RISE (Reading Inspires Student Excellence) is a dedicated period for enhancing students' reading and writing skills to promote academic excellence. SOAR is a period used for students to receive additional assistance from teachers, attend club meetings or simply complete homework or study independently.

Early Dismissals

Any student leaving early will require a note or phone call from the parent. Upon picking up the child, a parent will need to show their drivers license to the office personnel. Student will scan out of the building using a QR code.

Late Arrivals

Students can enter the buildings without a parent. They will scan a QR code upon arrival and head to their class.

Medical and Dental Appointments

All absences for medical and dental appointments will require written verification from the doctor or dentist for the absence to be medically excused.

Reporting Absences

A parent may either call the 24-hour Fall Creek attendance line at 317-594-4398 preferably by 9:00a or email our attendance secretary, Sarah Rohrer (srohrer@hse.k12.in.us) to report an absence.
