Loss of Class Time

The District shall not remove a student from a regularly scheduled class for tutoring or test preparation for more than ten percent of the school days on which the class is offered without a parent's written consent.

Interruptions

The District shall limit nonacademic activities that interrupt and distract from the academic process and shall enforce the following restrictions:

1. Announcements, other than emergency announcements, shall be made over the public address system only once during the school day.
2. Selling or solicitation shall not be permitted during class time. [For fundraising activities, see FJ]
3. Urgent messages will be delivered at the beginning or end of a class period, if possible.
4. Flowers and gifts will not be delivered to students during the school day.

Announcements

Announcements, other than emergency announcements will be made over the public address system only once per day and will be scheduled to avoid interference with instructional time.

Visitors

Only visitors scheduled or approved by administration will be allowed to visit a classroom during instructional time. All visitors must check-in at the school office. The principal may deny or reschedule any visit that would cause a disruption.
