New Login Procedure for the IDW

For those still having difficulty logging on to the Instructional Data Warehouse (IDW) website, please see below.

Instead of the old familiar login screen, logging on to our URL (idw.nasboces.org) will bring you to this login screen to the left.

You can read the onscreen directions or simply click on this link to get to the screen below.

Upcoming IDW Events

IDW Trainings:

To book a training, please call Stephanie Witt 516-608-6623

Be sure to choose "Use another account" to achieve the Sign-in page.

When this screen appears, enter your old user name (typically your first initial and last name) followed by nb-dw.org as shown here.

Click "Next" and enter your regular password from the old login screen. You will now have access to the IDW.

For further help, you can contact your district account manger.
