Good morning Kristina,

In reviewing the new bid, there is a pricing error on the 30ct Hams 959-3338-0. It reads $4.08 per tray and should read $7.50 per tray. The unit cost per bun @ .25 is correct. The price of .25 x 30ct = 7.50.

Can this pricing error be corrected before we start the new school year? Please read the below information from Tricia.

Thank you,

I'm so sorry, it looks like I picked up the hot dog price for the hams. How should this be handled? Do you have a contact you can call and explain?

Tricia, in reviewing the bid pricing our 30ct buns are at $4.08 per tray, as per unit pricing on bid at .25 X 30ct = 7.50 per tray, Is this a formula error that shows the cost per tray at $4.08?

Thank you
