

Capital Assets 	All items $2,500 and greater (object 73x's) except for CPUs, laptops, flat monitors, laser printers, and personal hand held computers (object 748). Tagged with sequentially numbered red lined tags from 20000000-59999999. Maintained in the Fixed Asset system on the AS400.
Serialized Equipment   651: Appliances 652: Audiovisual 653: Technology Related Equipment 654: Furniture and Fixtures 655: Instruments 656: Machinery 657: Other Equipment 	Items with serial numbers less than $2,500 (object 651-653, 655-657) that are considered to be high risk assets; such as TVs, vcrs, microwaves, digital cameras, boom boxes, CRT monitors, desk jet printers, projectors, all instruments under $2,500, etc. Tagged with sequentially numbered green lined tags from 60000000-69999999. Maintained in a Microsoft Access or Sequel database by individual asset.
Inventory Only 	Items without serial numbers less than $2,500, mainly used for furniture and fixture type assets (object code 654). Tagged with sequentially numbered blue lined tags from 80000000-99999999. Maintained in a Microsoft Access or Sequel database by total quantities only by type, i.e. desks, chairs, tables, filing cabinets, bookcases, etc.

* Object 747 will no longer be used