Dr. Maria Rianna, Superintendent of Schools, mentioned to visit our website and check the updated information on the construction page where each of the projects are listed as well as their status. A letter from the Superintendent of Schools has also been uploaded to the site as well with project updates. She stated that if anyone has any questions to call or email central office.

1. Student Recognition

Dr. Rianna continued her update in recognizing our students that enter the Alternative Twilight Program to receive a high school equivalency diploma. She explained that the students usually can't attend school on a regular day because of responsibilities at home, or work or a need for a different learning environment. Regardless of what is chosen they are dedicated in moving forward in their education and careers. Dr. Rianna acknowledged the students that attended the meeting and presented them with a certificate of recognition for their accomplishments and also had a picture taken of them.

Questions from the Board of Education were addressed.

Dr. Maria Rianna acknowledged the retirement of our Assistant Superintendent for Business, Victoria Galante. She stated that twelve years ago when she came into Glen Cove, she did so without a business official. She was fortunate to bring on Ms. Galante who has been significantly instrumental in bringing this district forward financially by supporting instruction, personnel as well as the community and facilities. Although Victoria is leaving on January 3rd, the work that she has done will bring success to this district for years to come.

Ms. Victoria Galante responded by thanking the current Board of Education as well as past boards and administrators over the years that she's been with the district. She continued by also thanking the community of Glen Cove for the support mentioning that at times she understood it wasn't easy especially because it involves money. Ms. Galante is truly honored to have been in Glen Cove for these twelve years as well as proud for this district at what it has accomplished during that time. She concluded with stating that she will not forget Glen Cove.

Vice-President Angela Raimo thanked Victoria as well especially for all the questions that the Board of Education has thrown at her especially around budget time. The Board of Education appreciates all of Ms. Galante's hard work.
