GARFIELD

Principal's Report for June 2022

Our 8th grade students went on their annual Silverwood trip on Monday, June 6th. Special thanks to Matt Zook, Stevie Pfaff, and Andree Marcus Rader for supervising.

8th Grade Moving On was held in the gym on Thursday, June 9th at 7:00 PM. Twenty-Five 8th grade students will be moving to the High School next year. Special thanks to Dan Kallaher and his yearbook/video class for their work on the 8th grade video. The ceremony was well attended and provided a great venue to celebrate our 8th grade class and their accomplishments in Middle School.

Fifth grade student Emmalyn Olson was presented with the Elementary Halpin Award. The Halpin Award is given each year at the elementary and middle school level for outstanding achievement in the areas of Math and Science. The Middle School winner was Kady Grindle.

WAC 181-82-110

Assignment of classroom teachers within districts.

In addition to holding teaching permits or certificates as required by WAC 180-16-220(2), the assignment of classroom teachers in the basic program of education shall comply with the following:

- (1) Classroom teachers with standard or unendorsed continuing teacher certificates may be assigned to subject areas for which certification is required.
- (2) Classroom teachers with initial, residency, endorsed continuing, or professional teacher certificates are best assigned to the courses with course codes that, according to the table published by the professional educator standards board, match with an endorsement on their respective certificates or permits.
- (3) If a teacher is assigned to provide special education, then the district must also comply with chapter 392-172A WAC.
- (4) The endorsement course code table may be changed by the PESB.
