a part of the STMA wrestling team.

ON TOP. Kyle Elkie ('18) pins and wins the match against his opponent. "It takes incredible focus to be at the top of your mental and physical ability. Nothing compares to how hard we train in the room," explained Elkie.

PIN AND WIN

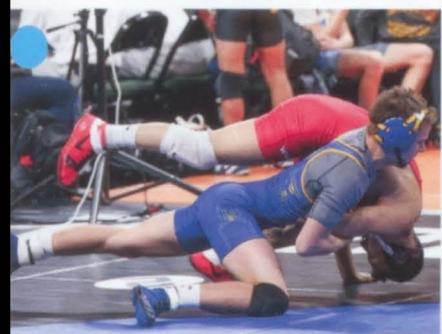

EVERY MOVE MATTERS

The STMA Wrestling team placed 3rd in this year's State Tournament with two state champions to end the season. One of them being Patrick McKee ('18) winning his state final's match two years in a row. "Winning my state final's match was amazing. One of the best feelings in the world knowing that all the early morning practices, out of season training, and all the other hard work paid off. After I pinned my opponent in the finals, it felt like a weight lifted off my shoulders because I knew that I had accomplished what I set out to achieve," explained McKee.

"Work hard, learn to love the sport, and trust the process."
- Patrick McKee

VICTORIOUS. Jake Allar ('17) shares his thoughts on his last year wrestling for STMA and gives advice to future wrestlers. Allar is a second year state champion. "Winning my state title felt rewarding because that win was also my 250th career win making me the 6th all time winning wrestler in MN. To the youngest wrestlers out there, the key to winning a match [is to] get past your doubts and believe in yourself."

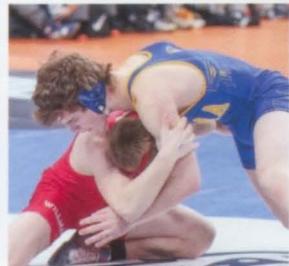

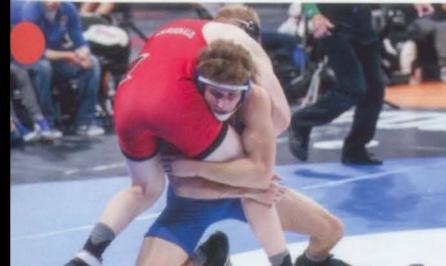

DEDICATION. Zach Dehmer ('17) takes down his opponent in the state tournament. Dehmer gives advice to the wrestlers in the future. "Enjoy it while it lasts! Four years of high school wrestling goes by faster than you think. Cherish the moment."

PINNING & WINNING. During one of the last matches of the state tournament as a team, Max Jensen ('17) was losing with roughly 10 seconds left of his match. If Jensen lost this match, the team would've ended up losing the whole dual. In those last 10 seconds, Jensen pinned his opponent and ended up helping the team by placing third in the state tournament.

DETERMINATION. Nolan Schmitz ('18) is determined to take down his opponent at the state tournament. With his determined mind, Schmitz takes the win.

DOWN FOR THE KILL. Wyatt Bice ('17) takes down his opponent and wins his match in the state tournament for his last high school wrestling career.

RIGHT UP MY ALLEY. Grace Bromley ('18) at her first practice of the season. Bromley said, "[She enjoys] practicing with my family and practicing all year."

THAT'S HOW I ROLL. Jane Schmitz gives a 'thumbs up' for her love of the sport.

SPARE ME! Brandon Heaton said, "It's fun to bowl with my friends. We practice hard and bring home the gold!"

The ROLLING KNIGHTS

BOWLING BUDDIES. Derek Vetsch (') and Kory Lundgren ('19) prepare for the new season at their first practice of the year. Lundgren said, "Bowling is fun! Every year I try to break my high score."

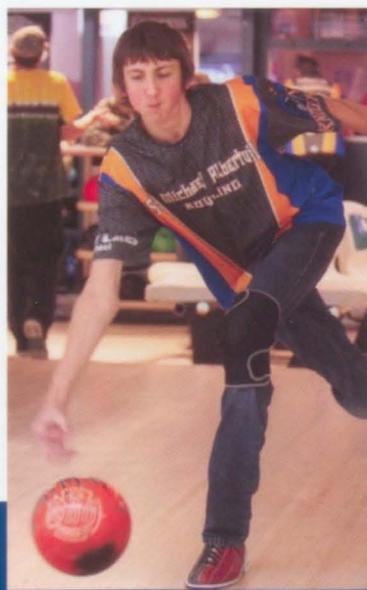

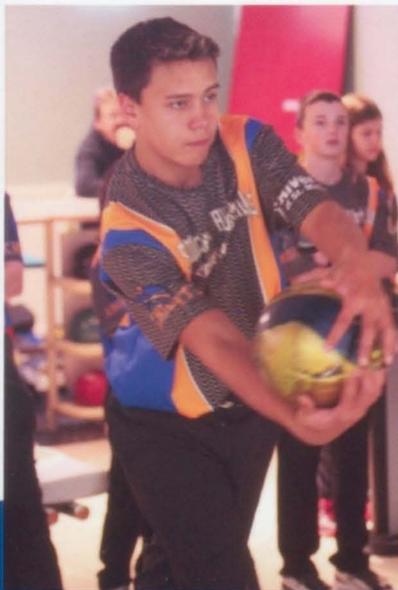

TEAMWORK. The girls on the team smile for a photo at their first practice.

KNOCK EM DOWN. Cody Vetch said, "Bowling is fun because of my friends, I'm the best at bowling!"

SHATTERING VICTORY

STRIKE 1. Ethan Dinh ('19) winds up for his opening frame of the game.

STRIKE 2. Zach McDaniel ('19) displays fantastic form as he releases the ball resulting in a strike. He had 55 strikes this season.

STRIKE 3. Zander Kimlinger ('18), who is ranked fourth on the team,

FOCUS ON IT
Carlynne Folkestad ('17) explained why trapshooting is so important to her: "Trapshooting has given me a great opportunity to increase my mental and physical skills."

THE TRAP HOUSE. Senior trap shooters (above) take on their last year on the team. Josh Tutland ('17) shared his final thoughts on being apart of this team: "Trapshooting was one of the highlights of my high school career. Although it'll be sad to leave the team, I know they won't let our reputation down in the coming years."

ONE TEAM, ONE FIGHT. Captain Ryan Copeland ('18) defends the Knights side. With this being his last year of playing, Copeland explains his excitement for the season, "I am really excited for the season and all it has to offer. We have a great work ethic on and off the field and I'm really looking forward to seeing what the boys can do this year."

PASS IT. Cole Lehmann ('18) passes the ball to a fellow teammate. Lehmann's favorite part of lacrosse is the time spent with his teammates. "Being with my teammates who are also my friends motivates me to play my best every game," he stated.

SUPPORT ON THE SIDELINES.

The fellow Knights watch intently on the sidelines as they cheer on their teammates.

LAX TO THE MAX. Alex Aylor ('19) knocks into his opponent after making a pass at the home game against Tartan Senior.

FAST AND FURIOUS. Pierce Bedell ('18) checks an opposing team member as he advances towards the goal. Bedell commented on his love for the sport: "I play lacrosse because it's a great way for me to better myself both physically and mentally."

OUTPLAY, OUTWORK, OUTLAST. Sabel Peterson ('17) stated, "Lacrosse has given me a second home/family and taught me to put aside my personal goals to work with others towards a common goal."

ATTITUDE IS EVERYTHING. Brooke Johnson (18') passed the ball to a fellow player during an intense game at Chanhassen.

ONE TEAM, ONE FIGHT. Paige Jensen ('17) said, "My favorite memory from this season is getting to hangout with the team in Duluth."

FAST AND FURIOUS. Melanie Vandusen ('17) explained, "The hardest part about lacrosse is always keeping good sportsmanship and we overcome it by encouraging each other to remain positive on and off the field."

TEAMWORK MAKES THE DREAM WORK

REACHING FOR VICTORY.
Kaia Churchill (19') played center position this season. Her biggest accomplishment was playing on Varsity this year and scoring goals with the help of her team.

NO PAIN NO GAIN. Jon Williams ('17) pushes through the pain and finishes the last hurdle.

OVERCOME THE HURDLES. Nathan Conrad ('18) leaps over the hurdles in competition with the Bison.

DETERMINATION. Ethan Peal ('19) races to the finish line leading in first place.

JUMP SQUAD. Xavier Thurman ('18) soars into the air during his triple jump. He broke the school record of 43 feet. Thurman said, "You get what you give."

PERFECT HAND OFF. Luke Peterson ('19) hands off to Brennen Baldwin ('17) during the 4X800 relay.

UP AND OVER. Nicholas Eicher ('19) pole vaults impressively high. Eicher is just a freshman and is on the varsity team due to his skills in pole vaulting.

Start Strong, Finish Stronger.

Thomas Pelant ('17), Mitchell Kartes ('18), and Emmanuel Akundu ('17) gave a few words about their favorite part about Track and Field.

Pelant said, "My favorite part of track is laughing with friend and doing repeats." Pelant competes in the 110 and 300 hurdles. Kartes said, "The best part about track is the adrenaline rush I get." Kartes' events were the 100, 200, 4X100 relay, and long jump. Akundu said, "My favorite part is witnessing people get excited for others before and after their events." Akundu throws both discus and shot put.

GO THE DISTANCE. A hoard of Knights long distance runners charge ahead of the rest of the field in the one-mile event at the Triangular meet hosted by Rogers. Megan Kucera ('17) commented on the long distance team saying, "The girls on this team are very close and are the most talented team she has been a part of in her four years of being a long distance runner."

PUSH TO THE FINISH. Sophia Weston ('17) finishes the 100 meter sprint. As a senior this year, Weston is taking the season in stride and leaving every bit of training and effort on the track. When asked what her goal is for the season? Weston replied, "I want to continue to improve, make it to state, and place well in the events there."

GRAB AND GO. Mia Salas ('19) hands off the baton to Erin Hamilton ('21) in the 4x800 relay. When asked what is the most challenging and rewarding part of running in a relay team? Salas replied, "Knowing that your teammates are relying on your performance, and trying to stay mentally tough through the race even when things are not going your way is the most challenging part." she went on to say "When you see what staying mentally strong can do to help the team accomplish their goals, that is the most rewarding part."

Look like a beauty,
Train like a beast.

RUN FAST, JUMP HIGH. Paige Joslyn ('17) leads the pack of competitors through the hurdle section. Her favorite part of track is the way that each person on the track team works hard each day, so that when meet day comes they can see how every small victory added up to a bigger one. "We are all just one happy track family," she stated.

ALL OUT. Katelyn Tschida ('18) gives 110% in the 100 meter dash as she barrels towards the finish line. She finished second to teammate Anna Keefer.

BLAST OFF. Anna Keefer ('17) charges down the approach for the long jump at the Howard Wood Dakota Relays in Sioux Falls, SD.

STRONG AND STEADY. Paige Mcaloon ('20) Runs anchor in the 4x800 relay. The anchor's job is to keep or advance position for the team in the last leg of the race.

A SPECIAL THANK YOU!

To Mr. Tim Bykowski and Mr. Bill Halldin for providing the yearbook with such great photographs. We would also like to thank the students and parents who also submitted their photos to the yearbook this year.

Thank you to the teachers, local businesses, and individuals who sponsored specific yearbook pages.
