

- » Exceptions for special activities or health considerations may be preapproved by the administrators. The school administration retains the final discretion to determine that the garment or accessory meets the secondary dress code. Some exceptions may be made for uniforms, formal attire, and/or spirit days
- » Students who participate in extracurricular activities, including athletics, band, choir, etc. are subject to the standards of dress and defined by the sponsors of such activities

DRESS CODE CONSEQUENCES

Students who are deemed to be in violation of the dress code will be removed from the classroom and provided one opportunity to comply (change, remove item, call parent). All violations will be documented and are subject to disciplinary action.

1st Infraction: If suitable clothing is not available through the school, a parent/guardian will be contacted to supply needed clothing so the student can continue with their academic day.

2nd Subsequent Violation: Students will be subject to site based disciplinary action, which may include parent pick up

