Concerns regarding entering buildings before school and during lunch. Thankfulness to the Board for the new carpet in the building they are employed, as it excited the students and staff, feeling very safe at the school because of all the safety processes in place. The schools do a great job with safety, and the Board's job is to be a head coach, whereas sitting in the audience is like an assistant coach, and the public does not always know all of the processes in the schools.
