

Eden Central School District Newsletter

Volume 51, Issue 4

February 2014

From the Superintendent

Dear Eden Families,

Welcome to 2014! I am sure it will be a long time before we forget the way January greeted us- with fierce storms, brutal temperatures and six more snow days! As of today we have used eight snow days. If you are interested in learning more about snow days, check out my blog titled What about those snow days?

As we head into the second half of our school year, it is important for me to thank our school board members, and especially our school board president Michael Byrnes, for everything each of them has done this year for Eden CSD. It seems that on a daily basis, school board members across New York State are challenged to focus on diminishing finances, declining enrollments and controversial educational initiatives. While our Board of Education has certainly kept this in the forefront of their responsibilities, they have also been quite visible and involved in what our students at Eden CSD are accomplishing. It is wonderful to look around at a concert, an athletic event, a fundraiser or on an ordinary school day and see a Board member cheering on our students and staff. Recently, a few of our Board members toured all three buildings and had the opportunity to watch teaching and learning take place. Nothing is better than watching a student learn. We are fortunate to have such a dedicated and capable Board of Education.

As we move through the rest of this school year, our district has some interesting challenges to address related to facility changes and improvements. Focus committees will be established to help in the preparation of a 3-year facility plan. I encourage you, as parents and community members, to get involved in this process. Sharing your opinion will be one of the most important contributions you can offer our school district.

Stay warm. Keep your fingers and toes crossed for NO MORE SNOW DAYS.

Sincerely,

Sandra Anzalone

AREA ALL STATE MUSICIANS

By Ashly Martella

Eden Music Students Perform At NYSSMA Zone 1 Area All-State.

During the first and fourth weekends in November, select students from Eden took part in the NYSSMA Zone One Area All-State Festival held at Akron High School and SUNY Fredonia respectively. Students earned their spots in these ensembles by auditioning on a solo in April, May or June of last year. In September, Mrs. Tylock and Mrs. Martella submitted their scores, along with a recommendation to the selection committee. Students with the highest scores were then selected to participate in the honor's ensembles. This festival pulls students from over 54 districts to participate. It is an honor to be part of this festival, and selected students rehearse rigorously on Friday night and Saturday morning in preparation for their concert on Saturday afternoon. Congratulations to all of the students involved!

Senior High Area All-State Participants: Front: Zachary Gilbride (chorus), Claire

Cappellino (chorus), Kaitlin Schnaufer (chorus), Emily Hale (chorus) Back: Sarah Filkorn (orchestra), Laura Harms (orchestra) and Lauren Henning (chorus).

THE WEDDING SINGER

By Jennifer Tylock

The Eden Jr./Sr. High School is proud to be presenting “The Wedding Singer” as their 2014 musical performance. Shows will be Thursday, March 6th at 7:00 pm, Friday, March 7th at 7:30 pm, Saturday, March 8th at 7:30 pm, and Sunday, March 9th at 2:00 pm in the High School auditorium. The high school edited version of “The Wedding Singer”, which makes the show more appropriate for younger audiences than the Broadway version will be performed. Tickets can be purchased online at Showtix4U.com or through the link on the district website. There will be tickets sold in the High School auditorium lobby and through students in February at a later announced date and time. Watch the district homepage for more information.

“The Wedding Singer” is a fun, fast paced, and endearing show. It follows Robbie Hart (played by Andrew Pszonak) and Julia Sullivan (played by Kassandra Funch) as they realize they are both in relationships with the wrong people and fall in love with each other. Other lead characters are Holly (played by Katie Schnauffer), who is Julia's best friend, Glenn (played by Kyle Schwertfager), who is Julia's fiancé, Linda (played by Claire Cappellino), who is Robbie's evil fiancée who leaves him at the altar, Sammy (played by Jon Bley), who is Robbie's best friend, George (played by Zach Gilbride), the amazing keyboard player, and Rosie (played by Allison Winiecki), who is Robbie's rapping grandmother.

Come join us for an evening of fun, singing, and dancing!

EDEN MUSIC TEACHER HONORED

Annette Bahun was recently honored for 25 years of dedicated service as a flutist to the American Legion Band of the Tonawandas, Post 264. The award-winning band was formed in 1929 by World War I veterans and Post 264 members. It currently draws its 90 plus volunteer membership from a cross-section of Western New Yorkers with diverse occupations. The band rehearses and performs year-round with up to 30 performances annually. Annette is in her 26th year of teaching, with 21 of those years as an instrumental music teacher at Eden Elementary.

AREA ARTIST INSPIRES STUDENTS

By Lynn Morgan

Niagara County artist, George Banagis, appeared as a fall semester guest artist in the Junior/Senior High School art studio. Mr. Banagis inspired students currently taking Junior High Art, Photography, and Drawing and Painting.

While also a painter, Mr. Banagis is primarily a pen and ink artist. In the Junior High Art and Drawing and Painting classes, he shared his techniques using hatching, cross-hatching, scribbling, and stippling to create value. The students were excited to learn from a real working artist. The Junior High students were at the end of a drawing unit in which they learned techniques to create value-using graphite. Mr. Banagis shared prints of his original work showing his pen and ink technique, and gave advice on how to draw quickly and roughly in sketchbooks to generate and refine ideas and work through composition issues. He also showed how to duplicate and refine images using tracing paper, and then ink the drawings. The art students had their own drawings prepared, and inked them in class, getting feedback from Mr. Banagis.

For the High School students, not only did Mr. Banagis discuss his techniques and show his artwork, but he shared his personal experiences pertaining to the evolution of his career path, including the positive influence his US Navy service had on his life and work. He also discussed his experiences showing and marketing his work since his retirement from the work force and new career as an artist that works at home. His work can be seen on gbpenandink.com.

Happy Valentine's Day!

THE ART OF TIBET

Amy McConeghy-Witman

Fifth grade art students in Mrs. Witman's art class, have been learning about the Tibetan art form known as mandalas.

This project incorporated the math concept of radial symmetry, as well as the elements and principles of Art. Students created these circular designs by transferring their image around their circle, then colored them using sand!

GINGERBREAD MAN READER'S THEATRE

By Amy Steger

On Friday, December 27th, the students in Mrs. Theophilus' and Mrs. Steger's fifth grade class worked together with a family member to make a gingerbread house! The students performed "The Gingerbread Man" Reader's Theatre before sitting down to decorate.

It was a great event to enhance the relationship between home and school!

BENJAMIN WRAZEN EARNS ALL STAR STATUS

By David Hassett

Twelfth grader, Benjamin Wrazen, the son of Russell and Debbie Wrazen, has been named the recipient of the 2014 "Community All Star" award sponsored by Business First & Independent Health.

According to the defined Award criteria, the recipient must be of "good character, have made a difference in the community, embrace diversity, and be friendly and open to all." There is no member of the Senior class better described by that definition than Ben. He has worked tirelessly in the Eden community to educationally share his passion related to wildlife, preservation and conservation. As a Junior, he presented to Mrs. King's second grade class at the GLP, as well as, at various High School science classes, sharing knowledge about bear skulls, white-tailed deer antlers and the habits of beavers. Throughout his education in Eden Central Schools, Ben has promoted kindness, tolerance and understanding through both his words and actions.

A friend to all in our school and community, Ben will attend Paul Smith's College next year (where he has already received a significant financial scholarship) to major in Environmental Science.

(Ben discusses the skull of a black bear with Sophomores in a Living Environment class last year.)

GRADUATE NEWS

By David Hassett

Shawn Patterson, son of Amy Patterson Smith, was named to the Deans List at Tufts University in Boston, where he is a Freshman. To qualify for the Dean's List, Shawn needed a grade point average above 3.5 for his first semester classes, which was no easy task if you consider that his fall schedule was comprised of the following courses: Arabic, Introduction to Islam, Writing Survey and Advanced German. Congratulations, Shawn (and Amy)!

Karen Rizzone, the daughter of Eden Jr./Sr. High School teacher's aide Judy Rizzone, earned a perfect 4.0 grade point average after her first semester as a Freshman at Morrisville State College. Karen has been named to the President's List at Morrisville, where she is pursuing a degree in Equine Science and Management. Congratulations, Karen!"

These Eden Elementary School students, who are in REACH, Tier I for gifted students, handled carvings, money, basketwork, and dresses for girls, along with many photos as background information about daily life in

Dear ECSD Staff and Students,

On behalf of myself, my family and my brother, U.S. Army 1st. Lt. John Levulis, I would like to thank everyone involved in sending the heartfelt and helpful care packages to my brother's platoon in Afghanistan. As an Eden graduate '08, I know John is the man and leader he is today because of the education and experiences he enjoyed while growing up in Eden. For that, I say thank you. John holds Eden in a special place within his heart and it's very humbling for our community to continue to support him, and extend that support to the other members of his platoon, even after moving away from the place he calls 'The Garden.' John has always been proud to have our community serve in his growth and now he is more than honored to return that service. In that sense, once a Raider, always a Raider. Thank you for continuing the Tradition of Excellence at Eden. Embrace, Educate, Empower.

Sincerely,

Jim Levulis

On Friday, May 16th, Eden Central School administrators, faculty, staff and students will participate in the fifth annual district-wide community service program. Each of the schools in the District will sponsor an activity or several activities and events in an effort to support our community.

It is particularly important for secondary students wishing to attend college to get involved with community service projects. More and more colleges look at community service hours when considering admission. We also know this is a great way to teach children of all ages that they can make a difference.

This program was extremely successful in previous years. We would like to see it expand even more. Your input is very valuable. Please submit your ideas on what we can do to provide assistance to the Eden community, while helping students to realize the importance of being a vital part of it. If you have suggestions, please write them in the box below and mail them as soon as possible to:

DELAY OF SCHOOL

NYS Attendance Regulations allow districts a "delayed start" to the school day. A delayed start of 1-2 hours, in some cases, would allow a storm to pass over before students are picked up in the morning. A perfect example of this type of storm was Monday, January 26th. By 9 am, it was a beautiful day and safe to travel.

In an effort to get our students to school, Eden CSD will begin utilizing a delayed start of 1-2 hours, if appropriate to the circumstances. Since Eden CSD has not utilized this option in the past, we wanted to let you know.
